FACULTY RECEPTION TO STUDENTS PROVES QUITE ENTERTAINING

Dr. Kurtz Gives Address of Welcome
Dr. Harly And Prof. Hess
Also Speak

RECEIVING LINE ABOLISHED

Symphony Orchestra Furnishes Music
During Program—Mrs. Deeter
Gives Chalk Drawing

The annual reception given by the faculty to the students was held Tuesday evening, September nineteenth in the college chapel. As the students came into the room at eight o'clock they beheld that beloved and august body of pedagogues seated in the east platform under a canopy of red and white. The walls behind them were decorated with the various pennants from the alma maters of the faculty members.

A part of Prof. Lauer's symphony orchestra played until everyone had entered, then Prof. Ebel in his pleasing manner had charge of the evening's program. The students were introduced to the President, Dr. Kurtz, who in his address of welcome made everyone glad that he was there for the evening, and in McPherson for his training. After a piano solo by Miss Elsie Klinkerman, Mrs. Kurtz was presented and the President very cleverly introduced the individual members of the faculty together with their wives. Dr. Harly threw light on the dark ages of the institution when the science department occupied the lower regions, and as the Dean of the College, welcomed the new and the old to its halls. Miss Alma G. Anderson gave two short readings, after which Prof. M. A. Hess, Principal of the Academy recounted the triumphs of that department in debate, agriculture and athletics.

Other orchestra numbers were given while the entire assembly mingled together for a social hour in which they became acquainted with each other and attempted to guess whom the profiles of the faculty represented. After Miss Laura McGaffey had been awarded highest honors for getting the most profiles correct, a door at each side of the room was opened and from under red and white canopies ice cream and wafers were served by Misses McGaffey, Anderson, Hill and Klinkerman.

At the close of the evening Miss Klinkerman accompanied Mrs. Deeter in her chalk talk "The End of a Perfect Day." A beautiful sunset picture appeared on the canvas as the music was played.

The reception this year was a departure from the traditional form when the entire faculty stood in the receiving line and were introduced to the students separately. A sincere appreciation of the enjoyable evening with the faculty was felt by each person present.

KEPT SECRET FOUR YEARS.

General surprise occurred among many of the friends of Hervis R. Ellenberger, A. B. 1918, and Maud Crist, A. B. 1922, when the announcement came last week to the effect that "Hervis R. Ellenberger and Maud E. Crist announce their marriage January the eighth, nineteen hundred, and eighteen at Hutchinson, Kansas." About the date alluded to, Mr. Ellenberger, then a student in M. C., was called to the colors and left school. Miss Crist remained in school and completed her course last season at mid-year. For several months the young couple have been in Chicago, where Mr. Ellenberger has employment. They came to McPherson from Skidmore, Mo.

COLLEGE EVANGELISTS HAVE BUSY SCHEDULE THIS FALL

Rev. and Mrs. Oliver H. Austin, the College evangelists, have a busy schedule for the remainder of 1922. They just completed a series of meetings at Fairview, Missouri and tomorrow will begin work at Mount Carroll, Illinois, where they will be until October 22. From Illinois Rev. and Mrs. Austin will return to Kansas, where they will hold meetings at Nickerson, Chanute, and Independence.

CONCERT SERIES WILL BE GIVEN THIS WINTER

PROGRAMS TO BE OF HIGHER GRADE THAN THOSE OF LAST YEAR

The three numbers of the McPherson Concert Series which were given last winter proved so uplifting that another series of three excellent numbers has been secured. The programs to be given this season promise to be of a much higher grade than those of last year.

The Criterion Quartette which gave a number on the Lyceum Course several years ago opens the series on November 10. Tandy Mackenzie, the young Hawaiian tenor, appears on December 1, and Thurlow Lierance, who has collected a great number of Indian songs, closes the programs on January 26. Every one of these artists has gained national fame, and comes to McPherson with the approval of the country's foremost music critics.

