Christmas Vacation Includes Field Trip

By NORMA TUCKER
Planning for Christmas vacation includes revised library hours, a tentative faculty retreat and a sociology field trip. Library hours will be changed for the weeks of Dec. 21 through Jan. 18.

The hours of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. will be observed Dec. 21-23, and the library will be closed Dec. 24 through Jan. 2. The library will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Jan. 3-18 and will observe regular hours thereafter.

Dr. Merlin L. Frantz, dean of academic affairs, said of the proposed faculty retreat, "It is projected that it will be in some area of curricular problems of improved teaching methods."

Planned as a two-day workshop, the retreat will probably be held during the week of Jan. 8, and outside leadership is anticipated.

In discussing the Chicago field trip, Robert S. Keim, assistant professor in sociology, said, "The sociology department has for many years conducted a seminar in Chicago as part of the Urban Sociology class. This year, we are expanding this and offering it as a Special Problems class."

The class, limited to less than 50 students, is offered to upper division students only. Although sociology majors are preferred, others may be accepted if they have a good sociology background.

Conducted Jan. 3-10, the class will be taught by Prof. Keim and Dr. Kenneth G. Bechtel, professor of sociology and language. Dr. Lorell E. Weiss, professor of sociology, may also cooperate in teaching.

During the time in Chicago, students will reside at the YM-CA hotel, where they will attend morning lectures. Appointments have been made for students to visit 30 places, in addition to regular sightseeing.

Highlights include a visit to the oldest juvenile hall in the U.S., a morning with the City Planning Commission and a trip to the Oriental Institute at the University of Chicago.

A study in Skid Row, including a night session with the Skid Row priest, is included in a schedule which offers trips to Hull House, Marshall Fields, Bethany Seminary and the Board of Trade.

No more than 50 students may enroll, and applications, available in the sociology department, must be submitted by Dec. 2. Student expenses may vary, but are estimated at $60 to $80, not including transportation. Students will receive one hour credit for the trip.

Enrollment Underway

Pre-enrollment for the spring semester is now underway, according to Dean Reynolds, registrar. It began Monday and will continue until Friday, Dec. 9.

To pre-enroll, students should first consult with their faculty advisors about their schedule, and then go to the Registrar's Office to pick up their class cards.

Students are to sign their class cards before returning them to the Registrar's Office. Pre-enrollment is completed when the class cards are returned.

'Monkey's Paw' Next in Series Of Lab Plays

A magical monkey paw which grants wishes and brings tragedy is the subject of the next laboratory theater production, "The Monkey's Paw," by John Galsworthy, will be directed by Clark Ratliffe, soph, Park Ridge, Illinois, on Nov. 29, in Brown Auditorium.

"This play has some pertinent things to say about paying for what you get and accepting the consequences of your actions," said Ratliffe. "It also has something pertinent to say about people devoting their lives to one thing."

In wishing on the monkey paw, Mr. White, played by Manfred Cripe, jr, Tucson, gains money by the death of his only son.

Mrs. White, played by Susan Frederick, soph, McPherson determines, after her son has been in the grave for ten days, to use the monkey's paw to bring him back to life.

Thomas Nee, soph, Atlantic City, portrays the son in this suspense-filled plot, and Joseph Serenits, fr, Washington, D. C., has the part of the sergeant. Ulderice Racine, fr, Henniker, N. H., takes the role of Sampson, completing the cast.

Classes Recess

All classes are recessed today to enable students and faculty to observe Thanksgiving Day festivities.

Classes will resume on their regular schedule at 7:30 tomorrow morning.

By MARGE KECK

Couples attending "Crystal Caverns," the Winter Formal to be held tomorrow night from 9-12 in the Student Union, will be enhanced by bright pink, black and white decorations.

After entering through a tunnel which will wind through the main lounge, couples will be announced. At the exit of the tunnel will be large pool, simulating an underground pool, with candles burning in it.

Pink stalactites will be hanging at the entrance of the tunnel, over the west wall and over the band. A net will be hung from the ceiling above the dance floor.

Highlighting the decorations will be a crystal fountain on the north side and a large crystal fountain on the north side and a large crystal chandelier above the band.

