Show Your Colors

The pep exhibited before and at the last game was better than it might have been, but it was still not as good as it can be.

There are many persons who want to do all of the yelling, and they have the right to yell just as much as they want. The more pep we have, the better it is all the way around. But there are some individuals and groups of individuals who either truly feel or else who want to feel that when someone else is yelling, they cannot compete.

The whole reason for yelling is that we are supposed to feel so spirited and enthusiastic about winning a game and backing our team, that we just naturally want to yell and show how we feel. The idea is not at all to be stubborn and not yell; neither is it to show up the rest of the students. Even the cheerleaders and the Barkerettes are not supposed to do that.

What we are striving for is true unified school spirit and organization which we can achieve only through wholehearted participation and cooperation.

Despite what I have just said, we did not do so badly after all, but you know, as I do, that we can do much better. And we shall.

Our Pride and Joy

Homecoming is just a week off. There will be visitors and friends on our campus at that time. We shall want to show them our campus and its activity with pride. Let us remember that they as well as we are to be considered, and let us show them that we have remembered.

It will be only courteous to keep things especially neat and clean for the homecoming activities. The janitors and other campus workers are very capable, but they need help. It is our school and we are proud of it. We will show it at its best.

About Russia—

"Czechoslovakia and the Balkan countries need have no fear of Russian 'imperialism' after this war. The Soviet Union is only interested in friendly relations in Europe and will be busy for the next fifteen or twenty years with reconstruction," says Dr. Eduard Micek, associate professor of Slavonic languages at the University of Texas, who was born in Czechoslovakia.

Commenting on the many opinions circulating about Russia's position after Germany falls, he added that most Americans distrust Moscow because they know so very little about the Russians.

Dr. Micek has spent two years in Russia and speaks and reads Czech, Russian, Polish, English, and German. His mother and four brothers were in Czechoslovakia when Hitler took over in 1939.

Dr. Micek is afraid that Czechoslovakia will be not too friendly toward France and England after this war because of

"Few people remember that Russia offered to help Czechoslovakia resist the Nazi aggression when France and England were given Hitler anything he asked for in order to keep peace," Dr. Micek pointed out. "President Benes, like everyone else Dr. Goebbels could influence, was afraid of Communism."

Dr. Micek emphasized that Czechoslovakia, one of the most prosperous nations in Europe after World War I, is now completely exploited and on the verge of bankruptcy. "Bad as the conditions may be in the country, it will be the people who will decide, when they are freed, what kind of government they want. There will undoubtedly be Communists in Czechoslovakia, as in countries all over the world, but they will be Czech Communists."

Dr. Micek said emphatically, "I am an American Democrat, but I do not see how we can hope for peace if we do not extend friendliness and honesty to Russia. Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria, Turkey, Hungary, Greece, Yugoslavia, and Austria may have their boundaries changed somewhat, but they will be free to work out their own futures." From The Library

IMMORTAL WIFE by Irving Stone
This is the dynamic story of Jessie Benton Fremont, one of the most exciting women in American history: Jessie was beloved, hated, feared, and feted across a continent, but her supreme achievement was the marriage she created with John Charles Fremont, which left its mark on every major event in nineteenth-century America.

FOOD OR FAMINE by Ward Sheppard
The Dustbowl woke America and the world to the fact that humanity's basic capital—the soil—is being blown away and washed into the rivers at a cataclysmic rate.

But this book is no mere catalogue of destruction. Starting from the basic fact that world-wide soil erosion is an ominous threat to civilization, the author raises and systematically answers the question, what are we going to do about it?

GREEN DALPHIN STREET by Elizabeth Goudge

This is an exciting story—shipwrecks and earthquakes and battles. Two sisters, of an aristocratic French family, loved the doctor's son and manage to get him into the British navy, but he leaves it to pioneer in New Zealand. After 10 years' silence he proposes, but makes a mistake in the name and gets the wrong wife, and three lives take unexpected courses.

Women's Council Meets

The Women's Council met in a regular session Tuesday, December 4, in the SUR. Reports were given by committee chairmen about the work being done in the Kline Hall kitchen.

The committee for securing rocks for the fireplace to be built on the campus reported that as soon as postcards can be mimeographed that they will be sent to all the churches in the region, asking them to share in the building of the fireplace by contributing a stone.

