Eight Students Participate In Debate Tourney

Eight McPherson College students and Debate Coach Guy Hayes, professor of speech, are attending the first debate tournament of the year at Emporia State Teachers College at Emporia today and tomorrow, Nov. 4 and 5.

No one from Macollege will be participating in the oratory and extemporaneous contests but debating as teams for the college will be Phyllis Haas and Kay Shever, Don Smith and Dick Sitts, Al Guist and Mike Begole, and John Harrison and Carl Werner.

The debating squad is unexperienced so the tournament will be a learning situation for them. The international debate question for the year is: Resolved - That the United States Should Adopt a Program of Compulsory Health Insurance For All Citizens.

Upcoming debates for the squad and Coach Hayes are the Wichita University Meet on Nov. 18 and 19, and the Southwestern Tournament on Dec. 9 and 10.

Noah Curry, played by Raymond Hull, fights back his younger brother Jim, played by Ed Mohler, as H. C., father of the two, played by Ken Holdreard watches in a scene from "The Rainmaker" to be presented in Brown Auditorium, Nov. 18 and 19.

Kyra Petrovskaya Appears Tonight In Cultural Series

Kyra Petrovskaya, Soviet stage and screen star, will appear tonight, Nov. 4 at 8:15 p.m. as the second number in the McPherson College-Community Cultural Series.

Because she was the daughter of Prince Vassily Obolensky, Kyra faced execution by a Red firing squad when she was less than a year old, but she and her mother were rescued and traveled across Russia in a cattle car to safety.

Raised under an assumed name by her impoverished mother and grandmother, the girl did not learn of her aristocratic origin until she was 20 years old.

At the age of 8, Kyra won admission to a school for musically gifted children. She was one of a handful of talented students graduated from Leningrad's Institute of Theatrical Arts, she joined the Leningrad Drama Theater at 19 as one of the company's highest-paid principals, and within 3 years she was also being picked for important movie roles.

Serves In WW II

Kyra's screen career was interrupted by World War II. Trained as a field nurse, she served with entertainment units at the front lines, spent months as a hospital worker, and endured the horrors of the siege of Leningrad. Twice wounded, Kyra received a military medal, and returned to the stage at the war's end.

Pre-enrollment To Begin On Monday

Pre-enrollment for the second semester begins Monday, Nov. 7. Students may pick up schedules for the second semester and pre-enrollment cards at that time in the Registrar's Office.

Each student is to go to his counselor to plan his class schedule for the next semester. The pre-enrollment cards are to be left with the counselor. The deadline for turning in these cards is Dec. 9.

Students are asked by the Registrar, Mrs. Alice Marlin, to carefully consider their choice of courses before completing their pre-enrollment. Any changes made in schedules after that time is costly to the student and creates extra work for the Registrar's Office.

Enrollment for the second semester will be Jan. 9 - 13. New students will enroll Jan. 20 as no pre-enrollment is required for them.

Wedding To American

Her huge, much-publicized wedding was the first "foreign" ceremony to be performed in the Moscow Cathedral since the Revolution, and the following year she and her husband came to the United States.

Blond Kyra has appeared often on television with such personalities as Jack Paar, Groucho Marx, Mike Wallace, Art Linkletter, Arthur Godfrey and Sam Levinson.

She comes to the cultural series through the Columbia Lecture Bureau. Kyra speaks on topics such as "Growing Up in Soviet

Notice To Macollege Men: Women Pay All Next Week

WPA Week, the great phenomenon of the year, is coming Nov. 7-12. It is the one week of the year when a girl can ask out any eligible boy on the campus.

(Boys, in case you haven't been informed, WPA means Women Pay All so there is some good even in this unfortunate situation.)

The fact that it is WPA Week is in itself a wonderful occasion; but girls, listen to this. It is a double take.

Also Leap Year

This is also leap year. After you ask a boy out every night for a whole week, then you can leap fast and furious.

If you are lucky, you will be stuck with him every night for the rest of the year. (Boys, there is some good in being proposed to during WPA Week, this leap year. She will have to buy the ring.)

Fellow members of the female sex, not all of your duties for the week may be so delightful. There are a few customs the girls must observe. For the week they must assume the boys' role in dating, except for wearing the pants.

Here are a few of the accepted actions of the WPA Week social code.

Girls, since you have to make the date and pay for it, you also get the privilege of observing all these other suggestions of Emily Post.