KCAC Accepts Tabor College

Tabor College of Hillsboro was conditionally admitted to the Kansas College Athletic Conference Monday, Nov. 14. An application from St. Mary of the Plains, Dodge City was tabled.

The conditions for Tabor's membership as conference officials stated is that Tabor have a varsity football team by the fall of 1969 and field a B-team next fall.

Tabor now participates in other major sports but has no football squad. Instead, Tabor plays soccer.

The KCAC presently has 10 members without Tabor. If Tabor becomes a member, the conference may be divided into East and West divisions.

Because Tabor sent no representatives to the meeting, the conference is awaiting an acceptance from the college.

The Art Club, headed by Jim Guenther, soph, Piqua, Ohio, is in charge of decorations. Miss Mary Ann Robinson, professor of art, and Robert Smith, assistant in art, are sponsors of the Art Club.

Pink poinsettias will center the tables, which will be covered with pink net over white tablecloths and adorned with candles. Marion Snively, fr, Lebanon, Pa., is chairman of the Refreshments Committee. She plans to serve tea, cookies, mints and punch.

Margaret Holderread, fr, Twin Falls, Idaho; Mary Anne Miller, fr, Waterloo, Iowa; Pat Drury, soph, Marshalltown, Iowa; and Kathy Rogers, fr, Brooklyn, Iowa, are also on the committee.

Publicity has been promoted by June Vinchattie, soph, Gowrie, Iowa, chairman of the Publicity Committee; Glee Hoover, soph, Plattsburg, Mo.; Carolyn Dadisman, soph, Astoria, Ill.; Carolyn Dell, soph, Enid, Okla.; and Stan Gockowski, Jr, Ulica, N. Y.

The six-piece Norm Estes Band from Salina will be playing for the Formal. They will be set up along the east wall of the cafeteria.

Heading the Clean-up Committee is Rockford Regula, soph, Leesport, Pa. Helping him will be Kent Noffsinger, soph, Tipp City, Ohio; Henry Keller, fr, New Tripoli, Pa.; Dick Martin, jr, Sterling, Ohio; Keith Hummel, jr, New Paris, Ind.; and Ron Flory, sr, Marion, Iowa.

All committees are working under the auspices of Lonnie Howell, jr, Cordell, Okla., who is General Chairman of the Winter Formal.

Admission to the candlelight event will be $1.50 per couple. Students are also reminded that no corsages are to be worn this year.

Reyher Merits Poetry Award

Loren D. Reyher, assistant professor in English and theater, has been awarded a Certificate of Merit for excellence in poetry by the John Westburg and Associates foundation for the perpetuation of the arts.

"It Was the Spring That Autumn Died," a poem of four stanzas, captured the award in a national competition of approximately 5,000 entries. With about 50 other winners, it will be published in the magazine of the foundation, which also publishes anthology collections of poetry.

Librarians Make Plans For ACK

At a meeting of librarians of the Associated Colleges of Central Kansas on the McPherson College campus, plans for the development of a union list of serials were discussed in a program to improve the library services among the six colleges making up the association.

The union list will provide each library in the ACK with the title and amount of holdings of magazines that are available in any of the six colleges.

The information available through the list will be one of the first steps in making the total resources of the libraries more readily available to each student in ACK colleges.

Funds for the project and others yet to be developed are provided through Title III of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

Member colleges of the ACK are Bethel, Bethany, Kansas Wesleyan, McPherson, Sterling and Tabor. Another meeting is scheduled for Jan. 25.

Bookstore Receives 100 License Plates

The College bookstore, located in the basement of the Student Union, received 100 McPherson College Bulldog license plates last week, that may be used for car or room decoration, according to Mrs. Marcia Cotterill, manager of the College bookstore.

The licenses, white with red lettering and an outline of the head of a bulldog in red, will be sold to students for the price of $1.

International Bazaar To Begin Third Year

An international flavor will be added to McPherson College campus tomorrow and Saturday, Nov. 25-26, as the International Bazaar takes shape in Friendship Hall from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

This is the third year that the McPherson College Y has undertaken this project. "The bazaar has been a success in the past, and I hope that it will be a success this year, too, because many students have worked hard in setting up the bazaar," stated Neal Lindquist, jr, Denver, chairman of this year's bazaar.

