TRUSTEES ACCEPT RESIGNATION OF COACH GARDNER WILL CAMPAIGN FOR $150,000 MORE ENDOWMENT

Semester Of Next School Year—To Study In England—
Teach Will Leave First Of September—Pastor
Of Church In Indiana

CREATE TWO COMMITTEES

Harnly Says That Trustees Show
More Interest Than In Former Years

Mon., Feb. 3.—The trustees of McPherson college accepted the resignation of two of the instructors, granted a leave of absence to another, decided to start an endowment campaign and created two new committees during their business session today.

The resignation of Coach George Gardner was accepted by the trustees. Coach Gardner came to McPherson in 1925 from Southwestern college where he had gained state and national recognition in basketball. In the last two years Gardner has produced two Kansas conference basketball championship teams and both years his team reached the quarter finals in the national tournament at Kansas City. His eagerness has not only secured berths on the Kansas selections but have gained honorable mention and positions on All-American teams. As yet Gardner has not made any definite plans for next year. Roy B. Teach, field secretary, presented his resignation to the board of trustees and it was accepted. The resignation becomes effective September 1, 1930. Professor Teach will return as pastor to the church he left when he came to McPherson. He will be pastor of the Loon Creek church near Huntington, Indiana.

By a vote of the trustees it authorized a campaign to increase the en-

TEN MAKE THE FIRST SEMESTER HONOR ROLL

Fri., Feb. 7.—From the registrar office comes the following honor roll for the first semester. It will be noted that the semester's honor list is over twice what it was at mid-semester. Mildred Swenson, senior, secured the highest number of points with 51 to her credit. Miss Swenson has seventeen hours of A work. Hoyt Strickler was the only man to make the honor roll. The list is as follows: Mildred Swenson 51, Ethel Jamison 45, Irene Steinsberg 43, Bernice McClellan 42, Ethel Shery 41, Genevieve Crist 41, Helen Flory 40, Grace Heckman 40, Hoyt Strickler 40, and Ethel Meyer 40.

Those students who secured between 35 and 40 honor points deserve honorable mention. Ruth Turner 39, Ralph Keedy 39, Evelyn Fields 39, Ruth Blickenstaff 39, J. Emory Metzger 39, Gladys Beyer 38, Harold Melchert 38, Vernon Rhoades, 38, Lawrence Turner 37, Vera Flora 36, Harriet Hopkins 36, Helen Hudson 36, Una Morine 36, and Lucille Crabb 35.

BERKEBILE ELECTED TREASURER OF CLASS

Wed., Feb. 5.—The freshman class met in the chapel this afternoon for a short business session. John Berkebile was elected treasurer of the class. Lucille Crabb previously held this office along with the secretary's position. A committee was appointed to make plans for the freshman party to be given at the all-school start Monday night.

EIGHT SENIORS CAST IN CLASS PRODUCTION

From about twenty-five seniors who tried out for a place on the cast of "John Ferguson", a committee composed of Miss Edith McGaffey, Miss Della Lehman and Mr. C. E. Oelrich, play coach, chose the following cast:

Sarah Ferguson	Doris Ballard
Hannah Ferguson	Madelyn Gray
John Ferguson	Clarence Zink
Andrew Ferguson	Melvin Landes
James Caesar	Hoyt Strickler
Henry Witherow	Harry Zinn
"Clutie" John	Melvin Miller
Sam Mahwinney	Rush Holloway
Sergeant Kernaghan	Paul Bowers

Play rehearsals will begin some time soon and the play will be given during commencement week. No effort or expense will be spared by Mr. Oelrich, the cast, or the class in making the play a success.

STUDENTS ARE JUDGES FOR INMAN CONTEST

Inman, Kan., Feb. 6.—Mildred Swenson, Ruth Blickenstaff and Bernice McClellan of McPherson college, judged an elimination declamatory contest in the grade school here this evening. The contest was held for the purpose of securing candidates for the county contest.

MODERN FICTION BOOKS ARE NEEDED IN LIBRARY

Tues., Feb. 10.—There are two types of books especially needed for the library. These are: reading circle books in education, and books of good modern fiction. One of the former was the only contribution of the week. It was Stormzand's "Progressive Methods of Teaching", contributed by Miss Mildred Oberst.