The president, Betty Kimmel, appointed the following girls to be on a committee to select a date and begin plans for a party to be given by the dormitory girls for the town girls: Margaret Bechtold, chairman, Ila Verne Lobban, and Mary Beth Loshbaugh.

Campus Cleanup To Be Sponsored By The SCA

Campus Clean-up Day will be this Wednesday from 1:15 until 4:30. This will be sponsored by the SCA and the faculty and students are asked to turn out in work clothes. Professor Mohler will put his extensive knowledge of botany into practice by trimming the trees and shrubbery while other professors will have charge of other projects for which they are fitted.

Everybody come!

Bethany College Gives Program

The Bethany College League of Lindsborg, Kansas, joined in fellowship with the McPherson College SCA Thursday evening, December 6, by presenting a program of music and message. The timely theme chosen for the talks was, "Give Us Thy Peace."

Kenneth Johnson, President of the League, acted as chairman and led in the devotions. Reverend James Claypool, student counsellor at Bethany, brought a brief message on "Inward Peace." Miss Gloria Danielson played the Overture from Tellman's "Suite in A Minor" for the flute. A second talk on "Harmony With the Community" was given by Miss Marian Halverson, after which Miss Roma Hiatt sang a soprano solo. The concluding message centered around the topic "International Peace" was presented by Mr. David Lindell. A vocal duet by John Kumli and Mrs. Patricia Johnson, "Panis Angelicus" closed the formal part of the program.

A fellowship and social hour arranged by the SCA social committee following the program helped us all to get acquainted and was enjoyed by all.

Partial Description of a Boy

Were it not for boys, the newspapers would go unread, and a thousand picture shows would go bankrupt.

Boys are useful in running errands. A Boy can easily do the family errands with the aid of five or six adults. The zest with which a boy does an errand is equalled only by the speed of a turtle on a July day.

The boy is a natural spectator. He watches parades, fires, fights, ball games, automobiles, boats, and airplanes with equal fervor, but not the clock.

The man who invents a clock that will stand on its head and sing a song when it strikes will win the undying gratitude of millions of families whose boys are forever coming home to dinner about supper time.

Boys faithfully imitate their dads

The President's Corner

It is a pleasure and a privilege to anticipate and to plan Homecoming. A welcome awaits all who return to the campus to enjoy the events of the occasion. This is the first Homecoming since hostilities have ceased, and it is hoped that a number of men who have been privileged to return from service can attend. A good basketball game is anticipated and other events and forms of entertainment are being provided.

McPherson College is justly proud of her alumni and former students and hopes to continue to be worthy of their loyalty. Your college awaits your presence on December 14.

In spite of all efforts to teach them good manners.

A boy, if not washed too often and if kept in a cool, quiet place, after each accident, will survive broken bones, horns, swimming holes, fights and nine helpings of pie.

After a male baby has grown out of long clothes and triangles and has acquired pants, freckles and so much dirt that relatives do not dare to kiss it between meals, it becomes a BOY.

A Boy can swim like a fish, run like a deer, climb like a squirrel, balk like a mule, bellow like a bull, eat like a pig or act like a jackass, according to climatic conditions.

He is a piece of skin stretched over an appetite. A noise, covered with smudges.

He is called a tornado because he comes at the most unexpected times, hits the most unexpected places and leaves everything a wreck behind him.

He is a growing animal of superlative promise, to be fed and watered, and kept warm.

He is a joy forever, a periodic nuisance, the problem of our times, the hope of a Nation. Every boy is evidence that God is not discouraged by man.

runner-up for the attendant.

The freshman class presented Ann Oberst, Betty Lou Jamison, Sybil Miller and Betty Reeves as their candidates. The runner-up for the freshman class was Betty Lou Jamison.

Miss Kauffman will be crowned queen between halves of the Homecoming game.

Who seeks for heaven alone to save his soul
May keep the path but will not reach the goal;

While he who walks in love may wander far,
Yet God will bring him where the blessed are.

There is a time when nothing may be said, a time when something may, but no time when all things may.

SOCIETY

Dr. Fleming is confined to his home with the flu. His classes are being taught by Dr. Metzler and Reverend Miller. His son, Royce, is also home with the flu. Mrs. Fleming is in the McPherson County Hospital.

