

Snake Dance Begins Football Season

McPherson College students introduced the football season of 1952 last night when they donned loud pajamas, joined hands and zig-zagged their way through stores on Main street during the 32nd annual pajama parade. Tradition was broken slightly by having the snake dance before the first game of the season instead of having it before the first home game. Cheerleaders felt this was justified since there are two games before the first home game.

The cheerleaders of this year include one veteran, Bob Wilson, who was a cheerleader in 1950-51. Adalu Carpenter follows her sister, Ann's footsteps, who was also cheerleader in 1950-51. The other two making up the cheerleading corp are Don West and Kathy Russell.

The evening of shouting and running came to a climax in the Main theatre, where the cheerleaders led the audience in the last yells before settling down to see the movie.

Thirty-one years ago Macollege had her first pajama parade, which was then called the "nightshirt parade." From the Oct. 4 Spectator of 1921, edited by Orville D. Pote, come the following sidelights on the new traditional event.

Nightshirt Parade
"The boys of McPherson College staged a rather unique Night Shirt parade last Tuesday evening in order to arouse interest among the business men of the city for the game with Fairmount which was waged last Saturday afternoon."

"One hundred fifty students garbed in 'ghorly apparel' departed from the dorm about 8:30 and wended their way, single file, to Main Street where a snake dance was soon in its height of glory."

"Both sides of the street were lined with great numbers of curious spectators. At the corner of Kansas Avenue and Main, the zig-zag procession was greeted by a refrain from the college band. After numerous routing college yells, the line of march was directed to the Tournery theater which surrendered to the invaders after a short siege."

"The soothing quietness and peacefulness which reigned supreme then was suddenly broken by a half dozen peppy yells and cheers. After informing the theater-goers of the mission of such a motley army, the theater was quickly evacuated. The long winding train then proceeded northward to the corners of Euclid and Main where another halt was made. "Again the great crowd of curious onlookers was favored by several band selections sandwiched with plenty of college yells. "As the groups disbanded the boys were picked up by good-natured businessmen and taken to the Hill."

Honors Go To Joseph Obi

Joseph Obi, Macollege student from Africa made 63 honor points last semester, and was enrolled for 24 semester hours.

Thirty of his honor points for the semester were made by examination, ten in which he made all A's. The remaining 33 were made in classroom work.

Retired Minister Dies

Rev. Benjamin F. Brubaker, 82, a retired minister of the Church of the Brethren died Thursday night, September 11, at his home at 417 North Maxwell, McPherson.

Forney Is Ill

Frank Forney, long-time assistant superintendent of buildings and grounds, is being confined to his home by illness. Mr. Forney underwent an operation on June 24 and has been ill ever since.

Although he retired from the active work at the college last spring, he still maintains great interest in the college. He firmly believes that students nowadays are just as good as they were when he started working for the college 32 years ago.

DON WEST, KATHY RUSSELL, LU CARPENTER, AND BOB WILSON, Macollege cheerleaders, donned bright yellow and blue striped pajamas to lead a snake dance through McPherson last night. They will again be in action tonight at the game—but they won't be wearing pajamas.

Proficiency Exams Will Be Given Today

English Proficiency Examinations will be given Friday, Sept. 19, at 8 a. m. in the Chemistry Lecture Room for all juniors and seniors, who have not passed it previously.

Select Berkebile As Debate Coach

Dean James M. Berkebile has been selected as the new debate coach this year. He fills the position formerly held by Dr. Maurice A. Hess. Dean Berkebile said that all persons interested in debate should contact Dr. Hess or himself as soon as possible.

The plan this year is to have a set of practice sessions between the Macollege debate teams before the teams enter competition.

Dr. Hess commented that about six tournaments would be entered. Of these tournaments one will be scheduled at Newton sometime in November and another at Winfield in December.

The McPherson Economy Tournament will be held here January 6, 1953, with thirty to sixty teams participating. Probably the last engagement of the season will be the Kansas League Tournament on March 21, 1953.

Exchange Student From New Zealand

Thursday, Sept. 11 Fred Jackson from New Zealand, visiting America on the 4th International Foreign Student Exchange Program, spoke in a special chapel held during activity hour.

New Zealand was settled between 1200 and 1350 by a brown skinned people believed to have migrated from the South Sea Islands. The first sighting by white man was made in 1642 but it wasn't until 1769 that Capt. James Cook planted the British flag on New Zealand soil.

It is a country with an area of 103 square miles and a population of less than 2 million. The main source of income is from agricultural products although one third of the land is mountainous. The summers are long with a ten month growing period and the winters are usually mild.

The New Zealanders follow the British Parliamentary System of government with emphasis on governmental reform. Women have had the right to vote in New Zealand since 1893.

Fred's home town is Inglewood, New Zealand, near the city of New Plymouth. He lives on a farm and helps his father care for 60 head of dairy cows and around 450 pigs.

