

Seven Seniors Share Who's Who Honors

Campus Leaders To Be Listed In National Student Directory

Seven McPherson College seniors who have been selected for Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges are: Leland Lengel, Norman Long, Eula Mae Murray, Max Parmley, Donald Lee Ullom, Mary Elizabeth Swinger, and Bob Wise. This high honor goes to some of the busiest persons on campus.

Selections for Who's Who are made on the basis of personality, scholarship, service, contribution to the college and potential contribution to society after college is completed.

Don Ullom

Leland Lengel

Max Parmley

Norman Long

Mary Elizabeth Swinger

Bob Wise

Leland Lengel, a 21-year-old senior majoring in history, and working towards his Ph.D., is from Windsor, Colo. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lengel.

Other organizations which he is serving as president of include Student Court, which he says at times gives him headaches which asprin don't help, and the senior class. He has served as president of Players' Club, and A Cappella Choir.

Leland was one of the originators of the International Relations Club and is now serving on the steering committee for that group.

He was a member of A Cappella Choir for three years, and has sung bass in the varsity male quartet for three years.

He is student assistant to Dr. Raymond Flory, has been active in peace group SCA, and CBYF, and was out for football and track for one year.

Roommates

Donald Lee Ullom, another 21-year-old senior from Colorado and a roommate of Leland Lengel for all of his college days, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Ullom of Wiley, Colo. Don, who is majoring in business administration, is also fulfilling requirements for a secondary teaching certificate.

As a varsity debater and orator for three years, Don was one of the McPherson College's representatives at the National Pi Kappa Delta tournament in Redlands last spring. He is both president and past vice-president of the local Omicron chapter of Pi Kappa Delta.

Don juggles the figures for a number of college organizations. He is present business manager of Quadrangle and treasurer for Fahnestock Hall and past president of the junior class and CBYF.

Last spring Don received one of two junior scholarship awards for high scholastic standing; he received a similar award at the close of his sophomore year.

Besides being a member of Student Council, Don is serving as student assistant to Dr. John Burkholder for the third year, and has a janitorship in Fahnestock Hall.

He played football his first two years in college and changed over to tennis last year.

In addition to playing in the band for three years, he has been in both Chapel and Church Choir and has been a member of Players' Club, SCA, and MCMC. Last year he was circulation manager of the Spectator and was on the peace group steering committee.

Eula Mae Murray

Besides being a member of the Varsity Male Quartet for two years, Max has taken six semesters of organ and has given organ, piano, and duo-piano numbers at church functions.

Max serves as a member of Student Court; he is also a member of the SCA cabinet and has served on the CBYF cabinet and peace group steering committee. He also has a janitorship in Fahnestock Hall.

IYFE Student

Eula Mae Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Murray of Conway, is the other Kansan to receive Who's Who honors for McPherson College.

Eula Mae is terminating five months as an International Farm Youth Exchange Student in Belgium and will soon be back on McPherson College Campus.

McPherson students chose Eula Mae Homecoming Queen a year ago. Eula Mae was president of Pep Club last year and served as cheerleader the year before that. She is a past member of Church Choir and a member of SCA and WAA.

She is president of WAA this year and has served as secretary and also vice-president of that organization in past years.

She has been a member of Student Court for three years. Last year she represented extracurricular activities on Student Council.

She was debater for one year, the secretary of SCA, a member of the Ladies' Trio and a member of Church Choir one year, and A Cappella Choir two years.

Last year playing the violin in the orchestra; this year, she was a member of the band one year and was in the saxophone quartet.

Definite plans for the future are already being carried out by Mary Elizabeth. She will finish her final semester of work before Christmas vacation and become the bride of Charles Petty on Dec. 27. The couple will make their home in Lawndale, Calif. Liz plans to receive her degree from McPherson College in absentia this spring.

Student Council President

President of Student Council and the only Minnesotan on MacColl's list of Who's Who this year is Norman Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Long of Worthington, Minn.

