McPHERSON COLLEGE, McPHERSON, KANSAS, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 9, 1931

NUMBER 1

THREE NEW FACULTY MEMBERS BEGIN THEIR DUTIES AT McPHERSON COLLEGE THIS FALL

Prof. Fred A. Replogle To Have Duties Of Combined Offices Of Dean And Registrar—Mohler And Blair Teach In Their Departments

McILRATH, DELL TO TEACH

Both Have Experience As Teachers In High Schools Of Kansas

Wed., Sept. 5—McPherson college formally begins the term's work this morning with three new instructors included in its faculty.

Prof. Fred A. Replogle, formerly of Chicago, has assumed the duties of Dean and Registrar, two offices merged for the first time at McPherson beginning this fall. Prof. Replogle comes to McPherson highly recommended as a man well fitted for this kind of work. He has his Master's degree from Northwestern University, and is completing work for his Ph. D. from the University of Chicago.

Dean R. E. Mohler becomes Dean of Men and professor of biology, and is also giving some time to work for the Board of Religious Education of the Church of the Brethren at Elgin, Illinois. Prof. J. A. Blair, former Registrar, will devote his full time to teaching in the department of education and as Director of Practical Teaching.

Prof. Milton S. Dell, B. S. '26, is an alumnus of the college who has taught in the high school at Marion, Kansas, for the last seven years. He is instructor in the industrial arts department, taking the place of Prof. George N. Boone who is working toward his doctor's degree.

Miss Helen McIlrath of Kingman, Kansas, who has been teaching in the high school at Lawrence, Kansas, is taking charge of the department of home economics, filling the place left vacant by Miss Mildred Thacker who is now pursuing higher education in the Cornell University.

FAHNESTOCK HALL TO HAVE MATRON AGAIN

Dormitory Remodeled To Provide Living Rooms

Fahnestock Hall is again to have a matron this year. Mrs. A. J. Moran having been secured for the position. The dormitory has been slightly remodeled to provide living quarters for Mr. and Mrs. Moran, who will see to the needs of the men, such as repairing clothing, giving medical aid, and keeping order in general.

The former double parlor of the building has again been divided, and the part remaining will be used as a social and recreation room for the men and a reception room for visitors.

Two other rooms on the first floor have been remodeled and will be used by Mr. and Mrs. Moran.

For the last two years there has been no matron in the men's dormitory.

Y. W. C. A. WOMEN SPONSOR LITTLE SISTERS AGAIN

Following their usual custom members of the Y. W. C. A. have again been assigned the freshman girls who are to be their "Little Sisters" this year. Thus the students who are new to their college environment have someone to help them with their problems and make them feel at home at M. C.

This arrangement is especially advantageous to the parties concerned, as it allows the freshmen to become oriented more quickly to their new surroundings and gives members of the upper classes a chance to make acquaintance at once with their fellow students.

The way to get ahead is to make yourself more useful than the other fellows; for kind of job you'll have five years from now depends on the way you handle the one you have now.

TWO OF INSTRUCTORS UNDERGO OPERATIONS Bright And HERSHEY Able To Resume Teaching

Wed., Sept. 5—Two of the McPherson college instructors who are returning to their teaching duties today have just recovered from serious illness resulting from appendicitis. Dr. J. Willard Hershey and Dr. J. Daniel Bright recently underwent operations at approximately the same time at the McPherson hospital.

Both have regained their strength sufficiently to begin their classes.

SUMMER SCHOOL BREAKS RECORD FOR ATTENDANCE Largest In History—170 Are Enrolled—40 In Music

McPherson college had, during the past summer, the best and largest summer school the college has ever had. The term began June 1 and closed July 21. This is the first year that there has been a nine weeks summer school. The nine weeks term makes it possible for one to complete six semester hours work in one summer.

The enrollment during the past summer was over 170, 40 of which were special music students. Besides these, a model school of over 30 grammar students was conducted for those taking practice teaching.

The following were among those in the summer school faculty: Dr. Bright, Dr. Hershey, Prof. Blair, Miss Fee, Miss Lehman, Miss Collins, Miss Brown, Mrs. Tate, Miss Lingensfelter, and Prof. Fries, Business Manager.

This is the first year there has not been a McPherson College Rocky Mountain Summer School, in Falmeo Lake, Colorado.

ANOTHER PROSPECTIVE STUDENT ANNOUNCED

Aug. 10—The birth of another prospective M. C. student was announced today by Professor and Mrs. Maurice A. Hegg.