Having left his home March 8 of this year, he plans to return Oct. 20.

Before coming out to Kansas he was in the East. He said about 75 percent of the people he talked to told him with varying words how hot and dry Kansas is: "Not a tree in sight!" Many people asked him how long it took him to learn to speak English. His reply, "I speak perfect English." (Here he said was where American and English differed.)

Present Mikado November 20-21

"The Mikado," a comic opera in two acts by Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented by McPherson College students Nov. 20-21. The story is the triangle love affair of Nanki-Po, the son of Mikado, who is in love with Yum-Yum who is the ward of Ko-Ko and is betrothed to him.

When Ko-Ko hears that one person in his province must be headed he persuades Nanki-Po to be that one. Nanki-Po agrees if he can marry Yum-Yum and live with her for a month. All goes well until Yum-Yum finds out that when a man is betrothed his wife must be buried alive. The Mikado appears and all is saved when Ko-Ko marries the ancient Katisha and Yum-Yum is left to Nanki-Po.

The opera, directed by Prof. Donald R. Frederick, will have two casts. The first cast includes: Keith Allison as Nanki-Po; Joe Kennedy as Ko-Ko; Don West, Pook Bah; Don Thralls, Pish Tush; Elsie Kindley, Katisha; Anita Rogers, Pitti Sing; Florene Hale, Yum-Yum; Peggy Sargent, Peep Bo; Bill Mollagen, Mikado.

The second cast is: Herb Edmondson as Nanki-Po; Curtis Leicht as Ko-Ko; Leon Albert, Pook Bah; Myron Krehbiel, Pish Tush; Velva Wagner, Katisha; Margaret Baile, Pitti Sing; Donna Wagoner, Yum-Yum; Elsa Kurtz, Peep Bo; Leon Neher, Mikado.

School Events Are To Be Scheduled

Dean J. M. Berkebile has asked that any school event be cleared with Miss Sarah May Vancil, calendar committee chairman, before announcements are made.

Scheduling forms are available in Mrs. S. M. Dell's office, secretary to Pres. D. W. Bittinger. An event is not considered scheduled until it is entered on the calendar by Miss Vancil.

All presidents of extra curricular organizations are asked to notify Mrs. Dell immediately of the regular scheduled time for their organization.

Insurance Plan Is Offered Students

A new Student Health Insurance plan is being offered at McPherson College this year. The purpose of this plan is to reimburse students for any additional medical treatment at the College Health Service for which a charge must be made and for the expense of hospital, surgical, and other necessary care.

Coverage is in effect from Sept. 2, 1952 continuously through the closing day of college, June 1, 1953 and includes vacations and all other times the student is at home elsewhere and while traveling during the period.

The cost of this insurance is $10.00. Anyone wishing further information about this plan should go to the Business Manager's office and obtain the Student Insurance Plan pamphlet.

Miss Lehman Sees Europe Via Bicycle

Miss Della Lehman, head of college English Department, took a semester's leave of absence last January and saw Europe—via bicycle. She was so impressed by this leisurely method of travel that she brought her bike back to Kansas with her.

Miss Lehman purchased her motor bike in Rotterdam, Holland and rode it all the way to Geneva, Switzerland. The going for her bike became pretty steep in Belgium, and she was forced to peddle or push the bike up many of the hills.

While travelling through Europe she stayed at youth hostels. In doing so she was able to meet many of the common people from all parts of the world who were also cycling. By travelling in such an unhurried and common manner, Miss Lehman feels that she gained a truer picture of life in the various countries than she would have by travelling by car or train.

She was impressed by Holland as being a very picturesque country with its windmills, many flowers and small, neat homes. She found the people of Holland to be very friendly and relaxed. In Belgium the people were likewise friendly but more excited.

The dictatorship of Spain leaves the people strained and wary of strangers. The people there were also very poor. This was the only country in Europe in which Miss Lehman did not find inflation. Most prices in the other countries run similar to the prices in America.

The Russian Sector of Vienna, Austria, offered a vivid contrast to that Sector in Berlin. In Vienna there were no border guards. Miss Lehman stated that one could not tell when he entered the Russian Sector.

Miss Lehman visited several acquaintances in Europe. One of the highlights of her trip, being her visit with Gina Munda of Italy who was graduated from Macollege in 1950. Gina is presently employed as receptionist in the American Embassy.

She visited her cousin in Luxembourg and spent a week with the M. R. Ziegler in Geneva.

She also visited with Pearl Mesita, American ambassador in Luxembourg. Miss Lehman described the ambassador as being an affable person, whose main goal is to create good will among the small countries. She feels that exchange students and exchange teachers were very valuable toward increasing good-will.

Another of her main purposes of the trip, was to study the language and modern art of the various countries.

Miss Lehman visited modern art museums in New York, Rome, Amsterdam, Luxembourg, Paris, Barcelona, Naples, and Venice. Through her comparative study of art, a similarity was noticed. Also while she was in Venice, the International Biennial Exhibit was being held.

