

Gals Outfox Boys At Sadie's Chase

Pandemonium and confusion reigned all over Macampus as it turned Dogpatch yesterday afternoon, Thursday, Oct. 1, when an explosion from a firing piece set off the annual Sadie Hawkins' Chase.

The gals set off a war-whoop which could raise the dead, and the frightened fellows took off in all directions like scared rabbits, some a-falling, some a-tripping, some a-wailing as they were chased by the man-hungry females.

Marrying Sam was kept busy right from the start of the race, and several couples were "legally married" a few minutes after the explosion which set off the race occurred.

The boys never did have much of a chance this year with so many of the rules revised. They were completely outfoxed by the girls, since all the boys could do was to hide in bushes and take advantage of the four walls of a building after the hour free-for-all. Not many boys were able to outrun the gals who were determined to get their men.

That's the way it will be for the unfortunate males until the race is over with at sundown today, Friday Oct. 2.

All of this, and more will be brought to a climax tomorrow, Saturday, Oct. 3, when Sadie's party will be held in the gym starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the party, the stronger sex (this time the females), will exert their "catch" and make a charge for him from anything from onions and carrots to candy and leaves. Several prizes will be awarded. There will be seven such prizes: to the best corsage, to the best portrayed Dogpatch boy and gal; to "Daisy Mae," and "Lil Abner," to the best portrayed Dogpatch couple; and last but not least, to the best beard!

At the party, there will be races, musical entertainment, and folk games followed by cats for everyone.

Total charge for this party will be 26c. 25c for a marriage license from "Marrying Sam", who, this year, will be Sam Ball, and 4c charge for rings (at 2c apiece) which are available as "proof" at the time the marriage license is given. Every couple is expected to bring their marriage license as admission to the party.

WPA WEEK STARTS SUNDAY
Following the Sadie Hawkins Party, the WPA will begin Sunday, Oct. 4, and will last until Sunday, Oct. 18.

The gals, at this time, take turns about and ask the fellows for dates, etc., and pay ALL the bills.

The Sadie Hawkins' affair is sponsored by the SCA, and this year the Planning committee comprises Dwight McSpadden, chairman, Esther Ikenberry, Arlene Merkey, and Von Hall. The several committees for the Party are Connie Brooks and Leland Lengel, in charge of foods, Velva Wagner and Elsie Kindley, in charge of recreation, Ida Zunkel, and Virginia Fowler, in charge of decorations, and Tommy O'Dell is in charge of the prizes.

Cafeteria Employs Students As Extra Help

Working in the cafeteria is a pretty easy way to earn money as fifteen students have found. Perhaps it isn't easy work but anything dealing with food is enjoyable!

The students receive sixty cents an hour for boys and 50 cents for girls; and each meal lasts about an hour and a half. This list is of the permanent workers and their jobs:

Lita Elen Royer, desserts; Kenneth Evans and Isaac Grillo, wash pots and pans; Maxine Hanley, vegetables; Esther Ikenberry, scrap dishes; Gary Jones and Don Wagner, washing and drying dishes; Esther Merkey, wiper trays; Bertha Landis, bread and drinks; June Shaeffer, fry dishes; Dale Shenefelt, carries food from caves; and Dolores Sigle, cashier.

During the afternoons, Idell will be in the infirmary in Arnold Hall, but at other times she can always be contacted at 1402 East Euclid, or by phone, 403-J, unless, of course, when she is in classes.

Prof. John Burkholder

Profs. DeCoursey, Burkholder Work On Doctors' Degrees

Prof. Wesley DeCoursey

One reason why MacCollege ranks high in academic standards is compared with many colleges is its size is due to the fact that there are at least seven among the faculty who hold doctorate degrees, and before too long, 5 more will join their ranks.

Two of the five working for their doctorate degrees are Prof. Wesley DeCoursey of the Chemistry Dept., and Prof. John Burkholder of the Biology Dept.

Prof. DeCoursey is a 1940 graduate of MacCollege, and an M.S. from Iowa State, where he had been full time prof. in chemistry since 1947. Prof. DeCoursey joined the Mac faculty in the fall of 1952.

