

Farce Will Be Presented In Horseshoe Arena

Tensions mount in the fast moving three-act farce, "See How They Run," as the comical search for clues for identity continue. No one knows who is in this hilarious comedy which will be presented in the popular horse shoe type of staging in the S.U.R. The first performance will be tomorrow night.

"See How They Run" Starts Three Day Run Tomorrow

McPherson College Players' Club will present the fast moving three-act farce, "See How They Run," in the popular horse shoe type of staging.

The first performance will be tomorrow at 8:00 in the Student Union room. It will also be presented Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 24 and 25. Tonight is the final practice and dress rehearsal.

Giving Thanks

Thanksgiving Day will soon be here with all its excitement. While we are enjoying the traditional Thanksgiving dinner of turkey, dressing, pumpkin pie and all the trimmings let us not forget what Thanksgiving Day really stands for and get into the spirit of real thanksgiving.

Let us give thanks for Christian colleges and the opportunity to attend them, and for the Christian professors who teach us by being a living example.

Let us remember that we are among only 30 per cent of the young people of our age who have the privilege to attend college in the United States.

Mac TV To Feature The Athletic Program

McPherson College is presenting a TV program on Thursday, Dec. 4. The program will be a panel discussion on the Christian Liberal Arts College—and its athletic program.

Those who will present the program are Dale Brown as moderator, Dr. Burton Metzler, Sid Smith, and two students, Jerry McPherson and Dick Bittinger.

Students Are Urged To Pre-Enroll Early

Pre-enrollment began on Monday, Nov. 10. Only a few students have completed pre-enrolling. The deadline is Dec. 12.

Students should pre-enroll as early as possible to give the faculty more time for counseling and to work with them, and to provide an index determining satisfaction of the sections.

Senior Prepares A Booklet To Aid Landscaping Students

Landscaping made easier has been an inspiration for construction of a descriptive booklet and display case developed by Mrs. Thelma Clouse, senior, McPherson.

Mrs. Clouse, assisted by her husband, a carpenter and minister, especially designed the project to aid next semester's landscaping students.

The booklet reveals a short biography of numerous trees and lists their attributes as well as their weaknesses and their landscaping values.

The display case located in the basement of the Industrial Arts Building, consists of small individual glass surfaced cases mounted on a large back board. Each case contains a leaf specimen and other pertinent data.

Mrs. Clouse has an assistantship in the Rural Life Department, and is preparing the materials for use in the spring semester's landscape and gardening course.

A few of the trees described

In the horse-shoe theater the audience is seated right next to the stage on three sides. This heightens the effect of the production and enables everyone to have a ring-side seat.

Horse-shoe staging differs from arena staging only in the fact that the audience is seated only on three sides where as in arena staging the audience sits on all four sides.

Arena staging was started by the Greeks and has recently been revived. There are now permanent arena theaters in Paris and the University of Washington.

Because of the unusual seating there will not be reserved seats but a system of first come first served. Tickets are on sale in the college business office.

Prices are $1.00 for adults and $.50 for students. Maccollege students may use their activity tickets but they must be validated at the business office for date of performance.

The play "See How They Run" is a farce comedy written by Philip King. There is no question about the title of this smash London hit.

So swift in the action, so involved the situations, so rib-tickling the plot that at its finishing audiences are left as exhausted from laughter as from a foot race.

The cast in order of appearance are Ida, (a maid), played by Karen York, Miss Skillion, by Joan Walters, The Reverend Lionel Toop, by Noel Grove.

Penelope Toop, by Faye Fields, Clive Winton, by Glen Faus, The Intruder, by Terril Phencer, The Bishop of Lax, by Kay Wallerich, The Reverend Arthur Humphrey, by Loren Rehber.

Sergeant Towers is played by Larry Hayes. The play is directed by Prof. Coulson, assistant professor of literature, and the stage manager is Eddy Longmire.

Four To Compose New Team For College Deputation

A new type of deputation team will go on tour Dec. 6-14. This team will present a varied service of speaking and music in eight churches in Louisiana, New Mexico, and Texas.

According to Prof. Dale Brown, assistant professor of religion, "Previous tours have consisted mainly of musical groups. However, the purpose of this new type of deputation will broaden the basis for students going out. It will give others an opportunity to go out who do not have musical abilities."

