McPherson College
McPherson, Kansas

Dedication

to Dr. Maurice A. Hess

Thirty-three years ago Dr. Maurice A. Hess, then a teacher in the Academy, hung his hat in a McPherson College hallway and began a career which has endeared him to more than 3000 students.

Beginning with Latin and algebra, Dr. Hess has taught everything in the curriculum except music and home economics, has served as a class sponsor, has been advisor to the Spectator, and has coached public speaking and debate.

Forensics, however, has been of primary interest to Dr. Hess, and it was under his watchful eye that McPherson College debate teams won nine state championships. Dr. Hess is a member of Pi Kappa Delta, honorary forensic organization, and holds the distinction of being the only person to serve for five years as governor of the Province of the Plains.

Dr. Hess is recognized as a distinguished Christian educator, not only in McPherson, but also outside our immediate college area. His name appears in Who's Who in American Education, the Directory of American Scholars, and Who's Who in the Mid-West. His subtle wit has made him well-known as a public speaker, and his scholarly writings have appeared before state conventions.

He is best known, however, for his incomparable classes in freshman English. After students have graduated, they look back and find much of the glitter of college days faded, subjects forgotten, and little perplexities which were paramount in under-graduate years shrunk into trivialities. Invariably one memory remains. It is of the man behind the desk in room 30, Sharp Hall.

It is doubtful whether the Crusaders ever found a more willing, energetic, and persistent champion of their cause than has McPherson College in the modest genius from Pennsylvania. Intellectual, punctual, and humorous, Dr. Hess has devoted the major portion of his life to the attainment and maintenance of high academic standards, moral integrity, and Christian fellowship.

We students of McPherson College recognize although inadequately, the immeasurable values which we have received from having known the man and having studied under his tutelage and influence. In appreciation for his devoted service and challenging spirit, we dedicate the 1952 Quadrangle to Dr. Maurice A. Hess.

Dr. Maurice A. Hess

President D. W. Bittinger

A.B., A.M., Ph. D.

President of McPherson College, A.B., Elizabethtown Pennsylvania, 1927; A.M., University of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia 1931; Ph. D., University Pennsylvania and Philadelphia, 1943.

Dr. D. W. Bittinger successfully performs his responsibilities to students, faculty, and people of our region and national brotherhood. His kind direction and friendly attitude has done much to bring students to the realization that our college performs its duties best when we consider ourselves, "one big happy family." Students are frequently invited to his beautiful home at 1000 E. Euclid. He, his wife, and family make even the most lonesome homesick student feel as though he can find his place in McPherson College.

Robert Ellsworth Mohler

Dr. R. E. Mohler, retiring after thirty-eight years in McPherson College having come here in the fall of 1913, will long be remembered for his friendly manner as well as his expert teaching in the field of Biology.

McPherson College, a dream which became a reality! From a campus containing a single structure, that of "old Fahnestock Hall, to one accommodating nine buildings; from an enrollment of seventy in its first year to one several times that number—these are two visible advancements of our college.

But little do we realize the strivings, endeavors and the true pioneer spirit of our forefathers whose ambitious labor and genuine foresight recognized the need of a Brethren college west of the Mississippi, and, in 1883, began working on such a project.

Many problems arose complicating the progress of such a project—among these was the difficulty in selecting a site for the college. McPherson, a town situated on broad Kansas plains, was finally selected. "McPherson College and Industrial Institute" opened its doors for the first time on September 5, 1888. One milestone was passed on February 12, 1889, when the name "McPherson College" was definitely adopted.

As mentioned before, our campus has been enlarged; our enrollment increased. As the college originators had hoped, McPherson College has provided Christian education for its young people, particularly those of the region west of the Mississippi, although students from all over the United States as well as those of far-away countries have been under its influence. It is hoped that our college will continue able training of its young people; that its students will always prove their usefulness to society in their future life after the experiences and influences of our college. Although McPherson College enrolled only seventy its first year, many of these seventy later became prominent names in the church. Through the years, McPherson College has been noted for the number of its graduates who become active workers in the church. This, too, we hope is a continual and perpetual characteristic of our college.

