

M.C.'S 12TH ANNUAL GYMNASIUM EXHIBITION IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

Many Hill and Town People Attend

SURPASSES EXPECTATIONS

Is Declared the Most Successful Program of Its Kind Ever Put on Here

Thursday night was held the twelfth annual gymnasium exhibition. A good sized crowd attended consisting of both Hill and town people. The program in every way surpassed its expectancy, being in the opinion of many people the most successful program of its nature put on here.

Entrance is Unique.

The entrance was unique, an orchestra being wheeled in on the parallel bars, then followed the walking pyramids, clowns, tumblers and marchers. More than fifty men took part. The next number on the program was games by the gymnasium class, a leap frog relay race and killing the dragon being the two of most interest. The work on the parallel and horizontal bars as well as the ring flying showing that a great deal of energy had been spent in the preparation of these events, this is some of the most difficult of gymnastic exercise and can be done efficiently only after long and strenuous practice.

High School Defeats Vagabonds

In a short but hotly contested basketball game the High School team defeated the Vagabonds 14-4, the score being not at all representative of the character of the play.

Gordon Hill had his tumbler do some clever stunts, he himself playing the part of clown, and playing it well. Of most interest to the spectators were the last two events, the Ox-dance and the obstacle race. Gymnastic drills and dances are always appreciated by audiences, and especially so was this one. There was lots of snappy motion, rhythm and a comic element making it especially appealing to the eye. The last event, which brought all the spectators to their feet in excitement was the obstacle relay race, in which eight seniors and eight sophomores contested the same number of juniors and freshmen, the object being to surmount obstacles placed in the path

MUSIC CLUB RENDERS PROGRAM AT LORRAINE

Sacred Program of Quartets, Solos, and Trios; Render "The World's Redeemer."

An extraordinary audience greeted the members of the Music Club of the College under the direction of Miss Katherine Penner at the First Baptist Church of Lorraine, Kansas, Sunday night, where they rendered a complete sacred program, consisting of numbers by the male quartet, trios and solos and the rendition of the cantata "The World's Redeemer."

The club travelled by car and after experiencing some ill luck arrived rather late. The club was entertained royally at the home of Alvin Voran and treated to a delicious dinner after the program.

Y. W. C. A. GIRLS GIVE UNIQUE NEGRO PROGRAM

The girls who did not come to the Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday missed a pleasing and unique negro program. Rosella White gave a negro reading with her usual charming style. Margaret Heckstorn told of a school for negro girls in North Carolina in an interesting and informal talk. Esther Wilber. Florence Kline and Mrs. Ada Unruh sang a delightful trio, "That Sleepy Hollow Tune."

SENIORS LOSE TO BOTH FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES

The boys interclass baseball game is progressing with great enjoyment for the players. Tuesday the Freshmen defeated the Seniors in a close game 6-4. The fresh running in six runs in one inning thus beating the Seniors. The support and fielding was poor at times for both teams.

The score by innings:

Seniors	210 10 4
Freshmen	060 00 6

The Sophomores turned the same trick Thursday, beating the Seniors 12-4. The superior pitching of the Sophomores being a big factor in the big difference of the score.

Seniors	100 21 4
Sophomores	435 00 12

TO TAKE REFERENDUM ON AN OFFICIAL YELL

Three Submitted for Choice of One or the Rejection of All

M. C. students will Friday in Chapel have the privilege of voting on one or none of the three yells submitted to the Student Council in the recent contest for an official college yell. The yells are as follows:

Choo! Chaw!
Bow! Waugh!
M. C!

This yell is to be given twice slowly and once rapidly. The second yell is:

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Phos kai zoa
McPherson College.
Ray, ray, ray.

and the third:
McPherson! rah!
McPherson! ray!
McPherson College.
Phos kai zoa!

Both of these yells are built around the M. C. motto in Greek, "Zoa kai phos", translated "Life and Light" and reversed for the sake of rhyme. A demonstration of the giving of each yell will precede the vote.

