Peters Resigns, Effective July 1950

Second Annual Workshop On Recreation, March 4-6

Bob Tully, prominent youth leader, will be one of the many youth leaders who will appear on the program of the Recreational Workshop, which is to be held in the church parlors on March 4, 5, and 6.

Sponsored by the McPherson College Recreational Council, courses in music, folk games, leathercraft, and plastics will be offered.

For the second consecutive year a recreation workshop will be conducted at McPherson College, March 4-6. Beginning at five o'clock Friday evening, the workshop will continue until Sunday evening.

This workshop will offer a streamlined course in wholesome recreation for church and community life and will provide fun and fellowship.

Each person will have an opportunity to participate in both a crafts and a recreation class. Various classes and their leaders will be: finger painting, Hazel Hesley; plastics, Charles Bell; woodcarving, Jesse Holloway; leathercraft, Milton Dell; women's arts, Miriam Dell; individual sports, Dick Wareham; music, Don Frederick; folk games, Bob Tully; and other activities, Jim Elrod and DeWitt Miller.

Group discussions will cover such topics as "Folk Games in our Modern World," "The Place of Worship in Recreation," "Recreational Opportunities in Brethren Service," "Recreation and the Church."

Around twenty-five college students in addition to the Recreational Council will be able to attend the workshop. Anyone who is interested may contact Bob Klein, chairman, or Donna Bowman, secretary.

Registration fee will be $6 to cover meals and other expenses. All those participating, including college students, will eat all six meals at the church.

Haag And Moyer To Represent Mac At State Meets

Sunday, Feb. 27, and Monday, Feb. 28, found orators battling against each other in the fields of Prohibition and Anti-Tobacco. Lloyd Haag took top honors in the Prohibition contest and Harold Moyer took the honors in the Anti-Tobacco contest.

Mr. Haag received $7 in prize money when his oration and delivery was judged superior last Sunday evening. Mr. Haag's oration was entitled "Why Kansas Should Remain Dry." However when Mr. Haag journeys to Stamford for the state contest, his oration will be re-titled "Perverted Propaganda."

Others placing and winning $5, $2 and $1 respectively were Lester Messamer, "Why Not One," Gerae Neher, "Liquor Legal," and Kenneth McMurray, "Liquor Ace Salesman."

Judges for the contest were Miss Lehman, Prof. Bechtel, and Dr. Hesley.

Anti-Tobacco Contest

Four speakers were entered in the Anti-Tobacco oratorical contest. They were, Dorothy Speaker, "One Barb of Life," Charles Hess, "The Destroyer," Harold Moyer, "The Tobacco Problem," and Nancy Carter, "Success or Failure."

Miss Carter and Mr. Moyer tied for first place but Mr. Moyer outranked his opponent with speaker ratings, thus giving him the privilege of representing the college at the state contest at Central College on March 11.

Prizes at the state meeting will be $53, $25, and $15 for the contestants placing in first to third.

Judges for the orations on Monday afternoon were Dr. Metzler, Dr. Fee and Prof. Flory. Prof. M. A. Hess stated that the large audience for the orations was the largest in his memory.

While in McPherson, the caravanners will study with Prof. Raymond Flory, Mr. James Elrod, and others in preparation for their future work.

Volunteer Service Fund Receives $46 From Mac

It was announced by Gerald Neher that $46.00 from the Brethren Volunteer Service Jar has been sent into Elgin, Illinois, where Brethren Service headquarters are located. The jar is still in its place by the cash register in the cafeteria.

Since the General Brotherhood Board has had to cut its expenditures for the year, the expected allotment for Brethren Service has been slashed accordingly. Youth that have volunteered are attempting to raise sufficient funds by suggesting that people contribute 1 cent a meal so that the program of service will not have to be cut.

McPherson's only dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, held its initiation of new members on Wednesday evening, March 2. New members taken into the organization were Mrs. Kathleen Harry, Miss Ann Oberst, Mr. LeRoy Doty, and Mr. Harry Knapp.

Active members on the college campus are Mr. Ted Geisert, Mr. Gordon Reist, and Mr. Gerald Neher.

To be eligible for membership a student must earn 50 points in the McPherson College Players. These points must be distributed between acting and stage work. Part of the initiation is the memorization of the Greek alphabet.

