

Queen's Coronation Precedes Homecoming Game Kick-Off

Macollege's 1950 Homecoming activities are due for official culmination tonight at the Athletic Field with the coronation of Queen Miriam Keim, and the grand finale fracas against the Bethany Swedes.

Miss Keim will be crowned in pre-game ceremonies at the field. Miriam, 20 year old junior from Nampa, Idaho, will have as her attendants Ruth Moors, McPherson, a sophomore; and Miriam "Mickey" Akers, Hampton, Iowa, a freshman.

The Queen and her attendants will be brought from Arnold Hall to the game in two convertibles to begin the festivities. Kay Jean Woodard, four year old daughter of Coach and Mrs. "Woody" Woodard will strew flower petals in the path of the royal procession. Mark McAuley, four year old son of Prof. and Mrs. Roy McAuley, will carry the royal crown.

Queen Miriam will be escorted to the throne by senior co-captain Joe Pate, Independence, Kans., Miss Moors by George Goff, and Miss Akers by Junior Bob Kerr, Oklahoma, the other co-captains.

Retiring Queen, Lois Yoder of Pampa, Texas, will perform the coronation ceremony. The New Queen will then throw the game ball to the officials and with their opening whistle, the annual homecoming game will begin. At the end of the game, Queen Miriam and her royal party will leave the throne, step into their royal "coach," and return to Arnold Hall.

Miriam, 1950 Queen, is native of Idaho. She has lived on a farm outside of Nampa since she was eight years old. Her majors are English and education. She is a member of the junior class.

Her hobbies are knitting, reading, and cooking. She also likes all kinds of sports.

Her father, Stanley B. Keim, was a 1925 graduate of McPherson and played on the football team.

Sophomore attendant, Ruth Moors, 19, graduated from McPherson High School in 1949. She has always lived on a farm and is active in all sports. During her senior year of high school she was queen of the junior and senior banquet.

Miriam Akers, better known as "Mickey" is the freshman attendant to the homecoming queen. She was born May 18, 1932 and spent her childhood in Iowa Falls, Iowa. She has lived all her life on a farm. Mickey now lives near Hampton and was football queen in her senior year of high school. To help pass spare time she collects fossils and sketches. She is also interested in debate.

Coach Speaks To M Clubbers At Luncheon

Coach Chalmer "Woody" Woodard will be the speaker at the annual M Club luncheon today in the Blue Room of Hotel Warren in downtown McPherson. About 100 invitations have been sent to all former lettermen of McPherson College and a good representation of Macampus' former athletes is expected.

Increased activity in the athletic program and the increased school spirit are expected to make this Homecoming game and its festivities the best of all times.

Two Of Three Vote Republican In Mock Election

Two out of three Macollege students voted Republican in a mock election, Monday, Nov. 6. The election followed a political show.

Dean Cotton mentioned improvement of roads, a business-like government, care of the mentally ill, and economy as promises of Edward F. Arn, candidate for Governor.

A fight against deficit spending, corruption, and socialism was promised by Max McAuley, speaking for Frank Carlson, the "featureless" candidate for Senator.

The Democratic platform called for farm gas exemption, better roads, care of the mentally ill, and free textbooks in the state. Civil rights and aid to farmers were advocated by the Democratic candidate for Senator, Don Shultz, and Robert Loyd spoke for the Democratic platform.

Large attendance and enthusiasm were both factors present at the meeting according to Jack.

Interest was shown in McPherson College. The Women's Work gave $300 and pledged another $200 for the work of the college.

Jack also reported that he had many interesting talks with alumni while in Nampa.

Players Give 'The Fool' For Guests

A Regional Conference performance of "Chaining Potlock's" religious drama, "The Fool," will be in the chapel Monday, 7:15 p. m. Refresher rehearsals began last Monday under the direction of dramatics coach, Prof. Roy McAuley, and student director, Kathryn Larson, Cabool, Mo. sophomore.

"The Fool" is a four-act play on the life of a young minister, Daniel Gilchrist. To some, Gilchrist is a saint. To Jerry Goodkind, he is a "nut." To his fiancée, Clare Jewett, he is "selfish and a little mad."

Opinions like these come of Daniel Gilchrist, Don Schultz, McPherson senior, when he tries to live like Christ. Clare Jewett, his sweetheart, is Esther Mohler, McCune, Kans. Junior. Jerry Goodkind is Wayne Ziegler, Abilene, Kans., sophomore.

The play is a contrast of good and evil. It tries to determine the good of success and failure, of wealth and poverty.

His moods vary from the ugly realistic to the wonderful and strange moods of faith and idealism. Its scenes move Daniel Gilchrist through the supposed poverty of his simple room through the lavish apartment of Mr. Goodkind and higher, into the dark scenario of thought.

Twenty-eight players comprise the cast. Leading members are Don Shultz as Daniel Gilchrist and Esther Mohler as Clare Jewett. Mr. Goodkind and his son Jerry are Wayne Hutchinson, McPherson freshman, and Wynne Zeigler.

Doctor Henry Wadham, rector of Gilchrist's church is Enders, Nebr., senior, Dale Oltman.

The cast includes: Bob Holloway, Bob Wilson, Eldon Coffman, Marlin Walters, Lee Roy Schapanak, Joe Kennedy, Eugene Neff, Doris Keeler, Doris Roesch, and Sue Smith.

