'Woody' Makes Successful Record During His Career At Macollege

By Manley Draper

With the resignation of Chalmers "Woody" Woodard, January 19, 1953, one of the most illustrious periods of McPherson College Athletics has come to a close. "Woody's" record, when he arrived at McPherson College, had been nothing short of spectacular, but here he encountered a seemingly insurmountable task.

The football record that he brought here reads something like this: He played sports at Valley Center High School and Southwestern College. Then "Woody" coached high schools first at Kingman, then at Dodge City, and finally going to Lawrence High School before coming to McPherson College three years ago. His ten year high school coaching record was a fabulous 882-81 wins, 10 losses and 2 ties. "Woody" also won four state football championships while at Lawrence.

He also coached Basketball at Lawrence for three years compiling a 34 win and 30 loss record. Besides this, he won a state basketball championship in 1948 by pulling a major upset in defeating one of the greatest high school teams ever put together, the Newton Railroaders. The situation at McPherson when "Woody" arrived in the fall of 1950 was something like this: In football the team had not won a conference game in three years and had only won one game in the fall of 1949. The basketball record was similar. The team in the 49-50 season won three games and lost 18. The track team that spring was able to only acquire 12 points in the conference meet.

To say that the change in athletics at McPherson was miraculous would be an understatement. In the fall of 1950, working with a team composed mostly of green freshmen, "Woody" was able to win three games in an eight game schedule. In the football year McPherson won four in the conference and had an overall season's record of 11 wins and 9 losses. The track team that year received third place in the conference meet.

The 1951-52 season got off to a fast start, as the football team winning second place in the conference with a 7-2 record. The basketball squad also captured second place, winning 16 games and only losing 6. The track team was "Woody's" team in the year that captured a second in the conference.

This fall, the football team won the conference championship for the first time in 30 years, and was undefeated in nine games. The basketball team this year again is second in the conference.

In his three year stay here, some of the players that "Woody" developed or helped develop were; in football: Joe Pate, George Keim, Bob Pelet, Wayne Bilkensstaff, Gene Smith, Eddie Ball, and Bob Powell, to name just a few.

Some of the basketball players that were developed in those three years were Loren and Wayne Bilkensstaff, Gene Smith, "Chief" Hanganarie, and Bob Bechtel.

Just the track men that have broken track records and the records that they broke since "Woody's" arrival are: Dave Metzler, half mile and high jump; Dale Carpenter, high hurdles; low hurdles, and broad jump. John Robison, shot put; and Bob Bechtel in the two mile run. Besides this, there were six relay records that were broken.

In case one feels that all is lost now that "Woody" is leaving, the fact is that he is leaving very capable players in every sport for the next coach. In football, only three players are graduating, in basketball only two will not be back, and of course since the track season hasn't yet started the seniors on the track squad are still indeterminate, but will be a small number compared to the whole squad.

Those in the discussion were: Betty Brammell, Bill Russell, Manly Draper, Eugene Neff, Florence Hale, Jean Walker, Wayne Jones, Velva Wagner, and Betty Holderred.

A Cappella Choir Presents Its 20th Annual Concert March 6

The twentieth annual concert of the McPherson College A Cappella Choir will be held Friday evening, March 6, at the high school auditorium. The program will include sacred, light and serious secular, spirituals, and selections from the opera "The Mikado."

The program will pay tribute to Alvin C. Voran, who organized the choir twenty years ago, and to Nevlin Fisher, also a former director of the choir. Many former choir members are planning to attend the concert and sing the last group of numbers with the present choir. Prof. Donald R. Frederick, director of the choir, stated.

Brotherhood Dinner Is Tuesday

A Brotherhood Week banquet will be held at Convention Hall in McPherson next Tuesday, March 3.

The banquet, which is sponsored by the local committee of Christians and Jews will start at 6:45 p. m.