In a world which, from all indication, is in constant chaos, bitter dispute, confusion and unrest, the Christian college is vitally needed. It strives to teach an individual not only to get along with those around him, but attempts to show him the importance of loving our supposed enemies. It teaches, not only the set laws of science, but the influences our Creator plays on every part of nature. It teaches a girl to be a good homemaker; a boy, the arts of his chosen work. It teaches them to build homes of a Christian nature, to raise their children with religious ideals. Our college emphasizes the fact that each individual is responsible to the world for its success and eventual peace.

Yes, the world is in distress, and the Christian college, and, specifically, McPherson College, stands as a beam of light and essence of hope to its eventual untangling and a full realization of "peace on earth, good will to all men."

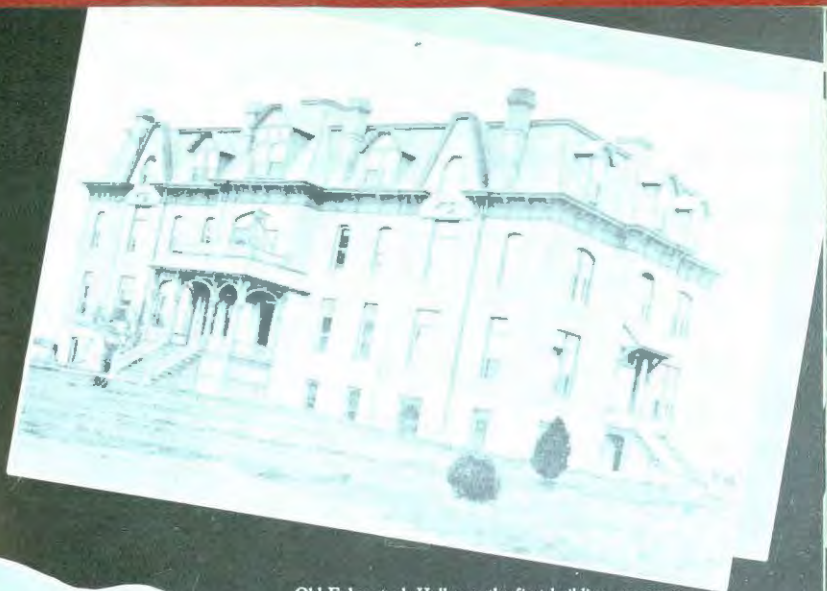

SHARP HALL

Sharp Hall, affectionately called the "Ad building" by many, houses the offices for Maccollege administrators. The chapel, a place for programs of spiritual stimulation or enriching entertainment, the SAR, in which the Players' Club performs, the SUR and Doghouse which furnish relaxation and refreshment, and classrooms comprise Sharp Hall's contribution to the college.

Before 1897, Sharp Hall had only a tar roof and many stories are told of how classes were managed when it rained!

OLD FAHNESTOCK HALL

Old Fahnestock Hall was the first building on campus, and, for a few years, served as dormitory, College, and library. A wagon known as the "dormitory carry-all" was kept in front of the building and used to convey anything and everything between the college and city. In construction from its three-fold purpose to its strict adherence to dormitory life, a number of alterations were made on the inside. Many stories and legends of Fahnestock Hall have grown out of the amusing tales told by early students of McPherson College. In 1941 the old building was replaced by "new" Fahnestock Hall.

Below is a view of the main building, Sharp Hall, and Old Fahnestock as they stood for ten years. The third story was added to Sharp Hall in 1897.

HARNLY HALL

Harnly Hall plays an important part in the life of each Macollege student because of the many varied activities carried on within its walls. Indeed, its functions aspire to several of our senses. Dissimilar odors from the different laboratories combine to greet our nostrils upon entering this structure. We view various classrooms, and, thus, are impressed with the educational importance of Harnly. We hear an ambitious soloist vocalizing or a conscientious pianist carefully practicing his scales and learn of its contribution to cultural development. We visit the college museum and examine its specimens. This dignified structure, which many consider the most beautiful building on the campus, makes a vital contribution to higher learning.

OLD and NEW GYM

The Physical Education building, familiar to the varsity athlete as well as academically and recreationally known to the student, through physical education classes and the intramural program, aids the student in his search in becoming a complete individual. The fine intramural program, which originates there, gives opportunity for healthful, active participation and sportsmanlike development to the Macollege students who take part.

The Alumni Gymnasium, built in 1911 was replaced by the present Physical Education Building in 1935.

FRANTZ INDUSTRIAL ARTS and DELL LAB.

