

Former Student to Portray Hamlet

Tom Rea, former student, is pictured in one of the scenes from the University of Kansas production of "Hamlet." Mr. Rea was on the Mac Campus and spoke to the Shakespeare class of Miss Della Lehman on Tuesday, April 12. (See interview on page 3).

Tom Rea, senior at Kansas University, plays the lead part of Hamlet in the Shakespearean play of the same name, to be given in the auditorium of McPherson High School Thursday, April 21.

Mr. Rea attended McPherson College his freshman year, and his home is in McPherson.

The 20 members of the cast and production staff will travel by bus. Full scenic and lighting equipment for all nine scenes is carried with them.

The present production of "Hamlet" by the University of Kansas is declared by teachers, students and the press to be one of the finest all-student productions ever seen at the University.

Spectator Cancels Issue Of April 22

Because of the shortened week immediately following the Easter vacation the staff of the Spectator will be forced to suspend publication for that week. The next issue to be published will be on April 29.

Students will still receive the contracted fifteen issues for the second semester. Had the issue of April 22 been published, the student body would have received a bonus issue.

In order to put out the Spectator it is necessary to send to the offices of the Daily Republican one-fourth of the material on Monday. Vacation will not be over until the following Tuesday, and as a result the staff will not be in a position to publish a paper on the 22. Look for the Spectator at the usual spot on April 29.

College Band To Present Concert; Seniors To Direct

A spring concert featuring the four graduating seniors of the college band will be given during the assembly period next Tuesday. The four graduating seniors will each conduct a concert march.

Students Enroll After Easter

All students are being urged to take care of tentative enrollment immediately following the Easter vacation.

The Central Office plans to have all schedules printed by then, according to Miss Alice B. Martin, assistant registrar. If students would take care of the tentative enrollments immediately upon return from vacation, it would assist the central office immeasurably.

Eugene Crabb

The McPherson College Band, under the direction of Prof. Eugene Crabb, will be heard in a spring concert next Tuesday morning during the regular assembly period. The band is also preparing for a spring trip, the May Day parade, and the Booster Banquet.

Leland High, Kenneth Jarboe, Carl Dell, and Ronald Moyer will be the seniors that will conduct a concert march. Mr. High, Mr. Jarboe, and Mr. Moyer are music majors and plan to teach next year.

The program to be presented is as follows:

- Come Sweet Death—J. S. Bach.
- Dream Pantomime (Hansel & Gretel)—Humperdinck.
- Selections from "Oklahoma"—Rogers.
- The Ramparts We Watch—Becher.
- Hall of Fame—Olivadotti.
- Colorado—Holmes.
- World Is Waiting For the Sunrise—Alford.
- Holiday For Strings—Rose.

Immediately following the Booster Banquet the music department of the college will present an evening of music. It will include the choral societies of the campus.

Frantz, Yoder Conduct Pre-Easter Services

Earl M. Frantz, director of public relations, began last Sunday a week's pre-Easter service at the Leeton, Missouri Church of the Brethren.

W. H. Yoder, president of the Board of Trustees, is holding a similar service at the Dallas Center, Iowa, Church of the Brethren.

'We Need Your Blood,' Says Red Cross Director

Because the Central Blood Bank at Wichita is almost depleted, McPherson College students are being given an opportunity to participate in a special blood donation on April 20.

Between 75 and 100 McPherson College students are needed next Wednesday to donate blood to the Red Cross blood bank.

Miss Mary C. Burcham, director of the Red Cross blood program in this area, announced in chapel Wednesday. This visit of the blood donor unit to McPherson is for McPherson college students only.

Each person will give one pint of blood which will be sent to the Central Blood Bank for use in this area.

A fleet of cars will provide transportation between the college and the Red Cross office between 10:30 and 3 on April 20.

A regular meal will be served each person who gives blood.

Student co-chairmen heading the drive for donors are Lois Yoder and Bill Albright.

Any student over 18 years of age is eligible to give blood, but those under 21 must secure the consent of their parents. The cards for parents' signature must be returned to one of the co-chairmen or the Central Office by noon Tuesday, April 19.

Blickenstaff, Martin Head 49-50 Student Government

In an election campaign that featured blaring loud speakers, campaign posters, and an airplane bombing the campus with leaflets, Mr. Vernon D. Blickenstaff was elected to the presidency of the student government. Miss Bonnie Martin will be treasurer. The election had all of the symptoms of the real thing.