Not to be out done by Roberta, Mary Metzler also had over-night guests Friday night. Freshman girls from Arnold were the lucky ones. They took in a movie in the evening and had a hilarious time throughout.

Phyllis Olwin, and her room mate, June Landes, Ann Oberst and Mary composed the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Beckwith of Fruitland, Idaho, mother and father of Carl and Glen, made two short visits to the campus. They were accompanied by Miss Louise Ireland, the cause of that beaming smile on the countenance of Glen.

The Wolves, Eula and Irvin, were surprised Wednesday when their father, Mr. E. L. Wolf, came to visit them. He is a farmer and lives near Quinter, Kansas. He was on a business trip and stopped here to see Eula and Irvin. He was a guest in the dining hall at noon, but his visit was a short one for he had to leave that afternoon.

Rebecca Spear received a short visit from her brother, Virgil Spear, and his wife, who stopped by to see her on their way back to Oregon, where Virgil is in CPS camp. They had been in Cedar Rapids, Iowa on a furlough and were driving back to the west coast, taking two other CPS boys with them. Rebecca naturally enjoyed the visit very much and the event was made more enjoyable for two other Cedar Rapids girls by way of two boxes from home which arrived via the trunk of Spear's car.

Idabelle Ward was visited by the major part of her family last weekend. Her mother, her brother Johnny, and her brother Duane, who is on furlough from the Navy, drove down from Nebraska Friday to spend the weekend. The arrival of two good-looking men at Kline at the same time caused quite a flurry of excitement, but the girls survived as you can plainly see. And Idabelle is looking forward more than ever to her Christmas vacation at home.

The Kline Hall kitchen was the host for a spaghetti feed last Friday night. Spaghetti and meat balls (naturally) was served, plus other food. Ronk, the main cook, with the help of her cook book, put out some good food. The most fun came in watching the hungry victims twist the six inch spaghetti strings around their forks and attempting to get it to their mouths before it became un-plates. With the help of Kline Hall residents who were so kind as to present them with various cooking utensils, the meal was a success. The gang included Ronk, Engeland, Finck, Poland, Buckingham, Gerlack, Roberts, Nelson, Krehbiel and Markham.

Roberta Mohler was hostess to a typical slumber party Friday night. The party was scheduled to start at 12:00 and did to a certain extent. Food was, of course, the main consideration of the majority of the guests as well as magazine reading. It proved relaxing to do nothing but read stories and eat olives, cheese, peanut butter and crackers.

The girls, Joan Finck, Gernelda Sprinkel, Dorothy Frantz, Phyllis Strickler, Johnette Spengler, Donnis Wampler, Elsie Schnorr and Roberta, finally retired but not until the wee small hours. It is a good thing that the next day was Saturday because most everyone slept late. Joan had to leave early because she was going home and Gernelda went to work but the rest took it easy. When noon came Roberta didn't have a very hard time persuading the girls to stay for a chicken dinner. The guests finally returned to the dorm about three o'clock that afternoon.

ers if there had been any over Main Street. And then we crashed the Mac Theater and stamped and shouted our way through a couple of rollicking Westerns, while the manager wrung his hands and went "Shhhhhhh" just like a steam engine. Then there was a general gathering of available alumni and the Homecoming supper was held. Prominent alumni made speeches, the players at their table anxiously watched their watches, and the rest of us alternately ate and listened. The game itself was made more interesting by the crowning of Homecoming Queen Elva Jean Harbaugh, between halves. She was attended by Lois Kauffman and Phyllis Strickler from the Sophomore and freshman classes respectively and respectfully. Beating Ottawa made Coach's proud fifth Homecoming victory.

But the week was not without other events of note. President Peters announced that the Fifty Dollar Club now had 113 members who had paid. Professor Hess took his hand-trained debaters to their first debate tournament. And while we're mentioning faculty names, let it be known to all that our own Pert Nehrer of last year took a Sunday evening nap in church and subjected herself to the derision of her girls for some time thereafter.

The Barkerettes had their troubles too. They weren't allowed outside their own section and the boy friends weren't allowed inside. A solution to this weighty problem was for the boys to sit just outside the pep club section with the thin red ribbon separating them from their little Barkerettes. Romantic, wasn't it? And speaking of romance (and we were too) Jerry Mease got his fortune told at a party. Something about going to marry his first love. I just tell you this for what it's worth. I didn't say a word about Irene.

