LEROY DOTY TO HEAD STUDENT COUNCIL OF KANSAS Y. M. C. A.

Choice Is Unanimous at Emporia Conference.

IS SECOND FROM M. C.

Harlan Yoder, A. B. '24, Has Previously Held the Same Position.

For the second time M. C. was honored with the presidency of the State Student Council of the Y. M. C. A., when LeRoy Doty, president of the local organization was unanimously elected to that office at the state conference held in Emporia Saturday and Sunday. Harlan Yoder, A. B. '24, previously held the same office. Campus problems, Student Friendship Fund and the program of the Y. M. C. A. were discussed.

Constitution Revised. In the business meeting of the conference after the election of president, Orlo Chogull from the College of Emporia was elected regional representative. The constitution was revised.

Consider Student Friendship Fund. Delegates arrived in Emporia Friday and held a "get acquainted" meeting in the College of Emporia Y. M. C. A. rooms. Saturday was given over to the Student Friendship Fund promotion in a joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. meeting. Ferne Babcock, Ted Shultz and later returned from Europe, led in the discussions. A Y. M. C. A. banquet was held that night.

College Reports Given. From 6:30 p. m., Friday the convention was given over to the Student Council conference. College reports on the Y. M. C. A. programs and future plans were given by the representative from each college.

Prominent Men Speak. Frank H. Wist, general secretary in Kansas, Professor Ross of the State Teachers' College of Emporia and William Springer, state student secretary, were the outstanding speakers at the conference.

BAND IS LINING UP IN EXCELLENT SHAPE

August San Romani Is Director — Variety of Instruments Is Offered.

Shortly after school opened this fall a college band, composed of about twenty members was organized under the direction of August San Romani. Seven of the number are freshmen, and as only one is a senior, M. C. can look forward to an excellent band in the future.

The band plays only the highest grade of music and is striving to strengthen the college spirit and promote better music. A large variety of instruments is offered and the band is lining up in good shape. The members are for the most part experienced musicians.

Although the band started its career with a flat treasury, it is expected that in the future all expenses will be paid from the proceeds of food sales at the games.

The members have been actively engaged since the organization of the band, having serenaded President D. W. Kurtz Friday evening, and having played at both the Baker and Hays football games.

ART COURSES BEGIN

Harold Lundeen, head of the art department, began his work this week. He will have classes in oil painting and charcoal drawing. He also offers a course in lettering if enough students are interested. This is Mr. Lundeen's second year as head of the art department in M. C.

STUDENT COUNCIL REJECTS PETITION FOR GREEN CAPS

After much heated discussion Wednesday evening the Student Council voted down the petition presented by the Sophomore Class asking that the freshmen be compelled to wear green caps.

The opinion was generally held that the wearing of such caps would be a nice custom for the Freshmen to adopt to give more distinction and unity to the class and it is recommended that the Freshmen initiate this as a custom for future classes to follow.

The chief objection to the petition was the fact that force would be necessary to enforce it. Under its rules freshmen boys would be compelled to purchase and wear a prescribed style of green cap.

QUADRANGLE DRIVE IS GOING OVER THE TOP

More Than 300 Subscriptions Already Turned in — Staff Optimistic.

With over three hundred subscribers at the close of the first week of this year's Quadrangle drive, the staff is optimistic over the outlook for the 1925 annual.

Those responsible for the success of the Quadrangle are working energetically to get as many subscribers now as possible. They must know the amount of funds they will have with which they can carry out their plans. The staff says those persons who are withholding their subscriptions until a later date may be disappointed for only a few copies above the subscription number will be printed. Those desiring annuals are urged to place their orders at once. Editor Paul Kurtz is striving to overcome the handicap of insufficient funds that has prevented former editors from fully carrying out their ideas.

Mr. Kurtz is making an appeal to the different classes for contributions toward a better Quadrangle. The Senior Class, Friday morning, voted a hundred dollars for the purpose and the other classes are favorably considering the matter. He feels that if each class will respond it will be possible to add the many new features which are being planned and yet keep the subscription price at four dollars. "If they will support my plan I'll put out the best Quadrangle that has been produced in McPherson," said Mr. Kurtz.

