NEW CABINET MEMBERS INSTALLED

Service Is Held in Chapel during Joint Meeting of Organization

The installation of the Y.W. and Y.M.C.A. officers took place yesterday morning in the chapel at a joint meeting of the organizations.

Ann Heckman played the processional as the new cabinet officers marched from the back of the chapel to the stage. After Grace Heckman, the outgoing Y.W.C.A. president, had given the invocation, Dr. J. D. Bright gave the address to the new members. Prof. Alvin C. Voran sang a solo, and then Miss Della Lehman presented the charge to the two cabinets. After the benediction by Lilburn Gottmann, the former Y.M.C.A. president, Ann Heckman played the recessional.

The new Y.W.C.A. cabinet is as follows: president, Mary Miller; vice president, Marlene Dappen; secretary, Gulah Hoover; treasurer, Faith Ketterman; music chairman, Bernice Dresher; social, Margaret Oliver; world fellowship, Martha Andes; social service, Elizabeth Wagoner; publicity, Una King; and conference, Corrine Bowers.

The following make up the Y.M.C.A. cabinet: president, Lester Pote; vice president, Royal Frantz; secretary, Elmer Staats; treasurer, Gerald Meyers; music chairman, Warner Nettleton; program, Everett Fasnacht; social, Paul Booz; devotionals, Carol Whitsher; sunshine, Chris Johansen; and publicity, Clarence Sink.

THEATREANS DECIDE TO GIVE PLAY HERE

Last Thursday morning the Theatre Club held a short meeting in Miss Lehman's room to decide a few business matters.

They voted to give their production "The Importance of Being Earnest" in the college chapel. They decided to refer the price of admission to a committee.

WITH HUMILIATING EXPERIENCES

Humiliations, insults, hurt pride, and inferiority feelings were all heaped upon the new W. A. A. members on the day of March 15 when they were initiated into the Women's Athletic Association. The first warning that all was not as it should be was received on Tuesday when all new members received slips of paper informing them that print dresses were to be worn backwards, one arm was to be carried in a sling, while the footgear for the following day was to consist of bedroom slippers and anklets. Worst of all the would-be members were required to walk backwards and feel edited messages to all superior W. A. A. members. That was the program for the day, but at night the pledges learned that the ceremony of initiation has just begun.

At exactly seven o'clock all the new members were required to assemble in the music room on the top floor of the Science Building. Blindfolded, each girl was led into the secret room where she was humbled into subservience by being required to kneel on the floor before the court of old members and taking a humiliating vow of allegiance. Then there came a grueling hour of answering personal questions which the old members relentlessly fired at them.

Still blindfolded each girl was taken through the agonies of electric shocks, jumping on tanks, and slippery bikes through sticky, slimy melasses. At last the blindfolds were removed but still the horrors were not over, for each girl was forced to take a dose of good old olive oil. But finally the sorrows strain was over and Maxine Ring, Ruth Tice, Lola Richwine, Arnes Bean, Charles Evans, Alice Erbert, Cleora Follmer, Esther Siegmund, Vera Mae Severson, and Lucore Johnson were elevated to the top high status as that enjoyed by the old members of the organization.

EDUCATIONAL PICTURES SHOWN ON WEDNESDAYS

Films Are Given for Public for Visual Learning

The four departments of McPherson College are presenting educational pictures each Wednesday evening. These departments include the home economics, biology, industrial arts, and physics. These films are put out by the University of Kansas Extension Division. Their showings are open to the public and are given for visual educational purposes.

Two sets of films have been shown already. A program of pictures will be given each week, the last one on May 24. The pictures which will be shown tonight are "I See You Calling Me", a telephone picture, "Modern Milk", and a slide on milk. Those on March 29 will be "Concrete and Its Uses", "Magic Yellowstone", and "The King of the Balls."

North House and Lois Edwards. The first letters of each number on the program spell St. Patrick. Those who served were Lois Lackey, Guy Hayes, Faith Ketterman, Milton Early, Ann Heckman, and Warner Nettleton.

GRADUATION AFFAIRS ARE PLANNED IN CLASS MEETING

Arrangements were made for ordering their caps and gowns and commencement invitations by the seniors in a class meeting held Friday morning, March 17.

They are considering the possibility of giving this year a segment or similar dramatic production instead of a play. The matter was referred to the play committee of which Hope Nickel is chairman, and will be reported on in the near future.

The Washburn Players are going to present "Emeralda", a four-act comedy which was popular fifty years ago.

