COLLEGE TO TAKE BIG PART IN ALL SCHOOLS DAY PROGRAM MAY 14

Annual Event Held in Honor of County Graduates Is One of Big Events of the Year.

COLLEGE TO STAGE COMEDY

M. C. Girls Will Take Part in Pageant With Butterfly and Maypole Festival Drills.

McPherson City will be the host May 14 in the annual All School's Day when it will honor the graduates of rural and town grade schools of McPherson County. This is an annual affair and one of the big days of the year for citizens as well as neighboring communities. The two colleges of the city always play a prominent role in the day's activities—especially in parades, May Day drills, and athletics. This year promises to be an auspicious one according to statements of those in charge.

Thirty Departments Take Part. Preliminary scenes will be laid in the West Park at 9:30 in the form of a spring pageant in four parts, one of which will be the crowning of the May queen. Two college drills, the butterfly and may-pole, will furnish major portions in this pageant while the high school drills are such as to deplete fairs, sunbeams, and rejoicing peasants. Eleven o'clock will be the time of the parade where rural communities, local organizations, and college floats are represented. McPherson College alone will have nearly thirty departments and organizations represented. Central College and Academy, McPherson High School classes, and college classes are expected to lengthen the parade.

Baseball Game With Hays T. C.
Afternoon proceedings will begin promptly at 1:30 when the graduates will march to the Opera House for their commencement. Details of this program have not been received. A baseball game between McPherson College and Kansas Teachers of Hays will feature at 2:30. Following this will be an interesting track meet between aspiring athletes of the graduating class, including boys and girls. The 50 and 100 yard dashes, high jump, broad jump, baseball throw and relay are to form the major events.

In the evening a play "Adam and Eva," by the College Dramatic Art Class under Miss Anderson should give a fitting close to an eventful day. This is an extremely amusing drama and handled by an excellent cast it will furnish a real evening's entertainment.

Last Lyceum Number To Be Given Friday

The last number of the lyceum course, which was indefinitely postponed by the illness of the lecturer, Charles F. Horner, will be given Friday night at the Opera House. Mr. Horner is head of the Redpath-Horner Lyceum and Chautauqua Bureau, and president of the Horner Institute in Kansas City for the training of musicians that are included in his program. He has traveled widely and this his unique and remarkable man will undoubtedly give a lecture well worth while.

GIVE PINE ARTS RECITAL

A number of students enjoyed the recital given by the Pine Arts Department Monday night, April 28. Many students appreciate the excellent quality of these programs.

Those appearing on the program were Misses Fern Lingentfer, Mary Harnly, Mabel Hoffman, Ruth Hawkins, Lora Shatto, Edna Steel, Willetta Durst, Alfreda Hagstrom, Della Chavez, Eunice Almen, and Agnes Sanderson, and Messrs. Oliver Ebel and Edwin Johnson.

NEARLY $400 IS RECEIVED BY "M" CLUB FOR PROJECT

Exultant rooters for "Sassie Susie" were not in the least disappointed last Thursday morning when the results of the big derby were announced, for "Susie" came in with $118.32—a good $26.32 ahead of the nearest horse, "Sparky." "The Old Gray Mare" and "Man-O-War" didn't bother Frank much but they ran each other a good race and came out with $84.00 and $75.25, respectively. "Yo Ho" is from China or Japan and not much is known about his backers only that they haven't pushed him very hard—and that masked rider as a jockey would make a good grave digger.

The race has been exciting from start to finish and with $394.82 a great deal can be done to improve the athletic field. While the Club's efforts have not netted the expected returns, it is hoped that the interest created by the race will help to make a far better field on which the athletic teams of future years may fight for the glory of old M. C.

SENIOR CLASS OBSERVES ANNUAL IVY DAY EVENT

GRADUATES PLANT THE IVY ALONG THE WALLS OF HARNLY HALL

The Ivy Day tradition was observed by the Senior Class last Friday morning at the regular chapel period when they marched into the assembly in a body, and after leading the morning devotions and taking charge of the program, went to the Science Hall where the ivy was planted. The observance of Ivy Day at McPherson College is an annual event, expressing in a beautiful way the interest and devotion that the seniors possess for their Alma Mater.

Conducted Chapel Program.
Doris Plum led the student body in singing after which Dale Strickler led devotions. A beautiful trio was given by Rhea Fast, Mildred Fisher, and Gertrude Witmore. "The Ivy Ode" was read by Eunice Almen, and Dr. Craik, the class adviser, gave a brief history of Ivy Day at McPherson College.

