BULLDOGS BEAT SWEDES

McPherson College Noses Out Bethany for One Point Victory In Thrilling and Exciting Game—First Half Is Comparatively Uninteresting

FINAL SCORE IS 35-34

Jamison Makes Basket In Last Few Seconds—Is 14-10 at Half for Swedes

The McPherson College Bulldogs defeated the Bethany College Swedes last Friday night at Convention Hall in the closing game of the season. The final score was 35-34. The game was a battle from start to finish, but the Bulldogs nosed out their traditional rivals in the final seconds of the game.

The entire first half was slow and seemed uninteresting as compared with the last half. Both teams seemed cautious at the outset of the game and neither team took many chances. During the first half it looked as though the old Swede jinx was working on the Bulldogs because the McPherson five could not click together. The last half was a different story with the Bulldogs forcing the Swedes to play a faster game of ball. Both teams played a hard driving game in the last half and this proved a hair raising battle for the spectators.

Anderson of Bethany opened the scoring for the evening with a set-up shot on a drive in play after a nice block. Yoder evened the score when he went in for a nice set-up under the basket. Anderson again put the Swedes ahead with another two pointer from the side of the court. Again McPherson tied the Swedes when Harold Johnston sank a nice shot. Bruce, Swede forward, dropped in a basket from the side to give the Swedes a two point lead. Chet Johnston fouled Anderson and he made the throw good and Harold Johnston fouled Dyck and Dyck also made his throw count. Again C. Johnston fouled, but Dyck missed the throw.

Ahlstedt drove under the basket for a two pointer and Chet Johnston equalled this with a nice field goal. With the score 6 to 10 for Bethany, Anderson shot a long one to give the Swedes two more points. Reinacker, who had been substituted for Pauls, took a long shot that hit the bottom of the net and Jamison sunk a nice shot to make the Bulldogs total at 10 points while the Bethany five still led with 12. Anderson slipped in for a set-up to add two more points to the Bethany total. Wiggins went in for Yoder at a guard position. The half ended before any more scoring was done with the Swedes leading 14 to 10.

Coach Binford started the same players at the beginning of the second half that started the game for the Bulldogs. The second half opened with both teams playing faster ball and the Bulldogs were playing a harder driving game. Harold Johnston fouled Johnson of Bethany and he made the point. Harold Johnston then added a point on a foul by Bruce. Pauls made a field goal with a one-handed shot and he soon added another point from the free throw line after Bruce fouled.

Rock was fouled by Johnson and he made the throw good to tie the score at 15. Bruce made a medium long shot to put Bethany in the lead again. Rock added three points on free throws with Anderson and Ahlstedt making the fouls. With the Bulldogs leading 18 to 17 Yoder made a nice side shot to increase the McPherson total to 20 points. Swanson scored a close in shot and Dyck scored again for the Swedes. Harold Johnston scored for the Bulldogs with a one-handed shot. Jamison put McPherson in the lead with a field goal and Pauls increased the lead with another of his favorite shots.

Bethany drove Ahlstedt under the basket for a field goal; Dyck added a field goal and then added a free throw on a foul by Rock. Anderson was fouled by Rock and the Swede made the charity toss to make the score 20 to 26 for the Swedes. Yoder

RADIO IN Y. W. ROOM MYSTERIOUSLY STOLEN

Taken Through Window Sunday Night During Church

Mysteries still continue to hover about the Y. W. radio. The most recent mystery is its disappearance. Early in February, some unknown donor presented the girls of McPherson College a radio which was placed in the Y. W. room. The girls of the college, as well as others, have derived much enjoyment from this gift. Sunday night, between 7:30 and 8:30 someone had the littleness of spirit to steal the radio. The thieves cut the wires and evidently took the radio out of a north window as one was left open. Whoever was responsible for this theft should realize, it seems, what a little, mean thing he has committed.

PLANS ARE UNDERWAY FOR BOOSTER BANQUET

The third annual McPherson College Booster Banquet will be held Friday, March 24, at the city auditorium. Because of the bank moratorium, all the speakers have not been booked. However, the state superintendent of public instruction, W. T. Markham, will be here.

Music for the banquet will be in charge of Prof. Alvin C. Voran and his collegiate musicians.

Plans which are underway point toward a bigger and better booster banquet.