Frantz Industrial Arts Building, with woodworking lab, classrooms and offices on the main floor, and the Art department in the basement, has recently become much improved with the addition of the Dell Laboratory. Through the kindness of Mr. Dell of Nebraska, McPherson College boys now have fine equipment and opportunity for welding and the learning of other activities in a large area. The Dell Laboratory contributes to the Industrial Arts and Rural Life Program of the college.

... an inside shot of the new Dell Laboratory, modern addition to the Frantz Industrial Arts building.

Beeghley Library, recently enlarged, re-modeled, and renamed, is a proud possession of a very grateful student body, faculty, and all those interested in our college. Through the kind contributions of many, and, particularly Mr. Beeghley, for whom it was named, McPherson College is able to have as fine a library as any small college in the United States. The library contains study and reading room, sufficient space for stacks, magazine files, and several small administrative offices. The rooms are equipped with blond modern furniture. The neat, uncluttered rooms and helpful librarians give the library a restful effect as well as providing a splendid atmosphere for efficient studying.

BEEGHLEY LIBRARY

... the interior of Beeghley Library, enlarged and modernized from the Carnegie Library constructed in 1906.

ARNOLD HALL

Arnold Hall, home of 64 peppy college girls and their housemother gained in improvement this year with the additions of a kitchen for the housemother and a dispensary and isolation room for medical service. Besides the drawing power of the young ladies, Arnold is attractive to the student body because of the cafeteria on first floor with its good, reasonably priced food. Once a year the public gets a chance to view the scene of the cheerful co-operative democracy of Arnold Hall in their open house.

FAHNESTOCK HALL

Fahnestock Hall, pride and joy of McPherson College males, who cheerfully abide there, is one of the newer buildings on campus. The three-story structure with its modern rooms, comfortable lounge, and three-room apartment for head residents, Jack and Arlene Kough, is the center of many bull sessions and general merrymaking, as well as headquarters for the serious business of studying.

FORNEY HEATING PLANT

Forney Heating Plant was completed in 1950 and received its name from the long and faithful services of Mr. Frank Forney as custodian. Bendix washers are almost constantly in motion in this building in an effort to keep McPherson College students in clean clothes. On chilly winter mornings campus inhabitants are warmed by the cozy heat originating at this plant.

KLINE HALL

Kline Hall is characterized by a combination of married couples and college coeds. The first two floors are made up of two-room apartments filled with many happy domestic scenes, and the third floor owns the joy of housing a number of young ladies with their playful though often serious spirits. Many happily married couples look back to Kline as their first home at the beginning of their blissful adventure. Kline stands as proof that marriage and education can go together.

PRESIDENT'S HOME

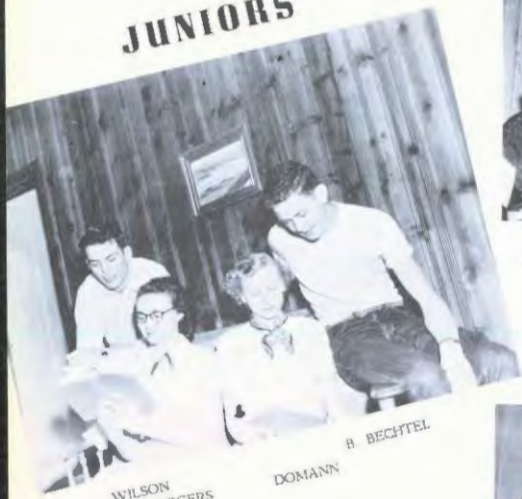

The President's Home, located at 1000 East Euclid, donated to the college by the Heaston family in 1950, stands with its door open to the students of McPherson College. Students have learned that they are welcome and can feel at home in the President's Home. Small parties are often held in the recreation room, and teas and informal gatherings take place often in the home. Students are very proud of the fact that they can associate with the president and his family as friends.