"AD" TOPPERWEIN COMING

"Ad" Topperwein, a member of the Winchester shooting team, will be at the Hawley Hardware store April 30 at 3:30 p. m. and will draw heads of various people on a sheet of tin with a rifle. Mr. Topperwein sits about twenty feet from the canvass and puts in the bullets with a 22 Winchester automatic. He will draw heads of people who are in the public eye, Uncle Sam, the Indian chief and various others. The exhibition will be worth the time of everybody in the vicinity to watch. It will be free.

NINE COLLEGES WILL COMPETE IN KANSAS PEACE CONTEST HERE

Event To Take Place Friday Night

ROCK REPRESENTS M. C.

His Oration, "The New Heroism", Won First Place in Local Contest

The intense interest of nine Kansas Colleges will be centered at McPherson when star orators from these colleges compete for honors and prizes in the State Peace Oratorical Contest. Friday night at eight o'clock M. C. students will have the opportunity of hearing these orators. This event will be a fitting close to the season of debate and oratory, and McPherson is fortunate in securing the contest.

Orations Are Announced

McPherson College will be represented by Kenneth M. Rock, whose oration, "The New Heroism", won first place in the local contest. The other schools, their orators and their orations are as follows: Southwestern, Cecil Headrick, "The Monument of the Mountains"; Bethel, Albert J. Penner, "The Old and the New"; Sterling, Velma Oline, "If not Patriotism What"; Kansas City University, O. A. Richardson, "Outlawing War as a Social Malady"; and Tabor, Theodore R. Schellenberg, "When There is No Peace". Ottawa, Friends and Fairmount have not yet submitted the names of their contestants.

$60 and $40 Prizes Offered

The contest will be judged by the coach of each of the contestants, each coach judging all of the orations except the one from his school. Prizes of $60 and $40 will be awarded to the winners. Dr. Harnly will preside and musical numbers by Katherine Penner and the McPherson College quartet will add to the interest of the program.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we express our thanks to all students of the college who made possible the successful High School Senior Festival. We feel greatly indebted to you and we thank you.

AMAZONS ARE LEADING IN WOMEN'S BASEBALL

The women's indoor baseball tournament started last week when three games were played with the Amazons leading with two victories, one from the Ruths on Monday 22-18 and from the Pirates Tuesday 20-16. Wednesday the Ruths defeated the Pirates 20-16. Many errors in the field account for the high scores of the games. The Pirates seem to be at a disadvantage due to the lack of practice by a part of their team. Merle Davis, Edna Dunham and Laura McGaffey are holding down the Walter Johnson position for the Amazons, Anna Mae Strickler and Frances Temple for the Ruths and Ethel May Metsker and Goldie Vickers for the Pirates.

KIRBY PAGE IS COMING TO M. C. TOMORROW

Will Give Four Lectures in Chapel and in Evening Wednesday and Thursday

The famous Kirby Page is coming to M. C. He will be here tomorrow to lecture in Chapel and in the evening at eight o'clock. Thursday he will also lecture at the same hours. Mr. Page is coming here from the National Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and Student Council. His lectures will be free and open to the public.

With his wide experience from traveling, having crossed the ocean twice, he will be certain to have a worthwhile message. He has spent the last four years in writing and speaking on the application of the religion of Jesus in personal life and in social, economic and international relations. He is the author of five books and six pamphlets on these subjects, and is accepted as authority on vitalized Christianity, social problems and war and diplomacy. He has been associated with Sherwood Eddy and John R. Mott, and is a personal acquaintance of President D. W. Kurtz.

While here Mr. Page will probably speak on "What's the Big Idea in Life?", "Is Jesus' Way of Life Practicable?", "Can a College Man Believe in God?" and "Where Are the Sources of Spiritual Power?" In addition he will have private interviews and will probably address several classes. He is visiting five colleges in Kansas.

