Churches To Honor Reformation Day

McPherson County Reformation Day Services will be held in the college Stadium Sunday. Rev. Stanley A. Benson, who is President of the McPherson Ministerial Alliance, will preside.

The message will be given by Rev. J. Henry Long of Elgin, Illinois. Rev. Long is head of the Foreign Mission Commission of the Church of the Brethren.

Special music will be presented by the combined choirs of the city.

The Prelude will be played by the Macollege Band, under the direction of Prof. Donald R. Frederick.

Oct. 31, or the Sunday nearest is observed nation-wide as the beginning of Protestant Reformation. On the eve of All Saints Day, Oct. 31, 1517, Martin Luther nailed his theses to the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany.

These 95 theses challenged the flagrant abuses upon the sale of indulgences. Luther was forced to go into exile to save his life, but he later came out of hiding, and with his followers drew up a confession which contains the doctrines of the Lutherans to this day.

Luther asserted the superiority of private judgment over authority on religious matters, which is the basic tenet of Protestantism.

Ministers of the city who will be participating in the service are Rev. Paul Matthau of the First Methodist Church, Rev. Roy Paslay of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. Alfred Bartter, of the First Congregational Church.

SoCo urges all girls to ask at least one fellow for a date that week to help make W. P. A. successful this year.

There will be a movie, a game, and an all school party to help facilitate matters for the girls that week. The all school party will be in the gym, Saturday, Nov. 10, at 7:30, and it will conclude W. P. A. Week.

Teachers Procure Decorations Prize

The top three winners of the homecoming decoration contest were announced at the ball game Saturday night. They were as follows: first prize, FTA; second prize, junior class; third prize, Arnold Hall.

Honorable mention honors were received by Ag Club, Rec Council, sophomore class, Dotzour Hall, and the Spectator.

The FTA committee on decorations was led by the chairman, Vivian Oliver. Also on the committee were Richard Carney and Adele Bernstorf.

The decoration consisted of a coffin containing the dummy of a dead coyote. A gravestone and a bulldog guarding the victory bone were parts of the decoration.

The mood was enhanced by background music composed by Vivian Oliver and sung by Clifford Tusing. The tune was "Bury Me Not on the Lone Prairie", and the words were an appropriate paraphrasing.

Second prize was awarded to the Junior class. Their decoration, which was entitled "Coyote Falls", consisted of a water fall. The mechanics included a large centrifugal pump raising water to the top of a wooden frame. The water then ran down a blue canvas.

Arnold Hall received third prize for their group of bulldog silhouettes, drawn by Danny Crouse. The bulldogs were pictured in different phases of beating up and carrying away bedraggled looking coyotes.

A large barking dog, complete with moving jaw, was part of the Ag Club float showing a bulldog chasing a coyote under his hole.

"Give 'Em the Ax" was the theme of the Rec Council decoration. A large bulldog chopping off the head of a coyote, with little Red Riding Hood watching, was the setting for their float.

A chicken house, with coyotes looking out the windows and a bulldog and a skunk outside, made up the sophomore float. "The Coyotes Turned Chicken When We Skunked Them," was the theme.

A miniature gridiron and bulldogs chasing coyotes off it was the scene on the Dotzour lawn for their float. A sign "Send Them Home Howlin'" was hung over the float.

"Let's Give the Coyotes a Thrashing" was the theme for the Spectator float. It consisted of a large bulldog running some coyotes through a grinder.

Trustees Will Confer To Consider New Sharp

Macollege's Board of Trustees has set a special meeting for Tuesday, Oct. 30, during Regional Conference, to consider fund raising for the new Sharp Hall.

The Board of Trustees consists of 26 men and women selected from the Districts of the Church of the Brethren in the Western Region, which extends from Montana to Louisiana.

Tentative plans for a new Sharp Hall were approved by the Board of Trustees last February. Approximately $500,000 is needed to complete the new Sharp Hall. Some money has already been donated by interested people and various churches throughout the region.

A new Sharp Hall is the next project to be considered in a Ten-Year Development Plan at Macollege. The ten year development plan began in 1952 and will continue until 1962.

Dotzour Hall, the new girls' dormitory completed in 1953, was one of the first projects in this Ten-Year Development Plan. Also in that year, Arnold Hall, formerly a girls' dormitory changed its scenery from "pretty pink ribbons" to "snails and puppy dog tails."

