Button To Med School

Glendon Button is the third graduating senior from McPherson College to be accepted into medical school this year. Glendon has been notified of his acceptance at State University of Iowa Medical School and will enter school this fall. In September, 1955, Glendon entered McPherson College as a senior after two years in Europe in the BVS program. While in Europe he spent three months on the construction of Kassel House and the remaining time in Austria on the Heifer Project. Here at McPherson, Glendon has taken part in SCA, CBYF, football, track, intramurals, "M" Club, and Rec Council. He has also been an outstanding student and came to McPherson with a scholastic scholarship.

Besides being active in campus organizations he is an assistant in the industrial arts department. This June, Glendon will marry Wanda Will, a girl he met while in BVS over in Germany. Miss Will, who was also in BVS, teaches school in the McPherson City schools and lives near her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wreham. Glendon will study four years at the University and then plans to take his internship at the University Hospital there in Iowa City, Iowa. Upon completing his intern work he will practice in Iowa, his home state. Former students of McPherson who are now studying at the University of Iowa Medical School are Robert Powell and Leo Landhuis.

Monk Accepted To Nursing School

Minnie Mae Monk, a McPherson College sophomore, has been accepted into the Marymount College School of Nursing at Salina. She plans to begin her studies there next fall. On Saturday, March 3, Minnie went to Salina to take her pre-nursing test. She was accompanied by Loyal Sherred and Vivian Oliver. Minnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Monk of McNeil, Ark. She has one sister and three brothers older and one brother and three sisters, one of which she hopes can come to McPherson College next year, younger than herself. Minnie's beginning nursing school next year will culminate eight years of serious planning for becoming a nurse. Most of the subjects which Minnie has been taking have been those which will be helpful in her career. She plans to receive either a B.S. or a B.A. degree. During this summer, Minnie plans to be a part of the Elgin, Ill., Summer Service Unit, which works in the Elgin State Mental Hospital. She is currently under part-time employment in the McPherson College museum.

Student Teaching Made Troublesome

Has anyone ever said that student teaching is easy? Ginny Bower, who teaches art at the high school, knows better. Last Monday, she took a carload of her art pupils in a '46 Ford to sketch a refinery. On the way back the car broke down 2 miles from the highway. Ginny helped to push the car up a hill. She remarked that it was a good thing she hadn't worn her heels. Some of the boys decided to hitchhike and get help but no one would pick them up. Ginny then called the high school and got an excuse. At another farmhouse they were able to get someone to push the car until it started. They got back to their classes an hour late.

OOOH! A MAN!—says Peg Hoefler and Neeta Brighton about Dean Reynolds as Mary Lou Wise looks on in the play, "Ring Around Elizabeth."

Ziegler To Be Speaker During Religious Emphasis

Religious Emphasis Week activities will begin on campus on Sunday, March 18, and continue through Thursday, March 22. Spiritual director for the activities will be Dr. Jesse R. Ziegler, present professor of psychology and Christian education at Bethany Biblical Seminary in Chicago. General theme for the conference is "Jesus and Man." The topic for the first address to be given on Sunday, March 18, is "There's Good News For You." It will be followed that evening by "The Greeks: Without Benefit of Heritage." Other topics in the order of their presentation are "Consider the Church," "Pilgrimage Meets Its Waterloo," "God and the Persons - Things Dilemma," "James and John: How To Get Ahead," "Will You Be A Witness?" "With Love's True Instinct," and "Mary: Did He Rise For You?" Services will be held each morning at 9:35 and each evening at 7:30 through Thursday, Monday