There are a great many things which God will put up with in a human heart; there is one thing which will not put up with—a second place.

FOURTH H. S. SENIOR FESTIVAL BRINGS 340 VISITORS TO CAMPUS

Program Includes Track Meet, Banquet and Recital

HUTCHINSON TAKES MEET

Wins 69 Points; Pucket Break Two State Records; McPherson and Lyons Next

The fourth annual high school senior festival given Saturday by M. C. proved a great success. The day's program consisted of an elimination field and track meet for the district, followed by a well-attended hour including a tour of the campus, and a banquet and recital in the evening. Hutchinson High School with a total of 69 points won first place in the track meet. McPherson with 17 points placed second and Lyons with 11 points placed third. Two state records were smashed by Pucket at Hutchinson, who was a high point man of the meet. Medals were awarded to first, second and third places, while a cup went to the winning school, winners of the relay and the high point man.

Twenty-two Schools in Meet

Twenty-two schools were entered in the meet. Only ten were able to place men. Hutchinson took ten firsts, McPherson three, and Halstead and Hillsboro each one. The relay was won by McPherson by a wide margin.

Two State Records Broken

Hutchinson had by far the best team. Although there was no other school able to compete successfully with them, there were individual men from other schools with exceptional ability. The outstanding man of the meet was Pucket of Hutchinson. This youngster, by taking first place in the 50-yard, 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, was high point man of the meet, in addition to breaking the state records in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes. The former record of 10.2 seconds for the 100-yard dash going to ten flat, and the 220-yard dash being lowered from 22.4 seconds to 21.8 seconds. Haddock of Burrton, not quite so able as Pucket, was forced to be content with second places in these events, being defeated by but a few feet in each event.

McPherson Takes Relay

Of the seventeen entries in the relay, only three teams competed.

STUDENT COUNCIL MAY PUBLISH A HANDBOOK

Steps Taken at Last Meeting To Ascertain Cost of Proposed Book

M. C. may have an official handbook next year if present plans of the Student Council materialize. Steps have been taken to ascertain the cost of printing the book, and if it is within the means of the Council the work will go on.

The proposed book will contain the official M. C. yell and song, the constitution of the Student Council, rules regulating participation in college activities, short explanations of the extra-curricular organizations and their officers, the school calendar, and football, basketball and track schedules.

This is the first attempt at anything of this kind, and is intended to help in acquainting new students with the College.

MISS VANIMAN IN SENIOR PLAY

The committee on the selection of the cast for the senior play, "As a Man Thinks", announces as the latest addition to the cast Elberta Vaniman who will play the part of Mrs. Seelig, one of the leading roles. This part remained unassigned at the time of last week's issue of the Spectator.

Read This and Weep; 'Tis No Laughing Matter, but a Sad Farewell.

The College Jitney is now only a memory, but a dear one. Friday evening it flea-hopped off the campus purring a sad farewell and passed on into the realm of the hair pin, the cross-word puzzle craze and Jess Willard. It rippled over the curly surface of Euclid, crept wearily into Main, released its prisoners, returned home with a slow gallop, ran into the shed, and sighed. Its gurgling motor died for the last time, and the public said in a soft affectionate tone, "Well done, well done. In fact, completely done!"

To revive the fond memories of the Jitney is to go back and live again every cramp and backache, every sprain and every broken commandment, every invigorating bump, and every other thing the Jitney rider was heir to. Them days is gone forever. Prop. Anderson made it a point always to hit when coming all the bumps he missed when going and in that way he covered every inch of the distance the ticket called for. The Jitney riders always paid their money for value received. Often when Prop. Anderson missed one of the best bumps of the trip he would back up and try his best to hit it in its bumpiest place to assure his passengers of their money's worth. To voice appreciation for such considerate service is beyond words—that are in the dictionary.

