

So Co Prepares Social Activities For Macampus

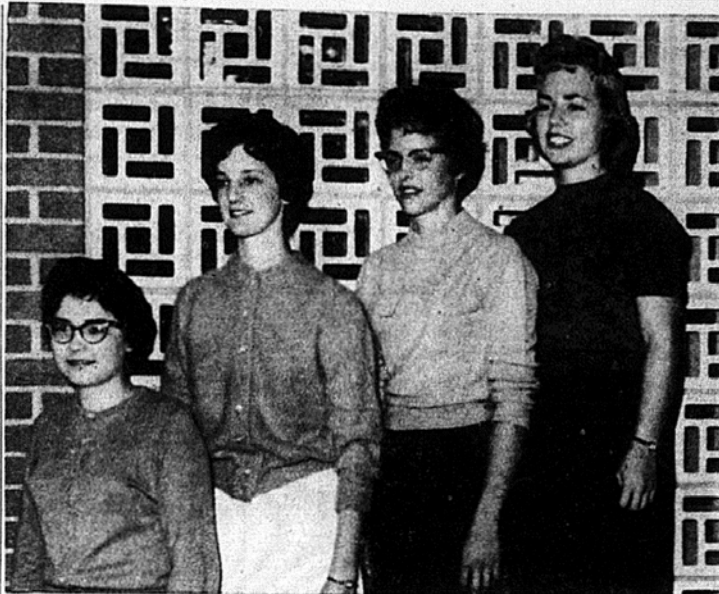

Co-ordinating the social activities of Macampus is the Social Committee composed of four members.

SoCo plans many of the social activities such as the all school party, after game dances, picnics, banquets, chapel movies, and outside talent shows.

Sandra Walty, junior from Windom, will be the chairman of the committee this year. Other members are Orpha Schrag, sophomore from McPherson, Roger Emmert, sophomore from Redfield, Iowa, and Glenn Lorci, senior from Romona.

SoCo welcomes suggestions from the students concerning any social functions involving the students.

After the new Student Center is completed, many of the social activities on Macampus will be held in the game room downstairs.

Queen Will Be Crowned At Banquet Thursday Night

Macollege's Homecoming Queen of 1961-62 will be crowned Thursday night, Oct. 12 at the Queen's Banquet and Ball. The banquet begins at 7 p.m. in the Student Center and the dance will begin at 8:15 p.m.

Queen Candidates

Queen candidates are Dorothy Brown from Hutchinson, Galea Heefner from Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Karen Stong, from Des Moines, Iowa; and Marcene Gridley from Topeka.

Sophomore candidates for attendant are Sharon Allen, Wichita; Connie Andes, Mound City, Mo.; Orpha Schrag, McPherson; and Lois Moats, Grundy Center, Iowa.

Freshmen nominated Maralee Strom, Worthington, Minn.; Margaret Nelson, McPherson; Judy Fox, Garfield; and Roberta Bell, McPherson as their candidates for attendant.

Sylvia Phillips, senior from Geneseo and last year's queen, will crown the new royalty to be chosen by the student body.

Banquet Theme

A theme of "Three Coins in a Fountain" will be used for the Queen's Banquet.

Tickets may be bought in Friendship Hall following chapel or assembly or in the cafeteria on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday noons.

Cost of tickets is $1 for students on the food plan and $2 for those who are not on the plan. Tickets for the dance only may be bought for $1.

The committee in charge has recommended that tickets be purchased early since only 250 may attend the banquet.

Mac Students Participate In Loan Program

Seventy-six McPherson College students are participating in the National Defense Student Loan Program. These students have borrowed a total of $34,350 of which Macollege pays a tenth of the cost.

This is a large increase over last year partially because of an increased allotment to McPherson.

The United States Office of Education has reported that 140,281 loans totaling $59.6 million were made to college students between February 1959, and July 1, 1960, the first 17 months of the program.

The Office of Education estimated that 45 per cent of the student borrowers in 1959-60 plan to teach in public schools.

Thirty-three Kansas institutions participated in the program in 1960, and a total of 1,961 loans were made as compared with 509 in 1959.

These loans were worth $954,207 as compared with $255,844 in 1959. The average loan this year was worth $487.

Many Churches Represented On Campus

Twenty-five church denominations are represented at McPherson College. This is a large number for a denominational college of this size.

There are 275 Brethren students here, the greatest number of any denomination. This is about 56 per cent of the entire student body. The Methodists are second with 60, Presbyterians third with 18, and the Baptists and Lutherans tied for fourth with 17 each.

Students of minor denominations and sects, excluding Brethren, comprise half as many students as the six major denominations. The Mennonite Church has 15 members on campus.

