Juanita Fike Represents Macollege In Europe

Juanita Fike, representing McPherson College as an exchange student in Germany arrived in Bremerhaven, Germany, August 11, after a very pleasant voyage.

After a briefing session in Kassel, the 25 exchanges went their separate ways. Juanita went to Lemgo, where she lives and works at Eben Ezer, an institution for epileptics and the mentally ill. There are about 800 patients.

Juanita works mainly with a group of 24 children from the ages of six to thirteen. These children appear quite normal at first, but in working with them Juanita finds small abnormalities in them.

They are starved for love and affection. They stand in awe, to pat her clothes or plaster her with kisses.

The field work is done by the patients. Juanita took a large group of children to the field to pick up potatoes one afternoon. She said working in the field and with Holstein cows made her think of the farm on which she grew up near West Plains, Mo.

Some of Juanita's duties are taking walks with the children, supervising their play, and keeping their clothes in condition. Pol-

The Devil and Daniel Webster In "The Devil and Daniel Webster" the wedding of Jabez and Mary Stone has just taken place. Their New Hampshire farmhouse has been re-arranged for the wedding dance which is just beginning.

The event moves along smoothly until Mr. Scratch, the devil, appears and terrifies the crowd with his inappropriate songs. The devil makes things worse when he brings out the horrifying fact that Jabez has sold his soul to the devil.

The "Revolt of Mother" For the first time in their married life, mother goes against father's dictates in "The Revolt of Mother."

Adoniram Penn has promised his wife, Sarah, a new home. The new home turned out to be a new barn. During the absence of Adoniram one day, Sarah calmly moves her furniture into the barn before the livestock have a chance to move in.

Will Dad give Mom a new home? Will Mom's tricks influence Dad?

Characters of the play are Sarah Penn, Glenda Wine; Adoniram Penn, Vernard Foley; Nanny, Valerie Miller; Sammy, Terry Spitzer. Nanny and Sammy are Sarah and Adoniram's children.

Bulldogs Use Aerial Attack On Swedes To Win 19-14

The McPherson College Bulldogs came from behind in the fourth quarter to defeat the Bethany College Swedes 19-14 in the last game of the season for both teams.

The passing defense of the Bulldogs was sharp even though they had trouble in holding back Swede linemen. The Swedes completed only one of 14 pass attempts.

Bethany scored first in the opening period. They capitalized on their successful pass completion by covering 45 yards for the touchdown. Herb LaMar caught the aerial. Ralph Anderson kicked the extra point.

The Bulldogs came right back after the kickoff. On the first play, Tom Ragland out-ran two Swedes and went all 65 yards for a MacCollege TD. Ed Delk's try at the extra point was a failure.

With 10:10 remaining in the second quarter, the Bulldogs rallied again. Delk received a pass on the Bethany nine and went the rest of the way to score. Delk's conversion was good and the Bulldogs took a 13-7 command.

Late in the second quarter the Swedes started a drive on their own 38 yard - line. Jim Ostlund ended the drive by going over the goal line from the ten. Anderson converted to put the Swedes again in the lead.

After the half, the ball changed hands several times on intercepted passes and fumbles.

The Bulldogs began a drive late in the third period. They completed four straight first downs and then lost the ball. Delk intercepted a Swede pass a few plays later. Ragland finally scored the winning touchdown with 8:00 left in the final quarter on a reverse around left end from 20 yards out.

The Bulldogs were on the Bethany one-yard line when the game ended.

Ragland carried the ball 14 times netting him 128 yards. Keim carried 12 times for 37 yards. Stucky received an injury and had to leave the game after carrying the ball three times for seven yards.

Larry Sams, Roy Jones, and Earl Guiot quarterbacked the remainder of the game in place of injured Stucky.

Mac Ends Race With 5-2 Record

Baker is in second place with a 4-1 record. They were defeated by William Jewel, a non-conference foe last week.

Ottawa pulled in to fifth position

A Roommate For Keeps

By Dr. D. W. Bittinger
Quite frequently I talk with students about their roommates.

