Bittinger Helps Solicit

McPherson College is participating again this year in the Kansas Foundation of Private Colleges and Universities.

Dr. D. W. Bittinger has been in Wichita this week to help solicit money from business firms in that city.

He is on a committee of 20 other Christian college presidents working on this project. They expected to call on at least 400 business firms during the week.

The money received will be divided among all the colleges.

Friends University, Wichita, is the latest institution to be admitted to membership and brings the number of Kansas institutions affiliated with the organization to 20.

Dr. Robert Mortvedt, Bethany College, is president of the Foundation this year.

The Foundation, which was organized in 1952, has as its purpose unified solicitation of support from corporations and business firms.

Last year member institutions shared in some $61,000 in gifts and grants from 102 donors.

The Kansas Foundations was the 12th such state group to incorporate. Organized solicitations first began in 1948 in Indiana, which last year received $602,300 from 289 donors. Ohio, which incorporated in December of 1950, last year received $601,065 from 615 donors.

With the beginning of the 1956-57 school year, member colleges and universities are planning an even more extensive drive for support in the face of a growing national awareness of the nation's education needs.

Presidents of each of the member institutions will solicit in teams, with each president pledged to spend 15 days a year for the Foundation.

The new college demonstration farm includes a total of 240 acres. A two-story brick residence, a large frame barn, a granary and other buildings are located on the farm. John Ward, rural life director, and his family are now living on the farm.

Conference Season Opens With Bethel Tilt

Bulldogs To Play First Away Game

Tonight the Bulldogs play their first conference game of the season against Bethel College at Newton. The game will begin at 8 p.m. at the Bethel stadium. The Bethel Graymaroons will not be as rough a team as both Kearney and Doane College were, but they will not be any pushover for the Bulldogs. Returning on the Bethel Squad will be 19 lettermen.

Bethel lost their game against Northwest Oklahoma Teachers this last weekend in a score of 31-25. In this game Bethel showed terrific power on offense, so the Bulldogs will have to sharpen up on defense for the game this week end.

Bethel's backfield will be led by George Goering, Francis Funk, Cot Graber and Clayton Kaufman, who make up a light but fast bunch of running backs. The team captains are Cot Graber and Red Goering.

The past records of previous meetings of the two teams are very one-sided. Of the 31 meetings of Bethel and McPherson, the Bulldogs have won 21 times and lost only 9 times.

Although the Bethel team is not rated very high in conference standings they will be a spirited bunch and good competition for the Bulldogs. They are coached by Mill Goering who is starting his third year as head coach at Bethel.

Team Practices Cross-Country

The first meet for the new Macollege cross-country team will be Saturday, Oct. 13. The cross-country team has been practicing for the last two weeks.

Those out for the cross-country squad are Marion Johnson, Larry Werner, Kenny Singleton, Bernard Whitley, Terry Weddle, John Likhite, Marvin Weddle, Don Colberg, Dick Bittinger, John Heidebrecht, James Devine, and Carl Williams.

Forward Passes

By Jim Devine

With the passing of the baseball season this week goes the shift of interest from baseball to football. From the results of the opening games this week and last week we are able to surmise that the usual upsets are going to make this season a memorable one for many players, coaches and fans.

Although the perennial favorites seem to hold their grip on the important positions, Maryland and Notre Dame have already tasted defeat at the hands of opponents with a lesser degree of national football stature.

Outside of Oklahoma the Big Seven shapes up to be one of the best matched conferences for second place in college football. Four of the five teams which played last Saturday dropped their contests to rather powerful opposition.

Missouri's team, which was predicted to have the best chance for the Orange Bowl, was upset by Oregon State. Sixth rated TCU rolled over Kansas, but the Jayhawks are a much improved squad over last season.

Oklahoma A & M took the measure of Kansas State 27 to 7. The Wildcats should be tough this year. Another Oregon team, Oregon University, trounced Colorado. The Buffs do not seem as strong as they have been in recent years.