Many Enroll For First Aid Course

The First Aid course will consist of thirty hours of classroom work and will be completed in three weeks. The course will be under the direction of Mr. Roy E. Kneip, of Ft. Worth. Mr. Kneip is a National Red Cross representative.

Materials for the class, such as splints, bandages, and stretchers will be provided by the National Red Cross. The new book that will be used is now available in the college book store and can be purchased for 60¢. The class is worth two hours of college credit.

College CBYF To Take Offering For Needy Folks

The local college CBYF group will take up an offering this Sunday evening to help raise the $50 the group decided to send toward the purchasing of 50 field jackets for the BSC unit in Carrara, Italy.

In a letter from Eugene Lichy, New Windsor, Maryland, he stated the need for these field type jackets. According to officials of the CBYF anyone caring to contribute should see either Mr. Charles Royer or Miss Ruth Holospole.

Sociology Class Plans Field Trip

The Urban Sociology class has started plans for their annual field trip this year. The date set is Thursday, March 10. The class has chosen to visit Wichita, and they will spend the day there visiting places of interest in connection with their classroom studies of city life.

The group will leave the campus after the 8 o'clock class on Thursday, and are tentatively scheduled to visit the KFHF radio station, the historical museum and the Cesana Aircraft factory.

The trip will be made in private cars, and the class expects to be back on the campus by six in the evening.

Rev. Dwight Enberg of Parsons, Kansas, was the speaker at the first Thursday evening Lenten service, March 3, at the church of the Brethren.

Outside speakers have been secured for special messages each Thursday evening during Lent, according to the pastor, Rev. De Witt Miller.

Teaching wives and sweethearts how to drive the new mechanical wagons was portrayed by Mr. Harry Knapp and Mr. Max McAuley. The impressions of Mr. Laurence Olivier was given by Mr. Harold McNamee.

The next participation meeting will be held on March 28, at 7:30.

During the business meeting the dates for "Blythe Spirit," were set for April 4, 5, 6, and 7. Casting was started on Tuesday, March 1.

Last year she was granted a leave of absence to study piano in New York under Carl Friedberg. She returned to McPherson College this fall to become acting head of the piano department during the absence of Miss Jessie Brown.

President Has Served Mac College For Eight Years

President W. W. Peters announced on Wednesday, March 2, that he would not be a candidate for re-election to the college presidency after July 1, 1950.

President Peters came to McPherson College as president in 1941. He had previously taught at the Brethren College, Manchester, North Manchester, Ind.

W. W. Peters

Following is the statement read to the student body, March 2, concerning the resignation of Dr. Peters.

"After careful consideration, I am hereby announcing that I will not be a candidate for re-election to the position of President of McPherson College after the expiration of my present contract on July 1, 1950. Signed W. W. Peters.

Dr. Peters has served McPherson College for eight years, being appointed to the position in 1941. Dr. Peters previously had taught at Manchester College, North Manchester, Indiana.

Movie Line Party At Manor Tonight

Model U. N. Again Slated

for McPherson College

The second annual model United Nations, which is to be held on the McPherson College campus, will be on April 12, according to the official school calendar.

Prof. Raymond Flory and Mr. Dean Neher, sophomore, have been working out the details of this year's model. Countries to be represented and representatives will be asked for in the very near future.

Last year the model was well received by the McPherson County High Schools. According to some sources this year's model should be equally well attended because of the new interest in the local county chapter of the UNESCO organization.

Arrangements have been made with the management of the theater and a representative of the college students attending.

The "line party" is being sponsored by the Social Committee of the college.

Chapel Seats Are Located With Map

Two hundred seats that were removed from the Chapel sometime Sunday evening or Monday morning have been found and returned to the college. The chapel will be ready for the regular Monday assembly on Monday, March 7.

The seats were found in a granary, one mile east and one mile south of the college farm.

An anonymous person mailed to Dr. W. W. Peters a map showing how to locate the granary.

Election Cancelled, To Be Held Soon

The election that had been scheduled for last Tuesday concerning the amendment to the constitution was cancelled because of insufficient publicity.

Last week's article in the Spectator about the election and the amendment was called to the attention of freshmen English classes by Professor Hess. It was pointed out that according to the article the different classes and organizations would have no representation in the Student Council, and that the information was not official because the secretary of the Student Council had not signed it.