The new stadium was completed in 1954, and the college courts were completed in 1955 under this plan.

The new Sharp Hall would be located approximately where the old one is now located. Present plans include a new stage and auditorium to the west and an ornamental pool to the east.

Other projects included in the Ten-Year Development Plan which have not yet been started are a new Student Union building, a new cafeteria, and an enlarged physical education plant.

According to the plans, Macollege students may have a new Sharp Hall within the next two years.

There are several members of the 1956 Board of Trustees who have children attending school at Macollege. Jacob Davidson, McCune, Kas., is the father of Ruth, senior, Donna, sophomore, and Doris Davidson, freshman.

Mark Emwiler, Froid Mont., is the father of Janis Emwiler, freshman. George Grove, South English, Iowa, is the father of Noel Grove, sophomore.

Glenn Harris, Jennings, La., is the father of Carl Harris, sophomore. Leslie Holderread, Ripley, Okla., is the father of Kenneth, freshman, and Don Holderread, junior.

George Oltman, Enders, Neb., is the father of Eileen, freshman, and Dwight and Marlo Oltman, juniors.

Richard Keim, Nampa, Idaho, is the father of Richard Keim, freshman. Harvey E. Lehman, St. John, Kas., is the father of John Lehman, freshman; Vernon C. Rhoades, is the father of Donna, sophomore, and Shirley Rhoades, junior.

The executives of the 1956 Board of Trustees are Harold Beam, Paul E. Sargent, Paul Sherry, E. A. Wall, McPheoon, Kas.; Royal Yoder, Conway, Kas., and Harvey Lehman, St. John Kas.

Other members of the board are Milton Beeghly, Pierson, Ia.; D. Floyd Crist, Quinter, Kas.; Ray Emmert, Des Moines, Ia.; Homer Ferguson, and W. H. Yoder, McPherson, Kas.; Ira Milton Hoover, Plattsburg, Mo.; Ralph Landes, Kansas City, Kas.; Harold Möhler, Warrensburg, Mo.; Harold Moore, Newton, Kas.; Hubert Swinger, Essex, Mo.

Work Begins On Mac Catalog

Work on the 1957 College Catalogue has already begun this year. Revisions in the curriculum, new pictures, and more-up-to-date material are added every two years.

The College usually has about 4500 catalogues printed each time at a cost of approximately 50 cents each.

In order that they may be available by April 1, Dean James Berkebile and Mrs. S. M. Dell, who are in charge of the catalogues, must begin work early.

First, several catalogues are literally torn apart and the pages of each section are given to the heads of the proper department. After these teachers have made the corrections and revisions they feel are necessary, the pages are returned to the Dean and Mrs. Dell.

The material must then be sorted, typed, and assembled, and sent to the McPherson Daily Republican Office for printing. Galley proofs are sent to the department heads for corrections or approval and then are returned to the printers for the final print.

Class Schedule Prepared For Second Semester

A schedule of classes for second semester is being prepared by the Registrar's Office.

Each student will be asked to see his major professor or counselor if he is a freshman or sophomore to work out his course of study for the second semester. Actual enrollment will take place the week before finals, but the pre-enrollment plans will facilitate the process.

Tomorrow the annual Western Region Conference of the Church of the Brethren begins on Macampus. Visitors will be here through Thursday.

Brethren, Quakers Hold Meeting Saturday

To Meet Fifth Place Team For Fifth Conference Game

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs play their fifth conference game against the Quakers of Friends University at Wichita. Friends was rated among the top three teams of the conference at the start of the season, but several defeats have put them down a notch or two in the standings. Friend's enrollment this year consists of 730 students. However, they joined the Kansas Conference only a few years ago, and haven't placed in the upper half of the standings yet.

In the meeting with the Quakers last year, the Bulldogs tromped them 43-6 in the homecoming game at the MacCollege. Friends only touchdown was made against Mac reserves on a 20 yard run.

Records of previous meetings of the two teams show that McPherson has had the edge with 10 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. This year's contest will probably be a more even match than in other years.

KWU Tops Mac At Homecoming

Kansas Wesleyan University put a slight damper on the MC home coming activities when they defeated the Bulldogs 41-20 last Saturday night.