Norman, a sociology major, is a student minister who plans to attend Bethany Seminary next year. Norman is a member of the Regional cabinet and served as president of that group for two years.

He has been a member of the SCA cabinet and has served the sophomore class as president. Norman has been active on both the student ministers and peace group steering committees, being a founder of the last group.

A Vesper Musicale will be presented by the Music Department Sunday, Nov. 13, at 4 p.m. The Musicale is a part of the Regional Conference program and will be held at the High School Auditorium.

Winston Cassler, who graduated from MacColl in '27 and is now affiliated with St. Olaf's School in Northfield, Minn.

was a small bulldog with a green beanie on, looking up, and on an upper corner was a large bulldog with a graduation cap on, looking at the "Victory."

The Recreational Council decoration was a bulldog with a net in his teeth and a couple of ducks struggling in the net. A sign said the net was "Mac's dragnet" and another sign said "Drag 'em bulldogs."

The M Club used the idea of "We thrive on Quaker oats." There were several football men sitting around a table eating from steaming bowls of Quaker oats. A Quaker oat was hanging on the table, and a wall and stove were on one side, suggesting the football players were in a room.

The Home Economics Club decoration was the fish with two feet sticking out of its mouth. A sign said, "Swallow all but de'feet"

McPherson College's newly formed College Male Quartet will begin a tour of all Nebraska churches except that of Enders on Sunday, Nov. 6. The tour will continue until November 13. Pictured from right to left are Leroy Buskirk, Darlus Miller, Don Simpson, and Dwight Oltman. All of them are sopranos, except Darlus, and he is a junior. Paul Waggoner, Alumni Secretary, will accompany the group.

Fellows Win First Prize

Winners of the $30 first prize for the homecoming decorations last Saturday were the Fahnestock Hall boys.

The second prize of $20 went to the sophomore class and the freshman class won the third prize of $10.

There were five honorable mentions who received prize money of $5 each. They were the Recreation Council, the M Club, the Home Economics Club, the junior class, and the senior class.

Fahnestock Hall, the boys' dormitory, became "The Victory Station" with the "Last train leaving at 10:05 p.m." The engine of the train featured a duck catcher and a bulldog engineer; the coal car was filled with duck feathers, the garbage car had ducks hanging in it; and on the caboose was written, "The end of the line for Friends."

The Fahnestock Hall committee on decorations which produced the first place homecoming decoration consisted of Royce Roach, chairman, Don Colberg, and James Van Blaricom. Other helping hands who spent hours of work helping were Vernon Scott, Ed Butler, Chuck Ebert and Leon Neher.

"It's in the book" was the theme of the freshman class decoration. An open book which had the word "Victory" written across the pages covered the front entrance to MacColl Hall.

Off one lower corner of the book decorations went to the boys of huge cardboard train and used a record for sound effect. The committee in charge of this winner was Royce Roach, chairman; Don Colberg, and James Van Blaricom.

Quaker oats box was tilted slightly in order to portray the pouring out of the five 2-foot tall Quaker men. "Chew 'em up" was painted on a sign nearby.

The junior class decoration was the chicken laying eggs and the sign which said, "We're laying for Friends."

The senior class decoration was the "Meditation" painting hanging on the library with several Quaker men shown sitting around a table. The inscription was "They have reason to be silent" for the football score was 100-6 in favor of the Bulldogs.

LET'S TAKE OUR FRIENDS

Absent-Minded Profs Prove They Can Remember Tests

Nine-week tests have the odd characteristic of appearing each nine weeks. While they may be overlooked by some students, even the most absent-minded professor remembers this event.

Since MacCollege appears to have no absent-minded professors, the students have been industriously taking "quizzes" — as the profs fondly call them — this week.

It is not that this has been a complete surprise to the students. In fact, it is quite the contrary. The teachers have been giving mention of this four-weeks-a-quiz for the last eight weeks. It is just that until they did, students closed their ears and so are a bit unprepared for it since it is here.

