How's Your Etiquette?

How's your etiquette? It's time to brush up on your table manners and plan to attend the MCA dinner next Thursday night. Etiquette makes life more enjoyable. Good manners based on kindness of heart are fundamental to our civilized nation.

How about putting your manners to practice here at college—in the cafeteria, in the dorms or on a date or where ever you happen to be.

Occasions will arise in everyone's life when he must attend a banquet or formal dinner. Will you be embarrassed?

College days are the time to practice up on such little courtesies. The mark of a well educated man is courtesy and consideration of others.

All Fields Have Registered Progress During November

The Thanksgiving month deserves a vote of thanks. Pioneers and trailblazers of all kinds have flourished in its discouraging climate and the November barometer has consistently registered progress in all fields.

Many innovators had November beginnings, among them physicist Marie Currie, inventor Robert Fulton, pioneer prototype Daniel Boone and magnate Andrew Carnegie.

Labor leaders have also pioneered in November. In November, 1881 Samuel Gompers founded The Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions, forerunner of the better-known AFL.

In November 1935 John L. Lewis bent his famous eyebrows to the problem of organizing an industrial union for workers not eligible for AFL membership. Result: The CIO.

Although it launched a "Czarism" November weather has more often than not been congenial to democracy. Winston Churchill was born during November 1875. North and South Dakota, Washington and Oklahoma joined the Union in November.

Archaeologist entered the tomb of King Tut in November 1922. Several years later Admiral Byrd telegraphed his arrival at the South Pole.

Historic runs are a November specialty. November has introduced many a theatrical hit. On Nov. 4, 1839, Life With Father began its 2 year run. A consecutive 18 hour run will long be remembered by TV fans who watched the telethon Nov. 30, 1957. In these 19 hours, Jerry Lewis collected $7000,000 for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, striking a significant blow against this mysterious, devastating disease.

The future of the Institute will largely be determined by the success of this November's drive. November, 1958, may mark the beginning of the conquest of Muscular Dystrophy.

In November, 1877, Edison told the world he had perfected a "talking machine."

The horseless carriage had many colorful November adventures.

America's first auto race raised the dust from Chicago to Evanston, Ill., in Nov. 1895. Four Novembers later the first automobile show was held in Madison Square Garden on November 3, 1900.

The tradition of November gratitude began with the passengers of the Mayflower, who held feasts and church services that month to celebrate the passing of their precarious year in the new world.

In 1789, George Washington designated Nov. 26 as a day of thanksgiving — for the adoption of the new American Constitution.

In 1863, at the request of President Lincoln, America celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day on the last Thursday in November.

There is nothing by which men display their character so much as in what they consider ridiculous.

I Love The Spec

I love the Spec.
I think it's swell.
On Friday noons
I run pell mell
To get my copy
And read each line.
The stories and columns
I think are fine.
I laugh at the jokes.
I read all the ads.
I take up all the fads.
When I praise the paper
I scorn those who laugh.

Chaff Gives A Test . . .

Muddling The Mind

By Fans, Foley, and Harris

As our adult advisor, Socrates, once said, "Know thyself." Nowadays this business of knowing thyself is made easier by many I. Q. tests, aptitude tests, psychological tests, and interest tests which will show just exactly what you are like deep down inside. But all these long tests are too difficult to take. They are too hard on the mind, the eye-sight, and other parts of the body.

Therefore, CHAFF, as another public service, has done voluminous firsthand observation and has devised one single, comprehensive all-inclusive aptpsychointermatic promblimatical test which sees all, knows all, discourages all.

These questions are carefully constructed to reveal your strengths and weaknesses in many fields of talent and personality. Simply underline the answer that seems most logical to you in each question.

1. Which of the following would you rather do? (a) Clean sky-scraper windows, (b) hunt penguins, (c) wrestle an octopus, (d) count snow.

2. Which of the following foods would you rather eat? (a) Russian salad, (b) Italian pizza, (c) Spanish rice, (d) McPherson cat-loaf.

