Bright Resigns; To Washburn College Post

Dean Will Be Head Of History Department

Dr. J. M. Bright, dean of Macollege and head of the history department, Monday resigned his position here to become head of the history department at Washburn college, Topeka. It was announced yesterday by college officials.

Dr. Bright, head of the history department since 1924, and dean of the college since 1935, has been honored by being elected to fill the vacancy made by the retirement of ex-president Wolmer of Washburn college. While president, Mr. Wolmer raised funds to endow a chair of American Citizenship which he himself has held since retiring from the presidency. It is for this position that Dean Bright has been selected, being chosen from a large number of possible candidates. His work will be that of administering the department and a relatively light teaching load.

While at McPherson, Dr. Bright has built a strong history department and has served the college with dignity, ability, and unstinting devotion during his entire stay here. He has won many friends by his quiet dignity, his scholarly bearing in all circumstances, and by his capacity for fine friendship.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Bright have been close to students on the campus. Mrs. Bright, formerly Miss Edith McAffey, was for a number of years a member of the college faculty and dean of women.

When announcing the resignation yesterday, Dr. V. F. Schwalm said, "We congratulate the Brights on the new and unusual opportunity that has come to them and wish them well in their new work."

"The college hopes soon to fill the position left vacant by Dr. Bright with a successor that may follow the splendid work he has done here."

This summer Dr. Bright will go to Monmouth college to teach while Dr. Cordier, history instructor there, goes abroad. Dr. Bright will leave here as soon as he finishes the present year.

"Creation" Finds Large Attendance

Scholastic, Circus, Orchestra, All Bring Out Beauty of Oratorio

The sheer beauty of Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," was well portrayed last night when the McPherson Choral Union, under the direction of Prof. Nevin W. Fisher, presented the oratorio at the City Auditorium. A large attendance was present for the second annual presentation of the oratorio.

The delicate tone harmonies were ably handled by the soloists, Miss Meribah Moore of the University of Kansas, John Englar, Baltimore, Md., baritone, and Prof. Melvin H. Gehr, Southwestern college, Winfield, and the choral background attained as brilliant, sustained climaxes without losing the haunting "soft" strains of Haydn's arrangement. Women into the fabric of the oratorio was the excellent orchestral accompaniment, under the direction of Concertmaster Loren Crawford.

This was the second annual presentation of "The Creation" by the Choral Union, comprised of 135 voices many of whom were college students, members of both the cappella choir and the choral club. College students are already anticipating next year's presentation of the oratorio.

Drake President To Be Speaker

Select Dr. D. W. Morehouse For Commencement

Dr. V. F. Schwalm announced yesterday that Dr. D. W. Morehouse, president of Drake University, Des Moines, had been selected as the commencement speaker this year. The annual commencement exercises will be held Monday, May 29, in the college church.

Dean Erb Sees Collapse In Morals

Better Morality Cannot Be Maintained Without Religion

Dean Paul Erb of Heaton College spoke in chapel Wednesday morning on the subject, "Foundations of Integrity."

As an outline for his speech he used the ideas presented by J. D. Adams in his article "Collapse of Conscience" in the January, 1938, issue of the Atlantic Monthly. "There is abundant evidence that we do not have the individual conscience we formerly had, as shown by false advertising, ghost writing, and other squalid practices," were the Dean's words.

Two causes for decay were advanced, namely, the rise of the materialistic state idea, and the decline in religious faith. Christian faith is the only foundation for the integrity of character. Morality cannot be maintained without a religion, and there can be no application of a religion we do not have, said Dean Erb.

Three sanctions must rest on a belief in God, in the Bible, and in absolute truth and good. They must also be taught; they cannot be merely incidental, concluded Heaton's instructor.

A selection by the chapel choir concluded the program.

Schwalm, Englar In College Chapel

Prof. V. F. Schwalm gave a short talk in chapel last Monday morning. He said that after reading many books it was a good thing to return to a really good book. He then read a small passage from the Bible.

He told of problem children in college who later had "got religion" and read all the things which they had taken usually.

"In these days of Lent," he stated, "it is good for us to have a self-examination."