The tests are only the results of earlier preparations. The length of the preparations vary according to the student, professor, and subject matter. The professor and subject matter are the same for everyone in one class, but the student is the varying factor.

All sorts of mad dashes are being made by students to get all caught up on their school work. Some are suddenly inspired to read their lessons before a test on the theory that with the material fresh in mind they will be able to pass the test.

The fun really begins should one have a roommate who has dutifully done his studying all along and can go to bed by 9:30 p.m. This is possible as everyone else who might make any noise is studying so hard himself that he has no time to disturb those who are sleeping.

The dormitory has become a more conducive place for studying than it has been all year, unless, of course, five or six all get together to study for the same test.

The only solution is to either join them or leave. One student who does not wait until the last minute is at an advantage. He finds that with review he has the material well in mind. Since he has completed his outside work and daily assignments, he can devote time to review and sleep.

Unfortunately, few reach this ideological state and are working frantically at the last minute. All now realize that a mid-semester's work can hardly be condensed into one week, no matter how diligently one attempts to accomplish just that.

Following the tests, everyone solemnly says to himself that never again will he let so many things go until the last minute. He is going to start right now and improve his ways. Who knows, this may be the time that he sticks to his promise.

Student Ministers Speak . . . Cooperation

By Cliff Tusing

"United We Stand Divided We Fall."

Those famous words, spoken by Abraham Lincoln almost a century ago, are six of the truest words ever uttered. Perhaps we can use the words cooperation and lack of cooperation as synonymous for united and divided.

Nations living apart from each other with a lack of cooperation cannot grow and develop effectively nor assume their responsibilities as dependable leaders in our world.

We can see from the Civil War of Lincoln's time that a nation divided against itself cannot stand. To make this idea a little more personal, a home in which there is constant fear, arguing, and non-cooperation cannot stand.

People without God in their lives are incomplete. Thus, there is a challenge for each of us to keep God in our lives everyday through prayer, by reading His Word, and by doing something worthwhile for our fellowmen.

We can never hope to achieve, support, or maintain world peace and brotherhood until we can unite in cooperation with our neighbors toward one great purpose in furthering the work of the kingdom, with God as our leader. Each of us, as individuals, as families, and as nations must have the love of Christ in our hearts, stronger faith in God, and a deeper sense of trust and cooperation with others to really bring about "peace on earth, goodwill toward men."

Korean Delegate Visits Daughter In McPherson

Mr. Kim, father-in-law of Guan Jo, a junior from Korea, gave a 25 minute speech on the international relationship between Korea and the United States. Guan Jo acted as interpreter to Mr. Kim who speaks very little English.

"In my war-torn country reconstruction is slow, but our economic conditions are improving with the help of the United Nations and the United States," Delegate Kim said.

You in America don't know what it is to live under the communist rule," was another statement made by Mr. Kim, after telling of the difficulties of having a divided country.

There is no trade between the two halves of the divided nation, but there is a trickle of North Koreans coming south into South Korea by secret routes.

Players Prepare KTVH Appearance

Thursday, Nov. 10, at 4 p.m. the Players Club will present a television program on KTVH. They will present a few scenes from the play, "Noah."

The first scene will be Noah greeting the animals as they come into the ark. The second will be a conversation between Noah and Ham, when Ham accuses Noah of foolishly taking them on this fruitless journey.

The part of Noah is played by Ken Fancher and Stan Krebsel is Ham. The animal parts are Lamb, Kay Chimney; Cow, Donna Davidson; Monkey, Kathy Burkholder; Lion, Mary Beth Tolle; Wolf, Mary Alice Smith; Bear, Irvin Wagner; and Giraffe, Duane File.

America, perhaps partly because we are new, has lots of energy and is not inhibited by clinging to old traditions. Consequently, we sell our materials and dispel our ideas among the entire world family.

Since World War II, our young men of the military have been stationed in almost every part of the world. As a result, the "American way of life" is pressing itself into the earth's farthest corners.