The string ensemble of Macollege, which is composed of Prof. Paul Sollenberger, Mary Louise Hutcherson, Ronald Klemmedson, Walter Blough, Mrs. Paul Sollenberger, Betty Holderred, Doris Coppock, Prof. Donald Frederick and Anne Krehbiel, and the Central College choir will present musical numbers.

The banquet is open to the public and tickets are on sale at several downtown establishments.

MRS. SAVAGE, played by Marilee Grove, is the center of concern in a scene from the play "The Curious Savage," which the Players' Club gives Thursday, March 5 at the city auditorium.

Constructors Will Start On Floors Soon

The constructors working on the new girls dorm are waiting for a warm day to start pouring cement for the floors.

The steel pillars have been installed which will support the floors of the dorm. The concrete is being poured under ground and lifted to their positions by hydraulic process. This process is entirely new in this part of the country.

A folder is being prepared to send out to the churches in the region giving information concerning the furnishings for the rooms.

The world is blessed most by men who do things, and not by those who only talk about them.

The dominating mood of the play is a high comedy which involves a kindly disposed widow; Mrs. Savage had been left ten million dollars by her husband and wants to make the best possible use of it, in spite of the efforts of her grown-up step-children to get their hands on it. Mrs. Savage is played by Marilee Grove, senior, from South English, Iowa.

The play leaves one with a feeling that somehow the neglected virtues of kindness and affection have not been entirely lost in a world that seems motivated at times only by greed and dishonesty.

The children, knowing that the widow has converted her wealth into negotiable securities, and seeing that they cannot get hold of a huge share, commit her to a "sanatorium," hoping to "bring her to her senses." Mrs. Savage is determined to put her fortune to a noble and unselfish use.

These selfish offspring are acted by Gene Bechtel of McPherson, as a senator; Phyllis Kingery of Mt. Etna, Iowa, as a jaded divorcee, and Robert Vance of Twin Falls, Idaho, a judge.

Among the unusual inmates are; the girl who will die if she is not assured of life by everyone, played by Shirley Alexander of Kansas City, Kans.; the frustrated violinist who does not realize that he can play only two notes, Joe Kennedy of Marshalltown, Iowa; the woman who cannot see her child is only a doll, Esther Merkey of Cloud Chief, Okla.; the young pilot who believes his face is badly scarred is portrayed by Dean Neher.

The artist who paints one line and refuses to speak of anything but the things she hates is portrayed by Virginia Reist of Eldora, Iowa. Glenn Bellah of Nocona, Texas and Betty Young of Carlisle, Ohio, are members of the staff who look after these people.

Members of the art and industrial art department are assisting by building new scenery for the stage of the Community Building. They include Dale DeLaurer, Ted Vance, and Dean Neher, under the direction of Lee Kendall.

The act is copied from the one used in the original Broadway production.

Nettleton Goes To State Finals

John Nettleton was awarded first place in the local alcohol oratorical contest held at the Church of the Brethren Sunday evening, Feb. 22. His oration was entitled "A Man of Distinction."

John will represent McPherson College at the state finals held at Salina March 4 at the state W. C. T. U. convention.

Karl Balder, who spoke on "Our Great Task" received second prize. Third place went to Dean Neher whose oration was entitled "A New Approach," and Emmanuel Thompson received fourth place speaking on "A Worldwide Social Evil."

What Is Mac To Us?

What does Mac college have to offer? What is it good for? I suppose all of you have asked yourself that question more than once.

Too many people on our campus have the idea that it is not offering the student body exactly what they want. Their attitudes and actions bespeak their thoughts even if their words do not.

It is here that they are bypassing a principal advantage of the small college.

Every campus needs leaders—a small college as well as the biggest university. At McPherson, opportunities for leadership and active participation are tremendous. Openings are always available for students ambitious enough to go in search for them.

A school is just as good as the people who comprise it. The opportunities are there to make-of Mac what we wish. Shall we back the school and watch it move, or stand aside and let her fall. The decision is up to us.—R. P.