And for our last but not least item, Anne Metzler and Blair Helman made the honor roll. Blair we all know, especially the fresh freshman. Anne is Professor Metzler's daughter and for further information, ask Dave Albright. He'll be glad to oblige. That's all for now. See you Homecoming.

FAIR FASHIONS

by ELSIE SCHNORR

In answer to the teen queens plea for plaids they have done a new and wonderful collection of clan plaids. Each is beautiful. One of these is the McPherson plaid, which should go over big on our own campus. The skirts made from these plaids look good if they are the wrap around styles with a fringe and then a big safety pin to secure it.

Have you noticed the use of nail-heads on everything this year? We find them on dresses, on shoes, and on all kinds of accessories like head bands, and belts, and necklaces. They add something to an otherwise plain dress or outfit.

Ronald Flory Enrolled At S.A. University

Ronald L. Flory, Rockford, Illinois, and a graduate of McPherson College, is enrolled in school at Shrivenham University this year. He graduated in the year 1938.

More than 4,000 soldier-students from all 48 states are enrolled for the second term at Shrivenham American University, Shrivenham England. Three-hundred and sixty-nine courses in eight academic departments are offered at SAU, a GI school operated by the Army's Information and Education division. The mission is to provide courses of college and university grade for troops awaiting return to the United States. The faculty, picked from American Universities and army ranks, totals 130 civilian educators and 100 officers and enlisted men.

BYPD Conducts Bible Quiz Sunday Evening

A Bible quiz, conducted much in the same manner as are the Dr. I. Q. programs featured on the radio, was the BY program Sunday evening. After a short devotional service Mary Vancil and her two helpers, Wainie West and Loreen Ruthrauff, took charge as they stumped members of the audience with Bible questions. For the most part the questions were simple, but in some instances the group thought long and hard for the correct answer.

Students To Parade On December 14

A big part in the celebration of Homecoming this year will be a parade on the afternoon of the Homecoming game. It will start at four o'clock and will parade down Main Street. The students are urged to participate in the parade and prizes will be awarded for the best floats. Individuals may enter their own floats, the more the better.

The McPherson High School Band will lead the parade, and the college band will follow. The floats will come next, followed by individual cars. All the fellows with cars can do their part here.

Each organization on the campus is asked to participate in this parade and will be responsible for its own float. There will be prizes for the best floats. The prizes for the floats of organizations will be $3.00, $2.00, and $1.00. The individual floats will receive as first prize $3.00, and $1.00 as second prize. If we all back this parade, we can make it one of the best parts of the Homecoming celebration this year.

Foods Girls Entertain Guests At Special Tea

The home economics room was appropriately decorated with blue and silver for a Christmas theme when the new girls of the college were entertained at tea on Wednesday afternoon from 3:30-4:30 by the foods class.

Hot cranberry sauce and several varieties of fancy cookies, and sandwiches were served on a candlelit table.

This is an annual tea given by the girls in the foods class in order that they may fulfill that part of their assignment. The class this year was divided into committees to make the plans, and all the girls worked in the kitchen preparing the food or in the class room decorating.

Skating Party Is Given

Another enjoyable skating party was held at the Peterson rink Saturday evening. Nearly forty students and friends had a good time despite the waxy floor. The party was sponsored by the Men's Council.

Metzlers, Mohlers Visit

Dr. and Mrs. Metzler, Dr. and Mrs. Mohler, and Edwin enjoyed a brief vacation in Texas last week-end. Dr. Metzler preached in the Pampa Church Sunday morning. They visited several other places in Texas, Dr. Mohler taking care of business interests. The group left on Thursday afternoon and returned Sunday Evening.

Are you alert? Are you the noticing type? To the classic question around this campus as to how many people can tell you what is written on the little plaque on the flagpole should be added the question as to how many people can tell you what is written on the little plaque above the windshield inside little Chucklet Diamond's "car." The last time I rode in it the radiator was spouting just like a performing whale, but I did notice that the facetious makers of the model had dubbed it a "business sedan." Laugh now.

Did anyone look on the back row Sunday night at church. Ethmer was there and guess who he had with him this time. None other than Doris Hamer. Why, Ethmer's getting the fever from Church, it looks like.