This "American way of life" is usually characterized more by the things we make and consume than by our ideas and philosophies. It is almost impossible to drive along any street in the world now without seeing signs for Coca Cola. It is possible to buy hot dogs, pop corn, cosmetics, American clothing, American cars, and some American farm machinery in almost every land.

In many lands, the local newspapers are now incorporating American comic strips, the balloons are filled with dialogue in the language of the country. Some modern American kitchen equipment can be found even in remote areas. Where the kitchen areas are not large enough to include them inside, modern American refrigerators may sit on front porches.

Self-service super markets, American style, are beginning to be established across the world.

American advertising, likewise, is finding its way into the newspapers of the world; it is possible to buy South American children or Asian children dressed in Roy Rogers or Davy Crockett costumes.

Perhaps most widespread is our movies. Some of our class B movies find their way even into the interior of Africa. Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck are known in all lands.

The question is, are some of our finer things going along? What about our educational system? What about our religious faith? What about relaxed recreation, which we are ourselves seeking to cultivate and discover? What about our better movies?

If we can carry some of these things along with our chewing gum and comic strips, we can make a much better impression around the world.

It is good for us to discover, also, that we can learn many things from the other nations. If, as we share with them, we will also receive from them, we will all better achieve the friendly, co-operating, sharing world community.

A double-edged student exchange in which we not only receive students, but also send students, is one of the most helpful prospects in this direction.

We can be proud that McPherson College has pioneered in this direction.

Extra-Curricular Activity?

Each year McPherson College graduates people prepared in education to teach in Kansas high schools. These teachers may be teaching a great variety of subjects because of the financial situation in the smaller high schools. The smaller schools are in the majority and have an enrollment of 200 or fewer students.

People trained in the English field may also have to handle speech and dramatics. The smaller school is interested in having someone who is capable of taking care of several areas.

Speech is being introduced in many high schools and is becoming a realized element in education according to surveys taken recently in Kansas. In a recent survey taken by George Goodrich (University of Wichita) 80 per cent of the administrators feel a definite need for a qualified speech person in their school. Moreover, better than 90 per cent of the administrators feel that speech training should be a requisite for the secondary certificate.

In course work offerings on co-curricular activities, production of plays leads the field with two of the following activities being mentioned with equal frequency as a secondary activity: Declamatory work; Oratory; Extemporaneous Speaking.

Teachers in the field feel that the following college courses have helped them the most in the teaching of speech: 1. Speech class, 2. play production, 3. debate, 4. dramatics, and 5. extemp. speech.

Bowers-Youngs

Mr. and Mrs. David A. L. Bowers of Roanoke, La., announced the engagement of their daughter, Diane, to William Youngs, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Youngs of San Francisco, Calif.

Miss Bowers and Youngs are both freshmen at McPherson College and both plan to complete four years of college. The couple met a year ago while Youngs was stationed in Roanoke.

No wedding date has been set.

Schechter-Peteish

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schechter of Worthington, Minn., announced the engagement of their daughter, Beverly, to Vernon Peteish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peteish of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Miss Schechter is in her junior year in nurses training at Abbott Hospital in Minneapolis, Minn.

Peteish is a junior at McPherson College and plans to graduate from the college.

No definite wedding plans have been made.

Teacher Exams Scheduled To Be Given On Feb. 11

PRINCETON, N.J., October 28 - The National Teacher Examinations, prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, will be given at 200 testing centers throughout the United States on Saturday, Feb. 11, 1956.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Information, General Culture, English Expression, and Non-Verbal Reasoning; and one or two of ten Optional Examinations designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter to be taught.

The college which a candidate is attending, or the school system in which he is seeking employment, will advise him whether he should take the National Teacher Examinations and which of the Optional Examinations to select.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information describing registration procedure and containing sample test questions may be obtained from college officials, school superintendents, or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey.

Completed applications, accompanied by proper examination fees, will be accepted by the ETS office during November and December, and in January so long as they are received before Jan. 13, 1956.