The game was highlighted by several spectacular runs by members of both teams. Two of McPherson's three touchdowns were scored by long down-field runs.

The first score of the game was made by Wesleyan's smashing back, Larry Houdek when he plunged over from the seven yard line.

Wesleyan scored another TD soon after, this time by Dal Emig on a 60 yard run. Then Bull Jorg end, Ed Delk caught a pass in the end zone from quarterback Ed Wolf for McPherson's first tryal by. Merle Roifs kicked the extra point.

KWU made one more touchdown by Bruce Sorrel in the first half and then came back in the third period with Emig racing around end 20 yards for the fourth Coyote touchdown.

McPherson's second touchdown also came in the third period when Merle Roifs broke away on the 38 yard line and ran 62 yards to the end zone.

McPherson's last touchdown was made in the fourth period when Ed Wolf got into the open behind good blocking and ran 76 yards for the score. Roifs kicked the Bulldog's two extra points.

The Bulldog's aerial attack was effective against the Coyote defense as they completed 5 of 11 attempts for 72 yards. Wesleyan made 3 pass attempts, all of which failed.

However, the powerful Wesleyan backfield consisting of Houdek, Emig, and Sorrel was too much for the Bulldogs as Houdek made two touchdowns, Emig three, and Sorrel one.

Four of the five Mac pass completions were from quarterback Wolf to end Ed Delk, the longest of these being for 31 yards. The fifth pass was caught by Vernon Petefish for 4 yards.

Class Creates Weed Designs

Weeds can be beautiful. You, too, will realize that if you see the weed arrangements made by Design Class. They have variety of color, texture, and of arrangement.

In another interesting assignment the students made pictures by using objects of different textures, but having a central idea.

Nature was the theme of several of them. One had the paper, envelope, stamps, and a fountain pen giving the idea of letter writing. Articles associated with sewing were used by some of the students.

Mrs. Wesley DeCoursey invites all to see these projects.

Prof Talks To YWCA

Miss Della Lehman, Professor of English at MacCollege spoke at the Regional YWCA Conference held in Wamego, Kas., Wednesday.

Girl Studies in Sleep

Is studying a habit? One girl who lives in Dotzour Hall is wondering. She awoke at three o'clock one morning to find her light on and a paper in her hand.

This all may sound like a dream, but her roommate will testify that she turned on the light half an hour earlier.

Records of previous meetings of the two teams show that McPherson has had the edge with 10 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. This year's contest will probably be a more even match than in other years.

McPherson's second touchdown also came in the third period when Merle Roifs broke away on the 38 yard line and ran 62 yards to the end zone.

It seems that since Rita Evans Beam has come back from her honeymoon, she has made nothing but bull's eyes in archery.

The class has decided that if marriage can do that much for one's grade, they all want men too. Instructor Doris Copcock says she is interested also.

Vilas's Views

By Likhtie
Tomorrow Oklahoma meets its most talented opponent, Notre Dame.

While Notre Dame has lost most of their games to the Sooners, one must look into the caliber of the teams played before drawing a false conclusion.

Michigan State Powerful
Michigan State has a very powerful team and if they are victorious in the "power-packed" conference, they may be the nation's number one team. Again one must not include a "mediocre team defester" overshadow one that is truly a powerful team.

The Big Ten teams are always included in the rating. This year six such teams have showed up in that pool, at one time or another. Each year the Big Ten has come up with a team that is "tops", only to lose prestige from a team that has acquired a record while preying on low caliber teams.

Yet this does not mean that Oklahoma should be considered a low caliber team. They have had a glorious record, even though it has been wins over "poorer" teams. They also always anticipate an upset, and this pessimistic attitude helps them.

Read and heed the Spec ads.

Stucky Did Relief Work In Europe Under MCC

Willard Stucky, junior at Macollege, did relief work in Europe under the Mennonite Central Committee for three years. He went to Europe in the spring of 1953 and returned to the States in the Spring of 1954.

The Mennonite Central Committee is a united effort of Mennonite Churches to relieve disaster areas and underdeveloped areas of the world.

Built Houses
In this voluntary service, Willard spent the first year in Europe in Espelkamp Mittwald, Germany, with a builders unit, building houses for displaced persons from Poland.

