

Students Elect New Leaders Tomorrow

Unity Is Key Word In Snavely Thought

Unity is the key word in the platform of George Snavely, jr., Lebanon, Pa., candidate for the office of Student Council president.

To attain an all-campus unity Snavely proposes organization of an informal coffee house where students can gather for relaxation. If elected he would also post agendas of Student Council meetings before each meeting.

Snavely is encouraging students to criticize and offer suggestions to candidates. "Each opinion is valid; there is nothing like the miracle of dialogue to sound out student opinion," he stated in his campaign speech Tuesday in Chapel.

He went on to say, "Student Council is a type of sounding machine between students and faculty." If elected, Snavely has pledged to maintain wide lines of communication between faculty, administration and the student body.

He points out, however, that long-range plans cannot be foreseen until student reaction to the new constitution is gauged.

Snavely concluded, "What I want most is to get students involved in student government. I feel this to be as important to student experience as classroom and book learning." Currently president of the junior class, Snavely is also serving on Student Council and Student Court. A sociology major, he plans a future of guidance counseling.

George Snavely, Jr., Lebanon, Pa., relaxes at the snack bar during campaign week.

Community Center to Be Site of Bloodmobile

Loss of blood in Viet Nam necessitates renewed efforts by the Red Cross in the form of blood drives. McPherson will host such a drive in the Community Building Monday, March 28, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:45 p.m., with a quota of 160 points.

College students are urged to give anytime except between the hours of 10:45 and 11:30 to allow for organizations and store personnel to give their donations. Students under 21 years of age who were given permits last fall are still eligible.

Cheerleaders Will Audition April 15

Tryouts for A and B string cheerleaders have been tentatively scheduled for assembly April 15. Originally planned to coincide with Student Council elections to be held tomorrow, voting on cheerleaders was postponed to simplify present procedure.

The student body will also have an opportunity to vote on a major Student Council constitutional revision on April 15.

Weimer to Play Horn at Recital

David Weimer, sr., Haxton, Colo., will present his senior recital on the French horn in Brown Auditorium, tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The one hour program will feature Dave in three solo pieces with piano accompaniment and a horn duet with piano accompaniment.

Mozart's "Concerto No. 4, K. V. 495" in three movements; Richard Strauss' "Concerto No. 1, op. 11" in three movements; and "Sonata for Horn and Piano," also in three movements, by Bernhard Heiden, will be the solo numbers.

"Suite for Two Horns and Piano," by Telemann will be the duet featured in the program.

Accompanying Dave will be Winona Achilles, fr., McPherson, on horn; and Mary Olson.

Careers Open In Business For Seniors

Representatives from the Civilian Personnel Division of the Air Force were here on campus Tuesday, March 22, from 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

These representatives are interested in interviewing seniors who would like to go into the field of computer programming, accounting, management and other related business occupations.

For those interested in this opportunity an aptitude test was given at 2 p.m. Tuesday afternoon.

Other interviews for senior business majors will be held in the near future by Bell Telephone Co. For the date and further information concerning interview appointments with Bell Telephone Co. students should see the Placement Bureau.

A navy representative will be at the Navy Recruiting Station, Graham Building, 211 North Broadway, Wichita, March 18-26 from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The representative can also be reached by calling AM 7-8521.

The Navy Department in Washington, D.C., has a definite need for civilian typists and stenographers to fill essential career positions in its administrative offices. Applications will be accepted for filling immediate vacancies as well as later openings.

Voting to End Campaigns For 56 Stuco Hopefuls

Macollege students will elect their student government for another year as they mark Student Council ballots tomorrow.

Voting will be done in the Student Council room in the basement of the Student Union from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The voting tomorrow will close a week which has included the usual poster campaigns as well as the new procedure of discussion groups. The Student Union has been the site of these sessions which ran from 9-10 p.m.

Class representatives and representatives - at - large gave the student body an opportunity to ask questions on Tuesday evening, March 22. The same procedure was followed on Wednesday, March 23, for candidates for all executive offices except president.

Presidential candidates will meet this evening in a final talk-back session. Ron Cassidente, jr., Denver and George Snavely, jr., Pa., will present their platforms for the discussion and debate of interested students.

The names of 56 students, all of whom were introduced to the student body in assembly Tuesday, March 22, will appear on the ballot.

Students will vote for one person on the offices of president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary and Student Court chairman.

Each student can select eight names from among those given for representatives - at - large and two from those running for their respective class representative positions.

Sophomores can vote for three juniors for two, and seniors for five class representatives to the Student Court.

All students enrolled in 12 semester hours are entitled to vote. Junior Hendricks, sr., Kingsley, Iowa, president of Student Council urges student participation. Those who will be unable to vote tomorrow are asked to get absentee ballots from Junior today.