Nine gaily decorated booths representing 44 countries, set up by the booth chairmen and assistant chairmen, will be important both financially and educationally to the MCY.

"Goods are still arriving and from the appearance the sale should be another success," said Lindquist.

The $9,000 worth of items being received from eight different import companies will show the art and culture of the many countries.

From Taiwan comes a five-foot spear that will sell for $8.

Beautiful silver pins, rings, necklaces and bracelets from the Far East will be on sale.

From Africa come the hand carvings of animals and statuettes representing the more or less primitive way of life.

Ponchos, cotton vests and hand carvings from Mexico will be on sale.

Other items which will be sold are a bone shark, 80 pounds of wood carvings, horn rings, camel bone forks and spoons and bamboo flutes.

INTERNATIONAL BAZAAR—Neal Lindquist, jr. Denver chairman of the International Bazaar, unwraps packages of curios from various countries for the fair.

Coeds Go To Emporia

The annual Fall Workshop of the Kansas Home Economics College Chapters was held at Kansas State Teachers College at Emporia last Saturday, Nov. 19. The theme was "Home Economics in Action."

Eight McPherson College women, accompanied by Miss Mildred M. Siek, professor of home economics, attended the workshop.

Carolyn Pieratt, sr, Emmetsburg, Iowa, president of the local Home Economics Chapter; Shirley Blough, sr, Waterloo, Iowa; Eileen Claassen, sr, Newton; Christina Flory, jr, McPherson; Glennice Frazier, jr, Denver; Jeanne Leinen, sr, McPherson; Karen Johnson, sr, McPherson; and Paula Jo Sissel, fr, Davenport, Neb., joined women from 17 other Home Economics Chapters in Kansas for the workshop.

The morning session was devoted to a general session followed by discussion groups. Following the noon luncheon, the annual business meeting was held.

Carolyn Pieratt is secretary of the Kansas Home Economics College Chapters. At the business meeting, Glennice Frazier was one of eight nominees for Kansas for national secretary.

Administrators Plan Meetings For Next Week

Administrative leaders at McPherson College will attend important meetings after Thanksgiving. Dr. Merlin L. Frantz, dean of academic affairs, will participate in the Institute of Academic Deans, Nov. 27-Dec. 2, at the University of Denver.

This institute, begun in 1958 at Harvard University, focuses on the dean's role in organization planning, staffing and budgeting of academic programs.

The Institute is limited to only 40 participants, and is sponsored by the American Council on Education. This year, the Institute, using the case-study approach, will feature seminars on current research, evaluation of teaching and innovation in organization. It will especially consider on-campus organization for federal relationships.

Dr. J. Jack Melhorn, president of the College, will go to Kansas State College on Nov. 28 to attend a dinner meeting of the Committee to Study Financial Needs for Kansas Students and will stay for the Nov. 29 conference of the Kansas Association of Colleges and Universities.

Dr. Melhorn will speak on Nov. 30 to the Men's Club of the First Methodist Church of McPherson.

Foreign Students Await Thanksgiving

International students who have not yet experienced a Thanksgiving Day in the United States anticipate the holiday enthusiasm equal to that of students who have been in this country for years. All agree that it is a meaningful and pleasing celebration.

Shun Kungsun, fr, Tokyo, who has not yet celebrated an American Thanksgiving, said, "I think it's very nice to look over the year's work. For one day, people really appreciate it."

Martin Alugbuo, jr, Amakheia, Nigeria, said, "It is very good. I have participated in it with friends' families."

Noula Apostolidou, jr, Epicus, Greece, remarked of her earlier Thanksgivings, "Everyone went home and we were lonesome and homesick."

She told of invitations to visit with families, which relieved the homesickness and made Thanksgiving a happy experience. "I like it."

Jean Kwok, jr, Hong Kong, also commented on the joy of sharing family celebrations during her eight years in this country. "When I came here, it was a strange custom for me," she said. "I had never had turkey before."