Also included are: Mickey Akers, Rowena Neher, D. R. Merkey, Mildred Snowberger, Claudia Jo Stump, Miriam Keim, Billy Kidwell, and Marilee Grove. In the mob are: Bob Peel, Eddie Ball, Marilyn Roe, Maxine Hanley, Robert Kohlen.

Behind Scenes At Homecoming

By Mildred Beck

Each year as the time draws near for Homecoming, the Presidents of the various organizations on the campus call meetings of their group at least four weeks in advance of Homecoming with great hopes of getting the plans made for their float and decorations early, so there won't be that last minute rush.

The first meeting goes off in grand style with the unanimous decision to appoint committees and the other members urged to use the liberty of giving their bright suggestions. The next two weeks pass by without much activity except in the minds of the committee members. In their subconscious minds keeps running the familiar little saying, "We just have to get busy on that float," but that seems to be as far as it goes, because the last week—the last days—the last day—and even the last hours, find anything but a calm and collected group on Macampus.

If you are one of these people who dearly love meetings, there was a nice variety of them to attend these past few days. In fact on Tuesday there were four in progress all at the same time, but the main objective of them all was the decorations for Homecoming, therefore it didn't make much difference which you attended, for you got roped into work no matter where you were.

Homecoming is the one week that the Macollege is in demand of trucks, but this season of the year, the farmer in his maize harvest also needs his trucks, but this is a mere matter compared to the need of a truck for a float. The boys and girls of nearby farms, and business men have been approached by eager students with the phrase, "Do you know where we can get a truck?" and as the time drew near the answer was usually "no."

Arnold Hall was in a big rush to get their float prepared, but since a truck was not available until Friday morning, they just took their own sweet time. The sophomore class made a farm to farm search over the countryside for one and finally ended up some five miles from Mac. As the last days drew near, the size of the truck, 34 ton pickup, or a big semi made no difference, just so it was a truck.

No student could possibly feel left out of the decorating for Homecoming, for if he even so much as opened his mouth with a gentle hint that he would be willing to help, three or more committees posted him to help on their float.

Clean-up is one event which is hard work, but is worth it because of the shorter class periods. One girl even got so involved in cleaning that she got her hair and eyebrows singed by the fire. A green freshman stated she thought the filler, called "glue," gave her sacks full of leaves. If Mother Nature and the students would cooperate, the campus might stay clean for at least a short while.

The weather, the nice unpredictable kind that the Sunflower state has, always adds a gruesome mystic air to Homecoming. This year the paper went to press, the weather was changing itself for the perfect type needed for football, banquets, and parades. The temperature was dropping rapid, the wind changed its direction from the north and was blowing like the blades; the sky was cloudy, and to top it off the weatherman predicted continued cold, windy, and snow.

The burning of the Swedes had a bad start already on Tuesday. Out back of Harnly was a big pile of wood which the cheerleaders had their eye on for the bonfire Thursday night. About 1:30 Tuesday afternoon, the wood pile went up into flames and only by the combined efforts of the Dean, girls in their white home ec lab dresses, and other passer by's was enough salvaged.

Even the Swede himself had a hard time of it. He kept losing his head, and that is a bad policy. His legs kept getting weak as though he had water on the knee.

Some poor creature sacrificed some wearable clothes in which the unreliable Swede might meet his doom. The Swede seemingly could not stand the cold as his hands were as red as a beet. If the Bethany Swedes can't stand on their own two feet any better than this specimen, they had better watch out for the McPherson Bulldogs at the kickoff Friday night.

Ah, Homecoming! It gives vim, vigor, and vitality; it takes vim, vigor, and vitality. To the unsuspecting public it may seem as a festive game of Queens, formal banquets, and parades with all the fancy trimmings, but to the students of McPherson College, it means hard work, lots of fun, and high hopes of beating the Swedes on the gridiron when the final score is counted Friday night.

No Place Like Home

Mayor Homer J. Ferguson—Com. '10, ST. '12

To the average disinterested observer, a College Homecoming is just another football game, accompanied by extra campus activities, the emphasis on noisy enthusiasm.

But to alumni and former students, Homecoming in its true sense should mean more than that. Throughout the U. S. and in foreign lands, are thousands of men and women for whom MacCollege has been "a home away from home" during a substantial period of their lives.

Thus our homecoming should be a return in spirit as well as in body, to the scenes of former youthful activities, our achievements and disappointments, our victories and defeats, but with a recollection of close friendships and trained Christian counsel, that has helped to guide us in later years.

Homecoming might well remind us of how far we have come, or what ground we may have lost, since the years spent at M. C.; Homecoming might well be a time of re-consecration to the high ideals of college years and the rededication to youthful ambitions not yet attained.

Through the years with childhood homes broken by the loss of parents, we may lose the cherished family reunions which bind and sustain. 'Tis gratifying then, to return occasionally to the old college campus and bask awhile in the warmth of its memories.

Dr. James Elrod, Regional Secretary

ing responsibilities, especially in the field of home life.

It has been the policy, over the years, to bring to the Conference some outstanding leader, usually from another denomination. The purpose of this is to present varied points of view and to enlarge the services rendered through the conference.

The success or failure of the Conference depends much on the cooperation of the total McPherson community. The students especially can do much to make the Conference a success.

This year a new arrangement is being attempted with regard to the chapel, especially. Whether the reserve section at the College Church for students is filled or empty will depend on student cooperation. We have selected interesting and qualified speakers for these chapel periods and feel there is real value in attendance.