Prof. DeCoursey will obtain his Ph. D. degree in Inorganic Chemistry from Iowa State this December. Already, his thesis has reached its final stage, and he plans to be in Ames, Ia., at the university before Dec. 15, for his orals, so he can have his degree at the end of the term.

Prof. DeCoursey has completed his research, and will soon present his thesis, "Preparation of Perbromates," which will be published in a book.

Prof. Burkholder is also well on his way towards his doctorate in Zoology, pending the submission of his thesis which is a study in genetics. Prof. Burkholder has also finished his laboratory and research work, and will soon compile his thesis, "Genetics of the Drosophila melanogaster, the phenomenon studied being position of effect at the white locus.

Prof. Burkholder is also a graduate of MacCollege with a B.S. degree in 1949. He plans on submitting his thesis either this school year or next summer to the University of Chicago for his Ph. D.

The other three profs working on their doctorate degrees are Raymond L. Flory of the History Dept. at the University of Kansas; Roy McAuley of the English Department, at the University of Denver, and Jack Kough of the Psychology Department, at the University of Chicago.

AACTE Brass Visit MacCollege Oct. 5

The American Association of Colleges for Teachers Education, a national organization for the improvement of teacher education, will be sending a representative committee next week from Monday, Oct. 5 to Wednesday, Oct. 7, to look over MacCollege and see if it may become a member of the organization.

Hershberger Has Unusual Students In Arts Class

If some of the profs at MacCollege think they have problems, it is high time for them to discuss some of their problems with Prof. E. S. Hershberger of the Arts Department, for on him has fallen the rather gruesome task of teaching some of Mac's "high ones."

Taking the course Drawing and Painting under Prof. Hershberger this year are such celebrities as Dr. D. W. Bittinger, president of MacCollege, Dr. R. E. Mohler, president of the Kansas Association of Science, and MacCollege professor emeritus of biology, Mr. Lee Kendall, assistant superintendent of buildings at MacCollege, and Prof. Alvin Williams, Instructor in Rural Life.

Prof. E. S. Hershberger

Prof. Hershberger has other students also for his other classes. One class is of an adult group from the city, which meets once a week, and the other class is a night class primarily intended for teachers from Inman and Canton.

Prof. Hershberger has produced many outstanding students in the field of arts. Recently one of his former students, John Stucky, 1953 MacCollege graduate, won two blue ribbons for his paintings, a landscape and a floral arrangement, entered at the Kansas State Fair in Hutchinson.

Dairy Class Visits Local Select Dairies

While Prof. Guy Hayes of the Rural Life Dept., was away at Kansas City attending a Kiwanis meeting, his Dairy Husbandry Class took off to visit the local Select Dairies.

The class was taken round the corner of machinery and the set up under which ice cream and other dairy products are produced. Mr. Dwight Pierce, manager of the Select Dairies conducted the tour.

The nine boys in the Dairy Husbandry class are: George Keim, Glenn Gayer, Wayne Jones, Tommy Taylor, Don Butler, Clive Sharpe, Phil Radatz, Elmer Fike, and James Craig.

The AACTE representative committee will be composed of educators from two colleges and representatives of the Kansas Department of Education and the Kansas State Teachers' Association.

President J. W. Jones of the Northwest Missouri State College, Maryville, Missouri, is the chairman of the committee. President Emeritus Nolan M. Irby of the Arkansas State Teachers' College, and the Registrar, Dean of Faculty, Director of Training School will be on the committee.

F. Floyd Herr, director of certification and accreditation in Kansas, will represent the State Department of Education, and Ruth A. Stout will represent the Kansas State Teachers' Association.

Composed of two-hundred-and-fifty-three member institutions, the AACTE is a voluntary agency for the accrediting of teacher education on the national level.

The AACTE was founded in Feb. 1948, as a result of the merger of the American Association of Teachers Colleges, the National Association of Colleges and Departments of Education, and the National Association of Teacher Education Institutions in Metropolitan Districts.