I lived with an American family and now I celebrate it like everyone else." She admitted that she had not yet tasted pumpkin pie, however.

Some international students compared Thanksgiving to harvest festivals celebrated in their own countries. Alugbuo compared our celebration with the Nigerian New Yam Festival held in August. In that, celebration, chickens and yams replace our turkey and dressing.

Danaisak Somprasong, fr, Bangkok, reported that Thailand celebrations, which are held in early November, stress church attendance and menus featuring vegetables and rice.

Luis Delatorre, soph, Col Moreinos, Mexico, also reminisced on worship and feasting on the Mexican day of giving thanks.

Shun Kungsun fr, Tokyo, and Kwok both report that city dwellers in their countries do not celebrate anything similar to Thanksgiving, but that harvest festivals are common in rural areas of China and Japan.

Apostolidou reported no similar festival in Greece, and Irja Raita, fr, Korpilanti, Finland, said, "I haven't seen Thanksgiving, so I don't know yet."

'Sturm Und Drang'

On Sale Friday

Copies of the May 1966 "Sturm und Drang," campus literary magazine, will be put on sale Friday, Nov. 25, in the Student Union.

These magazines which give vent to the expression and originality of College students, originally sold for 60 cents but will be sold for 15 cents, starting tomorrow.

"This is not stale news. It is real good creative writing," said George Snavey, Student Council president.

Architects Make Plans For Library

The McPherson College Library Building Committee met Nov. 11 with Robert and Richard Hussman, architects from Houston, Texas.

This is the second meeting with the architects as the committee explores needs and possibilities for new library facilities. Earlier in the year, the committee consulted with Edmond Low, librarian at Oklahoma State University.

Dr. Dayton Rothrock, professor of education and psychology, is chairman of the committee, which includes: Miss Virginia Harris, Dr. J. Jack Melhorn, Dr. Merlin L. Frantz, Dr. G. J. Ikenberry, Prof. Leland L. Lengel and R. Gordon Yoder.

Students Speak Out

Perfection Is Goal In Man's Life, Religion

Hurray! The author of the article entitled, "Conflict of Man's Life, Religion Needs Resolving," that appeared in The Spectator a short time ago, does recognize the fact that religion does provide the inspirations and goals by which everyone tried to attain perfection.

The author, however, has forgotten that God's laws are inflexible.

Man is the culmination of God's entire creative process. He was made in the image of God, and he was given dominion over all creation. In all this exciting story man is the unique character.

Great possibilities are held out before him. He is made for fellowship with God, and he can walk with God if he chooses, or he can sink down and live on the level of animals if he chooses.

mate, emotional readiness and warmth, turn the participants into people who will never know the full, glorious meaning of mature, adult sexuality.

Free sex, outside of marriage, would lower the human relationship to that of the town alley cat.

The suggestion to throw chastity to the wind because human beings fall from perfection is like saying "There is so much murder in the society in which we live so let's do away with the law against murder and let man kill as he has the inclination," or "No one can learn everything that is in books so why try to learn?" Let's close all the schools and remain in our ignorance.

Why revamp religion to meet the whims of an ever changing society's lustful desires? Would it not be better to revamp society with the desire to strive for perfection!

It is better to strive for perfection and to fall short than never to try. David McKellip.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"CLASS, I THINK IT'S TIME WE REVIEW THE SCHOOL'S POLICY ON CLASS CUTS."

Staff, Students Stalk Pheasants on Plains

A half hour before sunrise on Saturday, Nov. 12, a number of McPherson College students and faculty members were awaiting the chance to get their first pheasant of the season. Some returned home with their bag limit of three while others were not as successful.

John Sarbor, soph., Lima, Ohio, bagged two birds in two days. John hunted around Inman and said that he spotted a number of rabbits, quail and hen pheasants. He also added, "If you want to hunt pheasants, you had better head west."

That is exactly what Larry Marcellus, director of publicity and promotion, did. He headed for Hill City and bagged three birds on Saturday and one on Sunday. Marcellus stated that if it had been deer season, he would have been in luck for he spotted eight deer in the Hill City area.

