The details of this conference will be published as soon as possible. According to the Kansas Clearing House on Civil Rights every citizen has a stake in this organization.

There may be, as a professor has said, over 10,000 useless words in the dictionary, but a great many come in handy in framing the political platforms.

Helms Adopt 10 Children; Serve Their Community

"We have had ten children, none of whom were born to us," stated Mrs. J. Juana Helm, c'36, in a letter to the Alumni Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Helm, Climax, Kansas, now have three of their ten adopted children at home. The youngest, a four-year-old girl, accompanies Mrs. Helm to school each day and amuses herself either at a desk or in the schoolyard.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Helm preach, although Mrs. Helm no longer has a regular schedule. She is a full-time teacher in the Climax Elementary School.

He is at home now for a one-year furlough and is traveling among the churches to verse the people on the conditions in China.

Suggestions For Treating Colds

Since an epidemic of colds has struck the campus, Mr. Dick Wareham, director of physical education, has listed suggestions for avoiding and treating colds.

1. Try more snoozes.
2. Carry one large white handkerchief—about the size of a towel. Use often.
3. If you are about to sneeze in someone's face while talking to him, ask him to turn his head.
4. When drying your nose, keep the sound down to a minimum blurt.
5. When you are thirsty, drink lots of water and orange juice.
6. When you are not thirsty, drink lots of water and orange juice.
7. Refrain from over-exertion, such as carrying pianos, studying more than nine hours a day, and standing too long in the cafeteria line.
8. Eat moderately, at least, like a shoat.
9. Avoid over-exposure, and avoid sitting or sleeping in drafts, dust storms, or tornadoes.
10. If complications set in, call a physician or mortician.

Walking Golden Stairs To Be Easy After Harny Steps Says Miss Brown

"After having walked from first to fourth floor in Harny Hall for twenty-seven years, I do not feel that I should have any trouble walking the Golden Stairs," stated Miss Brown.

Miss Brown is Professor of Piano and Head of the Music Department of McPherson College.

According to Dr. R. E. Mohler, reason would indicate that Miss Brown has sufficient cause to make such a statement.

Statistics which Dr. Mohler has compiled are as follows:

Ground level to 4th floor..... 63 steps
Same number down — 126 steps
Two trips daily — 252 steps
Five days weekly — 1260 steps
Thirty-six weeks — 45,360 steps
Twenty-seven years — 1,234,720 steps

The above would be minimum. Adding to this the fact that Miss Brown has taught in Summer School most summers, and allowing for many extra trips to fourth floor, which she has had to make

Occupations Booklet To Be Published By College

An occupation booklet is to be published by McPherson College in a few weeks. This publication will contain unidentified pictures of McPherson College alumni in their respective occupations. There will also be brief write-ups concerning these occupations.

In past years Mac College has been criticized for its lack of preparation for vocations other than teaching or preaching. This booklet will show that McPherson College is ready to prepare students for many vocations.

This booklet will be used in soliciting students. It is dedicated to young people who are faced with the problem of selecting a vocation. A purpose of this publication is to show the values of a college education in preparation for the students life work.

Practice on the McPherson College Players' fall production, "The Late George Apley", is progressing well, according to Professor Roy McAuley, dramatics coach.

Actors are currently being coached on stage actions and lines.

Seniors Represent New Addition To Alumni Group

Each year many questions are asked about the senior class. The seniors represent the new addition to the alumni association, and they also represent the next contribution of the college to the business world. The class is composed of that group of students who will soon meet the academic requirements of the college and thereby become worthy candidates for the degrees granted by McPherson College.

Of the sixty-nine seniors, fifty-three are men, and sixteen are women. Thirty-three are married while thirty-six are still single.

Teaching leads in the vocational objectives of the seniors, it being indicated by twenty-nine members of the class. Other vocations into which members of the class plan to enter are: business, ministry, medicine, farming, mission work, christian counseling, social work, chemistry, accounting, civil service, christian education, homemaking, business executive, physicist, and X-Ray technician.

Forty-eight of the seniors claim Kansas as their home state. The other twenty-one come from California, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Texas. Should the seniors all go home, the total distance travelled would be 17,260 miles.

