

Campaign For Funds Begins March 1

An effort is being launched in the next three years to raise a sum of $150,000 for the college through the local community. A promotion dinner was held for this purpose last Thursday evening, Feb. 12 at the McCourt Hotel. Fifty business men of the county were guests of McPherson College.

The chairman of the dinner was Mayor Homer Ferguson. Mr. W. J. Krebber, former owner of the McPherson Daily Republican, gave a speech about the growth which he has seen McPherson College make. He spoke of its progress to its present size from the day when it consisted of one building and the basement of the present Sharp Hall.

Dr. D. W. Bittinger presented the needs of McPherson College. He spoke of what a Christian college can mean to a community in terms of financial, religious, and cultural opportunity for its young people.

A discussion was then held which concluded with the decision to make an effort in the next three years to raise locally a sum of $150,000 for the college. Part of this money will be used for building expansion and the remainder will go into a general fund for year-to-year operation.

The actual organization of this campaign will begin March 1. Committees of business men will do the major part of the soliciting for funds.

A Friend In Need

This week is being recognized as Brotherhood Week over the nation—a week when we are conscious of the welfare of our friends and neighbors.

When we stop to realize the many times we've had little worries and troubles on our minds and we stop and talk it over with a friend, they will help and understand. It is this feeling that makes us want to do nice things for these persons and thus, it creates a feeling that can only be expressed by one who has accomplished such a feat.

Another word comes cropping up to my attention—Prejudice! People often take pride in prejudice, and yet prejudice, which is hate and envy, and which is the feeling of false superiority, is the root of war.

Mankind's worst enemies do not always come out openly with their comments. The worst operate in underground murmurs and in their so-called humor. If we want a peaceful world, we must stop these murmurs, and help one another understand and work together will all people, regardless of race, color, or religion.

Today is World Day of Prayer—we can put into practice our beliefs by praying for a better world and of people working together peacefully and without prejudices.

The Spec Needs You

Have you ever wondered what goes into the making of a paper?

Well, first of all, it needs good reporters to collect and write up the news.

This is one thing of which the Spectator is short. In order to put out a good paper, it is necessary to have people interested in it, and willing to work for that goal.

Working on a school paper is very good experience for almost any vocation in which you are interested. It is exciting—you know what is going to happen before it happens.

If you are one of those students who need journalistic experience, and also want to set a goal for himself, your job is one you will never regret.

The Spec needs you and your talents!

Living With Peace Of Mind

By Kirby Page

Man does not live by bread alone, but by beauty and harmony, truth and goodness, work and recreation, affection and friendship, aspiration and worship.

Man does not live alone, but by the splendor of the starry firmament at midnight, the glory of the heavens at dawn, the gorgeous blending of colors at sunset, the luxuriant loveliness of mania trees, the sheer magnificence of mountains.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the majesty of ocean breakers, the shimmer of moonlight on a calm lake, the flashing silver of a mountain torrent, the exquisite patterns of snow crystals, the exalted creations of master artists.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the sweet song of a mockingbird, the rustle of tall corn in the breeze, the magic of the maestro's violin, the grandeur of Handel's Messiah, the sublimity of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the fragrance of roses, the smell of new mown hay, the clasp of a friend's hand, the tenderness of a mother's kiss.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the lyrics and sonnets of poets, the holiness of saints, the biographies of great souls, the life-giving words of Holy Scripture.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by comradeship and high adventure, seeking and finding, creating and cooperating, serving and sharing, loving and being loved.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by being faithful in prayer, responding to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, taking up the cross and following the living Christ, finding and doing the loving will of God now and eternally.

Thinking With The President

The Local Draft Board set up in each community a Local Draft Board to make contact with, examination of, and final decision concerning the draftees from that community.

This local Draft Board has been empowered with large responsibilities and powers. Certain statutes have been set up to guide the Boards and certain advices given to them. However, a great deal of power remains to their discretion.

This is in line with our theory of democracy. The intent is to leave final judgments in the hands of local community people as fully as possible.

In most cases, this seems to work satisfactorily. Most local Draft Boards are comprised of responsible people who are willing to take on this duty considering their responsibility as citizens.

In some cases it has not worked well and justice and equity have miscarried. It may occur for several reasons.

It occurs when an unfortunate choice of Draft Board membership is made. Some people cannot stand power; power changes them and they misuse it. This is always an indication of a smaller man; the larger the man the better he can handle power and the more humble it makes him.

B. In most instances, local draft boards are comprised of very busy people. They may not have had time to acquaint themselves with the great volume of statistics which have come out from Selective Service Headquarters. They, therefore, do not know what the intent of the law is concerning the boys who are drafted; they make their decisions on unobjective and personal bases.

In most cases, however, the local Draft Board is comprised of conscientious people who are trying to co-operate with their country's needs and to be fair to every citizen of their own community.