They will be speaking about their own Christian convictions and beliefs, general Christian concerns, or aspects of the Christian faith.

Prof. Brown is working closely with the students as they prepare for the tour. Paul Wagoner, alumni secretary, will accompany them as the faculty sponsor. Seven churches in Texas, one in New Mexico, and one in Louisiana, are on the agenda. They are the Waka, Pampa, Fal-furrias, Flour Bluff, Houston Fellowship, and Nocona, Texas; Clovis, N. Mex.; and Roanoke, La., churches.

Freshmen Conclude Orientation Course

The freshman Orientation course ended with the nine weeks' test Wednesday, Nov. 12. Grades will not be given until the end of the semester, however.

The course came to a close with Mrs. Martin, Registrar, discussing the requirements for graduation and the test.

The course is designed to help students become acquainted with McPherson College and to help freshmen make the change from high school to college life.

Also, it helps the student to develop good study habits and can help build personality through the books used in the course, if the student wants to do it.

Values Of First Aid Told By George Keim, Teacher

"The values of first aid are to make people safety conscious, to prevent accidents, to help self and others in case of accidents," says George Keim, assistant coach and instructor in physical education.

Mr. Keim has been a certified first aid instructor for three years and is the only person in the McPherson County Chapter of the Red Cross that is certified to give instructor's training which means that aside from teaching, he can train instructors.

Mr. Keim's training included standard and advanced first aid courses at McPherson College and instructor's training from

Mr. Gribble, the Midwestern area field representative of the Red Cross.

Mr. Gribble's headquarters are in St. Louis.

Students who pass the courses may carry standard and advanced, cards and are eligible for citations and awards that are presented to those who save a life.

First aid instruction will be conducted as a major portion of the program for the McPherson County teachers attending teacher's institute this year according to Mr. Keim, who will assist Mr. Gribble and Patrolman Murphy, a McPherson Officer,

Cornell To Edit Next Spectator

Harold Cornell, managing editor of the Spectator, will edit the next issue of the Spectator while the editor-in-chief takes a week's vacation. It will be published the Friday after Thanksgiving vacation.

The editorship of the Spectator changes each semester as the editor-in-chief retires and the managing editor advances to the position of editor-in-chief.

It is the policy of the Spectator to let each managing editor edit a practice issue before he assumes the full responsibility of editor-in-chief.

The duties of the editor-in-chief are making out the dummy copy of the Spectator, deciding what shall go into the Spectator and what articles shall be played up, writing editorials, deciding on policies of the Spectator, determining the make up of the paper and what size head each article should receive.

In many cases the editor writes news articles, feature stories, etc. for the paper.

Every Thursday afternoon the editor and Mrs. Homer Brunk Spectator Advisor, spend the afternoon at the McPherson Republican office setting up the paper and proof reading the paper which comes out on Friday.

Roast Pheasant For Thanksgiving

"We are having roast pheasant with all the trimmings for Thanksgiving dinner," says Melvin Swinger, second semester sophomore from Dexter, Mo.

The unusual course for Thanksgiving was made possible as a result of a recent hunting trip Melvin made to western Kansas. Melvin hunted for two days and returned with a two-day limit.

"Thanksgiving is the time of year we can be thankful for summer's harvest, life, democracy, and the opportunity to attend a Christian college," said Melvin as he expressed his feeling of the season.

Mrs. Swinger, Mary, is a senior this year and spends her time keeping house, studying, and taking care of their three children. Mary hopes to teach school next year.

Melvin is a brother of Glen Swinger, former McPherson College director of public relations. Glen is now pastor of the Roanoke, La. Church of the Brethren.

H. S. Presents Oklahoma

Nov. 21 and 22 McPherson High School will present the musical "Oklahoma," under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Kohler, vocal music director.

Mr. Leslie Sperling, instrumental music director will present the musical score for the program. Mrs. Alma Maddox, dramatics coach, and Miss Sharon Tolar, directing choreography, will assist Mrs. Kohler.

Pete Talbott will have the male lead as "Curly," while Judy Robinson will have the female lead as "Laurey."

Curtain time is 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium. Tickets are $1.00 and may be purchased at the door.