No "April Fool" Here

The BYPD won't be 'April Fooling' next Saturday night at 8:00 at the church parlor because they have planned a real honest-to-goodness April Fool's party for students enjoyment.

Officials say "the only thing new to make it a success—no fooling—is to have everyone there. And some where along the line we heard someone mention food! So some along out—you can't fool us; we know you'll have a good time!"

Worship Service In S. C. M. Meeting With Music, Poems

The S. C. M. worship service Tuesday consisted of music and devotional reading.

Following an organ prelude by Elizabeth Ann Mobler, Lucille Wash sang the "Prayer Perfect," Virginia Kerlin then read devotions. The theme of Miss Kerlin's readings were "Thy will be done."

The lights were turned off and Miss Mobler played a group of inspirational hymns. Kenneth Yingst closed the meeting with scripture reading.

Glady's Shank and Raymond Flory were in charge of this brief candle-light service.

Local Profs. Present Scientific Papers

A group from McPherson science department went to Lawrence Thursday to attend the annual meeting of the Kansas Academy of Science at Kansas University. The meeting continued through Friday and Saturday. Dr. J. Willard Hershhey, Dr. H. J. Harby, Prof. J. H. Bowman, and Emerson Yoder attended from the college. W. J. Schultz, science teacher at McPherson high school, and C. H. Drescher, science teacher at McPherson Junior high, also attended.

In Prof. Mobler's absence, Emerson Yoder presented his paper on "The Bluff City Elephant" to the geology section. Both Dr. Hershhey and Yoder illustrated their papers with lantern slides. These slides showing the Bluff City Elephant were made by Arthur Baldwin, Spectator photographer.

Choir Is Scheduled For Several Concerts

Have Miniature Music Festival With Englar As Special Guest

The next public appearance of the cappella choir is a Sunday evening program to be given at the Mother Church, April 23.

In the following week end a three-day trip is being worked out which will take the ensemble to Ottawa Saturday evening, Melouth and Merrill on Sunday and Kansas State College and Navarre on Monday. The details of this tour remain to be arranged.

This year the choir has arranged to give a reciprocal program with the Bethany College a cappella choir which will appear in the Lutheran Church in McPherson on Sunday, April 18. The Bethany choir last year placed second in the Columbia Chorus Contest. The Mac a cappella choir will give a return concert on Sunday, May 7 in Presser Hall.

With the distinguished artist of the "Creation," John Addison Englar as their guest, the cappella choir enjoy a miniature music festival at the regular practice session Monday afternoon.

After singing "Doubtation" and three light selections from their repertoire, Gladys Shank, soprano, presented "In Italy," Frances Campbell, contralto, sang with "Do Not Leave, My Love" and Keith Pierce boomed "Ozma and Night."

Biggest Event of Year Brings Rev. C. O. Johnson

Most colorful of all events of the McPherson college year, the ninth annual Booster Banquet will be held in Convention Hall tonight, with Dr. Charles Johnson as guest speaker.

People from all parts of the state, the majority of them from this immediate vicinity, but many distant alumni, who have sent in for reservations, will attend the banquet.

West To State

Addison West, who won first place in the local peace oratorical contest, will compete in the state peace oratorical contest at Kansas Wesleyan in Salina on Friday, April 14. Prizes in the state contest will be for first, $50; second, $30; and third, $20.

Judges of the contest will be the oratory coaches of the schools represented. From present indications ten or twelve colleges are expected to send representatives to the contest.

West's oration, "A Call to Service," was well received by those who attended the local contest.

Englar Recital Is Greatly Enjoyed

John Addison Englar of Baltimore, Maryland, and guest baritone soloist in the McPherson Oratorio, "The Creation," was presented in a recital of light opera, American and English songs, humorous and negro spirituals on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

His varied repertoire was greatly enjoyed by the large audience which attended. An unusual feature of the program was the song, "My Rooney," which had been set to music by Professor Nevin W. Fisher of the McPherson College voice department.

In addition to the recreation numbers listed, Englar graciously responded to the voluminous applause with six delightful encores. Vivid interpretation of his narrative songs, The Old Black Mare, The Green-Eyed Dragon and The King, drew added praise from his enthusiastic hearers. His beautiful portrayal of "Sylvia" was most appreciated by many of the audience. Beauty of tone was outstanding in the lovely "The Lord's Prayer."