M. C. STUDENT WINS SECOND IN NATIONAL ORATORICAL CONTEST

David Brubaker's Peace Oratorical Takes Prize.

SEVENTEEN STATES ENTER

Orations Judged on Thought and Composition—Oklahoman Gets First Prize.

Honor again came to M. C. in the oratorical world when the oration, "After the Vision, the Task," written by David Brubaker, A. B. '24, was awarded second place in the National Peace Oratorical Contest October 4, in competition with orations from seventeen states. The orations were not delivered, but were judged entirely on thought and composition. Virgil Gilbert Malby of Oklahoma won first place.

Was First in Kansas.

Mr. Brubaker won first place in the Kansas contest at Wichita April 25, and in addition to receiving a sixty dollar prize, was permitted to enter his oration in the national contest.

Judge Complimented Work. In a letter from the Misses Senbury, donors of the prizes, they say that the judges complimented Mr. Brubaker's work highly, as being "correctly" and "forcibly written," "well organized," and "excelling in constructive thought."

MRS. SHARP PRESENTS TEN VOLUME SET OF THACKERAY

Mrs. Effa Kans Sharp has presented the Carnegie Library with a ten volume set of the works of William Makepeace Thackeray, the noted English novelist. "These works," says Miss Margaret Hackett, librarian, "are especially appreciated because we did not have many of the works of Thackeray."

These works will be of special interest to students in English and history and to others who appreciate genuine literature.

CANDLE LIGHT SERVICE

The annual candle light service in the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the Chapel at 9:00 p. m. today. This is a beautiful service which no girl will wish to miss. Big prizes will be given to the girls who attend.

PROMINENT SCIENTIST VISITS IN McPHERSON

The McPherson College Campus was visited Tuesday afternoon by Dr. Amos Showalter, a former McPherson County boy, who recently returned from Brussels. Two years ago he was sent to Belgium by the University of Wisconsin on an exchange professorship to continue research studies in botany at the invitation of the leading botanist of Belgium. His problem was a study of some phases of the fertilization of Bryophytes. Dr. Showalter is now under appointment by the National Research Council to continue his studies at the University of Wisconsin, where he received his doctor's degree two years ago. Dr. Showalter is a former acquaintance of Prof. M. A. Hess and Coach F. E. Mishler.

STATE PEACE ORATION CONTEST TO BE HERE

Both Men and Women Eligible To Compete — Cash Prizes Are Offered.

The Intercollegiate Peace Association will hold its next annual state oratorical contest at McPherson College the latter part of April. This will be preceded by a local contest from which McPherson College's representative will be chosen.

The purpose of these orations is twofold: the development of self confidence and native ability through competition; and the furtherance of peace. It is believed by the promoters of these contests that their goal, the ostracism of war, can be more readily reached if the fundamental truths concerning war are understood by everyone. They hope, through these contests, to stimulate the minds of the people to a realization of the facts concerning the efficaciousness of war, so that everyone will make a personal effort toward the abolition of war.

A cash inducement is made to those who have aspirations for oratorical fame. The prize for the local contest have not yet been determined. A prize of $50 will be given to the winner of the state contest; a prize of $40 will be given to the one winning second place.

Both ladies and gentlemen are eligible for entering this oratorical contest. As a matter of school loyalty, those at all interested should seriously consider doing so. McPherson College won first place in the contest held at Wichita last year.

BULLDOGS ROMP OVER HAYS TIGERS IN LAST TEN MINUTES OF PLAY

Score at End of the Game Stands 20-0.

BOTH FIGHT STUBBORNLY

Hahn Makes Big Gains for Canines — Fink and De Wald Star for Tigers

The Bulldogs defeated the Hays Tigers 20-0 Friday on the home field in a battle which, after surging back and forth in midfield for three-quarters, turned in the last period for McPherson. Coach Weidens of Hays spent his reserves lavishly to maintain balance which finally broke in Bulldog victory. Both lines took fearful punishment, but the Tigers weakened first.

McPherson crushed back the Tigers to the 4-yard line in the first few minutes of play, but a 15-yard penalty prevented a score. After this 20-yard line was reached only three times until the last quarter. Hahn made McPherson's biggest gains and completed passes to Kurtz, Harrison and Kolzow, the latter for 37 yards.