In a close election Mr. Blickenstaff won over Mr. John Firestone, 135 to 116, for the presidency of Student Council. Also, the race for treasurer was close with Miss Martin winning over Mr. Bill Sheets, 145 to 106.

Of the three hundred and twenty-nine full time students that are enrolled this semester two hundred and fifty-one cast their ballots in the student body election of officers. This means that seventy-eight students failed to vote.

Vernon Blickenstaff, when asked to make a statement concerning his recent election to the presidency, said, "The past election showed a keen interest among the students, which I think is a good thing to have. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank those that voted for me."

John Firestone, in commenting on the election, said, "Congratulations to the new president, and best of luck for the coming year."

Booster Banquet To Be Nineteenth Affair; To Feature Music Department

On April 22, the 19th annual Booster Banquet will be held and see something never before done by the college. The music department has combined and will present a musicale which will feature the band, orchestra, and choral organizations of the campus. The banquet is a joint project arranged by the college and the city.

"Education For Community and College Cooperation" is the motto for the 19th annual Booster Banquet to be held at the Community Building Friday, April 22 at 6:45 p.m.

The Booster Banquet is sponsored cooperatively by the city of McPherson and McPherson College.

Mr. R. H. Renfro, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will be banquet toastmaster. Rev. Lynn S. Lyon, president of the local Ministerial Alliance, will give the invocation. President W. W. Peters will give a very brief report on the college.

Following the dinner, a fine arts concert sponsored by the McPherson College music department will be presented. Mr. Winston Goering, master of ceremonies, will be in charge of the program, which will include the following organizations and soloists: College Orchestra, College Ladies Quartette, A Cappella Choir; College Band; Chapel Choir; Mr. Eugene Crabb, director-soloist; Mr. Roland Pflasterer, soloist; Miss Anne Krehbiel, soloist; Mr. Donald Frederick, chorus director; and Miss Ardy's Albright and Miss Avis Albright, comedienne.

This will be the first program of its kind since the banquet has been sponsored.

Of the 376 regular four year students enrolled this year, 118 give their present home address as McPherson. In addition 88 unclassified and fine arts students reside in McPherson. This fact shows that the city is a big part of the college.

The ticket sales committee is composed of E. M. Frantz, Harold Bean, Ira N. H. Brammell, J. H. Fries, Russell Reinecker, R. Gordon Yoder, and W. H. Yoder.

Student help is very much needed, and for three hours of service rendered a ticket for the banquet and concert will be provided.

In 1945, the leather soles of all men's, women's, and children's, leather shoes in the United States, fitted together, would cover only 16 square miles.

Booster Banquet To Be Nineteenth Affair; To Feature Music Department

On April 22, the 19th annual Booster Banquet will be held and see something never before done by the college. The music department has combined and will present a musicale which will feature the band, orchestra, and choral organizations of the campus. The banquet is a joint project arranged by the college and the city.

Faculty Makes Ruling On Activities; Awards Or Credit To Be Given

Members of the Curriculum Committee have made recommendations to the faculty concerning awards, credits, and financial returns that can be earned in co-curricular activities. In many cases credit or awards may be given but, not both.

Dean Luther Warren reported to the faculty April 1, on the co-curricular activities for the Curriculum Committee concerning the presentation of awards, credits, and financial returns for the various activities carried on by students on the Mac College campus.

The members of the faculty have decided that only awards or credits may be given. It was decided that not both can be earned. Activities affected by this decision will be the music ensembles and quartettes. In these two groups only credit will be given. In debate it was recommended that only credit or awards but not both be given.

For Student Council president and treasurer only awards will be given. Athletes, managers, and cheer leaders beginning 1949-50 will receive awards. In the past freshmen and sophomores that were out for varsity sports were excused from the regular gym classes. This will not be the case next year. Freshmen and sophomores will be required to attend gym classes regardless of the varsity sports they are connected with.

The editors and business managers of the Spectator and Quadrangle are to receive either awards or credits but not both. The opinion was expressed that the continuing sharing of profits with capable supervision would be satisfactory. M Club and WAA members will continue to receive awards from their own treasury as of the present.

All of these rulings were passed on at the April 1 meeting of the faculty and are to take effect this semester.