All sessions are open to any students interested. Since many of these will be dealing with important interests for any student we feel happy to say that together we will have a great conference.

There will be some congestion and some inconveniences due to the extra people demanding services. If we all remember these people are our guests, all will be cared for in a fine way.

Students, faculty, church people, this is our Conference.

What Do You Think?

The opinions expressed in this column are those of the contributors and not necessarily those of either McPherson College or the Spectator.

DO YOU THINK THAT THERE WILL BE A THIRD WORLD WAR?

No, I do not believe that there will be another global war. The reason for this is that neither country, Russia, or the United States is prepared for such a war.—Dale Oltman

Yes, if we invade Communist China, which is the source of the Asiatic Communist power. For example, we said that we would go past the 38th parallel in Korea. Then we went past it to get at the source of the Communist power. Now that the Chinese Communists are in the fight, I believe that we will try to hit the source of their power, and in so doing we will bring on another war.—Max McAuley

Yes, I think that there will be another world war because of the aggressiveness of the United States.—Irwin Porter

No, the atomic bomb is too great a threat to the people of the world for any country to risk destruction by using it.—Joe Pate

Yes, I think that the present armaments race among the nations of the world will lead to another war.—Loren Bilkenstaff

No, if we accept the French proposals for total disarmament.—Donald Ford

No, I do not think that either country wants war.—Lorene Clark

Yes, before the present crisis is over, I believe that there will be another war. This war will involve a fight between the United States and Russia because the United States will invade China and eventually Russia in an effort to wipe out Communist power.—Albert Guyer

Yes, if we do not think and act in a different manner than we are now we will be involved in another war.—Dee McMullen

No, I do not think that a world war inevitably arises out of the present East-West relation, because each war is avoidable. We should work against that nervousness which regards each problem within this relation as the beginning of "the war."—Gerhard Siegmund-Schultz

Next weeks question: WHAT DO YOU THINK WAS THE HIGHLIGHT OF HOME COMING WEEK?

Old Lady (afraid of passing her destination, poking the car conductor with her umbrella): "Is that the First National Bank?"
Conductor: "No, madam, them's my ribs."

Conference Has Sectional Meetings

Officials of the regional office had a specific reason in organizing the Seminar or Sectional Conference this year. It is their conviction that many persons holding responsible jobs in the District and Local Church do not do their best job, not because they are unwilling, but because they are not certain how and where to take hold. It is the regional office workers hope that these seminars will be of some real help for everyone.

District Officers

Section No. I is designed specifically for District persons holding responsible positions related to Christian Education. This includes, members of the Board of Administration, and Men's and Women's Work and Youth Work. It is also desirable for pastors and Sunday School Superintendents, etc.

Children's Workers

Section No. II is designed especially for those working with children. They urge those with delegated responsibility in this field to choose this section.

Counselors

Section No. III "The Marriage Counselor" is designed especially for pastors, youth advisors, camp leaders, and others who are continually being asked to give counsel.

Church Workers

Section No. IV is designed for all those not having specific responsibilities in the church as such but who are willing to share in a discussion that could help make their own home life more meaningful. Young adults especially are urged to avail themselves of the values of this course.

Bulldog Barks

The boys on Macampus were, or should have been, in Seventh Heaven the past week. They could save their hard earned money while the girls gallantly shored out the precious greenbacks in order to show the boys that they could be good sports, too. Many girls took the boys to the show and parties.

The Ice Follies were well attended by Mac couples Friday and Saturday nights. Those who went were Ruth Crenshaw and Dick Wagoner, Ann Murray and Ira Porter, Ann Carpenter and Chuck Petefish, Phyllis Bowman and Royce Heam, Hazel Sangler and Bob Augsburg, Doris Keeler and Dave Metzler, Doris Roesch and Dale Snyder.

Kathlyn Larson and Hutch Coffman, Lois Yoder and Gerry Neher, Orva Willens and Loren Blickenstaff, Mickey Akers and Wayne Blickenstaff, Joan Plutner and George Keim, Pat Patterson and Chuck Yoder, and Betty Byers and Max McAuley.

Some freshmen girls also did their duty for Women Pay All week. Wednesday night a group had a party in Dr. Bittinger's basement. They were Martha Jo Rhodes and Bob Price, Winifred Reed and Don Wagener, Marilyn Lee and Jack Schneider, Martha Lucore and Sylvia Flora, Donna Wagener and Bob Wilson, Maxine Hanley and Eugene Neff and Phyllis Johnson and Bob Powell.

WPA picnics have been held in the park the past week. On Sunday night a picnic was enjoyed by Betty Byers and Gilford Ikenberry, Doris Coppock and Wayne Zeligler, Maxine Coppock and Dick King. Thursday night another group had a picnic in the park. They reported that it was a trifle cool, but that they had a good time. They were Evelyn Holman and Eugene Neff, Bertha Landis and Don Thralls, Barbara Beck, and Reza Mofarrah, Ina Ditmars and D. R. Merkey, Maxine Coppock and Dick King, Alice Flora and Beryl McCann, Mary Castor and Tamu Lautala, Yvonne Birkin and Bill Moore.

Halloween became thrill-packed when a group of boys entered the girls dorm and turned the beds upside down, and caused excitement in general. Kline Hall didn't escape either, but the boys were disappointed there because no one offered them doughnuts for raiding Kline Hall.

