Campaign Is Waged For Refugees From Behind Curtain

"The future of freedom in Europe rests with people willing to endure anything to hold totalitarian darkness. To extend aid to the Iron Curtain escapes now is not only our humanitarian duty—it is political wisdom. Americans cannot-will not desert their staunch allies in the battle for freedom in their hour of need."

The above is a statement made by Richard E. Byrd, Rear Admiral USN, who is chairman of the Iron Curtain Refugee Campaign.

The Iron Curtain Refugees are not displaced persons, but people who have actually escaped from behind the Iron Curtain since the end of the war. They are men and women who suffered and risked their lives opposing Nazism and Stalinism. Others are intellectuals and scientists of world renown.

The International Refugee Organization of the UN has registered close to 200,000 refugees, and there is still a very large number unregistered. Despite the Soviet security police, estimates are that from 500 to 1,000 men and women continue to escape every week.

Very little is being done to help these refugees. It is the goal of the Iron Curtain Refugee Campaign to raise $1,000,000 between now and December 25, 1949. The money will be used for emergency assistance which the refugees must have to survive. The relief will be distributed by the International Rescue Committee's ten offices in Europe and Turkey.

Fifty-Six Students Take Hay-ride To Hutchinson

Fifty-six students gathered last Saturday evening for a hay-ride to Hutchinson for an all-school skating party. One truck and two cars served as transportation.

On the way the students ate sack lunches fixed by the college cafeteria.

Upon arrival at the rink, which was converted from a hangar at the old army air base, the girls were given programs. These were filled out by the boys at the skating rink.

Included on the program were: couples' skate, trio skate, grand march, whistle trio, ladies' choice, and two moonlight skates. A group of students interested in skating planned the party.

Mr. Roland Plasterer was the sponsor.

Neher Has Interesting Experiences In Germany

Dean Neher, who was a sophomore at Macollege last year, is now with a Brethren Service Commission unit in Germany, giving a year of volunteer service.

The following are excerpts from a letter that Dean wrote to his aunt, Miss Edna Neher, recently:

"I hope you have heard who our unit includes—two Manchester grads, Don Darnbaugh from Pontiac, Michigan; Barbara Boggs from Oak Park, Illinois, the three of us were there last year (Dean, Jake Shaeffer, and Joann Lehman); and Wilma Kuns from Garden City, Mo. Wilma has been over here all summer in a work camp.

"When we first arrived and saw all the destruction, we were anxious to begin; but a few words of wisdom from Kurtis Naylor, #338, informed us that probably the most good that we would do while here would not be in the reconstruction line, but in our meeting and spreading good will among the people. That's been proved already.

"The assistant doctor told us the other night that when we came the people in the community were laughing—Americans coming here to work free, and not that but to do the dirty jobs (if one is dirtier than another, especially in Germany.)

"And now, only a week and a half later, they respect us; they are mentioning us to others, and he hopes that it will give the people of the surrounding area an incentive to go ahead that they haven't had before, that is, since the war.

"I'm off riding in this country except when really necessary. One Sunday we went out to Kassel to a small village to a reunion type affair for all who had been con-

Barkerettes Win First Prize For Entry In Parade

First prize in the Homecoming Parade was won by the Barkerettes with their grinder float in which Bethel's players were being ground up, and Bethel-burgers were for sale for 2 cents.

The sophomore float received second for a tractor and a spreader loaded with Graymaroon players being spread by the Bulldogs. Their motto was "For the Land's Sake Beat Bethel."

Third was won by the SCA with their football field with a Bulldog eating Bethel's bones. The bulldog was held by Claudia Jo Sturdivant.

"Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" was the theme of the fourth-place float sponsored by the Junior class. This float had Joe Little, Ivan Little's four-year-old brother, as its attraction. He was seated in a cart hitched to stars named for the members of the football squad.

Judges were Gordon Yoder, Muriel Lamie, and Roy McAuley.

