Stille Nacht

Christmas fell on Sunday that year and people enter-ing the church felt a special glow of happiness. A new family had arrived in the community only the night before. And this family was different, for they were displaced persons from Germany.

For the past week the members of the community had been fixing up a home for this family and they had con-tributed many welcoming gifts

Now this morning, the German husband and wife and their son sat among strangers, in an unfamiliar church, seeing smiling faces, and hearing words they could not understand. Uncertain smiles played across their faces for they wanted to please and they didn't know how.

Through the opening music, the reading of the Christ-mas scripture, and the morning prayers, the new family was lost.

Another song was introduced, and the German couple relaxed somewhat to listen. Then, as the congregation sang, something about the song caught the couple's attention. They listened more eagerly. The man leaned over to look at his neighbor's book. There, in small letters under the English title were the words, "Stille Nacht."

Joyous smiles broke across their faces as they recog-nized the words. Then, they began to sing, their voices rising clear and sure with the German words to the song Americans know as "Silent Night."

The entire congregation smiled, and the next phrases of the carol rose majestically and enveloped every heart.

Fact Or Legend?

What does Christmas mean to you? Is it a time at which gifts are exchanged with friends, and when everyone seems to be more friendly than usual? Is it a time of vacation from the routine of school work? Is it a time at which Christmas Carols are sung, and when an ornament laden Christmas tree stands in one corner of the dormitory? Is it a time when for a few moments, we listen to a minister tell us of the Christ who was born so long ago? Is it in reality a celebration of the birth of Christ?

I am sure that for most of us Christmas is the celebra-tion of Christ's birth, and that these other things are a mere sideline of Christmas. Because of that great event so long ago, when God gave to the world His only son, we are given the opportunity to become His true followers. But does this have real meaning for us? Are the events of that first Christmas realistic to us, or are they a legend-ary story which, once a year, is called to our attention.

when the shepherds were in the fields making ready to settle down to a cold night of watching their flocks, the sky was suddenly filled with heavenly hosts who sang praises to God and who told of the birth of Christ. To you, is this a scene that actually occurred, or is it only a legend? And do the other events of that wonderful birth of Christ mean to you the beginning of the Christian religion with all its great ideals and aspirations, love, faith, and salvation, that Christ Jesus taught and lived? What does Christmas mean to you?—B. H.

Several Macollege students have had the opportunity to attend a summer work camp. Their sharing of their experiences has been beneficial and inspiring to all of us.

Any conscientious young person who is financially able to give this service should if at all possible do so. There are probably many other people whom you know that are interested in international service but cannot afford to. Perhaps a church, a youth organization or the college could sponsor the trip for one person. The organization would be doing themselves a favor. If the college sent a person, they would want to try their best to choose an individual who has the most when he returns. Perhaps, a college junior would be the best choice for he would be in school another year during which time between the standard of the centre sundest day.

Thinking With The President

The Angel Song
For nearly two thousand years now we have been reading and singing the angel's song, which was delivered to the world directly out of Heaven by a specially prepared angel choir Christmas morning. The song concludes, "and on earth peace among men."

During the two thousand years of the repeated singing of the song, of the repeated singing of the song, for perhaps more than one thous-and of those years there was war somewhere on the earth. During the lifetime of our present McPher-son College students, even though we helped to sing this song, we have often been far from peace.

This year we shall sing it again.
"Glory to God in the Highest and on Earth Peace Among Men."

While we sing it we will know that on Korean hillsides and elsewhere there is conflict. Boys who would like to be home around the Christmas tree will be cold and fearful. On this Christmas day, death will walk among them as it does every day.

Yet the Christmas song will not be stilled. The echo of its music will not die away. Forever we shall sing."And on Earth Peace Among Men," until the day comes when the song is fulfilled.

The McPherson College Bulldogs turned on the heat in the last quarter last Monday night; but it was too late and they were too far behind so they lost to the Southwestern Builders by a score of 46-42. Both teams forgot about offense the first half and spent most of beir time on defense, which was feetive, for the halftime score was mly 18-15 in favor of Southwestern. The Bulldogs came to life in the final period as they started whittling away at their opponent's wide margin. A little past midway this margin was cut to 42-34, and from then on out it was a battle royal as the Bulldogs changed their tactics to man-for-man and turned on the full court press. Southwestern's height under the backboard was an advantage to the visitors for they gained most of the rebounds.

That's Hay, Boys!

Someone's herd of cows ought to show some marked improvement now that they are being fed with fresh hay direct from Iowa.

Operation "Iowa Hay" started at 4 a. m. Friday when three boys, Don Thralls, Don Fike, and Bob Powell left by trucks for Iowa. The boys reached their destination at Earlham, Iowa at 4 p. m. the same day.

Next day, Bill Daggett was there to help them load up, and after having had a box car and their trucks all loaded up, they started once more on the journey back to Kansas at about 5 p. m. Saturday, they reported safely back to base early Sunday morning.

The final results? Operation "Iowa Hay" successfully accomplished. The hay looks good, let's hope the cows improve!
