CONTEST IS LAUNCHED TO OBTAIN NEW SONG AND YELL FOR SCHOOL

Crystallizes Sentiment Long
Extant in M. C.

WILL CLOSE JANUARY 5

Any Student May Enter—Felt Pillow
Top and Pennant Go To Winners

Student opinion has resolved itself into action. The contest launched yesterday for obtaining a yell and song to be the official yell and song for McPherson College crystallizes sentiment that has long been extant in M. C. The contest closes January 5. A felt pillow top and a pennant are to be given as prizes to the students who compose acceptable songs and yells.

Any Student Eligible

Any student of M. C. may submit a song and yell. These songs and yells will be laid before a competent committee which will submit the three best to the Student Council, with constructive and destructive criticism of them. The Student Council will decide whether any are of sufficient merit to be brought before the student body. If so, the best of the three will be chosen and submitted to the students for a vote of acceptance or rejection. If passed, the song and yell will become the official song and yell of M. C. A felt pillow top will begin for the winning song and a pennant for the winning yell. The contest closes January 5.

Must Be Characteristic of M. C.

Yells and songs submitted must be suitable for any occasion for they will become a part of the institution. The song may be written to an old or to a new tune. It will be judged on sentiment and rhythm. The yell must be snappy and characteristic of M. C. The honor of writing the College song or yell will be worth more to the students than the prize offered and there are sure to be a large number of both submitted.

CHARLES F. HORNER TO SPEAK THURSDAY EVE.

Head of Lyceum Bureau Will Appear at Third Number of the Course.

To the patrons of the lyceum course a rare opportunity will be given Thursday night when Charles F. Horner, head of the Redpath-Horner Lyceum and Chautauque Bureau, will appear in person at the Opera House on the third number of the lyceum course.

Mr. Horner is president of the Horner Institute in Kansas City for the training of musicians that are included in his program. He has traveled widely and studied seriously the human problems encountered during his travels. The purpose for which Mr. Horner intends his lyceum course could not be adequately fulfilled without his personal representation on the circuit. Those who hear his lecture will undoubtedly be pleasantly surprised by this unique and remarkable old man.

A series of education motion picture films which depict in a most striking manner the processes employed in the mining preparation of the various mineral materials is available through the bureau of visual instructions at the University of Kansas. In addition to those films, many interesting reels are distributed relating to agriculture, automobiles, biography, chemistry, electricity, health, hygiene, radio and nature study. All of these films are available for showing by schools, churches, clubs, lodges, and similar organizations free of charge after the payment of an annual enrollment fee of $1.50.

MADHOUSE BLUES

From the Associated Press, London, comes a bit of news that will disturb all editor and magazine writers in general. The inmates of a lunatic asylum at Humberstone, Leicestershire, England, have actually started a magazine which contains both prose and poetry and is never edited or censored by so-called sane outsiders. This desire for a house-organ, unpolluted by logical minds, will make for a pure madhouse literature, and will give the world a magazine of unadulterated lunacy.

This will come as a sad blow to the Dadaists who have until now been the self-appointed hierophants of "queer" literature. Their game is up. Or is it possible that the Dadaists have established a branch publication, edited by the inmates of this lunatic asylum at Humberstone? —The New Student

GYMNASIUM FESTIVAL SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY

Will Be Elaborate Affair—Both
Women and Men's Classes To Participate

The members of the gymnasium and playground classes whom are said to be quite proficient will make their debut to the public Friday night, when the physical training department will hold its annual gymnasium festival which will be composed of various gymnastic feats directed by Coach F. E. Misher and Miss Mercedes Chapman.

The evening's program will consist of various graceful exercises in which both the women's and men's department will be represented. The advanced gymnasium class will contribute a number of stunts. A practical demonstration in conducting group games will be made by one of the students. A number of men have for several weeks past been working on a gymnastic drill which requires considerable grace and skill on the part of the performers, and the rendering of this will be an outstanding event of the evening. Four drills by the girls, entitled: "Do your Christmas Shopping Early" will consist of Italian, Japanese, Dutch and Spanish drills.

