Activity Is Symbol Of Melhorn's Year

One year ago, on Nov. 14, 1965, Dr. J. Jack Melhorn walked alone at the end of a symbolic processional to the stage of Brown Auditorium for his inauguration as ninth president of McPherson College.

Now, on the anniversary of that event, activity has replaced symbolism. Dr. Melhorn's involvement in the college, church and community affairs has become the actuality symbolized by the presidential medallion presented to him in the rite of installation.

New leadership accomplishing new goals upon foundations laid by old institutions, symbolized in the processional, is now evident in all phases of College planning.

Today, Dr. Melhorn's leadership, symbolized by the recessional, guides and directs students, faculty and administration in College activities.

Congratulations are in order to Dr. Melhorn on the first anniversary of his inauguration as president of McPherson College.

Cass's Comments

Food Problem Raises Questions, Solutions

By RON CASSIDENE
Food on the McPherson College campus has created quite a stir these past few weeks, and not because of the exciting new menus or the French chef who has been the rage in New York.

No, instead, student dissatisfaction has raised its ugly head on campus once again, and consequently, the questions that no one seems to want to answer, are again being raised — this time with a little more fervor.

The main question centers around the basic reasons "why the food is so . . . poor." Other variants to this question concern the service, the lack of proper utensils, the cleanliness and sanitary disposition of the utensils we do have . . . .

Now there are many sources the student can run to for answers to some of these questions, including the food manager himself; some of the food service help; administrative personnel; one's favorite professor; or the always available and inaccurate — grapevine.

None of the sources can seem to come up with an entirely satisfactory answer to the problem or a way to institute better food on campus. Possibly the old system of passing the buck has a lot to do with the lack of answers.

When the students try to reason this problem out it seems that one solution comes in, appropriating more funds for food and food preparation.

If this is the answer, then it

Home Ec. Chapter Serve Faculty Dinner

Members of the faculty will meet tomorrow in the Church of the Brethren social rooms at 6 p.m. for a faculty dinner.

The meal will be served by the Home Economics Chapter with Karen Johnson, sr. McPherson, acting as chairman.

Included on the menu will be an appetizer, ham loaf, twice-baked potatoes, herbed green beans, oatmeal bread, pumpkin ice cream squares, coffee and tea.

Decorations will be centered around a pumpkin and leaves theme.

should be up to the students and the administration to accurately determine how many students would be willing to pay more for better food.

Then a report should be made accurately stating how much more we would have to pay for different plans and what we could be guaranteed from each. If this were done, it seems that better food could be in the picture next semester.

As it stands right now, there is too much hear-say floating around campus concerning the breakdown of the money paid to the food plan, and who gets what. Students would like to know how the money is spent and why we can only afford what little we are getting.

Secondly, it would be nice to have an accurate statement on what each student is guaranteed at each meal. Also, weekly menus to show how students can plan their selections for both variety—if that is possible — and balanced diet would aid the situation.

Hutchinson to Offer Peace Corps Examination

The next Peace Corps placement test will be given on Saturday Nov. 12 at 9 a.m. at the main post office in Hutchinson.

The examination consists of two 30-minute tests. All applicants are required to take the general aptitude test and the modern language test.

One-hour achievement tests in French and Spanish are offered upon completion of the first two tests. Any applicant who has any knowledge of these two languages must remain to take the "appropriate language" achievement test.

The general aptitude test is composed of three different types of problems: verbal, mathematical and spatial. The verbal questions require the applicant to select a synonym from five alternatives for a given word.

The mathematical questions

Fair Opens To Public

The third annual International Fair will open its eight booths to students, faculty and the public, Friday morning, Nov. 25.

Each of the following countries or continents will have its own booth: Europe, Africa, Middle East, Far East, India and Japan.

Brazil and Mexico will share a booth, as will Spain, Portugal, Italy and Morocco.

Curios of all sizes, shapes and prices will be sold in the booths, which will be set up by the McPherson College Y.

Carolyn Pleratt, sr. Emmetsburg, Iowa, is booth chairman and Ed Lloyd, soph, Lancaster, Pa., is assistant booth chairman.