Many of the other hunters who were interviewed agreed that the western part of the state was an excellent spot to go pheasant hunting. They also stated that there was an exceptional abundance of rabbits and quail this year.

Pheasant season officially opened on Saturday, Nov. 12 for all points east of highway U.S. 81; the area west of U.S. 81 was open to hunters on Saturday, Nov. 19. Quail season also opened on Saturday, Nov. 19.

College to Gain 50 New Students Next Semester

Twenty-four new students, of whom six are foreign students, had been recruited, as of Nov. 16, for the second semester, according to Guy Hayes, director of admissions.

Hayes hopes to have about 50 new students by the time the second semester begins which would compare with the 58 last year and nearly 80 the year before.

This influx of new students is an attempt to balance the loss of students at the end of the first semester due to drop-outs, transferring students and graduating seniors.

The six expected foreign students are from Hong Kong, Korea, Kenya, Taiwan and two from Nigeria. There are also two prospective students from Thailand, for who arrangements are being made.

Edwards to Perform Recital in Brown

Robert L. Edwards, assistant professor of piano and organ, will be presented by the McPherson College Department of Music in a recital next Sunday, Nov. 27, at 3 p.m. in Brown Auditorium.

Edwards will perform "Partita in C Minor" by Bach, "Sonata in C Major" by Hayden, "Four Debussy Preludes," and "Sonata for Piano" by Liszt.

"Edwards received both his Master of Arts and Bachelor of Arts Degrees from Wichita State University after attending Colorado College for three years. He has also done graduate work at Yale University and the University of Southern California.

Play Failure Spells Anger

The past week has held disappointment for both faculty and many students. After the unsuccessful attempt to launch "Julius Caesar," "The Silver Cord" fell to the ground with an ignoble thud.

One hundred hours of work had been put into "The Silver Cord" by cast and director. For several students, this play was to be their proving point where they could learn their potential and show it off to parents, friends or faculty. Cancellation of the play provoked tears, cursing and a general "let down" feeling.

Next semester brings the opportunity of producing "Bye, Bye Birdie." Unless the director is besieged with auditions, McPherson College may go through a whole year with lab production only—which is a terrible thought.

What's causing this lack of cultural interest in school? Is it merely apathy or lack of time brought about by the new schedule.

Lately, I've heard complaints such as, "I wish I had a few days off—so many tests, term papers, projects. If I only had a few days to breathe or catch up on my work." I wonder if the faculty feel the same pressure the students do.

Since today is turkey day, eat hearty and enjoy the brief 24 hour rest. Remember Friday is another day of drudgery—books, papers, double cuts, tests. . . Oh, well—such is life. J.N.

Radio Program

Beginning Monday, Nov. 28, the McPherson Church of the Brethren will be sponsoring a five minute radio program on KNEX. All are invited to listen to "The Bright Spot" on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between 12:45 and 1 p.m.

There will be a 23-minute film on Christian vocations, filmed at and about Bethany Theological Seminar, Oak Brook, Ill., shown at the church Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

Stuco Names Levi As Campus Editor

The Board of Publications has announced the selection of Chris Levi, jr, Berryville, Va., as campus editor of The Spectator next semester.

Upon asking the junior business major why he applied for the position, he responded, "I feel that being campus editor will give me an excellent start for my career after graduation when I take over my father's publishing company."

Chris has been reporting for The Spectator this year and has been writing an average of 35-40 inches of copy per week.

As campus editor, Chris will be responsible for assigning all stories and beats for The Spectator. Besides being in charge of all campus news, Chris also is responsible for making sure that all assignments meet the deadline.

Chris will have a chance to take over the duties of campus editor in a practice issue which will be put out sometime this semester.

When the editors of The Spectator put out the practice issue, each member of the staff takes over the duties of the next higher position.

During the practice issue Jane Newton, soph, McPherson, will become editor-in-chief, and Phil Grove, jr, Laurens, Iowa, will be managing editor.

Bethany Sets Sights On Winning Trophy

Moundridge High School will be the scene for the oldest four year college basketball tournament in Kansas, the 16th annual Central Kansas Collegiate Basketball Tournament, starting at 7 p.m. Dec. 1-3.