This should be interesting to some McPherson College students since their are 37 out of 165 students in the freshman class from the local high school.

Pondering With The President

For This I Am Thankful

By Dr. D. W. Bittinger

Last summer we saw children in refugee camps who had been born in the camp and had lived there all of the five, six, or eight years of their lives. They had lived with three other families to a room and never known privacy. Some had no parents. Most had little to hope for.

On Thanksgiving occasion, for what are you thankful?

I am thankful for clothing against the winter and for shoes for my feet.

I am thankful for bread to guard off hurting hunger.

I am thankful for doctors and for medicine when illness occurs.

I am thankful for parents who care.

I am thankful that I can look up at the sky and see it blue and beautiful, rather than a place from which death might fall.

I pray God that these things for which I am thankful may spread to others who do not have them.

Building Bridges

An old grey headed man is traveling down a dusty road. He has been traveling all day and just as the sun begins to set he comes to a dangerous river with wild and raging waters.

Although within a few minute darkness will set in, the old man begins immediately to build a bridge. Presently another traveler comes along.

"I know a place down stream where we can cross safely," he tells the old man. "Come let us go there and cross before night falls."

"Oh, my journey ends here," says the old man. "When I have completed the bridge I will lie down and sleep." But, an eager young lad follows me not far behind and he must cross the bridge in the morning.

At least 11 million Americans suffer the pain of arthritis and rheumatism, including 30,000 children and adolescents each year. Birth defects afflict 248,000 infants annually, of whom 34,000 die within the first four weeks.

A teacher who regularly makes a practice of hunting up the most unattractive child and whispering in her ear, "You're getting prettier every day," says it always works; almost at once the child begins to blossom into something close to beauty.

Success in dealing with other people is like making rhubarb pie — use all the sugar you can, then double it.

"Thanks For The Memories"

By Chet Peckover

"Thanks for the memories" may well express the thoughts of many individuals as autumn colors fade and another Thanksgiving season is inaugurated.

Memories of the bountiful harvests from pilgrim days to our present abundant harvest is an inspiration for rejoicing and hope for continued prosperity in a spiritual as well as a physical sense.

The vivid autumn colors will soon be a memory, but the green winter wheat-peaking up across the Kansas plains is a pleasant reminder that life continues regardless of the many signs of forth coming winter months.

Life is a pleasant experience

For most of us and means of expressing gratitude for it is often difficult so;

When I pray on Thanksgiving Day

And thank God for His wonderful care.

I want Him to know how happy I am.

I want to say thanks for blessings untold,

For birds in the meadow, For wind rustled leaves,

And clouds on the horizon; For other things I cannot say

In such a common mortal's way. But most of all,

I want to say,

For Thy great love, Lord, I thank you, today.

"This I Believe"

By Clifford Tusing

(Editor's note: This article was published in the July 6, 1958 issue of the Gospel Messenger.)

God is.

God is a living God.

God is the Creator. As He was in the beginning, so is He still in the process of creating that which is noble and valuable.

He is constantly at work. Everyone is a sculptor incessantly shaping their lives according to their highest plans and dream.

It seems that the character of God and the constitution of man demands us to discover and examine our complete human possibilities for beauty, truth, and virtue and to assist others in finding theirs.

In the deepest sense of this purpose, I believe that God requires us to encourage and support anyone who is sincerely leading and helping people to become matured beings regardless of how their culture has formed the customs and traditions of their religious ceremonies.

God requires us to seek truth in all phases of life, lead under the belief that knowledge is acquired best by constructive criticism of experience with reason and vice-versa.

The maps which we have to steer our course were formed by the Hebrew prophets, by Greek philosophers, by Christian theologians and many others.

Likewise, I believe that each individual must cooperate with the Creator in developing the universal human values and we can do this through the experiences of everyday living.

We must love our families. One of the basic duties of the Christian is to help children grow and mature into people who are able to love and forgive — who by having a deep-rooted faith in God, are free from fear, prejudice and hatred.

Christians must learn to respect and tactfully criticize and strive to improve the world in which we live.

All problems, whether of social, philosophical, personal or international nature, can be solved through human conversation. This does not mean in deceiving speeches for positions of power, not in heated arguments, nor in fault-finding remarks but through knowledge of facts and a sincere mutual desire to find a way out. Every conversation can provide a chance for the transmitting and transforming power of God to operate.