Fisher played the piano accompaniment for Englar with the assistance of Vera Flory, Ukuru were Miriam Kimmel and Evelyn Amos, Keith Pierce and Lee Krause.

Student Salesmen Have Covered Campus

Cooperate With News In Selling Booster Banquet Tickets Here

In looking forward to the Booster Banquet tonight, McPherson college students should recognize the time and effort which has been spent in order to make the affair a success. Among those who have done their part are the campus ticket sellers, headed by Prof. M. A. Hays.

With Addison Haysforth as captain the salesmen for the senior class were Orville Beecher, Gerald Denney, Lorenz Voshell, and Miriam Kimmel. Margaret Kagasler, Elma Minick, Audrey Hammann, and David McGill with Raymond Flory as captain sold tickets to the juniors.

Hophornems were given the chance to buy a ticket by Donald Newkirk as captain, Sara Jane Olin, Kirby Naylor, Maurine Anderson, Otisford Funk, William Koch, Kamona Fris, and Ernest Reed.

Bob Brum headed the freshmen salesmen, who were Kenneth Morrison, Fred Eberbery, Glenny Dyll, Gladys Winglas, Burris Wehler, Sylvia Hoover, Lena Bell Olin, Doris Voshell, and Virginia Kerlin.

At Home Ferguson will be the toastmaster of the affair and while the guests are dining, music will be provided by the college orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Loren Crawford. Rev. C. G. Bloomquist, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, will give the invocation.

Home Ferguson will be the toastmaster of the affair and while the guests are dining, music will be provided by the college orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Loren Crawford. Rev. C. G. Bloomquist, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, will give the invocation.

Quartet Will Sing
Special music will be provided by the college variety women's quartet, made up of Gladys Shank, Opal Hoffman, Frances Campbell, and Lillian Pauls. The college variety male quartet will also appear on the program in a group of numbers. This quartet is made up of Wesley DeCoursey, Wayne Albright, Gordon Yoder and Keith Pierce.

President Schwalm will speak for the college and Pres. T. W. Butcher, of Kansas State Teachers college, Emporia, will bring the greetings of his school and also give a brief address. Following this Rev. Johnson will give the principal address.

is "Ho Man" Preacher

Dr. Johnson is widely known as a "ho man" preacher. He is characterized as one of the strongest speakers ever secured for Booster Banquets that have heard Harry Woodring, Burris Jenkins, Alf Landon, Arthur Hyde, Chancellor Lindley, Harold Case, Charles Oikie, and W. W. Sweet.

Diners will be amused and stimulated by his manner of speaking which combines a keen sense of humor and deep religious thinking, tempered with wit.

The Christian Herald, a religious magazine, says of Dr. Johnson: "What the Rev. Charles Oscar Johnson, D. D., pastor of the third Baptist Church, St. Louis, Mo., has accomplished, under God, in the past 24 months sounds a note of encouragement to every church and to every clergyman in America."

Johnson is hard fighter

The statement, taken from the December, 1938, issue of the magazine, refers to the bitter fight staged by Dr. Johnson and church people of St. Louis against the Hays Burns and dog racing bill in the Missouri legislature. St. Louis was made the goal in this bill. The bill passed the house and the senate and went in the governor. Johnson contacted the governor and under his influence and the efforts of the St. Louis committee he headed, this controversial measure was vetoed. This is only one of the many bitter battles Johnson has won in St. Louis, giving him a fund of information that will be interesting to banquet goers.

McPhersonians will act as waiters at the banquet. Others will attend the affair as diners-out in their Sunday best. The campus ticket campaign under the direction of M. A. Hays, has met with satisfactory results.

Earl W. Hays, college field secretary, has been in charge of the ticket campaign. Tickets for the banquet are $10 each. Students are admitted for 50c.

The banquet, beginning at seven o'clock, climaxes weeks of feverish planning on the part of the faculty, students, and merchants. Convivial the town, ticket salesmen have received a splendid response; advance ticket sales indicate a large attendance.