That was a nice trunkful that rode home from the game in Pitzer's trunk. Three bachelors and three . . . well anyhow, Loshbaugh and Bowman, Lobban and Mohler, and Keim and Miller. From where we sat, they all seemed to be sitting on Burton, who, in many people's opinion, needs some sitting on.

Did you notice who was counting votes Tuesday noon when the student body was voting between Irene and Lois for queen. None other than Jerry and Brownie. Were they checking up on each other or was it just that they didn't trust each other. From all appearance though neither should be queen since all the ballots went into a nice big box labeled Mr. Robert Keim. Bob really got all the votes.

Remember that date Lobban had with Donna M. the other night? Well, the next night he dated her girlfriend, Teen West. Who will be next, or will history repeat itself?

Two lucky girls at Kline had blind dates last Saturday night with two handsome men from Nebraska. The lucky girls were Dorothy Grove and Lois Burger, who enjoyed very much their prearranged and sight-unseen dates with Idabelle Ward's brothers, Duane and Johnny.

Miss Lehman's diagrams (a la John Milton) of Hades are enjoyed very much by her Literature class. One of Bill Shepherd's friends plans to send him several fire-proof copies of said diagram so that he can find his way around when he gets there. (Joke by Mike; don't get mad, Bill.)

Would some kind person with a little extra cash donate a new stool to the Spec office? Our dear editor performed a much-needed task when she broke the last good rung and smashed our drooping typewriter stool against the also drooping Spec office walls. Now we've got an excuse for our many errors; i. e. we have to stand up to write.

Krehbiel seems to have come out of his rut, for he was seen sporting Mohler (Bert) after the basketball game last Tuesday night.

The Freshmen must like the people of the Initiation Committee, 'cause they are always running around without their lil' green caps just so they can have an excuse for seeing the committee.

Together again—Lobban and D. Mohler.

A new couple blossomed out Friday night. None other than Roberts and B. Krehbiel.

It is not spring but a romance is certainly in the making. I believe the couple is Riddlebarger and Max.

MacCampus is quite worldly. During the visit of Glenn's girl, there were four countries (in name only) represented here. They were England, Frantz, Poland and Ireland.

You think our jests are pretty poor. But we'll give you this hint—They would be swell if we could use The ones we dare not print.

A year ago this week was what is commonly termed as Homecoming. Why this event lurks under such a cognomen is a good question, but that a good time is had by almost all is a true statement. Last year we tangled with the Ottawa Braves to win with a score of 52 to 39, if I read my last year's Spec correctly. It was strictly an occasion, from the six-page issue of the Spec to the real butter served at the banquet. There were many exciting times such as would naturally overwhelm a green freshman. The bonfire and cheer session over in front of the gym, the snake dance to town where we blocked traffic while we yelled "Beat Ottawa" loud enough to shake the raft-

Bulldogs Downed By SW Builders With 44-38 Score

Krehbiel Is High Point Man For MacCollege Team

In the last six minutes of the game last Tuesday night the McPherson Bulldogs dropped the lead which they had held from the starting tip-off and lost to the Southwestern Builders with a score of 44-38.

Cox, of the Builders, was high point man with a total of twelve points, and Krehbiel, McPherson, was second with a total of ten points.

The score at the half was 19-14 in favor of the Canines but the final quarter the height of the Builders proved too much for the speedy Canines. However the game was hard-fought until the sound of the gun. McPherson (38)

Women's

Athletics

Hockey

A successful season of hockey was ended last Tuesday, when the softball and hockey clubs met for a final game, which was a make-up game for both of the clubs.

The girls who have gone out for hockey have really had a grand time this season. In spite of all the black and blue marks, not to mention the near-broken bones, (we thought) we have managed to come through on top and are no worse for the wear.

Twelve girls have been active all season. Ten of these girls are upperclassmen, and two are freshmen. Congratulations, girls, on your energetic participation and athletic ability. Those girls who are active are: Evelyn Metzger, Johnette Spengler, Gernelda Sprengel, Della Mae Poland, Masako Nakamura, Dorothy Frantz, Eula Wolf, Catherine Little, Ruth Engelland, Doris Coppock, Mary Jane Freeburg, and Marianna Stinnette.

Other girls who participated in the activities of the club, but who did not attend enough meetings to be active, will receive ten points for each meeting attended.

