Dorm "Raids" Investigated

The Student Court met this week as an investigating body concerning dorm "raids." The intent was not to punish, but to merely discover facts concerning "raids." Some things which the court would like to make known to the student body are:

1. The court discovered that dorm "raids" are considered traditional among students, and that tradition is not easy to change.

2. Entering the dormitory after the doors are locked is more than a violation of college rules; it is a breach of civil law.

3. Shooting firecrackers in the city limits, especially inside a building is breaking a city ordinance.

4. Upon checking with our insurance officials it was found that the storage or use of firecrackers in the buildings endangers our insurance policies.

There is a good possibility that our insurance rates would become much higher if insurance inspectors knew that firecrackers were being stored and used in the buildings.

Also, there is the possibility that this insurance company would discontinue our insurance on two of our older buildings.

5. The Court found that stu-

Pondering With The President

Checking Up At Mac

By Dr. D. W. Bittinger

Another year of college is ending. This is a good time to check on myself. I may have unfinished business.

I shall answer the following questions with a "yes," or "no."

- Did my personality grow any this year? ()
 - Did I learn anything new? ()
 - Did I make any lasting, or real friends? ()
 - Am I nearer a professional aim? ()
 - Did I help anybody in a time of need? ()
 - Did I hurt or wound anybody? ()
 - Is there anyone I should seek forgiveness from before school closes? ()
 - Are the purposes and underlying laws of life any clearer to me? ()
 - Am I more appreciative of the beautiful? ()
 - Do I walk more reverently among my fellow men? ()
- If I can answer yes to most of these, then, this has been a good year.

Chaff Says Farewell

Our Epitaph

By Faus, Foley, and Harris
Listen my children and you shall hear
Of a three semester reign of fear, T'was February of '58, Everyone shudders to think of that date,
When the wind was a torrent of darkness among the gusty
trees,
The moon was a ghostly galleon tossed upon cloudy seas, The Spec was a pure, chaste paper, although a terrible bore, When CHAFF came writing, writing, writing, up to the Spec office door.

Then, last week, for the first time in our career, we wrote the absolute truth. This truth so aroused the McPherson Woodsman of the Year that he wrote foul blasts against us.
Now, to show our noble character and to more expeditiously bring the facts before you, we sacrifice some of our column space to print the words of the Woodsman.

Trees
I think that I shall never see An outfit slanderous as these three,
Three men who sleep through class all day,
And their tuition never pay,
Three goofs who write with fiendish glee
About my chopping down a tree, A tree who had no more good sense,
Than to fall across Prof. Flory's fence.
Columns are written by fools, I know,
These three and Flory want my dough.

Later, when the Woodsman saw CHAFF sleeping in chapel, he commented, "Yon Chaff has a mean and scroungy look. They write too much. Such men are dangerous."

Chaff's Revenge
But Chaff vowed vengeance, made voluminous plans, and students heard Chaff say:

Look for us by moonlight,
Watch for us by moonlight,

Witnessing For Christ Is Christian Occupation

By Watson
First of all, I want to thank all the people who have written letters and in other ways helped the column along during its seven-week run.

I would like to answer through this column all the letters I've received, but since this is the last issue of WAND'RINGS, I would like to use the space to say a few words about CHRIS-TIAN WITNESS.

Christian witness is one way that we can show we are Christian and proud of it. I always feel depressed when I am out in a crowd and let a chance go by to witness for Christ.

The many people who consider Christian witness obnoxious are the ones to whom we need to witness the most.
Many times "actions speak

We'll raid the dorm by moonlight, Though Neher should bar the way.

And upon that midnight dreary, when we left there, weak and weary.

We met a quaint and curious caucus waiting at the door, Tis the Student Court we muttered, only this, and nothing more, While we stood there, neatly lying, up there stepped the Dean, replying,
"Chaff is banished from McPherson-to be seen there Never-more!"

louder than words." This is also applicable in the realm of Christian witness, but true Christians will know when the time comes for vocal witnessing.

I do not think we refrain from witnessing because we are ashamed of Christ and His works, but rather because we are ashamed of what our friends will think of us.

I had much rather be called a Christian because I witness than to be a coward because I was afraid to speak out for what I thought was right.

Not only is Christian witnessing to be done in the church, but also it is to be done on street corners, in homes, on farms, in stores, and anywhere else that sin prevails.

A Christian college should offer strength and hope to Christians everywhere through the witness of its students.

If every church member would witness for Christ once each day, the church would move and spread at Pentecostal speed.

CHRISTIAN WITNESSING is a soul-inspiring work, and if during the coming summer you will witness for Christ in both deed and word, then the aim of WAND'RINGS has not been missed.

Connell's Corner

Spec Editor Bids Farewell To Oncoming Journalists

Not only does graduation draw near as the 1958-59 school year comes to its close, but wedding bells will be ringing for many Mac students this summer.

What is the feeling of the editor who edits his last issue? Is he happy or sad? Can he look back over the past weeks and be proud of what he has done?

My emotions are mixed on the subject. Naturally I am happy to be relieved of the weekly worry of "will my reporters turn in enough copy." I will once again have my noon hours free and have plenty of time to get to work.

The Spec staff has three deadlines to meet each week. All stories must be in the office by the first of the week that those stories are to be printed.

The editors must then edit the stories and write headlines for each before taking them to the Republican office where they are set into type.

The editor-in-chief must make up a dummy—a diagram arranging each story as it is to appear—each Wednesday. On Thursday afternoon he "sets up" the type in the forms, called chases, and after a proof has been "pulled", he must read each story and check it for errors.

The Specs are printed on Friday morning and then delivered to the college, by the editor, at noon.