The AACTE carries on its program through a series of major and minor committees and sub-committees. The Executive Committee is a major committee which formulates and administers the program; the Committee of Standards carries out a research program and also develops standards; the Committee on Accrediting which carries out the accrediting procedure.

The Committee on International Aspects of Teacher Education carries out a program in the field of international education; the Joint Committee on Public Relations of AACTE and ACPRA carries out public relations program.

The AACTE also publishes a Yearbook and reports on studies completed. Some of the publications are: Improvement of Living Through Schools, Public Relations for Teacher Education, and Standards for Student Personnel Services and Evaluative Criteria.

Dr. James M. Berkebile, dean of MacCollege says that two of the greatest advantages of becoming a member of the AACTE are that MacCollege will be sensitive to improvement in the training of teachers and also it will obtain reciprocity with other states in the area of certification.

Mr. Buskirk is a former MacCollege student.

Be The Best

We all dream of great deeds and high positions, away from the pettiness and humdrum of ordinary life. Yet success is not occupying a lofty place or doing conspicuous work; it is being the best that is in you. Rattling around in too big a job is worse than filling a small one to overflowing. Dream, aspire by all means; but do not ruin the life you must lead by dreaming pipe dreams, of one you would like to lead. Make the most of what you have and are. Perhaps your trivial, immediate task is your one sure way of proving your mettle. Do the thing near at hand, and great things will come to your hand to be done.

Thank You

I wish to thank all those who served on committees for a most successful All-School Picnic. Thank You!
Velva Wagner,
General Secretary.

Student Council Presents Chapel Program

Mrs. San Romani presented the organ prelude for Chapel Tuesday morning, September 29. Don Fike, Student Council representative, made the announcements and invited questions from the audience.

The Spectator was attacked from all sides by Bob Wise. After attempting to justify the Spec, Jim Craig, Editor-in-Chief, introduced the reporters.

Joe Kennedy pointed out the faults of the Quadrangle. Kenny Brown, Staff editor, defended the Quad, and placed the blame on the head of Student Council. Kenny introduced his Quad staff.

Don Goodfellow brought up student cooperation in taking care of the SUR.

George Keim, president of Student Council, explained the functions and activities of this organization and introduced the following members: Don Fike and Donna Waggoner of the senior class, Don Goodfellow and Joan McRoberts from the junior class, Don Moeller and Ruth Grossnickle of the sophomores, Merle Roefs and Kathleen Albin from the freshman class, and Dolores Sigle and Bob Powell as extra curricular activities representatives.

Faculty members include Dr. James Berkebile, Prof. Sarah May Vancil, Prof. S. M. Dell, and Prof. Raymond L. Flory.

The Student Council is now facing the project of a TV set for the SUR. George urged all students to support this project.

Student Court enforces the laws laid down by the Student Council. George introduced the judge of Student Court, Don Waggoner.

Student Court issues the green caps worn by all freshmen. Norma Goering objected to these green caps on the behalf of the freshmen. Velva Wagner gave the reasons, some valid, some not so valid, for these green caps.

Don introduced the other members of Student Court who are Seniors—Elsie Kindley, Gene Bechtel, Curtis Leicht, Don Waggoner, and Velva Wagner. Juniors—Faye Ellen Trostle, Kenneth Brown, Don Goodfellow, and Paul Coffman. Sophomores—Gary Jones, Dwight Blough and Mary Elizabeth Swinger. The Student Court deals out punishment for any of offending students.

Ag. Agent Takes On Soils Class

The Soils class had a rather unusual experience Monday, Sept. 28, when Mr. Elgin Button, McPherson County Agent, came in to substitute for Prof. Guy Hayes, who was away at a Kiwanis meeting in Kansas City, and to give a lecture to the class on Soils and Fertilizer Management.

Mr. Button brought several samples of soils and fertilizers to illustrate his lecture, and distributed to the class several forms for conducting a soil test. Visitors to the class were Prof. Wesley De Coursey, of the Chemistry Dept., who had been testing soils for the McPherson farmers, and George Thom.