At Windsgrosten, Austria, the annual Brethren Conference of Europe was being held while she was there.

Miss Lehman spent five weeks as a resource leader in German work camps. Their main project was to build a road which would later enable them to build homes for refugees from the Iron Curtain. Miss Lehman is glad to be back to her old duties but she remarks, "travelling is no cure for wanderlust."

Kline Has Season's First Open House

Residents of Kline Hall beat the other campus houses to the draw by scheduling the first open house of the season. Fahnestock Hall comes in second by throwing out the welcome mat on Sept. 27, and Arnold Hall opens its doors to the public on Oct. 4.

Green Caps Are Donned By Frosh

Green caps were donned by the freshmen class Wednesday, Sept. 17. The caps were sold immediately after the chapel period.

The green caps must be worn until Monday, Oct. 20. On that day, a tug of war between the sophomore class and the freshman class will be held at the lagoon.

If the freshmen are not successful in winning the tug of war, they must wear their caps for another month until Thanksgiving.

The freshmen must learn the school song within 2 weeks, and they must sing it personally to a member of the Student Court.

Lengel Has Highest English Score

The results of the English Placement Test have been announced by Dr. Maurice A. Hess.

Leland Lengel of Windsor, Colo., rated the highest with a score of 133 out of a possible 150. Lois Stinnette, Denver, Colo., was second with a score of 129.

The third highest score, 128, was acquired by Donna Hooper of McPherson, Donna Fox of Preston, Minn., and Eula Mae Murrey, McPherson, both had 115.

Shirley Meyers of Norton, Kans., and William Smith, McPherson, tied with a score of 114. Lois Kessler of Sabetha, Kans., was eighth from the top with 113 for a score. Betty Young, New Carlisle, Ohio and Norann Royer, Dallas Center, Iowa, completed the list of the first ten with scores of 112 and 111, respectively.

It was noted by Dr. Hess that the state of Colorado rated the upper two scores in the test this year. The test has been given to students entering McPherson College for the past fifteen years.

Kline Hall students are holding their Open House on Sunday afternoon, September 21, from 2 o'clock to four p. m. The students, married couples and single girls, are busy getting their rooms decorated for the big occasion.

The president, Martha Switzer, and Joanne Todd, the head resident, are co-chairmen for the open house plans. Some of the committees are as follows: Decorations, Margaret Yost, Phyllis Wampler, and Evelyn Hornbaker; publicity, Jean Slaubaugh, Shirley Dearthoff, and Glennis Parks. The food is being prepared by Joanne Todd, with the help of the married women. Small details are being worked out by Shirley Dearthoff, Shirley Coppock, Francis Hamsher, Virginia and Verlee Reist, Shirley Hamilton, Dorothy Lucore, and Dorothy Swinger.

Rec Council Chooses Thirteen New Members

The Recreational Council chose thirteen additional members from twenty-four applicants Monday, Sept. 15. Prof. S. M. Dell, sponsor for the Council, stated that this is the largest group that they have had for a long time.

The new members are: Kathryn Larson Coffman, Don Thralls, Lyle Neher, Marlonna Wine, Leon Albert, Al Zunkel, Eleanor Louthan, Margaret Yost, Betty Brummel, Dick King, Dolores Sigle, Lee Hogle and Don Wagoner.

Since the ones who were chosen come from homes and churches throughout the Brethren Western Region, Professor Dell feels that the work of the Council should vitalize the recreational program of the Western Region.

For one of their first activities of the year, the Recreational Council is planning an outdoor retreat.

Steering Committee for the Council include Glendon Button, chairman, Rowena Merkey, secretary, and George Keim, treasurer. The Recreational Council meets every Monday night.

Role Of Host Is Denied

McPherson College was recently chosen as a probable host for the annual Kansas state meeting of the UNESCO. However, because of certain discriminations in our city, the role had to be denied to Macollege.

The United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization is an organization sponsored by the United Nations whose purpose is to devise a code of behavior which would be accepted anywhere in the world. The UNESCO is an international organization having branches in most countries of the world, in all states of America and in cities and colleges in each state.

McPherson College has such an organization on her campus. These organizations are represented by people of all races and creeds in all walks of life.

In previous years it has been necessary for the annual state meeting to be held in nondiscrimination hotels which were large enough to house and feed from 100 to 200 Negroes, Jews, Italians, Chinese, Moslems, Greeks, etc.

This has proved to be very expensive for those attending the meeting. This year the state board wished to hold the meeting on a college campus. After investigating the possibilities, McPherson College was chosen as one of the least prejudiced campuses in Kansas.

McPherson, as a city, has made much progress during the past decade toward wiping out prejudice. Some Negroes can now get a haircut downtown and be served in certain restaurants. Perhaps some of this progress may be accredited to our international students who have enriched the life of the college and the city.