I hear two reactions. One is: we like each other so well that we have roomed together for two years, or three years, or even four years. We feel almost as if we were married to each other.

One of the hard things to give up when college is finished will be not to be able to live with such a fine roommate.

I have observed that such people likely continue a friendship which is almost closer than the brother and sister friendship, even after they are out of college, and for as long as they live.

I hear other reactions to roommates, however.

Some find that adjusting to roommates is very difficult. It sometimes becomes almost impossible. These are example statements:

Some roommates have such strange hours. They want to sleep in the day and stay awake at night. They study best from 1:00 to 4:00 in the morning.

They cannot read more than two lines in a book without stopping to comment about that, or something totally separate from what is in the book.

They like to study to radio music. They like hi-fi, and instead of having it low, they turn it loud enough to blast one out of the room.

They cannot study without eating and they cannot eat quietly. They never pick things up, or sweep out, and the room, therefore, must be taken care of by one person or become very dirty.

They are too sensitive, and always seek for a hidden meaning in what you say.

Occasionally, I hear a student say, "I am going to get married so that I can pick my own roommate and will not have to be bothered with this one which is assigned to me."

Ah! There is a point.

This roommate whom you pick for a marriage partner will be a permanent roommate. It will not be just for one semester, one year, or four years. This one will be for life.

In picking this roommate, remember all the things that annoy you about the roommate you have.

Do you think these things will also annoy you with this permanent roommate?

These and many other things will need to be considered.

Adjustments can be made to the permanent roommate, and the adjustments should be in both directions.

This can happen, also, with the temporary or short time roommate.

May God bless you and your roommate, both this temporary one and that permanent one.

Bittingers To Prepare Freshman Breakfast

Freshman Sunday School Class of the Church of the Brethren has been invited for breakfast by Dr. and Mrs. Bittinger at their home on Sunday morning at 8.

All town and campus freshmen are invited.

Sweet Dreams ? ?

One of the girls on second floor of Dotzour Hall was laughing in her sleep recently. When her roommate woke her, she related the following story: "I was walking through a pasture and there were hawks flying overhead. They had on red and white pajamas."

School Praises Block Teachers

Ed. note: Many Macollege students are engaged in student teaching under the block system at the present time. Recently Prof. Merlin Frantz, director of the secondary student teaching program, received this letter from a school in which Macollege students were student teaching.

Mr. Merlin Frantz
McPherson College
McPherson, Kansas
Dear Mr. Frantz,

Just a word to let you know the student practice teachers we have here are all doing splendid work. They are most cooperative and are able to handle young people in a commendable manner.

We like them very much and appreciate their help. We trust that they are getting that which a student teacher is expected to receive in this type of work.

Sincerely,
(Name withheld by request.)

Dr. Bittinger Meets With Other Presidents

Dr. D. W. Bittinger was in Lincoln, Neb., last Friday and Saturday for an Association of Trustees and Administration for Churches Related Colleges meeting.

The meeting was held on the Nebraska Wesleyan University campus with national leaders present. Also present were presidents of Sterling College, KWU, and Bethel.

If you aspire to the highest place, it is no disgrace to stop at the second, or even the third. — Cicero

Jerry Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lee Sink, College Courts, was born Nov. 4 at the Mercy Hospital, Moundridge, weight 10 pounds, 14 ounces. Jerry's father is also a senior.

Student Teachers Hold Dinner For Supervisors

Supervising teachers were the guests of the Macollege student teachers at a dinner in the college cafeteria Tuesday evening. One hundred twenty persons were present at this dinner.

Miss Ruth Stout, director of Field Program for the Kansas State Teachers Association and vice president of the National Education Association, was guest speaker. Miss Stout was formerly dean of women at Washburn University in Topeka.

Marlo Oltman, Macollege senior, was toastmaster and Dean Wayne Geisler gave the welcome address.

Supervising teachers and principals from McPherson, Inman, Moundridge, Canton, Little River, Hutchinson, Galva, Lehigh, and Windom were present.

When a man's knowledge is not in order, the more of it he has the greater will be his confusion. — Herbert Spencer
