dling or a relaxation of standards of excellence. Godliness is no excuse for shoddiness."

"A college education is a serious business," stated Dr. Melhorn, "and we at McPherson College hope that each student will accept the responsibility of getting the best education possible."

He further stated, "A college teacher can be a superior scholar without being an effective teacher, but he can not be an effective teacher without being a superior scholar."

McPherson College acquires new staff, faculty personnel

Returning students, as well as freshmen, at McPherson College have been exposed to new additions to the faculty, staff and administration.

In the Humanities Division, the English, Theater, Language, Music, and Art departments have experienced numerous changes in the faculty.

Previously a part-time professor in the English department, Mrs. Una Yoder is now a full-time assistant professor in English and theater.

A graduate of McPherson College, Mrs. Yoder received her master's degree from Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia. At Kansas State University, Manhattan, she has taken additional post-graduate work during 1964-1966.

An additional assistant professor in English, Robert R. Green comes to McPherson College from the Central College faculty in McPherson.

Prof. Green has served as dean of men, instructor in English, and academic dean since his first affiliation with Central College in 1960.

A Nebraska native, Prof. Green attended Central College and received his A. B. degree from Seattle Pacific College.

His M.A. degree was granted to him at Kansas State Teachers College in Emporia. In addition to his faculty responsibilities, Prof. Green has a wife and two children.

Now to the Theater and English departments as an assistant professor is Charles W. Fischer, a native of Hartford.

A graduate of Kiowa High School, Kiowa, Fischer received his bachelor's degree at Northwestern State College, Alva, Okla., and his master's degree at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill.

He has taught at Northwestern, Southern Illinois, Jet, Okla. High School, and Newton High School.

His theatrical ambitions have gained him membership in the American Educational Theater Association and the American Association of Puppets.

German language classes this year will be taught by a native of Abilene, Texas, Jean McLane, Jr., assistant professor of German.

Graduating from high school at Anchorage, Alaska, Prof. McLane obtained his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Oregon and has worked on his master's degree at the University of Kansas.

While working on his master's degree at KU, Prof. McLane did graduate teaching and assisted in research. During the summer of 1966 Prof. McLane spent six weeks in Germany and Austria.

A native of Mantanzas, Cuba, Luisa Maria Pequeno is the new assistant professor of French.

Graduating from Sacred Heart of Jesus High School, Mantanzas, Prof. Pequeno received her bachelor of arts degree from Wichita State University, Wichita, in 1966.

She is a candidate for her master of arts degree in Spanish from WSU in 1968. While attending WSU, Prof. Pequeno was a member of numerous student clubs and Sigma Delta Phi.

A well-known artist of the Midwest, Robert Smith, has become a full-time instructor in the Art Department.

Graduating from McPherson High School, Smith received his bachelor of fine arts degree from Wichita State University.

A part-time instructor in art last year at McPherson College, Prof. Smith has been a frequent participant in art shows and competition throughout several states.

His artistic abilities have brought him many first place awards and considerable recognition. Prof. Smith holds memberships in Kappa Pi, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and the Kansas State Federation of Art.

A professional musician for 15 years, Robert E. Revell has become the new instructor in band and music.

Attending high school at Muskogee, Okla., Revell obtained his bachelor of arts in education degree from Northeastern State College, Tahlequah, Okla., after retiring from the professional field.

He obtained his master of music education degree from Tulsa University, Tulsa, Okla., in 1965. Before coming to McPherson College, Prof. Revell taught in the Fort Gibson, Okla., school system.

Outside of the Humanities Division, the Psychology Department has received a new instructor.

Recently receiving a doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Arizona, Galen R. Snell is a new instructor in psychology as well as serving as the new dean of men and assistant dean of students.

Snell received his bachelor of arts degree from LaVerne College, LaVerne, Calif., his master's degree from the University of Arizona, and his divinity degree from Bethany Theological Seminary, Oakbrook, Ill.

Dr. Snell's wife, Ruth, is a new instructor of music for the coming year and holds a bachelor of arts degree.

Choirs to give performances

Combined performances of the Chapel Choir and the A Cappella Choir are being planned by Dr. Doris Coppock, professor and director of physical education for women and instructor in music, and Donald R. Frederick, professor of voice and director of choral organizations.

During September and October the choirs will join in preparation of Vivaldi's "Gloria" and Van Hulse's "Beatus" for presentation in Brown Auditorium, Saturday, Oct. 21.

