We Need Healthy Americans!

With the cry for healthy, physically-fit men for the army, navy, marines, and with a large percentage of "rejects" America looks for a remedy to such ailings. Upon the advice of the doctors of the United States, she says,

"We must keep ourselves physically fit. We must get ration." Yes, the demand comes to us, "keep yourself physically fit." the proper amount of exercise. We must have a balanced

Perhaps first and wisest step to take in this matter is to get a complete and thorough physical examination. After that, t seems only proper that something should be done about any physical disorder that may be found. Thirdly, taking care to haps along with our defense stamps see that a proper diet is had would serve as a preventive mea-Lastly, plenty of physical exercise every day should be shiny red apples or is it too late? Ahad. The human body of ours, in this land of automobiles to long the line of national defense even carry it from "hither to yon," becomes not only "rusty" from our alert supervisor of grounds and little or no exercise, but actually becomes soft—permanently so.

Is American becoming soft? We, as Americans, are asking ourselves that question. With the fall of France in the early part of this war, and with such a large percentage of men being rejected in our country for physical defects of one kind or another, we are becoming alarmed, and rightly so. Most common cause to which this is attributed is lack of physical exercise and hard manual labor. Is the machine to be the ruination of mankind? It need

Whispering Effective War Weapon

This war is not just a war of actual physical combat. No, his Orchestra, if I may be so liberal address Sunday morning. that is rather a minor part of it. There is the war of produc- with the term. It is very encouragtion; the war of economic forces, and perhaps least thought ing to see you all taking such an act of, but a very important factor is the war of words-not neces- ive interest in helping that very fine sarily those printed in the papers, those spoken over the radio, organization, the Red Cross. but those spoken, and passed on by word of mouth—the "whispering campaign." These whisperers are in Washington D. C.; they are in Maine; they are in Florida, they are in California; which ever the case may be and the they are in Washington; they are in Kansas; they are in Mc-Pherson; they are everywhere in the United States.

This whispering campaign is, no doubt, very effective. The alleged "news" is started at various points over the United States, and from there, is spread not only by the "whisperers," but also by unknowing people, your neighbors, even you.

Suppose the campaign started yesterday in Kansas City By today, we would have heard it in McPherson, and by tomorrow, everybody, or nearly so, would have heard it. If the news is of such a nature that it ruins morale—and that is the purpose of the whisperers-it becomes very damaging and at the end of several months, we Americans could become very distrustful of our government.

Just a bit of advice—we ourselves can become guilty of "whispering", unknowingly so, but just the same, guilty of the offense. We must discount as rumor all or nearly all such rumors as do not have any authentication.

Present Editor Bows Out

For the status quo in Spectator editorship, this issue spells finish.

For the past year and a half, Ernest Dale, managing editor, has been engaged in various phases of apprentice editorial work, and has an excellent publications background.

Because of the graduation system as set forth by the Student Council, there must be a shift of personnel in the Spectator editorial staff. Applications are being accepted this week from prospective candidates for the position of campus editor, which automatically becomes vacant on resignation of the editor-in-

On behalf of present members of the staff, then, I wish to express my sincerest thanks for the excellent cooperation we have received from the various individuals and organizations on and off campus who have helped us to publish the Spectator.

Further, on my own behalf, I wish to thank all contributors, either of copy or good will, who have worked on the paper during the past year.

(Adapted from the Athenian Oath)

We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, be an act of dishonesty or cowardice.

We will strive for the ideals and sacred things of the college, both alone and with many.

We will revere and support the College ideals, and we will do our best to incite a like reverence and respect in those about us who are prone to annul them or set them at naught. We will strive increasingly to quicken the student sense of College duty.

Thus in all these ways we will transfer our College not only not less, but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

Coach Hayden and several Canines Monday night saw the Presbies lose a ragged game to the Graymaroons from Bethel after a close first half, although the Bethelites won by a 50-31 count, However, behind the raggedness of the two teams that evening was evident a great deal of potent strength which the Bulldogs are out to curb tonight. Then, too, the Macollege squad well remembers the scare which the Presbies handed the highflying Baker Wildcats in an earlier

The Bulldogs were victorious over the Presbies in both their meetings last year and according to dope should be able to repeat this year McPherson opened her conference play last week by dropping a thriller to Kansas Wesleyan and then took Ottawa two nights later to make their percentage read .500. C. of E. has yet to win her first conference the preliminary game, the Bulldog second will meet the Hult quist Cleaner five, a team which is near the top in the Y. M. C. A. league this year. The seconds thus far this season have succeeded in drawing large crowds early in the evening by their fast and deceptive ball, and should have plenty of competition facing them tonight.

Hayden is expected to use the same starting line-up as he used in the two games last week. At center with his 'unguardable" pivot shot will be Junior French who thus far in conference play has an average of 23 points per game. At starting forwards will probably be Captain Art Schubert, high-scoring veteran, and Paul Voth, a capable freshman.

At one guard spot will likely be Raymond "Squeak" Meyer, to whom goes the credit for throttling massive Bob Hunt in the Coyote game, and for setting off the Bulldog explosion against the Ottawa Braves. At the other guard post will probably be 'fellow-Inmaner" On the bench Coach Hayden has capable reserves in Bob Burkholder, Clint Hill, George Voth, Warren Seis and Delmar Wessler ready to step in if any of the regulars falter.

The preliminary game is scheduled 7:00 at Convention Hall. Th main game is expected to get under way at 8:15.

Paced by French, Schubert, and Meyer, the McPherson College Bulldogs defeated the Ottawa Braves 57 to 38 last Friday night for the Bulldog's first conference win of the

The Braves assumed an early lead but after four minutes, the Bulldogs found the range and jumped into the lead. The Braves never threatened seriously after this although they did narrow the lead to 5 points early in the second half.

Junior French, who tallied 26 points earlier in the week in the Kansas Wesleyan conference tilt, went on another scoring spree against Ottawa, netting 20 points for high point honors. French was followed closely by Art Schubert. Bulldog captain, who racked up 16 points.

The Bulldogs held a 26 to 17 halftime lead. After the Braves narrowed this lead early in the second half to 5 points the Bulldogs began pour ing it on, leading as much as 20 points at one time Coach Dick Godlove used 11 men in an effort to stop the Bulldogs, but

Library Books

Another recent addition to the library is a book entitled, "How to teach American History." The author is Dr. John W. Wayland, professor of Teachers college, Harrisburg, Va. and the father of our own Dr. F. F Wayland, professor of History, Mc-Pherson College. This volume is intended for use as a textbook in normal Schools, Teacher-training classes, and Teachers' institutes, and as a handbook for the teacher and student in school or at home.