The seniors represent a dozen different religious denominations. They exemplify "democracy in action." They are typical of the output of hundreds of American colleges.

The Alumni Office will find it pleasant during the present school year to observe the multiplied successes of the seniors who will soon be admitted to that great group of "has been students", the alumni association.

Other events on the homecoming program will include the alumni chapel and pep meeting on Friday morning and the bonfire and pep rally on Thursday evening.

A church service with Rev. Harry Zeller as speaker is being planned for Thursday at 8:00 p.m.

School will be dismissed at 12:10 Friday in preparation for the parade at 4:00 p.m.

Also a formal dinner for the homecoming queen will be Thursday at 5:30 p.m.

The "M. M." Club luncheon for all former members will be at the Hotel Warren Friday noon.

Miss Brown

for chapel and other activities, 2,000,000 steps would be a conservative figure.

Dr. Mohler observed that years of practice add to grace in movement, and that certainly the impression that Miss Brown makes as she ascends the Golden Stairs will be a most impressive one. However, he added, that he hopes it will be a long time before she makes that ascent.

Aristocracy Or Democracy On McPherson Campus

Everyone is acquainted with the apathy that the general public displays when local elections roll around every so often; but I wonder if the seeming indifference of the students on Mac campus to vacancies of responsible positions, student government, and student body elections has been noticed.

Undoubtedly the leadership and good citizens of tomorrow will come and are coming from campuses such as ours all over the nation, hence, this is a bit of constructive criticism.

There is a familiar cry on most campuses, as well as in many local governments, that the place is being run by a clique or select group of individuals. It seems that they head up every committee or hold strategic offices in every position that is worth holding. There is even a common saying that if you want something done right, give it to the busiest person on campus.

Of course, often times this is the quickest and most efficient way to get something done. The tendency, therefore, is for a rather small group of individuals to have thrust upon them the responsibility of running things on a campus, in local governments, or where ever the problem of responsibility arises.

Last spring it was necessary for the Student Council to postpone the Cheerleader elections until this fall, because of the lack of interest.

Also the Board of Publications had to delay the recommending of an assistant business manager for the Quadrangle and an assistant business manager of the Spectator to the Student Council, because sufficient applications had not been received.

Both assistant business managers, according to the constitution, must be sophomores. So far, only freshmen have shown any interest in these positions.

Even though the Cheerleader election turned out nicely this fall with plenty of competition, only fifty per cent of the student body voted, and the other situation is still to be solved.

It is clear that if an aristocracy is prevalent on the campus it is our own fault. The reason for this "rule of a few" is that we would rather sit back and let someone else do the work.

To correct this situation on our own campus, and to prepare ourselves for the duties that we as citizens must assume if democracy is to live, we will have to keep interested in what is going on, and also, be willing to take on responsibility ourselves.

The weekly meetings of Student Council are open to all students unless otherwise notified. It is a good way for one to keep informed, and also, to make suggestions. Any member of the student body can make suggestions or talk for or against any question that is before the council. The limitation, of course, is that no one but a member of Student Council can vote. This is because we have a representative form of student government.

If we feel strongly about a situation we should tell our class representatives how things stack up with us. It is our government. We should make good use of it. If we do not and lose this privilege, it is our fault.

We ought to keep interested in activities and organizations in our field of interest. We should keep trying to broaden this field.

In the future let us all make sure that the Student Council or the Board of Publications does not have to postpone or delay action, because of a lack of interest on our part.

Library Reports More New Books

Catherine Of Aragon by Garrett Mattingly

At the age of fifteen the youngest daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella became Henry VIII's wife and lived with him for 24 years.

The story of this lonely but intelligent and courageous woman is a history of one of the greatest games of power politics ever played.

This vivid dramatic biography, with its smallest detail resting solidly on painstaking research, discloses a new English heroine and presents the whole epoch of Henry VIII in a new light.

The Psychological Origin and Treatment of Enuresis by Stevenson Smith.

Dr. Stevenson Smith is Professor of Psychology and Director of the Institute of Child Development of the University of Washington.

Through his years of experience in clinical work with children Dr. Smith became familiar with the many sided problem of enuresis and its treatment.