The new arrival was a girl, weighing seven and one-half pounds. She has been named Pauline Clara.

All M. C. friends are receiving a cordial invitation to pay a visit to the Hegg residence and see their daughter.

DR. S. Z. SHARP DEAD

First President Of College Dies —Age Of 95

Dr. S. Z. Sharp, first president of McPherson college, died late this summer at his home in Fruita, Colorado, at the age of 95 years. Although doctors told him when he was 18 that he would not live long because of tuberculosis, he had recovered from the disease and lived to be president of four different colleges. His death was caused by injuries received when an automobile ran into the horse and buggy he was driving.

Dr. Sharp came to McPherson college in 1887, after having held the office of president successively at Ashland college, Ohio, and Mansel Morris college, Ill. In 1896 he resigned the presidency at McPherson, and became head of Pittsburg college, Pittsburg, Mo., resigning in 1907 to move to his home in Fruita, Colo.

Dr. Sharp attained considerable note as a scientist, having been appointed state geologist in 1894, and elected to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

The good die young, the old die daily.

FOOT BALL PROSPECTS LOOKING EXCELLENT

75 Pounds More In Line Than Last Year's Team

EIGHT LETTER MEN BACK

33 Men Report At First Practice—Over 40 Expected

Monday, Sept. 7—Seventy-five more pounds in the line than last year was promised this evening by Coach Blinford after the 1931 season's first workout.

With an average weight of 155 pounds, last year's team labored under one of the greatest handicaps known to the game. But with the material now reporting for drill not only will the line have more weight, but the first squad average will approximate 170 pounds.

The addition of this weight and the return of all the reliable letter men of last year furnish the background for optimism. Johnston and Newberg, centers; Countryman and Keck, Captain, guards; Brockstrasser and Ohmart, ends; Zinn and Blinford, halfbacks, are all reporting letter men. Bowman, Minsar, and Sorrenson of the reserve squad are back. Enough new men reported this evening to make a total of 33 with a squad of 40 expected on the field by the end of the week.

FIRST C. E. MEETING OF YEAR A VESPER SERVICE ON CAMPUS

A group of more than 40 students met on the campus west of the library 6:30 P. M. Sunday, for a vesper service. The program was in charge of Genevieve Carlin. The program consisted of group singing, prayer, reading of poems, special music, and a talk by Dean R. E. Mohler on "The College Student and Religion." The program was concluded by another mixed quartet number. The quartet members were Vera Flors, Galah Hoover, Posey Jamison and Vernon Rhoades.

The only thing that does not pay any man free, or any nation free, is the truth. A man who is afraid of the truth, is afraid of the law of life. A man who does not love the truth is in the way of decay and failure.—Woodrow Wilson.

Y. M. TO GIVE STAG FOR FRESHMAN MEN TONIGHT

Melons at 'Ad' Building at 5:15—Back by 8 o'clock

All Freshman men are being urged to take part in the stag party this evening conducted by members of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet.

They are asked to be on the front steps of the Administration building at 5:15 o'clock, prepared for staking. Having arrived at their destination they will be treated to refreshments and a varied program of talks, music, and other entertainment.

It is promised that the freshmen will be allowed to return by eight o'clock in order to prepare their first lessons of the term.

CLASS OF 1931 MAKES A REMARKABLE RECORD

All Eligible Teachers But One Receive Positions

Members of the 1931 graduating class at McPherson college have attained a truly remarkable record in that all but one of those who wished to teach have received positions.

Out of the 28 students who took the required courses and prepared to teach, 25 now have schools. The remaining 14 out of the class of 49 are either continuing their education or else have found good positions in other kinds of work.

This is a record of which McPherson college may well be proud, for not many schools have such unusual success in finding positions for their graduates.

M. C. STUDENTS TAKE PART IN PEACE TOUR

A number of McPherson students took part in a peace tour of the churches of southern Idaho during the latter part of August. The party gave varied programs of music and speaking, promoting the cause of World peace and Disarmament. Eight churches were visited.

An effort was made to use local talent from the communities visited.

The group included the following: Lois Edwards, Opal Bowers, Katherine Harris, Sarah E. Idaho; Melba Berkwell, Outwell, Idaho; Ross Curtis, Clarence Betts and Roy Clement Bourgrace.