Softball

The softball season has come to an end with the sum of six games played. Twenty-six girls took active parts in the games. The girls were required to attend four out of the six meetings in order to be active.

The active girls are: Jane Bell, Ruth Brubaker, Doris Coppock, Eulalia Crist, Betty Elrod, Ruth Engelland, Phyllis Erb, Joan Finfrock, Dorothy Frantz, Rosella Haley, Doris Hamer, Milly Jones, Tex Lobban, Della Mae Poland, Joyce Riddlebarger, Annette Ronk, Johnny Spengler, Gernelda Sprengel, Marianna Stinnette, Carol Trowbridge, Mary Vancil, Donnis Wampler, Eula Wolf, and Theda Flory.

Barkerettes Provide "Half" Entertainment

Sixteen Barkerettes came whooping and hollering onto the floor during the half of the game Tuesday night to show their ability to square dance. With their skirts whirling and their spirits high, they put on a good exhibition. Annette Ronk gave the calls in typical cowboy fashion.

Several different squares were given. Some of these were: "Dive for the Oyster," "Indian Square Dance," and the "Rye Waltz." It took plenty of pep to do them, and the girls showed that they were true Barkerettes.

The costumes were bright and colorful, and they added to the success of the stunt. The girls wore long, cotton dresses with full skirts, and the boys wore jeans, loud shirts, and neckerchiefs.

It is hoped there will be more between the half stunts this year.

Those who took part in the exhibition were: Evelyn Metzger, Avis Erb, Betty Elrod, Roberta Mohler, Johnette Spengler, Gernelda Sprengel, Dorothy Wampler, Joan Finfrock, Elsie Schnorr, Leona Dell, Ruth Engelland, and Della Mae Poland.

WAA Selects Clubs And Elects Their Heads

A meeting of the WAA was held Wednesday afternoon at 5:00. They met in the WAA room and president Annette Ronk presided. The most important item of business was the selection of the clubs for the winter season and the election of the club heads. The clubs chosen are basketball, volley ball, square dancing, and outing. Doris Coppock will head the basketball club in the coming season. The leader of the volley ball club is Joan Finfrock, and Betty Kimmel, Ila Verne Lobban, Eula Wolfe, Annette Ronk, Jane Bell, Joyce Riddlebarger, and the girls who join the square dancing club will be hearing the calls of Evelyn Metzger, because she is to be the leader.

The Homecoming was also discussed. The letter women of the WAA will serve as ushers to the alumni, who will be seated in a body. These ushers will be Millie Jones, Betty Kimmel, Ila Verne Lobban, Eula Wolfe, Annette Ronk, Jane Bell, Joyce Riddlebarger.

The club will have a float for the parade. Gernelda Sprengel was appointed the chairman to the committee that has charge of the float. Those working with her are Joyce Riddlebarger, Roberta Mohler, Eula Wolf, Eulalia Crist, and Masa Nakamura.

The Adventures of Little Bug Flu

"Hurrah," shouts Little Bug Flu as he flew down the halls of the dormitory. "It's a picnic I'll have here," and with a sudden thud he landed on Jo B's nose. Kachoo! Catch it. There it goes again, kachoo! and Jo B. is hustled out of Arnold into the welcoming sheets of the dispensary bed in Kline. "I'll bring you a guest," whispers Little Bug Flu as he hurries off to find another to flirt and play the time away. Soon it is, the dispensary is filled with a steady stream of visitors, pajama clad, each making friends with all the cracks and crannies of the little corner room on the bottom floor of Kline.

Growing lonely for playmates and over exhausted by his strenuous work, Little Bug Flu goes in deep consultation as he tells his trials to the Kansas winds. Soon Little Bug Flu is happily engaged with Spotty Chicken Pox. A real nice freshman should be given the honor they decide. "But there is no more room," protests Little Bug Flu. "All the merrier, now we'll see what happens in an emergency." It happened!! Bernice Miles and all her little spots are hustled over to see Jo B (she did get out once, but had to go back) and Roommate Royer. Three people, two beds!! All so very cozy and convenient for Geneva, too.

Especially after Willard met, Little Bug Flu while headed for class. "Was Willy who was headed for class. Of course Geneva popped him into bed, but strangely enough he kept popping out again at the most inconvenient times.