3. Which of the following words has a meaning closest to the meaning of the word Chaff? (a) evil, (b) filth, (c) trash.

4. Suppose you are sent to the ocean with a five gallon wash-tub, a three liter sieve, and a cracked football helmet and are told to measure out 3.1416 fathoms of water. Which would be a logical first step? (a) Fill wash-tub from ocean, (b) fill sieve using football helmet, (c) fill air with dirty language, (d) give up and go swimming.

5. Which would you rather do on your vacation? (a) Visit Russia and take colored pictures with your Brownie Hawkeye cam-

Mrs. Alice B. Martin, Macollege Registrar, was elected Treasurer of the Kansas State Registrar's Association, at the annual State Registrar's and Dean's meeting held at Hays State College recently:

era, (b) Build flimsy houses and sell them at astounding prices, (c) Work in a national park posing as a grizzly bear.

6. Which literature would you rather read? (a) Shakespeare, (b) Pogo, (c) Chaff.

7. Suppose you are in charge of the government effort to launch a rocket to the moon. Arrange these steps in their correct order for launching procedure: (a) postpone launching, (b) locate moon, (c) begin countdown, (d) phone Eisenhower with an excuse, (e) stoke boiler, (f) pose for photographers, (g) light fuse, (h) Run, (i) phone Eisenhower with another excuse (j) watch explosion, (k) pick up pieces, (l) fill air with dirty language.

8. Which of the following sentences am correct? (a) John done shot the bear, (b) John did shot the bear, (c) John have shot the bear, (d) John is missed the bear, (e) John is missed.

If you are maladjusted enough to think you have passed this test, you may come to room 410 Dotzour to have it scored and interpreted for the small fee of buying us three zombies.

Pondering With The President

On My Campfires

By Dr. D. W. Bittinger

At Dodge City there is an interesting statue of a cowboy. He wears a wide-brimmed hat and carries his guns low.

On the bottom of the statue are these words, "On my campfires you build your cities."

What he said is demonstrated by the string of cities which followed him across the west: Abilene, Dodge City, Rocky Ford, Denver, Laramie, and on to the Pacific Ocean. Pioneering is not ended.

We should be building some campfires in intellectual, spiritual, and social realms which will become the strongholds of a better world tomorrow.

La Verne To Host BSCM Over Christmas Recess

Deadline for pre-registration for this year's Brethren Student Christian Movement's conference is set for Thanksgiving vacation. The conference will be held on Dec. 29-31, 1958, on the LaVerne College Campus, in LaVerne, Calif. Bob Dell, McPherson's representative on the planning committee, is now accepting the pre-registrations from here.

"Do Dunkers Dabble or Dig, in the arts, recreation, and world action?" is the topic for this conference. Such leaders as C. Ernest Davis, Ralph Smeltzer, Bob Tully, Galen Ogden, and Kurt Naylor will enlarge upon this subject.

Bulldogs Clinch Second In Downing Bethany 23-7

In a downpour of cold rain and a strong shifting wind, the MacCollege Bulldogs scored three touchdowns and a safety to defeat the Bethany Swedes 23 to 7 in the last conference game of the season.

Midway in the first period of play, Ken Stucky, senior quarterback, skirted the right end for a 22 yard touchdown play. In the final period, Stucky again ran around the end for a five-yard touchdown.

The other touchdown was scored late in the first period when Tom Ragland, senior halfback, made a spectacular 46 yard touchdown run. Gordon Lewis kicked the extra point.

The additional two points were scored by a safety, when Ed Delk, senior end, blocked a Bethany point in the end zone. Delk was injured on this play but later returned to the game.

Early in the first period, a fired-up Bethany team picked up a Bulldog fumble on the 22-yard line of the Bulldogs. Two plays later, Bruce Harding of the Swedes ran around right end to score Bethany's only touchdown.