The final number on the program is to be a surprise for the audience. It is rumored that it will be in keeping with the season and have to do with Santas and presents.

GIVE DEMONSTRATION OF CORRECT TABLE SERVICE

An unusual but interesting program was given at the regular Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday morning. Devotions were led by Florence Kline, after which Ruth Greene and Julia Jones gave a demonstration of proper table service. A mock breakfast, luncheon and dinner were served in attractive style.

Don't fail to see the gymnasium festival Friday night.

TWO FORENSIC CLUBS MERGE—WILL CHOOSE NAME IN NEAR FUTURE

Debate Club and Oratorical
Association Unite.

HARRY LEHMAN PRESIDENT

Will Combine Support in Emphasizing
Each Activity in Its Particular
Season

Hereafter the Debate Club and Oratorical Association will be one organization. The merger was decided upon at a joint meeting of the two organizations Tuesday night. Harry Lehman is the president of the new organization. The plan of the organization is to stress debate now and oratory later, each in its particular season.

The combination of the two organizations will give added interest and pep to both. Practically all students who are interested in debate are also interested in oratory, and with the two organizations working together each will be a help to the other. Under the old system a student interested in both oratory and debate could not do justice to both, but with the new organization much time will be saved and a student will get practice in both oratory and debate.

Coach Hess Favors Combination

As debate is the center of attraction at present it will be emphasized during its season and later oratory will be the chief interest. With the combined talent of the two organizations better programs will be given. Other schools that maintain high standards in debate and oratory have had successful experience with an organization such as M. C. How has Debate Coach Maurice A. Hess in heartily in favor of the combination. With all these things in its favor the new organization promises to be a boon to anyone who has the slightest interest in oratory or debate.

Constitution To Be Drawn up

With J. Vivian Spilman, former president of the Debate Club acting as chairman, the following officers for the new organization were elected: President, Harry Lehman; vice-president, William R. Burgin; secretary and treasurer, Naomi Moher. A christening committee and a constitutional committee were appointed by Mr. Spilman.

FRESHMEN WIN!

The Freshmen defeated the Seniors 21-6 in the finals of the inter-class basketball tournament. The game was hard fought throughout, but the 16-0 lead obtained by the Frosh in the first half warranted the substitution of their second team for the second half. With this advantage in their favor the Seniors were able to make a few scores, but the Freshmen also made their share.

The Freshmen had a brilliant offense which kept the Seniors on defense during the greater part of the game. Groves and Holloway led the Freshmen scoring with six and five points, respectively, while Fisher and Betts each made three points for the Seniors.

Because of the lack of representation, the Junior-Sophomore game was postponed until some time in the future, perhaps 1925.

FAMOUS UHE STRING TRIO WILL ENTERTAIN

Is Highest Type of Musical Attraction
Ever Offered on Student
Lyceum Course

In obtaining the Uhe String Trio to appear in concert at eight o'clock tonight at the Opera House the Student Council feels that it has in this number the highest type of musical attraction ever offered on the local student lyceum course. All three of the men comprising this internationally famed trio are outstanding artists.

Arthur Emil Uhe travels to New York each month to give concerts. On the last trip he journeyed to the Victor Talking Machine Company at Trenton, N. J., and played until 2 a. m. in the recording studio. In his foreign travels he has played in Brussels, Antwerp, Gaud, Orstead, Paris and numerous other cities of Norway, Sweden, Denmark, England, Switzerland and South America.

Beside being a concert violinist, conductor, teacher and recording artist, Uhe is a composer. He is especially noted for his Norwegian folk songs. Among his creations, fine and particularly outstanding are "Violin Concerto in D Minor," "Adagio Elegiacum," "Andante Pathetico," "Presto" and "Allegretto."

As head of the violin department of Bethany College Mr. Uhe has applied to his teaching methods much of the psychological information acquired while a member of the psychological board of the U. S. Army during the World War, one feature of his teaching work being the giving of private examinations to ascertain the mental ages of his pupils.