250 Attend College-Civic Debut

Two hundred and fifty attended the College Civic Orchestra Concert last Friday evening which is the largest attendance thus far. Prof. Miller, Don Cotton, director of the orchestra, stated that each number during the concert received generous applause. The members of the orchestra were dressed in semi-formal attire. Following the concert, 150 were served refreshments in the SUR. Mrs. Paul Sollenberger and Mrs. Don Frederick served the punch. Helping with the serving were Gwendene Reiff, Wanda Swick, Neeta Brighton, and Janette Miller. Don Cotton was drafted as chief dishwasher. Ushers were Alma Goddellow, Don Glahn, Martin Gauby, and Edith Buckingham. Donna Davidson was chairman of the refreshment committee. Others who helped her bake the cookies were Carl Ediger, Mary Beth Tolle, Gwendene Reiff, Dale Gilgilly, and Wayne Oak. A band concert, under the direction of Prof. Don Frederick, will be given April 20.

Strom To Lead Worship

Jay Strom will be in charge of a short worship service at CBYF Sunday evening in the church social room. Paul Sollenberger will play his violin at the meeting at 6:30.

Gagliardo Plans To Speak At Mac

Mrs. Ruth Gagliardo, a staff member of the Kansas State Teachers Association is to be in McPherson March 13 - 16. Mrs. Gagliardo is the director of the Children's Traveling Book Exhibits. Her exhibit of books for elementary school children will be set up in the Intermediate school gym here in McPherson. She will spend her mornings and afternoons showing her books to the children and giving lectures. There will be a lecture on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Intermediate school auditorium which is open to the public. Friday morning Mrs. Gagliardo will speak to MacCollege students in assembly. Friday noon there is to be a luncheon at the Warren Hotel for her. The exhibit is open to the public at all times and Mr. Potwin, McPherson superintendent of schools has extended an invitation to any interested students to visit it. Mrs. Gagliardo travels over the state showing her book exhibit to elementary school children and giving lectures. In addition to this she writes an article called "The Children's Bookshelf," in which she reviews the latest books for children in every issue of "The Kansas Teacher," which is the official publication of the Kansas State Teachers Association.

Debaters Tie For First At State League Tourney

McPherson College debaters tied in first place with Southwestern College at the League Tournament on Saturday, March 3, with ten out of fifteen decisions. This contest was held at Bethany College in Lindsborg. Eleven schools were entered: Bethany, Bethel, Fort Hays, McPherson, Southwestern, Sterling, St. Benedict's, Tabor, Washburn, Wichita University, and Friends. Senior team Don Ulom and Don Faules of McPherson won all four of their debates. Three other schools with teams winning all four debates were Sterling, Bethel, and Southwestern. Other high-ranking schools were Washburn with six out of eight decisions, Sterling with six out of twelve, and Bethel with five out of eight. McPherson's other teams ranked: Norris Harms and Dwight Oltman, two out of four; Joan Walters and Gary Pamborg, two out of four; and Richard Bittinger and Gienna Hawbaker, two out of three with one bye. Don Faules participated in men's extempore. Taking the first place in this contest was Dan Stoops of Washburn. In men's oratory, in which Norris Harms participated, Harry Smith of Friends University took first place. First place in women's oratory went to Ann Dyck of Bethel. Joan Walters, McPherson, took second place. Joyce Chappell of Southwestern took first place in women's extemporaneous. Jerline Davis of Washburn took second, and Mary Lou Wise of McPherson was third. Kenneth Fancher, a McPherson sophomore, participated in the state alcohol contest at Wichita on Wednesday, March 7. The final tournament in debate is the Pi Kappa Delta Provincial of the Plains Tournament to be held at Southwestern College in Winfield, Kans., on March 15, 16, and 17. There's Been A Change A variety of Kansas weather has reflected different likes and dislikes of the students to the sudden weather changes. Monday of this week the mercury rose to a high of 83 in the McPherson area, and on Wednesday the ground was covered with snow just 14 days before spring arrives.