Upon hearing of the proposed UNESCO meeting in McPherson, one hotel offered to house and feed as many visitors as possible. That was an encouraging gesture on the part of that hotel. But one McPherson establishment can not take care of 200 people.

The fight against prejudice is a slow one, but it is a gaining one. In this modern world an idea may be sent around the world in a matter of minutes. But it sometimes takes 100 years or more to drive an ideal through a quarter inch of bone—the skull.—L. M.

Starting Of Autumn Brings Many New Things

Autumn! Yes, autumn will soon be here. We think of the golden trees, the brisk nights and the beginning of school. With autumn comes the starting of many new things.

With autumn we turn to the homemaker, who thinks of housecleaning and canning, in preparation for the winter that will be approaching. The farmer starts his task of picking the golden corn, which is waiting to be brought in from the fields.

The children are going to schools

all over the country in preparation for manhood and womanhood. The business man looks forward to a successful year of business, whether he is a baker or a banker.

The college student, whether he is a freshman or a senior, is also looking forward to some kind of goal for now and the future. With college, he will gain many new friends. He will be constantly striving to make his hopes and ambitions, someday, come true.

College is the one place where it is up to each one of us to do our part for success.

Yes, college means we are on our own. It will mean only what we want it to mean.

Autumn! Yes, autumn will soon be here—the starting of new things.—R. P.

College Students Should Keep Alive

It is easy for college students to live or to sleep within ivoried walls.

Of course, the walls of Sharp Hall are a long dream from ivory, and with the creaking of the stairs it is difficult to imagine that anyone could fall asleep within Sharp's walls whether they are ivory or not. It is traditional, however, to think of college students as being sheltered behind ivory walls and to conceive of them as falling asleep there as far as the pressing events of the world are concerned.

I think this happens, sometimes, at McPherson College, even if our walls are not ivory. Students become very busy with the ins and outs of college life. They fail to listen to news broadcasts or to read the newspapers. Soon they do not know what are the pressing events of our time and have very few opinions concerning the rights and wrongs of the directions of our world.

The people on the outside of the college do not know this about students, and, accordingly, expect them to speak with some authority on matters of world importance. For are they not the educated people in America who should know the most?

Let me suggest that this year we do not fall asleep behind ivory walls as concerns the events in our world. Let us keep noting what happens and let us form some opinions as to whether these things are right or wrong. Very soon it will fall upon us to determine the directions of the world and we should not come into that responsibility thoughtlessly or untrained.

I would like to see, this year, some meetings of interested groups to discuss current events. Some questions we should think about are these: Why can we not end the affair in Korea? Is Korea Russia's fault alone, or are we equally at fault? Why are we spending nearly $500,000 per man, woman, and child each year in the United States to maintain our government? Does government have to be that expensive?—D. W. B.

A Summer Spent Across The Atlantic

By Peggy Sargent

Our tour group, composed of 20 Brethren, Methodist, and Presbyterian, were quite an excited party as we boarded the MS Nelly in New York last June. Our ship was no SS Queen Mary, but the 800 students on board had a bang-up good time from the beginning to the end of our nine days of smooth sailing across the great Atlantic.

Farm exchange students, tourists, a glee club, students going to foreign universities, as well as the Brethren work camp group, were only a few of those participating in the square dancing, singing, ping pong, movies, language study, history and music classes, or sun bathing.

Land Ahoy! sounded good to us although we could hardly see the land after trying to keep our weary eyelids open, searching for land all night.

We toured as a group first, to Paris, France, then on through Belgium to Maastricht, Holland, where we were met by our Dutch bus driver and his bus. The bus soon seemed like home to us as we traveled through Germany, staying two nights in German homes in Kassel, the headquarters for BSC in Germany.

Visits were also made in Frankfurt, Munich, and Schwarzenau, the village where the Brethren Church originated.

Austria was next in line and two days were spent there sleeping in a Ship Hotel on the Danube River and visiting with Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Peters and their Brethren Service Workers.

When we traveled to Vienna in the back of a truck and had our first contact with the Russian soldiers. We were amazed to find that they were just kids away from home like any other Army.

From Austria to Italy and Venice, the city with the wet streets and believe me, those canals are really something. A person owning a car and no boat would spend his time swimming or staying at home for all the main streets are canals.

Then a night in Venice, the long dreamed of gondola ride—and what could be more romantic than a gondola ride on the moonlit canals, a gondolier singing beautiful Italian love songs—and three girls. Oh, well! You can't have everything.

We found out we were not meant to be mountain climbers as we struggled from the cable car to the top of Mt. Blanc in the French Alps, and Switzerland seemed more like the United States than the other countries visited.

We enjoyed a swim in Lake Geneva before visiting with the M. R. Ziegler, who are continuing their wonderful work towards peace.

We started to cross again into Germany for that meant the end of the tour and parting from our new found friends, but all good things must come to an end, and this had indeed been another good phase of a wonderful summer.