PLAYERS AND ROOTERS OF COLLEGE AND HIGH SCHOOL HOLD BANQUET

Football Men Unite in Annual Celebration.

GOOD PROGRAM GIVEN

Coach Bachman of K. S. A. C. Is
Speaker—Next Year's Captains Elected.

With true Bulldog spirit, that spirit of friendship for all people at all times, the McPherson College and McPherson High School football players assembled as guests of the annual football banquet in company with lady friends, down-town business, coaches and football enthusiasts who have had the welfare of the teams at heart in the neatly decorated dining room of Arnold Hall at 7:30 Friday evening.

Orchestra Entertains

An orchestra directed by August San Romani entertained the guests, while they found places at the tables and began to partake of the fine and delicious dinner prepared by the ladies of the Cosmos Club of the Hill. The dinner consisting of two courses, was neatly served by the girls of the dormitory.

Coach Misher, acting as toastmaster, directed the business which consisted of a report of the financial statement at the end of the season by Prof. G. N. Boone; the election of the captains of both teams for next year, which resulted in the selection of "Jim" Ellwood for the college, and Henry Colburn for the High School.

Gives History of Football

The Association was fortunate in securing as the speaker of the evening, Coach Bachman from K. S. A. C. Manhattan, Kansas, who gave in a rather brief but interesting address the history of football and his earlier experiences in this game of games which he said has "made more real men, more respectable citizens than any other sport before its introduction, or since."

NOVEL PROGRAMS GIVEN AT BRETHERN CHURCH

The Rev. L. H. Eakes Speaks in Morning—Orchestra Gives Evening Program.

Two unusual services were held at the local church Sunday. In the morning the Rev. L. H. Eakes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of the city, addressed the congregation on "The Golden Rule of the Second Mile" and in the evening the orchestra of the First Baptist Church rendered a sacred concert.

The churches of the city exchanged pastors for the morning, all speaking on the same subject. The Reverend Eakes is a welcome speaker on the Hill, having made many friends here as a student.

The orchestral numbers in the evening under the direction of Henry Widiger were well given and thoroughly appreciated. A large audience heard the program.

ALUMNA ORDAINED

Grace Greenwood, A. B. and A. M. '19, is perhaps the first woman graduate of McPherson College to enter the ministry. Some time ago she was given a temporary license to preach and often exercised in that calling. This fall, her home congregation at Jasper, Mo., gave her a permanent license in the ministry. She is an able and persuasive speaker. Miss Greenwood is a teacher and is at present on the faculty of Friends University at Wichita, Kan.

The new radio broadcasting of Kansas University, the K. F. K. U., will be dedicated December 15. The band, professors, orchestra, and glee clubs will render the program.

High Falutin' Seniors Celebrating Family Day Surprise Undergrads

Well, they fooled us, didn't they? In our wildest imaginings we never dreamed that the high-falutin'-Seniors could so forget their dignity as to pull the weird stunts witnessed Friday.

Didn't they make adorable little rum-chewers? And the dads and mothers—weren't they stern disciplinarians of their offspring? Oh! Friday was a great day for all as well as for those high and mighty one who receive their sheep-skins in the spring. If they so desire, let them say it was put on for the benefit of the lowbrow undergrads! 'But we know them! Who had the best time Friday morning? The Seniors! Who laughed the longest and clapped the loudest? The Seniors! Who rained down balisphemy, even unto the head of our beloved Presy? The Seniors!

But everyone in the Chapel Friday morning had the time of his life. We wish you'd do it again. We'd like to see Paul Kurtz as the super-deacony deacon again. And Judy Jones as little Edna Zulu Boo, the secretary of the literary society, and her twin Ruth Greene as little Agnes Zulu Boo, the debater, were quite the stuff. Their much bespeckled twin brothers, Perseverance and Conservation Boo (Eller and McCall) added a great deal of noise to the occasion. Selma Engstrom and Ocie McAvoy as Dottie and Dolly sang an awful nice little song about their "children." Little Crumpacker as Sally Jane Isperd "Cause I'm Ten" and made a great hit.