Brethren on campus form a more cosmopolitan group than the non-Brethren students. Whereas 78 per cent of the latter reside in Kansas, 68 per cent are from out of state.

Good Sportsmanship

Let's Continue The Cheering

By Carolyn Trapp

While attending McPherson College's first home game two weeks ago, I took a little time to observe the spectators. Never have I noticed such enthusiasm and school spirit displayed by the student body and other spectators.

I noticed not only a large crowd but also what appeared to be an over-all feeling of complete support for the team. The cheering designated to me an abundance of interest and enthusiasm in the game.

Enthusiasm like that displayed at our first home game encourages the football boys and also gives the cheerleaders added incentive to put forth their best efforts.

School spirit, encouragement, and good sportsmanship can have an amazing influence on not only the athletes but also on the entire campus.

We have begun the school year with good sportsmanship and enthusiasm so now it is up to us to continue this throughout all of the year's sporting events, regardless of whether we win or lose.

Again, I want to compliment the student body on its encouraging display of school spirit and enthusiasm at Macollege's first home football game.

Letters To The Editor

Dance Issue Brings Additional Suggestions

Dear Editor,

In order to supplement the editorial on the college dance, I felt an urge to add my ideas and some suggestions to the problem.

First, let me say that this is not directed to anyone in particular, but for those who are in responsible positions—if the shoe fits, put it on.

Also, I will not attempt to present here my philosophies on the problem of social dancing for the simple reason that an abbreviated discussion of it would leave many misconceptions.

Therefore, if you want to know my views, I'd prefer to discuss it with you personally.

I have observed many dances on Macampus and conclude that these are anything but all-school events. Furthermore, I doubt whether you can have an all-school party voluntarily, but I think more students could be satisfied.

At the dance referred to in the SPECTATOR, I spoke to a number of guys who would have been overjoyed if they could have played volleyball. Undoubtedly, another group there would gladly have played ping pong had there been a place to play.

Some married or nearly married couples could likely have enjoyed some kind of party at the Bittinger's home, while other students would enjoy playing table games, cards, and some merely attending bull sessions somewhere.

Having said this, I need not say that some students, likely a hundred or more, did not enjoy the all-school dance.

Obviously, some of the above activities need no planning, and I know that when the Student Center is completed, there will be many more activities and meeting places.

Several students in discussing the issue, expressed a desire for some organized recreation, such as folk games and other activities of a subcultural nature.

Could something be arranged for the night of the Queen's Ball for those who are left in this peculiar state of mind?

What are the other 250 students to do while the lucky ones enjoy the Queen's Ball?

I conclude then by requesting more than one activity for special occasions in order to include more students without forcing anyone into any embarrassing situation; and an increased emphasis upon the above possibilities for self-planned activities when the Student Center opens.

Respectfully,
Robert H. Hess

Albin Answers Letter About Campus Rules

Dear Editor,

I was happy to see the letter in the SPECTATOR last week. It seems there have been quite a few comments about the rules regarding the new Student Center. I would like to, in my opinion, give the feeling of the Student Center Board when it passed these rules. (I think the rules of no shorts and dress-up are the main objection.)

Last year in the old cafeteria there was quite a bit of line crowding and throwing of food. It was felt that if the students would dress up a little more maybe some of these things could be stopped.

Also, we have been having more visitors each week than we had last year and it does not look particularly appealing if we wear old faded jeans and shorts.

Concerning the dress-up meal some night during the week, we are seriously considering having it changed to some other time than Saturday. And the cafeteria is willing to prepare a better meal if the students are willing to dress up for it.

It was also stated in the letter last week that rules should be recommended to Student Council and it should then be voted on by the students. It seems that this would be quite difficult to do each time a rule concerning the Student Body was concerned.

Yet this would be only fair since we can have opposition to any issue and some would want a vote. I would, however, call attention to the fact that meeting of the Student Council or Student Body can be called by the students as stipulated in Article V of the Constitution of the Student Body.

It does seem to me that the atmosphere has changed considerably for the better since we have been eating in the new cafeteria. I would not give the credit to the Student Center Board for this however. It is mainly the modernness of the cafeteria. But we felt that something should be done to stop the activities of last year both now and in the future when the building gets older.

Student States Views About Frosh Initiation

Dear Editor,

In many cultures initiations have served to instruct and elevate. The initiation was formerly a process of education. Today, in our society the object of the initiation, or at least of this one is to humiliate and degrade.