DATE FOR BOOSTER BANQUET AGAIN SET

To Be Held April 21 Unless It Conflicts With Plans of Main Speaker

The third annual McPherson College Booster Banquet, which had originally been slated for March 24, will not be held until April 21 because of difficulties which arose out of the present financial condition.

Tentative plans are to have Henry Allen, ex-governor and former senator from Kansas, as the main speaker. If the set date is in conflict with any of Mr. Allen's previous engagements, possibilities are that the date for the social event will again be changed.

Committees are continuing their work in preparation for the banquet, which has been a popular event the past two years.

GIRLS GIVE REPORT OF INTERNATIONAL MEET

Tell in Chapel of Speakers at Conference at William Jewell College

The girls who attended the International Relations Club Conference which was held at William Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri, March 10 and 11, gave their reports in chapel Wednesday morning, March 15.

Margaret Oliver gave a general report of the conference proceedings, and the unusual incident, Marlene Dappen then told of the three round-table discussion groups which were held Saturday afternoon. Questions discussed at these meetings are of prominent international importance and included the Sino-Japanese affair, Philippine independence, and the war debt situation.

Maxine Ring gave the introduction of Henry C. Haskell, International News Editor of the Kansas City Star, who gave the main address at the banquet Friday evening. He spoke on the subject, "Some Economic Problems Facing the Incoming Administration." Marcella Leibel and Oretta Wilma Griffiths reviewed this talk, bringing out the vital political and economic points as presented by Mr. Haskell.

TO GIVE EVENING OF ONE ACT PLAYS

Dramatic art students to Portray Southern Mountain-coers--to Le Proceed March 24

The date of the one-act plays of the dramatic art class has been set for Friday evening, March 24. The scenes of all these plays are laid in the southern mountains and deal with the hill-billies of the country. This type of program is exceedingly popular at present.

While the plays are coached by students, they are all under the direction of Miss Della Lehman, the instructor.

"The Chinese Waterwheel" concerns a fragile girl from the city who has come to the country to get a breath of fresh air, only to find that work on a ranch is concerned with a vegetable and not a flower garden. The scene is set in a farmhouse, the home of her stolid fiancé.

The heroine of "Blackberryin'" starts to milk a cow as Phila Granger and finishes as Mrs. Whitmore. The cow seems to be an insufficient witness for the mother-in-law and even the blackberry baskets are all mixed up before this clever play ends.

In "Pink and Patches" the fifteen-year old Texie longs for a pink dress "all flirsey like clouds" but hardly dares to hope ever to get away from her sordid surroundings.

"Moonshine" is the story of a moonshiner of the backwoods. He meets a man who he thinks is a revenue officer. He is slightly bewildered when the stranger insists that he is trying to commit suicide and wants him to kill him.

Probably only three of these plays will be given, but all are unusual productions with character roles, and are sure to be well-liked. They will be given in the college chapel, and it is planned to charge students ten cents and outsiders fifteen cents. The dramatic art class is being assisted by the principles of interpretation students.

LOOSTER BANQUET POSTPONED

The McPherson College Looster Banquet which was scheduled to be held March 24 has been postponed indefinitely because of the present financial stress. F. T. Markham was to be the main speaker.

The students who attended the Conference on International Relations at William Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri, gave reports in chapel this morning. The nine students who attended were Marlene Dappen, Margaret Oliver, Marcella Ledell, Maxine Ring, Gretta Wilma Griffiths, Charles Austin, Guy Hayes, Lester Pote, and Delvis Bradshaw.

The students left Thursday noon in two cars. They arrived in time to attend the opening sessions of the conference Friday morning. On the return Sunday they stopped in Kansas City to hear the Reverend Curris Jenkins, the well-known radio speaker.

DRUGS... JEWELRY.

The theatrical play, "The Passion Play," by Oscar Wilde is to be given in the college chapel Thursday and Friday evenings, March 30 and 31.

It has been suggested that the first and last acts be given in the chapel and the second act in the college gym. Thus between the audience and cast would move into a different building. This would simplify the staging, for every act has a different setting. This plan has been used in Europe for years, especially in the producing of "The Passion Play", but it has seldom been put into practice in this country.

Practices are progressing and an unusual and screamingly funny comedy is promised.

QUIPS AND QUIPLES

royal Frantz slept through the installation of "Y" officers yesterday, apparently forgetting that he was vice president of the male organization. Morpheus surely works on the students, even outside of class.

When Miss Lehman was talking to the new Y. W. officers before the installation services she queried, "Will Ann strike a cord for us to sit on?" We can't tell you how she was answered, but we saw them sit on chairs.

Personally, we don't think so much of this kind of a newspaper but at least it's a new experience.