Expelkamp Mittwald was one of Hitler's former ammunition dumps which has been converted into a settlement for refugees.

The next two years he spent in Northern Greece, in the village of Panayitsa, which is in Macedonia approximately 80 miles west of Thessalonika. In Panayitsa he did rehabilitation work in rural villages.

Willard attended his first year of college at Bethel College, Newton, Kas., after he returned from Europe. His sophomore and junior years he attended Macollege.

Worked on Reservation
Last summer Willard and his wife spent two months on the Hopi Indian Reservation in Arizona, working with missionaries and trying to establish a permanent voluntary service unit for young people. This was under the Mennonite Mission Board.

Willard is majoring in sociology and philosophy and religion. He hopes to go into the mission field again after graduation.

Books By Brethren Writers Included In Library Lists

The newest of the recent additions to the library include books on psychology, economics, and other countries, and Brethren books.

The Brethren books are written by and for members of the Church of the Brethren. The three new Brethren books are:

Like a Living Stone by Ruth B. Staller is the biography of Mahlon J. Brougher, a Brethren pastor who served in Pennsylvania.

Wilderness Boy by Ott Lee Russell is a story about a thirteen-year-old boy who travels west to settle in southwestern Kentucky. This book was designed for juniors and intermediates, but it is interesting to adults as well.

We Raised a Heifer by Mary Garber is also a children's story which adults will like. This is the party true, partly imaginary story of raising a heifer to send to a needy family in Europe.

Other new books are:

The Secret River by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings is a story of a little Florida girl who discovers a river when her father needs more fish to sell.

The Art of Reading Aloud by John Dolman gives the technique of reading poetry so that the meaning, the sensory images, and the rhythm are presented as one.

Land of the Long Day by Doug Wilkinson tells the story of the author's experiences while living as a member of an Eskimo family on Baffin Island.

The Balkans in Our Time by Robert Lee Wolff begins before the first world war and continues to the end of 1954, telling the story of this "political weather-breeder" of Europe.

Can We Solve the Farm Problem? by Murray R. Benedict discusses the relation of government to agriculture, explaining the origins of the present farm programs and giving suggestions for the future.

Stern Teaches Red Cross Class

"Everyone should know how to apply first aid when the need occurs in case of an emergency," says Roy Stern, junior from Frederickburg, Iowa, who has volunteered to teach Red Cross lessons to junior high students in McPherson.

He has seven pupils ranging from ages 12 to 16 in his class. He teaches them in the Red Cross Office down town.

He teaches such things as what to do in case of emergency at the scene of an accident and how to apply artificial respiration.

Last year he took a course in first aid instructors course under Prof. Richard Wareham.

In order to keep up instructor's certificate one must teach one course on first aid every two years.

Roy is interested in social service and plans to go into the ministry after graduation.

Women's Council Picnic

Setting for the occasion was the lawn between the tennis court and Harnly Hall.

The members of the Council and their sponsor, Dr. Mary Fee, were present.

Joan Ford Heads SoCo

Joan Ford, junior from McPherson, Kas., is chairman of the Social Committee this year. The Social Committee Chairman is elected each year by the Student Council. The chairman then appoints the other members of the committee. The faculty also elects two of its members to the committee.

The purpose of the Social Committee is to coordinate all school functions. The committee meets at least once a week to plan various school activities.

The committee sponsors and plans such activities as movies, formal dinners, all-school parties and picnics; and this year it will sponsor WPA Week. It is given an appropriation by the Student Council Treasurer.

Although being Social Committee Chairman involves much time and hard work and planning, Joan also takes part in many other campus organizations.

Joan Ford

She is secretary of the junior class this year, treasurer of the Future Teachers of America, secretary of the Recreational Council, and secretary of the S.P.E.C. Club.

Last year she was an assistant to Prof. Dick Wareham, who was Religious Life Director, and she was on the Synphonette steering committee. She helped in the planning of the new MCA set up which is being used this year.

Joan also sings in the chapel choir, and she has been a member of the Pep Club, Peace Group, SCA, Spectator Staff, State Club, and Intramurals.

This year she is a representative from MacCollege to the city UCMY organization.

Joan is majoring in Elementary Education, and she would like to teach in some type of underprivileged school.