New Set Will Be Used In Play

"Ring Around Elizabeth" will be presented tonight at 8 o'clock in the auditorium before an audience of conference guests and McPherson College students, faculty, and friends. The final dress rehearsal for tonight's dramatic production was held Wednesday evening. A complete new set will be used on the stage tonight. Many students have been working together during the past weeks preparing the flats and arranging the props. Stage manager Dale Shenefelt was assisted by Dale DeLauter in the scenery construction. A banister from the former college farm house will be used on the full flight of stairs used throughout the play. Cast Margaret Hoefler, a junior from Minnesota, has the lead role of Elizabeth. The play is centered around the results of the money which Elizabeth inherits from her great-uncle. The main male part is Elizabeth's dullard husband Ralph, played by an Iowan Forrest Kruschwitz. A Minnesota senior, JoAnn Silver, who has had many parts in college dramatics, will play Laurette Carpenter Styles. She is the emotional mother of Elizabeth and expects her daughter to buy her a new fur. Jennifer Cherry has a passion for his short wave radio set and fires. Duane Fike fills this role. Mrs. Dale DeLauter appears as 15-year-old Mercy, daughter of Elizabeth. This is Lois's second role in college dramatics. Playing her first role in college dramatics, Diane Bowman, a McPherson girl, takes on a different appearance to play the part of Vida. Jennifer, the older daughter of Elizabeth is played by Norma Goering. Norma falls in love with Andy Blayne and she, like the rest of the family anticipates the use of Elizabeth's inheritance. Mary Lou Wise makes her debut in college dramatics this evening as she acts the part of Irene Oliver, one of Elizabeth's college friends. The town busybody, Harriet Gilpin, is played by Neeta Jean Brighton. Dean Reynolds, playing the role of Andy Blayne, works to get the inheritance and is in love with Jennifer. The policeman brings Elizabeth home when she becomes a victim of amnesia. Dale DeLauter is the policeman. Billy Joe Hildreth plays the part of the Cherry's family doctor, Dr. Hollister. Five of the cast are members of the national dramatics fraternity Alpha Psi Omega. They are Jo Ann Silver, Duane Fike, Norma Goering, Margaret Hoefler and Dale DeLauter.

Meetings Continue Through Week-end

College Hill residents offered the high school students and leaders a welcome as they arrived on campus to attend the Western Region Youth Conference which commenced yesterday and will continue through Sunday. After the supper hour attending "Operation Hamburger" at the church last night, recreation in the gym provided the first opportunity for many of the youth to get together. A worship service was conducted by the S. W. Kansas group. This afternoon at 2 p.m., Dr. Roger Fredrickson, minister of the First Baptist Church of Ottawa, Kas., and professor at Ottawa University will speak on "Taking Hold in Faith." Dr. Fredrickson will be the main speaker of the conference. Eula Mae Murrey, who spent last year in Belgium as a farm youth exchange student, will tell the guests about "Student Peacemakers" in the chapel following Fredrickson's talk in the church. Rec Council members will manage recreation groups in the gym at 4 p.m. The Regional Cabinet will meet this afternoon in the church at 4:30. It includes two representatives from each district, one youth representative, one regional executive and one conference executive committee, composed of five program area chairmen for citizenship, fellowship, faith, outreach, and witness; a regional counselor, a regional youth director, and executive secretary, and the district fieldmen. There are two meetings of this group a year. The first and most important one in November just before the Regional Conference and the second one at the Regional Youth Conference. Some of the business to be taken up this afternoon will be to elect an executive committee, set up a budget, leadership training, camps, Brethren Service, and plans for the annual conference. An earn and serve project will be discussed. To do this the person would earn money at a regular job and serve the church during leisure hours and weekends. Possible locations for such work would be in St. Louis, or St. Joseph, Mo. and Chicago, Ill. Tonight the College Player's present the three act production of "Ring Around Elizabeth" at the community building. Saturday features the daily Bible hour, and Dr. Fredrickson speaking at 10 a.m. in the Chapel. Gene Meyers, Regional Youth President, will supervise the election of the new president for the region at 11 a.m. Nominees will include Irvin Wagner, freshman from McPherson; Mary Lou Wise, sophomore from Nevada, Iowa; Birdene Jamison, junior from Quinlan, Kans.; and Gene Meyers, junior from Essex, Mo. Other nominations may be made from the floor. During the afternoon outstanding speakers will include Dr. Maurice A. Hess, English professor, and Glen Swinger, assistant to the president and Public Relations Director for the college. District cabinet meetings will then convene, followed by free time. Efforts have been focused on making the annual banquet one worth while to attend. Decorations of the Community Building are keeping with the theme of St. Patrick's Day. Duane Fike, master of ceremonies, will introduce Dr. Fredrickson, who will give his final talk on "The Fellowship of the Unashamed". Guests will congregate in the Doghouse Sunday morning for a breakfast snack. During the opening exercises at church there will be a consecration service led by Ed Crill, Youth Director from Elgin, Ill. Rev. Harry K. Zeller will preach the morning sermon. Following it will be dinner in the church parlors. After dinner the 1956 Brethren Youth Conference ends.