Bethany, Bethel, McPherson and Tabor are the four teams which have participated in the tournament since its initiation. Coaches of the teams are John Hickman, Bethany; Delmer Reimer, Tabor; Paul Harns, Bethel; and Don Widrig, McPherson.

Rules of the tournament state that each Challenge Trophy must be won three consecutive years for permanent possession. The first one went to Bethel in 1956, the second to Bethany in 1959.

Six Teams Participate In Tourney

The Roundhouse at McPherson High School will be the site of the first McPherson College Invitational, November 28-30, sponsored by the McPherson Jaycees.

Teams participating will be C of E, Kansas Wesleyan, Peru State, Neb., Sterling, St. Mary's, Dodge City and McPherson.

Head Basketball Coach, Don Widrig, did not release his starting five, but did state that he had only three returning lettermen, Tom Worthing, sr., Wamego, Don Woodcock, jr., Washington, and Gene Nilson, sr., Gypsum.

Widrig stated, "The team is a young and spirited one and will get better during the season."

The Bulldogs' first test will be with the Sterling Warriors who finished with a 1-17 conference record last season, while the Bulldogs ended with a 9-9 conference standing.

Widrig was optimistic concerning the game and indicated that the Bulldogs will triumph in the first test of the season.

The current trophy, No. 3, has been out since that time but Bethany now holds two straight legs on it and will be out to retire the trophy.

Bethany, Bethel and McPherson have been hard hit through graduation of team members. Bethany lost three starters, Bethel lost three and McPherson lost John Smith, Art Clark and George Czaplinski. Tabor is the least hit by loss of players through graduation.

An extra large crowd is expected to see the tournament this year because of the threat of Bethany retiring the trophy.

Tickets will be sold by the varsity cheerleaders at $1.25 for both nights and will be sold at the gate at Moundridge for $2.25 for each night. Students will be requested to sit in the McPherson College section.

Athletes Go To Convention On Christianity

Tom Brubaker, jr., Rocky Ford, Colo., Dwight Ediger, sr., Buhler; Fred Teeter, fr., Oakley; Mike Thompson, fr., Beloit; and D. Moore, fr., Council Grove attended The Fellowship of Christian Athletes Convention at the Rock Springs Ranch near Junction City.

Teeter commented that the convention was open for anyone that wanted to attend. "The purpose," he stated, "was for the professional athletes to comment on how and what Christ had done for them and for athletes."

Everyone who attended was split into groups to participate in volleyball games with the winner playing the staff at the convention. Brubaker's team won among the other students but lost to the staff.

Third Floor Metzler Stands Chance to Win

There will be no action in intramural volleyball next week due to the McPherson and Moundridge basketball tournaments.

The following week, Dec. 4-10, the gym will be the setting for a lot of action as the volleyball tournament will get underway.

"It looks like third floor is gonna go all the way," according to Bruce Klockars, jr., Glen Ellyn, Ill., — better known as 'Falcon' the spiker to his teammates, who presently has a commanding lead in the pre-tournament race.

A traveling trophy, with an engraving of the floor and dorm, will be awarded to the winning team of the tournament.

The trophy will be paid for by the men's council, which is in charge of intramural activities.

An intramural basketball schedule is being planned for the second semester. Plans for organizing teams have not yet been released.

The volleyball standings as of Nov. 12 are as follows:

M-Metzler Hall, B-Bittinger Hall, F-Fahnestock Hall, A-Arnold Hall, C-College Courts and numbers-floors.

13 touchdowns although missing the last game of the season. McPherson's DeTour placed 8th with six touchdowns and six extra points for a total of 42.

The rushing crown went to Kansas Wesleyan's sophomore halfback, Al Fabring with a total of 989 yards, which averaged out to 109.9 yards per game.

Wreath Marks Advent Season In Chancel

A special evergreen wreath with four handmade candles will appear in front of the chancel of the McPherson Church of the Brethren on Nov. 27, symbolizing the Advent season, and one candle will be lighted each Sunday before Christmas.

Sermons during this time will be geared to the season, beginning with "Here Comes Santa Christ," on Nov. 27, by the Rev. Philip Shankster, intern minister.