Barton Crosses Line. The first counter came early in the fourth quarter. S. Kurtz got away from Hays' 25-yard line for a 20-yard end run. Barton made three yards through center for one yard, and a second try failed to gain. With the Hays forwards close to the line, Barton took the ball and drilled through the second story for a touchdown.

Hahn Makes 35-Yard Run. In mid-quarter, Hahn pulled down Hays' forward pass and a little later carried the ball 35 yards. Showalter advanced 8 yards, and in a second try crossed the chalk. Barton kicked goal.

Hahn Makes Touchdown. Hays punted on the fourth down after M. C.'s kickoff. The wind carried the ball back to the 15-yard

SENIORS ORDER PINS

Pins and rings for the seniors have been tentatively chosen by a class committee for the purpose. The pins are the McPherson College seal in white gold with a white gold guard with the numeral. The cost is $4.75. The rings are of the same design with a yellow gold shank. The numeral appears at the side of the seal. The rings will be sold for $7.

Unforgotten Episode Concerning M. C. Celebrity Is Brought to Light

It happened many, many years ago and concerns a man widely known and at present closely connected with M. C. The facts in the case came to light in a most unexpected manner but through a source thoroughly reliable. The story is a sort of side-light on the courtship of the days of yore and since it is altogether too good to keep it is herewith presented with but slight embellishment to the readers of the Spectator.

In the year 1890, a young collegian full of "the dreams that turn," sallied forth from the parental home in order to pay a short visit to the young lady of his heart. The more immediate purpose of the visit was, however, to attend a church conference — ostensibly so. The narrator took a seat in the car just before the best-bound reached Kansas City, and glancing ahead discovered our hero seated by himself busily engaged in reading the columns of a Prohibition paper. Presently, as Kansas City was called out by the brakeman, young Romeo arose and in a most vigorous manner began to polish his shoes and dust his raiment. When he was through with the whole process he was apparently quite well satisfied with himself and was certain that ten minutes would be radiant with the light of his features.

In those days there was a rickety road that ran up to the place where the noble one was held and to which place our hero intended to go. In those days there was a rickety road that ran up to the place where the noble one was held and to which place our hero intended to go. The young man in question was exceedingly nervous and appeared to be in his first year of college. He had been previously engaged from his personal attributes, but looking down at his shoes and occasionally stroking his hair, could be said to perhaps. And there was every evidence in the countenance of the undertaker, that he would make a devoted "chick" when the time for "getting" came. But you remember his old remark about the well-laid plans of mice and men.

The track on which the car ran was, as before suggested, somewhat antiquated. The car rocked back and forth with some persistency. Beside the track there were numerous ponds of water and mud, for it was in the spring of the year and rain had been abundant. Slow progress was made toward the destination, however, until for some reason the car made a sudden lunge and threatened to turn over. One may well imagine the shrieking of the women, the muttered remarks of the men and the wild palpitations of the heart of our hero, who, by the way, had by this time edged himself out on the platform, eager to catch sight of the one woman in a thousand. And then something happened. How? No one knows. Whether our gallant, in a frantic effort to bestow one last and loving brush on his Sunday habiliments, took his hand from the rail or whether, seized by a sudden frenzy at the prospect of meeting, he temporarily lost his mental, as well as his physical, balance — at any rate, to the utmost consternation of the passengers, he took a long leap (whether for life or love, we are not told) and landed beautifully and gracefully in a large, commodious juicy, soft mud-puddle. Tender hearted hands came to the rescue and a thorough cleaning was administered at the home of friends.

In spite of this mishap, however, the sequel of the story may readily be divined by any novel reader: they married and lived happily ever afterward.

The Spectator has for its purpose to record accurately the current history of McPherson College, giving publicity to all its activities in due proportion, and to forward the best interests and uphold the ideals of the Alma Mater.

Address all correspondence to THE SPECTATOR McPherson, Kansas

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1924

Several well-known persons had the information relayed to the Spectator that the world is bound on the north by Simpson street, on the east by Lehmer street, on the south by Gordon avenue and on the west by Eshelman street. We don't believe it yet.