Production Staff

Dale Shenefelt, who is stage manager, is also a member of the dramatics fraternity. Billy Joe Hildreth will be eligible for membership after this play. Publicity for the play was handled by Duane Fike and Roger Fick. Other members of the production staff are: Neeta Shenefelt, rehearsal prompter; Light a Hildreth, Billy Joe Hildreth, Duane Fike, and Dean Reynolds. Neeta Jean Brighton is chairman of the make-up committee. Other members of the cast who studied makeup in the Play Production course instructed by Mrs. Yoder will help. The appearances of three of the female cast members will be changed greatly so that their appearance will fit their character parts. Mrs. Wilbur Yoder, instructor in speech and dramatics, and cast of 12 began work on this year's final dramatic production the first week of February.

Cantata Presented By Church Choir

"Seven Last Words of Christ" a cantata by Du Bois, will be presented by the McPherson Church Choir on Sunday evening, March 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Prof. Donald R. Frederick, music instructor of the college and minister of music for the McPherson Church of the Brethren, will direct this presentation. The organ will be by Mrs. Lloyd Larsen, church organist. Miss Anne Krehbiel, a piano instructor of the college, will be at the piano.

Soloists include Mrs. Dick Wareham, soprano; Dr. Wesley DeCoursey and Harold Beane, tenors; Max McAuley, baritone and Clarence Barkholder, bass.

On Sunday morning, March 11, Rev. Harry K. Zeller, Jr., will develop the topic, "Take Hold Here."

Kinzie Finds Copper Mine

Prof. Kenneth Kinzie, MacCollege art and ceramics instructor, has found a copper mine on Macampus. He does not have to dig the copper out of the ground though; it is much handier than that.

This copper comes from the printer's cuts of old Quadrangle and Spectator pictures. Over a period of several years a large number of these cuts, which are wooden blocks with etched copper plates mounted on them, have been collected by the Quadrangle and Spectator staffs. Most of them are no longer of any use to these publications.

The art department has purchased the cuts from the Student Council.

Professor Kinzie has found that the copper plates from these cuts can be used in the enameling process he teaches in connection with his enameling class.

The copper plate of a cut is pryed away from its block of wood and then heated in the ceramic department's kiln. This turns the old dried ink that is still on the plate; and when the plate is taken out of the kiln, the ink can easily be scraped off.

The copper plates are further cleaned with acid or steel wool. Then they are cut into various shapes or left in a rectangular shape. After the copper is cut to the desired shape, it is ready to be coated with enamel.

Many colors of enamel are available, and any type of design can be made on a copper plate by using the different colors.

The enamel is available in several different forms and is ap-

Annual For '56 Completed

Thursday, March 15, final Quad copy will be in the hands of Myer's Company to complete the 1955-56 McPherson College annual, which will be distributed in May.

Plans for next year's yearbook are underway. Some material has been received from Myer's Company already.