Formerly McPherson College music lovers had to go to Hutchinson, Wichita, and some of the larger cities to hear the best music talent but now thru the McPherson Concert Series the best artists are brought most to our very doors. Students interested in music are urged not to miss hearing this wonderful series.

REV. RICHARDS SPEAKS TO MEMBERS OF MISSION BAND

At the first meeting of the Mission Band Thursday evening, Rev. H. F. Richards gave a splendid talk on the value of Volunteer work. Rev. Richards said that about forty-five per cent of the graduates of our college have entered into distinctively religious work. Most of these people have been members of the Mission Band. In order to prepare for real service, one must attend the meetings regularly.

B. F. Waas was elected to serve on the "Six-in-One" committee, and Lota Neher, corresponding secretary. It was decided to send letters of greetings to the other College Bands.

M. C. TO BE REPRESENTED AT CONFERENCE.

Each year in October occur the four district conferences of the Brethren Church in Kansas. The college will be represented by some faculty member at each of these gatherings and a few students, past and present, will be on the various programs.

MISSION BAND CHANGES TIME OF MEETING

The regular meetings of the Mission Band will be held immediately after church services each Sunday evening in Room 5. The first meeting will come October 1. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. We need you; you need us.

There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows.—Shakespeare.

ACTIVITY TICKET THIS YEAR TO BE SUPERIOR TO ANY EVER PUT OUT

Dr. Kurtz To Give One Of His Masterful Addresses—Two Numbers Secured From K. U.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM IS STRONG

Two High-Grade Plays Will Be Given By the Dramatic Art Department

The Student Activity ticket for this year promises to be better than any ticket ever put out by McPherson College. In addition to a very strong program in football, basketball, tennis, and track, there are a number of other important features.

Two numbers were contracted from a Kansas University representative, who was here recently. One of these is a character lecture, "The Potter and the Clay," by J. Smith Damron. The other is a concert by musicians of considerable rank in music circles.

Many of the students who were here last year will remember hearing Dr. Kurtz give his masterful address, "The Human Problem." Since Dr. Kurtz is a lecturer of national fame it is the plan of the Student Council to give the students an opportunity to hear his wonderful addresses here at home.

Dramatics will be given a more prominent place this year than heretofore. It is the plan of the Council to have the Dramatic Art class put on two high grade plays. One of these plays was selected by Dr. Kurtz for the Senior class to present last year but was rejected.

The All-Schools-Party to be held on Halloween will be financed by the Council. This is one of the big social events of the year and one that no student should miss. In addition to a splendid series of debates there will be a fine Old Line Oratorical contest held.

The Council is guaranteeing thirty numbers on the ticket and will probably give more. All of the thirty events can be attended at an expenditure of only twenty cents each—which is a trivial sum as compared to what it would cost to pay single admission at every event. A well balanced program has been arranged—a program that will be of benefit to every student.

LIBRARY POSSESSES BOOK

CLOSE TO 100 YEARS OLD
There is an interesting book nearly one hundred years old in the library which has since been called "Franklin's Autobiography." At the time of publication it was not so called. Instead we find these words near the front of the book: "The works of Dr. Benjamin Franklin, consisting of essays, humorous, moral and literary, with his life, written by himself." The book was printed and published by W. Van Norden, No. 393 Water Street, in the year 1825.

The book is exceptionally well bound, for although it has been much used, all the leaves are intact. Also the leaves are yellowed, but the printing is quite legible. Very few words are spelled by the old style, and the printing is like our own.

Although it is difficult to decipher the names that appear on the fly leaves in the front of the book, it is that the two given names are Susan and Majorie, and one family name looks like "Gaver" or "Garver."

Telephone Installed in Arnold Hall

The moving of the telephone from the hall of Sharp Administration building to Arnold Hall has already proved to be a great convenience, especially to those of that Hall and also to those of the other dormitories. This change has been needed for some time as it is now in a more nearly central location for all dormitory students and teachers.