Books have been added through the present campaign until there are now more than 9,640 in the library. The total is 10,900.

A new magazine has been added to the list of library magazines. . . . "The Sportswoman". There is also a sample magazine called "The Magazine World".

CLINTON TROSTLE WINS IN INSECT COLLECTION

Fri., Feb. 7.—Doctor H. J. Harnly announced this morning that Clinton Trostle had been awarded first place for his collection of insects, which was gathered in connection with the work of the zoology course during the first semester. Vernon Gustafson's collection was given second place. Each one will be presented by Doctor Harnly with a copy of the July National Geographic, an illustrated issue concerning insects.

The front chapel seats are now filled with sixty some odd young hopefuls who with eyes filled with star dust and baloney, strive to pierce the heavy magic curtain of the future to ascertain whether they are slated for the pleasant task of being Ma's or Pa's after obtaining the B. A.; or Bachelor Girls (which is just a new name for Old Maid); or Bachelors (which are God's gifts to the gold diggers); or school teachers—with all the customary ambitions to rear young bloody-nosed Americans in the raw to know the difference between a politician and a gentleman. A trifle revolved but you know what I mean and if you don't you won't know the difference a hundred years from now unless you take the cure for old age.

The matter of being Ma's and Pa's is no easy job as the divorce records show. The only difference between prize fights and family fights is that the stadium is situated over the breakfast table and there is no one at the door to take gate receipts. Wifey get all "hot" up because hubby takes a nose dive into the sport pace and only regains consciousness when his coffee gets cold or the spoon pokes him in the eye. Besides there is no income to the wife unless she is a strong personality and look at the hubby she gets—enough to make a jelly fish blush in shame. Nuff said. Cynical? Well perhaps—but observation has made me the cynic I am

DUAL SPEAKING CONTEST WITH WICHITA QUAKERS

Extemporaneous Tourney Will Be The First Ever Held
On The M. C. Campus

HERE FEBRUARY 13

To Be Given In Chapel At Ten O'Clock Thursday Morning

For the first time in the history of McPherson college an extemporaneous speaking contest will be held on the McPherson campus. The contest is to be in the form of a dual meet Thursday morning, February 13 with Friends University of Wichita.

Since this is the first time anything of this nature has been attempted in the college it is quite a novelty and is attracting a great deal of interest.

At nine o'clock Thursday morning the teams will draw one of the ten questions which have been previously selected and will have one hour, from nine until ten o'clock, in which to prepare their arguments. It is probable that the subject for discussion will deal with some campus problem and will be of interest to college students.

It has been decided by Professor Maurice A. Hess, debate and oratory coach, that Melvin Landes and John Lehman, both of whom are members of the varsity debate team, will speak for McPherson. It has not yet been learned who will represent the Quaker school. It is known, however, that the Quakers are on a short tour and that this will be one of the important stops of their trip.

Professor Hess made the statement that the contest would be held in the chapel auditorium and that all students would be urged to attend the meet.

SCIENTIFIC MOTION PICTURES ARE SHOWN

Thurs., Feb. 6.—Four motion picture reels were shown at a meeting of the Chemistry Society this afternoon in the chemistry lecture room. Three of the reels were secured from the Y. M. C. A. distributors of Chicago. The fourth reel pictured the largest synthetic diamond ever made in the world and the process of making it by Dr. J. Willard Hershey.

The three reels secured from Chicago were "Manufacture of Wire Products", "Rolling of Steel", and the "Manufacture of Steel".

CAREERS OR?

Now the career of a Bachelor Girl is one to be desired. She is the most entertaining up-to-date woman in the world. She earns her own money in congenial work and she has her own apartment where she is surrounded by things she likes. She is smart enough to recognize love when it comes instead of marrying just any man because the world thinks a woman is a failure unless she leads a supposedly happy married life. A Bachelor Girl has lovely and becoming clothes suitable to her type and can indulge her tastes for music or literature without interference. Me for the Bachelor Girl every time.

School teaching is a drag for anyone if money is the only object. Might as well have high ideals anyway because often money is a minus quantity in the school teaching game. Pull is what gets you a job in the Great American game of playing ring-around-the-rosy with school board members and superintendents. Believe me, I know—I bearded the lion in his cave four times in one day and that is as tragic as trying out for a dramatic part in the senior play with the same effect which is a heavy secretion of the tear ducts.