Thinking With The President

The Trustee Meeting

We were all glad to have had the trustees here for their annual meeting. They seemed to enjoy it, also. Again and again they commented about our student body, its fine spirit, and its high enthusiasm. They took time out to come from as far away as North Dakota and Idaho and Indiana. They were willing to do this because they feel that what McPherson stands for and is doing is extremely essential in our world.

Since different ones of the students have asked about the trustees and why they come each year, this information concerning them might be of interest.

There are 24 trustees. Sixteen of them are elected by 16 state districts of the church. The college has nothing to do with these elections. They are chosen at district meetings in the churches.

Thus there is one from Idaho, representing the churches of Idaho; one from North Dakota and Montana representing those churches; one from Northern Missouri, one from Middle Missouri, and one from Southern Missouri representing the three districts of Missouri; one from Louisiana, representing the churches of Louisiana; and so on. One trustee is elected by the Alumni Association. At the present time this alumni trustee is living in North Manchester, Indiana. One trustee is elected by the Board of Trustees from the general citizenship of McPherson to represent the city. This trustee is Homer Ferguson, mayor of the city. The Board of Trustees then elect six trustees to add to the total number.

Out of this group of trustees an Executive Committee is elected to carry on in the interim between the annual meetings of the Board of Trustees. This Executive Committee meets frequently in order to handle the various financial and other interests of the college.

The trustees, this time, gave considerable thought to the ten-year expansion and development plan of the college. This included discussions not only of possible remodeling of buildings and the construction of new buildings, but also a rather careful scrutiny of our curricular offerings and the direction of the development which they should take. Each department of the college had reported to the president concerning its dreams and ambitions for the next ten years, and all of this was placed before the trustees. Much planning has been begun and much planning will follow so that McPherson may grow to be continually a better college, serving the church, the town, the county, the state and the region.

The trustees and the college administration always welcome suggestions from the students concerning any phase of college life. Out of our collective thinking can come better ideas than can come from any individual thinking.

The trouble with a fellow who thinks he can read women like a book is that he is always forgetting his place.

Tribute To Frank Forney

I suppose you have heard figures given in an attempt to measure the amount of work which an average mother does in rearing her family. The cumulative totals of regularly performed daily tasks become enormous. As I think of Mr. Forney's contribution to us through his work for the college, I can not help thinking that we are dealing with the same sort of immeasurable and priceless values.

Much of his work has been taken for granted, has gone unnoticed. This is not because it was unimportant, but because it was done so regularly, so repeatedly, so unceasingly. Under his responsibility, such necessities as water, heat and light have been kept supplied, along with a thousand and one other essential services, including cleaning and the disposal of trash. Talk about the tons of potatoes that a housewife peels: It would be interesting to see in one pile the waste paper and such that has been carried out and disposed of during "Uncle Frank's" term of service!

I have been speaking of the days when Mr. Forney was the Custodian of Buildings and Grounds, aware that in recent years his responsibilities had become necessarily less. A note of sadness might carry the hour if it were not for the fact that, like a mother again, his heart had been in the things he was doing. It is in old M. C. still, and will be.

The above was the citation of honor and appreciation presented to Frank Forney at the Alumni Banquet, May 24, 1952.

Athletics can make or break a school. It is one of the main drawing cards of a college. Without a well organized sports program, a school like ours could disintegrate, especially after the remarkable recovery MacCollege has had under Woody's leadership.

Sports keep a school rolling and give interest and variation to, what could be, "monotonous drudgery of studying and existing." They give each one of us something to look forward to and provide a challenge to the team, the coach, and the individuals on campus. We need a good sports organization and let's hope we can get a man who can fill Woody's shoes.

Several Fahnstock boys have been - casually evicted from their rooms due to locked doors. Ralph Royer, Gene Neff, Don Good-fellow, Marlo Oltman, Leon Albert and Don Thralls have had to figure out just how to get into their rooms, since the keys just happened to get lost.