ENROLLMENT PASSES 400 MARK

The total number of students who had enrolled at the Treasurer's office up until Saturday noon numbered 411. Of these 310 have registered in the college department. The membership of the Senior Class is now 58; Junior 51; Sophomore 76; Freshmen 99; and Specials 26. Of the 90 students in the Academy there are 21 Seniors, 16 Juniors, 13 Sophomores, 16 Freshmen, and 24 Specials.

NEW PILOTS CHOSEN BY COLLEGE CLASSES

SENIOR ELECTION RESULTS IN CHOICE OF ROY BRAMMELL FOR PRESIDENT

New pilots for the school year were chosen by the three upper classes of the college in meetings held Friday morning. The Freshmen decided to postpone their election for a few days until the members become better acquainted.

In a meeting held last Monday Roy Brammell was re-elected to direct the affairs of the Senior class during its final year. The following officers were elected Friday morning at the regular meeting:

Vice-President.....Earl Fisher
Secretary.....Marietta Byerly
Treasurer.....Clyde Rupp
Athletic Coach.....Raymond Clark
Reporter.....Harry Bowers

Social Committee
Chairman.....Iva Curtis
Clarence Showalter
Everett Brammell

Junior
President.....David Brubaker
Vice-President.....Winona McGaffey
Secretary.....Helen Elliott
Treasurer.....Rufus Daggert
Reporter.....Hazel Vogt
Athletic Coach.....Sanger Crumpacker
Cheer Leader.....Harold Barnes

Sophomore
President.....LeRoy Doty
Vice-President.....Ocie McAvoy
Secretary.....Mabel Hoffman
Treasurer.....Glade Fisher
Athletic Coach.....Harold Fisher
Cheer Leader.....Gertrude Witmore
Chairman of Social Committee
Alta Mohler
Chairman of Program Committee
Ruth King

Since there was a tie between Lola Miller and Marathon High in choosing a class reporter, this office will be filled at the next class meeting.

The Academy classes have not yet chosen their new officers. Meetings will be held this week at which time their pilots for the year will be selected.

Y. W. C. A.

A very interesting program was given at the first Y. W. C. A. meeting of the year last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Fahnestock led devotionalals after which a senior quartet sang one of the most popular of Y. W. songs, "Follow the Glean." Ada Correll, president of the association, gave an address welcoming all the new girls into all the pleasures and advantages that the Y. W. C. A. offers. A beautiful piano solo by Miss Klinkerman, two delightful readings by Miss Anderson, and the singing of the association hymn concluded the program.

Working On Ph. D. Degree

Carl N. Rexroad, A. B. '18, who took his B. D. degree at Yale last spring visited at M. C. a few days last week. Mr. Rexroad plans to return to Yale where he will take up research work in Psychology which will lead to the Ph. D. degree.

What's going to happen in chapel Thursday? Better come and find out.

BULLDOGS TAKE HARD FOUGHT BATTLE FROM BAKER BY 7-6 SCORE

Visitors Have Edge On Lomborg's Men, But Unsuccessful Drop-Kick Costs Them Game.

BOTH TEAMS LACK TRAINING

Barton And Carter Play Leading Role For McPherson—Wright and Shirk Feature For The Wildcats.

McPherson College's Bulldogs opened the Kansas Conference last Friday by defeating the Baker University Wildcats 7 to 6 in a hotly contested football game. Although neither side showed much fast football, spectators were well satisfied with the game. Many costly fumbles were made but this could be expected of teams playing so early in the season. The teams sized up with Baker's line being a little heavier than McPherson's and their backfield being light but fast. Although the Bulldogs did not "get to going" in true style they looked mighty good and we are expecting big things from them during the remainder of the season. Baker outplayed McPherson in the first half but after a little talk administered by "Dutch" between halves the Bull dogs came back with the old fight and registered a touchdown during the early part of the third quarter. Baker also made their counter during this quarter but failed to make the additional goal which they tried to make by an attempted drop kick.