While the lecture was in progress, staff photographers from the McPherson Daily Republican came in and took pictures of the class in session. Phyllis Kingery, the only girl enrolled in an Ag. course at Mac was in attendance.

Glee Yoder Works In Regional Office

Do you have anything I can use for a design on a church bulletin? Can you do mimeographing for a district newsletter? Who from this office will be going to my home district meeting? I would like to ride along. These are a few of the questions which students ask Glee Yoder in the regional office.

Right now she is working hard on the Regional conference program. Her desk was full of letters, schedules, and subjects for the conference. There are many details that must be worked out to make everything run smoothly.

Mrs. Yoder insists that this is one of the most interesting jobs she has had, but finds it a bit frustrating to work only one time when there is enough work for a full time administrative assistant.

The students ought to visit the regional office! Several large new pictures grace the walls; plants, rearrangement of furniture and tables full of reading materials make it look like a new and most interesting office not only for routine work but a place where many creative ideas blossom.

As Mrs. Yoder was interviewed she asked if the students knew anything about the regional organizations, doubting if many students did know what its functions were. Glee told these essentials.

Our big Western Region of the Church of the Brethren which extends from the Gulf of Mexico to Canada and from the Mississippi to the Rockies is composed of fifteen districts.

The task of the regional office is to bring the General Brotherhood program more closely to the individual districts and churches, and to interpret to the General Brotherhood Board the needs and desires of the region.

It is sort of a liaison office, co-ordination and linking the districts and local churches to the general brotherhood.

Mrs. Yoder is not new in regional work. For three years she was secretary-treasurer of the Regional Women's Work, and the last five years she has been Regional Director of Children's Work during which time she traveled extensively throughout the region.

The staff in the regional office invites the students to visit them. They are located on the first floor of Sharp along the north side. Here the students may browse around, receive information for youth work, obtain materials for Christian education and secure many other services.

Dr. Mohler Heads Science Academy

The Kansas Academy of Science is an organization of the scientists in Kansas. Each year a meeting is held. The purpose of these meetings is to exchange ideas, to display new equipment in the field of science and to promote good fellowship.

Books are printed by the Academy each year in order that anyone may express his ideas in any field and also keep a permanent record.

The different sections into which they are divided are Botany, Chemistry, Entomology, Geology, Junior Academy, Microbiology, Physics, Psychology and Zoology.

Prof. R. E. Mohler is president of the Academy and his duty is to preside over the meetings and also arrange the programs. The Eighty-Sixth Annual Meeting will be held at Hays, Kansas in the latter part of April.

Thinking With The President

Good Sportsmanship

Last Friday night after we had played Bethel I wandered into the dressing rooms to see how our first line boys, who had spent most of the game on the bench, were feeling. It had occurred to me that some who last year had received national prominence for yardage gained and for other football achievements might feel somewhat chagrined at not having had an opportunity to add to their statistics against a team which obviously would not have been able to hold them back.

In the dressing room, I saw that our first string boys hardly had their clothes soiled and no longer were covered with perspiration. Instead they appeared rested and dry. They really had not had a very heavy work-out.

When I asked them how they felt they indicated that whereas they liked to play football, under the circumstances of that game they were glad to have had the newer boys get some experience in playing. It seemed obvious that they were thinking more in terms of what was good for the school next year and the following years than of their own individual records which might have been greatly added to last Friday night. In other words, even at that moment, close up against a situation which must have had in it some disappointment to them, they expressed themselves to me in terms of excellent school morale.

Naturally, this made me feel good. And already I was feeling good because of the kind of a game we had been able to play. I was certain now, as I had been certain

Faculty Presents

Nominations For 1954 Who's Who

McPherson College students are to be represented in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" again this year. Faculty members have made nominations to the Personnel Committee which is in charge of preparing ballots for the voting by the faculty.

Not only the student's excellence and sincerity in scholarship and his leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities are considered but also his citizenship and service to the school and his promise of future usefulness to business and society.

Names of McPherson College students are to be in the office of the sponsoring organization by Oct. 30, but publication of the names will not be permitted until the names have been approved.