SIX HOME GAMES ARE SLATED FOR BULL DOGS

Three Away From Home — First Game With Hutch, Junior Sept. 25

McPherson football fans will get their money's worth this year, for they will be privileged to see six home games, all night games. There will be three games away from McPherson. The Big Thanksgiving battle with the Bethany Squires is the last, scheduled for November 26.

Following is the complete schedule:

Sept. 25—Hutchinson Junior College, here.

Oct. 2—Kansas Wesleyan, there.

Oct. 9—Phillips University, here.

Oct. 16—Baker University, here.

Oct. 23—Hays Teachers, there.

Oct. 30—Friends University, here.

Nov. 11—Ottawa University, there.

Nov. 18—Bethel college, here.

Nov. 26—Bethany college, here.

All of these are at night with the exception of the Armistice Day tilt with Ottawa and possibly of the Hays game.

Our choice in this must be cube, of three dimensions, height, breadth and length.—McKenzie.

While definite figures on enrollment are not yet available, a tentative checkup revealed that sixty-six Freshmen had already completed the process of enrollment. This amount does not include a large number whose cards for various reasons have not yet reached the business office. It is expected that the total for the Freshman class will finish close to the one hundred mark, which will be considerably larger than usual.

Members of the upper classes had by most cases, not yet completed enrollment today.

Excluding a large number of special students in music and art, 126 persons have gone through the necessary routine, and the number will doubtless continue to grow throughout the week.

BIG WATERMELON FEED TO BE FRIDAY EVENING

Games And Entertainment Also—"Y" Group Have Charge

On next Friday evening, at seven o'clock, will occur the big annual all-school social and watermelon feed sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

Following a number of group games conducted by Coach Blinford there will be a short program of entertainment, and then will come the main feature of the evening. It is assumed that there will be enough watermelon on hand to give everyone all he can eat.

This social is an excellent means of creating acquaintances among students and faculty members, and it is hoped that every person connected with the College will be there.

Two important offices in the College have been left vacant by the failure of those chosen in the spring elections to return to McPherson this fall.

Max O'Brien, Harry Oak, Kansas, has decided to attend K. S. A. C. at Manhattan this year, thus necessitating choice of another man's choice leader, and Vernon Fleming, Hillsboro, Kansas, who was elected treasurer of the Student Council, will be enrolled in K. C. at Lawrence.

Besides these several offices in classes and other organizations will soon need to be filled.

FRESHMEN, YOU ARE WELCOME

The time of the year has come when the month of August is returning to school. The vacation season is ended, schools and colleges are reopening their doors, and the youth is preparing to pursue his search for truth. Many young people are entering colleges and universities for the first time in their educational careers.

Those who have come to our college for the first time may wonder "what it is all about." The Freshman should remember that he has graduated from high school, and his brains and memory there would be remembered only as things of the past. College is a new experience, and it means freedom for the first four years spent in college will prove the greatest years of a person's life and development.

A noble ideal will on a long way toward a successful and happy conclusion of the college experience. The student should avoid idleness during the early weeks of college will be a foundation for the future years of college. Remember in forming these attitudes that you are a part of McPherson college now. This is your Alma Mater. It is hoped that each Freshman will continue and cherish the ideals so that there may be a pleasant memory of college experience.

Those who have been in college before want your friendship and regard us very welcome to our school family, McPherson college—A. Y.

AN EDITORIAL FOREWORD

An editor of the Spectator this year I shall do my best to maintain the standards set by this newspaper in years before, and if possible, to raise that standard still higher. While editing this office considerably handicapped by inexperience, I am convinced with an experienced executive editor, a group of reporters who are not only experienced and their time and energy in order to make possible a Spectator worthy of the school. With their cooperation and the assistance of a sympathetic consideration of our mistakes and failures on the part of the faculty and student body, we shall enter upon the task with hope of a fair measure of success.

It is most fitting that we should give credit to Mr. Leonard Lindell, for the last two years editor of this paper, for his excellent work. Mr. Lindell is a hard worker and he carried out his duties as editor with an enthusiasm and energy which accomplished results. To him largely was due the honor rating given to the Spectator two years ago by the National Scholastic Press Association—Vernon, Shroyer.

A DYING PRESIDENT'S VALIORITY

The following, as reported by the Literary Digest, is the predicted message of Dr. Ruffin Pollock Franklin, for twenty years president of Baylor University, Texas, in his last pronouncing class. A contain words of advice and inspiration which may well be read by any young person facing life.

"I stand on the border of mortal life, but I face eternal life."