A Fair Deal

To Faculty Members Only

President Harry Truman has announced that his second term in the White House will deal mainly with getting a "fair deal" for all concerned. While Mr. Truman has been pondering on the quirks of his administration, we have been pondering on a "fair deal" for the student body of McPherson College. Just recently a certain faculty member in making an announcement about an approaching test merely said that in the very near future that there would be one given.

When questioned if he would announce the specific date that the test would be given, this faculty member merely said that we should all be prepared. We want a "fair deal" for students.

The number of wide-eyed, gaping expressions of amazement and despair which prevail after an instructor announces a quiz with a scanty three days' notice we should think would discourage a professor from following the same pattern a second time. But evidently this response made no penetration into the professor's lack of awareness of the students' position.

We suggest that the faculty adopt a system of course programming so that at the beginning of each semester a student has given him a mimeographed "scoop sheet," listing the complete schedule which the course will follow. Some schools now use this method and have proved that course outlining is very beneficial to both the students and the faculty members. First, as a timesaver, the system is hard to top. The assignment sheet is simply distributed when the course begins, and the professor need only refer his students to it for each subsequent day's work.

Secondly, tests and small quizzes are announced on the assignment sheet, making it much easier for the students to gauge the number of hours necessary to prepare for tests. The student, with assignment sheet in hand, has something concrete on which to base his opinions besides the brief summary which the professor may choose to give at the beginning of the semester.

Finally, the system would be of great aid in bringing the student to exercise his own responsibility in the planning of his schedule. And since college should develop responsibility this programming outline would serve two purposes. The student could shop around at the term's beginning and compare the prospectus of the courses which he is considering, paying particular attention to the work load involved in each. He could regard weeks during which several exams or papers might fall due, with an eye to eliminating activities which would jam up his time schedule.

This system's main aim is to provide the student with something tangible, telling what he will be expected to accomplish during the semester. We hope that every faculty member will try to use some form of this system in order to equip his students better for greater academic achievement, and to enable them to plan in advance so that their free time can be profitably and enjoyably spent.

Do not be like the vague professor. Outline your semester, help the students to higher academic achievement.

Are You Guilty?

For Students Only

McPherson College has just gone through another student officer election. The past election has brought a few things to mind that students and the student council could do to help improve the yearly elections.

One of the things that particularly stood out in this year's election was the infantile pastime of defacing the candidates campaign posters. Posters for all candidates were penciled with crude remarks and in some cases even removed. Each and everyone of us should learn to respect the efforts of different factions. We need not approve of some of these efforts, and yet we should never degenerate to adolescent tricks such as has been evident in the past election. In future elections respect the efforts of the opposition; if you do not agree, get out and campaign for the candidate that most closely meets what you want done.

Another improvement for the elections is the need of a regular ballot box which would be complete with a lock. For a number of years the council has used any type of a paste board box with a slot cut in the lid. Nothing serious has happened as yet as far as the ballots are concerned; but if a regular ballot box were obtained, it would lessen the dangers that might occur.

These two things that have been mentioned are only suggestions that would, we feel, improve the general election which is held yearly on the Mac College campus.

Easter Editorial Whose King?

It was on Palm Sunday that Jesus permitted the people to hail Him as King. Earlier He had refused to accept such homage. A few days later, when Pilate asked Him whether He was a king, Jesus said, He was. But when Pilate called Him King of the Jews, in the superscription on the Cross, the Jews protested. He was not their king.

Whose King, then, was He? To Pilate He said, "My kingdom is not of this world." On an earlier occasion He had explained that the "kingdom is within you." His is a spiritual kingdom. He is King in the hearts of men, but not in the hearts of all. Only where men believe in Him and obey Him. Only where men hail Him in wholehearted loyalty and serve Him sincerely.

It may be in the heart of a child which sings, "Beautiful Saviour, King of creation, Son of God and Son of Man," or in the heart of one who more fully senses that "He is the King of Glory." In every instance where a person sees in Him his one and only hope of salvation, there Christ is King and Savior.

O Christ, King ever glorious, accept the homage of our humble, trusting hearts. Stir up within us unflinching loyalty and breathe into us a spirit of service worthy of Thy followers.

