Homecoming — "After All These Years . . ."

Rain, Rain, Rain. All the week before Homecoming it rained. Plans were changed to move the annual fair inside and eventually geared up for a wet, cold and sloppy football game on Saturday — (But — October 17 dawned bright and clear much to everyone's amazement.

Of course, there were the usual activities: an excellent drama production of the Restoration period comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer," the class regimens of '63, '66, '73, and '76, the Sunday afternoon choir concert and the highlight of the week and the crowning of the king and queen and their attendants.

Crowned in Brown Auditorium were King Bruce Gross and Queen Diane Nisorn. Serving as sophomore attendants were Valeria Kelly and Bruce Spitzer and freshman attendants were Tammy Lusk and Randall Zimmerman.

1. Sam Whittaker and Louise Taylor are participating in some water quality work in a nearby stream.

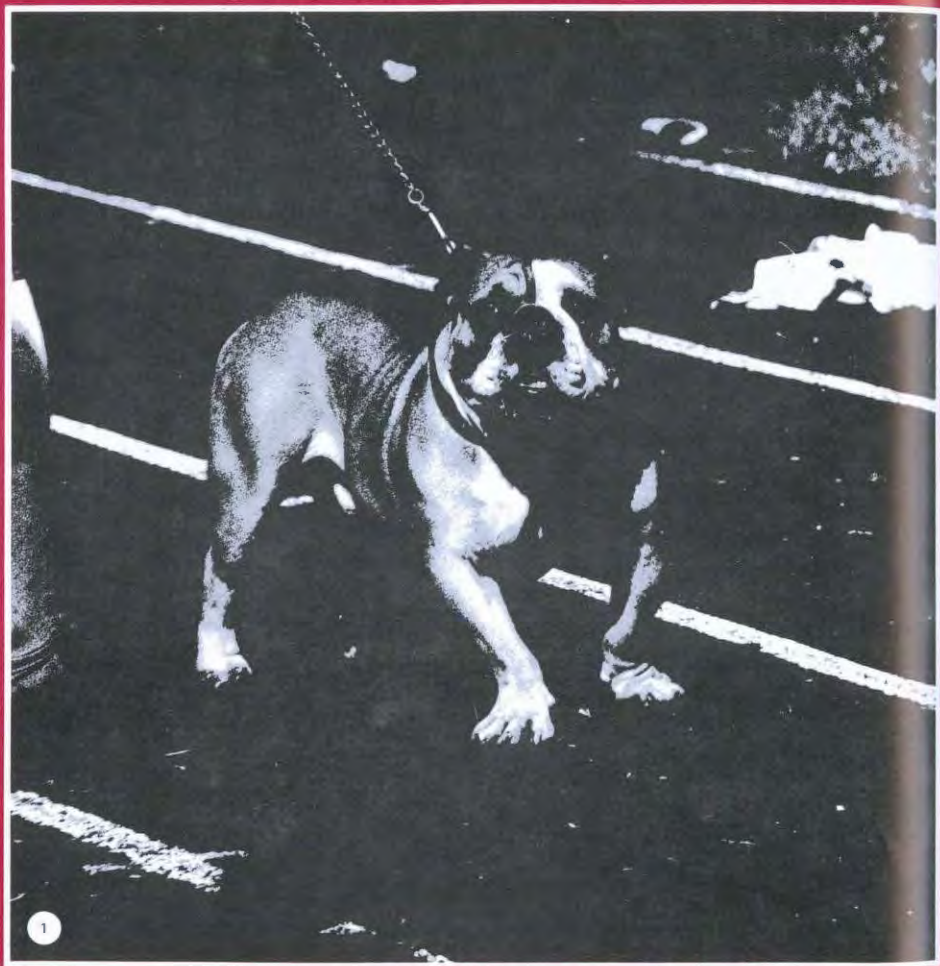

2. James McPherson gets his feet wet in some shallow water.

3. Sam Whittaker and Louise Taylor get their feet wet during an Ecology Week Day.

4. The Brookhaven Ecology Club brings the good findings they have to school.

5. Sam Whittaker, Louise Taylor, and James McPherson are in their lab at Brookhaven, the place in which the findings were made.