Although juniors may be considered for selection, the Personnel Committee recommends that the selection be confined to seniors. The Spectator will publish the list of McPherson students to be in the "Who's Who" as soon as it is released.

Quantity Cooking Class Feeds Faculty Women

The faculty women will be served a dinner by the girls of the Quantity Cooking Class as a class project Monday evening, Oct. 5 at 6 in the Home Economics Department.

all along, that the McPherson College Athletic department has in it some real sportsmen. They are good lads and "game" boys.

I wish for the entire school the same kind of high sportsmanship. I think we have it and I think we are increasing it.

A letter from the president at Kearney came to me after the boys had played there. It said that the athletic department at Kearney reported to him that the McPherson Athletic Club was one of the finest they had ever played, and that its sportsmanship and morale were exemplary.

We can make McPherson College one of the best colleges in Kansas. We can make it one of the finest Christian colleges anywhere. We have been working at it. Let's keep it up.

Fellowship

When a feller hasn't got a cent
And is feelin' kinda blue,
And the clouds hand thick and dark,
And won't let the sunshine thro',
It's a great thing, oh my brethren,
For a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder in friendly sort o'way.

It makes a man feel queerish,
It makes the tear-drops start,
And you kind o' feel a flutter
In the region of your heart.
You can't look up and meet his eye.

You don't know what to say
When a hand is on your shoulder
in a friendly sort o'way.

Oh this world's a curving compound

With its honey and its gall;
Its cares and bitter crosses,
And that good world after all,
And a good God must have made it,
Leastwise that is what I say,
When a hand is on your shoulder
in a friendly sort o'way.

Bulldog Barks

Some of the girls from Arnold Hall had a night on the town at Selina last Saturday night. Those who went were Marlonna Wine, Loren Cline, Beverly Schechter, Joan McRoberts, Eula Mae Murray and, Lu Carpenter. They had dinner at Weigner's and then went to the show.

Cupid has done it again. Jean Walker is sporting a beautiful engagement ring which she received from Wayne Jones.

Betty Moore has found her way back to McPherson. Once again she is three weeks late starting to school. It seems as if Betty doesn't like the first three weeks of school. It seems McPherson just gets in your blood and you can't stay away.

There were a lot of alumni and ex-students down for the game last Friday. Among the many that were here were Squeak Louthan, Ann Powell, and Barbara Berry. Betty Jo Baker and Betty Berry also made it down. It seems good to see these kids come back.

The students of McPherson College put on their night shirts and headed for town last Friday night. Every kind of night wear was worn from shortie nightgowns to long red pajamas.

After madly dashing through the stores and dark streets the students were met on the corners by the pep band and yell leaders. The only complaints that were heard came from those who for the next few days had aching muscles. Of course this couldn't be because they had their arms jerked out of the sockets.

One of the new yells this year is the "choo choo." It is really very clever and if everyone learns it it should go over very well.

Donna Schrock and Leland Lenge went home with Connie and Larry Brooks to Nickerson, Kansas, this last weekend. They arrived back on campus early Sunday evening.

Vernon Pettefish was here Sunday for a few hours leave from Fort Riley. He was supposed to be here for the weekend, but you know how the army is, you never can tell what you will be doing next.

The school nurse has arrived and is busy getting enrolled and starting her work as school nurse. Some of the boys will probably need a few extra shirts this year.

Luella Weaver is back on Mac campus. She went home to stay, but after thinking it over Mac didn't seem so bad after all and so back she came.

Several visitors have been on Mac campus this last week. Carl Coppock a brother to Shirley and a cousin to Doris was here for a couple days. Dee Shank was also seen wandering around the campus. Duane Jamison was down, but Mickey didn't make it. They are now the proud parents of two children. This summer there was a new addition to their family. They now have a girl and boy.

Martha and John Robison were here for an evening last week. Johnny is stationed in Texas and Mart is teaching school at Peabody.

The "Sadie Hawkins" party is tomorrow night. So girls if you don't have a man, go to the party and catch one there.

God gave man an upright countenance to survey the heavens, and look upward to the stars.