They deserve certain co-operations from draftees and their parents. Among such co-operations are these:

1. Keep your local draft board informed of your address. If you move, let them know immediately.
2. Keep your local draft board informed of your work. If you are a student or if you are in any kind of work, which would seem to give you eligibility for a new classification let them know at once.
3. When they send you forms to fill out or inquiries for information, reply at once.
4. If it is convenient and seems desirable, drop in to see them so that they can know you personally.
5. Do not insist on special treat-

South Africa Becomes World's Hot Spot

South Africa at the present time is one of the most turbulent countries in the world.

A set of racial segregation laws which by contrast make the South in the U. S. seem heaven to a darker-skinned man, according to the late Canda Lee, is at last being challenged by the people of African and Indian ancestry.

The people of European ancestry, not much more than a fifth of the population, are fearful of losing their identity and their prestige. So far the only answer the government has thought of is to extend apartheid (segregation) and make the laws and their enforcement even more repressive.

The Campaign Against the Unjust Laws, sponsored primarily by the African National Congress, and launched June 26, has so far resulted in thousands of arrests.

This campaign is being proclaimed as one of the most important nonviolent movements since India won her freedom.

ment in your case unless it is merited. They are dealing with hundreds of boys.

6. On the other hand, there are certain rights which you have of which they may not be informed. It is your duty as a citizen to tell them. It is not unpatriotic to do so. They should be protected from violating the intent of the law and, if in your case, they seem to be violating it, inform them.

7. In some cases they are not clear on the regulation concerning student deferments. More frequently they are not well informed about the regulations concerning the continuation of student deferments for those who are preparing for especially needed vocations and professions such as, medicine, dentistry, veterinary work, and so on.

8. If they do not know these things and when you inform them they are not willing to look into it, it is expected that you will appeal to a higher board, even all the way to national appeal board.

These are our democratic provisions. If we do not move in these directions we are not making our democracy and democratic ways operative. In our democratic society we share information, we explain our understandings of our rights, in kindly assistance we give and take so that the personal liberties of no one are trampled on.

Seems like Valentine's Day can't pass by without someone's heart being punctured by cupid's arrow. It happened after the game at a party in Velva Wagner's home. A number of couples were there and while they were playing games, Velva interrupted them and said she had a tape recorder which she like them to hear. Mario Lanza gave forth with "Because" and near the middle of it Velva said, I would like to take this opportunity to announce Phyllis Johnson's engagement to Dale Royer. And sure enough, Macollege has another couple on their happy way.

Gerry Goering also had a party at her home after the game Saturday night, but it didn't bring about the same effects, as was expected, that Velva's party did. No one came home from Gerry's party with a ring on, but the couples all enjoyed themselves anyway by playing games such as Flinch, Wink'em and so on.

The ladies trio took a short weekend trip to Ozarkville, Kansas last Sunday to sing and Bob Mays drove with them and gave the morning sermon. That evening they gave a full concert for the service in McLouth, Kansas.

Mrs. Gliee Yoder will attend an institute for children workers at Kansas City, Kans. this weekend. Virginia Bowers is the Pep Club's new publicity chairman and has taken the job over very well. Being a pretty good artist comes in handy in this case and her talent has been shown in the eye-catching pep chapel signs lately.

Last Tuesday evening, two girls went uptown to close a business transaction and came back to school with a '34 Terra-plain. Jean McRoberts and Betty Jean Baerg put their funds together and got this slightly used conglomerate of nuts and bolts that make up their horseless carriage. Now they can ride in style.

If anyone tries to keep a birthday hidden from 4th floor Arnold, they'll find out anyway. Marleena Wine was the honoree at a surprise floor party Monday night. Most of the time was taken up with girls' chatter and stuffing the faces. The refreshments were a little different, but good cheese and crackers, pop, and kind-hearted souls donations of home-made cookies, burnt and otherwise.

Miss Neher's birthday was also last Monday night. Several of the boys from the College Courts gave out with the "Birthday Song," which surprised her a little, but she recovered and said that she'll personally recommend that each one of them should be admitted to a Cappella next year. The dorm girls gave a nice gift of a rotary egg-beater and a double-boiler.

The male octette sang at the Farmer's Co-op Banquet in the Community Building last Wednesday evening. Was the choir, Gales Siffer, Paul Stern, Leland Lengle, Leon Neher, Lawrence Brooks, and Norman Long make up the ensemble. Norman sang a solo, too.

Lila Whitman had her appendix removed a week ago Thursday, but she seems to be suffering no ill-effects except a scar, and is back with us again.