According to some local alumni, this was one of the most successful Homecoming Parades in several years. A large number of floats as well as decorated cars were entered. The queen and the football squad rode in the parade in convertibles.

Homecoming Tags Given To Alumni Show Original

"Say, whose clever idea was it to make those red and white 'M's' for alumni to wear as Homecoming tags?" This remark was typical of various expressions of appreciation for the Barkerettes' efforts to make a meaningful symbol of "tag" for the former students of McPherson College who were returning to their "Alma Mater" for Homecoming.

Made in the school colors, the tags were a white "M" bordered by red with "Homecoming" written on it, and a 1948 football in the center.

These tags were given to present College teachers, the alumni, and former students.

A member of the Barkerettes, Carol Hardy, was originator of the clever "M". Other members of the club who helped make them were Bob Wilson, Bob Sooby, Donna Sooby, Betty Jo Baker, Geneva Krehbiel, Ruth Moors, Darlene Weaver, Margaret Dagggett, and Mildred Snowberger.

Professors Flory spent Friday and Saturday at Downmont, Idaho, attending district meeting. He spoke at the district meeting on Saturday and at the Church of the Brethren in Nampa, Idaho, on Sunday morning. He returned to McPherson last Monday.

A young teen-ager, about to launch upon his first date, said to his mother, "I gotta really be laced up with dough tonight. Mom, gimme fifty cents."

Dean Offered New Office

It has long been a tradition on Macampus for the students to indulge in some sort of diversion on Hallowe'en night. Last Monday night, Hallowe'en, saw the male students engaging themselves in a bit of a dorm raid on Arnold Hall, and the female inhabitants rather seemed to enjoy it.

Arnold Hall seems none the worse for wear, in fact a little cleaner if anything because of the occasional spilling of water used by the girls in a weak attempt to repel the invaders.

Among other things an out-house, if you will pardon the expression, was moved in front of Arnold Hall. The words—Dean Warren's Office—were painted on the sideboards.

When Mr. Cline asked the Dean when he was going to move into his new office he replied that he wasn't going to until it was completely modernized!

A great deal of talent and energy was shown to have been in existence during the Hallowe'en proceedings. We hope that the results of the nine-weeks tests show as much forthought.

Can We Or Can't We

Our attention has been brought to the fact that whenever the occasion presents itself to sing the "Star Spangled Banner" or college song that the student body hardly knows what is coming off.

Some wit was overheard saying that if the words to these songs were put in a nine-weeks test the students would flunk it! We cannot, of course, judge definitely whether the situation is due to lack of knowledge of the words or whether it is lack of interest. However, if the situation is due to a general condition of apathy among the students, something should be done about it.

When the present seniors were freshmen, forbid the thought, it was customary, every so often, for the upper classmen to call for the college song from the freshmen.

Somehow, the practice has subsided due to lack of use. We are wondering if this would not be a good custom to bring back along with other means of freshman initiation?

Teachers Surplus For High Schools Causes Concern

Dean Luther Warren, Dr. Mary Fee, and Mr. Ira Brammell attended the meeting of the eleven church-related colleges of the state of Kansas at Salina Oct. 22.

Emory K. Lindquist, Bethany College, is president of the Association of Church Related Colleges.

At the morning meeting, two speakers addressed the group. Mrs. Ruth Stout of Washburn University, and Floyd Herr, certification officer of the State Board at Topeka discussed the problem of the great surplus of secondary teachers for next year.

On the other hand, according to Dean Warren, it was stated that there is a tremendous need for elementary school teachers. The crux of the discussion centered on what could be done to alleviate this need.

Luncheon was held for the 45 guests in the dining hall of the girls' dormitory. After the meal the group was taken for a tour of the new library at Kansas Wesleyan University.

In the afternoon the group divided itself into two parts, the deans and teachers of education meeting in one group under the leadership of the Dean of Baker University, and the presidents in another group.