WHO'S WHO

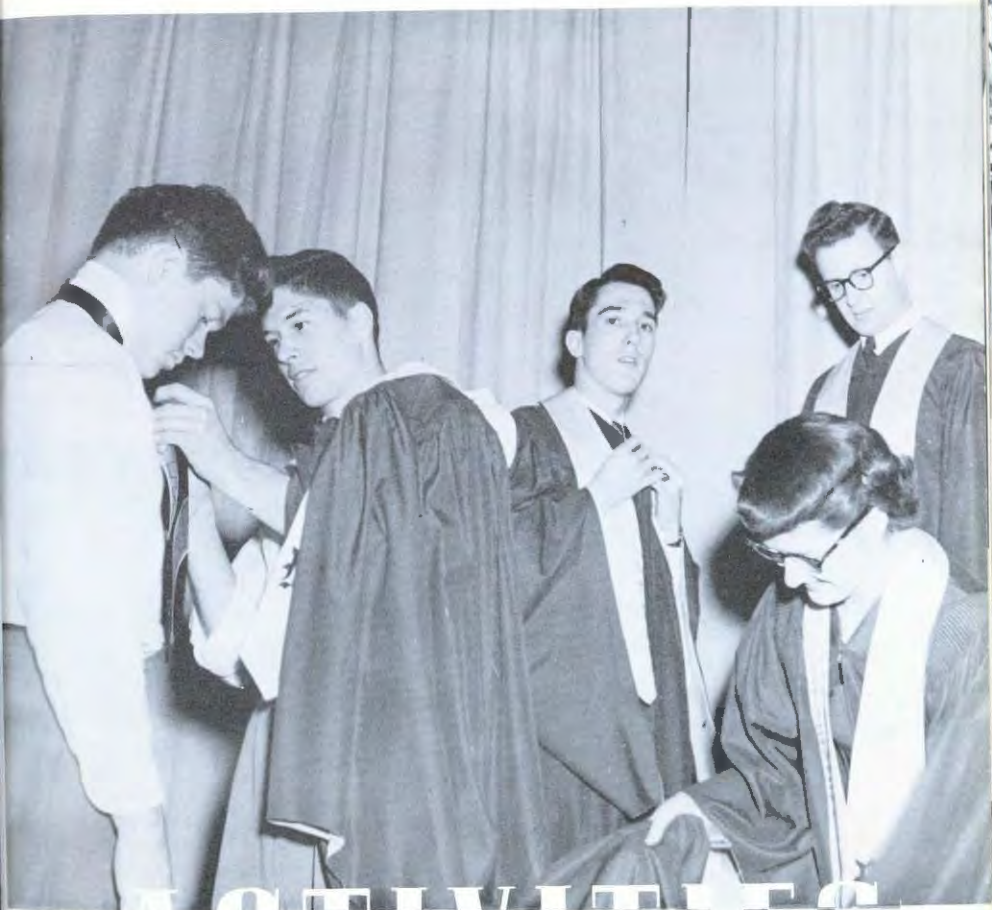

The five seniors pictured here are McPherson College's 1951-1952 representatives in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Each has proven his worth and influence to others by his enthusiastic participation in our college's various activities, his scholastic endeavor, and Christian ideals. Their accomplishments here give indication of their future usefulness to society. These qualities were considered in their selection by faculty members. McPherson College proudly recognizes these from its student body.

ACTIVITIES

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir, as their name implies, often blend their voices to add a musical touch to the Wednesday Chapel period. Other activities included participation in the Christmas Musicales and the opera "The Bohemian Girl." Weekend tours gave variety to their spring activities.

With Miss Doris Coppock as director, they presented such numbers as the negro spirituals, "The Glory Train," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," and other anthems as "How Excellent is Thy Name," and "Let Thy Holy Presence."

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Prof. Donald Frederick, is composed of thirty-seven select voices. The group met tri-weekly throughout the year and enjoyed singing together. They took an active part in the opera presented last fall, "The Bohemian Girl." In addition to this the choir presented a concert of sacred and secular music including a choral adaptation of Liszt's "Les Preludes to Eternity," the exuberant "Angelus," and "A Tribute to Romberg." In the spring the choir took an extended tour through Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, and Kansas.

Vocal Ensemble

The Men's Quartette have proved their ability to the musical profession and to the college in their diligent practice at odd hours during their busy days. In the fall they made a tour of southern Missouri and Arkansas. They frequently perform on campus, at clubs, high schools, churches, etc.

The Ladies Trio with their male accompanist is an example of the splendid co-education at Macollege. In October, they toured Nebraska, Montana, North and South Dakota, and Minnesota. The group enjoyed the opportunity of meeting many people, being in their churches and schools, as well as viewing the unusual scenery of the area. The group appropriately named itself "the three roses and a bud."

The Ladies' Quartette toured Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma in the fall, as well as performing for groups on campus and in McPherson. These four young ladies have proved their musicianship and artistry by their quick memorization and splendid interpretation of sacred, secular, and novelty numbers.