The MCY wants everyone to be sure and save his pesos, yens and shekels for this worthwhile project.

New Degree Is Conferred By Seminary

Beginning next spring the Church of the Brethren's Bethany Theological Seminary at Oak Park, Ill., will confer upon its graduates the Master of Divinity (M. Div.) degree, in lieu of the Bachelor of Divinity designation.

The change more accurately describes the graduate level of theological study, and is approved by the American Association of Theological Schools, according to Bethany president, Paul M. Robinson.

This will affect former McPherson College students Jerold Wilson, Mark Werner, Leon Swigart, and Max Gunn, all of whom graduated from McPherson in recent years and are now students at Bethany Theological Seminary.

Ed Shapley, sr. Sparta, N.J., is planning to enter Bethany after he graduates from McPherson in December, and after graduation in May, Don Flory, sr. Marion, Ia., and Glenn Frazier, sr. Denver, Colo., will enroll there.

Gifts Motion Dropped

The motion concerning the payment of gifts to both of last year's editor-in-chiefs of The Spectator was resubmitted to the Student Council during the Nov. 2 meeting but, was rescinded. Case is closed.

deal with problem solving. The spatial problems consist of pictures of blocks and ask for the number present.

The purpose of the modern language aptitude test is to provide an indication of one's probable degree of success in learning to speak and to understand a foreign language.

This test places emphasis on English vocabulary, sound-symbol association ability, sensitivity to grammar structure and the rote memory aspect of learning foreign languages.

The French and Spanish tests are designed to test the applicant's mastery of grammar and vocabulary and one's reading comprehension ability.

Further information on the Peace Corps placement tests can be acquired by contacting Leland Lengel, assistant professor of history and political science.

Loans, Grants, Work Afford Student Aid

Students needing financial assistance in order to attend McPherson College learn that funds may be available in scholarships, grants-in-aid, loans or work-study programs.

Dr. Raymond L. Flory, dean of student affairs, said, "If we are aware of the need far enough in advance of a student's coming to college, and if funds are available then, through a combination of work, loan and grant we can provide the necessary funds."

He explained that this is done by determining the gap between the income and the need of the student, then exploring the various ways of providing funds to fill that gap.

Federal financial assistance is available from three sources: Educational Opportunities Grants, National Defense Student Loans and the Work-Study program. Last year, loans of about $80,000 were made available to McPherson students through NDSL and grants of $11,020 were issued through EOG.

Figures were not available for last year's Work-Study program. This program applies only for low income families.

In addition to federal funds, McPherson College provides scholarships, grants and work on campus for students. Last year, the College provided $55,862 for scholarships and grants, and paid out $63,094 for work on campus.

Dr. Flory explained that student assistantships and some types of work are not granted on the basis of need, but on the basis of the qualification of the student.

No athletic scholarships are available at McPherson, but athletic jobs are available. Library, cafeteria and janitorial work are also available.

At the present time, face value of outstanding loans at McPherson College under NDSL is $364,300. In addition, loans of $4,128 are outstanding from private funds.

Cards Create Suspense In Pro Football Games

By GENE CZAPLINSKI
The National Football League's answer to a playing position is the Cardinals of St. Louis. They look as if they are losing a game in every way possible except by the scoreboard.

The Cards have a self-made dilemma that has led them to reluctant acceptance of it. They know that, invariably, their first half showing will be a poor one. So, after a brief rest, they come out and destroy the opposition.

They are a fine football team, well-fortified and well-coached. But their system of "pulling 'em out" has led to many a gnawed fingernail by their ardent TV supporters. After all, who needs "The Secret Storm" to bring drama to the screen. We'll take the Cards anytime.

Then there is the one about the crazed mother back in New York who bought another TV set for herself and the kids—because her hubby would dominate the other set every Sunday afternoon to watch pro football.

The result? Wife's crazed again. Hubby is using one set to watch the NFL game and one to watch the AFL competition. McPherson at Sterling. . . . Hapless Sterling should help the Bulldogs achieve a 4-5 mark for the season. Mac 23, Sterling 19.

C of E at Southwestern. . . For the marbles; Southwestern's fine defense should make the difference. Southwestern 20, C of E 13.

