GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION AND ACCESSIBILITY

McPherson, Kansas, is not far from the center of the state of Kansas. It is in the center of a rich agricultural area which has been made famous by the quantity and quality of wheat produced. More recently it has become famous for its production of oil and gas. The town is a thriving little city of about five or six thousand people and is the seat of government of McPherson County. It is a city of prosperous merchants, beautiful homes, parks, and shade trees, and is surrounded by fields of wheat, corn and alfalfa. The climate is mild and healthful.

McPherson is easily accessible from all parts of the country. The El Paso division of the Rock Island system, over which run daily trains through McPherson. A branch of the Santa Fe system connects McPherson with the main line at Florence and at Ellinwood. The Union Pacific connects McPherson with Salina, and the Missouri Pacific with ElDorado and Newton. McPherson is located on the Santa Fe Trail and the Meridian Highway, and is therefore easily accessible by automobile.

HISTORY

The history of McPherson College dates back to the year 1887, when at the Annual Conference of the Church of the Brethren held at Ottawa, Kansas, a committee was appointed at an educational meeting to locate and organize a college and industrial institute. The officers of the movement were: S. Z. Sharp, Pres.; M. M. Eshelman, Sec.; and George E. Stuebaker, Business Manager.

September 5, 1888, school was opened in Fahnestock Hall, and the enrollment of the year reached almost 200. Owing to a financial crisis, a re-organization took place in 1895. Outstanding indebtedness was soon cancelled and in 1898 the Sharp Administration building was completed. The name, "McPherson College," was adopted in 1898 when a new charter was secured from the State of Kansas.

McPherson College is the property of the Church of the Brethren, and is under the direct control of the following state districts: S. W. Kansas, N. E. Kansas, S. E. Kansas, N. W. Kansas, Nebraska, Northern Missouri, Middle Missouri, Southern Missouri, Oklahoma, Western Colorado and Utah, Idaho and Western Montana, Louisiana and Eastern Texas, and Eastern Colorado. The trustees, nineteen in number, are all members of the Church of the Brethren, who are influential and aggressive in education. Of the Board, five, constituting an executive committee, have immediate supervision of the school. The president of the College is ex-officio a member of the Board. The Alumni of the college elect one member of the Board. The General Educational Board of the Church of the Brethren has a supervising control over all the colleges of the church.

PURPOSE AND IDEALS

McPherson College was established in order to provide the young people of the Church of the Brethren with facilities for a thorough Christian education; there is no denominational test for admission, and its doors are open to all persons of good moral character who are in sympathy with the general spirit of the institution.

The College considers education a development of the whole being—body, mind, and spirit. While the most thorough and exacting intellectual discipline is demanded, special care is taken that the whole atmosphere of the school shall be favorable to spiritual culture. High ideals of character are constantly held forth, for true education includes both the acquisition of power and the direction of this power to worthy ends. Training for honorable service for humanity and for appreciation of the best things life affords, are ideals distinctly taught.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS INFLUENCES

The high ideals and principles for which the college itself stands, together with most favorable surroundings, combine to impart to the student life a moral tone of an exceptionally high order. McPherson has two colleges, many live churches, a large and active Y. M. C. A., a public library, and other uplifting agencies. It is more nearly free than the average city or town from vices which are likely to prove pitfalls for young people. McPherson depends for its prosperity upon the rich agricultural community which surrounds it. It is an ideal college town; a place in which it is a pleasure to live and to which it is safe for parents to send their sons and daughters.

Devotional exercises for the entire school are conducted in the college chapel and student groups have evening devotionals in the dormitories. The morning watch is observed, and systematic daily Bible study pursued by many. There are Sunday School and two preaching services in the New Church each Lord's day. Active young people's societies exert a strong Christian influence upon the students. The teachers, who always determine the religious tone of an educational institution, are Christian men and women, and their daily work is permeated by the Christian spirit.

MATERIAL EQUIPMENT

SEARP ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

The main building, finished in 1898, is ninety-four feet wide by one hundred seventeen long, and contains three stories. In this building are the Chapel, recitation rooms, commercial hall, the-book store, Y. W. C. A. room and the Administration offices.

FARNESTOCK HALL

The men's dormitory, built in 1888, is a three-story building, with basement, 40 by 100 feet. The students' rooms are large and well lighted, and are equipped with steam heat. There are baths and lavatories on each floor. A man is employed by the college to have general charge of this dormitory.

ARNOLD HALL

The women's dormitory is built of pressed brick, trimmed in Bedford limestone, and is a model of beauty and convenience. It is 32 by 70 feet with a wing 32 by 40 feet, three stories and basement. Kitchen and dining room are in the basement. There are large parlors, matron's rooms, baths and toilet on each floor, and thirty-five students' rooms. The rooms are large, and are furnished with comfortable and substantial furniture. This ideal home for girls is in charge of a competent matron who devotes her time to their comfort and welfare.