Through hard work, quick thinking, and superb speaking ability, the Macollege "barking" bulldogs racked up another successful debate season despite several recorded losses. The Debate teams were composed of both experienced and inexperienced personnel. Tournaments in which the debaters participated were: Manhattan, Bethel, Southwestern, McPherson, St. Johns, and Bethany in Kansas; Nebraska U., and Doane State Teachers in Nebraska; and Minnesota U.

McPherson College Players is an organization for students interested in dramatic training or technical production work, who are willing to do a lot of hard work. "The Terrible Meek," a one-act religious drama, was presented at Regional Conference, and later taken on tour through the Southwestern states. In February with the intent of giving inexperienced actors and actresses a chance to participate. The Players Club drew the school's dramatic curtain to a close in the spring by presenting a major production.

Membership in Alpha Psi Omega, one of the two honorary fraternities on the campus, may be achieved by meeting a definite standard of requirement both in fields of acting and in production. Initiation of new members into the Omicron chapter occurs in the fall and in the spring.

Student Council

This student governing body, consisting of thirteen students and four faculty members, is important in determining activities and policies of McPherson College students. David Metzler and Marilee Grove were chosen as Student Body President and Treasurer, respectively. Esther Mohler was elected by members of the Council for the position of Secretary. The Student Council has charge of the Doghouse, S.U.R., and sponsors such publications as the Grawl, Quadrangle, and Spectator.

Dog House

The Dog House, snack bar and social room, which is sponsored by the Student Council for the enjoyment of students and faculty, was managed this year by Max McAuley. A sports mural on the west wall, and a new color scheme added warmth and gaiety to the atmosphere.

Student Court

The two-year old Student Court, Maccollege's organizational "baby," is responsible for the green hats which bring delight to the eyes of the upper classmen and trials to the freshmen who are compelled to wear them. The official function of the Court is that of jurisdiction. Minor problems are efficiently handled with fairness to all involved, and with gratitude on the part of the faculty for the opportunity of leaving discipline problems to students themselves.

The Judge of the Court is chosen from the senior class. The other members are representatives from the junior and sophomore classes and a faculty advisor.

The council personnel is composed of fourteen members who are appointed by the sponsor, Dr. Fee. Activities of the group included decorating for the Queen's banquet, publishing the Freshman Daze, and sponsoring a tea in the Fall and Heart Sister Week in February.

The Men's Council, organized to provide for a more direct contact with the men of Macollege, consists of twelve to fifteen representative men chosen by the Dean of Men. The Council annually sponsors a feed in the Dog House for freshmen men, as part of the orientation program, and is responsible for ticket sales for the Homecoming Queen's banquet. QUADRANGLE

The Quadrangle, which is sometimes a "headache" for those who try to meet the deadlines connected with the job, hopes to bring to you, the reader, happy memories of the important events of the year in pictorial and written form. The Quad staff consists of Kathlyn Larson, editor; Dick King, assistant editor; Irwin Porter, business manager; and Don Wagoner, assistant business manager; as well as copy writers, proof readers, typists, and photographers. A new office was established for the annual staff this year. Equipment was moved from the room in Sharp Hall, which had been shared with the Dramatics department, to a private room on the third floor of Harnly.

SPECTATOR

Under the first-semester direction of Editor-in-chief Don Ford, and the second-semester guidance of Gerald Neher the Spectator, college weekly and voice of the students, was published regularly every Friday. Important campus events, associated collegiate press news releases, and alumni news brought the campus, city, and graduates in close touch with each other. Credit for attending to grueling details and meeting daily deadlines goes to the staff reporters, copy readers, the circulation manager, and the sponsors, Miss Vancil and Gordon Yoder. Mary Louise Hutcherson, business manager, was responsible for the financial status of the paper during 1951-52.

Gerald Neher, chairman, and Professor Dell, sponsor, guided the council in developing their talents so that they might recreate others in their future vocations, their homes, and in their community life.

McPherson College is very adequately fulfilling its mission in bringing about the building of Christian homes. The Merry Macs, which boasts a membership of 22 married couples, is a social organization designed to promote good fellowship among the ranks of these young home-builders. The group met at the YMCA on Friday nights. Recreation, movies, and parties, constituted the entertainment.