As our tour group parted, new groups were being formed in the various work camps in Germany, Austria, and Greece. Kassel, Germany was now my home for five weeks spent working with students from Italy, Egypt, Austria, Germany, France, Holland, and America.

As the community house we were building grew, our friendships grew and all took part in work, recreation, singing, cooking, and worshipping. Though we were Brethren,

Methodist, Presbyterian, Dutch Reformed, Catholic, and Mohammedan, our Christian fellowship and spirit of cooperation was as close as that found in many of our own Brethren Churches.

The devastation from war is so terrible that unless an American sees it for himself, it is difficult to comprehend, and the idea of working to help rebuild that which we so recently destroyed, should be a challenge to our youth today.

As the embers of closing camp fire faded away, the old urge to travel came creeping back, and I was on my way through France, Luxembourg, Belgium and Holland, where I was to meet two girls under the big clock in Rotterdam.

I hadn't known there were so many big clocks in Holland, but we finally got together and spent three days seeing more of this beautiful little country.

One night was spent crossing the Channel and then 10 days in England, enjoying the English speaking atmosphere and high tea, as well as the historical sights and theatrical performances.

The wonderful trip home by air was much faster than the boat trip across, and returning to the states and Macollege is a fine way to end a perfect summer across the wide blue ocean.

Sollenberger Has Concert Band

The College Concert Band has been organized under the direction of Prof. Paul V. Sollenberger. Rehearsals are 5 p. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The personnel of the band is as follows: In the woodwind section are Leon Albert, Laurence Brooks, and Carol Truitt; playing the flutes, playing the clarinets are Faye Ellen Truitt, Angie Flora, and Galen Stoller. Dale Royer, Shirley Hamilton, and Lloyd Hamilton have been assigned to the alto saxophones with Ruth Grossnickle on the tenor saxophone.

Leading the brass section are Curtis Deicht, Leon Neher and Ernest Phillips on the cornets. Slide those trombones will be Robert Price, Paul Spohn, Roger Hogle, and Kenneth McCosh. Giving the bass background are Berwyn Oltman, Herbert Dubus, and Jerry Miller.

M. H. Irons will be playing the baritone and Mary Louise Hutcherson will play the french horn.

In the percussion section are Cletus Cary, Lois Knackstedt, and Gordon Fishburn.

Professor Sollenberger states that he needs more clarinet players and could use several more cornets, French horns and a baritone saxophone.

Faculty Travels During Summer

McPherson College faculty members have traveled practically into all the corners of the United States going on vacations, taking additional graduate work, or visiting camps and churches.

Prof. Gay Hayes, who is a Lieutenant Governor of the Kiwanis Club, went to the National Convention held in Washington State and also on up into Canada. The whole family took the trip with him and stopped in Idaho and Colorado on their way home. Guy also was a leader in the Kansas and Nebraska youth camps.

Prof. Dick Wareham and his family went to Southern Missouri for a three weeks Ashram. The Ashram was Dick's own private undertaking. Several other young couples shared this experience with them.

The R. E. Mohler family probably set a record for states by traveling to Conference and going thru the Eastern states. Later they went up to North Dakota for a District Meeting and then down to Oklahoma for a camp and into Texas to visit some of their property. They concluded the summer with a trip to Iowa for another District Meeting and then took a rest in Wisconsin for some fishing.

Some of the teachers spent the summer adding to their store of knowledge. Iowa U. claimed the summer of Prof. E. S. Herschberger and Doris Coppock. They claim that they not only enjoyed the work but also the cooler weather. Prof. Raymond Flory moved to Lone Star, Kansas to take up pastoral duties there and to continue work at K. U. for his doctorate. Prof. Flory will meet some of his classes as usual this winter. Prof. Roy McAuley is now in Denver, Colorado, likewise serving a church and working on his doctorate at Denver University.

Prof. S. M. Dell and wife went with the Mexican History class on their trip to Mexico. Some of the highlights of their trip were: symphony at the Palace of Fine Arts, a Mass at Guadalupe Cathedral, a visit to the town of Cholula (sacred city) where there is a church for every day of the year, a visit to Taxco the silver city, and last but not least a bull fight.

Prof. Virginia Harris went to Louisiana during the summer to attend Librarian school at L. S. U. at Baton Rouge, La.

Prof. Hess went all the way to California to attend the annual conference of his church and spent the remainder of the summer in Modesto. On their way back the family stopped at several of the National Parks.

Prof. Bowman went for a trip with his family in the general direction of Illinois and Wisconsin.

Edith Ball came all dolled up in his bell-bottoms to take Kathy Russell to the Hutch State Fair along with Bob Peel and Donna Phelon. Mildred Beck, Betty Jo Baker, JoAnn Royer, and Barbara Berry took off on their own and went by train to Hutch to stay in Donna Burgh's home over Saturday night for the fair. (Bet they had fun.)