Mrs. Wilbert Erisman, of Fairview, Mo., is on the campus visiting her daughter, Nancy, who is in the college infirmary convalescing from a tonsillectomy. Incidentally, the infirmary looks like a floral shop with all the flowers Nancy got. She received lots of cards and visitors also, which should help her recover quickly.

Shirley Wright left last week end to spend a week with her family in Kansas City, Kan.

Marlene Jamison went to Baldwin, Kas. last weekend.

Hallowen on the campus was a rather mild event this year, with only a few added attractions. The Recreation Council had a party Monday night which required that all those attending dress like little children. Some of the costumes were very realistic and convincing.

Another phase of Hallowen was the humorists that went around knocking on dorm rooms and saying "Trick or Treat" when everyone was studying for nine-week day.

Arnold Hall had open house last Sunday, and the residents had a few visitors. The girls from Dotzour went over and ate the refreshments, and this Sunday the boys from Arnold will have the opportunity to come over to Dotzour and do the same. Dotzour Hall open house will be this Sunday.

The decorations on the campus added to the spirit of homecoming last weekend. There were some clever ideas displayed, and they must have really influenced the Bulldogs because they sent the Quakers pretty sad.

Some of the homecoming visitors were not included in last issue's column.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McSpadden, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Ullom, and Miss Joann Walters were on the campus from Wiley, Colo., visiting Anna McSpadden and Don Ullom.

There were two carloads of visitors for the week end from Fernald, Ia.

Earl Kipp, of Lusk, Wyo., visited the campus several days last week end.

Mrs. Virgil Jarboe and Dale Jarboe were on the campus last week visiting Evelyn Jarboe.

There was a Kansas State Teachers conference in Salina on Thursday and many McPherson teachers and students attended. The FTA organization and the Introduction to Education class attended.

Congratulations and best wishes to the couples who were engaged over homecoming week end: Bill Youngs and Diane Bowers and Vernon Peteish and Beverly Schechter.

Earlene Muller moved onto the Macampus last week. She and Dee Bowman are sharing one of the apartments in Kline Hall, and they are both working in McPherson.

WPA Begins On Macampus

WPA week is Nov. 4-12. It is being sponsored by the SCA. WPA stands for women-poll. It gives the girls an opportunity to ask for dates and to pick up the bills.

Some of the activities coming up to which the girls can ask the fellows are the football game tonight and the skating party to be held at Lyons tomorrow night.

Other girls are planning group parties and picnics.

Sellers, Walin

Miss Marjorie Sellers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellers of 1109 Fairview Road, became the bride of Don Walin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lobban of Seattle, Wash., on Oct. 24.

Rev. Harry K. Zeller, Jr., solemnized the ceremony in the Memory Chapel of the McPherson Church of the Brethren.

Ardith Sellers attended her sister as maid of honor; Ronald Goss, friend of the groom and freshman at McPherson college, was best man.

The bride wore a straight-length beige dress and carried an orchid corsage on a white Bible.

The couple took a short honeymoon in the eastern part of the state.

The groom is engaged in farming on a location east and north of McPherson. The bride is a freshman at McPherson College.

McPherson Steam Rollers Friends In Homecoming Game

Maccollege Bulldogs trounced the Friends Quakers in a smashing 43 to 6 victory in the Homecoming game. More than 2,000 fans witnessed the Kansas Conference game in the College Stadium.

Even though the Bulldogs did look good at times, they did not function as smoothly as they did the week previous in defeating Kansas Wesleyan 32 to 12.

Ed Wolf and Ron Sams each made two touchdowns for the Maccollege team. Dwayne Jeffries, Galen Stucky, and Tom Ragland chalked up one touchdown apiece. Merle Rolfs made the lone extra point for the Mac side.

Sams made the most yardage on the ground for the Bulldogs. He carried the ball 21 times for 110 yards, Ragland six times for 12 yards, Wolf 12 times for 77 yards, but he was thrown for 39 yards' loss, mainly when he attempted to pass and was given no protection.