She has spent the past two summers working with Spanish-speaking migrants under the auspices of the National Council of Churches. She says that she enjoys working with people.

Her hobbies are reading, sewing, and roller skating.

She was granted an honor scholarship for her first two years in college. This year she was chosen to receive the new $200 scholarship award offered by the Peoples State Bank of McPherson.

Don't Read It... Handy Housecleaning Hints

By Norris and Carl
Regional Conference starts tomorrow, and chances are that you will have some visitors. These may be your parents, friends, fourth cousins, or even members of the board of trustees.

To prepare for these guests, you should have clean rooms, so as to give a good and inaccurate impression of college life to these visitors.

To determine whether or not your room is clean enough for these visitors, measure the distance from the floor to the ceiling. If it measures less than six feet, your room is too dirty and needs some cleaning up.

A clean room is another important spoke in the wheel of education. Without this spoke, the wheel will make dirty tracks down the hall.

Before you start to clean the room, make sure that you have gathered the necessary equipment to make the task as easy as possible.

Suggested pieces of equipment are as follows: Radio, strong roommate, shovel, pitchfork, fire hose, a pint of John's hot sauce, a box of matches, and in extreme cases a medium-sized bottle of nitroglycerin.

The best time to clean your room is at two in the morning, because at this time you will have fewer people running in and out to bother you. Pay no attention to those who complain about the noise you are making at that hour, as they are only jealous of your clean habits.

Recommended steps in cleaning your room are as follows:

1. Turn radio on to CLINT Texas, and turn volume clear up to keep yourself awake.
2. Tell the proctor to shut up because he is keeping everyone awake, and besides you can't hear the music when he is yelling.
3. Take the pitchfork and throw your dirty clothes, bed sheets, and proctor in closet.
4. Lock the closet.
5. Take shovel and dig for floor.
6. Push trash into the room of someone whom you do not like, and who is at least three inches shorter and twenty pounds lighter than you, or who is gone for the weekend.
7. Use matches to burn all combustible trash.
8. If improvement is not apparent by this time, drop the bottle of nitroglycerin on the trash fire. (This step is optional. If it

Ponder With The President... Promises Or Progress?

One of the issues of the political campaign which has worked its way to the top as the campaign progressed has been the issue of peace.

Not only are the people in America interested that this has happened, but all the people of the world are looking at this factor with even deeper interest.

To many people of the world, the determining factor concerning the peace of the future, lies not in Russia, but in America. Many of our overseas neighbors seem to have the feeling that Russia does not wish to fight, but that America is poised and ready for war.

This coming to the fore of the issue of peace in America seems to bring them hope. Apparently, both of our political parties are interested in peace.

The Republican party declares that it has brought the present peace. The Korean war has ended. There is no active shooting anywhere, or at least not for a prolonged period of time.

President Eisenhower indicates his intention to maintain this kind of a future. He has said in a magnificent statement,

"Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired, signifies, in a final sense, a theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and unclothed."

When the issue over Suez arose there were many who thought that it was so delicate that if mishandled it certainly would lead to war.

President Eisenhower's forthright statement early in the negotiation that this would not lead to war and that we were going to enter into shooting about it, made a war practically impossible, for the other nations of the world are not likely to begin a war if they do not feel that America can be drawn in on their side.

A MESSAGE TO COLLEGE MEN
"I wish I had bought more life insurance when I was in my twenties."
How often a life insurance underwriter hears this complaint from older men who failed to take advantage of an opportunity that comes only once in a lifetime—the opportunity to guarantee one's own and his family's future through the purchase of insurance when he can still buy it and at rates he can afford.

The Democrats, similarly, are interested in peace and Adlai Stevenson has gone further even than President Eisenhower in seeking to find new ways toward peace.

His promises are that if elected he will look forward shortly to the ending of the draft and the cessation of further atomic bomb tests.

Dr. D. W. Bistinger

He believes that both of these actions would calm the world and indicate not only a temporary cessation of war, but a permanent moving away from it as a means of trying to settle international negotiations.

We need to ask ourselves whether these are empty campaign promises, or whether this charts a real direction.

Peace is the only hopeful way to a continuation of world culture, world progress, and growth toward the Kingdom of God.