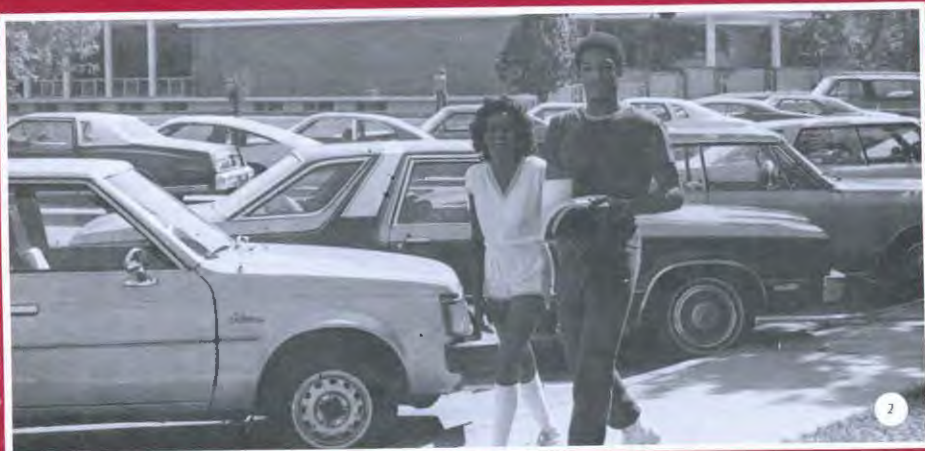

1. The bulldog, the mascot of Mac, could be seen stealing the sidelines show at many of the home ball games.

2. Marie Barnes and Dwayne Jackson take time to enjoy the outdoors and the college's campus.

3. A lot more goes on in Templeton Hall than people can imagine. Here Pop Rice, Bruce Bender and Brian Whitaker work on a car.

4. Benson Owiny and Kip Coulter run one of the many miles they ran each day for Cross Country.

1. How do you spend a Friday night in Dotzour? If it's around Halloween, by carving pumpkins of course. Kim Royer, Laura Cannon and Diana Pierson are pleased with theirs.

2. Mike Hlaughey didn't get a lot of recognition for all his work, but the football team greatly appreciated having films of their games.

3. Jeff Hart and Lisa Brooks are a happy computer couple.

4. In the fall the park was a favorite place of students. Ann Dirksen takes advantage of its peace and quiet to study.

5. The Mud Bowl, better known as Mac's homecoming game, was hard fought. Quarterback Robert Taylor gets a little advice from Coach Cripe.

6. Jonathan Brewster, played by Alan Gumm, tells Abby (Candi Witmer) and Martha Brewster (Ida Yarbrough) the shocking news that he is going to be living with them for a short time.

7. Marty Merckling helps guard quarterback Robert Taylor while he looks for an open receiver.

1. Pattie Lusk plays Mary, the bratty child in the fall play "The Children's Hour."

2. Gerald Henderson ran for his second season of over 1000 yards in football. Sheila Warren and Lucy Martinez were among his many fans.

3. The McPherson Brass, dressed to the hilt, provided entertainment at Art in the Park in September.

MAC ACTIVITIES

Homecoming

Saturday's football game against St. Mary of the Plains College brought yet another disappointing loss for the Bulldogs. Another sparkle was added to the half-time band performance as they performed under three past conductors, Don Frederick, Delbert Crabb, and Dr. Irvin Wagner.

Another special occasion was the grand opening of the newly remodeled Beeghly Hall. Finally, at the Sunday concert, the choir was joined by approximately fifty alumni singers to perform the past choir theme song "Dedication" and the new one, "Beautiful Savior."

Amid reminiscing, renewal, and reunion, Homecoming 1981 served to remind all of the people and tradition of those before us.

1. The 1981 Homecoming King and Queen - Bruce Grose and Elaine Moore.
2. The choir room was more crowded than usual as alumni choir members joined in for a homecoming concert.
3. What's homecoming without the traditional game? The Bulldogs run onto the field through spirit chains and fans.