George Casebeer carried seven times for 28, Bobby Bean four times for 38, Marvin Keck twice for 16, Galen Stucky twice for 13, Jeffries twice for 10, and Bill Smith once for 19.

Friends Kicks-off

Friends kicked off at the start of the game but the Bulldogs lost the ball on downs on the Friends 31. Friends failed to gain and punted, with Maccollege returning to Friends 42. Behind the effective blocking of Ron Sams, Ed Wolf scored on the first play but Rolfs failed to kick the extra point.

Macpherson kicked off after the touchdown and the Bulldogs returned to their own 29. After making only seven yards on three plays, Friends punted and Wolf, aided by good blocking support, returned the ball to the Friends 31. Three plays later Wolf passed to Bill Smith who lateralized to Jim Snyder who reached the one-yard line before being brought down.

Wolf then smashed over to score after four minutes and 10 seconds of the game had been played. Sams attempted the kick for the extra point but failed.

Friends fumbled the Bulldog kickoff and Steve Bersuch recovered on the Friends 27. A long drive could not develop and Macpherson lost the ball on downs. Friends attempted to pass but Ron Sams recovered a Friends fumble after the pass had been completed on the Macpherson 43.

Macs Scores Again

The first period ended with Rolfs going 19 yards for the first down to the Friends four-yard stripe after making three first downs in a row. On the third play Jeffries plowed from the one-yard line for a TD. Rolfs kick was unsuccessful. Macpherson had a short offside kick at the kickoff and Ron Sams recovered the Friends fumble on the mid-stripe line, but several plays later the Bulldogs lost the ball on a fumble on the Friends 30. Another fumble later, Wolf intercepted a Friends pass and returned it to his own 24.

In two plays Macpherson made a first down. Bob Bean made two first downs in a row, 14-yard gains each to reach the Friends 35, and then Sams broke away through off tackle to score from 32 yards out. Rolfs kicked the extra point.

Half Ends

After the kickoff and Friends took over on their own 31, Wolf intercepted another Quaker ball and returned it to the Friends 38. Five plays later the half ended with Macpherson on Friends 14-yard line.

Early in the third period the Bulldogs took over on their own 8-yard line but could not get a drive into operation. Friends then tried but failed and punted, and Bulldogs took over on the 47. Behind the effective blocking of Sams, Wolf got away for 47 yards to score. Rolfs kick was no good.

Stucky Scores

A few minutes later, Friends returned McPherson's kickoff to their own 18, but Marlin Sittner recovered a Quaker fumble on the Friends nine and on the first play Galen Stucky smashed over to score. Wolf's attempted kick was off the extra point went wide. Macpherson scored its three touchdowm in less than four minutes.

Late in the same period, after Coach Sid Smith had used many of his reserves, Friends started a drive on its own 31 but it bogged down and they had to punt. McPherson took over on its own 30. Earl Guist broke away along the sideline for 63 yards to cross the goal line, but the TD was called back because of a penalty on the McPherson team.

After failing to gain the Bulldogs punted only two yards to the McPherson 26. Preston Kelley on the first play went 26 yards to score. Friends' only touchdown of the game. Canfield attempted to kick for the extra point but failed.

Bob Wise recovered a Friends fumble on the kickoff on the Friends 44, and on the first play Sams broke for 57 yards to score. Wolf's attempted pass for the conversion failed.

Penalty Nullifies TD

Early in the fourth period Ragland intercepted a Friends pass and returned it to the Quaker 14.

With Casebeer, K. Stucky, and Keck doing most of the ground gaining, Smith tossed a pass to Sid Smith who went over to score, but again the touchdown was nullified by a penalty.

Friends failed to make headway and punted, and McPherson took over on its own 30. On the first play Ragland zig-zagged his way 50 yards to score. K. Stucky attempted a pass for the extra point but it was not completed.

A little later Ragland intercepted another Friends pass, Larry Sams intercepted another, and Ragland made a 20-yard gain around end to reach the Friends 26 as the game ended.