The entire Article III, Section 2, of the constitution was not included in the Spectator story thereby explaining some of the confusion about the amendment.

Correctly stated Article III, Section 2 Article (a) of the constitution

An Improvement?

An election on the revision of the constitution of the student council will be held in the very near future. The revision on which students will vote is the work of a group of students that circulated a petition asking that faculty representation be redistributed; in effect, that the Dean of Men and Dean of Women be elected to the student council, if desired by the students, and not appointive as it now stands.

In the future all faculty representatives on the council will be elected except the Dean of the college. Now outwardly this would seem to be fine because no one will deny that an organization needs new blood. But what are the implications behind this move?

Are those students that started the petition actually interested in improving the council, or, are they trying to show certain members of the faculty just where to get off? It has been pointed out that at the present time some of the faculty representatives do not take their responsibility seriously; that certain members miss numerous meetings and attend only when something big is to be discussed; And for these reasons faculty members should be elected by the student body, because then persons actually interested in the council and its work will be more inclined to attend the meetings.

But we fail to see that this is actually a weakness in the present council. Some students and student members of the council share our opinion. We feel that a group of students are taking their personal grudges out on individuals and not on the constitution where the weakness actually lies.

Before becoming too hot and bothered about the faculty representative we would advocate something being done to the constitution in reference to the relationship between the council and the board of publications, where all of this trouble originated.

Some read from the constitution that the board of publications is supreme in its decisions while others read that the council is supreme because the publications board is a subsidiary of the council.

At the present time the council has a committee working on various revisions of the constitution. Eventually the student body will hear about the recommendations of this committee; but until then, what?

Forget your petty differences; try to work for the betterment of the council and try to wipe out the talk about what the council has not done this year.

Our Burma Road

More than likely not many students on the college campus realize that we here in McPherson have a Burma Road. Actually that is not the name of the thoroughfare but it must closely resemble its famous counter part in China.

The avenue of travel we are speaking of is the chewed up fifteen blocks of East Euclid. Since the snow first covered the black top and chat covered street, the travel on Euclid has been extremely hard on the surface. Now that the thawing has taken place the street has become a veritable cow lane.

Because of the great amount of moisture in the ground the city fathers have stated that no major in '49.

repairs work on McPherson's streets will be done until this summer. Until the work on Euclid is taken care of the street remains a danger to both human lives and property. The big hazard is the large number of deep chuck holes that are to be found on the avenue.

What can college students do until the ~~classman~~ repair this street? Undoubtedly the most important thing we can do is to drive slowly and safely until repairs can be made. It is our responsibility to see that there are not any serious accidents because of careless students driving on an under-par street.

Take it easy with the speed until the street is resurfaced. Stay alive in '49.

Guest Editor Brethren Become Part Of Society

This week's guest editor is Raymond R. Peters, executive secretary of the Brotherhood Board. Mr. Peters has been active in church work for many years. Mr. Peters writes on the social and cultural trends in the Church, of the Brethren. Last summer Mr. Peters traveled over Europe inspecting the BSC units throughout the various European countries.

Mr. Peters' editorial follows:

The early Brethren in Germany pulled away from the traditional form and culture of their day and became known as Separatists. There has been a strong, pietistic influence in the Brethren culture. A great deal of emphasis has been placed on the simple life and religion had little value unless it was lived forth in good living. Thus, the Brethren traditionally attempted to pull away from "worldly people" to live the good life among themselves. This concept was also reflected in the non-conformist ideas as related to society and the state.

Since the turn of the century, the Brethren have been shifting in their position and are becoming increasingly more cosmopolitan in their outlook. They are more and more a section of society. They are finding themselves in the professions and various avenues of business. Thus, they are becoming interested in civic, political, educational, economic, and cultural aspects of the community. They are actively participating in the constructive organization of the community.

This change in point of view has made the Brethren interested in the world in which they live. As a result, they have taken an active part in the world-wide missionary enterprise of the church, and in recent years have been particularly interested in relief and rehabilitation in the war devastated areas of the world. The concern which Brethren have had traditionally for each other is being expressed to unfortunate people at home and abroad. They feel that Christianity involves leadership in all of the efforts that go to make for more peaceful and harmonious living in all social relationships.