Pat Ford Wed To Al Zunkel

Two of the several Maccollege kids that got married during the last summer are the former Patricia Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ford, and Alvin Zunkel son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zunkel of Denver, Colo.

Wedding vows were exchanged on August 23, at eight o'clock in the evening in the Denver Church of the Brethren. Dr. Burton Metzler, professor of philosophy and religion at Mac performed the double ring ceremony, and the bride was given away by her father.

Vows were exchanged before an altar in which Sallman's painting "Head of Christ" was emphasized.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white imported organza over taffeta. A long-sleeved jacket was caught at the throat with a rhinestone clasp. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a lace and net hat especially designed by Merritt and McCombs of Chicago. She carried a shower bouquet of natural pink rosebuds and tuberose.

Mrs. Bob Cordray of Morganville, Kan., sister of the bride was matron of honor. Bob Powell of Kingsley, Ia., was best man. Ushers were Don Thralls of Billings, Okla., and Leland Wilson of Fredonia, Kan.

Ruth Peckover, of McPherson sang three numbers: "Oh Master Let Me Walk With Thee," arranged by Prof. Don Frederick; "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee," and "O, Perfect Love."

At the reception Lois Rolfs of Geneseo, Kan., cut the cake. Phyllis Wampler of Courtland, Kan., had charge of the guest book, and Ida and Clara Zunkel, sisters of the groom, arranged the gift display.

It's Your Viewpoint

By LeRoy Heidebrecht

This week a new column will be started in the Sports section. In this column a question dealing with sports will be asked. Then a small group of students, picked at random, will be interviewed concerning their opinion on the question asked.

Our first question is "Who do you think will win the World Series?" Out of eight people interviewed, five were for the New York Yankees and three favored the Brooklyn Dodgers. Here are the names of the people asked this question and their answers and opinions.

Harry Ensminger — Sophomore — Yankees. Because they are a better team in the clutch.

Wilbur Pattison — Sophomore — Yankees. Because when the Yanks get in the Series they are hard to beat out.

Kathy Russell — Junior — Yankees. Brooklyn hasn't got a chance.

Dr. D. W. Bittiger — Dodgers. I think the Dodgers will win this year because they have played consistent winning ball all through the season. I would also like to see them win because Brooklyn started the use of different races in major league baseball.

Shirley Long — Freshman — Yankees. I wish Brooklyn would win but I suppose the Yankees will because they have every year.

Bill Mollhagen — Sophomore — Yankees. I don't want the Yanks to win, but I suppose they will.

Galen Stucky — Freshman — Dodgers. They have a better hitting team. Their pitching staff is improved over last year.

James Craig — Senior — Dodgers. I think the Dodgers will win because they are a better ball club this year and man for man they are a better ball team. Also I hope Brooklyn wins because the Yankees have won the Series so many times that they don't appreciate it anymore.

Mac Wins First Conference Game

Bulldogs Subdue Bethel 46 - 0

McPherson College Bulldogs wrapped up their 15th straight win subduing the Bethel Graymaroons 46-0 in a Kansas Conference game held at the college stadium Friday last, Sept. 25, before 3,000 fans. This is the first Conference victory for the Bulldogs this season.

Bethel won the toss, and decided to receive defending the north goal, and Dwight McSpadden kicked off for the Bulldogs.

After a couple of plays Bob Wise intercepted a Bethel pass and lateralled to Dwight McSpadden who went to the Bethel 11 yard line. The next play saw Gene Smith charging through the Bethel line for the remaining distance to make the first touchdown of the game exactly 2 minutes and 58 seconds after the kick-off. McSpadden attempted the extra point but the ball was fumbled, and the point was no good.

In the same period Gene Smith broke away for 21 yards to place the ball on the Bethel 25. Eddie Ball advanced it to the 13 yard line, and in another play, the Bulldogs paved way to get through McSpadden to score another TD. His extra point kick was also good.