Economic Origins of Jeffersonian Democracy by Charles A. Beard

This reprinting of Beard's volume has been made necessary because of a growing revival of interest in Jefferson, the man, and his historical contribution to America.

Dr. Charles A. Beard died Sept. 1, 1948. During his lifetime, his books on historical and political questions set patterns for later interpretations.

The Scandinavian countries (1720-1865) by B. J. Hovde

Until Dr. Hovde produced this history of the ascendancy of Scandinavian bourgeois society in its cultural, religious, and philosophical, as well as its political and economic, aspect, a dearth of historical material on northern Europe had existed.

The destinies of Norway, Sweden, and Denmark have been peculiarly inter-related. A particular value of this study lies in the fact that, while it distinctly points up the individuality of each of the three countries, at the same time it underlines certain fundamentalities that have made them basically a unit when referred to the whole pattern of European society.

Social Life by John W. Bennett and Melvin M. Tumin

This book introduces the reader not only to the basic ideas of sociology but also to the major institutions and problems of American society today.

Open Letter From SCA

Dear McPherson College Students:

October 8 should be an important date to remember for it marks a rare opportunity for Mac College students to join the Christian Association members.

We are to be host to a Cluster Conference. This cluster includes five colleges—Kansas Wesleyan, Bethel, Bethany, Tabor, and McPherson.

An all-day conference is being planned and is open to everyone.

Two outstanding leaders, Shirley Galatin, who is District S. C. chairman, and Hal Ruehler, Regional S. C. A. director, will be on hand to assist in making the conference helpful and inspirational. There will also be student and faculty leaders from the schools represented.

Further information will appear in next week's Spectator as to definite program plans. Let's plan now to attend!

Sincerely,
Marilee Bowman and Vernon Nicholson.

Jesus and the Disinherited

By Howard Thurman
Dr. Howard Thurman, co-pastor of the Church for the Fellowship of All Peoples, San Francisco, points out that Jesus belonged to an oppressed race. The principles He applied in His position are the same ones which the Negroes, the Jews, and other minority groups must apply today.

Written by one who himself has suffered from social and economic discrimination, this is a penetrating analysis of the powerful emotions of love, fear, and hatred—and their effect on both privileged and underprivileged.

Trends in Student Personnel Work

By E. G. Williamson
This collection of papers was presented at a conference celebrating the developments of twenty-five years of student personnel work.

Today the view of student personnel work is that the task of institutions of higher learning is to develop the student as a person, a social being, and a citizen, rather than as an intellect alone.

History of Chinese Society (907-1125)

By Karl A. Wittfogel and Feng Chia-sheng
The Liao dynasty has particular significance in Chinese history. It established patterns of political control and cultural adjustment which were consciously applied by three subsequent great dynasties of conquest.

Feng Chia-sheng is a leading Chinese authority on the Liao period.

Kansas, Hershey Never Mentioned In Picture Short

Dr. Mohler received a letter from George Toland, who is an alumnus of McPherson College, and with the letter there was a clipping from the August 8, 1949, issue of the Salina Journal.

The clipping reads as follows: "The short subject attraction shown between the 'Calamity Jane' features (at the Watson the first of the week and at the Jayhawk now) hit upon several different items. There was a section on classrooms inside the fuselage of a retired airplane. Three times the narrator referred to the fact that this was in California. Then one part of the short was portraying the discovery of the sea weed agar here at home. The narrator stated that this was off the coast of Florida.

Then there was a very interesting subject on the making of real diamonds by laboratory methods from sugar. The opening scene was the entrance gate to McPherson college. The next scene was of Dr. J. Willard Hershey, for many years head of the chemistry department of McPherson College. The ensuing scenes in the laboratory with the sugar, crucibles, electric furnace, etc. were all taken in the chemistry lab of McPherson college. Not once did the narrator ever mention Kansas or Hershey.

I have noticed this type of thing many times, so decided to say something about it this time. It should be of interest to several thousand people who have seen and will see this picture. KSAL has advertised this week that the 'Calamity Jane' picture is to appear soon in Abilene, Minneapolis, McPherson and I don't know where else. If the same short subject accompanies the picture those places that did here at the Watson and the Jayhawk, this should be of some reading interest."

Mr. Toland lives at 412 Morrison in Salina, Kansas.