First Quarter
The game opened with McPherson defending the north goal. Baker kicked off and McPherson returned to the 30 yard line. Clark made five yards thru the line but then McPherson lost two yards on a fumble and Barton, was forced to punt. This gave Baker the ball on the fifty yard line. McPherson was twice penalized for offside, five yards each time. Baker was penalized for offside but then went thru for three first downs. When almost within striking distance of McPherson's goal they were penalized fifteen yards for rough play and after an attempted forward pass, which Holloway intercepted, they were forced to punt. Thornton returned the ball for McPherson. The Bulldogs then made two first downs but Baker strengthened, forcing them to punt and give the visitors the ball on their own 35 yard line at the end of the first quarter.

Second Quarter
The second quarter opened with McPherson defending the south goal. Baker made four first downs but was penalized twice, once for roughness and once for offside. Holloway then recovered a fumble and McPherson punted to the 50 yard line. By line plunges Baker returned the ball to McPherson's 20 yard line where the ball stood at the close of the first half.

Carter Makes Touchdown
In the second half McPherson kicked off and defended the south goal. This gave Baker the ball but they fumbled on their first play, Thornton recovering. At this time Ellwood went in for Stansel who had to go out on account of a wrenched knee and shoulder. A complete pass, Barton to Carter, netted eight yards. Capt. Carter then made a thrilling 25 yard run for a touchdown. Some credit should be given to quarterback Thornton through, who ran splendid interference for Carter. Barton made a perfect drop kick which gave McPherson one more point, the point that won the game in this case.

McPherson again kicked off and then held Baker forcing them to punt. McPherson tried a pass but was thrown for a loss of five yards.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS.

The publication of the Spectator is largely made possible thru the extensive advertising of the McPherson Business men. In return for their loyal support of college activities they expect trade from the students.

Patronize those persons who advertise in our school paper is the request we make to the students who have been here before as well as to those who are here for the first time. When you go down town call on our advertisers first and make it a point to tell them that you saw their ad in the Spectator. If perchance they do not have what you want, then go elsewhere but if possible give our advertisers your patronage.

We feel that you will be well repaid by buying from our advertisers for they carry a very reliable line of goods. Show your appreciation to these loyal supporters by giving them the first look. Boost those who are helping to boost M. C.

A WELCOME CHANGE

A change that was much welcomed by M. C. students was the doing away of the receiving line at the faculty reception. The old method of each faculty member meeting each student is too monotonous and tiresome. Besides, on the day after, very few members of the faculty can recognize and call by name the students they met at the reception. The students and their professors soon learn to know each other in the classroom. It doesn't take very long for every student and faculty member in M. C. to become acquainted in some way or another. The method of President Kurts introducing each member of the faculty is a welcome change indeed.

Have you noticed the new lettering on the Spectator box in the hall of the Administration building? It comes from the experienced hand of Glenn Johnson whose talent along the line of Art is well known to former M. C. students. Mr. Johnson has studied in the Chicago Art Institute. Last summer he studied in the Art Institute at Kansas City and also taught a class in lettering. The Spectator Staff takes this opportunity to thank Mr. Johnson for helping to make the Spectator box look more attractive.

Exchanges

The Orange and Black was the first paper to reach our exchange department.

There were 3,369 students enrolled in K. U. on September 15.

Dr. John D. Finlayson is the new president of Fairmount College. Fairmount reports an enrollment of nearly 400.

Baker University also has a new president—Dr. W. B. Fleming. The Class of '23 at Baker numbers ninety members, which is the largest class in the history of the institution.

From Sterling comes the good word that football prospects there were never brighter.

The enrollment at Southwestern has passed the 700 mark.

Are you going to miss chapel Thursday? Oh Boy, No!

REPORT OF FACULTY COMMITTEE ON EXCUSES

1. In securing an excuse for absence from class the students shall fill in an excuse blank and present same to the teacher. If the teacher deems the reason for absence legitimate he shall sign same. The student, if he is of college rank, then presents the excuse to the Dean, if of academy rank, to the Principal of the Academy. If this official considers the absence justifiable he shall tear off and file the portion of the blank containing the teacher's name and sign the remaining portion, which last shall be returned to the teacher by the student. The teacher shall then regard the absence as excused.