Explain Student Teaching

Dr. Mary Fee and Prof. Merlin Frantz will explain the block system of student teaching at the FTA meeting March 15, in room 27 of Sharp Hall, at 8:30 p.m.

The block system is being used at MacCollege next year.

Election of officers is to be held also. Refreshments will be served following the meeting, in the Dog House.

pled to the copper in different way. It may be sprinkled on as a powder, spread on as a paste, or sprayed on as a liquid.

After the design has been made on the copper plate by using these forms of enamel, the plate is placed in the kiln for two or three minutes. This kiln is heated to a temperature of about 1500 degrees.

At this temperature the copper fuses with other substances to form an enamel, which melts at this temperature, and it fuses with the copper. This forms a beautiful glazed surface and makes the colors permanent.

Members of the ceramics class are now making small articles of jewelry like ear rings, pins, tie clasps, and cuff links by this enameling process.

Professor Kinzie says that the art of enameling is rapidly gaining in popularity. One reason is that it does not take as much time as arts like ceramics. For instance, he says that a person who has the necessary materials can enamel a tie bar and have it ready to wear in 30 minutes.

After the end of the nine weeks, members of the class who have been working with these small articles will begin working on larger projects such as bowls, wall plaques, and even small table tops.

Council Changes Student Awards

Awards to be given to students by the Student Council at the end of the school year have been changed.

The two editors of the Spectator, the editor of the Quadrangle, and the business managers of both publications will be presented with certificates of award. The chairman of the social committee will be given similar recognition this year for the first time.

The Student Council president be given a gavel. The treasurer will be given a desk set. The council secretary will be given a certificate.

In previous years the Student Council awards have been honor pins.

McPherson College Accepted As Member Of AACTE At Chicago

It has been announced that McPherson College, along with 29 other colleges, was accepted as a member of the AACTE at a three-day annual meeting. Prof. Merlin Frantz, assistant professor of education and psychology, attended the meeting in Chicago.

AACTE is a national teachers' professional organization known as the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Its work is to improve instruction, especially in the field of teacher education, and to encourage and carry on new educational research programs.

Any institution that is primarily interested in teacher education could have sent a representative. Every state and the Philippines and Hawaii were represented at the meeting.

The meeting began with the reading of a telegram from President Dwight D. Eisenhower, reminding the people who were present of the roles that education and educators have in shaping the future.

Dr. Maurice A. Hess Returns For Career Of 37 Years At Mac

Dr. Maurice A. Hess, professor of English and Latin, will teach again next fall making a teaching career of 37 years at McPherson College. Upon being asked if he would return, Dr. Hess stated: "I have been here for 36 years and plan to continue on the faculty."

In being interviewed, Dr. Hess stated that he has instructed approximately 3,500 students here at McPherson College.

Many changes of the college have been seen by Dr. Hess, who has served under four of the colleges ten presidents.

The first year Dr. Hess taught, the construction of Kline Hall was completed. Other buildings he has seen built on the campus are the college church, Dotzour Hall, Harnly Hall, and Frantz Hall. Two new stadiums have been built and two sets of college courts have been constructed.

Painestock Hall, the physical education building, and the Forney plant have been built to replace similar buildings.

Beegly Library has been made larger and Arnold Hall was converted from a women's dormitory to a men's dormitory.

Dr. Hess was born and reared in the eastern part of the United States. He received his higher education at Cumberland Valley Normal, Ursinus College, University of Chicago.

Prior to his coming to McPherson, Dr. Hess had taught at the Mt. Alto Grammar School for one year. He taught two years at both the Dry Run High School and Tamaqua High School. In the summer of 1917 and five weeks of the fall term, he instructed at Swarthmore Prep - School. These schools are in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Maurice A. Hess's name appears in such books as Who's Who in American Education, the Dictionary of American Scholars, and Who's Who in the Mid-West.