The Rec. Council had a Hobo Night, they went hiking down rail road tracks, snooping into trash cans all over town and had Hobo Soup (bum stew) to eat. A nice, juicy can of sardines was awarded to the King and Queen Hobo, Ester Mohler and Gilford Ikenberry.

In the dorm there were Halloween parties, too. Third floor had a party Monday night in the room of Miriam Keim and Bowena Neher. Ghost stories flew thick and fast while the lights were turned off to give the desired effect.

A "bread, cheese and jelly" party was held in the room of Don Wagener and Joan Royer at Tuesday night. Others present were Bertha Landis, and Barbara Beck.

A few brave people ventured to their homes the past weekend. Ann and Ginger Reynolds went to their home in Des Moines, Iowa, and Carole Huffman went to her home at St. Joseph, Missouri. Lucy Flory, Gordon and Melvin Fishburn, Margaret and Bill Daggert and Rowan Keim went to Lawrence.

Thursday night a carload went to Hutchinson to a show. They were Elsie Kindley and Wayne Zeligler, Rowena Merkey and Bob Wilson, and Joan Royer and Vernon Merkey.

Elsa Kartz was uncontrollable Friday morning. She saw snow for the second time in five years. It seems that it is just doesn't snow out in Las Vegas.

Visitors on Campus in the past week were Jimmy Garvey, Galen Webb, Vernon Nicholson and John Firestone.

Elsa Kartz and Ken Pritchett, Pat Steel and Bob Roberts went

A party was given in the Boy Scout cabin Tuesday night by Orva Willens, Beverly Turner, Sue Smith and Peggy Sargent. Those present were Loren Blickenstaff, Wayne Blickenstaff, Lloyd Hummer, Art Myers, Chuck Petefish, Duane Jamison, Carl Metzker, George Gorf, George Keim, John Robison, Gene Smith, Eddie Ball, Paul Heidebrecht, Marlin Walters, Bob Kerr, Don Hoch, Marvin Ferguson, Tommy O'Dell.

Zeller.

Thirtieth floor Arnold had a birthday party Thursday night in honor of Pat Patterson and Ina Ditmars.

Mrs. E. A. Wall Entertains Girls At Hotel Dinner

Tuesday evening Mrs. Ernest Wall entertained Mrs. Stanley B. Keim, Miriam Keim, Rowena Neher, Lois Yoder, Elsa Kurtz, Margaret Daggert, and Rowena Keim at a dinner party at Hotel Warren. Following the dinner, Mrs. Wall invited the guests to her home and showed them her collection of Madonnas which came from all parts of the world.

Stanley Keims Return For Visit To Maccollege

Mr. (A.B.S.'25) and Mrs. Stanley B. Keim, Nampa, Idaho, have been campus visitors this week. Mr. Keim, who is a member of the General Brotherhood Board, has been attending in Elgin, Illinois but has returned to McPherson to see their daughter, Miriam, crowned 1950 Maccollege Homecoming Queen tonight.

Mr. Keim, who is a meat packer, played on the Bulldog football team while in college.

Committee Shows Films Tomorrow Night

Two movies, The Difference, and Two Kingdoms are to be shown in the chapel at 7:30 tomorrow evening. These films are each 60 minutes in length and have been procured by the Social Committee for the entertainment of students and visiting friends.

They are thought provoking stories about a Christian, and refugees in other lands respectively. Everyone is welcome to see the pictures.

Ladies' Quartet Sings In Salina

On Thursday, Nov. 2, the college ladies' quartet, accompanied by Professor Flory, attended the Kansas State Teacher's Meeting in Salina. The quartet sang for the program. Prof. Flory was chairman of the College and High School section.

Dr. Harl R. Douglass, co-author of the Elementary Methods textbook used here, and a well-known authority on teaching methods, was the principal speaker. There was also a panel on "An Evaluation of Teacher Education in Our Colleges Today."

The precept, "Know thyself," was not solely intended to obviate the price of mankind, but likewise that we might understand our own worth.—Cleora

Since many grads are returning to see the Bulldogs perform tonight, a study has been made to discover how and when the pug-nosed Canine became the mascot of Maccollege.

The following letter was written to the alumni office several years ago by Ellis D. Vernik of Lincoln, Nebraska. Mr. Vernik was the basketball coach at McPherson College in 1915-16-17.

When the alumni office wrote to the coach it was to secure from him as much information as possible concerning the Bulldog, official mascot and symbol of McPherson college. In the letter Vernik tells about the Bulldog named Ben who was the first mascot of the college.

"Insofar as the story of Ben is concerned," Mr. Vernik wrote, "when my elder son was born, we got Ben on the theory that a boy ought to have a dog. This dog was an English Pitt Bull, weighing 87 pounds. He was one of the best natured dogs we ever saw. However, he had in him a streak of something that would not allow him to be pushed around.

"When he came to McPherson practically every dog undertook to put him in his place. I don't recall that Ben ever picked a fight, but I do recall many fights that were picked by other dogs, none of which lasted very long.

"Ben was entirely successful in defending his honors. There was one big greyhound dog who came to town after Ben did. I have forgotten who owned him, but he seemed to feel that he was going to take care of the sight going out to McPherson College.