4. The homecoming court - plus and minus a few people. Queen Elaine Moore with escort Denny Porter standing in for King Bruce Grose, Sophomore attendents Valecia Kelly and Bruce Spitzer, and Freshmen attendents Tammy Lusk with escort Greg Creed standing in for Randy Zimmerman.

5. The cheerleaders and yell leaders take a ride on the Industrial Arts fire truck.

1. Homecoming is a time of both old and new. The pep band tries the old uniforms on for size at the game.

2. Mr. Dotzour, Jan van Asselt, and President Hoffman head toward the homecoming fair. Mr. Dotzour was honored earlier in the week at a special convo.

3. The homecoming game had a distinct feature this year — MUD. Our colors almost became red and brown.

4. Different days of the week called on students to show their spirit in the dress of the day during homecoming week. Sarah Baile tried the 50's look.

5. Kent Nicholson and Galen Reeves carry off a dead body during a comedy sketch at the Homecoming convo.

6. The traditional bulldog joined the cheerleaders and yell leaders at the football game. Sarah Baile, Betsy Terriere, and David Pote try to keep a hand on his leash.

1. With good friends and good food, Kathy Tharrington and Dian Proffitt seem to be enjoying the picnic.
2. Despite a few misdoings, the kids at Mac were just too good for Santa (John Wagener) to forget.
3. Yell leaders help add to the cheerleaders spirit and floor show. At the Homecoming convo they perform one of their many stunts.

4. Not everyone had dates for Sadie Hawkins. Bruce Bauman, Chris Herman, Mark Swick and Bruce Appel have to enjoy their own company at the picnic instead of with someone of the fairer sex.

5. Alan Kieffaber, the campus pastor, was on hand at the Sadie Hawkins Dance in case any of the girls could talk their catch into taking the "big" step. Suzie Morales doesn't let Mark Swick get away.

6. Kim Royer not only got her man, Mike Neher, but got her "you may kiss the bride" kiss.

1. A moving billboard would have been an appropriate name for Randy Voran as he advertises the movie Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.

2. For many students free time was often spent as a spectator at sports events. Here they back up the girls' volleyball team.

3. Celeste Lewallen, Deanna Koehler, Teresa Goodtellow, and Cindy Royer can all still laugh after being awakened at 3 o'clock in the morning during a raid in Dotzour hall.

McPherson thrives and grows

A new Beeghly. More to Templeton, a better Harnly. A new scoreboard, more dorm hours, a better phone system.

A new logo, more money for anthropology and religion through endowments. Some fairly substantial changes, don't you think?

Plans for the future include a new gymnasium, a new computer system, 1987 centennial celebration.

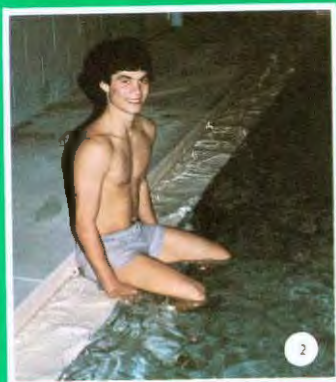

The following pages serve as a reminder of the activities, the people, and the personalities which continue to force McPherson College to thrive and grow after all these years.

4. Raquel Elliott, Kay Davis and Linda Crist spend some of their free time spending money at the stores downtown.

5. Electronic games were hardly ever found without a player. Kim Royer tries her luck while Greg Fenno and Beth Burns watch.

1. If people weren't spending some of their time playing sports, they were out supporting the ones who were playing.
2. With a broken ankle, Chris Toledo couldn't take full advantage of a swimming party, but he did manage a quick dip.
3. Jim Fabs, a student from Manchester College who visited Mac over Inter-term, displays his diving talents.
4. Gerald Henderson carefully aims before finishing up a game of pool in the student union.
5. Scott Unruh and Denise Cummings aren't the only ones who got the evening munchies. Around 10:00 many of the fast food places like McDonalds could be found with many Mac students.
6. With ice and snow on the ground outside, the girls on second floor Dotzaur couldn't get enough exercise. Their solution - aerobics in the lounge.