On the first Sunday during Advent, a child acolyte will light the candle which signifies faith. On succeeding Sundays, candles representing the promise of hope for the world, the promise of love for the world, and the promise of peace for the world will be lighted, completing the circle on Dec. 18.

Copies of a special Christmas eve service will be distributed to the congregation for family worship.

Historically, the Advent Season has been observed as a season of solemnity of emotion and action. The four Sundays of the Advent were introduced into the calendar by Gregory the Great, and originally represented the fourfold coming of Christ—in the flesh, at the hour of death to his faithful followers, at the fall of Jerusalem and at the day of judgment.

Team Loses Willy Trophy

The "Willy Warrior" trophy is a traveling trophy which is held by the winner of the annual Sterling - McPherson football game.

George Snively, McPherson College Student Council president, made the presentation following the 23 to 21 defeat of the Bulldogs by the Sterling Warriors.

McPherson won the trophy the first two years, 1964 and 1965, but lost it this year.

In the presentation, George told the Sterling students that we would like to have our Bulldog back. The replica of a bulldog which was taken to the game by some College fans was "swiped" by several Warrior fans and was hauled away in a car before Bulldog sympathizers could apprehend them.

Following that race, the Bulldog sympathizers chased the Sterling mascot, "Warrior," across the gridiron while the teams were playing. The attempt proved to be fruitless because, the Warrior escaped to the Sterling dressing room.

The "Willy Warrior" trophy was presented to the captain of the Sterling football team, at the Hawaiian Luau which was held in the Sterling College Student Union, Nov. 12.

Salina Solicits Campus Talent

McPherson College talent have been invited to appear in a "gala extravaganza" Christmas show December 14 in Salina. Sponsoring the show will be the Pi Sigma Upsilon Fraternity at Kansas Wesleyan University.

The Christmas show will be given for the wives and children of United States servicemen who are living at Schilling Air Force base while their husbands and fathers are stationed overseas, primarily in Viet Nam.

Pi Sigma Upsilon hopes to secure television coverage of the event, and urges that any McPherson College talent consider participating in the worthwhile event.

Houseboat To Be Shown In Brown

14 Attend Conference On Student Leadership

Fourteen McPherson College students attended the Student Leadership Breakfast and Conference during the past weekend at Emporia State Teachers College.

The Breakfast is part of the voluntary, non-sectarian movement of student leaders to bring about a spiritual awareness in relation to student leadership on college campuses.

George Snively, sr, Lebanon,

Pa., president of Student Council, praised the conference as being "very beneficial to all who went," and continued, "we hope to carry this influence into the student body."

About 630 college students throughout the state of Kansas attended the conference, which was held in the Memorial Student Union at the Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia.

Dr. Walter H. Judd, who served in the House of Representatives for twenty years as Representative of the Fifth Minnesota District, was the main speaker.

Dr. Judd stated that colleges deal with ideals and people.

Topics which were discussed in the seminars and workshops included the moral and spiritual responsibilities of a student leader, the role of the student leader on the college campus, political responsibilities of a student leader, and social concerns and responsibilities of student leaders.

Others who attended the conference were Lisa Mauer; Bill Duryea, Bob Klockars, Galen Kopp, Walt Miller, George Jones, Paul Roth, Rodney Lusk, Terry Bouse, Roger Nettleton, Bonny Helman and Dr. Young, sponsor.

Red Cross Needs Donors

Students are reminded that the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in McPherson Nov. 23 and donors are still needed. A unit from Wichita will be at the McPherson YMCA from 9:30-2:30. Transportation will be provided.

Students who can give blood are asked to call the Red Cross office, CH 1-2386, for an appointment and transportation or leave their name and desired appointment time with Mrs. Homer Brunk, associate professor in English and Journalism, Mohler 201.

Parental consent is needed for unmarried donors below 21. A parent's consent form may be secured from the Red Cross to send to their parents.

Those who had activities and classes which conflicted during the Oct. 11 campus visit by the bloodmobile are urged to donate.

Students who gave at the Oct. 11 visit are not eligible for the Nov. 23 McPherson visit.