This may be too philosophical, et cetera, but too much fun wears out "College Humor".
Yours till the powder puffs,
Sea-See.

WORLD SERVICE GROUP HAS SECURED A NATIVE OF KOREA TO SPEAK BEFORE THE STUDENT BODY

Mrs. Induk P. Kim Has Consented To Delay Her Return To Seoul, Korea In Order To Present The Missionary
Challenge To American Students

LARGE AUDIENCE FOR DRAMATIC ART PLAY

Wed., Feb. 5.—One of the largest audiences to witness a one-act play in the chapel saw the Dramatic Art department of McPherson college present "Good Medicine", under the personal direction of Mrs. Lawrence Gates, instructor in the dramatics department of the college.

The character of Dr. Graves, a young doctor who was just starting to practice medicine was played by Guy Hayes. Mrs. Graves, his wife, played by Esther Brown, was a kind, gracious wife interested in her husband's profession and success. Hetty Sage, the illustrious millionaire was played by Ethel Shery. The doctor won success, as a result of being honest to his profession.

W. A. A. MAKES PLANS FOR SPRING BANQUET

Mon., Feb. 3.—The Women's Athletic Association met this evening to discuss plans for spring initiation and the annual W. A. A. banquet. There were only a few members present, but it was decided to have the initiation of new members on Monday, March 10, and the banquet the following Friday evening, March 14. A number of committees have been chosen to make definite plans for both occasions.

DATE OF OPERA IS CHANGED TO MARCH 19

Wed., Feb. 5.—The date of the opera "Mikado" has been changed to March 18th instead of March 19 as was formerly announced. The opera "Tannhauser" is to be given at Wichita on the 19th and some of the students and faculty wish to attend.

Much interest is being taken in the opera by those participating and by those who have seen it before and are anxious to see it for the second time.

Rehearsals are progressing nicely, elaborate scenery and costumes will be used in giving the production.

Each member of the cast is perfectly suited to their part and all are striving to present a true characterization of the part represented.

MALE QUARTET SINGS AT WINDOM SCHOOL

Windom, Kan., Feb. 7.—The male quartet of McPherson college, accompanied by their director, Mrs. Anna Tate, sang a number of songs between acts of the Parents Teachers Association play this evening at the high school auditorium. The quartet was composed of Lloyd Diggs, Walter Fillmore, John Berkebile and Ross Curtis.

WILL SPEAK TOMORROW

On Scores Of Campuses Mrs. Kim Has Been Received With Grateful Enthusiasm

Through the efforts of the World Service Group, Mrs. Induk P. Kim, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, will be on the campus tomorrow and will speak before the student body in chapel in the morning and the Y. M. Y. W., and the World Service Group later in the day.

Mrs. Kim is one of the leaders of the Youth Movement of Korea. She has consented to delay her return to Seoul, Korea, where she has taught for five years, in order to present the challenge of missionary service to American students.

Her early education was secured in Korea in the face of difficulties due to the opposition to education for girls and women. For two years she was a student in this country at Georgia Wesleyan, receiving her B. A. degree in 1925. During the summers following she has been registered in Teachers College, Columbia University, where she will receive her Master's degree in September, 1930.

On scores of campuses in the United States and Canada, Mrs. Kim has been received with grateful enthusiasm. Her Oriental background and familiarity with mission work qualify her admirably for interpreting Christian missions to students.

BULLDOGS WILL MEET BAKER CAGERS TONITE

Tues., Feb. 11.—The Wildcats from Baker University are invading the Bulldog kennel tonight for a return of last week's court battle from which the local boys emerged victorious. In the past years of Canine championship the Bulldogs have held a slight edge on the Wildcats. In 1928, one game was played, it being the first game the Bulldogs played on the new Convention Hall court in the local city, McPherson won by 27 to 39. Last year our first game was played at Baldwin following the Ottawa game in which the Bulldogs also succumbed and actually did drop their Baker game 19 to 29. The return game saw a reorganized set of Bulldogs and Baker got a whipping, 23 to 29. Already this year the Canines have given the Wildcats a 31 to 17 trimming and all indications point to something worse than that tonight.