1. Dawn Kerschensteiner gives some of her time and blood at the Fall Bloodmobile that visited Mac.
2. Bulldog Buddy Day helps give the little bulldog fans a chance to meet the team. Bruce Appel holds the bag as Gerald Henderson encourages one youngster to "tackle" it.
3. Tracy Griffis and Teresa Goodfellow take advantage of the cooler morning air to jog.

d

4. Car troubles seem inevitable as cooler weather approaches. Candi Wiltmer gets a little help and advice from Tom Neher. 5. Jana Huffman accompanies singer Roger Cooper on the key board during an evening convo. 6. Small but eager, Coach Cripe's son Luke tries to join in the fun with John Colvin on Bulldog Buddy Day.

Oh, the fun times

1. Everett Bradley and Beth Burns relax by the pool out at Best Western.
2. On Super Bowl Sunday it was hard to find a TV that wasn't on. David Franklin and Everett Bradley enjoyed Kim Royer's hospitality and TV.
3. Brenda Pote helps one of her first graders in her class that she taught in for her student teaching in the Spring.

4. If you want mail in your box, you have to write a few letters yourself Bruce Spitzer discovers.

5. Darla Keasling and Galin Humphries string popcorn for the 3rd New Christmas tree.

6. There's nothing snow is better for than playing in, two students decide.
7. What do you do when you get bored on Choir tour? Have shopping car races like Bruce Appel and Mark Swick of course!

1. Lisa David and Linda Ausherman exchange gifts at their wing Christmas party. 3. Candi Witmer plays the part of Kate in "She Stoops to Conquer."

2. Janice Holloway (PeeWee) nibbles at fondue on Super Bowl Sunday.

4. Enjoying an afternoon chat in the park are Ken Hogle, Lisa Lee, and Diana Shenefelt.

5. Shrewdly eyeing their cards during the Fanny card tournament are Roy Grosbch and Galen Reeves.

6. Pac-Man fever hit the McPherson campus as people crowd around to watch as Leon Hiedebrrecht tries his skill.

Prom . . . The Best of times

1. Rick Patton and Suzette Christian were among the many couples that attended the dance.

3. Marty Garrison dances to the music of the band.

2. As his girlfriend Deanna Koehler watches on, Tim Gribben performs his duties as M.C. for the junior-senior banquet.

4. Coach Dave Cripe was the guest speaker and he amused the group with his "best of times".

5. Scott Unruh and Denise Cummings dance the night away.

7. Andy Sargent, Patti Helmer take a break from dancing to cool off and talk to friends.

6. Even the President and his wife decided to join in the fun during a slow dance.

Graduation '82

1. Two happy graduates are Dave and Esther Mollhagen.

2. Receiving his diploma from President Hoffman is John Colvin.

3. Congratulations are in order for Grant Shanklin after the commencement ceremony is over.

4. A long line of seniors make their way across campus.

5. Ramona Gates and Carolyn Goering check to make sure they are doing things right.

6. Pierre France and Gary French walk happily along their way to receiving those long awaited diplomas.

7. "What are we waiting for?" wonders a group of seniors.

1. Lindall Cox discusses his future plans with Dr. Van Asselt.
2. Adjusting her cap one last time, Beth Cox takes part in the processional.

3. Cindy Dell, senior class officer for the '83 class leads the '82 class in.

4. Denny Porter gives a brotherly hug to his sister.

5. Karlene Tyler and Dr. Tucker present J. Paul Jewell with his honorary doctorate.

6. The graduating class patiently listens to all the speech before finally getting that piece of paper.

1. Martha (Ilda Yarbrough) and Abby (Candi Witmer) are astonished by Mortimer's announcement of his engagement.
3. Diana takes advantage of the Kansas sunshine while attempting to study.

2. Glen Flory takes pride in the upkeep of our campus.
4. As usual, Rick Tyler is hard at work; this time building set for "Inherit the Wind".

5. Rick Tyler and Lisa Irle exchange a hug after Tyler receives the "Professor of the Year" award.

6. Valecja Kelly receives the "Female Athlete of the Year" award.

1981 Battling Bulldogs

The first season for head coach Dave Cripe was a tough one. Although going five straight games without a win, he kept the attitude of the players on the right path by reminding them that "the successful person is the one who picks himself up and tries again."