POEM IS DRAMATIZED IN CHURCH SERVICE

"The Fool's Prayer" Is Acted Out—Y. W. C. A. Puts on Program

Sunday evening the Y. W. C. A. had charge of the regular church services. The high point of the program was the dramatization of Edward Rowland Sill's poem, "The Fool's Prayer".

Bernice Fowler, the program chairman of the organization, had arranged for special music by the choir and a short talk by Rev. H. F. Richards on the story of the Parable. The church was lighted only by candles throughout the service. The screens were drawn back disclosing a scene of a royal feast.

The part of the king was ably played by Chris Johansen. The important role of the court jester was played by Donald Evans. The stately queen was Margaret Oliver. The guests were Audrey Groves, Elsie Lindholm, Mary Miller, Ruth Hyde, Edith Bechtelheimer, Blanch Harris, Lillburn Gottmann, Lester Pote, Alex Richards.

W. A. BANQUET TO BE HELD FRIDAY, MARCH 17

The annual banquet of the Women's Athletic Association is scheduled for Friday, March 17, in the basement of the Brethren Church.

Each year every girl invites some boy to this affair. This time the St. Patrick's motif will probably be carried out. Pearl Walker is at the head of the menu committee while Lois Edwards is chairman of the decoration committee, and Ruth Hobart has charge of the program.

THESPIAN PLAY IS TO BE GIVEN MARCH 31

"Importance of Being Earnest" Is Merry Comedy All Way Through

The Thespian play, "The Importance of Being Earnest", a three-act farce by Oscar Wilde is to be given Friday, March 31. Although it has not been definitely decided, it is thought that it will be put on at the city auditorium.

The production has developed into a student project with Ada Bruuk, president of the club, acting as coach. The whole club is taking an interest in the play and are helping on different committees. Practises are getting well underway, a large percent of the lines already having been learned.

From beginning to end this play is a hilarious farce-comedy, without a serious line involved in the whole production. It concerns two sophisticates of London who propose to two girls who accept them because they think that each is named Ernest, while in reality no such person as the well-known Ernest Worthing exists.

Each act of the play takes place in a different setting. The first scene is laid in Algernon Moniercliff's flat in Half-Moon Street. The second takes place in the garden of the Manor House, Woolton.

There have been several shiftings in the cast, and it is now as follows: Algernon Moniercliff, Fred Nace; Lane (manservant), Hobart Hughey; John Worthing, J. P. Donald Evans; Lady Bracknell, Marjorie Brown; Gwendolyn Fairfax, Una Ring; Miss Prism (governess), Maxine Ring; Cecily Cardew, Edith Bechtelheimer; Rev. Canon Chasuble, D. D. Blanch Harris; and Merriman (butler), Delvis Bradshaw.

SNAPPY PEP MEETING HELD

Students expressed their desire for the Bulldogs to "Beat the Swedes" at the pep meeting, Thursday morning, March 2, by creating a great amount of noise. Yells were also given for the debate team. A few short, snappy speeches were given by various members of the basketball and debate teams to tip off the good old Bulldog spirit.

TELLS OF GOING TO SCHOOL WHILE WORKING IN HOME

Oh! Haug it, there goes the alarm clock and I'm not half way through sleeping. I was just in the middle of an exciting dream too. I hope I can continue it in my next snooze. How I wish I could ever get caught up in my sleep. But there! I've got to get up because it is ten after six already, I never will get breakfast and wash the dishes in time to get to my eight o'clock class. I almost wish hours were elastic so that they would stretch until I could get to my class. Well, now that I'm all dressed for school I guess I'll clean up the house and get the breakfast. How many teaspoons of coffee do you use for a cup? Oh! I guess I'll use two, that surely ought to be enough to flavor it. There! I knew I'd burn the toast while I turned the bacon. I hope no one will notice where I scraped the burnt part off. I wonder if breakfast digests when it's swallowed so hurriedly. Now five minutes to get the dishes done. I scramble for my books and drop one. Stooping to pick up the book I hear a familiar sound and see a runner in my silk hose. Now it's either mend the silk hose or I have or else get to class on time. I guess I'll save the wearing apparel. At last I'm off—coat flying, hat in one hand, and books hockishly gripped under the other arm—the very picture of old Ichabod himself. Now the race is on. To be or not to be at class on time. There goes Prof. Blair. If he'd only stopped for me I would get there on time. Oh! there's Margaret Oliver stopping for me. Now isn't she the Good Samaritan. Believe me, I'll surely tell her how she saved my reputation. Classes straight through the morning. Got to browse around in the library all afternoon. With the routine of class I almost forgot about the same tonight. But then, what if I'd have

THESPIAN DRAMATIC CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Discuss Various Problems—Committees Appointed

On Wednesday evening, March 1, the Thespian Club, the dramatic art organization of the college, held a meeting to discuss several problems and to appoint committees.