Music and home economics are the only two courses on the curriculum which Dr. Hess has not

Pondering With The President Student Parking

Dr. D. W. Bittinger

The administration of the college is very much pleased with the apparent increasing interest of the students in the general welfare of the college.

The administration seriously believes that we should be a McPherson College family and that all members of the family should have the right to hold opinions, to make suggestions, and to help determine our directions.

The college administration is pleased with the concern students are taking in their own health and welfare and would like to see it increase.

It is also pleased at the study the students have made concerning our parking problem.

The Student Council submitted to the Board of Trustees, through the Building and Grounds Committee, a long-term suggestion for parking at the college. It is evident that the parking problem becomes more acute each year due both to the increased number of students and to the increased number of cars operated by students.

The long-term suggestion made by the Student Council was that parking be removed from the campus area as rapidly as possible. The suggested way to do it was to put off-street or angle parking practically all the way around the campus as has been done in front of Dotzour Hall and in front of the College Courts.

This is an expensive venture.

since it costs $2,000.00 or more per block. The off-street parking in front of Dotzour Hall cost $2,000 several years ago.

The suggestion is that we immediately try to get parking of that type behind Painestock and Arnold Halls.

The second suggestion which can be entered into even more immediately is to close the angling driveway which runs from in front of Sharp Hall over to the Physical Education Building. The Student Council requested that this be closed since not many cars can park there anyhow, and it becomes something of a driving hazard as it now stands.

The Trustees accepted this suggestion, and accordingly, that driveway will presently be filled in and put into grass.

It is hoped that we may face our parking problem realistically and come up with ideas and actions which will make parking convenient and at the same time keep our grounds and environment appearing neat and orderly as is fitting in an institution of higher education.

Campus Whirl

Activities of the Regional Youth Conference are in full swing this week end as 400 Brethren youth from over this western area convene here on college hill. Arriving yesterday and today, they will be following a full schedule of nearly overlapping sessions until dismissal on Sunday.

John Blocker senior from Manchester College, Ind., left Sunday after visiting on campus over the weekend. John, who will graduate with a chemistry major this spring, is from Greenville, Ohio, and is president of Manchester's Community Government.

To The West Coast
Carilyn Krehbiel, junior home economics major, will leave by train for San Pedro, Calif., next Monday. Carilyn and her family will visit Carilyn's sister and family there, returning to Kansas the first of April.

Miss Mildred Sick, head of the Home Economics Department, entertained five members of the college Home Economics Club at Sunday dinner. Guests were: Shirley Rhodes, Chan Jo, Betty Arnett, Ruth Davidson, and Irene Shull.

Miss Ruth Grossnickle, Macollege junior who is now teaching sixth grade at Fonda, Iowa, arrived on campus yesterday.

Bill Gripe drove his car to southeastern Kansas last weekend. Accompanying him were Jeanne Corn, Harriette Grove, Shirley Groth, and Lee Dadisman who went to independence. Sally Courtney and Ann Caylor traveled with the group, visiting at Coffeyville.

Calbera Esterlana
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Colberg and Don of Lyons, were hosts to a group of friends and Macollege students Sunday for dinner. Guests included Alma Goodfellow, Dan Glahn, Bobby Erisman, Dan Holden, Vernon Scott, Barbara Maul, Glenn Zuck, Chuck Ebert, Royce Roesch, Birdene Jamison, Glendon Butten, and Mr. and Mrs. John Goodfellow.

Bob Courtney, junior at Baker University, visited on campus last weekend.

Miss Doris Coppock, director of women's physical education, will be attending a YWCA meeting at Topeka this weekend. She will be accompanied by Betty Holloway and Harriette Grove.

Delaine Larson, Don Widrig, Marlene Landhuis, and George Cascober were in Hutchinson Saturday night attending the showing of "Picnic."

Eighteen Complete First Aid Course

Eighteen McPherson students under the instruction of Prof. Dick Wareham have just been certified by the Red Cross to teach first aid courses anywhere in the United States or in the world.