Esther Ikenberry received a phone call that really surprised her. A guy named Sonny Reynolds from Elgin, Ill.

Herb Edmonds and Elsa Kurtz roared away from Macollage in that '52 Ford with Gene Smith to visit his sister in Salina last weekend.

Ed Frantz and Lu Carpenter doubled with Jack Harter and Eleanor Hamm to the Hutch State Fair. While they were down there, they ran into Donna Schrock with Gene Smith. They also saw "Sack-out" Hangarone and Bill Moore.

The College Courts guys were down there too and seemed to be having a wonderful time.

Bud Wingle was here over Saturday and Sunday visiting Faye Ellen Trostle.

And who keeps getting long distance telephone calls every other day from Great Lakes, Illinois? Huh, Betty?

One of the major points of interest last week was Dick King and Carole Davis' engagement. Butch and Kathryn Coffman were host and hostess to a party at their home. Guests were Bob Wilson, Rowena Merkey, Lu Carpenter, Ed Frantz, and of course, Dick and Carole. During the evening Bob showed slides taken this summer, but one slide with "Dick and Carole" printed on it got mixed in with the rest. Clever, huh?

Evelyn Williams went to Virginia Bowers' home in Wichita last weekend and filled up on a steady dinner.

Loreen Cline spent her time making things for State Fair 4-H projects at her home in Conway, Kans.

Wayne Bickenstaff had a spell of "la gripe" and a stinging temp of 104 degree to go with it.

The football team sure misses Chuck Petefish this year. Guess someone else does, too.

Go to that game tonight and bring your pep with you!

Six Married Couples Live In Kline Hall

At the beginning of the fall school semester there were six married couples assigned to the apartments in Kline Hall. Their apartments are found on first and second floor in Kline.

Howard and Joanne Todd are the House Residents and occupy apartment fourteen. Howard and Joanne have been married since February 29, 1952. Howard is taking a ministerial and business course, while Joanne works at Hull-Brunk Jewelers and takes part-time studies.

The other couples residing in Kline are: Paul and Evelyn Meyers, Bryce and Francis Miller, Donna and Raymond Frye, Clarence and Maru Quay, and Joe Obi from Africa. Joe's wife is also from Africa and will arrive sometime in October.

Most of these couples belong to the "MerryMacs," a campus organization for married couples.

Ninety Students Attend CBYF

C. B. Y. F. began the year with a record-breaking high in attendance Sunday night, Sept. 14. Approximately ninety students attended the meeting.

Elsie Kindley, junior, opened the meeting by directing the group in several songs. Don Thralls, junior, led devotion.

The business session was conducted by Bob Powell, member of the C. B. Y. F. steering committee. One of the items of business was to elect another member to the steering committee. Shirley Coppock was chosen.

Bakers Are Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker of New Enterprise, Pa., are the parents of a son, Larry Robert, born August 3.

Mrs. Baker is the former Mariana Stimpfle ('49), and Jack attended McPherson College.

Campus Groups Give Chapels During September

Bob Bechtel

Chapel programs for the month of September will be given largely by campus organizations.

Sept. 15 the SCA was responsible for a program of worship, Sept. 17 a quiz show was conducted by the Student Council concerning the constitution, rules, and duties of the Student Council and Student Court. The Pep Club and Cheer Leaders sponsored the Pep Assembly today.

The next two chapels will be given by UNESCO and the Student Ministers.

The Chapel Committee consists of Dick Wareham, chairman, Della Lehman, Burton Metzler, Paul Sollenberger, Doris Coppock, Audrey San Roman, Wesley DeCoursey, Dr. Bittinger, and three student members yet to be appointed.

Four Famous Dramatists Appear At K-State College

This fall four dramatists will appear in two shows at Kansas State College, Manhattan, the Fine Arts Scholarship committee, sponsor of the events, has announced.

Elsa Lancaster (wife of Charles Laughton) will present her "Private Music Hall" in the auditorium October 21.

On November 20, the Scholarship committee will sponsor the play, "John Brown's Body" by Stephen Vincent Benet starring Tyrone Power, Raymond Massey, and Judith Anderson in person at the College Auditorium.

The Lancaster show is a form of vaudeville, billed as comedy—not the slapstick pie-throwing variety, but "a smooth, funny show that moves at a swift pace, a sprightly and pleasant evening's entertainment that will make everyone feel better for having seen it."

Campus Houses Elect Officers

Most of the campus houses have organized for the coming year. The house council at Arnold Hall is headed by Marilee Grove, president, with the assistance of Rowena Merkey, vice president, Faye Ellen Trostle, and Lorene Marshall, head proctor.

Arnold Hall girls have elected no proctors as yet since they are on a three-week trial of the honor system.

Names of Kline Hall officers appear in their "Open House Story."