Guest Editor Easter, A Time To Recreate, Remake

This week's guest editor is the Rev. DeWitt L. Miller, pastor of the local McPherson Church of the Brethren. Rev. Miller has been active in the community and has taken an active part in the affairs of the college. At college parties he and his wife can always be seen enjoying the company of the Mac students. Rev. Miller's editorial about Easter follows.

Underneath the new clothes, the flowers, the glorious music, and the pageantry of Easter, there is a very important question which should receive the consideration of every thoughtful person. The important question concerns Easter is not, "Did Jesus rise from the dead on the third day?" even though scholars tell us the historicity of the event is attested by more primary and secondary evidence than any other comparable event of recorded history.

The really important question is this: Is Jesus alive in you? It was the awareness of His living presence in their lives and in their midst that transformed the disciples from a frightened, defeated, scattered group of disappointed men into flaming evangelists who went out to proclaim boldly a new gospel, united to each other by unbreakable ties of loyalty to a common Lord and with sufficient dynamic to shake the old Roman empire to its very foundations.

Needing men like that in these days makes it necessary for us to submit our lives to those spiritual disciplines which will bring to each of us a greater awareness of the presence, reality, and power of the Christ who broke the bonds of sin and death. Then the pettiness and the selfishness which limit the horizons of our lives so that we never enjoy the thrill and the adventure of more expansive living will disappear. Instead, we will be led to sacrifice for the sake of ideals and great causes, throwing ourselves unreservedly into activities destined to remake men and recreate human society. All of this will be done out of a genuine love for God and our fellowmen.

Easter will be significant to you only when the spirit of Christ becomes a living reality in you.

Wagoner To Sing For City Service Good Friday

Good Friday services will be conducted today beginning at 8:00 at the Methodist Church. The services will last until three. Mr. Paul Wagoner will sing at the 2:05 section of the meetings. He will sing "Christ Went Up Into The Hills."

Firms in downtown McPherson are cooperating with the Ministerial Alliance and will close from noon until two. These services are an annual affair.

The itinerary of the trip is as follows: Pampa, Texas, April 23; Cordell, Oklahoma, April 24; Thomas, Oklahoma, April 25; Ames, Oklahoma, April 26; Oklahoma City, April 27; Cushing, Oklahoma, April 28; Billings, Oklahoma, April 29; Verdigris, Kansas, April 30; Nickerson, Kansas, May 1; and Hutchinson, Kansas, May 1.

Interview 'Hamlet' Cast Is Congenial Group Says Tom Rea

"Just one big happy family," is the way Tom Rea pictured the twenty-two members of the University of Kansas' cast of "Hamlet." "We have to be that way, otherwise we could never work on such a difficult production."

Mr. Rea told about the company from K. U. over cups of hot coffee that occasionally needed "boiling #2." Mr. Rea gave a great deal of the credit to the Craftons who head the speech and drama department at the university. Mr. Rea said that the Craftons inspired people to get along with each other and one rapidly learns to work with them and to respect them. Another outstanding thing about the present cast is the way every member that plays a minor role dubs into another role or another task with the company.

For instance, Mr. Rea pointed out Mr. Tom Shay who plays the part of Laertes and who was also responsible for the unique way of building the 14 ft. flats that the company carries on a 10 ft. trailer. Mr. Shay is the technical director of the cast. In order to carry the oversize flats on the under-size trailer it was necessary to hinge the last four feet so that the flats could be easily transported.

Mr. Rea pointed out that the scenery and effects that will be used here in McPherson will be all new scenery especially designed and constructed for the road tour.

Mr. Rea stated that besides teaching several speech classes, attending a few graduate classes, and rehearsing plays for the University Theater that the twenty-four hours allotted to one day just would not stretch for any other activity. However, he pointed out that he was very enthusiastic about ice skating and is eagerly looking forward to the time when he will have an opportunity to learn to ski. He also mentioned that as far as spring and summer sports go, tennis is his main love.

To Tom Rea, a former student, and the entire cast of "Hamlet," we of the college and the city wish you all a gallant success.

Seniors React Unfavorably To Comprehensive

Seniors of the college have just finished taking annual comprehensive tests. The Spectator has interviewed a few of the seniors to find out just what their reactions to the tests were. Most of the seniors disapproved of some phase of the tests. Many recommended that the test be given in the junior year in order to help them to cover the material they did not know.

