11 Students Go To Work Camp

Eleven students represented Macollege at the Camp Spring Lake Work Camp last week-end.

Two car loads left Friday at 3 p.m. for Cordell, Okla. They stopped for supper at the home of Dwayne Jeffries in Ringwood, Okla.

This group, along with 18 other people from the district, began work Saturday morning.

Projects included painting the swimming pool, trimming trees, and repairing beds, benches, and a bridge.

On Saturday night the campers went for a short hike stopping at a campfire to have a worship service.

The campers had charge of the Sunday morning services in the Cordell church.

Doris Davidson, Lois Fager, and Leon Neher taught Sunday School classes.

JoAnn Negley led the singing while Joan Furry played the piano.

The sermon consisted of three parts entitled "Why I Am a Christian," "Why I Am a Brethren," and "Why I Believe in CBYF."

These talks were given by Dwayne Jeffries, Dean Stump, and Dorothy Kurtz. Leon Neher closed the service.

Those attending the work camp from Macollege were: Ruth Barcelo, Doris Davidson, Lois Fager, Joan Furry, Dwayne Jeffries, John Likhite, JoAnn Negley, Leon Neher, Earl Spitzer, Terry Spitzer, and Don Westmoreland.

Weather Disrupts Spring Sports

Macollege's booming undefeated tennis team has their next meet on Tuesday April 23. This is the same day Easter vacation ends and is scheduled for the hope court at 1 p.m. with Baker University.

The racket team has a sharp looking record of 4 wins and no losses to date and have dropped only 2 sets in all the competition to date.

Although having a very disrupted track season, with only one meet before Easter, vacation, the track squad are training as much as possible, sometimes with the aid of snow shoes.

Wednesday was the first meet in league competition for the fellows this year. It is far from easy for an athlete to pull into shape even in favorable weather. Old man weather has been making it a bit rough to maintain the physical fitness needed for the constant running so essential in track.

Despite the rain and snow, Macollege should have a strong squad to compete with the other Kansas Conference teams due to the rigorous training schedule being undertaken by its track squad.

April 30 Is Deadline For Dorm Reservations

Room reservation fees of $10 should be paid to the Business Office by April 30 for all students who are planning to return. If the fee is paid before this date, the present students will be given preference over new students.

Sometime after April 30 the various dorms will hold meetings for the choosing of the definite rooms.

He too serves a certain purpose who only stands and cheers. — Henry Brooks Adams.

Ready For Delving . . . New History Books Added To Mac's Beeghly Library

History of today and yesterday is the topic of many of the library's new books.

The Middle East in World Affairs by George Lenczowski brings an older edition up to date by covering the revolts in Cyprus, England's departure from Suez, and the influence of Russia.

The Ideas of Arab Nationalism by Hazem Zaki Nuseibeh relates the history of Arab nationalism and discusses Arab political thought of today.

The author is well qualified to write on this subject, because he is an Arab active in his government and is familiar with the West having received his Ph. D. in political science from Princeton University.

Poland: White Eagle on a Red Field by Samuel L. Sharp analyzes the difficult problem of Polish independence against a background of ten centuries of Polish history.

The Gentleman of Renaissance France by William Leon Wiley describes the social position, manners and dress, education, life, code of honor, and beliefs of a gentleman in sixteenth-century France.

Hawaii: A Century of Economic Change, 1778-1876 by Theodore Morgan tells the story of Hawaii from the time of Captain Cook to the signing of the Reciprocity Treaty with the United States.

The Atlantic Civilization: Eighteenth-Century Origins by Michael Kraus deals with the interplay of culture between the Old World and the New, showing how changes came about on both sides of the Atlantic as a result.

Colonists from Scotland: Emigration to North America, 1707-1783 by Ian C. C. Graham presents both the American and the Scottish aspects of the emigration and tells of the part played by Scots in the American Revolution.

Matthew Brady: Historian with a Camera by James D. Horan is a biography of a famous Civil War photographer who took his pictures with an eye to their historical significance. About 500 of his pictures are included.

Pondering With The President . . .

What Does Easter Mean?

As you who are students go hurrying off across the miles to your homes for vacation, I would like to make these suggestions:

1. Easter is the time of beginning again. It is good that it comes at springtime, for Easter and springtime belong together.

Easter means the stirring of animals that have been in hibernation. It means the birth of little lambs in various parts of the world. It means that winter is gone; spring has come.

In many parts of the world, instead of having the new year come in January, they have it start with the bursting of spring, with the coming of Easter.

Vacationing really does not fit into this Eastertime very well. It fits the college picture, however, for we want you to be at home with your family. We want you to attend a great Easter celebration.

We want you to have a new birth of spiritual life at Eastertime.

2. Easter means also that life is not to be lived with a defeat-ist attitude, but rather with a feeling of success.

Prior to Easter, our Lord was laid in the tomb. His disciples were discouraged. Defeatism swept over them. Then came Easter and the tomb was broken; the stone was rolled away. The Lord came forth, living.

We would like for any who are discouraged to take a new lease on courage at Eastertime. Even death is not a matter of sorrow. It is only an entranceway to a greater, more glorious, and everlasting life.

May any of you who have been discouraged take on new heart at Eastertime.

3. Easter means also that the task of salvation has been fulfilled. God and our Saviour have done their part. We need only accept that to become a part of the Kingdom.

This Kingdom should be lived joyously, fruitfully, helpfully here. If we enter into it that way, it has no end.

May your Easter vacation be joyful. May Easter mean these things to you.

"FRANKLY I'D RATHER ADVISE FRESHMEN—THEY'RE NOT SO SET IN THEIR WAYS."

The 23rd Psalm

By Roy L. Stern
Educationalist's Version
Education is my shepherd, I shall not want;
He maketh me to stay up all night;
He leadeth me along the unending bookshelves.
He crammeth my mind;
He leadeth me to the semester exams for my teacher's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of depressiveness, I will fear no mental blocks; for thou art with me; thy psychiatrist and sociologists, they comfort me.
Thou preparest an education before me in the presence of the world's billion uneducated people.
Thou annoimest my mind with fantastic ideas.

Surely Psychiatrists and sociologists shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the psychiatric wards
