Yoder, Class Select Cast For 'Solid Gold Cadillac'

Over forty people appeared for tryouts for "The Solid Gold Cadillac," and a cast-tentative for a week-was chosen Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Una Yoder, director of dramatics and members of the College Play Production class named the cast.

Mrs. Partridge, portrayed by Ellen Sell, is a small stockholder in a large corporation, and attends a stockholder's meeting because her horoscope says it is a good day for financial matters.

Once there, she begins asking the corporation directors embarrassing questions about their salaries—with disastrous results. Blessington, played by Roger Solomon, Gillie by Dan Messer, Metcalfe by Alan Cable, and Snell by Ken Dauer, are the four Corporation Directors who find their comfortable positions being threatened by Mrs. Partridge.

McKeever, played by Dean Fasnacht, is an ex-corporation director who went to Washington to become a Senator.

Miss Shotgraven, played by Jane Funk, is Mrs. Partridge's personal secretary, and Jenkins, portrayed by Bill Lawrence, is an office worker who becomes Miss Shotgraven's lover.

Miss L'Arriere, a model, will be played by Georgianna Krehbiel, and Miss Logan, McKeever's comical secretary will be portrayed by Harriett Swinger.

Juniors Sweat Way Through English Test

Maccollege juniors took an English Proficiency test to display a working knowledge of the English language last Saturday.

The test consisted of two parts, one objective and the other, composition.

For their essay, students chose from a list of varied subjects. Each student had to write not less than 300 words in 100 minutes.

To pass both phases of the test, students had to establish a 50 percentile rating on the objective part and their essay had to receive satisfactory ratings from two members of the English department.

Out of 106 who took the test, 41 failed for a failure of 39 per cent. Scores on the objective test ranged from 10 - 97 per centile.

Birmingham Terror Contrasts With Dignity, in Washington

Three weeks ago, over 200,000 persons—white and Negro—gathered in Washington, D. C. to urge legislature to pass new civil rights laws.

Last Sunday, four girls were killed 23 injured in a bombing in Birmingham, Ala. As an aftermath of the bombing, two Negro boys were shot to death in another part of the city.

Our place is not to stand in judgment of the actions of the contrasting motives of the two groups involved. But, one cannot help being impressed by the differing atmosphere surrounding the two inidents. In Washington, 200,000 people gather without a single outbreak of violence. In Birmingham, perhaps a handful of people stand responsible for city-wide terror and six deaths, as well as for the physical and psychological damage to others.

In the long view of history, it will be interesting to note which demonstration ultimately has the more impact—a dignified, precisely planned march, or an impulsive, destructive bombing. BJJ

Reader Suggests Name For Dorm

Dear Editor,

Last spring McPherson College proudly broke ground on the east side of the campus for a new men's residence hall.

Also last spring one of McPherson Colleges most popular professors announced his retirement from the faculty after 26 continuous years in the Department of Philosophy and Religion at McPherson College.

As school opened this fall, 158 men found modern and comfortable quarters awaiting their use in the new men's residence hall. During the approaching festivities of Homecoming in October this new dormitory is to be formally named and dedicated. What is the connection between a retiring professor and a new and as yet unnamed dormitory?

I suggest that no finer tribute could be bestowed upon a professor, as popular as Dr. Burton Metzler, than to have a fine new men's residence hall named in his honor.

I know that selecting a name for a new hall constitutes many problems and obligations upon the part of the trustees who so diligently guide the future of our college and its members. Let's convey to them our gratitude for a new dorm by requesting that it be honored with the name of Metzler Hall.

College Leaders Discuss Weaknesses of Activities

By Mary Ann Robinson
Dean of Women

Early this fall, the officers and advisers of all Macollege organizations met at the home of President Bittinger.

The discussion centered around the weaknesses of the college activities, for there is no college which is perfect in every way!

The discussion ended in constructive suggestions of what each organization could do to improve life on our campus.

It was heartening to see the enthusiasm of these campus leaders as they made plans for the year. One left the meeting with the feeling that "all will be well" with these concerned leaders at the helm.

Something more must happen, however, and that is the enthusiastic support of every student on campus.

Each year, there is a surge of student complaining about what is wrong with campus life. This is good, if the complainers step out of the sideline and into the campus life to do their part to improve conditions.

If a student thinks the social events on campus are dull, he ought to attend them and help to make them successful. It doesn't do much good to look in the door for a few minutes and then leave. It would also help if he would willingly serve on a planning committee for a social event.

If a student thinks there is not enough support of athletic events, he ought to attend them all and YELL!

If one complains that there are not enough stimulating discussion groups on campus, he ought to take an active part in one or more of the groups which attempt to remedy this situation . . . the political organizations . . . the McPherson Christian Association . . . The International Relations Club, to mention a few.

There is a place for constructive criticism when the criticizer is serious about doing his part to improve matters.

The first week of school showed campus-wide enthusiasm for all of the activities held. If this spirit prevails, it will be a great year at McPherson College!