Finally I believe that when the sculptor (man) acquires a spirit of awareness to the problems of life and is continually growing and developing a creative personality, he is discovering the way of life which is known as Christianity and love.

Baker Takes KCAC Crown As Bulldogs Finish Second

The Baker Wildcats captured the 1958 KCAC football crown last Friday night by edging out Ottawa University 6-2. The win allowed Baker's record in league play to be unmarred by defeats or ties.

The McPherson College Bulldogs remained in second position in the final standings with a 6-1 conference record.

Ottawa fell into third position with three wins, three losses, and one tie to their record.

A tie for fourth and fifth prevails between Kansas Wesleyan and College of Emporia. Both teams registered three wins and four defeats.

Bethel and Bethany share the sixth and seventh posts each having two wins, four losses, and one tie.

Remaining in the cellar all season and ending up there is Friends University. The Quakers failed in winning a game, suffered six losses, and tied one.

Two Teams Gain Bowl Berths

The Buckeyes of Ohio State downed the Rose Bowl bound Iowa Hawkeyes 38-28 in a high scoring rampage last week. The loss for the Hawkeyes had no bearing on their bowl trip, however, as they were selected earlier in the week as the Big Ten representatives.

Other Big Ten action saw Illinois fall before Wisconsin 31-12. Purdue bounced back after a tie the week before with Ohio State to run over Northwestern 23-6.

Minnesota also became victors as they handed Michigan State a 39-12 loss. Indiana squeezed by Michigan 8-6.

Oklahoma, in Big Eight play, had little difficulty smothering Missouri 39-0 after a slow first half which ended 14-0. The win put Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

Other Big Eight competition found Kansas State defeating Iowa State 14-6 to keep the Iowa State team in the league cellar.

Oklahoma State sneaked by Kansas 6-3 in a nonconference game played at Stillwater.

Other non-conference games found Nebraska knocking off Pittsburgh 14-6 and Colorado blanking Utah 7-0.

Bulldogs To Face Bethel Dec. 4 In Moundridge

A basketball trophy is in the offing for the winner of the annual Moundridge tournament Dec. 4 and 6.

The challenge trophy is presented to the winning team each year unless the team wins the tournament three years straight in which case the team gets to keep the trophy permanently.

Last year was the first year for the second trophy. Bethany has possession of the first trophy.

McPherson, Tabor, Bethel, and Bethany colleges are the members of the tourney which is sponsored by the Moundridge High School.

Coed Asks For Team Backing

Like to have a winning team? Of course we do!

Know what makes a winning team besides good playing and good coaching? Sure we do! Okay let's keep up the football spirit only transfer it to basketball. We had a winning team this year in football, and the future indicates a winning basketball team.

Beginning Dec. 2, the basketball season starts to roll as the McPherson Bulldogs face Tabor College, in the first round of home play.

But wait! We also have a B-team to support with our cheers, and freshman cheerleaders to lead us. Don't just go for the A-game, let's boost our second team, too.

Just as a word of advice—"Sportsmanship is the basis of our democracy. Win or lose, be a good sport."

Thirty-two Begin Cage Workouts

Thirty-two boys have begun workouts for the first basketball game Dec. 2 with Tabor College.

Sixteen freshmen are trying out for the team. Those working out include Robert Atwater, Cliff Baile, Don Elliott, Stuart Frazier, Harvey Hayes, Galen Huffman, Roland Kalivoda, and Dick Keefer.

Also trying out are Jerry Kinzie, Gordon Lewis, Gary Metsker, Tom Richards, Ralph Rindt, Phil Wachtman, Steve Willard, and David Stoner; all freshmen.

19 Sophomores out for basketball are Lloyd Albin, John Heidebrecht, Gary Otte, Ivan Prochaska, Melvin Rolfs, Garth Werner, Larry Wertz, and Don Willits.

The six juniors out are Dennis Brunner, Richard Heidebrecht, Bryce Heinz, Darry Melton, Larry Schlehuber, and Larry Werner.

2 Edmund Delk, Jerry McPherson, and Rick Hood are the only seniors out for the team this year.

Correction

Melvin Roberts and Delores Kay Lahman captained the undefeated volleyball teams rather than Roberts and Margaret Lehman, as was erroneously printed in last week's SPEC.