Baker at Ottawa. . . The Braves are too quick for Baker. Ottawa 31, Baker 0.

KWU at Friends. . . The Falcons are fighting for a high ranking. Friends 28, KWU 7.

Bethany at Bethel. . . The Swedes are finding it tough in the last half. Bethany 21, Bethel 6.

What Is Man?

Public Attitude Hurts Coverage Of Asian War

By JERRY LASATER
Television is doing a magnificent job in coverage of the Viet Nam war, but is limited by the American public's inability to be interested in the more subtle facets of the conflict.

The public is interested in the flashier aspects of war — the shellings and bombings not the ideology and deeper issues of why and who is fighting; what the aims and directions of the struggle are.

Blood and guts reporting has a real place in the Viet Nam coverage but as to covering the real issues, TV has been just as superficial as newspapers in its reporting.

I wonder if the American public could absorb a "deeper" coverage on TV of the Viet Nam issues or if they would even want to.

Young Millionaire To Address Students

Monroe Hughbanks, assistant professor in education will be headlining chapel Nov. 15. Mary Anne Miller, jr. Waterloo, Iowa, will be the soloist.

At convocations, Nov. 17, Willard Garvey, president of Garvey, Inc., will present the program. Garvey is a young business executive from Wichita who made a million dollars before he reached the age of 40.

Italian Orchestra Gives First Show

The Orchestra Michelangelo Di Firenze presented the first program of the 1966-1967 McPherson College Cultural Series at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6, in Brown Auditorium.

The 17-piece orchestra consisted of strings, woodwinds, horns and played without piano accompaniment or director. The appearance here was a part of its 60-city debut tour of the United States.

Those attending the hour and a half long concert were treated to selections from the music of Leonardo Leo, Karl Dvon Dittersdorf, Luigi Boccherini, Giacomo Puccini and George F. Handel.

The Italian orchestra is widely acclaimed by critics throughout Europe.

Three more programs are scheduled for the Cultural Series. The pianist David Burge will present a concert on February 28, 1967; the Augustana Choir will perform here March 12, 1967; and Bennett Cerf, the well-known publisher, author and panelist, will appear April 7, 1967.

Five Players Face Final Football Game

By CHRIS LEVI

Ralph Barr, McPherson; Gene Nilson, Gypsum; Tom Worthing, Wamego; Ed Shapley, Sparta, N. J.; Dwight Ediger, Buhler; and Dale Prochaska, Simpson; will be playing their last game as seniors Saturday, Nov. 12 at Sterling.

Barr a 6-3 230 lb. tackle is majoring in history. After graduation Ralph wants to move to Golden, Colo.

Concerning the Bulldogs' performance this season, he stated, "We have one of the better teams in the conference. Although our record did not indicate it, the statistics showed that we had one of the superior teams in the conference."

Ralph also asserted, "The lack of depth and bad breaks hurt us, but not the coaches because they are only human, capable of making mistakes. Fans think the coaches are the cause of our losing season, but the players made the errors on the field, not the coaches.

He indicated that his best game was with Bethel because he opened holes in Bethel's line so that the backs could run for touchdowns.

End Gene Nilson, 6-1, 175 lb. senior from Gypsum is currently majoring in business administration. When he graduates, he wants to work in the business field.

Nilson's comment on the season was, "Most of our games were well-played, and we played better ball this year than in previous years since I have played here."

Nilson indicated that he played his best game with Bethany because he recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff which led to the Bulldogs' first score. He also had about four receptions for that game.

Tom Worthing, 6-2, 175, end from Wamego stated, "We played better than I expected. With a few breaks and lack of injuries, we could have had a better record for the year."

Worthing commented that Ottawa was his best game. He caught eight passes for 89 yards and played havoc with Ottawa's secondary.

Ed Shapley from Sparta, N. J. has Philosophy and Religion as a major. The 6-7, 260 lb. tackle stated, "Some of the games, the team didn't play to their potential and should have had a better record."

The team attitude attributed to some of our losses. When the attitude was good the team did well as in the Southwestern and Ottawa games."

Upon graduation this semester, Ed is going to Bethany Theological Seminary in Chicago, Ill.