"One night I was riding my bicycle out to the college, with Ben out in front pulling me, this dog undertook to put Ben in his place. The affair was short and sweet, but Ben could not catch the greyhound, he apparently had business in another county. That seemed to end Ben's trouble insofar as proving who was going to take care of that particular street.

"I coached the McPherson College basketball team in 1915-16-17. Every evening about 4:30 or 5 o'clock I would ride my bicycle to the college with Ben out in front. Ben had a harness on him with a chain snapped to the harness, and I held the chain in my hand. He would pull me all the way from town to the college. That was the way we exercised the bulldog.

"Of course, he sat on the bench at the basketball games. Just how interested he was in the game I don't know. He was, however, very much interested in the players. A Ben would come off the floor, and Ben would walk over and sniff him; what he sought to accomplish by the sniffing I don't know, but apparently he approved each time because he didn't register disapproval.

"When I left McPherson to go to China, there was a problem as to what to do with the dog. Dr. Heaston had taken care of our family when my elder son was born and his bill was not yet paid. I went to Dr. Heaston to settle my bill before I left the city. He asked me what I was going to do with the dog. I told him I presumed someone would have to take care of him.

"The Doctor said 'You give me the dog and I'll give you the baby, and we'll call it square.' In this way Ben the bulldog was the price of our elder son.

"There is another incident that took place while we had Ben which at the time was rather a tragic one, but since has seemed rather amusing.

Dean Coughenour Resigns Howard Todd Becomes Managing Editor Of Paper

Dean Coughenour, first semester managing editor of the Spectator, has resigned his position because of pressing school and work obligations. Dean, who has also been covering sports events for the past year and one half, is working with Jack Kough in the office of public relations.

Coughenour's position will be filled by Howard Todd, who has been campus editor thru far this season. Todd has had considerable experience in publishing his own paper, and at the present time is assisting his parents who operate the Central Printing Company in McPherson.

Howard will become the new editor-in-chief of the paper next semester.

"The Fool" is back. It will be part of the Regional Conference program. You who have seen it undoubtedly have opinions as to whether or not it should be allowed to reappear. Before you cry out, let me defend "The Fool".

Ben, Pug-Nosed Canine, Became Maccollege Mascot

"We used to keep him in the house with Mrs. Vernik and whenever anyone came to the door, she would go to the door and open it and Ben would stick his old ugly mug out of the door first. It was a very discouraging reception for the people who come to our house. Thus it wasn't long before the hoboos who were very common in those parts particularly during harvest season, stayed entirely clear of our place. Ben seemed to be a hoboicide."

"What is your occupation?" said the magistrate.

"I'm a locksmith, sir," replied the prisoner.

"Then what were you doing in that gambling house when the police raided it?"

"I was making a bolt for the door."

"This was during the period of very high prices, during the latter part of 1916 and early 1917. It was quite a purchase for us, for we had a very modest income at that time, and meat at our house had been for the most part rabbits.

"My wife was all for putting the dog out of business. She wanted to get rid of him for she just couldn't stand seeing that bulldog around any longer. But we kept him, and he seemed to do pretty well after that. Needless to say, he did not eat any more beef.

"I was secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the time and of necessity was at the building until 10:10:30 every night. Old Ben used to stay

Critics Cuss 'The Fool's' Cussing

By Don Shultz

At last, the beleaguered director is forced to "wash every mote" out of the play. We acquiesce—amiably. If precedence calls for no cussing, then "No Cussing" is the watchword.

The Player's Club has worked long, dark hours to succeed in this production. The material has been checked and rechecked to make certain that no profanity remains. Still the critics start at the mention of "The Fool," and are against it. They have missed the issue of the play, and have overlooked the contrast between good and evil.

We ask them to save their voices. We promise that there will be no profanity. We hope our sons have better reasons.

Alumni President Sends Greetings

Canton, Kans. Greetings to the Alumni, Students, and friends of McPherson College.

Through the cooperation and help of many of the local alumni: Bob May, alumni secretary; Dr. Bittinger, the faculty; and students, we have endeavored to make this Homecoming the biggest and best yet. We want you to feel as welcome and as much at home as you did when you were a student here.

McPherson college is definitely looking up 'e every department. The enrollment shows a greater percentage of increase than any other denominational college in this section of the country. Many improvements in buildings and equipment have been made in the last few years and improvements will continue to be made under the able administration of Pres. Bittinger and his colleagues.

This constant growth has been made possible through many generous gifts, both large and small, from alumni and others who are interested in the type of character that is being developed by McPherson College.

It is indeed gratifying, when out in the communities of the constituents of our school, to find that many of the church and community leaders are graduates of McPherson. This in itself speaks for the contribution that our alma mater is giving to help direct the thinking of people during these troubled times.

The board of directors of the alumni association and the alumni secretary have been meeting together each month to discuss changes in the policy of the association which might make it more effective for both the association and the college itself. It is the plan to continue these meetings during the school term, and we will appreciate any suggestions from fellow alumni.

Yours Truly,
Donald Dresher
President of the Alumni Association

Twenty-Third Slam

The college professor is my shepherd and I am in dire want;

He preventeth me from lying down in the bed which I renteth;

He leadeth me to distraction with his exam questions;

He shaketh my resolution to get a college degree;

He leadeth me to make a fool of myself before my classmates.

Yea, tho I burn my lamp until the landlady howleth, I fear much evil;

For he is against me.

His policies, his theories, and his ranting frighten my wits from me.