Lloyd Hummer, senior, is chairman for Fahnestock Hall, and Phil Spohn is secretary-treasurer. Floor chairman are: for first floor Bob Powell, second floor, Carl Metzker, and third floor, John Nettleton.

Chairman for the College Courts is Dean Neher. Cletus Cary is chairman over nine men at Hoerner Hall.

Thoughts For The Wise

There are two ways of spreading light; to be the candle or the mirror that reflects it.—Edith Wharton.

To get all there is out of living we must employ our time wisely; never being in too much of a hurry to stop and sip life, but never losing our sense of the enormous value of a minute.—Robert R. Updegraff

The free man is not he who defies the rules . . . but he who, recognizing the compulsion inherent in his being, seeks rather to read, mark, lean, and inwardly digest each day's experience.—Bernard J. Bell

A sense of the value of time—that is, of the best way to divide one's time into one's various activities—is an essential preliminary to efficient work; it is the only method of avoiding hurry.—Arnold Bennett

After a week's vacation, Mrs. Schafer will return to her work in the Central Office.

Berkelie Recommends Student Schedule Book

An attempt is being made by Dean James Berkelie to aid the student in keeping a ready record of all his scholastic work. There is now available in the book store the handy pocket size booklet, Student Schedule Book. This contains space for keeping a semester-by-semester record of completed work. There is provided space for entering one's courses submitted for meeting distribution requirements, upper level courses, work submitted to fulfill the major and supporting course requirements.

In the latter portion of the book will be found spaces provided for teachers attempting to qualify for the 60 hour or the elementary degree certificate or for those working towards high school teaching certificates. Along with this is given the Kansas requirements which should be met to qualify for any one of these certificates.

For those students desiring to transfer at the conclusion of two years to a professional school there is provided a space for entering courses which will meet their needs for the transfer.

The faculty hopes that each student will keep up to date this schedule book and when consulting with a counselor this will be available for immediate use. It will save both time of the student and the counselor in quickly observing the work which has been done and advising easily about the work which will be necessary to complete.

The Freshmen Class is being instructed in the use of this book and it is hoped that all upper classmen will make use of this aid. Each counselor can aid the student in starting this habit of record keeping by calling for this concise record at the time of pre-enrollment.

Other schools have found this procedure a marked help in student counseling. The students who have used this method have found it quite helpful when applying for jobs, transferring to other schools, and immediately answering any questions about their program by presenting this as an F. B. I. man would present his credentials.

The Dean suggests that students start this record at their earliest convenience and have their record available for their counselor before the pre-enrollment takes place next semester. The Registrar will check with students to make sure their semester-by-semester record is accurate and complete.

We must be united, we must be undaunted, we must be inflexible. Our qualities and deeds must burn and glow through the gloom of Europe until they become the veritable beacon of its salvation.—Winston Churchill.

Bulldogs & Bethel Tangle Tonight

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Bulldogs swing into action against the Bethel Graymaroons at Newton to open the 1952 football season.

Not too much is known about the team at Bethel this year. Last year they finished in the Kansas Conference cellar. They have 14 returning lettermen this year. Most of these lettermen are concentrated in the line, leaving the way open for Coach Dan Unruh to work some of his crop of freshmen into the backfield for the opening game.

Woody was pleased with the way the team looked in scrimmage last Friday night. The spectators that were present saw a hard fought game between two teams of about equal ability. The scrimmage demonstrated one thing to the fans and that was that no player on this year's version of the Bulldogs has a place "chained" on the starting lineup.

As has been the trend in the last several years, Woody is planning again this year to use the two platoon system. This has the double advantage of letting the players be at their peak all during the game, as well as allowing more players to participate in the game.

Keim Mc Spadden

Co-captains of this year's team are two Juniors, George Keim and Dwight McSpadden. Big George has lettered both of his previous years here at Tackle. Last year he was picked on the All-Conference team as a defensive tackle.

Dwight earned his letter at defensive half back. This year he will also see some service as offensive half.

Included in the Bulldog roster are 20 letter winners back from last year's team. Two of these are three year letter winners trying for their fourth letter. They are Bob Bechtel, senior end and Howard Mehlinger senior quarterback. Even with this array of seasoned talent, it is expected that several freshmen will see plenty of action in tonight's opening game.

This is especially true of the guard position. Here Steve Bersuch and Alvin Fishburn are battling hard to wrestle the positions away from Roland Delay and Tommy Taylor.

As the two tackles, they will probably be Junior lettermen. George Keim will be returning for his third year at tackle while the other tackle will probably be Bob Powell, who lettered his freshman year at end and last year at guard.

Starting at the two flanks tonight are two McPherson lads: Bob Peel and Bob Bechtel. Bechtel is a three time letter winner and Peel a two time winner.

At center will go one of two sophomores. Either Jack Richardson or Vernon Petefish will receive the starting assignment, but both will see plenty of action here.