I fail to see anything worthwhile in the freshman initiation. In fact, there is a good deal wrong with it. The concept that one group of people is better

Pondering With The President

Ivory Towers

By D. W. Bittinger

Colleges used to be built perpendicularly. If there was not a tower with a clock in it, and ivy crawling up it, it was not a college. At least, it was not an ivy college.

In these ivy-covered towers, students pulled themselves pretty well away from the current world. They excited themselves with many fraternities, sororities, and many things which were largely unrelated to the world in which they lived, or would live. Those were the days of pranks, of really juvenile behaviour, on the part of adults who called themselves students.

Colleges are being built, now, without towers. They are linear. They are close to the ground; they are not ivy covered; they let in light; from them one can see the outside world.

Students are changing, too, or should be. They should not dwell apart from the world, but dwell in it, even while they are students, and prepare themselves to take over its responsibilities as soon as they are out of college.

Students now are living in momentous times; young men and young women are in demand.

At the center of the future stands the United Nations. It is in a period of crisis. Are we as students aware of it? Are we writing any letters to the key places about it? Are we preparing to be a part of the Peace Corps or other helpful groups who serve in many parts of the world, including our own parts? Are we getting the ivy, the juvenility, the childishness away from us, so that we can walk tall like men and women in a world that demands men and women?

than another is unchristian and totalitarian. There is nothing good or normal about freshman boys wearing lipstick. This is unmanly, degrading behavior.

I also understand that freshmen are required to shine upperclassmen's shoes. Some upperclassmen will, no doubt, not require this; but a few will get sadistic satisfaction out of making another student get on his knees and wipe the dirt off his shoes.

It is too bad that all the time and effort that is being expended toward the satisfaction of a negligible number of upperclassmen could not be used for something good.

An example of this would be the two hundred dollars that was spent on freshman beanies. That money could have been used in B. V. S. work, but instead it was spent to supply a means of identifying freshmen, much as Hitler required Jews to wear yellow.

Bulldogs Try For Victory Against Winless Friends

Aiming for their second victory of the season, the McPherson College Bulldogs will battle the winless Friends University Falcons tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. Friends' homecoming activities will be held at Hoyt Athletic Field on the Friends campus.

Friends' lineup includes Harry Richardson, a senior co-captain who placed fifth in passing in the KCAC in 1960; Richard Carlberg, sophomore defensive end; and Clark Hay, right halfback.

Brooks Calls Signals
Richard Brooks, senior fullback co-captain for the season, will be calling the defensive signals. A four year letterman, Brooks has gained a lot of yardage for the Falcons'.

Other returning lettermen are Jerry Bogle, John Ehrlich, Carl Hershberger, Phil Huntsinger, Larry Kellum, Dan Kinney, Wayne Moore, Jim Ratzlaff, Tom Stranthoner, and Roger Watson. Both teams will use the Slot T formation. Coach Sid Smith commented, "Friends has passing ability, so the Bulldogs will be stressing passing defense as well as a defensive line for this game."

Soccer Team Succeeds 6-1 In Contest With Tabor

McPherson College soccer team defeated the Tabor College B team by the score of 6 to 1 in last Saturday's fast and hard-fought game. Sixteen boys made the trip, and each played in two or more of the four periods.

Henry Esquino led the McPherson forward line, scoring four goals. Ken Ullom and Earl Safer, both forwards each made spectacular goal shots.

Mac scored three goals each half. Tabor's only score came in the final minutes of play.

Defensive Back Line
McPherson's defensive back line was led by Milt Vellos and goal was kept by Dave Ankenman. Ankenman stopped six of Tabor's seven scoring attempts.

Skillful ball handling by Nggida Gadzama backed the forward attack, keeping the midfield under McPherson's control.

Tabor On Defensive
In man for man play, Mac's teamwork and ball control kept Tabor on the defensive.

Three Teams Share Lead In KCAC Standings

Three teams are defending the top position going into KCAC action this weekend. Ottawa, Southwestern, and C. of E. won conference games last week to remain in first place.

Kansas Wesleyan came through with their first victory of the season with a 27-14 win over Bethany. Bethany came back at the half with a 13-0 deficit, but scored two touchdowns to lead 14-13 in the third period.

Jerry Smith threw three touchdowns passes and scored a fourth on a short plunge to lead Kansas Wesleyan to victory.

Ottawa Defeats Sterling
Ottawa remained undefeated in KCAC play by defeating Sterling 37-0. Ottawa's Jerry Harshaw completed a 50-yard pass to Jon Krebs for the longest play of the game.

Ottawa gained 194-yards with

The team expresses its gratitude to Tabor College for their cooperation in furnishing playing equipment, officials, and interest in the McPherson club.