A motion was made to have a banquet when the thirteen new members are initiated, but the motion was tabled until the next meeting. The advisability of giving the play "The Importance of Being Earnest" at the city auditorium was discussed, and then postponed in order to investigate the cost. The president then appointed various committees to be responsible for the staging and properties of the Thespian play, and the meeting was adjourned.

FLAGPOLE IS PAINTED

Thursday morning a number of students stood on the campus with their heads in the air. The attraction was the man on the flagpole giving it the new coat of paint which it received that day.

LOSE TO BETHEL IN DEBATE TOURNAMENT

McPherson Men Take Second and Women Win Fourth Place

SIX SCHOOLS COMPETE

Each Team Meets Every Team in Conference Having Tea Debates in All

In the Kansas Conference Debate Tournament held at Bethel College Saturday, March 4, the McPherson men's varsity team won second place. Bethel College of Newton won the championship title this year, winning eight of the ten scheduled debates. The McPherson team won seven of their debates.

The McPherson women's team won fourth of their debates ending fourth place in the tournament. The women's team of Bethel also won the championship in their division.

Each team debated every other team in the conference making ten debates in all.

Those from McPherson who debated in the men's tournament were Ward Williams and Guy Hayes, affirmative, and Lillburn Gottmann and Elmer Staats, negative. On the women's team were Marlene Dappen and Ruth Hobart, negative, and Ruth Spilman and Gladys Riddell, affirmative.

The question for debate this year was "Resolved, that the United States should agree to cancellation of the Inter-Allied War Debts."

Those who debated in the tournament were Bethel College, McPherson College, Friends University, Kansas Wesleyan University, Bethany College, and Sterling College.

In the first two rounds the men's negative team defeated Kansas Wesleyan and Sterling College. The next two rounds were lost to Friends University and Bethel College, winning again in the fifth round from Bethany College. The affirmative team, debating each team in reverse order lost their third round to Friends winning the other four debates.

LESTER POTE TO HEAD Y. M. C. A. ORGANIZATION

Frantz, Staats, and Meyers Also Elected Yesterday

Lester Pote, Junior student from Ripley, Oklahoma, was elected president of the McPherson College Y. M. C. A. for the coming year, in the general Y. M. C. A. election yesterday. The other officers chosen for the coming year are Royal Frantz, vice-president, Elmer Staats, secretary, and Gerald Meyers, treasurer.

The retiring executive committee consists of Lillburn Gottmann, president, Royal Frantz, vice-president, Everett Pasmacht, secretary, and Loren Rock, treasurer.

Following the election, Lillburn Gottmann spoke to the Y. M. C. A. as a representative of the retiring executive group. He spoke of college as one of the most critical periods of life. The average college student is confronted with choices in regard to three major problems: vocation, life companion, and his or her attitude toward God. The "Y" organizations provide a common meeting ground on which students can consider together these major problems. Gottmann said that college students must find and experience the abiding values of life, in college, which will remain with them throughout life.

DELL READS PAPER IN CHAPEL PROGRAM

In chapel Wednesday, March 1, Prof. S. M. Dell read a magazine article on "I Am Still Rich", telling of the valuable things a person has even in time of depression. His $200,000 were a part of his list. Warner Nettleton sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Bernice Dresher.

The Junior class of the local high school presented a short sketch of their class play.

FESTIVITY, EXULTATION, AND HILARITY HOLD SWAY AFTER DEFEAT OF TERRIBLE SWEDES

Dizzy Yet Dark Happenings Keep Campus in Uproar from Friday until Monday Night—Theft of Radio Is Only Beginning of Weird Events

Beat the Swedes. Yes it was the same old story and many thought that it would again be the same old story, but some also thought that the jinx could just as well be broken.

The second team started it off very nicely by showing the Swedes seconds their heels and the crowd was gathering thick and fast.

The Swedes did look punitively good on the start and their "blocks" were even working so good that Dr. Schwalm tried to get Rush Holloway to explain to him just what they were and to demonstrate on him just how one works.