Results of the elections should be known Friday night.

Slater to Direct 'Cyrano' in Lab

Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac" will be directed in laboratory theatre by Peggy Slater, fr., Denver, March 29, on stage in Brown Auditorium, at 7 p.m.

The play concerns a man with a large nose and his sensitivity to it. The director feels the story is relevant because "of the extreme emphasis put right now on physical appearance."

The cast includes Ed Shapley, jr., Sparta, N.J.; Judy Monke, soph., Kingsley, Iowa; Clark Ratliffe, fr., Park Ridge, Ill.; Russ Merrifield, fr., Champaign, Ill.; and Rusty Birchard, fr., Radnor, Pa.

Break Starts April 1

Easter vacation will begin Friday, April 1, at 12:15 p.m. and end Tuesday, April 12, at 7:45 a.m.

Cassidente Projects Program of Action

Presidential hopeful Ron Cassidente, jr., Denver, bases his campaign on what he calls "an image of excellence" at McPherson College, and the achieving of such an image.

In his speech Tuesday in chapel, Cassidente spelled out his philosophy of student government, pointing out how students and Student Council could relate this philosophy to "a program of action next year, continuing on a sound foundation for years to come."

"Student Council is the main means for appropriate interaction of the student body and the administration," stated Cassidente.

If elected, Cassidente pledges action in areas of academic affairs, social life, religious life and student service to outside communities, as spelled out in his platform.

In addition, he will promote "on-campus service" by making off-campus students more aware of their place in the student body and making the entire student body more aware of its capability to take action.

English major Cassidente is currently a representative at large on the Student Council and this year has chaired the Red Cross Bloodmobile drive and the Constitutional Revision Committee.

He is editor-in-chief of the Spectator and a member of Alpha Psi Omega, dramatics fraternity.

Positions Available On Publications Staff

Applications for four publication positions on the Spectator and Quadrangle staffs are now being accepted from students interested in publications work.

The four positions opening next year by advancement of present personnel are campus editor and assistant business manager of the Spectator, and associate editor and assistant business manager of the Quadrangle.

Applications should be made out to the Board of Publications and should include the applicants' background in publications work, and any experience they have had which might help in this type of work.

Applications will not be accepted after April 1, 1966, and can be turned into John Long, Chairman of the Board of Publications, Anna Hutchinson Taylor, secretary of the board or Mrs. Homer Brunk, associate professor of English and journalism.

The campus editor of the Spectator actually has a three-semester job, as he will work one semester as campus editor, assigning news stories; one semester as managing editor, copyreading and headlining stories; and the final semester, as editor-in-chief.

The campus editorship itself involves no salary but a maximum of $350 can be earned in salary and bonuses during the terms as managing editor and editor-in-chief.

Two years of work are involved in the position of assistant business manager of the Spectator. A full year is served as assistant followed by another full year as business manager. During the second year it is possible to earn $300 in salary and bonuses.

The associate editor of the Quadrangle also has a full year job followed by another year as editor-in-chief. The editor-in-chief can make a maximum total of $200 in salary and bonuses.

The position of assistant business manager of the Quadrangle is also a two year term as he succeeds to the position of business manager his second year. The business manager can earn a total of $200 in salary and bonuses.

Presidential candidate Ron Cassidente, Jr., Denver browses in the book store in a free moment during his campaign.

Tennis, Golf Teams Start Play This Week

Spring sports get underway this week, with the tennis and golf teams meeting their first opponents away from home.

The tennis team will meet Tabor College in its first meet of the season tomorrow afternoon at Hillsboro.

With only one letterman back from the team that took third place last year in the conference tournament, the team will lack experience.

Eleven men are currently trying out for the team. Tennis is run on a ladder system with the lower players allowed to challenge the player above them on the ladder.

The top six men during each week will be taken to the meets that week. At each meet five or six singles matches are played followed by three doubles matches.

Southwestern and Bethany finished first and second in the conference meet held at the end of the 1965 season. This year they appear to be two of the powerful teams again, along with Sterling.

Larry Evans, jr., Lincoln, Neb., the only letterman on the squad, is hopeful that the team will have a .500 season if the new players progress. Evans claims everyone is trying hard and all are eager to play.

As of Monday, March 21 the ladder stood as follows:

1. Larry Evans
2. Loren Baughman, soph., McPherson
3. Pete Murray, fr., Bloomfield, Conn.
4. Tom Crago, soph., LaVerne, Calif.
5. Gary Blackwell, fr., Pawnee Rock
6. Tom Keane, fr., Concord, N. H.
7. Paul Otis, fr., Denver, Colo.
8. Harry Steeley, fr., Hamburg, Pa.
9. Mike Ball, sr., Augusta
10. Stan Borowski, fr., Newark, Del.
11. Larry Vernon, fr., Big Pine, Calif.