The debate, Resolved, That the straw hat is better than the sunbonnet, was won by the affirmative, though one vote was divided. This team was composed of Samantha (Stan Keim) and Hezekiah (Herman Jones.) The negative team was made up of Maria (Fidella Frantz) and Agnes Zulu (Ruth Greene.) They advanced some well nigh unanswerable arguments.

The two little Boo twin boys, Perseverance and Conservation, gave a reading which showed thought and preparation. Little Fritz (Marathon High) gave an interesting literary paper, "The Pumpkin Center Gazette." Little Minnie Martha (Bernice Peck) played a beautiful organ solo, "Exercise 44", with variations by Peanut Ocie.

How many, many things are done under the camouflage of "school spirit!"

SCHOOL SPIRIT

"Show your school spirit," "Show your class spirit" and "Be a sport" are arguments used to further almost every cause on the campus, and, of course, we fall for them.

We think sometimes that the appeal to school spirit is really only an appeal to mob spirit which sociologists tell us is powerful, but not praiseworthy.

What is school spirit? We ask you to use your reasoning powers—if you possess such—the next time the appeal to school spirit is made, and to decide for yourself whether the proposed action is an expression of school spirit; whether it will benefit the school directly by raising its standards or making it a better place to get training for life; or indirectly by increasing school loyalty which is a constant doing of those things that will bring real honor to the school, making it a better place for your having been here.

We make "etc." cover a multitude of sins.

INTRINSIC VALUE OF EDUCATION

Robert Andrews Millikan was presented, on October 4, 1924, the Edison medal for his achievement in isolating and weighing the electron of truth, which is the immediate object, of all studies in the field of pure science. Behind that object, however, is the conviction that human life will ultimately be enriched by every increase in knowledge of the way in which nature works, since obviously the first step in the beneficial control of nature is a thorough understanding of her.

"So many students that are endeavoring to master chemistry cannot appreciate the value of the history and of the literature which they are forced to study. So many students that are interested in gaining a mastery of history or of literature study chemistry only because the requirements of the science group must be fulfilled. These students cannot see further than the direct application of their knowledge. They cannot appreciate the value of education for the sake of education. If they did realize the influence that would be exercised on their own type of thinking by a better understanding of the passions, the fancies, and the ideals of men not dead, they would not understand the vital significance of "the way men think."

These students see that the Nordic race enjoys the benefits of science, art and religion. They see that the men of Asia, having for their goal, "Nirvana," the Indian heaven meaning nothingness or no desire, welcome death as a release from their miseries. Let these students hear why it is that "fifty years of Europe is better than a cycle of Cathay." Millikan asks: "It is not simply because in certain sections of the world, primarily those inhabited by the Nordic race, a CERTAIN SET OF IDEAS has got a start in men's minds, the ideas of progress and of responsibility?"

Truly the education that changes a man's type of thinking has a far more reaching influence upon him than the education that merely makes him more expert in his accepted field.

"THEIR PASSING"

When retiring football players are receiving their applause it would be well to remember some men who haven't received due publicity this season—Hal Barton, steady plugger; "Doc" Kurts, giant pivot man; and Gladié Fisher, fighting end.

Coming to us from Oregon in 1923, Barton playing a wonderful game. He hit his best stride in the last season of play. That is the way that men should finish their athletic careers. Although injuries held him down somewhat this year, we must remember that his "educated" toe and his deft flip of the oval have helped in turning several Bulldog games into victories. Hal expects to make physical direction his vocation. We know he will make good and here is wishing him luck.

Back in 1921 there was a giant on the Bulldog squad who for two years battled to find his right place on the Canine crew. "Doc" Kurts, being a former high school star from Ohio, made a wonderful tower of strength on which to build the line of the Conference "Champs" in 1923. Paul was always a hard fighter, giving his best, and featuring on steady passing and on defense. We are sorry to lose him.