MCAC

The McPherson College Agriculture club, consisting of students interested in agriculture and rural life and having a minimum of one class in that field, presents an opportunity for students to work on projects not found in their academic work. Color slides, films on good and poor farming practices, and outside speakers help to create an interest in farming and agriculture. Each spring a picnic is sponsored by the MCAC for members and friends.

The Macollege Pep Club is concerned with producing school spirit and developing sportsmanship. Through this group's enthusiasm, the new score clock and board for the football field was secured. The girls sponsored a talent show and obtained funds for the project. Their regular duties include planning and execution of pep skits, handing out programs and selling booklets at games, and cheering our teams on to victory. Betty Ann Murray, served as the club's president this year.

The M Club is composed of male athletes who have fought and won for the red and white. These young men have won recognition through hours of strenuous exercise, long practice, and work. Lorne Blickenstaff, Frank Hanagarne, and Howard Mehlinger were this year's officers. Coach "Woody" sponsored the club. College Church Choir

The McPherson First Church of the Brethren and Pastor Harry K. Zeller, Jr. as do the other churches in the city welcome Macollege students to participate in their religious worship services.

The College Church Choir, as its name suggests, is composed of college students interested in singing church hymns and anthems. It is directed by Prof. Donald Frederick. During Regional Conference, the College Church Choir cooperated with the local church choir, Chapel, and A Cappella choirs in doing an antiphonal number. The members also participated in the presentation of the Christmas Musicale.

Shown below is Memory Chapel. Five evenings a week a brief worship and meditation period is held for interested college students.

Under the able coaching of Coach "Woody" the well-oiled football machine of McPherson College turned in the most successful season since 1933 with a 7-2 record. The Bulldogs also took second place in the Kansas Conference.

The 1951 Bulldog team was better balanced, more experienced, and had greater depth than in former years. Coach Woodard again used the split T formation which proved very successful with tacklers, George Keim and Don Stevens, and guards Bob Powell and Marvin Ferguson paving the way with brilliant blocking. The sparkling running of Eddie Ball, Gene Smith, and co-captain Bob Kerr, and the field generalship of Wayne Blickenstaff were just too much for the opposition.

The defensive team played a great part in winning our games. With linebacker John Robison calling the defensive formations and Loren Blickenstaff, Bob Peel and backs Tommy O'Dell and Dwight McSpadden playing great defense. The old veteran, Chuck Petefish, held down the safety position. No one great player can be singled out because they all worked as a unit.

Four Bulldogs found berths on the All-Conference roster: George Keim, rampaging tackle from Idaho, and Bob Peel, hard-hitting end from McPherson on the offensive line-up and on the conference defensive team were Loren "Red" Blickenstaff, defensive tackle, and co-captain Chuck Petefish, the canine's pass defending ace.

The four horsemen of the Bulldog's offensive backfield, co-captain Bob Kerr, Gene Smith, Eddie Ball, and Wayne Blickenstaff were awarded honorable mention.

Under the leadership of Coach Woodard the Bulldog basketeers played a fast break type of ball, and in two years rebounded from the bottom of basketball depths at McPherson College to second place in the Kansas Conference, on a seasonal win-loss record of 16 to 6.

The Bulldog Roundballers of 1951-1952 were a better balanced ball club than were the Cagers of last season. The Bulldog Club was made up mainly of the same men, but with a year's experience. The Bulldog Cagers were able to click in a way that spelled defeat for most opponents.

The Cannies lost only three conference games, two of those were losses to the conference champions, the Ottawa Braves.

Loren Blickenstaff broke the college record for the most points scored in a season of play with 336 points. The old record was held by Melvin Miller with 292.

The Bulldogs were a more balanced team by the fact that any five of a group of ten men could be placed on the floor and the combination would produce points. The Bulldogs played a good floor game and were cool ballhandlers.

'51 Spring Sports

When the bats had stopped cracking at the end of the 1951 baseball season at McPherson College, statistics showed that Coach Wareham's baseball team had experienced a better season on the diamond than had been the case for a period of years. The Bulldogs won 10 games and lost only three.

Coach Wareham's team showed superiority to its opponents in all fields by out-hitting them 278 to 217 and out-fielding them 899 to 885.

The pitching staff on the Bulldog squad was superb. Glenn Gaver, local freshman righthander, dominated the pitching staff with five wins against one loss; Bill Moore, the fast-balling junior from Chicago won four pitching decisions.