KLINE HALL

This dormitory is a commodious three story brick building containing seven suites of two rooms each and eleven single rooms for women. It is modern in every respect. A matron is in charge.

ALUMNI GYMNASIUM

The Gymnasium was erected in 1911. It is a cement block building, 48 by 76 feet, with basement, main floor and gallery. It has baths, dressing rooms and lockers for both men and women.

HARNLY HALL

Harnly Hall, erected in 1922, is a fifty room, four story-edifice, 128 by 64 feet, built of reinforced concrete and brick. All of the science departments are housed in this commodious structure, as are also the departments of Fine Arts, of History, and the Museum.

THE LIBRARY

The Carnegie Library, erected in 1906, furnishes a convenient study hall for the students. It is a two-story building with reading rooms amply equipped for the needs of students. Dictionaries, encyclopedias, general reference work, bound and current magazines are so placed as to be readily available. Over one hundred current periodicals, covering a wide range of interest, may be found in the magazine rooms.

The Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature makes the leading magazine articles available for reference work, while the card catalogue indexes the books in the stack room. All books and much of the pamphlet material are classified by the Dewey Decimal System, which groups them according to subject matter. The Library is kept up-to-date by the addition of over five hundred books annually. Special care is taken by the instructors and Library committee that these additions shall be the most recent authoritative works in the field.

The Library hours are from 8:00 A. M. to 8:30 P. M. every day except Saturday and Sunday, and from 8:00 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. on Saturday.

THE MUSEUM

McPherson College possesses one of the best college museums to be found in the middle west. Many friends of the institution have contributed or loaned specimens. The collections include rare and valuable fossils, Indian relics, birds and bird eggs, and one of the largest collections of meteorites in the West, besides a very large number of historic relics and souvenirs.

The museum is located on the fourth floor of Harnly Hall.

Persons who know of specimens which should be preserved in such an institution should communicate with Dr. H. J. Harnly, curator.

LABORATORIES

AGRICULTURE

The laboratory is equipped to give courses in Soils, Dairying, Farm Mechanics, and Farm Crops. The following rather expensive pieces of equipment are to be found: soils shakers for mechanical analysis, Babcock tester, gasoline engine, cream separators, incubators, electric oven, seed tester, dynamometer, colormeter, soil tubes, great quantities of glass ware, and numerous other smaller items, such as must be found in a modern laboratory.

BIOLOGY

The material equipment consists of modern microscopes, projection microscopes, stereopticon, balopticon, microtome, paraffine baths, electric incubator and sterilizer, and other general apparatus, microscopic and lantern slides, latest maps and charts, collections of birds, mammals, and insects for systematic study, herbarium, etc.

There is a good collection of lepidoptera and coleoptera, besides a general collection of insects for class work in classification. In Botany there are herbarium, slides, and other necessary things for efficient laboratory work. McPherson County is rich in flora and fauna, since in it there are four or five geologic formations. The basin area is especially rich in protozoa, while two rivers and several running streams and many springs are rich in cryptogams and lower animal forms.

The department has a good reference library.

CHEMISTRY

The Department of Chemistry occupies the first floor of Harnly Hall, which is a modern fire proof building designed after most approved models of the best scientific buildings in the country. This floor contains a lecture room with a raised floor, seating one hundred and fifty students; a laboratory for general and qualitative analysis, with individual desks for 112 students; an advanced laboratory with desks for 66 students to work individually, and room for desks for 20 students to be added later; a store room; a large stock room; a private laboratory; an office; and a balance room. All the laboratories are equipped with hoods with forced drafts, water, gas, air under pressure, and duplex plugs with push connections in all the hoods and in each table of the advanced laboratory for electrical experiments. The laboratories are equipped with all necessary apparatus for the courses offered.

GEOLOGY

The department possesses a complete set of crystal models imported from Germany, a collection of minerals, rocks, and fossils, sufficient to illustrate the fundamentals of the science. The collections are especially rich in local minerals, rocks, and fossils.

HOME ECONOMICS

The department is equipped with all the necessary apparatus for general class and laboratory work. The courses of instruction given in this department are planned to meet the needs of those who desire a knowledge of the general principles and facts of Home Economics and those who wish to major in Home Economics for the purpose of teaching the subject in secondary schools.