DEMOCRACY'S TROUSERS

Give a child a lollipop and he thinks he holds a scepter. Give a man a pair of knickers and he rises above the common folk, into a realm of princes and privilege. Such is the opinion of Prof. Chales Gray Shaw. If he had his way he would cut short the life of those abbreviated pantaloons. It is the professor's belief that knickerbockers and democracy don't team together. "All who appear in short breeches tend to create the impression that they prefer an aristocratic, privileged form of government." With ruthless logic the professor pursues his argument: "The garb shows what the man is and what he intends to do. When he wore armor he meant to fight. If he wears a soldier's uniform he is a soldier. When he dons overalls

The second annual business course for farmers will be given at the Kansas State Agricultural College, by the department of agricultural economics, February 9 to 27. The purpose of this is to meet the need which the farmer meets for reliable information on farm business problems: marketing, farm accounts, farm management, farm credit, taxation, and other questions which confront the Kansas farmer.

The West

Across the undulating plains the evening dusk has fallen. White low against the star-flecked sky a lonely camp-fire gleams; And beside the flickering fire, in the silence soft and brooding, A man is seeing visions, and a man is dreaming dreams...

Lord God of Hosts, give Thou the West, unscathed by worldly schemes, The gift of seeing visions, and the gift of dreaming dreams!

And miles away the sunset light is fading into darkness. As a dusty prairie schooner halts, to give the horses rest; A tired woman lifts her eyes that glow with buoyant courage,— To glimpse the rugged mountains —the mountains of the West...

Lord God of Hosts, far, far beyond where prairie grasses wave, Give to Thy Western peoples, Lord, the courage of the brave.

Lord God of Hosts, give to Thy Western peoples strength—compassion;

Give them the laughter and the tears of crystal mountain streams;

Give them the cleanness of the hills—the courage of the prairies;

The gift of seeing visions, and the gift of dreaming dreams.

Lord God of Hosts, make Thou the West that land where, fearless —free,

A man is judged by other men, as judged, O Lord, by Thee!

Mohler Entertains Ag Majors
The students majoring in Agriculture were entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. R. E. Mohler at a six o'clock dinner Wednesday night. Mrs. Herman Jones served the dinner consisting of three courses. At the close of the dinner each guest, answering a question found in an English walnut, told some of his experiences. After listening to Victrola music the guests took their leave to attend the basketball tournament. Those enjoying the hospitality of Professor and Mrs. Mohler were: Paul Kurtz, Richard and Stanley Kelm, Milton Dell, Fay Bailey, Herman Jones, Henry Hahn and Leo Warner.

For Eunice Wray

At seven o'clock Friday evening a group of college students met in the parlor in Arnold Hall to celebrate the birthday of Eunice Wray. The room was beautifully decorated. Large candles were used for lighting. An enjoyable evening was spent in playing Rook, after which Miss Wray brought out her birthday cake decorated with candles. Refreshments of fruit salad, with whipped cream and cake were served. Those present were: Eunice Wray, Minnie Hutchinson, Lillian Andrews, Ruth Grunwald, Mildred Pike, Clara Evans, Franklin Evans, Harry Lehman, Abram Hostetter, Ralph Himes, Harvey Lehman and Albert Phillips.

For Miss Wade

Mrs. J. J. Yoder entertained with a small party at her home on North Olivette Street December 1 in honor of Miriam Wade of Warrensburg, Mo., who was a guest of Salome Mohler in the Yoder home. Several games were played and a plate luncheon was served. Mrs. Yoder was a lovely hostess and the girls enjoyed the evening. The guests were: Miriam Wade, Salome Mohler, Maurine Stutzman, Vera Miller, Anna Mae Strickler, Bernice Hoover, Fidelity Frantz, Goldie Vickers, Mary B. and Kathryn Swope, Bernice Peck, Lucile Hoover, Naomi Mohler, Hazel Scott, Winifred O'Connor and Miss Mayme Welker.