Rick Hood, senior guard, returned to the Bulldog lineup after being out six weeks with a knee injury, to play a fine game.

The Bulldogs out rushed the Swedes by racking up 242 yards, to the Swedes' 197. The Bulldogs had 12 firstdowns, and Bethany had only 10. Bethany was penalized 70 yards, while the Bulldogs received just 40 yards of penalties.

This was the final game of their college career for nine members of the Bulldog squad. They are Jerry McPherson, Edmund Delk, Donald Cotton, Rickie Hood, Thomas Ragland, Kenneth Stucky, Wayne Grossnickle, Larry Sams, and Gene Elliott,

Suspense Looms High As Conference Race Closes

The Baker Wildcats fell by the wayside in the list of the nation's unbeaten and untied college football teams as William Jewell defeated them 20-7 in a non-conference game.

McPherson ended its season with a win over Bethany 23-7. The Bulldogs clinched second position in the KCAC and finished with an overall season record of eight wins and one defeat.

Two other KCAC members completed the conference season as Bethel defeated Kansas Wesleyan 39-14.

The other game played in the KCAC found the Ottawa Braves rolling over College of Emporia 26-6.

Ottawa is the team that McPherson will be supporting tonight as they face Baker. An upset by the Braves would put the Bulldogs in a tie for first position with Baker.

Miller, Trustee, Donates X-ray Equipment To College

John Miller, a college trustee from Oklahoma City, Okla., has presented the McPherson College Physics Department with some used X-ray equipment according to George Arnold, assistant professor of math and physics.

"We were very glad to get it because it would be quite expensive to buy it new," Mr. Arnold said.

This is the second gift from Mr. Miller in recent months. Last summer, Mr. Miller gave an incubator to the Biology Department. The incubator is used especially for bacteriology.

Mr. Miller was recently elected trustee to fill the unexpired term of Leslie Holderread. He has two daughters attending Macollege. They are Nancy, a freshman living in Dotzour Hall, and Janelle, a junior living in Kline Hall.

The X-ray equipment is used in atomic physics in the atomic theory course, and we are fixing up the dark room to develop the film," Mr. Arnold said.

Mr. Arnold mentioned that he wanted to use the X-ray for an experiment with mutations on flies when the next class in genetics is organized.

"There are seven students in the atomic theory class," Mr. Arnold said, "and they study the structure of atoms, radioactivity, property of electrons, production of spectra, and x-rays by various atoms."

"Several of the physics students have been watching the 6:30 a.m. TV physics course," Mr. Arnold said.

Seven students from this area are enrolled and three audit the TV physics course which Mr. Arnold coordinates for the McPherson area.

Mr. Arnold indicated the experimental TV course has been working well and that it would be continued next semester in nuclear physics.

Design Principles Interest Several Home Ec Majors

Macollege students enrolled in design class this semester are Esther Bollinger, Janice Bower, Carol Cheek, Donna Coe, Marjorie Hanley, Bonnie Hodgden, Avis Prochaska, Shirley Reynolds and Roberta Varner.

Design is a basic course. Other design courses are built from it. Design is a study of the principles of design and not the techniques. The techniques of design are minor points. They are not studied with the principles.

Different projects are being made all the time. The projects are not elaborated on. The class studies the principles of them, and then they make the design. One of the projects in design class was to take a string and dip it into paste. The string was then dropped on a piece of paper and made into a design.

Another one of the projects was textures. The same idea was carried through only with different types of textures. One of the projects was a braid of hair made of yarn with a plastic comb placed beside it.

One of the projects was on sewing materials. It had different types of buttons, material, and other items that are used to sew with.

Weed arrangements were made. The girls picked weeds and used them in arrangements with drift wood. The drift wood and weed arrangements were made for formal balance.

Lettering is another one of their many projects. They made letter arrangements to learn how to letter properly.

At Christmas time, the design students will make mobiles. Before the class is finished, they will design a chair on paper.