He assigneth me extra work in the presence of mine enemies;

He annoineth my quiz paper with red pencil marks;

And my zeros fill a whole column.

Surely, theories, exams, and themes will follow me all the days of my college career.

And I will dwell in the bughouse forever.

Band Gives Performance At M. C.-Ottawa Game

The McPherson College Band traveled by bus to Ottawa, Friday night, to perform at the McPherson Ottawa game. The band contributed to the pep of the McPherson fans during the game.

At the half the band began their maneuver with a trumpet call. They marched across the field and back to the center doing several formations. They came to a halt in front of the grandstand in an "M" formation. Charles Royer presented a twirling exhibition which included twirling a burning baton with the lights out.

Donald Dresher

Meet D. Dresher Alumni President

Donald Dresher, who is now president of the Alumni Association, attended high school at Canton, Kansas. He then entered McPherson College, and took as his major, Industrial Arts.

He was one of the three from his family who graduated from McPherson College in the year of 1933.

After his graduation he started teaching in the Elementary schools at Windom, and taught for 12 years. At this time he accepted the job of Principal of Public schools at Windom High School in which he was Principal for nine years. This year instead of teaching he is farming.

Dresher married Marcella Stansel in July, 1938. They have two boys, one 11 and the other 8 years of age. Mr. Dresher has held positions on the Alumni board various times, and has been the President of the Association for two years.

Nothing so much convinces me of the boundlessness of the human mind as its operations in dreaming.—William B. Clulow

Alumni Re-Organized In 1909; Number Over Two Thousand; Represent Forty-Two States, Nine Countries

Petman records show that the McPherson Alumni Association was reorganized in the spring of 1909. During the following year a new constitution was drafted and submitted to the business meeting held in the spring of 1910. The meeting adopted the plan and effected a temporary organization under the new system, by electing seven directors to serve for one year. There are twenty on this board at the present time.

This organization at the present time is composed of 2,320 Alumni. Approximately 25 percent of these are from Kansas. The Alumni Association covers 42 states, and eight foreign countries. Out of our 43 faculty members 24 are Alumni from our college. Also 23 of the 61 pastors of the Western region are Grads of Mac.

Approximately 27 percent of the Alumni are housewives, 18 percent teachers, 8 percent farmers, and 3 percent ministers.

The Alumni Association has for some time had as its major objectives:

1. To be of service to the college by fostering movements considered by the alumni to be beneficial and desirable for the progress of the college.
 2. To serve in some measure as an advertising medium for the college in securing of students and funds necessary for the growth of the institution.
 3. To assist, through an elected representative, who is a member of the board of trustees, in the active management of the college.
- To sum up these three objectives:

What Makes McPherson Mac?

Homecoming with its gaiety, fuss, worry, and excitement invites a wee minge of introspection. It's an opportune time to "look in" to ourselves and discover why McPherson College is Mac to us, a friendly, warm sounding title rather than a cool, distant appellation.

Maybe it's because of memories associated with the "country corners" in Harty's Sharp, or in Arnold's parlor; the alarm clocks in chapel; a cow in the Dean's office; Bulldog victories; Prof. Hess' blackboard; a sagging floor in the Quad office; a corner closet in the girls' dorm; sign signals in the old dining hall; hamburgers at the College Inn; J. J. Yoder as Business Manager; Christmas caroling; blanket huddles at rainy football games; freshman caps; and Academy days.

Whatever it is, memories come and memories go. Probably the greatest single factor which makes and determines those things we remember, are the jam sessions, the feeds, talks, and evenings we spent with the pals and friends to whom we became attached.

It's this friendliness, fellowship, and close association that makes McPherson College Mac to both Grads and students.

Spec Office Receives General Over-Hauling

Not to be out-done in appearance, the Spec office has received a general over-hauling along with several other offices and buildings.

Last spring a new galley file was purchased for the filing of cuts, and also a new four-drawer metal file for material, clippings, etc. During the summer the floor was sanded and re-painted, and recently two of the desks have been repainted.

Several new typewriter ribbons were also purchased, as well as a plastic ruler and an eraser.

Former Teachers Publish Studies—Music, Meteorites

Former Maccollege teachers are the authors of two books recently added to the Brethren Collection in the college library.

Nevin W. Fisher's "The History of Brethren Hymnbooks" is a historical, critical and comparative study of the hymnbooks of the Church of the Brethren. "The Nininger Collection of Meteorites" by Harvey H. and Addie D. Nininger is a catalog and history of the Nininger meteorite collections.

Professor Fisher's book traces Brethren hymns from its plastic sources up through the transplanting of the church to America on down to the present time when a new Brethren hymnal is taking shape.

E-Town Displays 1743 Sauer Bible

Two brown-stained Bibles, several centuries old, are on display in the brownie room of the library. One is the Sauer Bible, dated back to 1743. The other volume is dated 1744.

The first Bible printed in the colonies, excepting Eliot's Indian Bible, is the Sauer Bible, a collector's item.

The book, one of 12,000 copies, was printed by the Christopher Sauer Press in Germantown on paper made in Ephrata. On Dec. 12, 1822, J. H. Longemecker, an elder in the Church of the Brethren, presented the Bible to the college.

A more recent acquisition is the German Bible, presented this year by William Eberly, a Lancaster lawyer. The book is in its original leather-tooled binding.