The first match for the 1965-66 edition of the Macollege golf team was held yesterday at the Salina Country Club against Kansas Wesleyan University.

The Bulldog slammers are expected to be in top contention for KCAC honors this season and are hopeful for a berth in the NAIA regional tournament to be held April 7-8, at Wellington.

The squad is to be trimmed to seven players after April 1 and will continue as a seven-man squad for the duration of the season.

Coach of the golf team is "Dutch" Uhlraab, an outstanding senior golfer from McPherson. A retired city school official, Uhlraab sees that each player turns in two score cards each week. He selects the top five for each meet.

Leading this year's team is Gene Czaplinski, jr., McPherson, who posted a 239, good for seventh place in the conference last year.

Czaplinski was beaten only once in match play last season and is expected to be a threat for top individual in KCAC play this season.

Another letterman, George Jones, jr., Canton, has shown signs of moving up on the team this season and should be a solid third or fourth man.

Don Woodcock, soph., Washington; Lance Hungerford, fr., Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Chris Levi, soph., Barryville, Va.; Dave Ikenberry, fr., Jacksonville, Fla.; and the other letterman, Phil Grove, soph., Laurens, Iowa, round out the promising prospective members of the team.

The golfers work out at McPherson Country Club, where the greens are considered among the finest in this part of the state.

Students who enjoy watching golf are urged to come out to the club when the Bulldogs are in action. The club is located five miles north of McPherson on U.S. Highway 81, on the west side of the road.

'Batman' Halts Drumstick Theft

By Jerry Lasater
While fixing the famous "Bat Sundae" March 14, Batman (Jerry Lasater, fr., McPherson) and the Boy Wonder Robin (Norman Fry, fr., Rockford, Ill.) were interrupted by the appearance of an "Evil Doer" (Bill Dickerson, sr., Denver).

To the amazement of the spectators, who were busy enjoying the music and the "super-secret" formula of the Bat Sundae, Batman and Robin, without hesitation, attacked each other.

Meanwhile, the Evil Villain skulked and before the eyes of the terrified onlookers, did fully steal the drumstick of the JWT string quartet's drummer, Carlton Gilman, fr., White Plains, N.Y.

The Caped Crusader's Constant Companion was the first to recover from the aforementioned vicious attack. With an exclamation of "Holy Krupa, Batman, he just stole a drumstick from the drummer," Robin launched himself into a spirited sparring match with the "Dastardly Deed Doer." Biff, bop, pow.

Larry Morlan, sr., is all smiles as Coach Don Widrig strains his muscles in a fast work out on the new weight machine, recently purchased by M Club and WAA.

Weight Machine Is Well Used Equipment

By Jamie Oxley
A recent addition to the McPherson College gym has become one of the most widely used pieces of equipment at the college.

The Universal Gym Machine, installed in the weight room of the gym, is in use almost continually— from 6 a.m. until 10 p.m. by students— both female and male— who are interested in building their bodies. The weight machine was installed at the expense mainly of WAA and M Club, but everyone on campus is eligible to use it.

The machine is unique in that it is always available, and is so constructed that nothing can be taken from it.

This machine has gained wide popularity across the nation because so many exercises featuring almost all muscles of the body can be performed by several people at the same time in a relatively small space.

All the service academies ordered 50 of the machines in one order, to facilitate their programs.

Softball to Begin

Spring intramurals will get underway at Macollege after Easter vacation with the organization of intramural softball.

Class to Tour Radio, TV Studio

Introduction to Radio and Television class will go to Kansas City today to view facilities and watch programming at KC-MO TV and FM radio station. Future trips will include KRDO TV, KARD TV and KAKE TV at Hutchinson and Wichita. During the trips the students will observe broadcast techniques that coincide with class discussions.

Knowing he had had enough of the "Teen Terror," the villain was seen to flee into the kitchen. And they say nothing ever happens in McPherson.

Writers Must Meet Deadline

Poets, artists and short story writers have one more day to submit entries for publication in "Sturm und Drang," campus literary magazine, according to Judy Hoover, sr., Denver, editor-in-chief.

Four copies of each written entry should be submitted to either Judy or Modena Hoover, jr., Rocky Ford, Colo. All material considered for the magazine will automatically be entered in the Fine Arts Festival.

Subscriptions for the magazine, which will sell for 69 cents a copy, will be sold beginning this week in residence halls, and following Easter vacation, in the Student Union.