MANUAL ARTS AND INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

The Industrial Education Shops occupy six rooms of the basement of Fahnestock Hall. The Manual Training Bench room is equipped with benches, tools, and locker systems that accomodate fifteen students in a class. The machine room contains a variety of machines such as a hand saw, universal circular saw, hollow chisel mortiser, a jointer, two turning lathes, a motor driven grinder, drill press and two mechanical sanders. The general tool room contains all of the various types of special tools that have been found necessary for general cabinet work. The drafting room is equipped with six regular drawing tables and with necessary drawing board racks, and lockers. A special dark room fitted for producing blue prints electrically is part of the drawing room equipment.

The lumber room contains at all times a fine assortment of kiln dried lumber for cabinet making purposes. In connection with the shops a store is maintained that carries a complete stock of all regular and special hardware that is needed in this type of work. A wide variety of finishes is kept in stock at all times enabling the student to do nearly any type of finish desired. A special fireproof booth fitted with an exhaust system and equipped with the latest type of lacquer spraying apparatus is maintained in connection with the finishing room. Much effort is made to keep at hand everything that is ordinarily needed in any phase of Manual Training. Special equipment is maintained for teaching the course in Home Mechanics.

PHYSICS

All necessary apparatus is at hand to give properly courses in Physics. An engineers' transit of modern make and accurate construction is a part of the equipment for surveying work. The laboratory is also equipped with an excellent 4-inch astronomical telescope and a set of 100 astronomical slides including the best and latest celestial photographs from the Yerkes Observatory. These lend interest to work in astronomy and make possible a much more intensive study of the heavens.

The Student Council, composed of two members from each college class, one from the fine arts department, and two from the faculty, is in charge of all student activities of the College.

RELIGIOUS

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. provide opportunities for expression of the religious interests of the students. They hold regular religious meetings and conduct the student prayer meetings.

The World Service Group is composed of those students who plan to enter or have a particular interest in fostering religious work.

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC

The Forensic Club offers opportunity for development in debate and oratory. In addition, membership in the Kansas Intercollegiate Debating League, the Kansas Intercollegiate Oratorical Association, the Intercollegiate Peace Association and the Intercollegiate Anti-Tobacco Association brings to McPherson students many opportunities to meet debaters and orators from other colleges of the state in forensic activities of high character. In oratory, prizes amounting to fifteen dollars are offered annually. Substantial prizes are offered to state winners in the several oratorical contests. The Thespian Club studies and presents a few dramas each year. Membership is obtained by try-out. The Chemistry Club furthers the interests of students in chemistry.

MUSICAL

The Music Club is a study club organized among the students and townspeople. The Men's Glee Club and the Women's Glee Club are organized for the purpose of producing musical compositions of worth. A chapel orchestra, under the direction of the teacher of violin, gives amateur musicians an opportunity to study and present good musical compositions.

PUBLICATIONS

The College Bulletin, designed to keep patrons and prospective students in touch with the College, is published in February, May, August and November of each year. The February number is the catalogue. The Spectator, a weekly newspaper, and the Quadrangle, an illustrated yearbook, are published by the Student Council. The Alumni Association is now issuing an alumni magazine.

ATHLETICS AND PHYSICAL TRAINING

All athletic interests of the College are under the supervision of a committee composed of four members from the faculty, one from the Board of Trustees, one from the Alumni Association, and one student, with the physical director as an advisory member.

By means of the gymnasium, an athletic field, and a number of tennis courts the College is prepared to give helpful physical training. All freshmen are required to enroll in a regularly organized physical training class. In addition, students are encouraged to develop their physical skill by participating in various sports during the school year: football, basketball, volley ball, tennis, baseball, track and field athletics. Those who excel in any sport are privileged to represent the College in intercollegiate contests. Faculty regulations prevent all participation in intercollegiate games on the part of students deficient in their school work or in honor points.

The Women's Athletic Association sponsors an intra-mural athletic program for the women of the College. Membership is open to all women students.

ADVANTAGES OF SUMMER STUDY

Summer study is becoming more popular each year. Long vacations are now generally considered uneconomical from the educational as well as from the social and industrial points of view. Most colleges and universities have made the summer term an integral part of the regular college organization with equal standards for academic accomplishment. The courses offered in McPherson College Summer School are similar and in most instances identical with those offered in the regular semesters.

The summer session provides opportunities for students and teachers to pursue work toward the realization of the following objectives:

- (1). The wise investment of a part of the summer in study enables the student to complete work required for a Bachelor's degree in three years.
- (2). To adjust irregularities in courses and fulfill group and major requirements.
- (3). To qualify for advanced grade of certificates.
- (4). To complete the requirement in practice teaching.
- (5). To meet requirements for renewal of various types of certificates.
- (6). To keep constantly growing in the teaching profession. This must be the primary qualifications of all progressive teachers.

(7). To review the common branches in preparation for the county examinations.