Yes, the Jitney has passed the Great Divide; it never passed anything before in its career. The day is no more when the students could take their daily dozen (bumps) in its airy cab; no longer can they take their setting up—and down—exercises in the Juggling Jitney. Prop. Anderson now can only walk along the red and white path along the side of the Avenue, "twisting their ankles in the holes where bricks ought to be", and longing in vain to hear the music of the Jitney motor that was as water flowing—from a gallon jug.

Truly it is now a time when the corners of our mouths are curled at half mast, and the west steps of the Ad Building are nothing more than a mourners' bench where the Phersonians sit with downcast eyes and pine for a ride to town. The Hiking club is now only superfluity.

Our hats (if any) are off to Mr. Anderson; he never failed to get us here on time every hour of every day. Mr. Anderson has never been known to have a flat tire or loose connecting rod—in his Jitney. He was never out of gas, always tanked up—and he could get as much out of a gal. as anybody.

Like Bryan and Debs, the College Jitney has run for the last time. Our hats are off. It makes a fellow feel like his best girl had eloped with his big brother, whatever that feels like; if it makes a fellow feel like the College Jitney had quit running it is hard to tell just what it does feel like. My, my! Life is just like that.

AN M. C. HANDBOOK

The proposed handbook by the Student Council is a step that will be welcomed by old as well as new students. Barring the information found in the Catalog, the new students have had to acquaint themselves with the life, the customs and traditions and the rules of the school by the "trial and error" method. No orientation courses and no other definite method of orienting new students have been used. Many have experienced difficulty in adjusting themselves to the school for this reason.

The handbook is an important factor in unifying the student body, and in giving M. C. traditions, publicity and permanence.

The seniors' colors are up—oh, no, beg your pardon, they're down, but at any rate they are on display, that is, wherever the maddening crowd doesn't go. Witness the gorgeous green and gold lawn. Is that what you would call foresight in choosing a class color? It is the one place where no one attempts removal.

BOOST M. C.

The school year of 1924-25 is rapidly becoming a memory and one of these days we shall find ourselves preparing to go home, scarcely realizing that the thirtieth day of May has arrived. Some are leaving M. C. ready for their stations in life. Others of us are going out for the summer, back to the communities from which we came. What hopes, ambitions and ability will we take with us? What do we intend to do with our education this summer?

Our responsibilities have increased with our opportunities. Our measure of success is service. It is our only method of proving the value of education. We will be expected to help in church and community activities, and we should, by this time, with the broadening of our viewpoints, be able to see at least a little beyond our own selfish interests to the welfare of others. We have become more cultured, and unless we act as ladies and gentlemen, we shall give our college a "black eye". When we return to our homes, let us make use of what we have learned this year.

We must be more cultured and of greater service to our communities, or we shall fall short of M. C.'s ideals. We must spread the feeling of peace, good will, and democracy so common in M. C., everywhere we go, and by our thought, word, and deed speak a good word for McPherson College.

We once heard of a fellow who didn't think he could do everything better than everyone else.

Even the spectator thinks he COULD make a touchdown, Jack.

Why doesn't someone run for office? Even drafting seems to fail.

GULLEN WRITES OF SCHOOL PROSPECTS IN WASHINGTON

In an interesting letter to the Spectator, Roy Gulden, A. B., '21, of Palatine, Wash., tells of the opportunities for teachers and graduates in that state. The certification laws are similar to those of Kansas, and no difficulty is experienced in getting certified to teach in high school. The state university terms are divided into four quarters of twelve weeks each, enabling teachers to take advantage of the summer quarter. The university campus is beautiful, the equipment excellent and the teaching force strong. The university conducts a placement bureau through which a large per cent of its students secure positions. "We should be glad to give anyone who is interested more information. We like the West very much, especially Seattle, and the university. Our regards to all friends and congratulations to all those who have chosen to attend McPherson College," writes Mr. Gulden in closing the letter.

TO SHILL AT AUCTION

The Hodge and Hatrup farms, lying just southeast of the city limits of McPherson, are to be sold at public auction May 5. These two farms, comprising 320 acres of choice wheat and alfalfa land, will be subdivided and sold in four tracts of 80 acres each. The sale is in charge of the Satter Land Company of Salina, Kan.