With this prospective, 43 players made it through the arduous "guineus" in the misty mornings of August while the rest of the campus slept. They made it through the infamous "X" drill in the heat and humidity. They even survived the culinary delights of the pre-game "meals." All in all they made it through a long and difficult season in which success always seemed another step away.

Everyone is aware that one of the objects of competition is to win. In this regard a 2-7 record does not constitute a successful season. But to the players that participated and to the fans that followed the emotion and determination that were displayed, the season was a success!

With head down and ball in hand, Gerald Henderson prepares to mark up the yards.

Amidst the scrambling bodies, Greg Grant runs the ball for another gain.

During practice, quarterback Robert Taylor practices putting the ball into the air.

John Brill, determined to get the sack, works to bring down the St. Mary's quarterback.

The coaching staff has a brief discussion along the sidelines.

While Bruce Grose holds the ball for him, Brad Payne prepares to kick the extra point.

Helmet to helmet, a strong Mac defense lines up against the opposing offense.

A pile of bodies begins as the defense, led by Kenny Nichols, stops the other team in their tracks.

Marty Garrison leads some kids in exercises during Bulldog Buddy Day.

After a job well done, George Bailey walks off the field smiling.

Kenny Nichols recovers a fumble while teammate Carlton Williams helps guard him.

Gerald Henderson runs for his second season of over 1000 yards.

Coach Cripe advises Robert Taylor and Kevin Clary on their next play.

John Brill and Carlton Williams rush their Wesleyan opponents.

Volley

Carine Ullom gives her power serve to her opponents.

The team congratulates Carine Ullom on a good play.

Valecia Kelly gives the ball one of her well known spikes.

The team gives their attention to Coach Graber as he instructs them in practice.

ball

Cindy Royer plays a team game as she sets the ball up for a fellow teammate.

As the other team goes up for the block, Valecia Kelly spikes another one.

The '81 season was a year of much improvement for the Lady Red Volleyball team. The 2-14 conference record of the previous season was over-shadowed by this year's 7-9 record.

It took a lot of hard work and determination to achieve that goal, but the effort was rewarded. Two players were named to the All-KCAC team, Valecia Kelly, sophomore, and Deb Rettele, Senior.

Rettele will be the only player lost to graduation so next year's team will be built around a strong nucleus of veteran players working to exceed this year's record.

Cindy Royer uses perfect form to bump the ball back over the net.

During pre-game warm-ups, Deb Rettele gets ready to bump the ball back to her partner.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Clayton Allen puts the ball up in hopes of another basket.

Leaving both his teammates and opponents behind, Kelly Unruh gets a lay-up.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The team captains, Deb Rettele and Susan Sundahl, shake hands with their Bethel opponents.

Deb Rettele and Valecia Kelly are both right in there in hopes of getting the rebound.

Bruce Zerr positions himself, aims, and shoots despite his opposition.

Steve Porter doesn't let the Swede breathing down his neck bother him as he goes for two.

Going up for the block, Kelly Unruh tries to prevent Kansas Wesleyan from scoring.

Kelly Unruh doesn't seem phased as an opponent tries to guard him.

Kerri Vinson gets around her rival to pass the ball to a teammate.

Valecia Kelly and a Southwestern player both keep their eyes on the ball, ready to rebound.

As the other team's player tries for a basket, Deb Rettele tries to distract her.

Valecia Kelly concentrates on making her free throw and getting that extra point.

Practice makes perfect

1. "Who will she hit it to next?"

2. Marty Merckling guards quarterback Robert Taylor while he looks for an open receiver.
3. Deb Rettele delivers another one of her spikes.
4. Nancy Birt watches her doubles partner Teresa Goodfellow return a ball back to the opponents.
5. Lucy Martinez attempts to block a spike delivered by an opponent.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Tennis Team - Front Row: Tracy Griffis, Nancy Birt, Susie Morales, Tammy Roesch, Back Row: Teresa Goodfellow, Michelle Michaelis, Dani Crist, Wendy Rayno.