Student Council Promotes Good Student Government

Steve Mohler, president of the McPherson College Student Body is "looking forward to a year of service with the Student Council."

As president of the Student Body, Steve also heads the Student Council. The main duty of the Council is to act as the student governing power of the student body, promote good student government, and officially represent the student body to the faculty and other official bodies.

Because of an amendment added to the constitution of the Student Council last year, a change has taken place in the procedure for voting for representatives. All members of the council now are to be nominated by petition.

Representatives to the Student Council are: Steve Mohler, president; Bill Grove, treasurer; Daryl Standafer, vice president and senior class representative; Lois Fruth, secretary and senior class representative.

Faculty members are Dr. Wayne Geisert, S. M. Dell, Miss Mary Ann Robinson, and Dr. John Ward. Freshman representatives will be elected in the fall.

Representatives - at - large are Dave Anders, Merlin Dresher, Ron Grout, Junior Hendricks, Beverly Judge, Allan Miller, Ken Ullom and Chris van de Velde.

These representatives to the Student Council have already started some of their duties. A meeting has been held, and the Freshman Talent Show and initiation plans were made.

Other plans for the immediate future include supervising the freshman election of officers and representatives, a function at which Steve Mohler will preside.

Also discussed was the appointing of committees from the Student Council to take charge of floats for Homecoming and also choosing of the Homecoming Queen.

To accomplish this, the Student Council meets once a week in the basement of the Student Union. Other meetings can be scheduled if the need arises.

One meeting a semester is open to the entire student body, at which time any student may voice an opinion on the operation of student government, or other affairs of importance on campus.

The Student Council can be petitioned at any time, either by talking with a representative, writing letters to the council, or attending an open meeting.

Projecting further into the future, Steve Mohler outlined the following plans for Student Council action. The council will attempt to submit questionnaires to the student body in order to determine opinions and attitudes toward campus affairs and procedures.

Student Council is looking for more cooperation with the faculty, and is hoping for possible student representation at faculty meetings.

Also, there are plans for a complete revision of the Board of Publications.

This board is the controlling board of the Spectator and the Quadrangle, Macollege yearbook. The board is presently controlled by Student Council.

Mac Looking For Vengeance

By Jamie Oxley

Tomorrow night the McPherson College grid team will be out to avenge last year's 39-0 defeat at the hands of College of Emporia, when they tangle with the Presbies at Emporia. The Presbies, coached by Bill Schnebel, have back a strong nucleus to build on with seven-teen returning lettermen, including one of the nations finest aerial attacks.

Leading the air attack again will be senior quarterback, Bruce Upstill. Throughout his three year college grid career, Upstill has gained 4961 total yards—4781 passing and 181 rushing.

Last year alone he passed for 2041 yards and altogether has completed 304 passes in 558 attempts during his three year career.

Also returning for the Presbies is Marv Williamson, Upstill's favorite receiver. Last year Williamson led the N.A.I.A. in receiving passes with 56 caught for 1119 yards.

Back to bolster the line for the Presbies again this year is Eldon Moore, another senior all-conference performer.

McPherson was defeated 13-9 by Sterling College in a conference game, while C. of E. came from behind twice to squeak through with a 14-13 non-conference victory over Missouri Valley on Saturday night.

City Retailers To Honor Mac Football Players

A Football Appreciation Day will honor the Maccollege Bulldogs, Friday, Sept. 27.

The event, planned by the retailers division of the McPherson Chamber of Commerce, will be highlighted by the game with Kansas Wesleyan of Salina, 7:30 p.m. at the College Stadium.

The three-man committee in charge of the details is composed of Merwin Hapgood, Reggie Stowe, and Bruce Brunk.

Warriors Scalp Bulldogs In Conference Competition

By Wendell Kuhlman

The McPherson Bulldogs scored first and last, but in between it was all Sterling. A last-minute drive by the Bulldogs fell short as Sterling defeated McPherson 13-9 in the first game of the season for both teams.

Mac started well, holding the Warriors for downs after the Bulldogs kicked off to start the game. When McPherson's third offensive play went 49 yards for the first touchdown of the season, Bulldogs rooters settled back to enjoy the game.

Sterling, however, stopped Mac without another TD all night and scored two themselves, one in the second and one in the third period.

Sterling scored first on a 19-yard pass from Salta to Combs, and Larson added the extra point. Plush then scored on a 28-yard end sweep.

Although the Bulldogs led in nearly all statistics, the only other score they could garner was a 30-yard field goal by Rick DeTour late in the third quarter.

McPherson lost the ball three times on pass interceptions and twice on fumbles. They gained possession of the ball only once in each category.

Outstanding players for Mac included Duane Sword, Don Kuhlman, and Eddie Lee Johnson (who scored the first touchdown on offense).

Defensive standouts were both guards, Jon Warner and Edwin Johnson, and Tom Reazin.