Exams To Be Given For Work-Study Programs

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced a new student trainee examination for use in selecting college students and high school graduates for work-study programs in various federal agencies.

The training programs are in the scientific, technical, agricultural, accounting, and statistical fields. Some positions are located in Washington, D. C., and the nearby area, only.

Exams To Be Given For Work-Study Programs

Further information and application forms are available at many post offices throughout the country and at the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, 25, D.C.

Mr. Milford Greer, superintendent of Moundridge High School, is the tournament manager. Expenses are met by the high school and profits, after expenses, are shared between the four participating colleges and the high school.

Bands for the tourney alternate among the colleges. This year Bethany College will provide the music.

Teams are paired and the winners of the first day play each other the second day and the losers do likewise. Starting pairs are McPherson against Bethel and Bethany against Tabor.

But wait! We also have a B-team to support with our cheers, and freshman cheerleaders to lead us. Don't just go for the A-game, let's boost our second team, too.

Just as a word of advice—"Sportsmanship is the basis of our democracy. Win or lose, be a good sport."

Class Conducts Several Trips

Three field trips have been conducted recently by the agriculture marketing class. The class went to Hutchinson Friday Nov. 14 and visited the Dillon warehouse and the Farmers Coop. Commission Co. terminal elevator.

The terminal elevator is almost one-half mile long and holds 17 million bushels of grain. One feature of interest at the terminal is the automatic car dump that picks up a car and tilts it at a 45 degree angle four times which removes all the wheat. It can handle about 10 cars an hour.

Wednesday, Nov. 19, the class visited the Wall-Rogalsky Milling Company in McPherson. Ernest Wall talked to the class concerning marketing operations in terms of grain futures and hedging operations. Hedging operations pertain to buying and selling wheat futures.

Council Of Churches Holds Christian Education School

Nine Brethren were among 65 people attending an Observation School of Christian Education at Wichita on Saturday, Nov. 15. Sponsored by the Kansas Council of Churches, the meeting was held at the First Presbyterian Church in Wichita. Four attended from McPherson.

They were Mrs. R. E. Mohler, Mrs. Gorman Zook, Mrs. Gordon Yoder, and Ken Holderread. In an interview with a Spec reporter, Mrs. Yoder stated, "It was an excellent picture of Christian Education and would have been quite interesting to many of the college students."

Miss Margie McCarty, author of several Christian Education books who specialized in books on Laboratory Schools and Teachers Education, presented the plans of action for the day.

Seminars were conducted on the Fundamentals of Teachers Education and How To Set Up Schools for specific age groups. Ed Crill, National Youth Director of the Church of the Brethren, was leader for the Senior High group. Other outstanding leaders led other groups.

Most of the day was spent in observing the specific age group where the interest of the person lay. Those attending each group participated by helping to prepare a class, watching a class in action, and evaluating the class as a whole.

Zeller's Topic Aimed At Higher Goals

The Rev. Harry K. Zeller, Jr. will preach Sunday morning at the college church on the subject, "Less Than The Best."

In the evening a Thanksgiving Program will be presented.

She is one of the twirlers with the marching band. Twirling is another one of her many talents.

Miss Turner is 21 years of age. She stands 5' 6" tall. She has dark brown hair and brown eyes. She has two brothers both younger than she.

Miss Turner has many talents, but the one that the students of McPherson College are interested in is her nursing, and her ability to give pills and shots. Her office is in Dotzour Hall.

Plans Mounting For '58 BSCM

Tentative plans have been made for those of Macollege who are planning to attend the B.S.C.M. Conference at LaVerne College during the Christmas holidays.

The group will leave McPherson early Saturday morning, Dec. 27, and will return Friday or Saturday, Jan. 2 or 3, 1959.

School starts on the 5th of Jan. The group will travel by car. The conference, itself, lasts from Monday, Dec. 29 to Wednesday, Dec. 31.

Enroute to and from the conference, points of interest such as Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon, and the Rose Bowl Game possibly could be included in the agenda.

Any person interested in making the trip is asked to see Bob Dell, sophomore, before Thanksgiving recess.

The best bridge between despair and hope is a good night's sleep.