The universities turn out men with cap and gown who feel they are superior beings, ready to start way up high in the ladder of fame and action.

Most of these men get a jolt and find that they have learned much of classes and of figures, but that they are shy on the great asset—experience.

Now, old experience shows one thing you can't dodge, and that is: A plan fundamentally wrong, like a building out of plumb, will fall. It's our old friend, the law of compensation.

You and I work hard; we have patience; progress seems slow; We get anxious of our fellows who seem to be going forward by leaps and bounds. Don't worry, brother. Old compensation says, "You can't go fast far."

Cheer up. Be bright. Do right. Get in a business that is right and honorable, and don't worry over the seeming success of the fellow who has the "get-rich-quick" game, for tomorrow he will get poor quick, says old compensation.

Not a Confession
A woman is only a woman,
But a good cigar is a dime.

I filled my eyes with the lovely grace
Of a co-ed quite alluring;
I fixed my gaze on her lovely face,
My visage holy blurring;
I fell in love with her every curve
And feature captivating,
But I lacked desire—or the nerve
To think of even dating.

For a woman is only a woman,
But a good cigar is a dime.

I quite forgot that co-ed's charms,
—Ah fancy, thou art flighty—
I longed for the crush of another's arms
With a longing that was mighty;
But I soon forgot that burning wish—
Oh, such a mental flurry;
Thought waves are just a swish,
swish, swish—
But I shall cease to worry.

For a woman is only a woman,
And a good cigar is a dime;
Yes a woman is only a woman,
But a dime is a dime every time!

The Modern Tragedy

Mother—Why, I am astonished at your little friends. Why do you chum with such rowdies? They will never amount to anything.

Johnnie—No, Mother, they won't amount to much, but some day they'll have the right to vote.

A spectator never made a touchdown yet.

MISSION STUDY GROUP GIVES "PIYARI'S RESCUE"

The mission study group graphically portrayed the effects of the heathen religion in India by a play, "Piyari's Rescue," given at the church hour in the Chapel Sunday evening. The condition of women and widows and the need for more missionaries was the theme of the play. The parts were taken by Esther Wilbur, Mary Sherty, Horner Eby, Mabel Hoffman, Loretta Yoder, Pearl Whitton, Rose Stauffer, Minnie Hutchinson, Bertha Ikkenberry and Bliton Ery. Preceding the play a quartet sang, "The Whole Wide World for Jesus," and George Merkey read "The Old Settler's Story."

A vote is being taken at Kansas University on the matter of wearing of the academic costume by the faculty at commencement exercises. According to a recent vote 108 were in favor of the practice while 79 assumed the opposite attitude. Another vote will be taken and this decision will be adopted as the policy of the institution.

Enrolment in the Kansas State Agricultural College for the current school year, starting with the summer school of 1924, is approximately 4,700. Venste McDowell Machir, registrar, announced at the conclusion of second semester registration.

Student subscriptions amounting to $10,063 started toward the $50,000 goal for the final stadium campaign at a special student assembly, sponsored by the K fraternity and the Women's Athletic association of Kansas State Agricultural college. The stadium is greatly needed due to the expansion of the physical education activities.

Copies of the report on teacher's salaries in Kansas, made by Prof. F. P. O'Brien of Kansas University, are ready for distribution to all prospective teachers, at the office of the bureau of school service. "The report will be of interest to the students who are planning to teach as it will give them something of an idea of the prevailing salaries," said Professor O'Brien, "so that they will know what to ask for without being unreasonable."

The report will appear in the May issue of the School Board Journal, as it is considered of general interest to people outside of Kansas.