NEW HOMES BEING BUILT

A program of construction and refitting is in evidence at several places on College Hill. Two more additions to the list of McPherson's beautiful homes will soon be completed. S. P. Crampacker is erecting a modern nine room home on North Olivette Street. The two-story Heckman house southeast of the campus on Gordon Avenue has been torn down and is being replaced by a late model bungalow. Professor Mohler's residence has recently received a new coat of paint. Carpenters and painters worked several days a short time ago on the Hoffman home west of the campus.

ORCHESTRA GIVES CONCERT

Sunday afternoon marked the opening spring concert given by the Symphony Orchestra at the Methodist Church. Rubenstein's fourth piano concerto by Helen Garst, a trumpet solo by Mr. San Romani, a vocal group by Mrs. A. R. Matthy, and Kellar Bela's Hungarian Lustspiel Overture by the Orchestra alone were the outstanding numbers.

WILL LECTURE ON RADIUM

Professor Hershey will give an interesting lecture on radium tomorrow evening at eight o'clock in the chemistry lecture room. Everyone is invited, for this lecture will not be technical. There will be some demonstrations during the lecture.

BETHEL HUMBLED FOR SECOND TIME IN GAME FEATURED BY HITTING

Bulldogs Pounded Out Twenty-Two Hits For Twenty Runs In a Wild Slugfest.

CAPTAIN BARTON HITS HOMER

Kolzw Holds Menonites to Three Hits and One Earned Run in Nine Innings.

Pounding the ball for twenty-two hits, which netted twenty runs, while allowing their opponents only three scores, the Bulldogs humbled the Bethel College baseball team for the second time this season in an interesting game on the College athletic field last Friday afternoon. The game was close until the last of the seventh inning, when Miller, Bethel pitcher, began to weaken noticeably. The last three innings netted thirteen runs for the Bulldogs.

Kolzw Gave Only Three Hits
Kolzw twirled a good game, striking out thirteen men and allowing only one earned run. The whole Bulldog team was hitting, and only one man failed to score. Barton secured the first home run on the local field this season when he knocked the ball out of the field in the seventh inning. Mast, by drawing three walks and scoring two hits, one almost a circuit clout, had a perfect day at bat.

Kansas Wesleyan University will be the next opposition to the Bulldogs Wednesday at Salina.

EBEL NAMED CHAIRMAN OF ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE

M. C. will celebrate her Portieth Anniversary in 1927, plans being already formulated for her Homecoming program. The vacancy on the committee chosen last year, caused by the resignation of Dr. Craik, has been filled by the election of Professor Ebel. Other members of the committee are Professor Yoder, Dr. Harnly, W. J. Krehbiel, and W. R. Carnoy. Many graduates and former students have already expressed their interest and intention of coming back to their Alma Mater for the celebration. Under Professor Ebel's chairmanship and with the loyal support and co-operation of the Alumni an interesting program is assured.

DR. KURTZ WILL BEGIN TOUR OF LECTURES SOON

PRESIDENT IS NOW AT IOWA STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

A rather extended visit of five days fell to the lot of Dr. Kurtz last week when he actually remained at the college and thereabouts for that length of time. This was ended, however, Friday noon when he again took the road which will occupy his time from now until next fall with the exception of several intervals at McPherson.

HESS JUDGES CONTEST AT SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE

Professor Hess judged in the forensic contests at the high school festival held at Southwestern College last week. Friday evening he was the single judge in the extemporaneous speaking contest, and one of three judges in an oration contest the following morning. This contest with a prize of $250 was won by Mr. Boyer of Wichita High School, a brother of the Mr. Boyer who competed in the peace oration contest against Mr. Brubaker at Friends University recently. The winner at Southwestern also won a prize of $50 at Salina recently in the district contest held under the auspices of the Kansas City Star on the subject, "The Constitution of the United States."

CAMPUS IS SCENE OF GORGEOUS PAGEANTRY IN MAY DAY FESTIVAL

Margaret Wall of the Junior Class Is Crowned Queen of May in Pomp and Splendor.

NEARLY ALL GIRLS TAKE PART

A Beautiful, Green Campus and Clear Sky Help to Make the Day A Great Success.