Kansas Is Next

The following article, on the Kansas "loyalty oath" is taken from the editorial page of the University Daily Kansan, the student newspaper of the University of Kansas.

"The Kansas loyalty oath act is in effect, and state officials have by now signed a statement that they are not members of any organization seeking the overthrow of the government."

"The future of our own loyalty oath law might be seen in the fate of New Jersey's 'Ober law.'—both acts are similar.

In ruling the 'Ober Law' unconstitutional, Judge Joseph Shershow of the Baltimore Circuit Court, writes our editorial for today:

"It violates the basic freedoms guaranteed by the first and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution, and due process under the Constitution and declaration of rights, and is too general for a penal statute.

"The state may not legislate on the thoughts of its citizens. The United States supreme court has made it clear that laws may punish acts and conduct which clearly, seriously and imminently threaten substantive evils.

"They may not intrude into the realm of ideas, religious and political beliefs and opinions.

"The law deals with overt acts, not thoughts. It may punish for acting, but not for thinking.

"As stated by Justice Jackson (of the United States Supreme Court):

"If there is any fixed start in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein."

The court test of the "Ober law" was brought by 10 college instructors, business and professional men. What are we waiting for here in Kansas?"

First Impressions Of Mac College

Frank Managarne, who hails from Shiprock, New Mexico, at first glance thought McPherson College was rather old and very small. He also found that the student body was small. He now feels he prefers a small college. Frank thinks Mac men are a grand bunch of fellows.

Jo Ann Reubaker from South English, Iowa, thinks Mac College is just the right size. She likes the college cafeteria and thinks it helps to bring the students together and in this way add to the school spirit. She also marvels at the way most of the students offer silent prayer before eating.

She has found the fellows to be very friendly and right guys. Don West promptly answered, "It's great!" when asked how he liked Mac College. However, since he is from Pampa, Texas, he does not like Kansas weather. And he stated that he was going broke eating in the college cafeteria.

Don admitted he likes modest women, but doubted that he would find many.

Paul Hodson, Honolulu, Hawaii, decided to come to McPherson College when he passed through Kansas while he was in the army. The while in the army. Paul spent some time in Europe and six months in America. He has been out of the army for four months. He came to McPherson three weeks ago.

Paul likes McPherson College, because it is small and the students are very friendly. He likes the cafeteria but could stand a little more to eat.

There may be a closer relationship between the unread and the Red than we think.

Dean Dell and Mrs. Bowers, the housemother, made a few remarks after which the meeting was adjourned.

Immediately after the meeting the boys went to their respective floors and chose their proctors. First floor chose James Hoover; second, Loren Blickenstaff; and third, Valno Alalima.

Bulldogs Three Touchdown Underdog At Baker Tonight

From the records of losing teams come losing streaks. No sooner had the McPherson College Bulldogs broken their fruitless run of 15 consecutive games by beating Sterling College than another winless run confronts them. As the Bulldogs take the field against Baker University tonight at Baldwin, Kas., they will be attempting to halt a skein of 13 consecutive Kansas Conference defeats.

The Bulldogs have not won a conference game since Nov. 1, 1946, when they edged Bethel 7-6 in a dismal, chilling rain at Newton.

Almost as bad, they have not defeated their foe for tonight's game, Baker, in football since 1936. The 6-0 victory that year is the only time the Bulldogs have ever beaten Baker on the Wildcats' own field. The teams battled to a 12-12 tie in 1946.

Cocher Karl Spear has 22 Wildcat letters on hand, a situation which leaves Baker two deep at every position except center and right half. Six veteran ends are available—Gene Chubb, Jack Flickinger, Warren Vance, Robert Stroup, Steve Dial, and Ted Haas.

Experienced tackles are Bud Sloop, Harry Woods, Ernie Swenson, and Charlie Woods. Ernie Ansell, Walter Martin, Larry Noll, and Ted Cleavinger are letterman guards. Spear and his assistants, Corby Martin and Russ Devore, are looking for another man to back vet John Zorn at center.

Kolancy Kicks Again. Seven backs have returned to strike from the Wildcats' T-formation—Roy Braley, Wes Will, Boyce Smith, Sherman Kolancy, Wagner Fox, Rodney Enos, and Harold Chubb.