Now there were many other things that little bug Flu did while touring the campus of McPherson College, but none that sound so strange as the tale Pat tells. It all happened because Alexander (Dumond's pride and joy) felt slighted and hurt thinking his owner did not regard him with the respect and reverence he once did (which of course was a misunderstanding on Alexander's part). You see Dave had unaccountably made Little Bug Flu's acquaintance and alas—he went to the hospital, Dave and Little Bug Flu.

The hour was 9:30, the place the library—three forms make a hasty exit enroute to the hospital. Via Alexander! By dint of arduous and vigorous persuasion the hospital was reached (persuasion in the form of Helman and Dumond on the outside—pushing, accompanied by Pat—at the wheel). The fact that the hospital closes at 9:30 had not occurred to the trio, this incidental matter was pressed upon their consciousness when at the stroke of ten Pat helpfully helps the situation by remarking it's time she should be in at Arnold Hall. Taxi service being what it is, she got home—at 10:20. Sufficeith to say Alexander got home. And Albright?, he probably slept.

Bailey and Brooks were co-workers with Little Bug Flu and Geneva. How? the dirty work done (getting the fellows to bed) the two (Bailey and Brooks) made varied and sundry trips to the boy's dorm. A most excellent method of gaining admittance, and for once it could truthfully be said that the women had the upper hand! Oh yes, they fed the fellows.

Little Bug Flu may still be around, who knows. So better get a head start on him else you may find yourself in most any weird and strange situation. There's the whistle, so it's time to "flew".

she leaned forward,
her brown eyes pleading,
her carmine lips upturned,
her cheeks tinged with pink—pursed and small . . .
her throat white . . .
her arms extended . . .
boy! what a magazine cover!

Beauty is only skin deep.
Thinner I would say.
For a little soap and water
Will wash it all away.

Here's to God's first thought, Man!
And here's to God's second thought, Woman!
Second thoughts are always best—
So here's to women!

Love is like an onion—
You taste it with delight;
And when it's gone you wonder
Whatever made you bite!
SUCKER!!

The freshman child, mild and meek,
Fell in love with a sophomore sleek.
The sophomore lad, with head in whirl,
Had a crush on a junior girl.
The junior girl, with a big sedan,
Made desperate passes at the senior man;
But the senior man, so worldly and wild,
Secretly loved the freshman child.

At least I'll have no test to take.
If I should die before I wake,
Before I take tomorrow's test,
Now I lay me down to rest.

CHUCKS BY CHUCK

The "Bulldogs" did an excellent job of floor pounding last Tuesday, in fact, they made the high team look small. Is the opinion of this writer that we will have a strong team this year if the fellows keep about getting tennis courts on our campus? And is any machinery (managerial) set up so that we will be definitely sure of getting them? They've been talked about for three years. It just goes to show that talking without action is fruitless. 'Nuff Chucks.

Just a word about the beaming star that lost his light for a while at the beginning of the week. Tough, Dave, tough! That's all we can say, tough for you and tough for us. Who knows that score with Southwestern might have been different if you weren't sick.

Say, ladies and gentlemen, if you have any husky cousins, or brothers, who are ready for college, invite them to the healthy atmosphere of Macampus. We're going to have a football team next year, and for that we need men. You might also write your congressmen and tell them to stop drafting our future students and athletes.

The Chicago Cubs are planning to have a training camp at Lake Worth, Florida. A few of the Hutchinson Cubs are eligible for this training camp. The purpose of the camp is to develop material from the farm clubs for the major team. "The Cubs" manager, Sheenan said "realize their future strength lies in the cradle of Baseball, their minor league clubs." Again we ask, "what is being done about getting tennis courts on our campus?" And is any machinery (managerial) set up so that we will be definitely sure of getting them? They've been talked about for three years. It just goes to show that talking without action is fruitless. 'Nuff Chucks.

I never kiss,
I never neck,
I never say darn,
I never say heck,
I'm always good,
I'm always nice,
I play no poker,
I shake no dice,
I never drink,
I never flirt,
I never gossip,
Or spread on dirt,
I have no line,
Or funny tricks,
But give me time,
I'm ONLY six!

"She has the most darling southern accent—where's she from?"
"Wichita."

I feel so smug when I've been good
I soon become unbearable—
I'm really pleasanter to know
When I have just been terrible!