Who will start the game at quarterback is still not certain at this time. Much depends on whether or not Wayne Blickenstaff will have recuperated from an attack of flu that had him down in bed last weekend. If Wayne is unable to start Woody can call on either of two McPherson boys. Howard Mehlinger, senior letterman, or Gene Elrod sophomore letter winner. Both have been working out at this position and the nod could go to either one.

The rest of the backfield could have any of several combinations tonight and be equally strong. Back from last years squad are Eddie Ball, Bob Bean, Dwight McSpadden, Tommy O'Dell, John Robinson, and Gene Smith.

The Cracked Crystal Ball

By The Seer
With this issue we are going to inaugurate a new column in the Spectator. This writer is going to take the 25 or so games of most of the major colleges and universities of the nation do not open their schedule until next week. This is especially true of the Western Conference (Big 10) where all ten teams lie dormant this week. It is also true to a lesser extent in the Ivy League.

The reason for the shortage of games this week is that many of the major colleges and universities of the nation do not open their schedule until next week. This is especially true of the Western Conference (Big 10) where all ten teams lie dormant this week. It is also true to a lesser extent in the Ivy League.

I guarantee absolutely nothing except that the teams mentioned will play games against each other on the days mentioned.

With all of the preliminaries over, here goes with the first peek into the Cracked Crystal Ball.

Season Ticket

Sales Number 386

McPherson College business manager, R. Gordon Yoder, announced Tuesday September 16, that so far 386 season football tickets had been sold and the money received for them. A goal of 500 season tickets had been set by the McPherson Chamber of Commerce and McPherson College Business Office, who are co-sponsors of the annual drive.

Mr. Yoder stated further that some individuals who had sold tickets had not yet turned in the number sold or the money for them, so that the drive were still hopes that the goal of 500 would be approached. There is even a possibility, that it will be reached.

The world cannot deprive a man of his rectitude, the nobility of his soul or his belief in Almighty God; nor can the world give these riches to a man. Only within himself can he find them, these fragrant flowers of life.—Sir Louis Beale.

The way things shape up now the offensive team line will average about 180 pounds and the back field about 165 pounds. The defensive line will run a little heavier with the weight about 185 pounds. Game time is 8 o'clock. Lets see everybody down at Newton then.

Football Stadium Is Enlarged

By the time the first McPherson College football game is played on the home field October 3, spectators will find more seats available in the College Stadium, for carpenters started the construction of additional bleachers on the east side of the field last Monday.

The capacity of the bleachers on the east side of the field will be doubled.

Already the foundation has been poured for the bleachers. The present bleachers will be moved back from the sidelines to a point on the outside of the track behind the light poles. The present bleachers will be divided, one section being moved to the north and the other to the south, and the new section will be placed in the middle.

The bleachers will be of wood construction and how long it will take to complete them is not known.

We should so live and labor in our time that what came to us as seed may go to the next generation as blossom, and that which came to us as blossom may go to them as fruit. That is what we mean by progress.—Henry Ward Beecher

"Spec" Is Given Second

ACP Honor Rating

The Spectator, Macollege's weekly publication, received a second place honor rating from the Associated Collegiate Press for the first semester of 1951-52.

The "Spec" was judged along with other papers published by schools which have less than 500 students enrolled. Don Ford, '52 graduate, was the editor-in-chief of that semester's paper.

All-School Picnic Is

Attended By 200 Students

Approximately 200 students and faculty members attended the all-school picnic at Marion Lake Friday, Sept. 12. Games, including soccer, softball, horseshoes, volleyball, and swimming were played in the afternoon. A moonlight campfire sponsored by the SCA followed supper.

The social committee, SCA, and Rec Council were responsible for the general planning of the picnic.

This Is Kansas...

Charley Harris is colored.

Last Friday, Charley was one of 488 University students who gave a pint of blood which will be sent to Korea for use by the armed forces. Charley's appointment was originally for 4:30 p. m., but because of delays in the waiting line, it was 5:45 p. m. before he finished donating his blood.

Charley was hungry, dead hungry. He hadn't eaten a square meal since breakfast, because giving blood requires a rigid diet before the blood is taken. And the extra waiting only increased his appetite.

He found the Student Union cafeteria closed. To be sure, he could still get a sandwich and coffee at the Hawk's Nest, but that is little solace for an empty stomach.

Four private-owned restaurants are right on the campus. This Charley knew. He also knew these restaurants serve complete meals. But not to Negroes. Although in his first year at KU he had been reminded of this fact many times, and not only by classmates and restaurant owners.

He was well acquainted with the usual little sign hung on the walls of most of the cafes, which read: "We reserve the right to refuse service to anyone." He knew "anyone" was not just anyone, but someone, someone with dark-colored skin just like himself.

Today it's over. It wasn't really very important. It wasn't a big old ugly wound like in Cicero and Detroit and Macon. Just a little cut. Just a little scar.

This is Lawrence. In Kansas, 1952.