IT'S UP TO YOU

"Send the Spectator home" means your Spectator, not another. Last week 700 copies of the Spectator were printed, and out of a student body of 470 there were some who did not secure their Spectators. You may be the one to suffer next week if this policy continues.

No student who does not pay an incidental fee is entitled to a Spectator unless he pays the subscription price. No student who pays an incidental fee is entitled to more than one Spectator. No faculty member and no special student who does not pay the subscription price is entitled to the Spectator.

Every copy of the Spectator costs nine cents. Extra copies means extra expense, which in turn necessitates giving more space to advertising. The policy of the Spectator is to use only enough advertising to make the paper a paying proposition, but the present policy of the student body is forcing the giving of more space to advertising on the paper.

If necessary, the Spectator will be distributed individually to the paid subscribers, but that also is expensive and time consuming and necessitates your getting your paper later than at present. Be fair; be square; don't take a paper if you have not paid for it, and take only one copy.

We read the other day about a woman who had a car accident because her long hair blew in her face. We have seen short hair that didn't keep, within the prescribed limits, too.

I WONDER

Do good paintings make one better? Yes, certainly. So we have always been taught, at least. Do bad paintings make one worse? Well, I guess they do. Does association with people of good character teach one to recognize that quality when encountered where it is least expected? I hope so. Does an expert psychologist learn to differentiate the reaction of a student and those of a professor? I wonder.

I wonder because: Long, long ago when the school year of 1924-1925 was still a thing of the future, to be more explicit, on enrollment day, the attention of a kind gentleman was forcibly drawn to a sparkling young lady. "Where do you —" she was unable to finish." You go over to that building to enroll." The gentleman could almost be pardoned for interrupting her.

The man was our own Prof. J. A. Blair. The sparkling young lady was Miss Celesta Yine. Does this mean that Professor Blair is unable to recognize the differences between professors and students? Or does this mean that M. C.'s students have acquired that intelligent gleam in the eye which has always been considered the badge of professorship? Again, I wonder.

F. E. K.

Now that some frosh have already ordered their green caps, the query is: will they be permitted to wear them?

Exchanges

K. U. Publishes Directory.

The publication of the K. U. student directory will be in the hands of the Men's Student Council this year. Last year the State published the directory. Wallace James, president of the student council says, "The council, feeling the need of a student directory, has decided to undertake its publication."

Few Carry Extra Hours.

Only thirty-two students at the Kansas State Teachers College at Emporia are permitted to take extra hours of work. The thirty-two students are carrying a total of forty-two extra hours. It requires an unusually high grade to carry extra hours. Freshmen and new students are permitted to enroll for extra work only in exceptional cases.

To Dedicate New Athletic Field.

Plans for the dedication of Brandenburg Field with its new and massive stadium were discussed at a recent meeting of the athletic council. The occasion will be the opening game of the football season with Baker University as opponent. Dedication day is expected to be a gala affair in the history of K. S. T. C., with the people of Pittsburg and the surrounding country joining with those of the college in making the event one to be long remembered.

Sterling Enrolment Large.

Capacity enrolment will be reached this year in Sterling College. Additional equipment is being secured. The enrolment for collegiate students for next year will probably be limited till additional classroom facilities are added. The interesting facts are: the large number of boys as compared with that of girls, and that one third the total enrolment are freshmen. This last mentioned speaks well for next year's enrolment.

Enrolment Increases at Bethany.

The enrolment list at Bethany continues to increase; 484 students have identified themselves with Bethany to date which is an increase of 26 over the list of last week. The enrolment by departments to date is as follows: Fine Arts 227, College 179, Academy 53, and Commercial 25.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. was fortunate Wednesday morning in hearing Mrs. Grace Nutting Miller, national Y. W. C. A. secretary. Mrs. Miller told what the Y. M. C. A. should mean to the girls as individuals and also what other people think of the organization. Ocie McAvoy read the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. and invited every girl to become a member. Last week efforts were concentrated on the membership drive to make every girl in M. C. a Y. W. C. A. member. At a recent meeting of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet Elveta Hawley was elected chorister to fill the place left vacant by the resignation of Miss Katherine Penner. Fidelia Frantz was elected chairman of the conference committee at the same time.