ENROLLMENT FOR SECOND TERM IS NOT UP TO PAR

Mon., Feb. 10.—Final statistics on the second semester enrollment were secured this morning at the office of the registrar. The statistics show that 239 students are regularly enrolled and there are 52 special music students enrolled.

Nine new students have entered for the second semester. They are: Hope Nickel, Ernest and Glen Campbell, Frank Crumpacker, Alex Richards, Anna Schrag, Pauline Shirk, See Strickler and Ebert Kuraquist.

McPHERSON WILL MISS GARDNER WHEN HE LEAVES

Coach George Gardner will leave McPherson college this spring along with four men he has coached for four years. Although he has been in the school five years, these four men are probably the outstanding figures in basketball history in the last four or five years. They are his products. Gardner has coached and trained these men to stardom.

Another student generation is passing. We might say that Gardner came in with these men of his—now he is going out with them, going out with them to seek other laurels. It will be a parting, each going a different way, but with each will travel the cherished memory of their association together at McPherson college.

McPherson college will miss these men when they leave. They have helped put McPherson on the map. Gardner has brought us closer to other colleges by his quiet, easy going manner of approaching a situation. He has attempted to abolish antagonism and has succeeded. He has created a closer connection between the team and the student body. He has lived and stimulated his teams to live that which we all cherish, "The School of Quality". McPherson will miss Coach Gardner when he leaves.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER OR A KNOCKER?

Many times this year the question, where is the school spirit, has been asked. In some cases causing a good deal of excitement. The school spirit is here, the Bulldog fight is still in evidence. Remember the saying, "the city of happiness is in the state of mind", so with the school, let's all be boosters. Who wants to be a knocker? Who wants to be classed lower than beasts or reptiles. According to an article in a well known magazine we find this description of a knocker followed with one of the boosters:

When the Creator had made all the good things there still remained some work to do; so he made beasts and reptiles and poisonous insects, and when he had finished there were some scraps left; so he put all these together, covered K with suspicion, wrapped it with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak and called it a KNOCKER.

Then it was necessary to have something to counteract this product. So he took a sunbeam, put in it the heart of a child, the brain of a man, wrapped these in civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mark of velvet and a grasp of steel, and called it a BOOSTER: made him a lover of fields and flowers, and manly sports; a believer in equality and justice, and ever since these two were, mortal man has had the privilege of choosing his own associates.

When you're disgusted and every thing is dead, think it over and maybe a good night's rest or perhaps a talk with the right person will put you back on the band wagon.

The spirit is here, let's watch it. Don't stand too far away for your part of it. School spirit is like the hump, if you have it the person next to you can't keep from taking it after enough exposures. It's up to you if you're not satisfied—don't knock—BOOST—J. C.

TO THE THOUGHTS OF TODAY, YOU KNOW

Everybody rides in automobiles, or Fords, strains their necks looking at aeroplanes; plays the piano with their feet; goes to see the movies; listens to grand opera over the radio; have discarded woolen underwear; complain about not having the liberty to put their feet on the rail any more; awears at their income tax; smoker clarettes; drinks hair tonic and cologne; blames the High Cost of Living on the politician; never go to bed the same day they get up, and think they are having a H— of a time.

These are the days of suffragette, profligate and prohibition and if you think life is not worth while to McPherson college and put on a Bulldog sweater, and go to a Svede vs. Bulldog basketball game. Then you will have a different viewpoint.—A. S.

HOME JAMES; AND MISS THE SPRING

Home has an attractiveness that too often proves detrimental to the student living near the higher educational institution he is attending. We do not mean to say that you should not go home more than once or twice during the year but we do say it is not practical for students to go home every week end.

Whenever a student leaves the campus for two or three days there is a notable break in his daily routine of study. Some students take a few of their text books with them over the week end with the intention of preparing this lesson or writing this theme. The chances are ten to one that he never opens the cover of his texts nor writes his theme.

While at home in his community he is exposed to all kinds of contagious ailments that secure holds on the small communities which he is liable to contract and carry back to his friends at school. Especially is this true during the winter season. Many a week end visit has been turned into a two weeks absence or the loss of a year's college credit.