Girls' Duties

Open all doors for the boy. (Don't slam it on him.) Carry your books and his if they

Voters In Mock Election Register Today

Today is the last day you may register to vote in McPherson College's mock election. Registration books will be open until 5 p.m. tonight in the Student Conference room in Sharp Hall and if you are a fulltime student and haven't registered yet you are urged to do so.

Voting for all registered students will be Monday, Nov. 7, outside the Student Conference room. The polling booths will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The votes will be counted soon after the polls close and the results will be posted.

The mock election is being sponsored by the Student Council with Dick Reinke, chairman. Others helping are Don Fairchild, Republican party, Tim Wesselowski, Democratic party, John Dilley, Prohibition party, and Jim Weaver.

Dr. Raymond L. Flory, professor of history and political science, is the faculty member on the committee.

Nine-Week Grades Compiled Next Week

Nine weeks grades are due at the Registrar's Office by Tuesday evening, Nov. 8. If all the grades are turned in promptly, they should be out by the end of the week.

The original copy of the grades is sent to the parents, with the exception of married students who receive their own cards. To receive their grades, students must see their counselors, who have the carbon copies of the grades.

MCA To Watch Election Returns

Watching the election returns come in on television will be the center of interest at the next MCA meeting to be held next Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 9 p.m. in the SUR.

Students planning to attend the meeting are asked to bring games

Wymore, Faus To Star In Nash's 'The Rainmaker'

Practice is now underway for "The Rainmaker," McPherson College's first major production of the year to be presented Nov. 18 and 19 by the McPherson College Players.

Prof. James P. Coulson, professor of drama and literature has announced the cast for this comedy by N. Richard Nash.

Irma Wymore, a junior from Beatrice, Neb., will portray Lizzie Curry, who is the only female in the play. Glen Faus, senior from Manheim, Pa., will play Bill Starbuck who is the rainmaker in the play.

H. C. Curry, the father of Lizzie, Jim, and Noah Curry, will be played by Ken Holdreard, a senior from Cushing, Okla. Filling the roles of Jim Curry and File will be Edwin Mohler, a sophomore from McPherson, and Bill Winter, a senior from Wichita.

Terrill Phenice, a junior from Welsh, La., will be Sheriff Thomas in the three-act play.

First Play In Brown

"The Rainmaker" will be given in the new Brown Auditorium and the play will initiate new equipment installed for special productions.

The play takes place during a paralyzing drought in the West. H. C. Curry and his two sons are as much worried about Lizzie becoming an old maid as they are about their cattle dying. The brothers try every possible scheme to marry her off, but without success.

Then from out of nowhere appears the rainmaker, and he promises to bring rain for $100. It's a false promise, but the family finally consents.

They begin banging on big bass drums to rattle the sky; while the rainmaker turns his magic on Lizzie and persuades her that she has a very real beauty of her own. She believes it, just as her father believes the fellow can bring rain. Rain does come and so does love.

Brown Speaks Sunday

Dale W. Brown, professor of philosophy and religion, is speaking Sunday, Nov. 6, at the Navarre Church of the Brethren. The Navarre Church will be observing their Homecoming.

Preparation Is Underway For Bloodmobile Visit

Preparations are underway and solicitors have begun their work for Friday, Nov. 18, when the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be stationed on Macampus.

Mrs. Simon Strouse met with the blood solicitors Nov. 1, at 7 p.m. in 204 Mohler. Supplies for solicitation were distributed at that time.

The solicitors are Barbara Ketter, Carolyn McPherson and Judy Waddle for Dotzour; Charlotte Erritt for Vaniman; Robert Al-

Kyra Petrovskaya

Russia", Soviet Art and Culture," "The Education of A New American" and "The Soviet Theater".

Autobiography

Her autobiography, Kyra, was published in 1959. Critics called this absorbing book "a vivid account of Russian life in war and peace" and "exciting and important, with descriptions of goings-on and life that foreigners rarely encounter behind the Iron Curtain."

Dotzours Give Art Center For Auditorium Entrance

McPherson College's new Art Center and Friendship Hall were given by Mr. and Mrs. Royer Dotzour in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Price.

Serving as a lobby or entrance-way to Brown Auditorium, the Hall cost $36,000. The Dotzours would like to have Friendship Hall developed as a place for displaying significant pieces of art by students and others, and also as a place for fellowship.

Dotzours Attended Mac

Royer and Edna Dotzour attended McPherson College from 1907-1909. While here, they met and were married. After their marriage they moved to western Kansas where they started farming.