Smith and Kolancy were instrumental in the Wildcats' victory over Southwestern last Friday. The speedy Smith raced 11 yards around end for the tying touchdown, and Kolancy, one of the top Conference kickers of all time, booted the winning extra point.

If comparative scores mean anything—and they usually don't—Baker beat 50 to 14 the westerners 7-6, the Bulldogs beat Sterling 46-0, and the Bulldogs beat Sterling 14-6.

Although McPherson is rated a three-touchdown underdog in tonight's fray, it is more than possible they might pull a few surprises. The offensive work of the Bulldog line against Sterling was tremendous. Big Joe Pat and Galen Webb were bulwarks as the forward wall opened holes for Charlie Petefish, Glen Pyle, and Gene Arnold to drive through.

Bulldogs Weak Defensively. However, the Bulldogs defensive work showed considerable need for improvement. The whole squad has the high tackling habit. Coach Fronty Hardacre has drilled the team all week in defensive technique and fundamentals.

Hardacre also added some new plays to the offensive system this week, and hoped that his passing attack would improve with the week's drills.

The Bulldogs are expected to go into tonight's affair in top condition. No injuries have been sustained in practice this week, and Glen Pyle, who suffered a slight head concussion in the Sterling game, has recovered and is expected to start the game at Baldwin. No changes are expected in the starting eleven.

Intramural Plan Starts

The 1949 McPherson College intramural program should get in full swing next week as preliminary plans for the autumn setup have been completed this week by Dick Wareham, men's physical education instructor and head of the campus intramural plan.

Heading the list is a tennis tournament set for October 25 (Homecoming Day) between an alumni group and the six top members of a campus ladder tournament. Expected to play for the alumni are Delbert Kelly, Wareham, Gordon Yoder, Wilbur Yoder, Lloyd Larsen, and Guy Hayes. In the McPherson city tennis tournament this August, Kelly finished second and Wareham third.

A similar kind of ladder tournament has been set up for table tennis with 50 positions on the bracket. Charles Petefish, John Ward, and Ken Kintzle, who finished 1-2-3 in last year's campus tournament, are all seeded. Rules for both tennis and table tennis players are posted in the display case east of the gym door in the Physical Education building.

A mixed volleyball league will also have scheduled games every Tuesday evening in the PE building. Non-league mixed volleyball will also be played Wednesday evenings.

WAA Times Set For Year

On Tuesday, October 27, a W. A. A. meeting of all members was held to decide on specific times for all sports this season.

There will be two tennis sections a week from 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. on Wednesdays.

Bowling will be from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. on Fridays.

Outing is scheduled for Mondays and Skating for Friday afternoons at 3:15.

The club amended the constitution to the effect that a girl must attend at least four regular meetings of a club before she can make-up a meeting in that club.

Committees were assigned to be in charge of hot dog sales at the three coming home football games.

Blick, Tillman Elected Captains

Vernon Dale Blickenstaff, veteran end, and Carroll C. (Salty) Tillman, a regular Bulldog guard since '46, have been elected football co-captains by their teammates for 1949.

Blickenstaff, a senior who will graduate at the end of this semester, is an alumnus of Quinter, K. a. High School, '43. After a two-year sojourn as a radar mechanic in the AAF, Blick enrolled at MC in Sept., 1946, and since then has earned two M's in football and baseball and one in basketball. He was a regular on the McPherson Vets basketball team, state YFW champs in 1946. Married since August, 1947, he is a business administration major and expects to coach as a career.

Tillman is also a senior, married, and a high school graduate of '43 (McPherson H. school). He has seven MC letters, three in baseball ('46-'48), three in basketball ('47-'49), and one in basketball ('49). Salty he picked up the name after three years' service in Uncle Sam's fleet—was also a starter on the American Legion National Champs of 1949, the Harry P. Dorst team from McPherson.

Baker, Bulldogs First KC Victors

Baker University and McPherson College gave the Kansas Conference its first football victories for 1949. McPherson dumped Sterling College 14-6 for its first victory since 1947. Baker upset Southwestern at Winfield, Kas., 7-6.