The foods class took a trip through the flour mill last Tuesday. They're studying flour and its products. It works in nicely, since McPherson has a flour mill to visit. The Quantity Cookery class this year has only two girls in it and is under Miss Slick's supervision. They got the Faculty - Trustee dinner ready last Monday night. Place cards were miniature pictures of the future dorm and the centerpieces were very attractive with brick bricks stacked two on the bottom and one on top with flat daisy-like flowers over them and a beautiful bow of iridescent gold and brown ribbons put in appropriately. The bricks were to symbolize the new dorm.

The program was varied and entertaining. Una Yoder had one of her classes give a choral reading. There were several special members among which was the faculty octette, and they raised their voices in blended harmony to sing, "Old Americana" and "I Love Life, or 'I Want to Live.'" Seems like they had an ulterior motive behind the scene, namely—better salaries.

Fellowships Are Available In Radiological Physics For Science Majors

McPherson College seniors majoring in chemistry and physics are eligible for Atomic Energy Commission - sponsored graduate fellowships in radiological physics for the 1953-54 school year.

Radiological physics is a new and expanding field of science. It is concerned with health physics, radiation monitoring and control, radioisotope measurements and similar activities associated with the use of radioisotopes or the release of nuclear energy.

Up to 75 fellowships may be awarded with fully-accredited graduate study to be carried out in three locations.

One program is operated by the University of Rochester and Brookhaven National Laboratory, another by the University of Washington and the Hanford Works of the AEC, and the third by Vanderbilt University and the Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

In each case, nine months of course work at the university is followed by three months of additional study and field training at the cooperating AEC installation. The program is accredited for graduate-level training leading toward an advanced degree.

Additional information on the program may be obtained from science department heads or direct from the Institute at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Speech Classes Give "Speaking Choir" At Faculty-Trustee Dinner

Sixteen members of Mrs. Wilbur Yoder's two Advanced Speech classes took part in a "speaking choir" Monday evening at the Trustee - Faculty dinner.

The students talked together in union, with solo and duet parts. A choral drama, "The King's Breakfast" was presented in which Leland Lengle was featured as king, Margaret Baile as the queen, and Betty Lou Christensen as the cow.

Solo parts were performed by Ed Frantz and Eula Mae Murrey. A one line duet was done by Jean Slaubaugh and Elaine Burkholder. Other members of the choral group included Bob Best, Dean McKelip, Karl Baldner, Loreen Cline, Alberta Ebert, Lois Knackstedt, Janet Ruehlein and Francis Williams.

Fighting The Flu . . .

Colleges students have been getting the flu lately. In an effort to curb an epidemic—and to ease the strain of student health centers—colleges around the country have taken to giving free inoculations.

Louisiana State University set up tents in which students received their shots. At the University of Missouri the ballroom of the student union was transformed into an emergency hospital.

But where the epidemic hurt most was Iowa State College. Eight varsity trackmen missed drills because of the flu.

Portugal Students Have An Idea

Students at Porto University, Portugal, have a solution to the problem of final exams; they want to abolish them. They say talented students often flunk the exams, while mediocre students get good grades.

Apparently feeling the necessity for a substitute, the students suggested that professors judge them on the basis of practical exercises, to be given throughout the semester.

Mac, Ottawa Clash In Decisive Game

Tomorrow night, Feb. 21, the League leaders, Ottawa, journey to McPherson to meet the second place McPherson College Bulldogs. For the Bulldogs this is a "must" game, if they want to maintain a mathematical chance to be Kansas Conference Champions.

Before the Wednesday night games that both Ottawa and McPherson played Ottawa had yet to lose a game in Conference play in eight league encounters, and the Bulldogs had been defeated twice, once by Ottawa, in conference games.

Ottawa and McPherson have met once before this year, and that was at Ottawa. In that game the Bulldogs lost by the score of 73-64. It was a close game, until several of the Bulldogs left the game on fouls.

This game tomorrow night has all the earmarks of a evenly fought battle. The Bulldogs knowing they have to win this one, should be "up" tomorrow night but Ottawa is always tough.

The main game starts at 8:15 with a preliminary game starting at 6:30.

B Team Wins Over All Stars

One of the highlights of the Intramural season occurred in the preliminary to the main game last Saturday night. Since Washburn didn't carry enough players to meet Mac "B" team, Dick Wareham picked up some of the better players in the upper intramural league and had them play the "B" team. The final result was "B" team 58—all Stars 46. Don Hoch, Roland Delay and Paul Heidebrecht starred for the all stars all scoring 10 or more points.

For the "B" team it was Keith Thoni who potted 18 points, all on long shots, and Bob Peel who made 17 on every kind of shot. Taking everything into consideration, the all stars played a fairly good brand of basketball.

Players on the all star team were: Heidebrecht, Delay, McSpadden, Hoch, Bill Frantz, Dalke, Wilson, and Hoefle.