Y. M. C. A.

An interesting meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday morning in Harby Hall. The Rev. Archie L. Patrick led devotions, giving the men to think of the various "prescriptions of religion" which are meted out to the life of the individual. Acceptance and use of these prescriptions are necessary to the best life.

Disciplined Ones Present Gift As Peace Offering

McPherson College has at last gained recognition as a part of that envied circle of learning which includes Harvard, Yale, Oxford and Princeton. Two thousand years from now a McPherson alumnus, delving among the first files of the Spectator and seeing this announcement, might be surprised. He might look at the date of the paper and say, "Surely, that must be 2934. McPherson hadn't reached so high a standing in 1924." There might even start one of those famous chronological disputes, noted authorities pointing out the discrepancies between the date of the paper and this information. And all this fuss because those future chroniclers weren't acquainted fully with the history of this announcement.

They wouldn't know that two of M. C.'s students, called before the discipline committee to be reprimanded, noticed the lack of a green carpet and lamented the fact. They wouldn't know that these two students, out of the fulness of their hearts and their unwavering generosity, bought and paid for and formally donated to the college a bright green carpet bearing the names of the donors. They might not even know that the President of Vermont University said, "When a small institution disciplines, it has to defend its action against the disciplined and all his relatives: when an institution like Yale disciplines, it receives gifts as peace offerings."

But the President of Vermont University did say this. Two of M. C.'s students were reprimanded. And these students gave gifts.

After several important announcements, August San Romani gave a baritone solo. Several numbers that were to be given at this meeting will be given at the meeting tomorrow.

ORATORS ORGANIZE

The McPherson College Oratorical Association holding its first meeting of the new school year Thursday elected the new officers. They are: President, Kenneth Rock; secretary-treasurer, Harvey Lehman; reporter, Floyd Kurtz. Short talks were given by Professors Cjesta Wine and M. A. Hess. With the close cooperation of these two capable faculty members the Association looks forward to a successful year.

M. C. PROFESSORS ARE TO SPEAK AT CONVENTIONS

Several members of the faculty will take part in the teachers meetings to be held October 16-18 at Hays and Hutchinson, Kan.

President D. W. Kurtz will preside at the meetings of the college department at Hutchinson.

Prof. H. H. Nisinger and Prof. R. E. Mohler will go to Hays where they appear on the program. Professor Nisinger will address a meeting of the round table on the subject, "Objectives as a Basis for Curriculum Reconstruction in Biology." Professor Mohler will give an address on "Faculty Supervision of Athletics." He will give a review of the meeting of the National Convention of College Athletic Directors held about a year ago at Atlanta, Ga., at which he represented the Kansas Conference.

Prof. J. A. Blair and Prof. J. J. Yoder have already left. Professor Blair had three lectures scheduled for the district conference of the Church of the Brethren at St. Johns, Kan., and for the Teachers' Meeting at Hutchinson. Professor Yoder is attending first a meeting of the State Sunday School Board at Topeka, and afterward a meeting of the state social workers at Hutchinson.

ROYCE KURTZ IMPROVING

Royce, son of President D. W. Kurtz, has recovered sufficiently from injuries he received September to be taken back to his home. He is improving steadily; time only will be necessary to heal the wounds he received when run over by two or more tons of brick.

Coach Arthur "Dutch" Lenberg, former coach at M. C., now of Washburn College, was in McPherson to see the Hays game Friday.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA GLEE CLUB TOURS EUROPE

Twenty members of the University of California Glee Club spent the summer in touring the United States and Europe giving concerts in the various towns along their route. Royalty and commoners alike came to hear the "exhibitors of the fine art of jazz."

Scotland, England, Norway, Germany, Belgium and France were covered by the Club. After a short vacation in Switzerland the men returned home in time for the fall semester.

"And we made money" the report from the West Coast concludes.

Smile a While

Birds of a Feather

A current newspaper item is as follows: "The wife of a Methodist minister in West Virginia has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was named Robins, her second Sparrow, the present Quale. There are now two young robins, one sparrow and three little quales in the family. One grandfather was a Swan another a Jay, but he's dead now and a bird of Paradise. They live on Hawk avenue, Eagleville, Canary Island, and the fellow who wrote this is a Lyre and a relative of the family."