Heading the list of intramural winners is Marlonna Wine's team, Jean Walker, Virgie-San Romani, Liz Swinger, Collen Martin, Gerry Goering and Eleanor Hamm compose the team and have earned the privilege to play in the tournaments.

With The Alumni—

S. G. and Ira Milton Hoover, who are graduates of McPherson College recently received a balanced farming award from over a district of six counties in Missouri.

Ira Milton Hoover is a trustee of the college.

Donald M. Anderson, '51, recently had a family addition. The boy has been named David Mark.

Carol E. Bailey, '52, also announces the birth of a daughter to their household. The baby has been named Kathy Sue.

Don Fancher, who attended MacCollege last year was married to Doris Elizabeth Thompson Feb. 14 in Edom, Virginia.

Korean Teachers Need Help

Behind the headlines that tell of battles and bombings, of truce talks and military tactics, lies the shadow of the second war that must be fought in Korea - the fight against human misery.

In that land which has become the testing ground of the free world's faith, over 10 million persons - half the total population, are in dire need of basic relief assistance: food, shelter, and clothing.

Among these heroic people are the 50,000 men and women who teach in the primary and secondary schools of Korea.

Although the barest minimum living requirement per person in Korea today is 300,000 won (about $50) a month, the total monthly income of the average Korean teacher, for himself and family, is less than half that sum.

They are in need of assistance from the United States. Because they are employed, they do not share in regular relief distributions to Korea.

Recreation And Worship Are SCA Program

Leon Neher directed a recreation period at SCA last Thursday evening, Feb. 19. The group was divided into small units of about ten people. Each small group was then given a short time to prepare a brief stunt for the entertainment of the others.

Following the recreation, Dr. Bittinger, assisted by the freshman male octette, led the group in a worship experience on the theme of peace.

I Love The Paper

I love the paper.
I think it's swell.
On every Friday
I run pell mell
To get my copy.
And read each line.
The stories and columns
I think are fine.

I laugh at the jokes.
I read all the ads;
I note all the news.
I take up the fads.

When I praise the paper,
I scorn those who laugh.
I'm really most loyal—
I'm on the staff.

CBYF Has "Gossip" Discussion

A discussion concerning "Christian Living on our Campus" was held at CBYF Sunday evening, Feb. 22. The discussion was led by Esther Merkey.

Special emphasis was placed upon the problem of gossip. A situation drama on this subject was presented by Marilee Grove, Mary Elizabeth Swinger, and Marlo Oltman.

John Nettleton sang "The Stranger of Galilee" and Donna Ford read the poem, "Sculptors of Life."

College Grads Must Scrimp On First Pay Check

With this year's college seniors especially in mind, the March Mademoiselle poses the question "Can You Live on Your First Pay Check?"

According to Mademoiselle, being on one's own in a first job means scrimping some on everything or scrimping a lot on something. It's a budget-dominated life.

Struggle is considered preferable to taking dole from home. Consensus is that after four years of college parents have paid long enough.

Independence on a first pay check is usually not declared—lact is the trend. There are no claims about never calling on the family in emergencies, either. It is just that as much as possible, first jobholders want to be on their own. According to Mademoiselle, she felt that paying their way entitles them to make their own decisions. Some have the idea that both of these are good for them—like cod-liver oil or vitamins.

Foothall Stars Of 1952 Speak On Alcohol

The following is what the football stars have to say in regard to the use of alcoholic beverages.

Bob Mathias, Stanford University, outstanding winner of the Decathlon in the 1952 Olympics says "In order to keep mentally and physically alert on the field, as well as off, an athlete must follow the universal rule of alcohol and athletics don't mix."

Jim Noe, center for the University of Washington says "I believe that drinking is definitely detrimental to young bodies and minds, and I give my wholehearted support to any and all programs designed to impress this on young people."