The first quarter was a fast one, and the Bulldogs advanced at will, opening holes in the Bethel line big enough for trucks to get through. The Graymaroons never had a chance to do anything with the mighty Bulldog powerhouse, and failed to make even one first down during the quarter, and their yardage was limited to a meager 41.

The third Bulldog touchdown came exactly 8 seconds after the commencement of the second quarter, when Quarterback Blickenstaff connected with a long pass to McSpadden. The extra point tried by McSpadden was no good.

The first substitution in the Bulldog backfield was made after Gene Smith made a 21 yard run to the Bethel 35, and Ball added seven more yards, and another touchdown was scored by Smith on an off tackle play good for 28 yards. Ronnie Sams, transfer student from K.U., attempted the extra point, but was no good.

Playing with a new backfield, the Bulldogs charged on relentlessly through the Bethel line, and it was not before long that the only spectacular run during the entire game came off.

Bill Goering had been in the game only a few seconds when he took the ball and smashed through the Bethel line, zig-zagging and sidestepping to set up a 69 yard run to score his second touchdown of the season. Bill had scored a touchdown at the Kearney game. Extra point was tried by Dwight Nulph who carried the ball over the goal line for a point.

Sams who now relieved McSpadden at the kick-offs, booted several tricky ones which the Bethel players found difficult to handle. One such kick off resulted in another TD after a Bethel player just stood over the ball and looking at it like it was a tabouret when Larry Gilchrist came up and fell on it for another TD. The extra point carried by Bill Goering was good.

Snyder also scored a touchdown after Ronnie Miller recovered a Bethel fumble which advanced the Bulldogs some 56 yards to pay dirt.

At the end of the first half, the Bulldogs had scored 45 as against Bethel's 0, also they had gained 281 yards against Bethel's 49, and while Bethel was able to make only 2 first downs, the Bulldogs romped away with 12 first downs.

When play resumed at half time, Coach Smith sent in his second string, and even these proved too tough for the Graymaroons. Soon, Coach Smith sent in his third team who gave Bethel a good fight for the rest of the game.

There was no time at which the Graymaroons seriously threatened the Bulldog goal-line. The nearest they got to it was to the 31 yard line. The third team played a great game, and had a lot of experience gained. Coach Smith used everyone on the bench.

There had been some criticism as to why the coach did not allow the first and second strings to play more than they did, but Sid Smith had reasons for his actions.

When this season closes, Mac will lose many of her good players by graduation, and the rookies must have experience for future games. The Bethel game offered a good opportunity, and the coach was not slow to take upon it.

Several of the rookies displayed power and determination, and have proved to the fans that they, in their time, will be as great as the championship team that was before them.

Wilbur Pattison played an outstanding game in the last half as a lineman. He recovered a Bethel fumble, and made several beautiful tackles. Merle Rolfs also played an excellent game with the first stringers, although he is only a freshman. Sams is another great rookie player that has a lot to contribute to the Bulldog squad.

Dick McGuire and Don Goodfellow are shaping up to be great runners, so are many of the rookies which we won't have space enough to mention here.

While the Bulldogs were having it all their way, and showing Bethel how to play ball, the Emporia Presbiterians were battling against a determined Baker squad, so was Ottawa against the Quakers. There is a lot of footballing to be seen this year, the competition is stronger than ever, but the Bulldogs are sure and confident of another great year, and another championship.

Statistics for the game are:

	Mac	Bethel

Whirl-Apool To Be Used In College Gymnasium

A whirl-apollo bath will be installed in the Gymnasium as soon as it arrives, hoping that it will be here before the football season is over. The bath has been purchased by the Women's Athletic Association with last year's project money.

The bath has been proven to be very effective in decreasing the swelling and aches of bruises, sprains, etc. The bath is a tub with very high sides and is normal bath length. Thus the whole body can be immersed into it relaxing other parts of the body as it heats the bruises.

The W.A.A. plan that this should be used by the complete athletic department giving aid to both college men and women.

The old W.A.A. members have also selected two more projects, a bun warmer and a coffee maker.

All higher motives, ideals, conceptions, sentiments in a man are of no account if they do not come forward to strengthen him for the better discharge of the duties which devolve upon him in the ordinary affairs of life.