During the dust - bowl years when others were selling their land, the Dotzours continued to buy land. With irrigation and other improvements their venture proved to be successful.

The Dotzours now make their home in Norwich, but they spend much of their time at a second home in Boulder, Colo.

Contributed Dormitory

Royer and Edna Dotzour contributed the funds for the girls dormitory which was built seven years ago and named after the Dotzours. They have also given generous financial aid to many institutions and organizations.

Tired Of Your Professor? Exchange Shoes With Him

By LARRY ELLIOTT

"I will be glad when this semester is over. Professor X is about the stiffest old prof I have ever seen. I haven't learned anything since school started. The class is so dry and boring." This comment or comments of similar significance are heard every day around our campus.

How would you like to exchange places with the teachers in each one your classes for a day?

Can't you just see that motley half awake group of dead heads all sitting there staring at you. Over in one corner you see the star football player dreaming over the past game, in another corner sits the campus belle thinking about all those dates she has hooked.

Several seats in front of her you see the Spec editor trying to decide a theme for his next editorial in gavel the past game, in another corner sits the fellows that stayed up half the night in the dorm keeping other people awake sound asleep.

Now would you be inspired to teach such a group of eager beavers?

Each professor spends many hours a week preparing for classes, making out tests and doing various other scholastic duties.

After all that work it isn't easy for a professor to get up before a class and try to get everything across to all types of students.

And then teachers are asked to make out grades. This part isn't as simple as drawing letter grades out of a hat even though it looks like it sometimes.

Regardless of how you feel toward your professors they are all trying their best. In addition to teaching here in college all of them have duties at home, many dealing with the rearing of children.

In your next class, put yourself in the professors' shoes and see if you won't have a deeper appreciation of your teachers from now on.

What Will Tuesday's Results Mean To You?

Fifteen days, ten days, six days, five days to go... Yes, now there are only five days and the United States will know who will lead its government for the next four years.

Newspapers and magazines gave Richard M. Nixon Republican candidate, a big margin of votes early in the campaign battle.

Just in the last few days, however, the medias of communication have announced that voters are changing their minds and say that John F. Kennedy, Democratic candidate is a sure cinch.

Who do you think will be the winner?

If you are an eligible voter, don't forget to vote Tuesday and maybe you can turn the tables again or make Kennedy a sure winner.

Regardless of who wins, take my word for it, three days after election day, banks and public offices will be closed, soldiers will be in the streets, etc.

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR THIS?

Letters To The Editor

Dotzour Kisses Shock Reader

Dear Editor.

Although it is an accepted practice here at McPherson, I believe that the passion displayed outside the door and in the lobby of Dotzour Hall at dorm hours is not good taste.

To me a kiss is something sacred, something to be shared between a boy and a girl in all sincerity to express his or her feelings. To me a kiss is honest, genuine, full, and pure. A kiss—even a goodnight kiss—is not an exhibition for an audience.

A story in the Bible told of the rich man who wanted everyone to notice how much money he was giving to the church. But an old lady gave a very small amount and gave all she had.

The little old lady slipped her money into the offering plate unnoticed. The old lady's offering was small in amount but much

Pondering With The President

Give Us The Men To Match Our Mountains

By D. W. Bittinger

One of the things I heard expressed repeatedly when the many hundreds of people went through the buildings over our Homecoming week-end was: "These are very adequate. They are useful and beautiful." Some even went further and with reference to the auditorium, said: "This is one of the most complete and adequate auditoriums owned by any small college anywhere."

When the pioneers journeyed westward and came to the great Rockies, they felt thrown back. Many of them said: "Nothing can surmount these mountains except an eagle." But others said: "Give us men to match these mountains." Men did come forth to match the mountains and even wagon trains found their way through them.

Now the mountains are dotted with homes and beyond them there are orchards and fields of grain, and beautiful cities.

It is nice to have new buildings. What we need now is a present generation of students and future generations of students dedicated to use them for purposes of growth and life enrichment.

Give us students and teachers to match our buildings! May this be our continuing prayer and endeavor.

Chimes Challenge

Jezebel's Authority

Jezebel's authority to call and dismiss students from classes has been recently challenged by the new chimes located on top of Brown Auditorium. "Jezebel" is still the timekeeper for the night hours, but the tune, "Hark to the Chimes," now will be used during the day.

The chimes are operated automatically through a master clock in the Business Office in Mohler Hall.