Nebraska raced away from a fumbling South Dakota crew by 34 to 6 margin. As the only victorious Big Seven team, Nebraska showed a surprising ground strength. Iowa State did not play. The nation's number one football team, the Oklahoma University Sooners were also idle.

Bob Wilkinson, Sooner coach, is using the crying towel because his charges are heavy favorites over North Carolina. Although North Carolina lost its first encounter to North Carolina State 26 to 6, Bud says he would be "happy to win by a single point."

Rolfs, Roberts Head Team

Merle Rolfs
Louis Roberts
Co-captains of this year's Macollege Bulldogs are Louis Roberts and Merle Rolfs.

Louie Roberts is a 165 pound center who hails from Quinter, Kas. He lettered twice on his high school team, and has accomplished the same at Mac.

Lou is a senior and is playing Moyer, '49, is the director.

A coffee hour for students and alumni will be held after the game.

Decoration assignments for homecoming are as follows: Alumni Office - Sharp Hall, Dotzour Hall residents - Dotzour Hall, Kline Hall residents - Kline Hall, Fahnestock Hall residents - Fahnestock Hall, Arnold Hall residents - Arnold Hall, M. C. A. - Harnly Hall.

Freshman Class - Front entrance, Players Club - Front half of circle drive - south, Phi Alpha Theta - Front half of circle drive - north, Home Ec Club - Back half of circle drive - south, W. A. A. - Back half of circle drive - north, M Club - gymnasium, Ag Club - Frantz Hall.

Spectator - South side of circle drive - front third, Skate Club - South side of circle drive - middle third, F. T. A. - South side of circle drive - back third, Recreational Council - North side of circle drive - front third.

Sophomore Class - north side of circle drive - middle third, Junior Class - North side of circle drive - back third, Senior Class - Library, Pep Club - Eshelman Street facing Dotzour - north third.

If any other groups are interested in decorating a part of the campus, please contact the alumni office for space.

Organizations who desire a change of location or do not understand instructions please contact Paul Wagoner in the alumni office.

All decorations must be completed and in place by 11 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 20. Judging starts at 11:30 a.m. Prizes will be announced during the game.

KCAC Offers Tough Race

Competition in the Kansas College Athletic Conference is going to be plenty stiff (this year for all the teams involved. All the teams in the league seem to be shaping up well for the season ahead.

Among the top teams, College of Emporia will be very strong again this year. They won their first conference game against Friends College in a score of 27-19. Friends is also one of the stronger teams in the league.

Following these two, Ottawa, Baker, and possibly Kansas Wesleyan will also have strong teams this year. McPherson, Bethel, and Bethany are not rated quite as high as the others.

In the non-conference games played last weekend, Ottawa was badly defeated by William Jewell of Missouri, 35-7. Baker nudged Southwestern 7-6, and Kansas Wesleyan beat Nebraska Wesleyan 29-6.

McPherson was edged out by Doane College from Nebraska 14-7, and Bethany was badly beaten by Sterling 22-0. Bethel College lost a close game to Northwest Oklahoma Teachers in a score of 31-25.

All in all the general opinion seems to be that the Conference will be stronger this year than last, and the race for first place will undoubtedly be a close and hard-fought one.

M Club Initiates New Members

M Club initiation was held Monday night in the gym. Eleven new members were admitted to the club after following the initiation practices during the day.

Those initiated were Bob Nelson, basketball; Huston Pulford, basketball; Gaylen Rodgers, basketball; Jerry McPherson, basketball; Don Widrig, basketball and track.

Other track boys were Gene Elliott, Richard Heidebrecht, James DeVine, Richard Bittinger, and Mario Oltman. Don Cole was awarded a football letter.

Hayes Has Prize Pumpkins At Fair

Macollege Professor Guy Hayes won 1st and 3rd prizes on his pumpkins and Cushman squash at the Kansas State Fair held last week in Hutchinson.