The deans held an informal discussion on the problem of surplus secondary school teachers. Their decision was as follows: the standards for elementary school teachers will be made the same as those for secondary teachers, an A. B. degree will be required before a person can teach elementary in Kansas. This ruling will become effective in 1952.

Faculty Hold Discussion On College Citizenship

College Citizenship was discussed at faculty meeting this morning at 8 a.m. Prof. Raymond Florey, Miss Sarah May Vancil, and Bob Keim gave short talks on various phases of the topic.

Dean Luther Warren was the chairman for an open discussion following the talks.

New Books Cover Various Interests

Elephant and Castle by R. C. Hutchinson.

The author of this novel is acclaimed by one literary critic as showing "a genius for creation of character that no novelist in any land has equalled since Conrad."

The story is of a strange and extraordinary relationship between a young lady of an old family and a man from London's worst slums.

Promised Land

By Ellen Thorbecke

Ellen Thorbecke is the wife of Dr. W. J. Thorbecke, former Netherlands Minister to China. With her husband she has travelled widely through the Far East, Africa, the Middle East, and Europe. In words and pictures this book reveals Palestine as the Holy Land of the three great monotheistic religions and as it is today.

The Last Billionaire, Henry Ford, by William C. Richards.

Henry Ford, the "silver king," has become a household name in the United States.

The author states that this is "no bitter expose, no definitive biography, but a series of reminiscences." It is a human approach to the biography of the father of mass production of cars.

"He was at his zenith the world's richest man. The tax tables being what they are and implicitly promise to be, he was probably America's last billionaire."

Hodson Was 2 Miles From Pearl Harbor On Dec. 7

In case anyone is still wondering who the good looking Hawaiian boy on the campus is, he's Paul Hodson from Honolulu, Hawaii.

Paul was just released from the Army before school started after serving a three-year hitch in that branch of the service. While in the Army, Paul got to see Austria, Germany, and France, but the event in his life that he remembers best is the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. In his own words: "I was just two miles from the Harbor when it happened. I could even see the ships as they went down."

Paul is 22 years of age and is a mixture of six nationalities: Portuguese, Spanish, Hawaiian, Chinese, Caucasian, and English.

His interests, besides women, of course, lie in the field of sports. He is out for football here.

Paul is preparing for a dental course which he plans to finish in California. He's going to stay here another year first because he likes it here very much. "Everyone here has been so period might be kept open in the future. Any suggestions concerning activities not listed above would be welcome according to Miss Lamle.

Canines Finish Season Against Bethany Tonight

Tonight at Lindsborg the McPherson College Bulldogs will play their last Kansas Conference football game of 1949 as they meet Bethany College's red-faced Swedes.

Obviously embarrassed by an upset victory for Ottawa that reached adding machine proportions, the Swedes will take their home field tonight intent upon still getting a possible tie of the Kansas Conference. Facing a team that has now lost 18 consecutive Kansas Conference games, it seems very probable that the Swedes will rack up their fourth conference win of the season against the winless Bulldogs.

Bethany started their season by losing to tough, non-league Missouri Valley 27-6. Bouncing back they took Kansas Wesleyan 26-0. Baker 21-0, non-league Sterling 55-0, and College of Emporia 13-0 before running into the obstinate Braves of Ottawa last week.

Carlson Is Soph Star

Sparking the Swedes this season has been Bill Carlson, a home town sophomore who is following in the illustrious footsteps of two older brothers, Lawrence '41 and Roy '47.

In the six games the Swedes have played thus far Carlson has scored 42 points. Ranking right behind the 170-pound sophomore are all-conference end Larry Bale with 24 points, end Johnny Winblad with 18, extra point specialist Jim (Pats) Elmberg with 14, and right halfback Harold Collins with 12.

