Freshman Initiation

Freshman initiation is under the direction of the initiation committee, a group chosen from the Student Court. This committee sponsors the wearing of the red beanies and the tug-of-war between the freshmen and the sophomores. Each freshman is to wear his beanie until the tug-of-war, and if the freshmen lose, they must wear them one more week. These rules may be enforced by the initiation committee.

Freshmen connive against the court.

Three Act Play

Galloping in and out of the doors of an English Vicarage are an American actor and an actress, a cockney maid who has seen too many American movies, an old maid, who touches alcohol for the first time, and four men in clergy suits who present a problem of knowing which is which. The audience was left exhausted from laughter after they had seen this three act farce by Philip King.

Student Religious Life

Harry K. Zeller Jr., the college church pastor, brings the Sunday morning message.

Students need spiritual encouragement and religious guidance and may turn to M.C.A., C.B.Y.F., or Ministerial and Missionary Fellowship for help. Each student is invited to attend memory chapel and the college church services at any time.

That few moments of personal devotion a day keeps college tension away.

Third floor meets for its regular worship service.

Each member of the college family takes time to bless his food.

All School Picnic

Kanopolis Lake was the site chosen for the all-school picnic in September. The Social Committee was responsible for a weiner roast on the beach, and the Recreation Council provided games. A short but inspirational worship service, held on the hill looking over the lake toward the sunset, brought the picnic to a close.

The college students enjoy the sandy beach.

Nature lovers surveyed the beauty of the surrounding territory on a nature hike.

Dr. DeCoursey says, "Be kind to animals."

Food! It is better when you cook it yourself.

The group sang as they looked over the lake.

The spirit of Christmas lights the world.

Winter Formal

The gym, decorated with red bells and green streamers, was the setting for "Holiday Bells," the winter formal.

The program consisted of caroling, a skit, modern ballet, and a masque. The masque portrayed the Christmas spirit. Harvey Hess composed the medieval music.

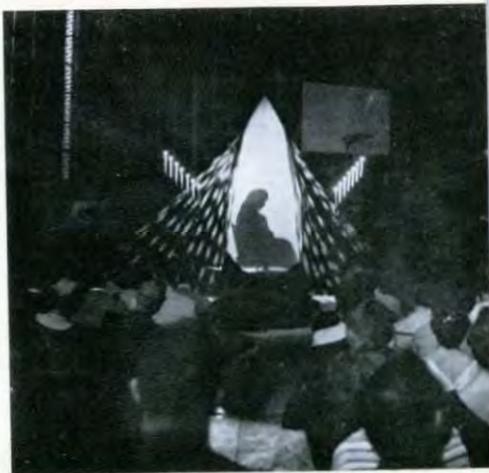

Refreshments after the entertainment.

Cake and punch were served by the committee.

The Hasty Heart

Lachlen was injured in World War II within the South East Asia command and unknowingly had six weeks to live when he entered the British General Hospital.

After much pampering, he became friendly with the men in the ward and against his will, fell in love with Sister Margaret.

Lachlen finally refuses a trip home to stay with Margaret and the other patients.

Director Coulson talks with stage manager William Alward.

"The Hasty Heart," written by John Patrick and directed by Professor James Peter Caulson, was presented two nights in the college chapel. Larry King, Noel Grove, Vernard Foley, Loren Reyher, Larry Hayes, Kay Wallerick, Jo Ann Negley, Terrell Phenice, and Carl Harris made up the cast.

Basketball

Second Place - KCAC First - KCAC Tournament Third - Moundridge Tournament

One of the most successful "Bulldog" basketball seasons, this year the "A" team won 21 games and lost only 6 games. Our conference record of 10 wins and 4 losses gave us undisputed second place in the Kansas Conference.

During the course of the year the boys played their way to first place in the Christmas tournament, slid down to third in the Moundridge Tournament, and finished in second place in the Kansas Conference.

One major factor in the Bulldog victories this year was that our shooting from the field for the 27 games was approximately 50% proficient.

The teams were composed of nineteen underclassmen and three seniors. These seniors will be sorely missed, but we have a good group of underclassmen to build around for next year.

The 1959 edition of the "B" team played some good basketball to win ten games, lose nine, and tie one game in conference play.

Being composed primarily of underclassmen, this group will be the material out of which future good Bulldog teams will be built.