Entertain for Orphans

Little Ann Fuchs and Julia Ramas were guests of friends at the Arnold Hall Friday night. A surprise birthday party was given for Ann Saturday at Smalley's Art Shop. Every one enjoyed the good time. Ann received a number of lovely birthday remembrances. Refreshments of hot chocolate and birthday cake were served. The guests present were Ann Fuchs, Julia Ramas, Goldie Vickers, Kathryn Swope, Selma Engstrom, Julia Jones, Mercedes Chapman, Signe Freeburg, Harriett Mohler and William Bishop.
Ann Fuchs and Julia Ramas were of the party of nine orphans from New York who were placed in homes here last week.

"JIM" ELLWOOD WILL PILOT 1925 GRID TEAM

Is Elected by Teammates at Football Banquet Friday Evening.

"Jim" Ellwood, of Windom, was elected by his teammates at the football banquet Friday evening, to pilot the 1925 grid team. "Jim" won his second football letter this season and even though he was out of play for several games because of an injured leg, he was mentioned for the all-state team. "Jim" plays a consistent game at end and can always be relied upon to help with a gain around his end or to down a man returning a punt. He is also fast getting down under punts, all of which make him an end to be feared by conference coaches. Last year Olin taught at Windom but the year before he was the only man to make four letters that year and this year he is working hard to repeat that honor. With "Jim" Ellwood to lead them and only three letter men graduating this year, the close of the 1925 schedule should show M. C. very near, if not at the top.

Smile a While

Teacher—You are always behind in your studies.

Student—Well, that gives me a chance to pursue them.

Officer—I ketched this here mut pinchin' bananas off a fruit stand. Magistrate—Aha! personating an officer! Two years.

"Samantha, what's that tune the orchestra's a-playin' now?" "The program says it's 'Choppin', Hiram."

"Wah, mebbe, but ter me it sounds a deal more like 'sawin'".

Surgeon—I'll sew that scalp wound for you for $10.

Patient—Gee, doc! I just want plain sewing, not hemstitching and embroidery.

She—what are current events? He—Anything shocking.

FRESHMEN CONTINUE TO HOLD LEAD IN TOURNAMENT

The first four games of the annual interclass basketball tournament, which started last Monday evening, resulted in the Frosh obtaining a lead that will be hard to beat by the Seniors who remain to play them. By winning both the games they have played the green-capped boys have a perfect record and the closest to that is the one won and one lost of both the Sophomores and the Juniors. The Seniors are trailing with the short end of two scores to their credit. The whole tournament so far has been a series of hard fought games and those who saw, for the first time, some of this year's squad material doing such splendid work are boosting harder than ever for the Canines.

A school-teacher received the following note:

"Dear Madam—Please excuse my Tommy today. He won't come to school because he is acting as time-keeper for his father, and it is your fault. U gave him a ixample if a field is 6 miles around how long will it take a man walking 3 1/2 miles an hour to walk 2 1/4 times around it. Tommy ain't a man so we had to send his father. They went early this morning & father will walk round the field and Tommy will time him, but pleas don't give my boy such fuxamples agin, because my husband must go to work every day to support his family."—Harper's Magazine.

TAKE STEPS TO FORM STATE ORGANIZATION

Steps toward forming a permanent state W. A. A. were taken at a meeting of about forty delegates from the Associations of thirteen colleges of Kansas called by the W. A. A. of Baker at Baldwin, Kan., Friday and Saturday. Resolutions of the convention disapproved of inter-collegiate athletics for women, favored opening the associations to all college women, and urged the organizing of G. A. A.'s in the high schools.

The spirit of the convention was that inter-collegiate athletics is injurious to the health of the women participating and that it stars a few at the expense of the many. Associations open to all college women would improve as well as conserve health of all. It was felt that training rules should be left to the individual associations to adopt.

The next convention is to meet at Pittsburg, Kan., before November 1, 1925. During that time an executive board will perfect plans for the state organization and for joining the national W. A. A. A full report of resolutions and minutes of the meeting at Baldwin will be sent to each Kansas college.

Representatives from Baker, Southwestern, Pittsburg Teachers, Ottawa, Emporia, Hays Teachers, Fairmount, Friends, Sterling, K. S. A. C., K. U., Washburn and McPherson were at the convention. Laura Hammann, represented M. C.