Daintily and elaborately costumed maidens, Herculean athletes, human butterflies, best-man competitions, graceful drills, beautiful queens vying for first honors—such were some of the attractions when McPherson College held its May Day Fete on Thursday of last week at which time Margaret Wall was crowned May queen of the school. The affair was held under the auspices of the Physical Training Department and directed by Floyd Mishler, director of athletics, and Chic Chapman, director of women's physical training. The pleasing manner in which the various events were rendered displayed the splendid organization and many hours of earnest preparation on the part of the directors and participants. A clear sky, Kansas sunshine, balmy spring atmosphere, and a holiday for several hundred study-tired students all helped to make the day well high ideal.

Interludes Rivalry Was Keen

A varied and interesting list of events made up the program for the day. Most of the morning was occupied by contests in the gymnasium under the direction of Coach Mishler. Much interest and rivalry was manifest between the various classes, each valiantly competing for first honors for its queen who sat in royal dignity awaiting the outcome. Following the gymnasium events came the field activities. A list of the events and results are to be found elsewhere in this issue. The Junior Class succeeded in capturing the greatest number of points and thus the honor of having their candidate

Fahnestock Hall Men Are Learning Graceful Manners

Eichler's "Book of Etiquette," two volumes, owned by the inmates of room 13, are probably the most sought after books by a certain group of men in Fahnestock Hall. Many have been seen reading these volumes—seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen alike are inspired by their voluminous pages. The purpose of the book is to take from men all that is coarse, awkward, and unrefined, substituting instead a gallantry of spirit and a gentleness of breeding that will make them more loving and lovable persons. This should give the reader that unaffected grace and charm of manner that the French like to call savoir faire that was possessed by that great and ardent courtier, Beau Brummel.

All readers are not equally inspired nor are all impressed by the same things. "Poddy" Himes, was greatly interested in the "Essentials and Rules of Real Courtship Courtesies of a Lover," while Big Bill valued more highly "Good Manners in the Street and in Public," reading up on such subjects as "Offering the Arms" and "Methods of Leave Taking." And again Bishop was more concerned in cultivating a "Well-Bred" vocabulary. Paul Kurtz centered his attention upon breeches of etiquette at the table, while Morris strove to master the chapter in "How to Become Popular with the Fairer Sex." The chapter on the "Cash Value of Good Manners" was greatly esteemed by Ratzlaff. "The Social Lion" caused much sweat on Hal's brow, and Rufus liked best "To Be Constantly with Her."

A WORTH-WHILE EVENT

A holiday is always welcomed by the students—especially in the spring when Nature, with her untold wealth, calls for a place in the thoughts of youth. And a day free from books and studies is even more appreciated when the campus is a scene of gorgeous pageantry—alive with the magic of spring and make-believe. Just such a day was enjoyed by McPherson College students last Thursday when the first May Day Fete was celebrated in pomp and splendor.

The event is one of aesthetic value, and might well be a permanent feature of the spring events at M. C. It tends to develop an appreciation of beauty in movement, in nature, and in all things artistic. It is the one occasion of the year when each student may take a part in the program—Irene Castles, Mary Pickfords, Fritz Kreislers, Achilles, Cleopatras, and Paddocks—these and other famous personages may be found taking a part in the events.

The student who entered into the spirit of the day, and the many friends of the College who watched the performances will look forward to the next May Day Fete with a pleasant anticipation.

The faculty is planning an all-day motor trip for its fourth social.—Probably to talk over a curtailment of student activities.

HISTORY OF MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day is hung with no garlands of tradition. It was only in 1906 that Miss Anne Jarvis, of Philadelphia, honoring her own mother on the anniversary of her death, conceived of a day on which everyone should do reverence to his mother, whether she be living or dead.

The World's Sunday School Association adopted the plan, and, in the next few years, annually designated one Sunday as Mother's Day. In 1914 the observance of the day was raised to the status of a national celebration. Congress passed a bill designating the second Sunday in May each year as "Mother's Day," calling upon the President to request the observance of this day each year by the nation.

Prospects are good for a great growth of musical ability from the looks of the crowd of fellows who were hanging around the piano after Chapel last Monday.

Y. W. C. A. PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY ACADEMY GIRLS

The Academy girls gave a most interesting Y. W. C. A. program Wednesday morning. Marie Brubaker led in devotions. Carrie Feller and Esther Freeburg sang an impressive duet, "Abide with Me"; Mercie Shint read "Penrod's Letter," taken from Booth Tarkington's book "Penrod." Gladys Fishburn gave a splendid little pianologue, "Try Smiling", and Mary Whiteneck in a few words told "What the Y. M. C. A. means to the Academy Girls", after which Alta Lauer and Marie Brubaker sang "Whispering Hope." The program was concluded with a delightful piano duet by Vera Glathari and Jennie Viengst. The girls enjoyed the program and appreciated the Academy girls' giving it. Next Wednesday an Estes Park program will be given.