Jack Scarbath, All-American quarterback on everybody's All-American selections says "A healthy body is one of the most important prerequisites for happiness and success in any phase of life. Alcoholic beverages can ruin health and destroy the benefits of it. Why ask for trouble?"

Galen Fiss, Kansas senior playing his final year as fullback says "To be a success in anything, one must be physically and mentally fit. No user of alcohol can meet this standard."

Jim Turner, Texas Tech's senior offensive and defensive half-back, says "Only kind of alcohol that ever did an athlete or an individual any good was rubbing alcohol."

Cal Roberts, all conference tackle at Gustavus Adolphus College says "Alcohol, in any form, has no place in my life if I am to achieve success, not only as an athlete, but as a man. This has been my firm belief, and I attribute my athletic abilities to living a clean, healthy life - free from alcohol. In my estimation the "smart" person is the one who will dare to be an individualist and will refrain from drinking. So follows, if your goal is to become an "all-American," stay away from "All-American."

Bobby Reynolds, Nebraska half-back, says "I definitely believe that in athletics or any other field of endeavor, alcohol as a drink is the weak rung in the ladder to success, and that alcoholic beverages destroy all the natural abilities which were so graciously given us."

Funds, Sharp Hall Are Main Concerns Of Trustees

The issues mainly discussed in last week's Board of Trustees meeting centered around their plan to raise 1.5 million dollars, and the proposed renovation of Sharp Hall.

It now appears that Sharp Hall may not be rebuilt as first planned, for the Trustees are contemplating on building two new buildings, entirely separate from Sharp Hall. This will be done if the difference in cost is not too great.

Plans for these two new buildings probably will include a cafeteria building, located midway between Fahnstock Hall and the new Girls' Dorm, and a new administration building yet to be located on the campus. Sharp Hall will be torn down after these buildings are built, and trees and shrubs will take its place.

These plans are tentative, the price being the governing factor on their future decisions.

It was decided to institute a new course, "Core Curriculum, in Rural Life," which will be a composite of Home Economics, Marriage and Family relations, rural life, and Bible classes. This class is presumably to be offered to all students in their freshman year.

Two new departments are to be formed in the near future. Another public relations man is to be added in addition to Jack Kough, head of public relations.

A director of religious life is to be chosen for the purpose of initiating more and varied religious activity on the campus.

Adult Educators Hold Conference

A conference of the Missouri Valley Adult Education Association will be held in Kansas City, Mo. March 5-7.

The purpose of the conference is to give growth and counsel to agency personnel, librarians, church workers, women's clubs, public and parochial schools, colleges and universities and adults.

Discussions will be held on personal living, family life, citizenship and education.

Bulldogs End Season Tomorrow Night

Ottawa Clinches Conference Title

The Ottawa University Braves clinched their third basketball championship of the Kansas Conference in a row by defeating the McPherson College Bulldogs 75-64 last Saturday night at McPherson. It was a case of greater height and more accurate shooting telling the tale.

McPherson clinched second place in the Conference in spite of the loss. The Bulldogs now have a 2-3 conference record with only one game left to play and that is with Baker tomorrow night in the local gym.

Except for the first part of the first quarter, Ottawa led all the way, and McPherson spent most of the time trying just to stay in the ball game. Every time the Bulldogs would start gaining on the Braves, it seemed as though the Braves always had a little extra energy in reserve to boost them through.

The first quarter ended with Ottawa leading 18-14. Early in the second period the visitors started widening the margin, but towards the end of the quarter the Bulldogs whittled it down somewhat. Ottawa led 35-27, 39-29 at the half ended with the Braves in the lead 41-33.

Early in the third period Ottawa pulled away to a 46-43 lead, and then McPherson rallied, cutting the lead to 46-35 47-40 and 49-44, but Ottawa still led 55-46 at the end of the third period. Ottawa gained a 64-47 advantage early in the final quarter.

McPherson cut it to 64-54, but from then on there was no doubt about the eventual outcome.