"I look backward to the years of the past in my old regrets, all temporarily sink into nothing, and disappear."

"A state of affairs lies no thinking now. Only the worthwhile things, the constructive things, the things that have been built for the good of mankind and the glory of God count now."

"There is beauty, there is joy, and there is laughter in life—as there ought to be."

"But remember, my students, not to regard lightly or to belittle the sacred things, these worth-while things. Hold them dear, cherish them, for they give life security in the real. And remember, too, that only through work will you attain, through hardships may they be obtained."

"But the compensation of blessing and sweetness at the last will glorify every hour of work and every heartbeat from hardship."

"Do not face the future with timidity or with fear. Face it boldly, courageously, joyfully. Have faith in what you do."

"My own faith as I approach eternally grows stronger day by day. The faith I have had in life is projected into this vast far toward which I transact now."

"I know that I go to an all-powerful God, wherever He may be, and I know that He is personally who created me in His image. Beyond that I have no knowledge—no fear—only faith."

Y. W. GIVES PARTY TUESDAY

Y. W. G. A. of the College gave an informal party in the Y. W. room for the "Big and Little Sisters" and lady faculty members. Each "Big Sister" brought two "Little Sisters" to the party and succeeded her to the girls of the College.

Some "out organized" games were played which were in charge of Helen Holloway, Vice-president of the local association. The Y. W. C. A. welcomed all girls to the College. Refreshments were served to the guests. The cabinet members of the Y. W. C. A. acted as business at the party.

The marriage of Miss Luella Schreiner and Mr. Archie Buckenstaff, both former M. C. students, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Kansas on August 14. Rev. M. C. Dickenson officiated in the ceremony. The attendants were Mr. Billy Shaubert, Class of '28, and Mrs. Emma Schreiner, sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckenstaff are making their home at Little River where Mr. Buckenstaff is teaching.

MULTIVIST-BOOTH

On Saturday, September 5, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Miss Edna Multivist, daughter of Mrs. Maudie Hirtzel of McPherson, gave the bride of Mrs. Myranda Ruth of Dallas, Texas, Canada. The bride wore her mother's beautiful cream silk and wedding gown, and they were attended by Miss Dorothy Skain and Mr. Noble Carls, both former students of McPherson college.

The ceremony took place when the bride was a college worker under the direction of Mr. Tompkins. Miss Booth graduated from McPherson college in 1929 and is well known in McPherson and on the campus.

Following a motor trip through Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer will reside in McPherson.

Wandering Caravans Have Many Thrilling Experiences In Their Journeys

In the month of June, in the year 1931, a caravan led by McPherson... Wandering Caravans Have Many Thrilling Experiences In Their Journeys

They left McPherson on the train, thrilled with anticipation at the prospect of their great adventure, and, in a sudden desire to be "scorching," set up all night instead of taking a sleeper as they had been directed.

At Ulen, Illinois, they found the dear old Chevy, the companion of their joys and sorrows for the summer, which had been out of the kindness of the heart had left us... They found themselves on Kansas soil again, and Kansas wheat and southwestern looked mighty good to them.

During the summer they were treated most kindly—although some mischiefs did seem to have a hand in that they wanted to take their companions away from them.

One day they talked to a group of Potomac and in honor of their guests the men had to sing some special songs. "Let Me Call Your Sweetheart" and "My Wild Irish Rose" were the songs selected as suitable.

They were the summer folk by mounted wings and before they knew it, it was time to return to the States. The Chevrolet, which had sometimes behaved so nicely, had been stolen in a time of crisis, so they started in a McPherson car.

Three conference meals were wonderful. There were about one hundred and thirty-five people there—people from all parts of the United States and from some from abroad.

THREE MORE AT SECOND PRACTICE TUES. MORNING

Tues. Sep. 8.—Three more came through this morning for the second football practice of the year, and Coach Blaford expressed the belief that the total would go over 40 by the end of the week. Besides the eight returning letter men, a total of 23 new recruits and second-year men of last year brought the number this morning to 57.

Following are the names of those who have reported this far: Harold Rubenker, Quinlan; W. G. — DRIPPINGS — FROM THE DOPE BUCKET —

These new fellows comprising the added weight of the Buffalo packers, perhaps may need all the leadership they can get, buy, steal, or borrow when they finish with a couple hours of play with the largest opposing charging club that Coach Lee constructed for the special benefit of the teammen, with special privileges with it for the back field men upon occasion.