These students have completed the first Red Cross instructor's course to be offered at McPherson College. Their instructor trainer, Dick Wareham, is one of the few persons in the western region of the Red Cross accredited to teach such a course.

The class met at various times from Feb. 6 to 20. Each student that took the course was required to have at least 18 hours of instruction in standard and 12 hours work in advanced first aid courses. They spent about 15 hours work in the instructor's course for which they will receive one semester hour of credit.

The students learned how to give first aid instruction in the practical problems of first aid such as, stopping bleeding, artificial respiration, bandaging, transportation and other means of first aid.

The Regional Representative of the Red Cross first aid, Gilbert Grilber, from whom Dick Wareham received his training was here from St. Louis for one day and met with the class and each

Kenneth Sheaffer Saw Austrian Refugee Problem

Kenneth Sheaffer, Macollege junior, is another Mc student who has spent a period of time in Europe.

Hitchhiking home from Pennsylvania following two years of alternative service in Austria, Kenneth Sheaffer got a ride with a Mr. Bev Beeson of Lansing, Mich. Mr. Beeson, on his way to Fontanelle, Iowa, learning of Sheaffer's work, traveled 60 miles out of his way to help him.

Kenneth worked in Austria near the Yugoslav-Ithalian border. His work consisted of working with a group of refugees in a project of draining swamp land.

Included in his assignment was to visit the farms in that area and to assist where help was needed. Sheaffer stated, "Following World War II, Austria is returning to its farm land and industry. Russia, who had military forces stationed in this country have evacuated this restoring a closer pre-war type living standard." He continued, "Refugees coming from Communist zones enter the country without any passport which makes their entrance illegal. With this type of entrance, the refugees are arrested and by law must be sentenced to a year's punishment."

The sentence is served in one of two possible ways: One was to serve a year in jail. The second solution was working on a farm for a year. Through the latter plan the refugees came to work on the drainage project.

Another Brethren Volunteer from Pennsylvania also helped in conducting this program sponsored by the Brethren Service Commission in cooperation with the Austrian Government.

Sheaffer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Sheaffer of Adel, Iowa. He is a sociology major.

KCSA To Meet On Mac Campus

Student Councils of the eight schools represented in the athletic organization known as Kansas Conference will meet at McPherson this spring. The assembly, now known as the Kansas Conference Student Association, met last fall at the College of Emporia.

The purpose of the assembly is to promote friendship and co-operation among the member schools through the efforts of their respective student councils.

The representatives will discuss five main topics. Discussion groups will be headed by a student from each of the schools. Points for discussion include government, chapel services, pep activity organizations, student publications, and religious life activities.

Smith Only All-Conference Member

Smith Wins Scoring Race

Bill Smith, the Bulldogs' high-scoring post man, has been selected as one of the ten best men on the coaches all-Kansas Conference basketball squad for the 1955-56 season. He is the only MacCollege player to receive special recognition.

The eight conference coaches selected a 10-man squad when they could not agree on a five-man team. The coaches could not vote for any of their own men.

Three members of the Bethel team head the all-star squad. The Graymaroons just won their first conference championship in history with a 22-2 record. In all, five of the Bethelites received special recognition.

Baker, finishing in seventh place in the conference was the only other team to place more than one player on the all-star team.

Sixth-place Bethany is the only conference team not represented in the top 10 players; however, they placed three men on the honorable mention list.

Suede Malm of Baker is the only player to repeat from last year. Moving up from last year's second five are Graber of Bethel, Cyr of K.W.U., and Bill Smith of McPherson.

Friends' Don Laswell is the only freshman to make the all-stars, the group doesn't include any sophomore. Laswell was runner-up to Smith in the scoring race, with 452 points in 23 games for a 19.7 average. Bill threw in 466 points in 23 games for a 20.3 average. Carroll Cyr was third with a 19.4 average.