Brethren feel that social progress takes place to the extent that the individuals participating in human betterment are themselves motivated by high idealism and possess in their own lives a high ethical code. The Brethren are interested in producing people of high intellectual attainment, deep spiritual insight, and broad social sympathies. In this spirit they are moving into the contemporary world humbly but hopefully.

There Is A Place For You

Four Workcamps Are Slated For Western Region

Where do you want to serve? A pamphlet reviewing the work camps that will be sponsored by the Church of the Brethren has just been released and it lists seventeen different projects for which students can volunteer.

Four work camps will be held in the Western Region, Wichita, Kansas, Kansas City, Missouri, Rocky Ford, Colorado and Avery, Iowa, will be the sites of the Western Region camps. In Wichita the camp will work in an underprivileged community located outside the city just southwest of the industrial section.

In Kansas City, campers will work at the Carver Neighborhood Center. The area is predominantly occupied by Negroes. Campers will do both physical and mental work. In Avery, the campers will work with migrant laborers, most of whom are Spanish-speaking people. Campers will organize recreation for all ages, make friendly calls, and conduct classes in crafts, storytelling and arrange worship services.

The fourth camp will be in Avery, Iowa. Campers will clean a community playground and help with recreation. Other camps

Other camps will be sponsored in the eastern and western parts of the United States. Camps vary from those that the campers finance to those where campers are paid a salary. Two camps that will pay campers a salary are being held at Catonsville and Crownsville, Maryland. Both of these camps will be interested in working with the mentally ill.

Foreign workcamps will also be sponsored this year. Camps in Germany, Austria, Italy, and Poland are tentatively scheduled for the summer months. These camps will be dependent upon campers who are able to pay their own way to Europe and back. The total cost, including incidental travel expenses will be between $500 and $600.

If more information is desired, interested persons may write to Ora Huston, Brethren Service Commission, 22 South State Street, Elgin, Illinois, or to Miss Ruth Early, Regional Office, McPherson College, McPherson, Kansas.

City Desk

By Carmina

As long as this is a column of the people, by the people and for the people, we thought it might be nice to circulate around this week and get a few ideas from the kids as to what they thought should be done to punish the culprits who carried off the seats of the chapel. The question proved to bring about as much controversy as the recent elections, but here are the kids' opinions. All opinions expressed are purely personal and don't necessarily express the feelings of this column.

The first place we went to find someone to interview was the favorite gathering place, the Student Union Room. Here we found several students gathered together discussing this very question. Dot Little on one hand thought no punishment should be necessary, but instead a blue ribbon for the offenders, plus a special chapel in their honor.

Paul Mingeback had another idea. He was in favor of requiring a series of chapel speeches by the offenders, perhaps on the evils of school pranks.

Don Shultz added an interesting sidelight. He thought once the seats were recovered it would probably be best to issue them to the students and let them carry them around, then they'd all have their own when chapel time came around.

Wilbur Beattie, who was sleeping peacefully in a remote corner, thought the culprits deserved an A for effort, if they had the ambition to go to all that trouble.

Don Smith would only remark, "That's college life, what would it be without an occasional sidesplitter."

Jack Mathis didn't want to go on record as having an opinion, but he did think it might be nice to brand them in some way so everyone could tell just who was responsible.

Next we asked Ann Oberst what she thought the punishment should be. She thought that no punishment was necessary unless the seats were damaged, and concluded that she thought it was just another school prank.

Harry Heckethorn was very emphatic in his answer. He thought the culprits were deserving of praise, and when they were caught the school should have a holiday in their honor. A little radical perhaps, but that's what Harry thinks.

Robert Hill had a safe way of looking at the question. When asked for his opinion, he said he

Miss Gina Munda was the dinner guest of Miss Ruth Early, Tuesday evening.

The McPherson College Women's Quartet sang in Lyons last Sunday. The members of the quartet are Jeane Baldwin, Rowena Neher, Nelda Jean Baldwin, and Florence Messick.

Mr. Ira Brammell accompanied the quartet to Lyons.

Wilda Minix and Mildred Dell, sophomores, traveled in Western Kansas last week end.

had none, for opinions only got you into trouble. Could be.

Larry Tredre perhaps had the most severe opinion of the group. He suggested immediate expulsion from school, and suspension for three years, until the offenders were mature enough for college. Another solution, says he, would be increased homework, for it seems they haven't enough to keep them busy now.