The combined choirs will also present a concert for the Dec. 7 Christmas convocation.

The A Cappella Choir will also sing for other chapel and convocation programs. One performance each month is scheduled at the McPherson Church of the Brethren.

A ladies trio and a male quartet will be organized if there is sufficient interest and suitable talent, Frederick said.

All persons interested in singing in any of the choral groups were asked to fill out applications and submit them to the directors of the choirs.

Dr. Coppock will audition applicants for Chapel Choir at suitable times after rehearsals get under way.

Mac Shack will open tomorrow

Mac Shack, the campus coffeehouse for students, faculty and friends, will open its doors tomorrow, Sept. 8, at 8 p.m. The menu will include doughnuts, rolls, candy bars, coffee and other soft drinks.

Dennis Heisey, Jr., Hershey, Pa., vice-chairman of the Coffeehouse Committee, said that Mac Shack has been cleaned and some painting has been done on it since last year.

He added, however, that volunteer help for painting the outside of the Mac Shack would be appreciated on an all-school work day, which will be set at a later date.

'The Guardsmen' will be opening stage production

"The Guardsmen," a comedy in three acts by Molnar, has been selected by Charles Fischer, assistant professor in theater, as the opening stage production of this school year.

Prof. Fischer, technical director of the production, will be assisted by Mrs. Una Yoder, assistant professor in English and theater, who will direct the comedy.

Being a period play of 1910, the three-act comedy will call for some elaborate sets.

The cast consists of parts for three men and four women. Prof. Fischer urges all interested students to try out for this production. Tryouts will be held Monday, Sept. 11 at 6:30 p.m. in room 227, Mohler Hall.

The actual performance will be given Friday and Saturday, Oct. 13 and 14.

"The Fantasticks," a musical play, and "All the Way Home," the spring play, have also been scheduled for stage production.

YMCA-YWCA to sponsor weekend get-together

A deserted farmhouse 30 miles northwest of McPherson will be the unusual meeting place for the McPherson College YMCA-YWCA cabinet retreat Friday and Saturday, Sept. 8 and 9.

The informal get-together begins Friday evening and lasts until Saturday afternoon, according to Pat Hayes, president of the YWCA.

During the MCY overnight retreat, the officers plan to state the goals and purposes of the organization, discuss the budget, plan the tentative schedule for activities, develop an effective membership drive and define and discuss the duties of each office.

YMCA officers for the 1967-68 school year are Paul Roth, Jr., Bowling Springs, Pa., president; Bob Albin, sr., Waterloo, Iowa, vice-president; Jeff Loucks, soph., Bremen, Ind., treasurer; Roger Nettleton, sr., Holmeville, Neb., secretary and Stan Bucher, soph., Lebanon, Pa., publicity.

Chosen to serve the YWCA were Pat Hayes, Jr., Geneseo, president; Pat Drury, jr., Marshalltown, Iowa, vice-president; Marian Snavely, soph., Lebanon, Pa., secretary; Sylvia Wine, jr., Waumec, Ohio, treasurer and Bev Horner, jr., Carleton, Neb., publicity.

Sponsoring the YMCA will be Dr. John Burkholder professor of Biology. The YWCA adviser has not been chosen.

Freshman Week will climax with frosh-soph tug-of-war

By DIANNE WARNKE
Freshman Initiation Week, which began Thursday, Aug. 31, and ends Friday, Sept. 8, is a time anxiously awaited by upperclassmen and dreaded by freshmen.

During this period, freshmen must follow specified activities and at all times show great respect for the upperclassmen. Several things must be done throughout the whole week. Beanies must be worn at all times, except when freshmen are in their dormitory rooms or at other specified times.

At any time, upperclassmen may request to hear the names of all professors and buildings on campus.

Freshmen must also be prepared to "button" at any time and for as many times as the upperclassmen wish.

Initiation Week began Thursday, August 31, with Dress-up Day. This was also the first opportunity the freshmen had to wear their beanies.

Friday was Ladies and Gentlemen Day. All upperclassmen were formally addressed with Mr. and Miss. Other activities included opening doors and carrying upperclassmen's books.

The Frosh Talent Program was held Saturday. In order to gain admittance to the program, freshmen had to have 25 upperclassmen sign the back of their "Growl", the student hand book.

On Sunday the freshmen had a brief rest from wearing their beanies. However, these had to be worn again after 6 p.m.