The game was a bearcat on wheels, and just to prove that Prof. Hess's old slogan, "He can who thinks he can," works, Yoder turned in high scores.

After changing leads several times, it was looking a little shaky with four minutes to play and the score 34-31 in their favor.

The headlines on the students' lips then were "No School Monday" and there wasn't. The game had been very hard on some people.

All the basketball boys, including coach broke training rules that night. All of them but Harold J. and Rokeate hamburgers and fruit salad at Coach's.

An official moratorium was declared on school and so a very peaceful week end followed—at times. We even had a nice soothing rain and snow the old Swede jinx is buried and the dirt is settled nicely over him, by now.

Nine P. M. and all's well. But, what? Wait a minute. Where's the radio? The wire's cut! Somebody's stolen it! Maybe somebody played a joke.

"Science" is the official organ of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (A. A. A. S.) and contains articles concerning the progress of science.

"The Chemical Bulletin" is a small pamphlet issued by the Chicago Section of the American Chemical Society and contains news of the doings of the various chapters of the A. C. S.

"The Chemistry Leaflet" is a pamphlet containing a number of articles on chemistry written in a popular way.

STUDENTS GRIPE ABOUT EVERYTHING & NOTHING

Did you ever hear anything like it? No one around here can draw a breath without griping about something. If it isn't the food, it's the teachers.

One person complains because there is going to be a quiz in O. T. Lit. Friday, another because there are only two quizzes the entire semester in elementary management.

Members of the Dramatic Art class are working on four act plays to be given in the chapel some evening within the next three weeks.

"The Chinese Water Wheel" is being coached by Blanch Harris and Mary Miller.

Marjorie Brown is coaching "Blackberry" in the play with parts in this play are Mary Miller, Mrs. Whitmore, Odessa Crist, Phillis Granger, Leta Wine, Mrs. Hathaway, Corinne Sater, Mrs. Waste, Marjorie Brown, Mrs. Granger.

"Pink and Patch" is winner of the Samuel French Prize in the 1928 National Little Theatre Tournament.

"Moonshine" is cast from the principles of interpretation class and is being coached by Leta Wine, Hobart Hughey is playing the part of Luke and Samuel Stoner is Jim Dunn.

"Early to bed and early to rise" might have been the motto of some few of the debaters who made the Bethel trip Saturday, but undoubtedly it was a very few.

The early-to-rise part of the motto, however, applied to all. Especially to the Prof Hess, Ruth Spillman, Gladys Riddell, and Elmer Staats.

him a quarter, and the feminine population as a whole owes him a vote of thanks.

Possibly everyone was excited when the schedules were handed out, the judges assigned, and when Professor Hess, secretary of the debating league made all last minute directions.

"Good luck to all." "Do your darndest," and "You can do it" were all heard as the McPherson gang clasped hands and went to meet their opponents, every team being scheduled for five debates apiece.

Finally two rounds of debates were over and it was noon. Paul Boor, who also made the trip took the girls to lunch, and of course the cafe he picked was the wring one.

After lunch there were more debates scheduled. By the last round practically everyone had a splitting headache, and no one remembered whether this point had been stressed in the debate or the one before.

Through our exchange papers we find a few smiles—the student of Creighton University who makes the "dumbest crack" of the week has the honor of receiving a brown derby.

they will have college life, eh what?

Baker students have written an article on "Stretching the Campus Dollar" in their Baker Orange. It was estimated that over 60 per cent of the students were earning their school expenses.

At Emporia College the week's theme for which the news editors question students about is "Matrimony". The question asked the students was: "Is there any reason to believe that college marriages are more permanent than off-campus romances?"

One lad stated he believed he could find a gal in Arkansas who would suit him just as well as the College bred woman.

One bright chap stated, "If you found a five dollar gold piece in the road would you pick it up?" Then if you see a gal of your choice, don't pass her by for the next guy, it will be his loss, so pull her to you and get life's ransom.

— DRIPPINGS — from THE DOPE BUCKET

Coach Melvin J. Binford and his Bulldog carers have made the past season a success. Winning over the Bethany Swedes always makes a successful season and winning over them now is an unusual feat. As near as we are able to find out last Friday night's game was the second victory that a Bulldog basketball team has ever turned in against the Swedes on the Convention Hall floor.