It is the hope of Mac's team that a match can be scheduled at McPherson in the near future so that Macollege students can see some of the speed and finesse that have made soccer one of the world's most popular team sports.

Mac Drops Second Game As Builders Stay Perfect

The Southwestern Builders maintained their perfect conference record as they rolled over the McPherson Bulldogs last Saturday by a score of 33 to 6. Mac's new conference record is one win and two losses.

Phil Hoover, fullback, scored three Builder touchdowns, and Bill Stephens and Bill Glenn each scored one. Lohriding scored Southwestern's three extra points.

McPherson's lone touchdown came in the fourth period when Tim Wesselowski broke away for a 50-yard run and the touchdown. Keith Miller kicked the extra point for the Bulldogs.

McPherson carried the ball for a total of 37 times to Southwestern's 49 carries. The Bulldogs kicked off twice for 35 yards and the Builder six times for 48 yards. Mac also returned five kickoffs for 100 yards and Southwestern returned two for 20 yards.

McPherson gained 233 yards offensively, while Southwestern gained 288 total offensive yards.

Huber's Catch Nullified
Jim Huber caught the longest pass of the game on the six yard line, but it was nullified and returned because of a holding violation on Mac. Charles Wiggins, the leading pass receiver, caught four passes for 53 yards. A fumbled ball which Southwestern recovered on the 25 yard line, a quick kick block, and an intercepted pass resulted in three of Southwestern's five touchdowns.

Stephens scored first for Southwestern on a five-yard plunge, and in the same period, Hower plunged over from the one-yard line for the second TD.

In the second quarter, Hower scored on a 26-yard run, and he scored again in the third on a 23-yard dash. Southwestern's fifth TD was made in the last period by Glenn on a nine-yard run.

Silas O'Neal, who led McPherson defensively with 11 tackles, was followed by David Priddy with eight, Dick Kruse with seven, and Keith Miller with six tackles.

Coach Sid Smith stated, "There wasn't that much difference in the clubs. The statistics showed we were not as badly outplayed as the score indicated, but the errors proved costly."

Paoli, Mac Senior, Comes From Castaner, Puerto Rico

Blanca Paoli, second semester senior, whose native home is in Castaner, Puerto Rico, came to the United States in 1956 to make Chicago, Ill., her home. She is the seventh of ten children.

When asked her opinion of Puerto Rico wanting to become the fifty-first state, she replied, "I think it is out of the question because Puerto Rico has enough freedom being a Commonwealth of the United States without becoming a state and paying taxes."

Free Associated State

"A Commonwealth is a free associated state. We have our own government which is a copy of the United States but we can change our rules and laws any time we want to. As of now, we have almost the same privileges as any state."

Blanca attended high school in Puerto Rico in a Brethren Academy in which nearly all the teachers were MacCollege graduates. Blanca received a full tuition scholarship to McPherson for two years and a half tuition for the next semester.

One year before Blanca came to McPherson in 1956, one of her brothers, Ramon, attended MacCollege as a history and political science major.

Languages

Blanca has an understanding of the Italian and French languages. She speaks Spanish and English fluently. A member of the Episcopal Church, she attends St. Anne's here in McPherson.

For the past year and a half, Blanca worked at Sears Roebuck Company in Chicago. An English major, she is planning to teach high school either in Puerto Rico or Illinois.

BLANCA PAOLI, A second semester senior, who is an English major at Mac, came to the United States in 1956. Her home is now Chicago, Ill.

Western Region Meeting To Be At Iowa Church

Regional Conference of the Western Region of the Church of the Brethren will be held at the South Waterloo Church of the Brethren at Waterloo, Iowa, Oct. 20 to Oct. 25.

The theme of this year's conference is "God Speaks to His People."

Leaders of the conference include Rev. Clarence D. Sink, pastor of the Waterloo Church; Chalmer E. Faw, professor of New Testament at Bethany Biblical Seminary; A. Stauffer Curry, director of family education and men's fellowship.

Carl E. Meyers, director of ministry and home missions; Mrs. Anna Warstler, director of adult education and women's fellowship; and Harold Statler, executive secretary of the Kansas Council of Churches.

Dr. D. W. Bittinger, president of McPherson College and Rev. Floyd Bantz, executive secretary of the Western Region, will attend from the McPherson area. Rev. Bantz will speak at the Sunday morning service on "You Are My People."

low stars. The basic idea is the same.

I know there are students here, freshmen and upperclassmen alike, who believe in the worth of every individual. If they are sincere in their belief and have courage, they will have nothing to do with the initiation.

For freshmen this takes a little more courage, but the black "M" should now be thought of not as a sign of ridicule, but as a badge of honor.