Library Committee Meets

The Library Committee of the faculty held a short meeting last Tuesday night in order to talk over plans for the work of next year. Mostly items of detail came before the meeting although a few matters of general policy were discussed. Those present at the meeting were Miss Margaret Walters, Miss McGaffey, Professor Nininger, Professor Hess, Dr. Craik, and Miss Margaret Heckethorn, who will be librarian next year during the absence of Miss Walters. President Kurtz has appointed Miss McGaffey chairman of the committee vice Dr. Craik, who has resigned.

PROFESSORS MAKE CONFESSIONS IN Y. M. C. A. MEETING

They've confessed. They can't scold us or chastise us or admonish us now for they have told us—they're human. The Doctor Elmer Le Roy Craik, Ph. D., led the confessions last Wednesday morning in the Y. M. C. A. meeting by telling us about the most amusing experience in college while he attended. He told us manfully and frankly (though blushing violently, and outwardly ashamed)—that he himself was that amusing experience. He also confessed that he was from Oklahoma, with emphasis on the "from."

The Professor John Alvin Blair, our illustrious psychologist and orator, who was to speak on his most embarrassing experience, strode haughtily to the front, wheeled quickly, and blurted out, "This is it." He further elaborated, saying that he was deeply humiliated because it was unardonably improper for a man in his position, of his dignity, and a noted psychologist to boot, to be called upon to tell of his most embarrassing experience.

Our pious coach (who is always pious, you know) told us seriously of his greatest mistake in college. That was of having little sympathy for the Y. M. C. A. workers, and he said that the final realization of that mistake was a great and permanent contribution to his life.

Professor Yoder, in speaking of his most inspiring experience, said that two men, Dr. Sharp and Dr. Frantz, were the most inspiring characters to him. These men were his guides and furnished him with a permanent love for the Bible, and for right and truth.

Then Professor Deeter, in speaking of his most helpful college friendship, said that Homer G. Engle and himself had continually shared each other's shame and sympathy while in college.

A Tribute To Mother

God thought to give the sweetest thing
In His Almighty power
To earth; and deeply pondering
What it should be—one hour
In fondest joy and love of heart
Outweighing every other,
He moved the gates of heaven
apart
And gave to earth—a mother
G. Newell Lovejoy.

In the merry month of May, the season of blue sky and blossoms, comes Mother's Day and with that day come sweet thoughts and fond memories. As a symbol of the day, the white carnation was adopted; its whiteness for purity, its form and fragrance representing beauty and love, and its wide field of growth and lasting qualities symbolizing charity and faithfulness—all a true mother's virtues.

There is a wealth of meaning in the word "mother"; every letter is a symbol of her boundless love, her patience, her generosity, and her purity.

As we wear the symbol of the day to honor Mother, let us also pray that we may live and grow as Mother would have us, and be grateful in heart to the God of All for our rich blessing and heritage.—Father and Mother.

ALUMNI DIRECTORY IS OUT

The new Alumni Directory, containing more than one thousand names of graduates of the College is just off the press. It is the first put out since 1917, and it gives the names, the year of graduation, addresses and occupations when known, of all who have completed a course in the College, including the class of '22. The oldest alumni name given is that of W. B. Van Horn, Com., '89, of Topeka, Kansas. Fifteen hundred copies have been printed, and one will be sent to each of the alumni. The directory is the result of several years of work on the part of Dr. Craik, chairman, Miss McGaffey, and Miss Hill.

Dr. Culler, formerly of McPherson College, recommends most highly the play chosen for presentation by the Class of '24.

Several of the fellows were seen picking roses during the May Day drills.

Big Bill and Ursula were seen out walking the other evening.

A pleasant birthday surprise party was held immediately after breakfast Wednesday in room 31. The host (Richard Keim) was greatly surprised and appreciative of the "warm" reception given him.

Social Events

Bart-B-Hawley

Miss Helen Harteil and Mr. Lloyd Hawley were united in marriage at the bride's home in Plattsburg, Missouri, April 29. The wedding music was broadcasted by the Kansas City Star, and some McPherson friends "listened in." Mr. and Mrs. Hawley will be at home after May 15 in McPherson. Mrs. Hawley was a student in M. C. the two years previous to this.