Southwestern dominated the first half but scored only one touchdown as the Wildcats threw back two early Moundbuilder advances. Baker's second half counter-attack bore fruit in the last quarter when Boyce Smith bootlegged 11 yards around end for the tying marker. Sherman Kolancy, the veteran precision placekicker, booted the extra point, and that was the game.

At Salina tomorrow the game that may ultimately decide the Kansas Conference will be played. Ray Hahn's Bethany Swedes are rated as favorites over Kansas Wesleyan, but Wally Fors-

Glen Pyle

Pyle Nears Pro Mark For Running Durability

In these days of frequent substitutions and furious passing, the heavy ground duty displayed by McPherson College fullback Glen Pyle against Sterling College here last Friday may have set something of a record. Pyle packed the mail 36 times against the Warriors, netting 156 yards for an average of 4.33 yards per clip.

Organization of statistics dates back only to 1927 in collegiate circles, and the national bureau does not publish individual game figures. However, in the National Pro Football League, which has issued individual averages since 1932, the durability record is held by former Michigan All-American Harry Newman, who made 39 rushing attempts for the New York Giants against the Green Bay Packers November 11, 1934.

berg may have something to say about that. Bethany was idle the past week as Wesleyan took it on the chin 24-1 in an out-of-class game against Colorado College. Dick Peter's Ottawa Braves showed whether they were championship class or not last night as they met Missouri Valley in Kansas City's Blues Stadium. The Braves were upset by Central (Mo.) College last Friday 6-0.

C. of E. meets William Jewell tomorrow still seeking the first win. The Presbies were outplayed 21-0 by Maryville (Mo.) Teachers last Saturday.

Bethel has no game scheduled this week. The maroon clad Krauts from Newton were defeated 12-6 by Friends University at Wichita last week.

Sterling Smashed; First Win Since '47

The McPherson Bulldogs smashed their 15-game losing streak as they convincingly buried the Sterling Warriors 14-6 on the home grounds last Friday. The win was the first for the Bulldogs since they defeated this same Sterling team 6-0 on September 26, 1947.

Arnold

The Bulldogs amassed 312 yards over the ground route, and nearly all the credit for this impressive record must go to the big forward wall which displayed some of the best offensive linework seen here since football's postwar revival.

Sterling made a serious thrust from the opening kickoff. Their first attack was thrown off, but Howard Mehlinger fumbled a punt and the Warriors recovered on the Bulldog 18. They lost the ball after only six yards advance, however, and after an exchange of punts the Bulldogs marched to their first touchdown in 1949. Mehlinger again fumbled a Sterling boot, but this time big Gus Webb recovered on the Bulldog's own 40. Eight rushes led to the marker with Glen Pyle knitting off tackle from the two for the payoff punch. A faulty pass from center ruined the conversion attempt.

An unnecessary roughness penalty against McPherson paved the way for Sterling's scoring drive in the waning moments of the first half. Taking over on the 32, Sterling also scored in eight plays with a 19 yard aerial from Bud Kelly to McFarland being the big yardage eater. A two yard pitch from Kenny Harris, a freshman guard just converted to halfback, to Long was the final touchdown thrust.

The Bulldogs made a determined drive to break the tie at the outset of the second half, but the attack bogged down on the eight yard line. Kelly punted out for the Warriors, but Blickenstaff, calling signals for the Bulldogs, set them on their heels by having Arnold quick kick. The Gary, Ind., halfback's punt fell dead on the one-yard marker where Long returned it to the four. The Sterling quarterback, whose mother must have been frightened by a moron in his prenatal life, then called for two consecutive passes. Arnold intercepted the second toss on the 28 and shuffled it back to the 19. Charlie Petefish, replacing Arnold at tailback, immediately hit Ron Sullivan with a seven yard toss that moved the Bulldogs to the 13. Pyle skirted the flank for seven. Pyle and Petefish then alternated on three tries with the one time Central College star, Pyle, pushing over from the two. Petefish's pass for extra point was incomplete.

The last quarter was completely dominated by the Bulldogs. They made two more scoring threats and did score when Joe Pate tackled Long so hard that the ball squirted from his arms. Reserve end Bob Bechtel recovered the ball after it had rolled past the end zone, for a safety.