For the second season in a row, Chuck Petefish, the slouch-stanced shortstop from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, led the club at bat. Chuck smashed a torrid .455 with 25 hits in 55 times at bat, and also was the club leader in triples, homers, total bases, and runs batted in.

Four of the regulars had batting averages better than .300: Petefish, Loren Blickenstaff at .341, Grindle at .327, and Gaver at .319. L. Blickenstaff was the clubs base-running star, scoring 19 runs and stealing 13 bases. Grindle topped the team with six doubles and was runner-up to Petefish with 15 runs batted in.

The track men of McPherson College fairly ran with wings as the Bulldogs enjoyed their best season in the cinder sport. Records were broken with amazing regularity. They won five of the seven meets they entered and took second and a third in the other two.

Bob Bechtel broke the college record for the two mile run at the NAIB meet with a 9:51.5 run.

Flying Dale Carpenter broke the school records in the 110 and 220 yard low hurdles. Skimming the 110 yard low hurdles in 15.6 seconds flat and whirling off the 220 yard hurdles in an amazing 24.9 second sprint. The previous record for the 220 was 25 seconds, a record standing since 1923.

With Bob Kerr, Bob Wilson, Paul Heidebrecht, and Dave Metzler carrying the baton the mile relay team broke the old record with a 3:31.4 in the quadrangular meet held at Emporia.

The 440 yard relay team consisting of Dale Carpenter, Dave Metzler, Bob Kerr, and Merlin Miller burned the cinder track to bring home another school record with a 45.2 second run at the Wichita U Freshmen Relays. The same team raced to another school record in the 880 yard relay with a 45.24 second run.

The squad, made up mostly of underclassmen shows prospects of an experienced and well-balanced track squad and new records for the coming year.

Tennis

The word tennis comes from the French word "tenez" which is a command meaning "Play!" That is just what the Bulldog netmen did in 1951 under Coach Gordon Yoder's leadership.

The tennis squad broke even on the matches played with other schools with a 6-6 record. This is a great improvement over past years because tennis has not been emphasized at McPherson to the extent other sports have.

The ringleaders of the Canine netmen were Richard Horning, Loyd Hummer, Bill Frantz, and Donald West. The players, working much of the time by themselves, improved steadily during the season.

In the Kansas Conference, Western Division tournament, Richard Horning, the small, soft-spoken boy from Lartournament, Loyd Hummer and Bill ned, Kansas, placed second. In the same Frantz tied for fifth place. Also in the Western Division tournament, Horning and Frantz teamed up for the doubles and took second place. Horning and Frantz entered in the finals of the conference meet.

INTRAMURALS

The Intramural program at McPherson College reached new heights in 1951-1952 under the direction of Dick Wareham and the Student Intramural Committee: Gerald Neher, Howard Mehlinger, J. D. Pote, Harold Fulkerson, Bob Augsburger, and Chuck Pete-fish. More students participated in the activities planned by the Committee than ever before.

A mixed volley ball league was formed in the fall. Twenty-four teams participated. Clive Sharp and his agile "String Beans" proved too much for their opponents and they rolled their way to the championship.

Intramural Basketball again stood head and shoulders above all other intramural sports. Sixteen men's teams participated in the hoop sport. The teams were divided into two leagues: the Coastal League and the Central League. There was such a large group of men wanting to take part in the sport that to accommodate them all the two groups were formed.

The girls also had an intramural basketball program.

W.A.A., the Women's Athletic Association, is composed of Maccollege women who enjoy participating in active sports for a healthful body and peaceful minds. Participants in W.A.A. work as well as play; they have charge of concessions at home football games. This year, they built, with the help of M Club members, a concession stand on the football field. Business increased immensely at once because of the added convenience to fans who previously were required to buy concessions at a busy booth under the stands. W.A.A. members decorated the Homecoming Queen's throne as well as sponsoring a float in the Homecoming Parade. W.A.A. members always look forward to their formal banquet which is held in the Spring.

O SACRED TRUTH

(College Song)

Altho out on broad Kansas Plain,
Here not in vain are we,
For we will strive with might and main,
That right and truth may be.
The student loves to dream his dream
Of life that's yet to be,
Of future days and years that'll seem
The best for old M. C.

We'll hope for our M. C.
We'll cheer for dear M. C.
While winds do blow,
And sunflowers grow,
We'll long for thee, M. C.