One person interviewed stated, "The comprehensive test will indicate what the teachers have not gotten across to the students or the students have not grasped. The returns of this test will not be back in time to benefit the student before he graduates. This should be given perhaps earlier so the teacher can give his students what they lack."

Another senior begrudged the time spent on the tests for the amount of good that was received from the test. He said, "comprehensive examinations prepared and administered by the college are not valuable enough to justify the amount of time and effort required to give the test. It might be more profitable for both student and faculty members if the standardized graduate tests were required or perhaps some type of original research work in the student's major subject."

Some seniors complained that "comprehensive" could be a value if they tested the work you had had, but most of the material in the standardized test was certainly new to me."

Reiterating the same idea, another senior stated that "with the exception of a small percent of the questions, I felt that the Graduate Record examination tested us over foreign material, and therefore was not comprehensive of emphasis in this school at least."

Names of these seniors have been withheld but are on file in the Spectator's office.

Children's Editor To Be Present At June Workshop

In the issue of April 8, the Spectator printed a story about the coming workshop that is to be held on the Mac Campus from June 6 to June 11. The paper reported that the workshop was to be from June 8 to June 10. The official date is from June 6 to June 11.

The workshop will be headed by Miss Mary Rupp, of the Eastern Oregon State College, La Grande, Oregon. Many other leaders of wide renown will be present at one or all of the meetings.

Miss Ruth Kittle, originator of the Kittle handwriting system, will be on the campus from June 6 to the 11. During this time Miss Kittle will teach a course in Methods of Teaching Writing. Miss Kittle's method has only recently been re-adopted for use in Kansas for another five years. The handwriting course is worth 1/2 hour of college credit.

Mrs. Ruth Garver Gagliardo, of Lawrence, Kansas, will be associated with the workshop from June 8 to the 10th. During that time Mrs. Gagliardo's well-known children's traveling book exhibit will be displayed. The exhibit is composed of approximately 600 editions of good books for children.

Mrs. Gagliardo is also well known for the "Children's Bookshelf," which she writes in the Kansas Teacher's magazine.

On the evening of June 6, Mrs. Allen Phares, of the Institute of Logopedics of Wichita, will speak to the entire group.

Captain Jose Guzman Baldvieso, Bolivian Consul for Kansas, will address the entire student body on the evening of June 9. This is an open meeting, and friends of the students attending the workshop are invited to attend.

Other members of the workshop staff will be Virginia Harris, college librarian; Dr. Mary Fee, Department of Education, McPherson College; Miss Della Lehman, Department of English, McPherson College; and Dr. Luther Warren, Director of Summer Sessions, McPherson College.

The 6th inning was McPherson's big inning with Colyn, D. Ramsey, Petefish, Stevens, Arnold and Ward all hitting while Grindle walked. Six runs were scored in the sixth. Coughenor pitched for McPherson giving up 8 hits but allowing only 2 runs.

Rain Halts M. C. Golfers In Friend's Competition

Friends held a considerable lead as play centered around the twelfth green when the matches had to be discontinued due to rain.

Those participating were Leland High, Kenneth Jarboe, and Valso Alallima.

Sucre, Bolivia, was founded in 1583 by the Spaniards as an advance post of their treasure hunting expedition into the interior.

Autographed Metronome Given To Frederick

The A Cappella Choir formal banquet was centralized around the theme, "Wagon Wheels," in recognition of Prof. D. F. Frederick's arrangement of the song of the same title. The banquet was held in the Blue Room of the Warren Hotel last Saturday evening, April 9.

The rustic decorations included saddles, wagon wheels, miniature stage coaches, and covered wagons. The Blue Room was lighted by candles. The menus were printed on paper wagon wheels and tiny cowboys hats served as napteups.

Mrs. Don Frederick offered an account of how her husband arranged "Wagon Wheels." Miss Helen Stover played a piano solo, "Cool Waters," and Miss Della Lehman gave a reading, "The Exchange."

Following dinner, Kenneth Graham, toastmaster and president of the A Cappella Choir, on behalf of the choir presented Professor Frederick with a metronome which had been personally autographed by Will James, author of "Dark Waters."

The evening came to a climax with the A Cappella Choir singing "Dedication."