None of the three Bethel players listed was a contender for the scoring crown, but the Graymaroons had six players averaging more than eight points per game. Four of them hit better than 11 points per game. Bethel also led the conference in defense.

Track To Start

The 1956 track season is getting under way at MacCollege. Athletes are working out daily outside, when the weather permits.

Coaches Sid Smith and George Keim are urging more fellows to come out for track. The prospects for the coming season are not overly bright, as only a few lettermen returned from last season.

It's practically an open field for all who wish to participate. Here's your chance to aid your school, earn your letter, and develop yourself physically.

One hour a day on the track will greatly benefit the general health. Coach Keim says singers will especially gain from track participation in the area of increased lung capacity. Track will also aid the public speaker in that it develops poise and presence before an audience.

Coach Smith has listed the track and field men who have come out so far. They are:

Robert Erisman — Dashes.
Bill Smith — Discus and shot.
Roland Wray — Half mile and quarter: relays.

Thomas Ragland — Sprints, hurdles, broad jump, high jump.

Corvette, T-Bird Roar In Daytona

The annual National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing met at Daytona Beach, Florida last week produced some interesting results. The entire race boiled down to a competition between the leading American automobile companies, several of which have recently announced that they are in the racing car business to stay.

Seven out of the fourteen players who will compete in the U. S. Olympic basketball playoffs in Kansas City April 2 - 4 have been announced. They are: Bill Russell and K. C. Jones of San Francisco; Jim Paxson, Dayton; Paul Judson, Illinois; Hal Lear, Temple; Willie Naulls, UCLA; and Joe Holup of George Washington. These player choices are announced by A. D. (Dutch) Long, and an additional seven are yet to be chosen.

The Wichita Vickers beat the Peoria Cats 80-79 Monday, but there was an awful howl from Peoria's coach, Warren Womble. He charged crooked refereeing all the way, and especially in the last five seconds, when his center, Solomon, put through what would have been the winning basket. Of course, Wichita put up that same howl when they played at Peoria earlier this season.

Shown here are MacCollege coaches Smith and Keim, with track star Ron Anderson. Anderson set a new record in the Doane Relays last year, throwing the discus 147' 9 1/2". He also holds the MacCollege discus record with 155' 6".

MacCollege Girl Cagers Beat McPherson High 40-35

Monday night's MacCollege freshmen girls posted a 40-35 victory over the McPherson High School girls in a keenly contested cage tilt.

The victory evened up the record as the college girls had been defeated by three points in the initial meeting.

The fray was closely officiated by Wayne Price, and a total of 59 fouls were called. Highest individual scorer for the night was Eleanor Decker from McPherson High with a total of 24 points. Other high scorers for Mac High were Carolyn Cling, Sharon Peterson, and Judy Wiggins.

The MacCollege scoring was distributed between Marlene Lauver and Sharon Shrock. Lauver received a total of 18 and Shrock 13. Shirley Bowen, Ann Schnaitman, and Elma Holmes collected 6, 2, and 1 in that sequence.

Defensive chore for the night was predominantly shared by Ruth Hanagarne, Ann Schnaitman, Miriam Long, Bev Evans, and Elma Holmes.

The freshmen girls are anticipating at least one more game for the season with the Bethany College sextette.

Bethel Loses Bid To KC Tournament

Pittsburg State had a big first half and Bethel had a bad start, and the Gorillas marched off with the first of a 2 out of 3 series for the right to play in the Kansas City small college tourney. Bethel lost, 75-67.

Bethel was hurt by the last-minute inelegibility of center Arlie Loeffler, because of low grades. Eck, who fouled out in the last few minutes, was high for Bethel, with 22 points. Sugar Cain and Bruce Palmer led the Gorillas with 22 and 21 points.

Pittsburg also took the next night's game, at Pittsburg, 103-79. Bethel founedered badly against the taller Gorillas. Pittsburg's starting five is four inches taller than the Bethel team, which gives them almost an inch per man.