	Mac	Sterling
First downs	10	6
Passes	4 of 12	5 of 14
Rushing yards	180	169
Punts	4	7
Punting average	41	39
Fumbles	3	2
Penalties	0	45

RIGOROUS WORKOUTS continue for the Bulldogs as they prepare for the College of Emporia contest tomorrow evening.

From the Locker Room

By Larry Morlan

Welcome back to the critics corner for another year. This year I will again attempt to present an interesting sidelight to the sports scene, while at the same time trying to create interest in sports.

Any comments, ideas, or repercussions are welcomed.

The game with Sterling leaves much to be desired, yet many of the mistakes made were consistent with other opening games.

Eddie Lee Johnson provides Mac with an exciting runner and possibly most of its offense.

Defensively the Bulldogs are again weak on end runs and on passing. Any roll-out passer is going to give Mac more than it can handle.

Sterling did not provide the Bulldogs with the tough opposition they will face in the coming weeks. C of E, Ottawa, and Southwestern promise to be the top teams.

At this time for reasons unknown to anyone, I pick Ottawa to take the conference crown away from C of E.

Last Saturday, I watched two sally teams play at Bethany. The Swedes defeated Bethel in a tough ball game.

Both teams featured tough defense and good offenses for so early in the season. Bethany had a freshman halfback that ran the ball anywhere, and whether running inside or out, he was hard to stop. Harless, the halfback, looks sure for all-conference honors sooner or later.

Bethel's team was spearheaded by the passing arm of sophomore quarterback Ken Koehn, who hit for over 200 yds. in the air.

In action involving other league teams; Bethany defeated Bethel 21-14, and KWU defeated Friends 27-7.

In non-league action; Southwestern defeated Northwest Oklahoma, 13-7, while Ottawa squeezed by William Jewell, a top-rated Missouri team, 7-0. College of Emporia knocked off another top ranked Missouri team, Missouri Valley, 14-13.

Predictions:
C of E 37; Mac 6.

Statistics Pick C of E to Win

If everyone would believe everything he hears, last year's final football standings in the Kansas Conference could be printed again and the 10 teams could take the year off.

College of Emporia has been named by most to retain its conference crown. The Presbies have 17 lettermen returning.

Baker, last season's runner-up, relied on a ground attack as its major threat and averaged 438 yards a game in total offense. The Wildcats return 19 lettermen and an outstanding crop of sophomores.

One of the most optimistic coaches in the conference is Dick Peters at Ottawa. The head man of the Braves will have a predominately senior ball club with a letterman at every position. Southwestern and Bethel should again battle it out for the next spot.

Coach Wes Buller at Bethel hopes his Threshers can pick up the late season momentum from his '62 club that won or tied 5 of its last 6 games.

Bethany is said by some to be the conference dark horse.

Kansas Wesleyan's biggest hopes may well rest with the return of Gene Bissell as coach.

The Warriors from Sterling and the Falcons are again unknown qualities.

Enrollment Figures Rise To Establish New Record

An increase of 4 per cent in student enrollment this year indicates the expansion of Macollege.

Although total high school graduations in the nation was down some 4,000 students, McPherson College is enjoying a 4 per cent increase in enrollment, instead of an anticipated decline.

As of the first week of school, there was a total of 562 full time students enrolled as compared with 546 at the same period last year—an increase of 15.

The freshman class is composed of 218 members which exceeds last year's all-time record of 205. There are 134 sophomores, an increase of 8 over last year, 106 juniors, down 16, and 102 seniors, 9 more than the past year.

Special students, who carry 11 credit hours or less, numbered 40 during the past week of school, compared to 31 for last year. This number is expected to increase as enrollment for evening classes begins.

Among other students, there are 10 international or foreign students.

From Nigeria, Africa, come Adegbola Adejumo, Joseph Ezekia, Nggida Gadzama, Shedd.

Timothy David Born To Macollege Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kuhlman became the parents of a son, Timothy David, Monday, Sept. 16 at the McPherson County Hospital.

Timothy David weighed in at 7 pounds, 11 ounces. Don is a Macollege senior.

Students from other parts of the globe include Wing Kee Kwok, Hong Kong; Fumitaka Matsuoka, Japan; Phillis Dionysios, Greece; Peter Tham, Malaya; and Tomas Eborra from the Philippines.

Total enrollment of students at Macollege — full-time and special—is at a record 604.

Frosh End Absurd Week Of Initiation

Freshmen initiation, an annual event at Macollege, began Monday, and will continue until 10 p.m. today. The climatic event between the freshmen and the sophomores is the tug-of-war.

During the past week, the freshmen were under the command of all upperclassmen.

The tug-of-war started at 12:30 p.m. today at Lakeside Park. Each team consisted of fifteen men who are not presently out for football. Neither of the teams' members were allowed to wear spikes or cleats.

Today the freshmen are displaying a sign which reads: "WATCH US LOSE THE TUG-OF-WAR TODAY AT 12:30."

Members of the initiation committee are Merlin Dresher, Shirley Vanderau, John Miller, Leah Standafer, Dale Marrs, and Nancy Miller.