Trackmen Place Second In Meet

The McPherson college track men journeyed to Sterling to partake in a triangular meet with Sterling and Central Colleges, Friday, April 8, and came in second with a total of 59 points. Sterling led easily with 75 points and Central College tallied only 25 points.

In the summary of individual scoring on the regular basis Carpenter proved to be the McPherson track star with three first places in the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the broad jump and fifteen points. He was topped only by Tedfor and Clayton of Sterling with 17 1/2 and 15 3/4 points respectively.

Bulldogs Take No. 2

In a game played at Sterling, the McPherson Bulldogs trounced the Sterling Warriors to the tune of 12-6. This was the second win of the season for the dogs.

Five Debaters Bark In Peoria At National Meet

The Pi Kappa Delta National Convention was held at Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois, April 10-14. McPherson College was represented by Ardy Albright, Avis Albright, Bonnie Martin, Theodore Geisert, and Donovan Speaker. The debaters were accompanied by Prof. Maurice Hess.

The girls debated in the women's section as a split team, that is, Miss Martin debated alternately with the Albright twins. Don Speaker and Ted Geisert composed the men's team from McPherson College.

Ardy Albright and Ted Geisert entered the extempore contest, while Avis Albright and Don Speaker entered the oratory contest.

There were eight rounds of debating and four rounds of oratory and extempore during the convention.

Work Camps Avery Site To Be Guided By Ages

WANTED: TEN (10) GOOD WORK CAMPERS AT AVERY, IOWA. EXPERIENCE UNNECESSARY.

Date: July 4 through August 14 (six weeks).

Location of Work Camp: The small Avery community in Southern Iowa. Directors of the Work Camp will be Willard and Geneva Arde. The Ardes graduated from McPherson College in 1948 and are now in Bethany Biblical Seminary. They directed the Avery Work Camp last summer. All concerned are happy that they can again give guidance to the camp.

The purpose of the work camp in Avery is to help create more wholesome community recreation and Christian education with an attempt to develop local leadership. The work will include continuing the playground which the work campers built last year, setting up equipment for recreation, week-day religious training and crafts classes for children, special community programs, campfires, and cooperation with the local church activities.

All interested parties should apply for this temporary work in the Regional Office, first floor of Sharp Hall, McPherson College.

Home Economics Adds To Staff

McPherson's home economics department will become a two-teacher department beginning September 1949. This action was taken by the Board of Trustees at their annual February meeting.

Students now majoring in the department will be able to specialize in Dietetics, Foods and Nutrition, and according to Miss Mildred Slek, "The students will become better trained teachers of Home Economics, and more efficient homemakers as a result of these changes."

New courses have been added to the department, which will include Fundamentals of Clothing, Child Guidance, Experimental Cookery, Nutrition and Dietetics, Institutional Management, and Quantity Cookery.

The present course in advanced clothing will be revised to consist of laboratory work completely with incidental lecture work. Several other courses in the present curriculum will be revised from the standpoint of name, number of hours credit, and change in content of material offered.

Miss Slek says, "Since this information is not in the newly printed catalogs for the year 1949-50, it is hoped that students as well as faculty will inquire about these changes and will tell prospective students of the additional opportunities in the department of Home Economics."

Bolivia has no coastline.

Bulldog Bowlers Take Two From NCRA Men

Mac College bowlers came out of the losers' hole last week by taking two lines from the NCRA men. This week's team was composed of Lester Messamer, Bernard Ebbert, Don Speaker, Bill Anderson, and Duane Hall. The college team took two out of three lines to walk away with the honors of the evening.

Totals for the three lines were Messamer 448, Ebbert 420, Speaker 387, Anderson 439, and Hall 514. The total including the handicaps was 2478 as against the NCRA total of 2457.

The Mac College team bowls every Wednesday evening at the Mac Alleys.

Locker Chatter

The McPherson College baseball squad seems more or less to at last have hit its stride in defeating the strong Friends University diamond squad. Good pitching combined with errorless ball gave the Bulldogs the win, their first of the year, from probably the strongest team they have met so far this year.

Future track strength is indicated by the results of the Sterling triangular meet with Sterling, Central, and McPherson participating. Of course, the competition at Sterling undoubtedly was less than any other meet during the season; however a number of freshmen performers gave promise of developing into good trackmen in the next three years.

Voice on phone: Lou Reed is sick today and can't come to class. She requested me to notify you.