The Spectator Sees

Join The Booster Bandwagon, Turn On A Green Light

Join the bandwagon of student boosters for a better McPherson college! Next week each year vote in favor of a constitution which provides for a more efficient student government.

Why should McPhersonians adopt the new constitution? In the first place, it is for the Student Body, which will become an actual, active organization for the first time since the college was established.

Then the new constitution states the powers of the Student Council and duties of its officers and members, maintains the extra-curricular financial system, and contains other important measures which were discussed yesterday in the assembly meeting.

When students are given the opportunity by the Student Council to vote on such an issue, they should express their opinions at the polls to guarantee progressive student government for McPherson. Student candidates seeking Council offices could use the constitution as a platform.

Without the new constitution, the Student Council or Student Body may get into a rut. Give it a chance to go places!

It is certainly evident that this is the bluish week. Every one took at least one look off the shelf, dusted it and looked inside—for the first time this semester. What a headache! Organize Vigilantes To Enforce Handbook Ruling

A committee of vigilantes has been appointed to enforce the ancient McPherson tradition dealing with the freshman cap rule.

Dale Stucky will head the posse, and with him as enforcing agents will be "Dutch" Goering, "Doc" Charbonneau, Mira Naylor, and Glen Funk. The committee has been assigned the full cooperation of the M Club and will be designated power to designate any number of upper classmen to police the campus and persuade freshmen to obey the ruling.

Under the head of "Regulations, Suggestions and Traditions" the freshmen bible contains these words: "All freshmen men are expected to wear the official freshman cap from the opening of school until Thanksgiving and from Easter until the close of school unless they fill the football game from the sophomore at Thanksgiving time."

This year's result was a 14-6 victory for the sophs. Stucky has warned that freshmen should "begin getting the green things off the shelf and knocking the dust off them." Kester is not far away.

Music Students Give Chapel Program

Crawford, Hoffman, Frazil, Wolfe Entertain Chapel Group

Professor Loren B. Crawford of the music department was in charge of the chapel program last Friday morning, which opened with the student group singing a hymn.

A violin solo concerto Number 23, the first movement, by Vieux, was ably played by Dorothy Braid. She was accompanied by Lillys Francis.

Opal Hoffman, accompanied by Frances Campbell, sang "Swing Along." In response to the approval of the assembly, she sang an encore, "Miss Butterfly."

Mamie Wolfe played a piano solo in her usual pleasing manner. Her selection was from "The Flying Dutchman."

Announcements were made by Dr. Bright and Professor Hines.

Brown Judges

Miss Jeanie Brown, head of the music department of McPherson college, was in Wichita Saturday, judging the annual music talent audition sponsored by the fifth district of the Kansas Federation of Women's Club, at the University of Wichita.

There were auditions in voice, violin, cello, and piano, with students divided into first, second, third and fourth year classifications. The entrants were from the five counties in the district, including Sedgewick, Sumner, Butler, McPherson and Harvey.

BYPD To Present Easter Play Sunday

Students Are Urged to Attend One-Act Religious Drama

Next Sunday night the B. Y. P. D. will present in the college chapel at the regular hour, an Easter play entitled "The Christian Trail." This religious, one-act drama which is being coached by Mrs. Arthur Baldwin will have a complete cast of college students including: Faith, Wilbur LeWallen; Mother, Miriam Kimball; Daughter, Ruth Stamp; Son, Dick Berger; Grandma, Margaret Kagartie; Man, Forrest Stern.

This unusual Easter production will be supplemented by musical numbers which form a background for the play.

Students are urged to be sure to see the B. Y. P. D. Easter dramatic program in the chapel at 6:30 next Sunday evening.

Arrangements have been made by the sophomore and freshmen classes for a joint picnic which will be held soon.

With a splash the girls of Arnold Hall entertained their escorts at a formal party in the Student Union Room, Saturday night, March 18. The couples were received at the door by Miss Ida Shockley, Mrs. Emmert, Miss Gladys Shank and Miss Kelly Davis.