What does all this have to do with the way I feel about my last issue? It all tells why I am sad about leaving my position. Although much time and effort is spent each week, it has given me a good feeling while doing it.

An editor learns to know much about the problems of an editor of a daily publication.

Thank you to each of my readers, Republican workers, reporters, campus editor, managing editor, and Mrs. Brunk, my advisor. Without your support my work would not have been complete.

As I leave this corner to the next editor, Faye Fields, I leave with her the joys and hardships of being an editor.

Coach Smith Awards Fifty-Nine Letter Awards

Coach Sid Smith awarded 59 letter awards to varsity athletes at the Awards Assembly Tuesday. Fifteen athletes were awarded provisional letters. These fifteen will be considered as two-year lettermen if they return and letter next year in the same sport.

Football
Coach Smith recalled the football season during which the Bulldogs lost only one game, by one point. He also recognized Ed Delk, who was named to the Little All-American football team and to the All-Conference team along with Ken Stucky, Jerry McPherson, Wayne Grossnickle, Tom Ragland, and Don Cotton. He said that he considered every athlete who lettered as being outstanding.

Basketball
Coach Smith reviewed the high points of the basketball season: beating Nebraska Wesleyan, which went on to the NAIA tournament; breaking Ottawa University's winning streak, Ed Delk being named to the Little All-American basketball team and the only unanimous choice for the conference first team; and winning 20 of 26 games.

He then awarded Clifton Baile, Dennis Brunner, Ed Delk, Richard Heidebrecht, Bryce Heinz, Jerry McPherson, Ivan Prochaska, and Garth Werner their letters. Max Grossnickle, Richard Keefe, Larry Werner, and Don Willets were recognized for provisional letters.

Track
Coach Smith commended the track squad for a successful season during which three school records were broken. Seventeen athletes received their track letters after this introduction. Dick Bittinger, Lynn Cabbage, Don Elliott, Gene Elliott, Stuart Frazier.

John Heidebrecht, Richard Heidebrecht, Bryce Heinz, Galen Huffman, Richard Keefe, Gordie Lewis, Jerry McPherson, Darryl Melton, Gary Otte, Thomas Ragland, Jerry Rolfs, and Garth Werner received their M awards.

Jerald Hadley, Gary Metsker, Ivan Prochaska, and Tim Wesselowski are to receive provisional letters in track.

Tennis
Vilas Likhite, Phil Wachtman, Marvin Weddle, Gene Wenger, and Norman Yoder received awards for tennis.

Rex Morris, Don Nelson, and Pete Reinecker were named from a team of six to receive letters for golf. The golf team won 3 of 6 meets this season.

Cheerleaders
And finally, Coach Smith gave awards to the four cheerleaders: Glen Faus, Faye Fields, Betty Oltman, and Jim Smallwood.

Tom Ragland and Galen Huffman set two of the three new Kansas Conference track records set at the annual Kansas Conference track meet in Ottawa last Friday. Macollege finished third in the meet.

Ragland Sets Record

Tom Ragland set a new broad jump record with a leap of 23' 5 1/2". Tom's leap shattered the record set in 1952 by Wheaton of Ottawa with a leap of 23 ft.

Huffman Wins

Galen Huffman, Mac's freshman pole vaulter, set a new mark in the conference in the pole vault event, clearing the bar at 13' 3-4". Galen bettered the previous mark set by Coppoc of Ottawa in 1955 when he cleared the bar at 12' 10".

The third record set at the meet was set by Tyson of Friends University. He set a record in the 800-yard run running it in 1:57.8 bettering the old record set by Hoisington of Kansas Wesleyan in 1928 when he ran it

Ottawa First

Ottawa took first place in the meet with a total of 66 2-5 points. Bethel placed second with 37 3-4, Macollege third with 27, Bethany fourth with 26 3-4, Baker fifth with 21, C. of E. sixth with 14 3-4 followed by K. W. U. with 12 9-10.

Ottawa piled up six firsts, Mac and Bethel each took three firsts, Baker, Friends, and Bethany won one first place each.

Ragland took first and Keefe fourth for McPherson in the broad jump. Heinz placed fifth in the 440-yard run, Ragland placed fifth in the 100-yard dash, and Ragland placed first and Keefe fifth in the 220 low hurdles.

Galen Huffman placed first and Gene Elliot followed in second place to give Mac the first two places in the pole vault event. The Macollege mile relay team placed third at the meet.

A new college record for McPherson was set in the Mile Relay event at the recent 1959 Doane Relays. The team composed of Tom Ragland, Dick Keefe, Bryce Heinz, and Don Elliott covered the mile distance in 3:28.4 minutes. (Spectator Photo)

The banquet was sponsored by the athletic committee of the Chamber of Commerce which conducted a ticket sale among the businessmen of the city to help finance the affair.

L. E. Lindell was the toastmaster for the banquet, Rev. Vernon Ballinger of the Four-square Church offered the invocation, and Fred McKenna, President of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the athletes and guests.

Chaff Faces Libel Charge

Dear Editor:

We hereby wish to cancel our subscription to the Spectator because of the corrupt, the immoral, the Chaffish advertising found in recent issues of your paper.

In all good faith we sent a self-addressed stamped envelope to Chaff Inc., c-o Room 410 Dotzour, for a solid hand-carved Chaff Cedar Sweatshirt, and enclosed a $20 bill. However, as of yet, we have not received our sweatshirt or a refund of money.

We, therefore, demand a joint investigation by the FBI and the Senate Racketeer Investigating Committee. After voluminous research, we have acquired Dr. Flory's lawyer. Following the completion of the Flory vs. Geisert Supreme Court Case, we will be suing, so help us Dayton Rothrock!