This year's women's tennis team received 5th place in the KCAC. Individual marks were: 1st doubles-Dani Crist and Susie Morales, 4th in KCAC; 2nd doubles-Tracy Griffis and Michelle Michaelis, 4th in KCAC; 3rd singles - Michelle Michaelis, 3rd in KCAC; 4th singles - Nancy Birt, 4th in KCAC; 6th singles - Teresa Goodfellow, 4th in KCAC.

The team improved well over last year and hopes are high for the next season.

Doubles partners Teresa Goodfellow and Nancy Birt stand ready and waiting to take on their opponents.

A lot of concentration is put forth as Teresa Goodfellow returns a serve.

Susie Morales gets in position to give her forehand her all.

SOCCER

A new team member joins the soccer team for their Spring season.

Soccer Team - Front Row: Joe Opiyo, Dan Rogers, Chuck Cuthbert, David Shepard. Back Row: Co-Captain Phil King, Mark Baus, Perry Winter, Co-Captain Stuart Knoll.

The Mac Soccer Club did not fair so well against their opponents during their fall season. The Soccer Club lost 8 of their 10 matches against area colleges, usually by no more than 1 to 3 goals. However, the club did manage to attain a tie with Central College to place the record at 0-8-1.

Nonetheless, the Soccer Club's co-captains Stuart Knoll and Phil King were very optimistic about the Spring season. This was due to the more intense playing of last season because the basically "green" squad gained the much needed experience for better calibre players.

The Spring season for the Mac Soccer Club will be spent playing in the newly formed College Soccer League.

Stuart Knoll gives the ball a good swift kick during an afternoon practice.

Daily practices are a must, even if it's just in front of Harnley Hall. Phil King and Chuck Cuthbert work the ball around a little.

More candid

1. Dian Proffitt gives her all as she prepares to throw the discus.
2. Belva Johnson gets the setting drill started during an afternoon practice.

3. The team watches the action on the field from the sidelines.
4. Gerald Henderson puts his best foot forward as he works for yardage.
5. Michelle Michaelis returns the ball with a solid forehand.

SPORTS CANDIDS

1. Practice, practice, and more practice. Wally Roberts gets in a little on his forehand.

2. Deb Rettele (Bird) goes up for another two points while teammate Valecia Kelly works to get in there for the rebound.

3. With the help of fellow bulldog Kenny Nichols, Gary French is able to block the Kansas Wesleyan kick.

4. The long awaited new scoreboard finally arrives. Ben Franklin assists Coach Larry Latimer in the finishing touches.

5. Phil King uses a powerful kick to get the ball moving during one of many practices.

6. Gerald Henderson displays his form and speed that enabled him to chalk up 1046 yards for the season and make first-team All-Conference.

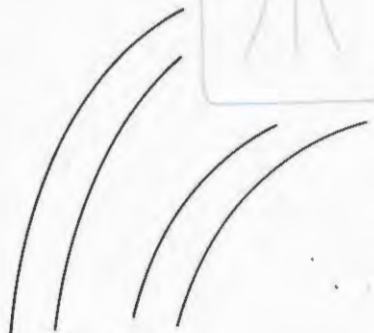

1. Coach Dave Cripe gives a passer-by a wave as he runs in the jogathon.

2. Girls Softball Team - Front Row: Wendy Rayno, Ruth Baldner, Michelle Michaelis, Cindy Royer, Marsha. Second Row: Shelly Garlow, Suzie Morales, Peggy Sanders, Kathy Patterson, Ann Dirksen. Back Row: Kathy Gribben, Deb Rettele, Mary Beth Sands.

3. Rob McKay kicks the ball out of reach of his opponents.

And so another year comes and goes . . .

2. Joel Miller and Teresa Goodfellow are the happy couple even after a water fight.

3. The peaceful look of the campus after a snowfall is disturbed by a lone set of footprints.

1. Linda van Asselt watches as Bruce Appel and Mark Swick take time out for a quick game of leap frog during choir tour.

4. Esther Rediger spends a peaceful afternoon studying in the sun.

5. Mike Reed enjoys a popular pastime.