There are a few students who will say that the campus offers no opportunities for the funmaker, or that this time of the year is the dullist. This is a false impression. To one who has but recently taken note of the social calendar for the remainder of the year he begins to ponder over the thought of going home. He begins to wonder if he can spare the time to go home anytime before June. Some weeks show every day or evening filled. Many dates are being filled continuously. It is in the spring of the year that the greatest number of college activities take place, socially. Can you afford to miss the spring festivities by going home every week? Will not the memories of such occasions be dear to you?

There are two classes of people, those who leave bills when they die, and those who leave bills. At the funeral of the first class there is sorrow. At the funeral of the second there is pain. What a man leaves money to a college, it proves he is more interested in books than in headstones. A bequest to a college is the nearest you can come to finding the fountain of youth. It can be founded—but not found.—Ballis College Record.

Bulldogmas

Teach
Prof. Teach: Don't you think it's about time the baby learned to say "Papa"?

Mrs. Teach: Oh, no, I hadn't intended to tell her who you are until she becomes a little stronger.

Harnly
Kjera: Were you in Noah's Ark?
Prof. Harnly: Why, no.
Kjera: Well, then why weren't you drowned?

Hess
Pres. Schwalm: Not a bad looking car you have there, Hess. How is the pick-up?
Prof. Hess: I don't know.
Schwalm: How come?
Hess: My wife is always along.

Brown
Miss Collins: I have an etching.
Miss Brown: Why don't you scratch?

Bohling
Prof. Herthey: How do you find married life?
Prof. Bohling: Great fun. My wife cooks and I guess what the dish is.

JUNIORS SET DATE FOR SPRING BANQUET

It was announced this morning that the Junior-Senior banquet would be held on the roof garden of the Hotel Hawley, Saturday night, April 26. This date, however, is only tentative.

The Hotel Hawley will not be officially opened until April 1, and because the roof garden will not be decorated and completed until the rest of the hotel is finished, the date of the banquet has been placed at such a late time.
Prof. Maurice A. Hess will act as toastmaster. No other definite plans have been revealed yet.

SPECTATOR BANQUET TO BE SATURDAY, MAY 3RD

The editor of the SPECTATOR announced this morning that the annual staff banquet would be given on the roof garden of the Hotel Hawley, now under construction, Saturday night, May 3. No definite plans for the affair have been made yet.

JUST LIKE A . . .

You don't need to let a man boss you; just let him think he does.

BONSACK SPEAKS TO STUDENTS IN CHAPEL

Fri., Feb. 7—Rec. C. D. Bonsack, Secretary of the General Mission Board, this morning presented the "Need for Being Internationally Minded".

"In our differences we are all alike," he declared. "Acquaintance with other races emphasizes likeness rather than difference. . . . Africans have more creative thinking ability than we far; they use their limited means. . . . Don't allow yourselves to become slaves to your culture—use it. . . . We are mutually independent for food, clothing, tools and shelter. . . . We have common needs and common hopes, chief among them our hunger and longing for knowledge of God and His great wisdom, love and power".

He closed with a plea for the work of the Crumpackers in China, after which pledges were signed by the student body for their support.

SPECulations

They're picking up the pieces, with a dustpan and a rake; Because he grabbed a silken knee When he should have grabbed the brake.

He calls his wife Longworth because she's the speaker of the house.

We "Spec" Mildred had something definite in mind when she said "I Conduit Too".

One senior isn't trying out for the senior play. Why? He says he's too busy with 14 hours work and another course which he has to complete. The course, we think is Campus Pathology—a laboratory course with individual instructions—and the senior man says he got an 1 in it at the end of the semester, a fact which will probably necessitate post graduate work.

TRUSTEES GUESTS OF FACULTY AT BANQUET

Mon., Feb. 3—The faculty members of McPherson College entertained the members of the board of trustees of the college at a banquet this evening in the parlors of the college church. The three course dinner was served to about seventy guests including the wives of the faculty and trustee members. After the banquet a program was presented with Dr. V. F. Schwalm, president of the college, as toastmaster.