Three groups of games were played during the evening, interspersed with musical numbers. Evelyn Amos, Gladys Shank, and Leslie Wade sang two numbers, "Deep Purple" and "Orange-Grinder's Swing." Mamie Wolfe played "Clave de Lute." Just before refreshments were served Gladys Shank led the group in singing Irish songs.

Repeat Great Stone Face Episode In Campus Library

Had you ever noticed any similarity between the picture of the beautiful face of Italy's Queen Regalia in the library reading room and the face of our own Miss Forney who also lives in the library? This similarity was pointed out by Edith Nicky after reading an article in the Spectator in which various students had named certain attributes of the lady in silk.

Can it be possible that, as in the history of The Great Stone Face, merely looking upon the fair queen has included Miss Forney's features into an identical appearance?

81 Colleges Aid In Drive For Needy Eastern Studies

New York City—(ACP)—American college students have collected approximately $3,000 for the aid of student refugees in China. Miss Molly Ward, secretary of the Far Eastern Student Service Fund announced last week. Of this amount, $1,000 has already been cabled to Dr. J. Ueng Ly of the National Student Relief Committee in Shanghai.

With a campaign goal of $50,000 Miss Ward reports, that 81 colleges already have held campus campaigns and nearly 200 others expect to do so during the second semester. Dances, banquets, and lectures have featured most of the drives. Contributions have come from Smith, Vassar, Mount Holyoke, Randolph-Macon College for Women and smaller in-

The Far Eastern Student Service Fund has been asked by the Chinese students to help establish temporary universities in western China to replace the 44 institutions partially or totally destroyed by Japanese bombardment. At least 10,000 students are in need. Miss Ward declares. She recently returned from China where she represented the United States on an international student Good-will Delegation. A portion of the funds will be used to transport these students to the new university centers in food and clothing, and to provide scholarships. A small portion of the funds will be sent to Japanese Christians who are being persecuted because of their opposition to the war.

Swede Racketeers To Be Here Soon

Bulldog Netsters Match Bethany Here Monday

Four racketeers from Sweden are going to invade McPherson next Monday in the hopes of carrying off an important tennis victory. This is the opening meet of the tennis season and promises to be good because of the high caliber of the two squads. Bethany is highly touted in tennis this season. In addition to two or three highly experienced players, they have Art Holander, former local star, who will probably participate in the meet.

Dr. Flory as yet has not picked his "Big Four." But he says he must consider at least eleven men, namely Carroll Cross, Gordon Yoder, Burns Stauffer, Ernest Reed, Harold Larsen, Raymond Johnson, Delmar Archibald, Douglas Crotty, Bernard Nardling, Tony Vosbell and Calvin Jones. There will be quite a few playoffs among these men tomorrow.

Monday the meet will start around 8:00, because not all the singles matches can be played at the same time.

W. A. A. Notes—

May 13, has been set as the date for the Play Day sponsored by the W. A. A., to which approximately twelve high schools will be invited. Committees have been chosen and are now at work preparing the annual W. A. A. banquet to be held April 21. The program committee is composed of Geraldine Spohn, Doris Dresner and Doris Vosbell. Audrey Hammann and Hazel Hodine will serve as the committee on menu and place, while Rilla Hubbard, Margaret Louise Kagarice and Edith Hughes will serve on the decorations committee. Invitations will be taken care of by Sarah Jane Olwin, Mickey Miller and Edith Spangler.

The interclass basketball tournaments continued this week with the sophomores, being the winners on Tuesday. The freshmen with their captain being Hazel Hodine won 2 games and lost 1. The sophomores under Margaret Hamm won 2 games and tied 1. Juniors with Verda Grove as captain won 1 game and tied 2. The senior team with Rilla Hubbard as captain won 1, lost 1, and tied 1.

Postpone Meet Until Next Week

Captain "Duck" Anis announced today that the track meet, which was to be held here yesterday afternoon, will be postponed until next week, whenever the weather permits.

The meet will include Sterling and Friends, Sterling won the meet last year and will have another strong squad including such men as Harris, Rawlins, Dunn, Trotter, and other 13m-clads.

The comparative strength of the Quakers is not known, but they usually have a formidable grid, Huthany, despite all rumors otherwise, will not enter this meet, although they participated last year.