In order to remind them of their rank, freshmen were required to wear as much green clothing as possible on Monday. They also had to wear a toothbrush hung around their neck.

On Tuesday freshmen were kept busy carrying upperclassmen's trays to the conveyor belt in the cafeteria. However, to the upperclassmen's disappointment, this was not required more than three times each meal.

College sweatshirts, white socks, and sweaters were worn on Wednesday. Many of the sweatshirts were borrowed, but freshmen were encouraged to buy their own.

Today is Clash Day, and many unusual outfits can be seen. Also, Freshmen are required to sing the fight song and-or the Alma Mater. This may be done in groups.

Tomorrow will be another Dress-Up Day, and at 6:15 p.m. the climax of the week will be held at Lakeside Park. This is, of course, the annual Tug-of-War.

In the event that the freshmen win, initiation will be over. If the sophomores win, however, freshmen must wear their beanies until the gun sounds to end the first home football game Sept. 22.

Freshmen must also be prepared to participate in the Annual Pajama Parade on Main Street, McPherson, Thursday, Sept. 21.

They also are required to attend the home game Friday, Sept. 22. They must wear red and white clothing and signs which read, "Beat Kansas Wesleyan University!"

Don't become rusty, obsolete

In today's highly competitive and rapidly progressing world, an uneducated person is about as obsolete as the old wash board that our grandmothers used when washing their clothes.

Too many students believe that a high school education, or even one of two years of college is all that one needs to secure a good job and prevent becoming obsolete like the wash board.

When these students go into a highly competitive world where, faced with their first job application, there is the inevitable entry: "Previous Experience," they then ask, "But how can I get experience if I can't get a job without it?"

That's what our colleges and universities are for: to provide students with experience. The more education one gets, the less he will have to worry about becoming obsolete.

Even the college graduate cannot be given the guarantee of being the "best in style". If he fails to shine himself up with more education and experience, he too, will become rusty and obsolete.

The Labor Department predicts that the average skilled worker will have to retrain at least three times during his lifetime—and some as often as seven times.

So neither high school graduates nor college graduates can give up their search for more education and experience without the fear of becoming rusty and obsolete like grandmother's washing board.

And the entry "Previous Experience" should be a challenge to us to take advantage of all the education we can possibly get while the opportunity is best

Stuco holds first '67 meeting

Students want Sportsmanship Trophy

Dear Editor,

Being a member of the Kansas Conference Student Association, one of the most challenging rewards that the McPherson College student body can strive for is the KOSA Sportsmanship Trophy.

The sounds of football are in the air now and this is the time to begin thinking about the traveling trophy, which McPherson won in 1966.

Since we would like to win the trophy back this year, we thought that the following "Sportsman's Creed" would help us get started in the right direction.

This does not pertain just to football spectators and participants but also to basketball, baseball, track or any other collegiate contest in which participants and spectators are involved.

So here is the "Sportsman's Creed" as taken from The Kentucky High School Athlete:

The Player...

1. He lives clean and plays hard. He plays for the love of the game.

2. He wins without boasting, he loses without excuses and he never quits.

3. He respects officials and accepts their decisions without question.

4. He never forgets that he represents his school.

The Coach...

1. He inspires in his boys a love for the game and the desire to win.

2. He teaches them that it is better to lose fairly than to win unfairly.

3. He leads players and spectators to respect officials by setting them a good example.

DWIGHT McSPADDEN, new head football coach, yells out orders to some of the 56 men who have been reporting for football practice.

McSpadden assumes coaching responsibilities

Successor to Sid Smith, who has left his position as head football coach to become the new director of athletics, is Dwight McSpadden.

Coach McSpadden received his high school education at Wiley High School, Wiley, Colo. During his high school years he participated in football, basketball, track and baseball.

As a student at McPherson College, he played football and baseball before graduating in 1954.

Previous experience for Coach McSpadden includes three years as assistant football and basketball coach and one year as head baseball coach at Rocky Ford, Colo.

For three years at Yuma, Colo., he was head football and track coach before moving to McPherson this summer.

Coach McSpadden received his M.A. degree from the University of Colorado in 1964.

The former College football player feels that the many physical improvements of the school and the increase in the size of the student body have been most beneficial to future football teams.

His prime concern is the football team. He feels that it is tough for a squad to adjust to a new coach and to learn a new system. Since the first day of practice on Aug. 28, the team has shown great improvement and is continuing to work hard, according to Coach McSpadden.