The special music consisted of a piano solo by Evelyn Saylor, a violin solo by Miss Shelley; and a vocal solo by Mrs. Tate. Dr. C. C. Ellis of Huntington, Pennsylvania gave a brief address followed by short talks by Professors Boone and Heckman. Trustees H. G. Shank of Idaho and I. C. Snavely from Colorado then gave brief talks.

The banquet dinner was served by the Home Economics department of the college and the decorations were arranged by the Art Department. The tables were decorated with sweet peas and baskets of carnations.

ALUMNI HAPPENINGS

Oliver W. Tropp, A. B., '22, was a recent visitor in McPherson.

While Professor Morris is doing graduate work at Columbus, Mrs. Morris is having the interesting experience of singing in a large church choir, each of the fifty-six regular members receiving one voice lesson each week. The choir is robed and sings mostly eight part music.

Personal

Fern Shoemaker and Mercie Shatto visited with friends on the campus Saturday and Sunday.

Alex Richards gave an illustrated lecture on his trip to Mexico, at Wald, Kansas, Saturday night.

Mrs. A. L. Rhoads of Topeka was in McPherson Sunday and Monday of this week visiting her son, Vernon.

Earl Kinzie and Margaret DeVilis visited with friends on the campus Sunday.

Leo Crumpacker and LaVelle Saylor called on friends in the dormitory Sunday morning.

Mildred Swenson and Helen Hudson visited at the Swenson home near Window Sunday afternoon.

Irene Steinberg spent the week end with her parents at Lorraine, Kansas.

Hope Nickel was the guest of her parents at Wichita this week end.

Beth Heaston and Arlie Wattenbarger spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives at Holmesville, Nebraska.

FACULTY AND STUDENTS PARTICIPATE AT PARTY

Mon., Feb. 10—An all-school party in which a large number of both students and faculty participated was given in the parlors of the Church of the Brethren this evening.

Each class and the faculty were required to present a ten minute stunt or program. The senior class presented a pantomime in which Edmar Kjera starred as the "King of Hearts". The freshmen gave a miscellaneous program with Viola DeVillis, violin solo; Lucille Crabbe, reading, and Blanch Harris, vocal solo. The juniors presented a modern Danish version of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet", written by Christine Mohler and dramatized by Ruth Trostle and Carroll Walker. The sophomores gave a mixed program with a reading by Mildred Doyle, a gathering of the nuts (representatives from each class and the faculty) and a piano medley of college songs by Helen Eberly.

The faculty presented a debate on the question: Resolved that the men of the college are better looking than the women are beautiful. Judge Hess awarded the decision to the affirmative, upheld by Margaret Heckethorn and Edith McGaffey. The negative was argued by Dr. H. J. Harnly and Prof. G. N. Boone.

After singing a number of college songs led by Mrs. Anna Tate and extemporaneous speeches by faculty members, light refreshments were served by the Home Economics department.

A CORRECTION

We wish to correct an item in the SPECTATOR for January 28, which announced the engagement of Miss Ruth Krehbiel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Krehbiel of this city, a former student of McPherson College, to Mr. Herbert Reed of Salina. Since then, our attention has been called to the fact that the item did not concern this Miss Krehbiel, but a young lady from Pretty Prairie of the same name who is also a student at K. U. The names have been confused before.

MISS LEHMAN NEARLY MISSED GIVING FIRST CHAPEL TALK BY BEING LOCKED IN THE COLLEGE LIBRARY

This Summer She Will Sponsor Fifteen Girls On A Tour Of Western Europe And Will Remain First Semester Of Next Year To Study In England

BY BETH HESS

One Monday morning at ten o'clock one spring all the students, and these who are not students, gathered to hear a faculty member make her accustomed speech to the student body. The piano prelude had been played and the hymn had been sung, but yet, no one arose with the usual "shaky" knees. If I'm not mistaken, another hymn was sung; then after nearly five minutes of silent suspense Miss Della Lehman came running down the aisle. To the great surprise of the students, she took the empty place behind the pulpit and when she had tamed her breath down to a normal condition, she said, "Faculty and students, I'm very sorry to have made you wait so long for my speech, but I was locked in the library and could not get here a minute sooner". No one condemns Miss Lehman for having been late to chapel on the morning she was to speak.

