DEDICATION

SHARP as "Jezebel" has blown---has seen hurry room 30, enrollment and grades in the central office, and students and has heard the squeaking of stairs mingled with the voices resounding from the Dog House and the S. U. R. Freshman English in "family" gathering in the chapel are fond memories for students and administration.

CAMPUS LIFE

BUILDINGS . . .

Wise and Gooden more than look,
They can locate any book.

In shop they build most anything.
They're even free to laugh and sing.

What if he should come to life?
Suppose he'd want to find a wife?

A bookstore visit creates bills.
That's anything but happy thrills.

LABS . . .

In working with clay, or cutting a pig,
pig,

A floral display, a problem too big,

A lab proves to be a place where
we know,

That knowledge has come and surely must grow.

OUR DORMS . . .

Dormitory life is one big ball.
They laugh and sing in Dotzour Hall.

To Arnold Hall they have added a room,
That Cafeteria door should open soon.

Kline is the dorm which goes at a pace.
They add to the families to fill up the space.

Marlo and Buzz play Vernon and Ry,
Fanny is home where the spirit is high.

CHAPEL and CHURCH . . .

Dr. Metzler, our teacher and friend,
His life and his class are pure and serene.

Memory Chapel gives time for prayer.
The atmosphere there lightens many a care.

Chapel convenes on Tuesday each week.
Regional Conference, our guests to us speak.

S.U.R. and DOGHOUSE . . .

The Dog House, what a place to rest.
A coke here really tastes the best.

The S.U.R. contains T.V.
Its programs are for all to see.

That's Cliff and Bob in laughing cheer.
And Marlene waiting, their order
to hear.

This room is used for more than play.
Some students study here each day.

STUDENT JOBS . . .

Classes, clubs, and fun galore;
Still, they have another chore.

They help the cooks to fix the meal.
Or aid our teachers quite a deal.

They keep a tidy football field.
And grade cards to our parents yield.

OUR MARRIED ONES . . .

Excitement you see in Beverly's eyes
But wait, that belongs to all football wives.

The ball's in the air; the girl's on her toes.
Those teams are the Millers, Eiseles, and Joneses.

The courts are the home of the young married set.
They'll call this the home they can never forget.

SECOND SEMESTER STUDENTS . . .

Barrogee, Fulhage, Pigatt, and Boardman gather in Central office to study the procedure of enrolling.

Stucky, Turner, and Vassiloff are among the last girls to discuss enrolling with Miss Fee, Dean of Women, who is retiring this year.

Yader fills these fellows in on the paying process of enrolling. Learning these facts are Oneal, Youngs, Spitzer, Dundas, and Pauls.

Pausing to sign for a chapel seat and to check classes with Mrs. Dell are Spitzer, Cortoscelli, Akers, and Pauls.

CAMPUS

No dream, man;
those femmes are real.

Coffee time in Dotzour

With prizes of eggs and cheese
Donna and Wes reign on straw thrones.

Vic Woites while cat eats.

Widrig owaits sting as Casebeer readies for swing.

LIFE . . .

What's in that sack, Bob?

PoPo's pet nanny and scrub bucket!

Oh man!
What a dream!!

FALL ENTERTAINMENT . . .

Doris led at the song fest that night.
The students responded with all their might.

Mary sang at the school talent show.
She did very well as we all know.

The Chapel was full; their spirit was high.
Kruschwitz's puppet may be one reason why.

WATERMELON FEED . . .

The M. Club is there; they came right on time to serve melon to students in line.

Brunk was there too; her piece she had found.
Just look at that heap of rinds on the ground.

GETTING ACQUAINTED . . .

The line at Women's Council Tea.
The faculty wives the girls do see.

Valerie and Kathy get their lunch
From Frantz and Sollenberger serving punch.

The men, you see, are all in line
For the Men's Council Supper which they like fine.

FACULTY RECEPTION . . .

The Faculty Farmal is held each fall
At the president's home which is loved by all.

It gives a chance to dress up sweet
And see old friends you have wanted to meet.

The faculty come together, too,
To greet old members and welcome the new.

FROSH PARTY and TALENT SHOW . . .

The freshmen gather here tonight.
For meeting people the time is right.

The grand march started off with a boom.
Too bad that gym wasn't a bigger room.

Their shoes they lined along the wall.
Even without them, they had a big ball.

This talent is all from the freshman class.
The audience applause was hard to surpass.

ALL-SCHOOL PICNIC . . .

The all-school picnic was loads of fun
With games and hikes and plenty of sun.

The water was cool; the swimming was fine.
But come time for eating, it's still stand in line.

BEANIE DAZE . . .

Shively and Berry are sitting about. Here came the freshmen; Orientation is out.

P. J. P A R A D E

The pojama parade comes down Main Street.
The first football game they hope to beat.

The Freshmen are wearing their beanies bright red;
Oltman is talking, "Let's eat," she said.

TUG OF WAR . . .

They pulled and pulled, but just couldn't beat.
For the freshmen, the tug just
pealed "defeat."

People are always out for fun.
They may be playing in sand and sun,
Or shouting cheers while on the run.

B.S.C.M. . . .

They're students in the U.S.A.
From Brethren colleges today.

They laugh and play for lots of fun.
Just look at Gene; he's on the run.

A banquet binds this fellowship,
Before they start their homeward trip.

A council for the coming year,
Elected by those meeting here.

HEART SISTER PARTY and MEDIEVAL BANQUET . . .

Cupcakes, punch, and delicates galore.
Women's Council are those who pour.

All tied up in ribbons and bows,
Are gifts for heartsisters whom we chose.

Roast pig for all to eat tonight,
Wrestling too is such delight.

ONE-ACT PLAYS . . .

"Submerged" portrays a crew of men
Whose length of life has now grown thin.

"Joint Owners in Spain" is a comedy
Of women complaining unceasingly.

In "Balcony Scene" a man contrived
To hear things said when he had died.