The installation of the chimes took place on Oct. 19 as a part of the general contract for the new auditorium.

I believe that this holds true with a kiss, too. It should be given unnoticed by anyone except the ones that are giving and receiving it.

Mac, Bethel Clash In Final Home Game

8th Place Bulldogs Host 4th Ranked Threshers

Meeting for the 35th time in intercollegiate football tomorrow night will be the McPherson College Bulldogs who will be hosting the Bethel College Threshers of Newton in the final home game of the season at 7:30 in the college stadium.

Over the years the Bulldogs have beaten the Threshers in 26 games and have lost only 8 games. Last year Mac beat Bethel 28-6 and Bethel hasn't beaten Mac college since 1954 when they won 18-13.

Bethel 4th In KCAC
Overall records this year favor the Threshers to end the Bulldogs five year domination in football over them. Bethel is presently tied for fourth place in the conference with Bethany and Southwestern with a 3-3-1 record.

Bethel has downed Friends this season 34-6, Sterling 25-7 and Kansas Wesleyan 33-6. The Threshers bit the dust 20-6 playing Baker, 21-7 playing College of Emporia, and also lost to Ottawa 34-0.

Just last week the Threshers battled through mud and rain to tie Southwestern 0-0. Earlier in the season Southwestern smashed the Bulldogs 27-0.

Mac Ranks No. 8
McPherson's Bulldogs are presently tied with Friends for eighth place in the KCAC and their only victory of the season has been a 19-6 win over Friends. In their other six games, along with the Southwestern game, McPherson tied Kansas Wesleyan 13-13, and lost to Bethany 22-12, Baker 25-7, C. of E. 13-0, and Ottawa 30-0.

The Threshers have 15 returning letterman on their squad of 41 coached by Wesley D. Buhler. The tentative starting lineup for the Bulldogs will be Priddy, G. Werner, M. Rolfs, Wood, L. McPherson, I. Prochaska, Metaker, Crumrine, Wesselowski, Jones and Richards.

Girls Of Sterling Begin New Sport Fad

Girls play "Powder Puff" football at Sterling College. Last Saturday evening the freshmen and senior girls engaged in a contest against the sophomore and junior girls on the college gridiron.

Coaches for the teams were recruited from Sterlings Warriors who have been defeated in each of six games this season. Reports indicate "Powder Puff" football to be a first at Sterling and possibly the last or maybe a new college sport.

Baker, Ottawa Roll Along In Conference

Baker and Ottawa, the two undefeated KCAC teams, downed opponents last weekend as they continued to roll along. This week the two powerhouses take on comparative breathers. All indications now look as if the winner of the conference will be decided Nov. 12 when the two undefeated leaders meet.

Baker won its seventh game of the season as they downed Bethany 34-7 on a rain-soaked field. Jim Paramore, scored three of Baker's touchdowns. He ran 80 yards for the first TD in a few minutes after the game started.

Bethany's only touchdown came in the second quarter when Larry Stoeker ran 32 yards. Baker led in rushing 380 yards to 108 and in passing 65 yards to 46.

Braves Beat Bulldogs
The Ottawa Braves ran over the McPherson Bulldogs 30-0 after a fairly close first half. The Bulldogs held the Braves to only one touchdown and a field goal in the first half. The Braves rolled up 526 yards rushing to 53 for McPherson.

In other games last Saturday, Chuck Culley ran 86 yards and two yards for a touchdown, and Rod Brown sprinted 44 yards and 32 yards to lead Kansas Wesleyan 43-13 past Sterling. It was Sterling's seventh straight loss and for Wesleyan their second win along with a tie and four losses.

Scoreless Tie Game
Bethel and Southwestern teams slithered through mud and water, but never very far while playing a scoreless tie. The longest gain from scrimmage all day was 11 yards. Bethel played most of the third quarter in Southwestern territory and once had a drive stopped on the one yard line.

C. of E. trampled Friends 28-7 in the other conference game. Ware scored two touchdowns for the Presbies who outrushed the Falcons 300 to 67 yards.

Bulldogs Suffer 30-0 Loss From Conference Leader

In their seventh game of the season, the Ottawa University Braves defeated the McPherson College Bulldogs 30-0 Saturday afternoon in a muddy homecoming game at Ottawa. In the first half, the Bulldogs held the high powered Ottawa offense in check.