Morries Give Waffle Breakfast

Six girls from Arnold Hall were delightfully entertained at the Charles S. Morris home to a waffle breakfast on May Day morning. The saying that too many cooks spoil the broth was shown to be false, for everyone wanted a turn at the waffle iron. Those who enjoyed the feast were Misses Rhea Fast, Mildred Fisher, Ocie McAvoy, Lorinda Leatherman, Reetha Studebaker, and Gertrude Witmore.

Birthday Party

The laundry room in the gymnasium was converted into a dining room Tuesday evening for the occasion of "Dick" Keim's birthday. Candy-making and games furnished the evening's entertainment until a late hour when a delicious luncheon was served from a ten-table, daintily laid in rose and white, centered with a bowl of pansies.

Picnickers Go to Halstead.

Springtime finds nature in all her splendor and glory, and it is the time for those who like to be out-of-doors to picnic, so the Misses Doris Ring, Minnie Edgecomb, Pauline Shirk, and Elva Shirk, and the Messrs. Sumner Eshelman, Dick and Stanley Keim, and Hal Barton motored to Halstead April 27 where they enjoyed an all day picnic. After the early ride down there everyone was ready for a good breakfast. The remaining part of the morning was spent in hiking and kodaking. At noon all returned to camp where a roast chicken dinner was relished. Probably the afternoon boating was enjoyed as much as any other one happening of the day, and although there were several narrow escapes, no one fell into the river. Toward evening the boaters again lunched, and left the picnic ground, carrying its pleasant memories with them.

Carver-Hobby.

McPherson friends of Miss Toy Carver of Canadian, Texas, received word of her marriage on February 20 to Mr. R. Maarice Hobby, of Pasadena, California.

electd as May queen.

Two o'clock in the afternoon saw the processional led by San Romani's band on its way to the crowning fete in the gymnasium where Dr. Kurtz solemnly crowned the Junior candidate, Margaret Wall, May queen of McPherson College. The Ladies' Glee Club rendered a selection, after which various folk games and drills, including "The Revels of Spring" such as Breeces, Rain and Sun, Roses, and Butterflies were vividly interpreted by the members of the girls' gymnasium classes. The costuming was very effective and the action rhythmic and graceful. A majority of the girls took part, and Miss Chapman deserves much praise for her splendid directing.

The final event of the day was the winding of the May poles in which sixty-four sunbonneted lassies skipped to the orchestra's music as they wound the gaily decorated poles.

PENTANGULAR MEET IS AT SALINA WESLEYAN U.

BULLDOGS WILL ALSO MEET SWEDES AT LINDSBORG THURSDAY

The Bulldog tracksters go to Salina today to compete in the Pentangular meet at K. W. U. this afternoon. On account of the weather conditions this meet was postponed from last Friday and during these extra days the squad has not been idle in trying to get into the best possible condition for this important meet. After the good showing the men made in the K. W. U. dual meet and the training they have had since, it seems very possible that M. C. has a splendid chance to bring home a lion's share of the trophies.

Next Thursday this same squad of loyal fighters will, it is hoped, turn the Swedes back with the small end of the score. This is the second home dual meet so let's again back the boys 100 per cent.

At each of these meets the tennis squad will ably hold their own against their opponents.

SMOKERS ARE BARRED

On April 18 the faculty voted that "smokers will not in the future be allowed to be on any inter-collegiate athletic team."

TO ENTER NAVAL SCHOOL

Stanley Linholm, a member of the Freshman Class, has been appointed as a cadet at the United States Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., following an examination at St. Louis. The course of study is similar to that of the naval academy, and includes summer courses.

George: "I asked Bobbie what she was going to wear to the festival."
Sam: "What did she say?"
George: "Oh, nothing much."

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back" is on a par with Shakespeare's classics. It has a message that no audience can fail to get, because of its unique presentation through the lives of ordinary people.

The girls of M. C. this year are showing lots of pep and they are not letting the boys get ahead of them when it comes to athletics.

Beside the interclass tournament games, the girls put out a championship basketball team and now their interest has shifted with just as much enthusiasm to tennis as is being shown by the many courts in use by the girls before breakfast.

Among the experienced players who are taking their "dual dozen" on the court are Fiedelia Frantz, Doris Plum, Wava Long, Lota Neher, Doris Ring, and Ursula Flory.

Mary Harnly and Constance Myers are keeping up their past reputation and Elva Shirk is playing a fast game.

Among the new followers of the sport this spring are Goldie Vickers, Ethel Mae Metsker and Edith Holinger. They promise to make their contests keen and fast next year.