MISS DELLA LEHMAN college, Indiana, where she had received her A. B. degree. After having spent twelve weeks in the University of Chicago and one year in the University of Southern California, she received her A. M. degree.

While attending college at Manchester, Miss Lehman took an active part in many intercollegiate debates and oratorical contests. Later when she became a member of the college faculty she assisted in the expression department and gave private lessons in expression. The last two years Miss Lehman was on the Manchester college faculty she was Dean of Women. Since coming to McPherson Miss Lehman has strengthened the speech department until it is now a recognized part of the curriculum. She was, until this year, sponsor of the Thespian Club and coached two splendid Thespian plays, "The Goose Hangs High" and "He and She".

Miss Lehman is never idle—perhaps that is why she is always so happy. The last two summers she has taught in Palmer Lake Summer School. Many times she has been a supervisor in young people's camps.

Her hobby, if she has one, is to travel. She has travelled extensively over the United States, but her greatest desire was realized when, in 1926, she made her first tour of Western Europe. Most of us could listen for hours while she relates the interesting experiences of her trip abroad. She visited the most important literary, art, and historical places of interest.

So interested in this kind of work is Miss Lehman that she is taking a party of fifteen girls to Europe this summer, starting the middle of June and returning the last of August. She plans to cover much the same territory of her previous trip. One event the party is especially looking forward to is the "Passion Play" at Oberammergau. There are several girls from McPherson who are thinking seriously of availing themselves of the opportunity to take this trip with her. Miss Lehman will not return with the party, but will remain in England and study English Literature for one semester. She has a semester's leave of absence from McPherson. The students will miss her greatly, but their best wishes will be with her while she is absent.

During the two and a half years Miss Lehman has been on the McPherson college faculty she has made many friends. Everyone with whom she has come in contact will remember her pleasing personality and delightful character.

downment of the college by $150,000. This campaign is to start about the first of September of this year.

Miss Della Lehman, instructor in the English and expression departments, was granted a leave of absence for the first semester of the something they wanted.

"Behold the Dreamer!" on Monday morning emphasized the importance of dreaming dreams. "Nothing existed until it had been dreamed". Dreams are powerful for there is dynamic in them; they are for good or ill; they are permanent, for once expressed they cannot be killed. "When we cease to dream we are growing old. Age is not measured by the calendar but by our dreams". Dreams should be pure, strong and far-reaching in their outlook and vision. "To dream dreams of this sort we must link our lives with Man who lived the purest, strongest and farthest dream ever dreamed".

"The Dynamics of Great Conviction", followed the first lecture as a conviction will follow a dream. In characterizing great convictions Dr. Ellis said, "A great conviction must be upon a great theme and it must glow with deep and great emotion". The one who has great conviction does not overlook little things "for with God there are no little things". Possession of a great conviction causes one to be willing to maintain his conviction. The present day illustration offered were convincing and forceful. Logically following dreams and convictions came the discussion "What Can I Believe?" "What we believe determines how we live". We can believe anything that is reasonable, anything for which there is adequate and honest human testimony, and anything that is not unreasonable. Faith, the great human venture, is not unreasonable. Faith causes us to believe in the life that is yet to be.

"How Shall I Live?" climaxed the series. "Live sincerely, i. e., live behind the things we profess to believe. . . Live strongly physically, intellectually and spiritually. . . Live sacrificially. To me, to live is Christ". To hear Dr. Ellis left no doubt in one's mind of his sincerity and Godliness. His messages were gripping rather than emotional, scholarly rather than intellectual.

INDIAN PROGRAM AND CONTEST TOMORROW NITE

A program consisting of dramatizations of Indian songs by the advanced expression class and a humorous reading contest will be given in the college chapel on Wednesday evening at seven-thirty. The numbers to be included in the dramatization are all compositions by Thurlow Lieurance.

Immediately following the dramatizations a humorous reading contest will be held. Those who are entered are as follows: "Interview With a Reporter", Mark Twain—Philip Lawver. "Oh, No!" Mrs. Hugh Bell—in their outlook and vision. "The Champion Sinner"—Harold Melcher. "Jane", Booth Tarkington—Chester Carter. Prizes of two dollars and two and one-half dollars will be given to the winners of first and second places.

next school year. This summer she is sponsoring a group of girls on a tour of Europe and the beginning of the first semester will study in England.