At the close of the fair the winning vegetables were displayed in the window of the McPherson Daily Republican office.

Prof. Hayes reports that he raised a large garden this summer. The past several weeks this garden has produced fresh tomatoes both for the college cafeteria and for use at The Cedars. Many nice cantaloupe have also been given away by the Hayes'.

Bulldogs Show Strength, Lose Game To Doane 14-7

McPherson College Bulldogs lost their second game of the season to non-conference Doane College, 14-7. However, the team made a much better showing this week than they did last week against Kearney.

The two teams were fairly even according to statistics in their playing. McPherson earned 19 first downs to Doane's 16, and netted 248 yards rushing in comparison to 250 yards by the opposing team. The Bulldogs passing attack was also improved.

Doane scored in the first and third periods and McPherson scored once in the third. McPherson reached the 5 yard line twice in the first half and was on the 13 yard line in the fourth quarter, but lost the ball twice on downs and once on a fumble.

Doane's first touchdown was made in the first quarter by Myron Jasnoch on a 28 yard run around right end. The other touchdown was made by the right halfback Rick Gibson in the third period, and Jim Herman kicked extra points for both touchdowns.

McPherson's only touchdown was made on a long drive starting with the Doane kick-off in the third period. Marvin Keck plunged over the goal from the two yard line, and Merle Rolfs kicked the extra point.

Eight Mac backs saw action during the game. They were Richard Heidebrecht, Merle Rolfs, Galen Stucky, Ed Wolf, Marvin Keck, Kenny Stucky, Dwayne Jeffries, and George Casebeer.

Great improvement was shown by the Mac line as compared to the game against Kearney, and McPherson's passing attack was also improved over last week. They completed 6 of 13 attempts for a gain of 123 yards.

Bradley Manages Mac Snack Room

The Dog House, this year, is under the supervision of Phil Bradley. Phil is a junior at Mac and is starting his second year as business manager of the Dog House.

Working behind the counter are: Verona Thralls, Sharon Bailey, and Marlene Lauver. These girls spend many hours in the snack-bar and help Phil keep the Dog House supplied according to the demands of the customers. They report, "It is our pleasure to serve you."

During the summer, the Dog House was completely remodeled. The floors were refinished, walls painted, and chairs re-upholstered.

The entire management asks the help and suggestions of the students in making the Dog House a cleaner, healthier place.

Skaters To Hutchinson

Members of the Skate Club went to Hutchinson last Monday evening for a skating party. Newly elected officers of this club are: Bill Gripe, president; Lee Dadisman, vice - president; Sharon Bailey, secretary and treasurer; and Shirley Groth, publicity.

Baseball Pitches

Robin Roberts, winner of 20 or more games for the past six years, cannot make it seven in a row. Tuesday Roberts was on the reverse end of Sal Maglie's no-hit, no-run victory.

Sal Maglie was the oldest pitcher to throw a no-hitter in the history of the National League. Sal the Barber is 39.

Tommy Gatal, one of Baltimore's famed buster babies, was killed when his private plane crashed early last Tuesday morning. His body was not found until Wednesday. Gatal received a bonus in excess of 50,000 dollars for signing as a catcher for the Orioles.

Spanish Worker To Speak To Churches This Weekend

Mary Ann Guthals, freshman from Elmo, Kas., will speak this weekend at two Baptist churches on her experiences this summer on the home-mission field. On Friday, Sept. 28, she will address the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Marion, Kas., and she will be the central speaker of the evening the 30th of September at her home church, the Ebenezer Baptist Church of Elmo.

Mary Ann was a summer mission worker in the San Luis Valley of Colorado. Although she lived in Center, Colo., she worked with Spanish children in the neighborhood of Monte Vista and Del Norte as well.

Her work there consisted of teaching the younger children in Bible School and the Sunday School.

Class Visits School

Thursday afternoon, Sept. 20, Introduction to Education class members and their teacher, Prof. Dayton Rothrock, visited Washington School in McPherson.