Mr. Eberly is the brother of Mrs. Emma Lande, who bequeathed $15,000 to the Elizabethtown College. Her books were given to the college library through Mr. Eberly, who had bought them after his sister's death. The 1744 Bible was included in Mrs. Lande's private collection.

Church, College Interests Prompt Creation Of Regional Organizations

In order that friends, Alumni, and Regional Conference guests who are visiting Macampus may have a better understanding of the organization and function of the Regional organization and its work, the following history has been compiled.

Prior to 1936 the Church of the Brethren had no regional organizations as such. Gradually, in areas centered around the Church colleges, a feeling of regional consciousness came into being.

In 1935 the Annual Conference of the Church of the Brethren officially authorized the organization of regional councils. Until that time the only crystallizing medium for the various areas was the Pastors' Conference. Following the action, the McPherson conference of 1937 organized the Western Regional Council. Officers elected were: W. H. Yoder, chairman; Burton Metzler, vice-chairman; and James H. Elrod, secretary.

The purpose of the organization was, at that time, solely the promoting of church and college interests within the college area. This area included the 16 states between the Rocky Mountains and the Mississippi River, and Old Mexico and Canada, apart from Idaho.

At the Ashville Annual Conference of 1942 the Church of the Brethren authorized the regional councils to employ full time secretaries. Acting upon this decision the Western Region employed the present Secretary, James H. Elrod.

The Regional office was moved to McPherson, Kansas in August, 1942. For two years the office was located at 1722 East Gordon Street in McPherson. The feeling of the brotherhood boards and the college that the office should be located in the college buildings prompted a second move. In 1944 the office was housed in Harty Hall on the college campus.

After one and one-half years at this location, the present office space was made available, through the endeavor of Dr. W. W. Peters. At first the creation of the Regional Office was merely as a medium. At present the responsibility of the office involves the total program of the church. This includes ministry, home missions, foreign missions, christian education, service, finance, and college interest.

The Bulldog Coaches

Woodard

Chalmers E. Woodard, or "Woody," as he prefers to be called, will be new to many returning alumni, as this is his first year at McPherson College.

However, Woody is not new to anyone for long. He is easy to get acquainted with, and will talk with you for hours, especially about football.

Woody came to McPherson with an outstanding high school coaching record and has proved that given a little time he can turn out some fine college teams. He has taken a squad with very little college experience, taught them a new system, and played every opponent a good game.

Woody's official title is Head Coach and Athletic Director.

Hayes

Guy Hayes is new in the capacity of assistant football coach, but will be new to no one very recently connected with McPherson College. Guy, until recently a McPherson business man, has taken over the enlarged Rural Life Dept. here at the college and doubles as assistant football coach.

Guy will be remembered by many as a player himself. He made all conference honors in 1933 at a tackle position.

Hayes has had coaching experience before. He coached at Roxbury, Ellsworth and Chapman High Schools, before the war.

and Johnny Robinson made eight yards in two attempts to put the ball on the two yard marker. Bob Kerr went over from there to score. Melvin Fishburn kicked the extra point. Ottawa took the kickoff and McPherson took over.

A few minutes later, Medill intercepted a McPherson pass on the McPherson 31 yard line. From there, Ottawa went on to score on the ground with the last three yards being made on a reverse by Vaughn Kimbrough. The try for the point was muffed. Taking the kickoff, Blickenstaff hit Robinson with a 22 yard pass, and in a series of ground plays, McPherson marched 75 yards to the six yard marker and Bob Kerr raced across to score. The try for the point by Fishburn was blocked.

The rest of the half, both teams had little success in forging ahead

Kough

Jack Kough is doubling as Public Relations Director and as line coach for the Bulldogs. Jack played some football here at McPherson College just before the war. He also played while in the service, so he is well acquainted with the game.

Jack has his masters degree and has completed his residence requirements for his Ph. D. at the University of Chicago.

and the half ended with the score standing 15-13 in favor of Ottawa.

Ottawa hung on to their slim lead through the third quarter as the crowd saw many drives by both teams bog down and neither being able to score. With three minutes gone in the fourth frame, Ottawa's Jack Pattie hit Don Simon twice for 15 and 13 yards respectively, and Vaughn Kimbrough drove over from the seven. Grogans kick was good.

Now trailing by nine points, McPherson received and after two no-gain plays on the ground, took

Wareham

Dick Wareham is the only hold-over in the phys. ed. department from last year. Dick acts as team trainer for the Bulldogs during the football season and will be B squad coach in basketball.

However, Dick's main duties are in the fields of Physical Education and intramurals.

Dick is also baseball coach. Under his guidance the Bulldogs have taken on a very ambitious baseball schedule.

to the air only to have their first pass intercepted on their own 37 by Kimbrough, and a few plays later Ken Clifton went over from the eight. The try for the extra point was wide and Ottawa led 28-13.

McPherson tried to rush back again but bogged down shortly and the game ended with Ottawa holding the big end of a 28-13 score and retaining their right for a chance at the Kansas Conference crown.

Bulldogs Play St. Louis Nov. 28

Since the first few days of October, Assistant Coach Dick Wareham has been conditioning a group of basketball players. As soon as the regular football season is over, this group will be joined by others which are at present playing football. From this enlarged group, the 1950-51 McPherson College basketball team will be chosen.