Bale and Elmberg are two of 12 returning lettermen for the Swedes. Others are end Kenny Forsberg; tackles Dale Ludwig, Bill Engstrom, Lawrence Danielson and Erwin Danielson guards Gene Eklund, Joe Chambers, John Wise, and Carol Anderson, and center Ralph Sjostrom.

Holloway

Teitenburg Probably Out

Big Jack Teitenburg, the all-league fullback for the Swedes, is probably out for tonight's game. The 210-pound blazer sat out the Ottawa fracas last week after a leg injury incurred in the C. of E. game. Teitenburg, who turns his athletic abilities to the boxing ring in the spring, has probably finished his collegiate football career.

If Teitenburg is out, Lorin Johnson, a freshman from Kansas City, Mo., will probably take over the pile driving duties. A switch of Carlson to fullback with Harold Collins and Harry Ylander performing at the halves is another possibility. Veterans Howard Price and Bob Gerard will handle the quarterback duties in Hahn's T system.

Holloway Out For Bulling

The Bulldogs have also lost a regular for the season, George Holloway, 145-pound senior from Baldwin, Kas., tore the ligaments in the back of his knee in the Bethel game.

Holloway has been the Bulldog's most reliable performer at linebacking duties since he took over in mid-season. Mel Swinger will probably replace Holloway.

Loganbill Passing Sparks Bethel To 26-12 Win Over MC

The McPherson College Bulldogs lost (a) the game to the Bethel Gray Maroons (b) their 18th consecutive Kansas Conference game (c) their third successive homecoming game last Friday. The maroon-clad Germans from the south hit the air lanes with frequency and accuracy to best the Bulldogs 26-12.

The game was an aerial contest from start to finish with passes being thrown around during the night with the caretree abandon of a French sailor on a one night liberty.

The Bulldogs took to the skies 30 times, basketing but seven. Bethel also hit seven on the button but three just as many. Regular quarterback Varden Loganbill was especially devastating, hitting all seven of Bethel's completions in 12 attempts.

Dogs Start Strong

For twenty minutes the Bulldogs were in the game. The first quarter was pointless from a numerical point of view, from a realistic point of view the rest of the game was pointless for the Bulldogs. Indeed, the Bulldogs actually scored first, six minutes into the second period. Chuck Petefish punted 46 yards, and safety man Harlan Ururh misjudged the kick. The ball bounced into the end zone where Kenny Newport recovered for a touchdown.

Bethel struck back with a vengeance. Jim Schroeder returned the kickoff 20 yards to the 46. From there Varden Loganbill took over. He pitched 15 yards to Duane Kaufman, eight to brother Lanoy, 32 more to Kaufman again. Jack Ururh made two rushes to put the ball on the four. Schroeder slipped off tackle to score. The kick was blocked by George Holloway, and the score was tied—but not for long.

An orgy of fumbles and pass interceptions followed with Jim Schroeder culminating the melee by scampering 75 yards for six after setting Gene Arnold pass. The score was 13-6 at halftime.

The Gray Maroons lengthened their lead immediately after intermission. Again Loganbill's passing was the big damage. Newport flagged Fred Funk on the eight after a 52 yard toss from Loganbill. Schroeder again slipped off tackle for his third touchdown.

Petefish Sparks TD Drive

Charlie Petefish engineered the second dog TD in a drive which twice went to fourth down. Petefish returned a punt 17 yards to the Canine 41. A penalty cancelled a five yard gain by Petefish and the Bulldogs were still on the 41 at fourth down. Petefish then hit Dean Schmidt with a 20 yard aer-

Ex-Baker Coach, Emil Liston, Dies At Home, Baldwin

Emil S. Liston, an outstanding name in Kansas Conference athletics for a quarter of a century, died at his home in Baldwin, Kas., October 26.

Liston was head coach and athletic director at Baker University from 1921 until 1945 when he was granted a leave of absence after he had suffered a heart attack and a severe leg injury officiating a high school football game.