The class was divided into small groups which visited in various classrooms.

Among the recent additions to the library are a number of religious books.

The Dead Sea Scrolls by Millar Burrows presents the story of the discovery of the scrolls, their examination by the scholars, and their significance. Some of the author's own translations of the scrolls appear in this book.

Getting to Know God by John A. Redhead is a book of 16 sermons telling what God is like and how man can get to know him.

Prophetic Religion by J. Phillip Hyatt examines the attitudes and beliefs of the seven great prophets and compares them with Jesus's beliefs on the same subject.

The author, professor of Old Testament at Vanderbilt University, has had a year's study at the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem.

The Early Church and the Coming Great Church by John Knox tells about the New Testament church as it actually was and explains why and how we must make the Christian Church one throughout the world.

All of the Women of the Bible by Edith Dean gives short biographies and sketches of 316 women of the Bible, including the nameless ones in the background as well as those everyone knows.

Jesus' Design for living by Thomas S. Kepler contains 40 meditations based on the Sermon on the Mount.

Doing the Truth by James A. Pike tells about the relationship between believing and doing, and how the ethics of Christianity affect what one does.

The Church and Social Responsibility edited by J. Richard Spang discusses Christian concern with society in four sections. Fifteen authors helped write this book.

The Bible and You by Edward P. Blair is a guide for reading and understanding the Bible. It describes the basic nature of the Bible and gives plans for reading the simpler books and for those more complex.

One of Dr. Blair's special interests is Biblical archaeology. He has spent five weeks helping to

North American-Baptists Convention This Year

This year this year chose Mary Ann to do this work.

About the Spanish problem, she has this to say: "The Spanish problem is mainly one of racial discrimination and one must deal with it accordingly. Showing these people a better standard of living, increasing their educational status, and showing them the way to salvation is part of the work that must be done. We, as Christians, must not turn our backs upon such opportunities."

Mary Ann plans to teach after she leaves college and later go into some type of Christian service work.

Lavor, Hicks

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lavor of McPherson, Kas., announce the engagement of their daughter, Marlene, to Vernon Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hicks, also of McPherson.

Marlene is a sophomore at Macollege, and Vernon is employed at the NCR refinery in McPherson. A spring wedding is being planned.

excavate the Jericho of Roman times.

Beginnings in Theology by Jack Finegan explains theology in terms everyone can understand. The author tells about Biblical concepts of God and his works, and his relation to Christ and to mankind.

The Life and Ministry of Jesus by Vincent Taylor is a biography of Jesus Christ, in which the author explains the uses of the four Gospels as sources and the hypotheses concerning the relationship of the Gospels to each other and to the life of Christ.

The television set was added in 1952, and it has hampered the use of the SUR as a social room.

It is hoped that sometime in the future, McPherson College will be able to have a complete student union building.

Student Union Changes Nature

In a room in Sharp Hall pop-bottles, candy wrappers, and TV watchers gather in about equal proportions. There are also occasional students who gather there just to visit.

This is quite a reverse from the original plan, because the Student Union Room was built primarily for a social room. No studying was allowed there.

Now, with the television set, visiting is actually discouraged. During the day, it is seldom used except for a few students who study there.

Bob and Liz Nelson, are the janitors for the SUR this year. This is quite a job, because approximately 200 pop bottles accumulate there each week.

The idea of having a room for student social purposes first developed when Harry Frantz was president of the Student Council.

At that time there were two rooms where the present SUR is. Prof. Maurice A. Hess's English room, and a store room.

Most of the work on the SUR was done while Paul Boz was head of the student council. Students did most of the work.

The room was dedicated in 1936 as a social room, a place for students to visit and play games. For several years, under the National Youth Administration, a student hostess was present in the SUR.

Since it was built, the furniture has been reupholstered several times. Mrs. D. W. Bittinger spent some time last year repairing and reupholstering in the SUR.