The Bulldogs have lost several of their players by graduation but among those returning is Loren Blickenstaff, a junior, who last year was the top scorer for the Bulldogs and was also chosen to the second string All-Conference team. He will be supported by several other important lettermen and a host of other new but not untried material. With the turnout for practice as large as it has been and the Bulldogs starting a new season under new coach Chalmers "Woody" Woodward, they can be sure that things shall be on the "up" as they are in football.

Several big games have been scheduled as well as the usual Kansas conference and tournaments. Among those are St. Louis University, Phillips University of Eldon, and Illinois Wesleyan plus several tough foes of the Central conference.

Yes, the McPherson College Bulldogs should have a good year on the hard woods as Coach Chalmers "Woody" Woodward and his assistants make ready for the 1950-51 basketball season.

Braves Pass Beat Bulldogs

Ottawa proved too strong for the McPherson Bulldogs last Friday night as they passed to a 28-13 win.

Ottawa took the opening kickoff and on the first play, Jack Pattie pitched a 63 yard pass to Dick Meiers that ended up on the two yard line. Pattie then went over from the two to score. The try for extra point was missed.

McPherson regained and moved to the twelve yard line of Ottawa before they lost the ball on downs. Ottawa then took over and moved to the 15 where Grogan kicked a field goal and Ottawa led 9-0.

With five minutes gone in the second quarter, McPherson recovered an Ottawa fumble by Bill Hoover on Ottawa's 27 yard line. From there Kerr ran the end for 14. Smith dashed through for 13.

Swedes, Bulldog Homecoming Foe

PROBABLE STARTERS TONIGHT AGAINST BETHANY'S SWEDES

LIKELY TO SEE SOME ACTION IN HOMECOMING CLASSIC

The feature attraction of the homecoming week-end will find the McPherson College Bulldogs and Bethany College Swedes renewing, for the 28th time, a rivalry which has been heated down through the years.

It was back in 1920 that the Bulldogs first met the Swedes on the gridiron in the first regularly scheduled intercollegiate game for the Bulldogs.

The Swedes by this time were old hands at intercollegiate football, but it was not until the close of hostilities in 1919 that McPherson College began to think seriously about playing football. The board of trustees approved football in 1920 and the college set up a schedule which included Bethany. Thus was born the Bulldog-Swede rivalry.

Sportstuff—

Of the 27 games played to date the Swedes hold a decided edge in games won. The Swedes have walked off with 20 while the Bulldogs have salvaged 4, the last Bulldog victory coming in 1935. Three of the meetings have failed to prove a thing, ending in ties.

As might be expected, the Bulldog-Swede affairs being the oldest on Bulldog books, many of the all-time marks were set in these games. The oldest mark, set in a Swede game, still on the books was set in 1923. The Bulldogs did not allow the Swedes a single first down as they beat them 7-3.

The 1923 Bulldogs went on to take the championship, for the only championship the Bulldogs have ever won in 26 years.

This great 1923 team featured such well known alumni as Paul "SI" Sargent, the Keim brothers Dick and Stan, Paul Kurtz, Frank Barton, Bill Mudra, and Leon "Peanuts" Morine in the line. The backfield consisted of Gordon "Joe" Heaston, Carl "Tok" Carter, Harold Barton, and Henry "Heinie" Hahn.

The most recent mark or marks to be set in a Bulldog-Swede meeting were set only last year, when four were written into the books. Bethany scored the most points an M C opponent has ever scored against her when they scored 75. The most points scored by both teams with Bethany's 75 and McPherson's 12 for a total of 88, and as would be expected the most touchdowns scored by both teams, 14, were scored in last year's meeting.

However all the glory does not go to the Swedes for last year. Bill Seidel, Bulldog end snagged a Bethany fumble out of mid-air and rambled 83 yards to pay dirt for the longest runback of a fumble in Bulldog history.

Several other records have been set in Bulldog-Swede contests, the most outstanding of which is probably the record number of punts set in 1931, when each team punned 18 times as they fought to a 0-0 tie.

As the Bulldogs and Swedes meet again tonight, one could probably find takers for bets on the outcome either way. Comparative scores only serve to cloud the picture more thoroughly as to the outcome, the teams are that evenly matched. Some will say that the Bulldogs should win because they will be up for the homecoming affair, but others will point out that Coach Ray Hahn of the Swedes will have something extra special for the Bulldogs as he strives to keep his Swedes above the .500 mark.

Kansas Conference

Baker Or Ottawa Champion?

The Baker-Ottawa go-round at Ottawa Nov. 17 is almost certain to decide the championship of the Kansas Conference.

Ottawa must dispose of C. of E. tonight to make the Nov. 17 affair the decisive battle. Even should Ottawa lose to C. of E. they could still share in the title by beating Baker.

Baker will go into the Ottawa game with a perfect record as the rest of their league schedule is completed. Baker won their fifth straight conference game last Saturday over Kansas Wesleyan 46-20. The game was a Homecoming affair at Baldwin.

Ottawa kept its record clean against McPherson as they beat the Bulldogs 28-13 last Friday night.

College of Emporia made it two wins and three losses in conference play as they had little trouble with Bethel, winning 23-0.

The conference schedule this week will find McPherson entertaining the Bethany Swedes in the Bulldogs Homecoming game. Bethel will go to Salina to meet Kansas Wesleyan and Ottawa will journey to Emporia for a game with C. of E. Baker steps out of the conference to entertain Westminster (Iowa at Baldwin). All of these games are tonight.