Seniors Entertain Fresh.
Farmers and farmerettes dressed in blue jeans and bungalow aprons gathered at the Alumni Gymnasium Friday night. The occasion was the Senior-Freshman reception, held in the form of a county fair. The entertainment not only was uniquely planned but was well managed also. Upon arriving the guests were divided into two groups, the Blues and the Browns, the Blues taking the east side of the Gymnasium while the Browns took the west side. Each group now selected a yell leader to lead the cheering for the anxious, and in many cases, embarrassed, contestants. The most interesting of the games probably were the Tug-of-War, the Kiddle Car Relay and the Milk Drinking Race, the girls carrying off the laurels of the latter with flying colors. Everyone reported a good time, among these being the judges, Dr. H. J. Harnly, Miss Celeste Wine, Mr. Harold Lundeen and Miss Katherine Penner.

Serenade President Kurtz.
On the evening of October 10, the day being President D. W. Kurtz's forty-fifth birthday anniversary, the Seniors decided to help him celebrate. About eight o'clock they all started for the Kurtz home with the college band to help them. The band played while the enthusiastic group approached the Kurtz home, after which they all sang some "good old songs," not forgetting the College pep either. To complete the occasion Stanley B. Keim, president of the Senior Class, in behalf of the Class presented Dr. Kurtz with a beautiful table lamp, wishing him the best of birthday greetings. Dr. Kurtz responded with a speech of thanks, and the Seniors returned home. They became so enthusiastic, however, that they stopped under a street light for an impromptu pep meeting for the Hays game.

For Mary Harnly
In honor of her daughter Mary's eighteenth birthday Mrs. H. J. Harnly entertained a group of girls at a dinner party Friday evening at her home on North Carrie street. The delicious dinner was served by Mrs. Harnly and Vivian Harnly. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Harnly were: Mary Harnly, Vivian Harnly, Margaret Sharp, Willets Durst, Julia Hollem, Nellie McGaffey, Ethel Metsker, Constance Meyer and Elton Fry.

PROBLEM COMES UP AGAIN

A second committee was appointed at the Student Council meeting last week to act with a committee from the faculty to attempt to work out a solution of the problem of superfluous activities that will be satisfactory to all.
Last year there was considerable agitation for the curtailment of some of the many student activities during the year, but the petition drawn up by the student committee failed to pass the faculty.

LONBORG'S ELEVEN TO INVADE M. C. FRIDAY

Bulldogs Have Hit Their Stride But Are Expecting a Hard Game

Washburn will invade the Bulldog gridiron Friday. Direct dope on the game is unavailable, as Washburn has played only Kansas City University and K. S. A. C. and did not play last week.

Washburn has nine letter men back this year, a big squad, a veteran coaching staff and all players in good condition. Nevertheless, Coach Mishler is optimistic over prospects, and says that the Bulldogs have at least an even break. "Dutch" Lonborg saw the Hays game, but was non-committal.

The last two games showed the real Bulldog stride, and the Bulldog ability to come through a hard game and hit hard in the finish. A real fight is predicted for Friday.

W. A. A. PLANS VARIED ATHLETICS FOR WOMEN

To Present Plans at Mass Meeting — Interscholastic Basketball Is Considered

At a meeting of the officers of the Women's Athletic Association Friday morning, tentative plans for a workable organization for this year were discussed. After gaining consent of the Athletic Board to proceed, it was decided to appoint various committees for the purpose of drawing up a constitution and perfecting plans for the work.

Intramural and possibly intercollegiate basketball for the girls this year was considered. In order to interest more girls, the members decided that various sports should be included. It was decided to call a mass meeting of the girls in the near future and present plans for their approval.

With the able help and guidance of Miss Edith McGaffey and Miss Mercedes Chapman great things are anticipated for the girls this year. It is hoped to make this association a permanent one in M. C. The men have long had such an association, and by putting the women's association on a similar basis it is felt that it will be a success if the girls are sufficiently interested.

Be at the game Friday.