2. An absence even when properly excused does not relieve the student of the necessity of satisfactorily making up the class work that was missed.

3. The Dean (or Principal) may grant an excuse without the signature of the teacher if conditions in his opinion justify such action.

4. Excuses must be obtained within one week after the student has returned to class. If possible it is preferred that excuses be obtained before absences occur.

5. Absences immediately before and after vacation will be excused by Dean (or Principal) only.

6. If one unexcused absence remains in a semester in any course the student must take a special examination for which a fee of one dollar must be paid at the Treasurer's office. The students must present the Treasurer's receipt for this fee to the teacher before credit is given for the course. (This examination fee is added to the Library fund.)

7. No excused absences whatever the number will in themselves subject the student to a special examination fee.

Respectfully submitted and passed by the Faculty.

Student Opinion

Must the green house be used by the freshmen for another year? From all indications it looks that way. The Class of 1921 built this memorial with the understanding that the management of the college would equip it, but so far nothing has been done toward getting it ready for use. The departments of Botany and Agriculture, especially, have long been in need of a green house where they can grow their own plants. Since the building is already here why not equip it for use so that students studying in these fields will have an opportunity to do much more efficient work? The Seniors of 1921 are anxious that their memorial be put to service for their Alma Mater. Delay in equipping it means disappointment to them as well as deprivation to students now attending M. C. Why let the green house stand idle any longer?

Come to chapel Thursday and see how M. C. defeated Baker in 1920.

"ABRACADABRA"

About Books

It is pathetic to get into a conversation with most college students when the subject of literature is introduced. To ascertain how little they know about the subject is discouraging to say the least. And finally after several rather simple replies to your statements of appreciation or depreciation, one is tempted to ask said candidate for Bachelor's degree, "Say! What have you been doing with your time, anyway?"

Whether he is majoring in English or not should really make very little difference for books and ideas are going to be needed in any profession. Books are vital, books furnish ideas, books furnish ideals, books are dynamic. They are after all what we live by.

Now, if I had my way about it—(which I haven't, and you may be thankful)—I would require every college student to read "The Haunted Bookshop," by Christopher Morley before they would get the privilege to accept their diplomas. I would not care if they did not get the story for it is rather disgusting, lacking both interest and cleverness. But I would have them get the philosophy that is expressed in the first few chapters. If you can get hold of a copy of this book, it will be worth your time to read the first five chapters. I have a copy that I will very gladly place in the library for general use.

Here are some excerpts from the book:

"People don't know that they want books. . . . Do you know why people are reading more books now than ever before? Because the terrific catastrophe of the war has made them realize that their minds are ill. The world was suffering from all sorts of mental fever and aches and disorders, and never knew it. Now our mental pangs are only too manifest. We are all reading, hungrily, hastily, trying to find out—after the trouble is over—what was the trouble with our minds. . . . Between ourselves there is no such thing, abstractly, as a 'good' book. A book is 'good' only when it meets some human hunger or refutes some human error. . . . The world has been printing books for 450 years, and yet gunpowder still has a wider circulation. Never mind! Printer's ink is the greater explosive: it will win."

When people are ill, physically, we send them to the doctor, but what do we do when they are ill mentally?
Gazinkus.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting Wednesday morning marked a very good beginning for the new school year, with a large attendance and an interesting program. After opening the meeting with a couple hymns, the Scripture lesson was read by David Brubaker, chairman of the program committee. Prayer was offered by LeRoy Doty, "Prof. Student-baker, and Roy Hylton. The two speakers of the morning were then announced. The first speaker, Harold Correll, president of the Y. M. C. A., expressed a friendly welcome to all the men of the college, especially the new ones to enter freely into the fellowship and privileges of the Y. M. C. A. organization. Besides calling our attention to the fellowship and Bible study for which the organization stands, he outlined the scope of the work of the local association.