Fritz Gatz and Kenny Newport also were pretty lax on the punishment needed. They think the seat swipers were pretty smart fellows and deserved a pat on the back.

Journeying on over to the college inn we met a few more kids with opinions on the matter. Buck Reinecker, our student council president, thought it would be a good idea to make them wear signs proclaiming to all that they were the culprits, and embarrassing them all over the campus.

Earl Grindle would only say, "Do whatever's right."

Phyllis Brown came up with a really constructive idea. She thinks it would serve the offenders right to make them go through one of those famous M. Club paddle lines.

Gene Arnold's only solution for the problem was to keep a better tab on the student ministers.

Here's the place to end all this, and remember, as our immortal Abe Lincoln said, "The world will little note nor long remember what we say here."

Bulldogs Win Seventh Game

Warriors Downed Again By Bulldogs

The McPherson Bulldogs repeated an earlier victory over the Sterling Warriors this time at Sterling by the score of 38 to 32 Friday, Feb. 25.

Half-time score, however, gave the crimson canines only a small 15-17 advantage at half-time. Nevertheless, the Bulldogs held on and added to this small lead to leave the court at the sound of the final whistle leading 38 to 32.

High point man for the game was furnished by the losing Warriors, however, in the person of Mucl who scored 11 points. Herb Bruns, McPherson's tall center, was high with 9 points for the victorious Bulldogs.

The box score is as follows:

Bulldogs "B" Team Falls To Sterling "B" Warriors

Although leading at half-time, the "B" squad could not follow the example of their older brothers and lost to the Sterling Warriors second stringers 33 to 31 in a preliminary to the varsity struggle at Sterling.

The junior Bulldogs had an 18 to 14 halftime lead, but could not hold on to that advantage in the last half as the Warriors marched on to victory.

McFarland was high for the winning Sterlingites with eleven points while Lindberg took McPherson's scoring honors with 10 points.

Locker Chatter

From where the record stands now, it looks like a cinch for a playoff between Ottawa and Kansas Wesleyan, probable co-champions of the Kansas Conference for the 1948-49 season, for a spot in the N. A. I. B. tournament to be held in Kansas City's municipal auditorium March 4 to 7. The Wesleyan Coyotes have only to topple the Bethel Graymaroons in their path to the co-championship.

Furthermore, we feel safe in predicting that the Coyotes will take the rubber game of the series and enter the playoffs. From there, we don't care to speculate; however we might add that just how far our representative get in the tourney will serve as an accurate barometer of exactly how good a brand of ball is played in our Kansas Conference.

Coach Russ Davee of the Baker Wildcats has succeeded Coach Wally Forsberg of the conference-leading Ottawa Braves on the Kansas Na. A. I. B. committee.

Sports Sidelight—Although the score was 57 to 45, throughout the last Ottawa-Baker game, tension was high and the margin was low. The Wildcats wanted to take this one bad, very bad. Bill Horn, Baker photographer, offered to take the Wildcats pictures on the Ottawa floor in an old-fashioned night shirt. Well, Bill Horn was there with camera and nightshirt; however the Wildcats couldn't pull through with that win.

As we mentioned last week, the closing season always brings all-star time when we select players we think have given an outstanding performance. So picking the ten best in our own opinion from the six other clubs in the Conference we'll choose Charley Fiffe, Harold Pounds, Gene Anderson, Kansas Wesleyan; Warren Nevins, Feker; Jack Smith, College of Emporia; A. B. Turner, Bill Tiegreen, Musgrave, Ottawa; and Dave Anderson, Bethany.

Bulldogs Lose To Winfield Quintet

The McPherson Bulldogs closed their 1948-49 season with a defeat at the hands of the Southwestern Moundbuilders at Winfield, Tuesday, March 1, by the score of 64 to 50.

The Bulldogs started, however, surprisingly well as they drew an advantage of 9 to 1 in the early part of the game; but the powerful Moundbuilders came back in regular fashion as they led commanding 32-22 at halftime, continuing in the last half to win 64 to 50.

The Moundbuilders' brilliant post man, Danny Kahler, scored 23 points against the losing Bulldogs while Peters took McPherson scoring honors with 13 points.