The Bulldogs took the opening kick-off and on the next play, quick-kicked out to their own 34 yard line. Five plays later, Butch Lewis, Ottawa's tailback, swept around the left end for 10 yards and the touchdown. Herb Sutton booted the extra point.

Mid-way through the second period, Ottawa marched to the McPherson 14 before the Bulldogs intercepted a pass. The Braves took possession on the Bulldogs and moved to the 17 yard line before the drive stalled.

Brown Boots Goal
Afterwards, Mike Brown booted a 17 yard field goal to give Ottawa a 10 point lead.

Early during the third quarter, Stan Pettin threw a 27 yard touchdown pass to Herb Sutton. However, the extra point try was no good.

Ward's Paper Accepted For National Meet

Professor John Ward of the Rural Life Department received notice from the American Society of Animal Production that a paper submitted during the past summer has been accepted for presentation at the National Convention to be held in Chicago, Ill., Nov. 25, 26.

The American Society of Animal Production is the official organization representing animal husbandry personnel throughout the United States.

The paper to be presented will summarize a part of the data collected by Prof. Ward while on leave of absence working toward his Ph. D. at Kansas State University last year.

Ward's paper deals with volatile fatty acid production in the gastrointestinal tract of ruminant animals and with chemical separation techniques involving the use of chromatographic columns.

Herman Names Winners Of Carving Contest

Student winners in the pumpkin carving and decorating contest have been announced by Mr. Charles Herman, head of the Slater Food Service.

All the pumpkins entered were judged by a faculty member and the cafeteria committee.

First place in the humorous division went to Dorothy Bert and her creation of a pumpkin coach. Second place went to Roberta Varner, and Cathy Roddefer for a flower basket.

First place in the original division went to Elaine Groff and her beatnik pumpkin. Second place in this division was disqualified because of a conflict.

First place in the artistic division went to Phyllis Wampler and her pumpkin devil. Second place went to Nancy Krehmeyer and her bulldog.

Prizes in each division were first place $3 and second place $2.

College Church Organizes Flock Meetings

McPherson Church of the Brethren is organizing Flock Meetings again this year. The first meeting will be Sunday Evening, Nov. 13.

These Flock Meetings are a part of the Undershepherd Plan of the church. Orval Wagner, chairman of the deacon board, heads the flock planning.

Members of the church have been asked to be shepherds. They will have in their homes church members and students. These intimate groups help draw the church and college closer together.

All student members will be placed in a shepherd's care. Anyone who does not have student membership but wishes to be a part, may contact Dorothy Brown, College CBYP president.

The shepherds will contact their flock before each meeting.

Bloodmobile

Janice Rankin, and John Wagner for the Freshmen; Robert Hess, and Kay Weber for the Sophomores; and W. R. Alward, and Anita White for the Juniors; and Wayne Bert, Harvey Hess, for the Seniors.

The solicitors turned in blood donor registration cards last night. Cards of unmarried students who are under 21 will be sent to these students' parents to receive the consent of the parents.

If you have not been visited by a solicitor and do want to give blood, contact Mrs. Brunk, college activities chairman of the McPherson County Red Cross.

If you can not give blood, there are other ways in which you may help. Typists are needed tomorrow, Nov. 5, for preliminary typing.

Hostesses and telephone receptionists are needed each hour from 8:30-2:30 on Nov. 18. Fellows will be needed to help set up heavy equipment at 7:30 or 2:30 on the same day. If you would like to help, sign your name to the list on the bulletin board across from Mrs. Brunk's office.

Mac Churches To Observe Community Day Today

Community Day in McPherson is today, Nov. 4. Ten local churches are participating in this observance which will feature a program at the Mennonite Church at 2 this afternoon. The theme of the day is "Christian Action For Freedom."

Mrs. Stanley Sargent, chairman of Community Day, has made a special invitation to college students to attend the program and take part in the discussion.

Panel Discussion
"A World Made Free" is the topic of a panel discussion to be featured in the afternoon program. Mrs. Paul Matthaei from the Methodist Church will act as moderator and the panel members will be ministers' wives of churches in the community.

International students from MacCollege, Edward Khaw, Werner Kruse, and Bernard DeSa will be assisting in ushering for the special offering to be taken. It will be used to train women in needy areas of the world in how to administer to the health and education of people.

United Work
Community Day represents the united work of local church women for the last three months. Women in the various churches have been assembling medical kits to be placed in homes in areas of no medical aid. They have also been sewing nightgowns for children in institutions all over the world.