Ira Brammell, the second speaker, gave an impromptu talk from his own experience concerning what the attitude of the upperclassmen should be toward the lower. He mentioned such problems of the underclassmen as etiquette, courses of study and also such predicaments as embarrassments, self-consciousness, and timidity. Mr. Brammell's main exhortation to the new lowerclassmen was that they should feel free to seek information or help from the upperclassmen.

The Y. M. C. A. is only the organized effort of us as students that we may more easily and efficiently help each other in Christian fellowship and study, so let us all get right into this cheerful business from the start and show our interest by our presence next Wednesday morning in Prof. Gay's studio at 10 a. m.

A CODE FOR ATHLETES

Capt. L. Theodore Belmont, director of sports and athletics of the University of Texas in 1921, issued a set of original rules to members of the student basketball squad. The same rules also are applicable to all participants in amateur sports and athletics, he says. The rules are:

During the season regard every team member as your brother.

Stars ruin teamwork. No stars exist until after the season.

Attend every academic class and keep up your scholarship.

Eliminate all intentional personal fouls.

Shake hands with an opponent at the beginning of a game and regard him for the balance of the game as an enemy.

Smiles have no place on the court. A loafer is a better spectator than player.

Don't expect to be pampered. You are a man, not a kid in knee pants.

Leave off pastry, fried food and candy. Satisfy yourself with an occasional lump of sugar if you have a sweet tooth.

Every right action and true thought sets the seal of its beauty on the person and the face.—Ruskin.

Style Show hats now on display for your choosing at Matthews Millinery—The College Girls Store.—adv.

Rev. S. B. Braden.

M. C. ALUMNUS HEADS BIBLE CHAIR AT K. U.

Rev. S. B. Braden, A. M. 1919, was recently made head of the Bible work at the University of Kansas and has entered upon his duties at that place. Rev. Braden succeeds his brother, Rev. Arthur Braden who held the position for the past seven years and who has been transferred to Los Angeles.

Rev. Braden will conduct his Bible classes in Myers Hall, a building erected by the Christian Churches of the state. Full credit will be given for the course.

For a number of years Rev. Braden has been pastor of the Christian Church in McPherson. He was always a welcome chapel speaker and will be greatly missed by the students who have been attending M. C. the last few years.

Merle Stouder (in Zoology): "I can't draw this grasshopper's face."
Viola Bower (thoughtfully): "Look at me and you can."

Rah! Rah! For The Spec!

Like a poor little kitten alone in the cold—
Or a chicken half drowned in the rain,
Is an old M. C. student away from the fold
When he longs to be "back home" again.

With strangers around him on every side
And tasks mountain-high piled before,
With the happy experience of school life behind—
How could he of troubles have more?

Then his thoughts sadly turn to his dear old M. C.
And he longs for the comfort of "home"—
From his tasks he would fain for a few days be free
That to M. C. his tired feet might roam!

But alas! Such a thing would impossible be—
So his tears now again start to fall;
As he spreads his wet handkerchief out on his knee
He knows that he can't catch them all.

But he thinks again of the Spectator—! Then
He smiles at the comfort so near—
For he seizes a dollar—a paper—and pen;—
Subscribes—reads—and sheds no more tears.

Personal Paragraphs

Dr. Kurtz and Prof. Yoder are at Elgin, Illinois this week attending a meeting of the General Mission Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Tice and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crumpacker visited at M. C. Thursday.

Some of the members of the Class of '22 who attended the McPherson Baker game Friday were: Nellie Cullen, Glenn Strickler, Paul Pair, August Rump, and Ralph Strohm.

Prof. and Mrs. Unruh and Mrs. Vilas Betts spent the week-end at Wichita.

Lester Ogden enjoyed a visit from his parents Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Hoover entertained Miss Estella Engle and Mr. Ralph Strohm to dinner Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hostetter visited their son, Abram, Sunday.

Dale Strickler spent the week-end at his home at Ramona.

Mrs. A. Rupp was a Hill visitor

Sunday.

Estella Engle visited her sister at Ramona, Sunday.

Gerald Eddy spent the week-end at home.