Shapley indicated that his best game of the season was the KWU game where he made three tackles.

"We were capable of winning more games than we did. Sometimes it was a matter of breaks, other times it was lack of hustle. Over all the team spirit was enthusiastic with each game."

I really enjoyed playing on the Bulldog team," were the words of Dwight Ediger, 5-11, 185 lb. center from Buhler.

Dwight, a sociology major, wants to be a social welfare worker after graduation.

Bethany was Ediger's best game, where he was a stalwart on offense with his blocking ability.

Dale Prochaska, history major from Simpson, stated, "We shouldn't have lost more than one or two games. We had good morale in our games."

Dale, a 5-9, 185 lb. guard is planning to attend Kansas State University graduate school in the field of history.

His best performance was against the Braves of Ottawa where he made three tackles.

Bulldogs vs. Sterling In Final Football Game

McPherson College Bulldogs will play the Sterling Warriors in the last game of the season for both teams Saturday, Nov. 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the Warrior's field.

Head coach Smith indicated that Sterling is going to be a tough team because it is the last game of the season, and they will be looking for an upset over the Bulldogs.

He also asserted that McPherson will be up for the game and is going to bring its seasonal record to four wins and five defeats.

Smith stated that Sterling has a spread offense and also uses a straight T offense. On defense they stay basically on a 6-2-3 with slight variations.

Sterling shuttles quarterbacks Terry Woodbury and Mel Brown. They pass more than 50 per cent of the time to their flanker Cooper.

Sid stated that since this is the last game of the season there should be a great deal of student support to spur the Bulldogs on to a victory.

ior year and captain of the football team in his senior year.

When asked about the Bethel game John commented, "We had good team effort, and the offensive line did a fine job of blocking. Both offense and defense jelled together to give us a victory."

Concerning our final game against the Warriors Suminski optimistically stated, "This will be the final game for our senior squad members, so we will win to boost our record to a 4-5 season."

John chalked up three touchdowns and 88 yards in rushing to earn him the player of the week award.

Team Thrash Bethel 31-12

McPherson College Bulldogs won their third game of the season Nov. 4 over the Bethel Threshers 31-12, in the College Stadium.

Fullback John Suminski, fr, Milwaukee, Wis., scored three of the Bulldogs' five touchdowns, while quarterback Hal Wright, fr, Dwight, and Pat Hill, fr, Coral Gables, Fla., each scored one.

The victory moved McPherson into a tie with Bethany for sixth place in the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference, each has a record of three victories and five defeats.

The Bulldogs scored two touchdowns in the first period of play. The first was a 70-yard drive climaxed by a single reverse by Hal Wright for 22 yards. Bob DeTour kicked the extra point.

The second tally came on a seven yard run around right end by Patrick Hill ending a 53-yard drive. Ron Ward's attempt for the extra point was off to the left.

McPherson scored two more touchdowns coming in the second quarter, both by John Suminski.

Season Ends For Harriers

McPherson College cross-country runners will complete their season Nov. 15, when they host other conference schools in the annual conference cross-country meet at Rolling Acres golf course at 4:30 p.m.

College runners have taken first place in a triangular with Southwestern College, and Friends University; in a meet with Central College; and in two meets with Sterling—one by forfeit.

They tied for second place with Tabor College in a triangular with Park College, Kansas City, Mo., at Hillsboro.

The runners also placed third in a meet with Sterling College and Kansas Wesleyan University.

The young team is composed of six freshmen and one sophomore, Wayne Heskett, Oakley, who lettered last year.

The freshmen are John Zinn, Houston, Tex.; Dave Smith, McCune; Dave Shepherd, Fort Scott; Rick Gingrich, Lebanon, Pa.; Ed Kreider, Quarryville, Pa.; and John Mummert, Fort Collins, Colo.

The first was on a 15-yard pass from Wright, and the other on a 20-yard run through the middle of Bethel's defensive line. Both DeTour and Chris Levi failed to add the seventh point.

The final McPherson score came in the fourth period. Again, hard driving Suminski plunged through the Threshers' defense on an eight yard run. Ward's attempt for the extra point failed.