It was a great game and everybody should have gained their money's worth. The first half found the McPherson five somewhat off form, but after the intermission talk they came back with new life and scored ten points while the Swedes were making three. At that point the Bulldogs were leading 20-17.

All the squad and their coach must be given credit for the victory over the Swedes. It was a battle all the way and it was the constant work of the team that finally turned the trick. One point isn't very much, but we are surely proud of that one point.

Captain Rock is the only one of the Bulldog basketekers that is a Senior. Thus it looks as though McPherson should have a good team again next year. Rock is a valuable man, but with the experience gained this year the team should be stronger next year. If the majority of the men return.

Bethany has a fine team and a good system of play. They are big and they drive hard for the basket. They have a dandy bunch of block plays and we certainly can recognize the fact.

Basketball is over as far as the varsity squad is concerned; however several of the men are coaching intra-mural squads and these games will continue for some time. Intra-mural basketball is drawing more interest here each year and some very interesting games can be seen at the college gym.

All the sports fans around the college are wondering just how the national tourney will come out. The Wichita Henry's are again in the tournament expecting to win their fourth consecutive title. Of course many McPherson College students want the Henry's to repeat again this year and this is probably because Miller, a star of the Henry's is a former McPherson College player.

Well, the Henry's should probably be given just an even break at the classic this year because of the strong competition. After watching the Reno Creameries play last Saturday night a person must give them championship consideration. Other strong teams include the Denver Piggly Wiggly's, Diamond Oilers, Stago Liners, and there are many more with good reputations. Several strong college teams are entered including three from the Kansas conference.

With basketball practically ended attention will be turned to track. That is it will be the major sport here. Little is known about some of the material here, but we have good strong entries for the weight events. Rock holds the conference record in the javelin and also throws the shot and discus. George Zinn is a good man with both the shot and discus.

Tennis is also a popular spring sport. Lettermen in this sport that are available for this year's team are Gottmann, Austin, and Kelly. McPherson won the conference doubles championship last year and a good tennis team should be put on the court again this year.

BULLDOGS BEAT SWEDES

again scored; this time a long shot to put the Bulldogs back in the running. Yoder drove in to the foul line and sunk a field goal to tie the score at 30 apiece.
With the score tied and the crowd wild with excitement the Bulldogs again went in for the tip off with but a few minutes remaining. Chet Johnston and Dyck made double fouls and both men made their free throws and the score was still tied. Bruce went in for a pretty shot under the basket. H. Johnston fouled Dyck and he added another point to give the Swedes a three point lead over the McPherson team. C. Johnston came through with a field goal to bring the score to within one point of the Swedes and the crowd became louder than ever and the referee could hardly be heard. Dyck missed a free throw on a technical by H. Johnston. McPherson got the ball from the tip off and drove for the basket. Jamison got the ball and in a dash for the basket he shot from the side and it went through. The ball was taken to the center and before anything more happened the gun fired and McPherson won 35-34.

The Bulldogs probably played their best ball of the season during the last half and worked hard to defeat their traditional rivals. Credit for the victory goes to the entire squad and to Coach Melvin J. Binford. It was the work of the entire bunch that brought victory. Anderson, Bethany, was high point man of the game with 12 points.

MANY NEW ACTIVITIES WILL HOLD INTEREST

Now that the season of inter-collegiate basketball is over, what activities will hold the center of student interest?

In the line of athletics, intra-mural basketball will continue for several weeks; and, if you don't think the games are worth watching, come to the gym and watch one some afternoon, and if you think you have not received your money's worth, your admittance ticket will be returned to you after the game. Also, track, field, and tennis have in many instances already begun—there have been no meets as yet, but the contestants are "warming up". These activities do not receive as much notoriety as inter-collegiate basketball, but they are perhaps more important to the general student body, in that more students are able to participate in these sports.

Other areas of student interest are the annual Booster Banquet, the Junior-Senior banquet, Easter vacation, the all-schools picnic, and commencement; with all these in the offing, student enthusiasm and inspiration should certainly not diminish in the least.

W. A. A. TO INITIATE NEW MEMBERS SOON

The W. A. A. test over the constitution of the organization will be given Friday morning at 8:00 o'clock in Room 5, Sharp Hall. All those who have gained enough points in athletic participation during the past months, must pass this examination before they will be admitted as members of the club.

The initiation of the new members will be held sometime next week before the banquet. These affairs have been in the past quite hilarious and humorous.