The by-laws of the college were amended to create two new committees: one a committee of instruction, and the other a committee on finance. The committee on instruction is to consider teaching problems, qualifications of teachers, the load of various teachers, efficiency and effectiveness of teaching and make recommendations to the administration and to the board of trustees. The committee on finance will consider current expenses, endowment plans, endowment investments, and make recommendations to the administration and board of trustees.

Dr. H. J. Harnly, vice-president of the college, stated that the trustees seemed more vitally interested in the school and its problems than in any meeting since he has been a member, thirty-seven years.

McPHERSON CAGERS DISPLAY FLASHY FLOOR WORK IN DEFEATING THE BAKER WILDCATS THURSDAY

Miller Plays Only Half The Game Because Of Illness And Injuries—McPherson Led At The Half 16-7

BULLDOGS 31, BAKER 17

Crumpacker High Point Man With Eleven Points—Poston, Baker, Makes Seven Points

Baldwin, Kan., Feb. 6—The McPherson College Bulldogs easily defeated the Wildcat basketball team here tonight 31 to 17. The visitors were plunging into the lead early in the game and they kept it throughout. Crumpacker, the Bulldog forward and left-hand scoring ace, shot three baskets consecutively in the opening minutes of the game. Captain Miller was sick and could play but half of the game. The Bulldogs handled the game with apparent ease. Nonken and Crumpacker displaying their usual flash of floor work. Early in the first period the visitors run up their lead to 12-3, but Baker commenced a rally which ended with the half favoring the Bulldogs 16 to 7.

ST. BENEDICT'S FALLS BEFORE M. C. BULLDOGS

Atchison, Kan., Feb. 7—The St. Benedict's basketball quintet was defeated here this evening by the McPherson College Bulldogs 30 to 26. The visitors played the entire game without the services of their teammate and captain, Melvin Miller, who was suffering from an injured toe and a sore throat. The Bulldogs held a safe lead throughout the game which they did with apparent ease, stalling near the end and a bad play accounted for the narrowness of the final margin.

PLAY OTTAWA SECOND TIME FRIDAY NIGHT

Tues., Feb. 11—The second conference game for the Bulldogs this week will be played on the home court of the Ottawa University quintet Friday night. Memories of the Ottawa game played here last month, picture what might have been a serious outcome, from a Canine point of view, turned into victory. Hope favors the Bulldogs this time and unless the Indians are "especially hot" they should again suffer defeat. But they will be on to some of Miller's tricks as well as many of those of the other players. A victory over Ottawa is a necessity if McPherson retains the championship.

THE DOPE BUCKET

By the Sport Editor

If there has to be some great doubt as to the final outcome of our basketball games before we can have "pep", the time has arrived when the Bulldog student body can get "pepped up" if it expects to retain its Kansas conference title. A glance at this week's conference standings soon reveals that the Bulldogs and Swedes have an almost even break at all that is left. With apparent ease, the Swedes came, victoriously, out of a bitter assignment to St. Mary's and Ottawa last Friday and Saturday. In other words, things point to the championship being held in McPherson County again. It being up to us to determine whether it be in the south or north end. It is about a fortnight until that will be settled on the Lindsborg court where anything is

TATE TO SING AT STATE CONVENTION

Mrs. Anna C. Tate, head of the voice department, has been invited by the Kansas State Music Teachers Association to sing at one of the programs of the state convention held at Emporia, February 20 and 21. Mrs. Tate will sing "At the Well", by Hageman, "Go Not O Happy Day", by Bridge, and "Coming Through the Rye".

To appear on this program is a distinct honor, as the leading musical class of the state are brought together at this convention and form a very discriminating audience. Mrs. Tate and the college are to be congratulated upon this recognition of Mrs. Tate's ability as a singer. Miss Fern Lingenfelter will play Mrs. Tate's accompaniment.

WORLD SERVICE GROUP TO OBSERVE PRAYER DAY

On Sunday, February 16, the students in forty nations of the world are observing the Universal Day of Prayer. Plans are being made by the World Service Group to appropriately observe the day on our local campus. Morning watch will be held before breakfast. Other programs of the day will also emphasize the prayer life.