Some of the men who think they have met some solid lines will find it some with the weakest posts that have appeared north of the campus for the management of the football squad. The greets have the capacity however of not making back of slugging and none of them yet has ever been accused of deliberately placing a set of teeth in someone's complexion.

For those who cannot engage in the major sports of the college there is always the chance of a Freshman being out by forgetting his cap and the handling exercise for the needy upper-classman. When evaluation has produced the perfect man perhaps this relic of barbarism will disappear. Until this occurs, however, our advice to the Freshman is to keep their own business private right where they will continue to be most useful.

Someone has said in the Freshman of the team of '28 was characterized with the emblem of the chain of '28. The inference seems to be that they're so dumb it will take them the time to think. The Freshman out of gratitude should purchase for the responsible party one of those Chinese counting sticks, which allow you to add some up in ten by simply adding little wood-balls along a wire.

Team players are latched to the recent city tennis tournament for the splendid condition of the courts at the opening of school.

WE INTEND TO BEAT THOSE SWEDS! AND BEAT THEM DEAD!

Poetry is sometimes considered the occupation of sentimentalists, but its real function is to furnish one more way of expressing our emotions, ideas, and personalities.

In the Poetry magazine, Miss Harlow Moore writes each month the quotation from Emerson, "To be great poets there must be great soulless men." There is no more appreciative and intelligently critical group in any field than that composed of the students. Almost every occasion at an athletic contest who intelligently understands it, does so because he puts himself in place of the players, and becomes an "audience."

College students can write poetry, and often do—then they allow it to be hidden to some file or file. To prove that students can produce interesting poetry even if it does not live up to the heights of the masters, we are going to include in this column some of the work of students from other schools.

And any time that you feel in the mood to ride the winged horse, why pour some into an athletic contest. You will be pleased to regularly give you an opportunity to add to your confidence and experience in this additional field of education.

Jose Skinner, a student in Nebraska, gives his interpretation of a certain type of

BARGAIN HUNTER

Oh he's not a bargain hunting shop man
Who twaddles with the wares put out for sale.
He picks each piece,
Kings it critically from side to side,
Praises it, examines it, holds it to the light searching for flaws.
And if it breaks and falls he chatters "Me."
From the low heard than-purses,
The unblinking stare and gaze comes where it lies.
"It's this a while," thinks he, "be fore I buy."

Harry:
In love, too, he's a bargain hunting shopper
Bargaining with the price he's a party to in.

Too blithely painted
The girl, the next ten pake
He handles them, toys with each,
Holds them up to the light searching for flaws.
And, if he finds a perfect specimen
He sets it back, tearing some flake
Has failed to catch his eye.
"It's along awhile," thinks he, "be fore I buy."

PAIN

There is a pain to beauty
For beauty calls
To mind just pleasant scenes.
And memories
Sweet, tipped with pain,
Remind us of
Some near forgotten farewell of friends;
The fragrance of a rose
Alone beside a stream.

There is a pain to glory.
For to be gay
We must forget awhile
That mankind laments
We sing and dance
(It drowns the sound of groans)
And in the world proclaim:
"Lo! We are gay!"

Parsons who are to transform the world must be themselves transformed. Life must be full of inspiration. If inspiration is valuable, the same must double it; it is sweet and high, we must double its quantity and depth; if enlightenment is divine, we must double its quantity and sacredness; if religion is valuable, double its fruits and hasten with it to more freedom; if man's life is great, let him count more precious all his enemies and sinners. The one duty of life is, lesson every vice and change every virtue.—David Swing.

ENROLLMENT BLUES

It would not doubt be very amusing to any onlooker who should chance to hear all the remarks made by students and teachers at enrollment time. The students, who have just gathered from far and wide, are laden with many a heart-rending tale of "drouth," "strawberries," "two bit" wheat, first fires, and what-not. Well-worn copulas and restricted to the arms and friendships of former years. Then comes the routine of becoming happy by being where to be happy he comments in . . .

"Who come down with you?"
"Tell me about your new car."
"So far into the night."
The actual procedure of enrolling is a simple matter made suddenly into a nightmare. The first "tough break" comes when you learn that your favorite course is scheduled to be taught this semester, and that another course — which you have planned to take for years—conflicts with a necessary requisite. You go to the enrolling officer in tears. After explaining three times what your difficulty is, you get the assurance that some one else is having the same trouble. After being duly consoled that you were wrong in desiring any of the courses you had dreamed on taking, you are ready to