Grace and Sarah Fike were very glad for a visit from their home folks Sunday.

Wheat planting seems to have called a number of M. C. men back to the farm. Some of those who have answered the call are: Frank Boone, Ralph Lehman, Harold Correll, Milton Dell, and Ralph Himes.

Ralph Lehman returned to M. C. Sunday. He was accompanied by his mother, sister, and two brothers, Will and John.

A number of the members of the Senior Class of last year were seen on the campus over Sunday. Some of these were: Irma Witmore, Oliver Trapp, Ralph Holsinger, Roy Neher, and Elmer Rupp.

Maxcy-Dana

John W. Maxcy, A. B., '20, physical director at the Potsdam Normal School, New York and Miss Dorin I. Dana were united in marriage August 17, at the home of the bride in the little village of Bombay, New York. The double ring ceremony was used quite effectively. The house was attractively decorated in a color scheme of yellow and green. Immediately after the ceremony congratulations were extended and dainty refreshments were served. The departure of the couple was quite unique. Mr. Maxcy's football boys from the Normal School appeared donned in their football suits and virtually kidnapped him and his bride. After a trip which included Québec, Montreal and the Mohawk Trail Mr. and Mrs. Maxcy returned to Potsdam where they are now making their home.

A NARROW ESCAPE

That Euclid's not always quiet and peaceful can be confirmed by Bernice Peck and Lorinda Leatherman. The other evening as they were enjoying the beauties of nature on an after-supper stroll, a danger signal was sounded. To their amazement the girls on looking around, noticed a gentleman of the goat family approaching them. Immediately they increased their pace and so did Billy. With the hope of reaching refuge first the girls started to run toward Mrs. Fahnestock's home but Billy, apprehending their motive, ignored street etiquette and cut across the beautiful lawn in a desperate effort to overtake the frightened damsels. Bernice succeeded in mounting the porch first with Lorinda a close second. Poor Billy came up last but porch steps were no barrier to him. He intended to ascend also but alas!—the frantic screams and the flash of skirts proved too much for him. In his amazement he abandoned the chase and peacefully continued his stroll up Euclid, the girls following later.

Undoubtedly when Bernice and Lorinda take their strolls down Euclid in the future they will equip themselves with periscopes so that they can see when the coast is clear, both afore and after.

Social Events

Y. M. and Y. W. Cabinets Hike.

On Thursday evening the Y. M. and Y. W. cabinets hiked to the little grove east of the college for a get-together party. The occasion was simply a restful retreat and most of the time was spent about the campfire where each took his turn at entertainment with a story, song, or joke of any sort. Provision had already been made for refreshments and at the proper moment steak, buns, coffee, cookies, pickles, and apples were produced in quantities which left none hungry. Miss Margaret Walters accompanied the cabinets and proved herself a genuine good sport and splendid chaperon. After lots of rest and fun, the campfire was put out and together the cabinets returned to the campus better fitted to be a little more cheerful and congenial.

A Jolly Outing.

Who? The College Freshmen, of course. What? The first class hike of the year. When? Saturday evening. The first game was "Follow Your Leader." It began as we left the campus, took us thru weed patches, under barbed wire fences, across stubble, cane fields and plowed ground, thru the cemetery, over a mile of dusty roads and after a halt at a farm house, where the crowd was weighed on the farm scales, and thirst quenched at the cistern pump, led us to the sandpit with the cats had preceded, accompanied by a number of our classmates in cars. After some time spent in playing games a fire was built and the crowd gathered around. Hot doggies were roasted and stowed away with the usual accompaniments, buns and pickles, followed by luscious ripe peaches. In order better to learn the names the crowd was asked to sit in a circle about the fire then one at a time the members arose and spoke his or her name and the name of his town and state. After this Miss Anderson, our chaperon, gave a short talk to the fifty or sixty youngsters. The crowd dispersed about 8 o'clock.