Intramural Season Comes To Close

With the last games of the regular intramurals having already been played, the tournaments will begin next week. The present plan, formulated by the Intramural Committee last Tuesday night, is the following:

In case of a tie for any of the positions in the league standings, these games will have to be played off before the tournament can begin. The tournament will start this coming Monday with the first team in each league playing the fifth. In the same bracket, the third team will play the seventh.

In the other bracket, the second team will play the sixth and the fourth team will play the eighth. Those teams losing their first game will go in a losers bracket, so every team will play at least three games.

In case that the League winner, in either or both leagues, is different than the tournament winner, there will be a one game playoff to determine the overall champion in each league.

Collapso Of A Ratio

Ohio Wesleyan is up in arms because a recent poll of two women's dormitories showed 387 of the total women had no dates on Saturday night.

The male editor of the Transcript, lamenting the apparent lapse of traditional one-to-one ratio, says, "social pressures" at Wesleyan may have something to do with the situation. "After two dates you are considered 'going together' and soon after people wait expectantly for the 'Pin planting' he says. "College men and women should be mature enough to enjoy casual dating, without fearing or dreading the fate of getting serious."

Now She Tells Me . . .

(MCP) When Theba Gold was graduated from a small high school in Texas, she had a little talk with her teacher. "Where would be the best place to study PE?" asked Theba. The teacher named the University of Oklahoma.

So Theba went to Oklahoma. One day, back home on vacation, she called on her old teacher. "And how are you doing at Oklahoma?" the teacher asked. "You know, you're the first girl from your school who has ever studied petroleum engineering."

"Oh!" said the astonished Theba, "I'm afraid we've had a misunderstanding. To me, PE means physical education."

Girls' Lose First Game Of Season

The girls' varsity team traveled to Bethany Wednesday night, Feb. 18 where they were defeated by the Bethany girls.

The score was 34-31. Kathy McLeod was high scorer for McPherson. Betty Lou Christensen, Rowena Merkey, and Ann Powell were missing from the "Mac team," which may have caused the team their difficulty.

Woody Is Accepted As Head Football Coach At SMU

At 8:30 yesterday morning, Feb. 19, Coach Chalmers Woodard received word from Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas, that he has been accepted for the job as the head football coach.

Next week Woody will fly to SMU and will spend three days organizing his staff for spring training. He will fly back to McPherson for the Baker game Saturday night, Feb. 28.

Woody will return to SMU the first part of March to begin spring training, and will be there for a month. Other plans are incomplete at the present time.

To quote Woody "I was frankly surprised to be elected to the position."

Coach Woodard

Early last Sunday morning Coach Chalmers "Woody" Woodard left by plane to Texas where he was interviewed about the possibilities of filling the job of head football coach at Southern Methodist University. This job was left open when Coach Russell resigned because of alumni pressure.

The University announced that they had about 60 applicants for the job and from that list they narrowed the list to six, the number that they have interviewed.

Another Two Inches . . .

Columnist William Morris of the Daily Texan tells about a basketball game slated during the Christmas holidays between Center Hill and Stone College.

"It so happened that Center Hill went to Stone and Stone ended up at Center Hill. Net result: Disgruntled players, baffled coaches, amused observers and another two inches in this doggone column."

Washburn Wins In Exciting Game

The McPherson College Bulldogs ran out of steam after leading most of the game and then lost to Washburn U. by the score of 62-70. The Bulldogs were only able to score ten points in the final quarter, which Washburn made 20. That told the difference.

Up until the final quarter, it was a close battle all the way. Neither team was ever in the lead by more than five points all the first three quarters. The lead changed hands nine times and the score was all tied up on six different occasions.

The first quarter started out slow with neither team able to hit the basket with consistency. Then Glen Gayer entered the McPherson lineup and had potted six points before the quarter was over, all on long shots. The quarter ended with the score 16-13 in favor of McPherson.

The second quarter can be told in just about two words, Bill Yearseley. He was the six foot six inch center that caused Mac trouble all night and in the second quarter scored 16 points. For the Bulldogs it was Carl Metsker and Wayne Blickenstaff that kept them in the game. The half time score found McPherson still leading, now by a 33-30 score.

The pace of the third quarter started out fast and never let up. For the Bulldogs it was a brother act, Gene and Bill Smith, that gave them 15 of the 19 points that Mac scored in this period. However Washburn poured in 20 points themselves to narrow the margin to a two point lead for McPherson, 53-50 at the end of the third quarter.

Washburn maintained this fast pace in the final quarter with Chuck Brehm leading the way. The Bulldogs were again plagued by the fact that they could not find the basket in the final quarter and the game ended 70-62.

For McPherson it was again

Wayne Blickenstaff leading Mac's scoring, this time with a 16 point outburst. Close behind him was Gene Smith with 13 points and Glen Gayer with 11. High for Washburn and the game was Bill Yearseley who scored 19 points. Nelson, also from Washburn, added 16 more.