For the mechanics of the organization, Coach McSpadden stated that he will be running primarily a wing-T flankerback offense and a six-two-three defense.

Looking ahead to the first game against College of Emporia, Coach McSpadden is both enthusiastic and optimistic. He feels that it will be a tough game and that some of the players will have to go the full time.

Nevertheless, the coach feels that during the next week before the first game he and his assistants, Don Widrig and Art Ray, can build considerable more team organization.

Prof advocates chapel as vital part of College

Assistant Professor of Art, Mary Ann Robinson, dean of women, will be in charge of the next chapel, Tuesday, Sept. 12.

"I hope students will consider chapel a vital part of their total experience at McPherson College, as this is the only time we have opportunity to worship as a college community," commented Dr. Doris Coppock, professor of physical education, who is in charge of the chapel services this year.

The first chapel was held in Brown Auditorium Sept. 5, with Dr. Harley Stump, professor of English, speaking of "The Church at Psychedelia." Highlights of the service brought out the meaning of the religious movement whose goal is to achieve the most by the use of stimulating substances.

Points of interest during the talk were the validity of the religion, what society is doing about the religion, and its tie with the historical background of most churches.

Observations

On Porpoise

The porpoise has no existential Dilemmas to addle his brain
What he does all day is a mystery;
All his talent goes down the drain.

His mother might even resent him.
He might have no group identification,
But he manages to keep his sanity
Without a six-week paid vacation.

Freely he swims through the water,
Clothed in only his birthday suit.
(There was no Adam and Eve porpoise
To eat of the forbidden fruit.)
We pity the poor, playful porpoise,
But our logic has its loops —
Would rational purposeful porpoises
Make homo sapiens jump through hoops?

New coach readies Bulldogs for opener

By CHRIS LEVI

The 1967 football team is getting set to swing into Kansas College Athletic Conference action this fall under new head coach Dwight McSpadden and his assistants, Donald Widrig and Art Ray.

The coaches are busily molding together the 1967 Bulldogs.

Practice started for the Bulldogs Aug. 28 with approximately 56 players meeting for the first day.

The coaches are using a new set of offensive and defensive plays.

The offense will consist of the "wing-T" with various formations used in running and passing.

Coach McSpadden said that he will use a basic six man front on defense with two linebackers and three safety men.

McSpadden stated that the backfield is the strong point of the team. He believes that the lack of depth in the line could be a problem as the season progresses.

The Bulldogs have 11 returning lettermen this season, six in the backfield and five linemen.

The backfield lettermen are Bob DeTour, Hal Wright, Junior Smith, Irvin Albin, Jim Beachell and D. Moore.

The linemen who lettered are Tom Brubaker, Denny Miller, Dan Stockstill, Mike Thompson and Don Woodcock.

Coach McSpadden said that the Bulldogs will have an intersquad scrimmage Saturday, Sept. 9, at 2 p.m. "I hope that students and the faculty will come and see the Bulldogs," McSpadden stated.

The first game of the season will be Sept. 16, 2 p.m. at College of Emporia. Coach McSpadden said "We play each game as they come, and we will be ready to meet C of E."

The 1967 schedule is:

Sept. 16-C of E, there, 2 p.m.

Sept. 22-KWU, here, 7:30 p.m.

Coed still trains despite injury

Kathy Rogers, soph, Brooklyn, Iowa, met with an unfortunate accident last May during a track meet at Ottawa, which almost put an end to her track career.

Kathy was spiked when a competitor ran too close to her.

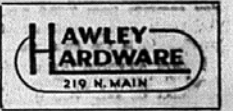

Kathy had to stay off her ankle for the remainder of the summer. She plans to begin training again Monday, Sept. 4, and hopes that her ankle doesn't give her any trouble.

Freshmen get acquainted

By DANA BOWER

Opening day of College activity for freshmen was exhausting yet exciting. On the first day, Aug. 28, was the Freshman Get-Acquainted Party, which was held at the College stadium.

The event consisted of two unusually challenging, hand-holding, head-knocking, mud-stomping games which made everyone feel at ease.

Following these games, one could hear the huffs and puffs of the heavy breathers treading to the Student Union for refreshments and name-exchanging games.

The Shadows of Blue provided music for the All School's Party, which was held in the Student Union Aug. 29. The Social Committee, headed by Cliff Gates, sr., Alexandria, Va., was the host.