Would it be called a coincidence that so many students went east at one time? To Kansas City, Liberty, and Emporia? Yeah, and how about the rest of us? Well, one little pig went to market and some stayed at home.

Those who went to the William Jewell Conference have been refusing to tell anything that happened for fear no one would listen when they gave a program in chapel.

We have wondered what time some of the kids quit playing ping pong Friday night. They were still playing after the tables had even been put out of bed in its own little room.

The time has come again when a person again either starts out in a winter coat and finds himself taking a regular Turkish bath or goes out in spring weather and returns looking as if he had the heebie jeebies.

Each year the W. A. A. thinks up something worse to do at initiation time. Non wonder so many girls look so yesterday today! here is only a portion of the rules they received yesterday: Wear anklets and bedroom slippers tomorrow. Wear a print dress backwards and holding a looking glass in hand to see where you are walking. Have your right arm in sling and have salted peanuts. Have your feet presentable, (shine your toenails etc).

NEW W. A. A. MEMBERS INITIATED WITH HUMILIATING EXPERIENCES

Humiliations, insults, hurt pride, and inferiority feelings were all heaped upon the new W. A. A. members on the day of March 16, when they were initiated into the Women's Athletic Association. The first women that all was not as it should be was received on Tuesday when all new members received slips of paper informing them that print dresses were to be worn backwards, one arm was to be carried to a sling, while the footgear for the following day was to consist of bedroom slippers and anklets. Worst of all the would-be members were required to walk backwards and feed salted peanuts to all superior W. A. A. members. That was the program for the day, but at night the pledges learned that the miseries of initiation has just begun. At exactly seven o'clock all the new members were required to assemble in the music room on the top floor of the Science Building. Blindfolded, each girl was led into the secret room where she was humbled into subservience by being required to kneel on the floor before the court of old members and taking a humiliating vow of allegiance. Then there came a screeching hour of answering personal questions which the old members relentlessly fired at them. Still blindfolded each girl was taken through the agonies of electric shocks, jumping on tacks, and slippery bikes through sticky, slimy molasses. At last the blindfolds were removed but still the horrors were not over, for each girl was forced to take a dose of good old olive oil. But finally the nervous strain was over and Maxine Ring, Ruth Tice, Lola Richwine, Agnes Bean, Clarice Evans, Alice Hubert, Cleora Follmer, Esther Siegemann, Verma Mae Severson, and Leona Johnson were elevated to the same high status as that enjoyed by the old members of the organization.

on the program, and was led by Ruth Hild and Lois Edwards. The first letters of each number on the program spell St. Patrick. Those who served were Lois Lackey, Guy Hayes, Faible Ketterman, Milton Early, Ann Heckman, and Warner Nettleton.

GRADUATION AFFAIRS ARE PLANNED IN CLAS MEETING

Arrangements were made for ordering their caps and gowns and commencement invitations by the seniors in a class meeting held Friday morning, March 17. They are considering the possibility of giving this year a pageant or similar dramatic production instead of a play. The matter was referred to the play committee of which Hope Nickel is chairman, and will be reported on in the near future. The Washburn Players are going to present "Emerald", a four-act comedy which was popular fifty years ago.

DATE FOR BOOSTER BANQUET AGAIN SET

To Be Held April 21 Unless It Conflicts With Plans of Main Speaker

The third annual McPherson College Booster Banquet, which had originally been slated for March 24, will not be held until April 21 because of difficulties which arose out of the present financial condition.

Tentative plans are to have Henry Allen, ex-governor and former senator from Kansas, as the main speaker. If the set date is in conflict with any of Mr. Allen's previous engagements, possibilities are that the date for the social event will again be changed. Committees are continuing their work in preparation for the banquet, which has been a popular event the past two years.

GIRLS GIVE REPORT OF INTERNATIONAL MEET

Tell in Chapel of Speakers at Conference at William Jewell College

The girls who attended the International Relations Club Conference which was held at William Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri, March 10 and 11, gave their reports in chapel Wednesday morning, March 15.

Margaret Oliver gave a general report of the conference proceedings, and the unusual incidents. Mariene Dappen then told of the three round-table discussion groups which were held Saturday afternoon. Questions discussed at these meetings are of prominent international importance and included the Sino-Japanese affair, Philippine independence, and the war debt situation.

Maxine Ring gave the introduction of Henry C. Haskell, International News Editor of the Kansas City Star, who gave the main address at the banquet Friday evening. He spoke on the subject, "Some Economic Problems Facing the Incoming Administration." Marcella Lewicki and Gretta Wilma Griggs reviewed this talk, bringing out the main political and economic points as presented by Mr. Haskell.