HESS AND BLAIR SINGLE JUDGES

Prof. J. A. Blair and Prof. M. A. Hess spent a busy day Friday when they were able judges at a women's debate between Friends University and Southwestern College. Professor Blair judged the debate at Wichita while Professor Hess was judge at the other end of the argument at Winfield. In the morning Professor Blair was one of three judges in a county high school oratorical contest at Newton. It is considered an honor to be a single judge at a debate and the popularity of the C. professors at debates attests to their worth in that line.

Social Events

Junior-Senior Banquet
A picturesque interpretation of a southern plantation scene was the delightful setting for the annual Junior-Senior banquet given Friday evening in the dining room of Arnold Hall. The guests were received by the president, secretary, and faculty adviser of the Junior Class and were led to the dressing rooms by Little Arloa Wagner and Bobby Kurtz.

The quartet tables were quaintly decorated in harmony with the scene. The guests assembled at their designated places while pleasing melodies were rendered by the saxophone quartet composed of Miss Bonnie Dee, Mckurray and the Messrs. Albert Street, Loren Curtis and Theodore Harms. The elaborate four course dinner prepared by the Cosmos Club, was served by "colored" waiters and waitresses of the Sophomore Class. As toastmaster of the evening, Samuel Kurtz introduced the speakers in an adroit manner. Toasts were given by Milton Dell, Stanley Keim, Dr. J. H. Harnly, and Miss Mercedes Chapman. In keeping with the spirit of the evening, the final number appeared in the form of a negro cabin scene. Among the appropriate songs interpreted in this scene, the "Song of Love" in duet form rendered by Misses Kathryn Penner and Elveta Hawley served to inspire the minds of all present.

Chemistry Assistants Entertained
The assistants in the department of chemistry and their friends were most delightfully entertained Tuesday by Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Hershey at a six o'clock dinner at their home on North Carrie street. American beauty roses lent their beauty and fragrance in decoration. After the delicious repast the guests were further entertained by music and games. The following guests enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Hershey: Eunice Wray, Vivian Harnly, Celesta Wine, Mattie Ring, Mrs. Ruth Wine, Abram Hostetter, Floyd Kurtz, Harold Strickler and Stanley Keim.

Sunshine Finds Pottie Sad And Bowed In Grief

One day last week I came upon Pottie Himos on the steps south of the Ad Building. He was sitting on the bottom step with his face buried in his massive palms and seemed to be in a bad fit of grief. I tapped him on the shoulder, "Pottie," I said softly, "tell me what's the matter." He just sat there for a moment with his eyes riveted on the hard cement walk, and then he told me this story:
"We were companions. We had spent days together in the woods, at home, or in traveling from one state to another. She had accompanied me on all my journeys—and now she is dead! Died in a single night. What shall I do? How can I ever live without her? But she is dead now; beautiful in death even as she was in life."
"We first met seven years ago in a small dirty town, and in that first meeting I knew that I wanted her. I knew she was for me and that she wanted me too. We were for each other. I would have her at any cost! And I got her. After that day, we were together constantly; wherever one of us was there the other was also."
"She was of medium size with soft brown eyes that seemed to hold untold mysteries. Often when the world had gone wrong and I was on the verge of giving up in despair, when nothing in the world could console me, not even the birds with me, she would come to me and one look from those brown eyes would turn darkness into light. But now she is dead!"
"She was the best bird dog I ever had!"

Just in— a Carload of Lehigh Cement
WE ARE prepared to fill your orders for cement. A car of Lehigh Cement has just been stored in our warehouse to take care of present building operations. There is every indication of a strong demand for cement throughout the country, and for this reason we have placed our own order early. We urge our customers to anticipate their requirements and place their orders with us now. Cement mills have a limited daily capacity, and in the busy building period more cement is used than is produced.