NIGHT-SHIRT PARADE STAGED BY FOOTBALL ROOTERS

About fifty weird and ghostly appeared figures assembled in Falmouth Hall Thursday evening in preparation for the annual night-shirt parade which is held prior to the first football game. At the appointed hour of 7:30 the motley crowd sallied forth and found little difficulty in storming Arnold Hall. Immediately an invasion began on the down town districts. As Captain Earl Morris led his white-robed followers down Euclid, first in single file, then in a long winding snake dance formation, the people living along the street were attracted to their doors by such whooping, yelling, and shouting as they had never heard before.

Upon reaching Broadway the "night-army" turned south and putting forth renewed effort soon had the clear autumn air vibrating with lots of peppy college yells. After giving a variety of yells at the intersection of Kansas Avenue and Broadway, the Tournay Theatre was entered and with no warning whatever, the theatre-goers suddenly became aware that McPherson College has a bunch of enthusiastic football rooters.

Leaving the theatre the ghostly figures journeyed northward for several blocks. A few more yells and songs were given as a final number and then the journey for the Hill began. Some walked, some ran, and some succeeded in catching a ride on passing cars. Every man who participated in the event was confident that the business men down town are now aware that M. C. has a real Pep Club.

Baker then intercepted a pass but was thrown for two losses. Ellwood doing splendid defensive work. Baker then punted but again received the ball when McPherson fumbled. At this time Baker started to gain almost at will and soon put the ball over the line. They failed, however, in an attempt to drop kick for an additional point and this caused them to get the small end of the score.

Baker then kicked off, Carter returning the ball for McPherson. Barton who had been playing a wonderful game was forced out at this time on account of injuries and "Heinie" Hahn went in at Fullback. McPherson fumbled giving Baker the ball but they immediately fumbled the ball also and Ellwood recovered for McPherson. This ended the third quarter with McPherson in possession of the ball on Baker's forty yard line.

Fourth Quarter
McPherson started the third quarter by making three small gains but were then penalized for using arms. McPherson made a complete pass, Carter to Holloway but was held and forced to punt. Baker then made a complete pass for ten yards, preceding this pass with two first downs. McPherson then held, forcing Baker to punt. McPherson made first downs but were penalized fifteen yards. At this time Colburn replaced Mudra at tackle. McPherson then fumbled for a five yard loss, Hahn recovering. The ball was then on McPherson's eighteen yard line when the whistle brought the game to a close with the Bulldogs ahead by one point.

For the Baker team Shirk and Wright were the outstanding stars altho their line held well, each map playing a good game. Baker has a fast backfield and no mediocre team. They were all good sports and we are glad to play that kind of a team. Barton and Carter were the outstanding players for McPherson. Clark also made some valuable gains and Thornton did some good work in recovering fumbles. Ellwood did good work at end and he looks good for a regular berth on the first team lineup. Holloway playing his first game of college football looked good and seems to be in line as regular. We imagine that Coach Lonsberg will give the team some hard practice Monday and Tuesday so they will hit the Fairmount Wheatshockers in a little better style when they meet them at Wichita next Saturday.

The lineup follows:
Maag R.E. Holloway
Taylor R.T. S. Kelm
Keeler R.J. R. Kelm
Friend, (C) C. Crofoot
Littrell L.G. Brunk
Slagel L.T. Mudra
Thornily L.E. Stansel
Wright R.H. (C) Carter
Shirk L.H. Clark
Hill F.B. Barton
Schoenfeld Q.B. Thornton

Substitutes—Baker, Heckman for Schoenfeld. McPherson—Hahn for Barton; Ellwood for Stansel; Colburn for Mudra.

Officials—Referee, Edmonds; Umpire, Uhrhau; Linesman, Enns.

Some Printer!

"May I print a kiss on your lips?" I said.

And she nodded her sweet permission.

So we went to press, and I rather guess

We printed a full edition.

"One edition is hardly enough,"

She said with a charming pout.

So again on the press the form was placed

And we got some "extras" out.

Himes: "What'll we do?"

Rodes: "I'll spin a coin. If it's heads we go to the movies; if it's tails we go to the circus; and if it stands on edge we'll study."