Activities for the Fine Arts Festival, slated for May 1-8, are tentatively taking shape, with ordering of films, engaging of speakers and scheduling of programs during evenings and also for convocations.

Contests for drama, poetry, short story, musical composition and arrangement, watercolor, oil painting, drawing, design, ceramics and sculpture are scheduled, with a panel of faculty members judging entries.

Deadlines for Festival entries are April 1 for drama and April 18 for all other entries. Russ Merrifield, fr., Champaign, Ill., will be accepting drama entries.

Students accepting prose and poetry are Gary Wilson, sr., New Orleans, and Linda Kurtz, jr., Billings, Mont.

Musical compositions should be given to Kathy Andrews, jr., Rocky Ford, Colo.; and art entries to Jim Guenther, soph., Piqua, Ohio.

Alumni Phase Takes Shape In Development

The month of March will continue to see much travel and planning as the alumni phase of the development program takes shape across the United States.

The first two weeks of the month included trips by various college officials to Garden City, Dodge City, Wichita, Ft. Scott, Topeka, Lawrence and Kansas City.

Dr. J. Jack Melhorn, president of the College, left March 17 to meet with alumni groups in LaVerne and Modesto, Calif., Nampa, Idaho, and Denver.

The final week of March will include trips to Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska. March 28 will also be the date for the first worker meeting for the McPherson city-county area.

M Club Carnival to Feature Royalty, Booths, Game Prizes

By Phil Grove

King and Queen of the "M" Club Carnival will be crowned Saturday night, March 26, at the carnival, to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Several king and queen candidates have already been nominated, but others may still be nominated by giving a quarter to Eugene Nilson, jr., Gypsum; Tom Worthing, jr., Wamego; or Larry Evans, jr., Lincoln, Neb.

A penny will give a vote to the favorite candidate, and the two who receive the most votes will be crowned king and queen.

The 30 "M" Club members will divide into small groups, with each group being responsible for a booth or activity for the carnival.

Jim Steine, sr., McPherson, and Gary Wilson, sr., New Orleans, are responsible for the football throw; and Wendell Kuhlman, sr., McPherson, and Buddy Taylor, sr., McPherson the nail drive.

Russell Burkholder, sr., Preston, Minn., and Junior Hendricks, sr., Kingsley, Iowa, will be in charge of the free throw shooting.

Tom Reazin, sr., McPherson, and Laurel Patrick, sr., McPherson, will have a booth where one can win a prize by knocking over milk bottles with a softball.

Tom Brubaker, soph., Rocky Ford, Colo.; Bob Klockars, soph., Glen Ellyn, Ill.; and Jim Beachell, fr., Princeton, N. J., will have a car smash.

Dick Welch, sr., Delph, Ind., and Jon Warner, sr., McPherson, will test skill at throwing darts at balloons; and Ron Schman, soph., Dallas Center, Iowa, and Ralph Barr, jr., McPherson, will conduct the golf putting contest.

Jerry Harrison, fr., Beloit; John Smith, soph., Independence, Calif.; Dale Prochaska, jr., Glasco; and Phil Grove, soph., Laurens, Iowa, will run the bingo stand.

Irvin Albin, soph., Quinter, and Dan Stockstill, fr., Geneseo, will be in charge of the cake walk, where one has a chance to win a cake.

Arnold Groff, jr., Castaner, Puerto Rico, and Don Crosby, fr., Great Bend, will test the strength of those who wish to try their skill at lifting weights.

John Chance, jr., De Kalb, Ill., and Larry Bierwirth, sr., Bartonville, Ill., will be in charge of selling popcorn and pop during the carnival. Benny Steward, jr., Greensboro, Md., and Wayne Heskett, fr., Oakley, will be selling sweatshirts.

Prizes which can be won at the carnival have been donated by McPherson businessmen. A combination clock-transistor radio, purchased by the "M" Club, will be given away as a door-prize. It may be seen in the Student Union showcase.

The MacCollege "M" Club is an organization of men who are awarded letters in any of the sports sponsored on campus. It sponsors various events and meetings. The "M" Club's annual carnival is held for the purpose of raising money for equipment and expenses.

Recently, the "M" Club, with some help from the Women's Athletic Association, purchased a $2500 weight lifting machine which may be used by any MacCollege student.

At the end of the year, monogram "M" watches are given to graduating senior members who have fulfilled certain stipulations set up in the club constitution. Money for the watches is taken from the club treasury.

The "M" Club April 23 will sponsor a formal banquet for members and their guests. Speaker for the banquet has not yet been chosen.

An annual picnic will be held sometime this spring by the "M" Club for the business men and Bulldog backers in appreciation for their support throughout the year.