BETHANY TRACKSTERS COMING HERE TODAY

Expect Keenly Contested Meet;
Swedes Bringing Some Good Men

This afternoon at 2:30, the Bethany College track team will compete with the McPherson team on the local athletic field. There is no doubt but that the meet will be keenly contested. Bethany comes with a group of good athletes. Yarnell and the two Barkley boys in the field events, Murray in the dashes and hurdles, Barnes and Swenson in the high jump, are men who will be hard to beat. The local crew is somewhat weak in the field events, but for this deficiency will make up in the track events. Crumacker and Kaufman should be able to win the 100-yard dash. The 220-yard, 440-yard dash; the 880-yard, one mile and the two mile runs should also go to McPherson. It is very likely that the big fight will be for second places and that these will be the deciding factors in the meet. Doty, absent from the lineup in the Friends meet, will be entered in the high pump, 440-yard dash and the relay. Vogel Davis, Kurtz, Skell and the other men will be in good shape for the meet.

Windom, Hutchinson and McPherson. The latter took it with but little difficulty.

The meet was well planned and was carried out smoothly. Several experienced coaches remarked that it went as smoothly as any other big meet they had ever attended.

The following are the records as they will be sent in to the state committee:

100-yard dash—Pucket, Hutchinson, first; Haddock, Burrton, second; Wynn, McPherson, third. Time, 10 seconds.

220-yard dash—Pucket, Hutchinson, first; Haddock, Burrton, second; Carlisle, Hutchinson, third. Time, 21.8 seconds.

440-yard dash—Carlisle, Hutchinson, first; Spaniol, Hutchinson, second; Wynn, McPherson, third. Time, 53.6 seconds.

880-yard run—Spaniol, Hutchinson, first; McCreight, Lyons, second; Forsberg, Lindsborg, third. Time, 2 minutes, 7.6 seconds.

1 mile run—Schmidt, Hillboro, first; Buiton, Hutchinson, second; Gnagey, Hutchinson, third. Time, 4 minutes 48.3 seconds.

tance, 20 feet 8 3/4 inches.

Immediately after the track meet at 4:30, during the get acquainted hour the visitors met by the Alumni Gymnasium and were taken on a tour of the campus and buildings. The banquet, served at six o'clock, was attended by over 340 visiting seniors and teachers, 220 of whom were served in the dining room of Arnold Hall with Prof. C. S. Morris in charge as toast-master. The remainder of the guests were served in Harnly Hall with Prof. H. H. Ninger in charge.

At eight o'clock in the Chapel, a splendid student recital was given by the department of Fine arts. The Ladies Glee Club sang several pleasing selections. Two violin pieces were played quite effectively. A reading and several piano solos were greatly appreciated by the audience. Two songs given by the Music Club concluded the evening's program.

Ray S. Wagener presented the medals and cups to the winners in the track meet just before the concluding number of the recital.

of the runners. The seniors and sophomores as winners of the laurels were presented with a gorgeously decorated angel food cake.

Shows Benefits of General Athletics
Much praise is due Coach Mishler and his assistant, Gordon Hill, for the splendid success of the program, both for their parts as directors and personal contribution. "Athletics for All" is the program which Coach Mishler is emphasizing and the results can be appreciated when viewing a display such as was given Thursday night.

CRUMPACKER ELECTED BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Has Done Exceptional Work at Guard
Is a Freshman This Year

Leo Crumacker, popular student and athlete of McPherson College was elected by his team mates as pilot of the next year basketball crew, at a dinner given by Coach and Mrs. Floyd Mishler April, 13. "Crummy" was a hard hitting and heady quarter in the Bulldog eleven last fall, winning praise from football critics throughout the conference for his excellent leadership.

His exceptional work at guard on the basketball team won him the good will and admiration of both his teammates and the students. Crumacker has played four years of basketball in high school, being captain the last year. The great success of the high school was to a large extent due to his good playing and excellent leadership. He has the qualifications for a good pilot, being a born leader, and possessing the confidence of the men. He is a natural athlete, having won three M's in collegiate sport. While being a freshman, it is felt among the students that the choice was a wise one and that with the co-operation of the students and athletes he will lead a team next year that will be invincible.

Be ready to vote on the M. C. yell.