Bethel Tromped; Baker Next

Last Friday night the mighty McPherson College Bulldog varsity trampled all over the Bethel Graymaroons the first half and then the 'scrubs' take over and play the entire second half. But even then Bethel was held scoreless.

This Friday the Bulldogs will travel to Baldwin, Kansas, where the Bulldog football machine will be put to work against the Baker University Wildcats.

The Wildcats have lost the first two of their games this season. It is a sure bet, however, that they will be doing more than their best to try to knock over the Kansas Conference 'kingpin', McPherson.

Baker boasts a squad of forty players with a good depth of strength at every position. Much of the Baker University boosters' hopes rest on a group of returning Korean veterans. All of these boys had good athletic records at Baker before leaving for the service.

The director of athletics and head football coach of the 'orange and black' at Baker is Karl Spear. His seven years at Baldwin have produced one Kansas Conference championship and three runner-up positions.

Spear has a fine reputation as an all-around athlete when he attended Baker University from 1929 to 1933. Russ Davee is his assistant.

With sixteen returning lettermen, the Wildcats, undoubtedly, will prove to be one of McCollege's strongest opponents this year.

Intramurals Begin; 31 Teams Compete

The intramural volleyball season has opened for this year with games played on Monday of last week. A total of 31 teams engaging 250 students are competing with each other in the two leagues.

This year, games are scheduled for four nights each week. Game nights are Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Dick Wareham is Intramurals Director, while Tommy "Digger" O'Dell is student assistant.

The 31 teams engaged in this year's intramural competition are divided according to strength into two leagues. The American League with 15 teams, and the National League with 16 teams. Teams in the two leagues are:

The American League:

Ken Evans, Joe Kennedy, Clive Sharpe, Cletus Cary, Loren Frantz, George Eisle, Al Blocher, Norman Long, Bobby Bean, Keny Brown, Darrell Godfrey, Bob Hoefle, Lowell Hoch, Prof. Bechtel, Wendell Lentz.

The National League:

A few games have been played during the past week, and it is hoped that by the end of this week all the teams in the two leagues would have played at least one game each.

There are identically the same number of teams and student participants in this year's intramurals as there were last year.

Last year in the American League, Carl Ediger's team came out winners with 8 wins and 1 loss; next was Eddie Frantz's team with 7 wins and 2 losses, and third in the league were Lyle Neher's, Phil Radatz's, and Dwight McSpadden's teams with 6 wins and 3 losses each. Myron Krebbel's team was in the cellar with 1 win and 8 losses.

In the National League, Bob Wilson's team tied with Jack Kough's team for first place with 7 wins and 2 losses each, Clive Sharpe's team was second with 7 wins and 3 losses, third were Wayne Blickenstaff's and Harold Zook's teams with 6 wins and 3 losses each. In the cellar in this league were Leon Neher's and Glendon Button's teams with a season's record of 2 wins and 8 losses.

Well the time has again rolled around for the weekly predictions. My percentage has increased somewhat over last week, but as Wise put it, still leaves much to be desired.

The Big Seven starts conference play this week with three big games on tap. The only team not playing a conference opponent is Oklahoma the defending champion. The other major midwestern conference, the Big Ten only has one conference game scheduled with most of the teams playing inter-sectional rivals.

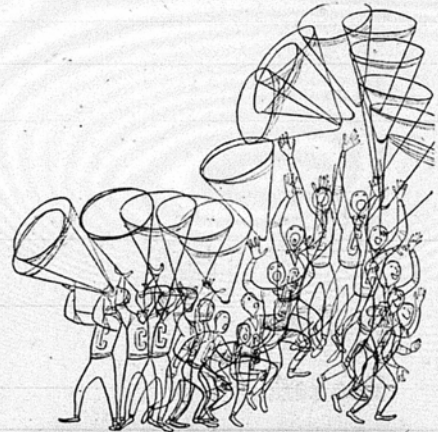

Of course the "Game of the Week" as far as McPherson fans are concerned is the game between Georgia Tech and SMU to