Don Simons of Ottawa was the high individual scorer of the game with 21 points. High for McPherson was Gene Smith with 14. Carl Metsker tallied 12. The Box Score:

Mac Defeats KWU

The McPherson College Bulldogs came from behind in the last half to defeat Kansas Wesleyan University 68-66 in a Kansas Conference game at Salina on Feb. 18. The victory gave McPherson eight wins against two losses.

The Bulldogs got off to a slow start in the game with poor rebounding in the first half, giving the Wesleyan Coyotes the advantage. McPherson did not hit up to par the first two periods and it was not until the start of the third period that the Bulldogs started cutting down Wesleyan's lead.

By the end of the first quarter the Salina team led 16-10. At the half, Salina was out in front 30-26, and in the third period McPherson scored 22 points while holding Wesleyan to 11 to pull into a 48-41 lead at the end of the quarter.

Carl Metsker, McPherson's center, led the scoring for McPherson with 16 points. "Chief" Hanagarne was second high with 14 points.

Gary Cassel, one of the top scorers in the conference this season, was the high scorer of the game with 20 points to his credit. He tallied nine field goals, most of them on long shots. The box score:

Many Desire Mac's Coaching Job

Many applications are being received by McPherson College for head coach and athletic director to fill the vacancy left when Coach "Woody" Woodard accepted the head football coaching position at Southern Methodist University of Dallas, Texas.

President Bittinger said Tuesday that he had received more than 20 applications since it was announced last Thursday that Woodard was going to SMU. These applications range from as far west as California and Oregon to as far east as Ohio. The applications come from men now coaching in high schools, junior colleges and senior colleges.

He told the student assembly Monday morning, that the college planned to select a coach to fill the vacancy, who had a proven ability as a coach as far as his win and loss record is concerned and at the same time someone that has the high ideals that were maintained by Coach Woodard.

Dr. Bittinger also stated that the college executive committee, which does the hiring for the college, met on Tuesday, Feb. 24 and began the first preliminary screening of the applications. When the number of persons being considered for the job is decreased somewhat, then the committee will announce the names of those people who are being considered.

Hanagarne, Bechtel Play Last Game Tomorrow Night

With the game tomorrow night, two basketball players end their four year careers here at McPherson College. Bob Bechtel and Frank "Chief" Hanagarne both bring to a close their basketball playing at McPherson College after four years of helping Mac win games.

For Bob Bechtel, this will be his fourth letter that he has won at McPherson College. For the first three years he played center and did a commendable job, but this year when it became apparent that the team had several other capable centers and were short of forwards, Bob quickly agreed to move "out front". There he has been playing all of this year with no letup in his playing.

"Chief" Hanagarne also earns his fourth letter at McPherson College with this game. The "Chief" has played forward all four years and during this time has scored over 500 points for the college. Basketball like all other sports that he tries, comes natural to "Chief".

The loss of these two players leaves three of the starting five to return for next year, as well as all of the remaining 24 that were out for basketball this year.

Girls Win Over Central

The girls' varsity team took another win last Friday afternoon, Feb. 20, when they defeated the Central College girls' team by a score of 34-21.

Ariene Merkey was high for Mac, scoring 21 points. The game was played at Central College.

Practice Will Begin Soon For Spring Sports

Coach Dick Wareham announced today that athletes interested in Track and Baseball should contact him within the next few days. The present plans are for practice in track to begin next Tuesday, March 3 at 3:00. Wareham will lead the track team in exercises in the gymnasium until the weather is such that working outside will be possible.

Wareham would like to have the pitchers and catchers from last year's team, as well as all freshmen and other players who did not earn a letter last year, to work out in the gym each afternoon next week, starting Tues. from 4:30-6:00. The letterwinners from last year will start practice the following week.

Anyone interested in being a member of the Tennis team should contact Gordon Yoder. The present plans are that the tennis squad will have access to the gym each afternoon until 3:00.