A graduate of Baker '13, Liston coached high school athletics at Baldwin, Kas., Ft. Scott, Kas., and Kemper Military School, Mo., and college sports at Michigan School of Mines and Wesleyan (Middletown, Conn.) before returning to his alma mater.

He won football championships for the Orange in 1922, '27, '28, and '34 and topped the basketball standings in 1935 and '37.

Since his retirement from coaching, Liston has devoted full time to his position as secretary-treasurer of the NAIB tournament at Kansas City, Mo. He was a prime organizer of the small college tourney and during the early years of its performance as a one-man administrative staff.

Funk, C246, Is Stationed In Japan

Glenford Funk, 1946 graduate, has been stationed with a fighter squadron near Tokyo, Japan, since the middle of 1948. His wife and children joined him in March, 1949.

At McPherson Glen earned four football letters and three track letters. After graduation, he taught and coached at Canton, Kansas.

Mrs. Funk was the former Edythe Howard, graduate of McPherson High School. She attended Wichita U. one semester prior to her marriage.

Glenford plans to call his parents, who live in Wichita, November 6.

Again the count went to fourth down, but Petefish skirted the flank for five big yards and the first and ten. Arnold replaced Petefish at tailback and, after an unsuccessful attempt hit captain Vernon Blickenstaff with a 26 yarder to put the ball on the two. A guard around made one, and Marlin Van Druff pulled over for the last yard.

Schroeder climaxed a brilliant performance by leading the way for the last touchdown. He returned the kickoff 41 yards and picked up 33 yards in four attempts to make the final score 26-12.

Schroeder made the best individual performance against the Bulldogs all season. Picking up 113 yards in 22 carries, he made all but 13 yards of Bethel's rushing total. The Hillsboro freshman also intercepted two passes and returned three kickoffs for 74 yards.

Kansas Conference football followers went to bed last Friday night with a soft curse on their lips for radio announcers who got football scores all fouled up. The next morning they rubbed their eyes in amazement as the morning newspapers reiterated the score in black-and-white. Ottawa 47 Bethany 0.

In case anybody still doesn't believe it, we will add our line of type. Ottawa 47 Bethany 0. The vaunted Swede line took the Ottawa running attack about like Georgia took Sherman. The Braves scored three times in the first quarter against a line that hadn't yielded a conference tally, thereto.

Vaultin' Vaughn Kimbrough was the hero for the Braves with three touchdowns, one on a 59-yard gallop. Bob Musgrave counted twice, and Dick Miers and Doug Dierks added one apiece.

Operating without all-conference Jack Teitenburg—injured in the C. of E. game—the Swedes did not make an offensive threat until the final period, and it fizzled on the five.

Presbies Lose a Heartbreaker

College of Emporia, operating with a line that had yielded but 27 points in four games, took it on the chin from the revived Kansas Wesleyan Coyotes 7-6. It was the second loss of the season by Baker.

A blocked punt in the fourth quarter proved the Presbies' downfall. Ray McCabe and Don Johnson blocked Don Ek's punt on the 10-yard line and end Galen Keeling recovered the ball in the end zone. Freshman Bill Martin provided the margin with the PAT.

C. of E. had previously scored in the third period on a pass from Don Durand to Bob Swesberg. Baker won a non-conference game against Wm. Jewell with vet backs Sherm Kolaney and Boyce Smith leading the way.

Kimbrough Top Scorer

By scoring three touchdowns against Bethany, Vaughn Kimbrough of Ottawa took over the individual leadership in loop scoring with 36 points. Jim Schroeder of Bethel and Bethany's Bill Carlson follow with 30 points while Kolaney of Baker has 28. For all games Carlson leads the pack with 42 points, six more than Kolaney, Boyce Smith, and Kimbrough.

A blocked punt in the fourth quarter proved the Presbies' downfall. Ray McCabe and Don Johnson blocked Don Ek's punt on the 10-yard line and end Galen Keeling recovered the ball in the end zone.