The television set was added in 1952, and it has hampered the use of the SUR as a social room.

It is hoped that sometime in the future, McPherson College will be able to have a complete student union building.

Bethel Plans Memorial Series

Bethel College has announced the dates of its Memorial Hall Series. This is a lecture and concert series sponsored every year.

On November 6 an illustrated lecture, "A Touch of the Tropics," will be presented by William H. Wagner of the Audubon Screen Society.

This lecture and the film illustrating it will be based on the actual experiences of Wagner and his wife, June, in their exploration of the Everglades region of Florida.

The Internationally-known Vienna Boys choir, a group of Austrian singers, will appear on Feb. 7. This will be another of their concerts as they tour the United States.

KSC Begins Long Days

Kansas State College, Manhattan, is lengthening both the classroom days and the school week. Students this year must schedule at least half their classes during afternoons or Saturday mornings.

Likewise departments are required to offer at least half of their courses during those times. The class schedule will begin at 7 a.m. and continue until 9 p.m. Dean A. L. Pugley said the expanded schedule should bring better student study habits.

"Beginning students seldom make efficient use of large blocks of unassigned time," he said.

Ad Brings Few Results

Although McPherson College and other mid-Kansas colleges showed an increase in enrollment, the growth cannot be attributed to the results of an ad which McPherson and four other central Kansas colleges inserted in The New York Times last July.

The ad called the attention of eastern students to the fact that they could find room in any of the five mid-west colleges which offered liberal arts curricula and were church related.

Information from the colleges shows that the results do not prove that students from the overcrowded colleges in the East are overly eager to come to Kansas.

D. Arthur Zook, president of Kansas Wesleyan University, Salina, received six applications, and D. C. Wedel, president of Bethel College, Newton, reported "quite a number" of inquiries but only one application blank had been returned.

President Wedel states, "We might expect one student from the eastern part of the United States who would not have come otherwise."

Robert Mortvedt, president of Bethany College, Lindsborg, reported nine inquiries which referred to the advertisement and one student approved and accepted for admission.

President Mortvedt said, "On the surface, this may seem to indicate that the pressures in the East are not so severe as has been stated. I doubt, however, that this is the proper interpretation. I am more inclined to believe that our positive church-relatedness is the most important factor."

"I am not yet sure whether similar ventures in the future will prove desirable, although I am inclined to think they will be. At Bethany we leaned over backward this time in order to be sure not to misrepresent our offerings and circumstances."

Lloyd S. Cressman, president of Friends University, Wichita, stated that he had received a dozen inquiries, but there were few registrations.

Ponder With The President

I came across the interesting information the other day that in 1492 a group of educators from the various nations of Europe set down to write a chronicle of the world.

They filled up volume after volume of the significant things which had happened up to that time. As they came to the end of the story, they left six blank pages, indicating that on these six pages were to be written the events which were yet to transpire in the history of the world.

As these men wrote, Christopher Columbus was sailing westward on the voyage which would discover the continents of North and South America.

Little did the writers of these chronicles know how much history would yet be written. Their volumes would need to be doubled many times more to write the history which took place from 1492 to 1956.

We sometimes get the idea that we need only to leave a few pages for the history remaining; that everything important has already been done, or that we are doing it. It is good for us, therefore, to hear a story like the above.

We, like the writers of 1492, stand only at the threshold of what is yet to be. Our knowledge is very limited. Our "proven" facts may not be true in many instances. Our ability to control disease, to resolve social problems, to meet drought and tornadoes is just at its beginning.

It is good to live in this age! Young people who are in college have stretching out before them unexplored territory beyond that which any Christopher Columbus as he started to sail Westward, or Louis and Clark as they started up the Mississippi, could have had.

Let us be great explorers, adventurers, pioneers into the yet unknown.

And in this unknown we shall discover Brotherhood, equality of opportunity, blessings which our God has been waiting for us to get ready to receive throughout many, many centuries of our slow progress.

Congratulations for being alive now!
