

Sadie Hawkins' Day Opens; Chase Begins Thursday

Rowena Neher and Gerald Neher, S. C. A. social committee, have announced that Sadie Hawkins' Day opens officially Thursday, October 13, 8:00 A. M., and ends Friday, October 14, at 4:00 P. M. The climax of the chase will be Friday evening.

The rules of the chase are:
1. In honor of Dog Patch, all chasers and chases are asked to contribute to the festivities by wearing clothing appropriate to the occasion—the oldest and "worst."

2. A good growth on the chins of the potential Lil' Abners would add interest. A prize will be awarded for the best whiskers.

3. All that the gals have to do, to catch a man, is to get both hands on him, provided he is caught outside any building. (No loitering beyond the state line.) Not more than six gals may attack one man, and every man shall be on his own.

4. All unmarried and divorced faculty members shall be eligible for the race.

All disappointed gals shall have a last chance at the left-over bachelors Friday night at the party.

There will be prizes for the best facsimile in Lil' Abners and Daisy Mae, for the most unique couple, and for the best set of whiskers.

Sadie Hawkins' Day was started on Mac campus in 1942 by Dick Burger and Rowena Wampler Albright, who were the S. C. A. co-chairmen at that time. It has since become a tradition on the campus under the sponsorship of the S. C. A.

Betty Frantz Receives Position On Spec Staff

Miss Betty Frantz was recently approved by the Student Council and Board of Publications to be the Campus Editor of the Spectator. Betty was Assistant Editor of the year book of Woodrow Wilson High School, Long Beach California, last year.

This vacancy occurred when Loren Clark was advanced to Managing Editor after Betty Redinger resigned.

Snider To Speak At Conference Of Western Youth

Regional Youth Conference for the Western Region of the Church of the Brethren will be held on McPherson College Campus November 11-13.

Don Snider, national director of youth work, will be the principal speaker for the conference. Bob Tully, coach at Bethel College in Newton and well-known recreational worker and author, will speak on Saturday concerning a recreational program for the local churches.

Bill Daggett, a Junior at McPherson College, is president of the youth of the Western Region.

Lehman Asks For Activity Chairman

Miss Della Lehman, chairman of college activities for the McPherson Young Red Cross, has asked McPherson College to select a student Red Cross activities chairman.

Each of the three colleges in the county will have an activities chairman to promote the five projects listed for them.

Since many veterans are eligible for a dividend from their National Service Insurance and do not realize this fact, the college chairman is asked to help veterans in making applications for their dividends.

Volunteers are needed for donations to the Blood Program. Last year one visit of the Bloodmobile to McPherson was for donations from faculty and students of McPherson College only. Situation for 18 years of age may give blood during any visit of the Bloodmobile to McPherson.

College students will have opportunities to provide entertainments at the Smoky Hill hospital until it is closed. Later, entertainments may be taken to the hospital at Fort Riley.

Arranging for a class in first aid is the fourth activity for college campuses.

Student chairmen will help receive contributions for the Red Cross Fund.

Cole, Kansas, Introduces Christian Amendment

Leaders of the Christian Amendment Movement at Topeka, Kansas, have been taking their story to the public through a series of radio broadcasts.

The movement is attempting to gain recognition of "the authority and law of Jesus Christ" in the United States Constitution.

Congressman Albert M. Cole of Kansas has introduced a Resolution into the House of Representatives proposing the Christian Amendment. His action follows that of a similar Resolution presented in the Senate last year by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, who did not seek reelection.

Three sections make up the proposed Amendment. The first would state that "this nation devoutly recognizes the authority and law of Jesus Christ, Savior and Ruler of nations, through whom are bestowed the blessings of Almighty God."

Section two points out that the Amendment would not in any way infringe on the rights of religious freedom, freedom of speech and press or of peaceful assemblage.

Section three would permit Congress to provide a suitable oath of affirmation for citizens whose religious scruples prevent them from giving allegiance to the Constitution.

Leaders of the Christian Amendment Movement believe that the Amendment will put the U. S. government on a Christian foundation, made possible Christian decisions in courts, give Christian political leaders Christian support, help church and state work together against evil, and make conditions better for non-Christians.

John Sebastian To Give First Concert

The talent committee of the McPherson Community Concert Association Friday night selected the talent for the three numbers that will be given this season.

Originally the association planned to give four concerts, it was changed to three upon popular demand. The membership drive ended Friday night with the total membership only slightly less than last year's 779.

The October concert will be given by John Sebastian, son of a prominent and wealthy Philadelphia banking family who is considered one of the two leading virtuosos on the harmonica. He is credited with lifting this lowly instrument to a full-fledged concert medium.

The November concert will be given by Ervin Laszlo, 17-year-old Budapest youth who was born in 1932. He was acclaimed in his New York debut this year as "the greatest pianist of our day." Last year Laszlo won first in the international music competition at Geneva, where he competed against 424 contestants from 40 countries.

In January Virginia Mae Walters, leading soprano soloist of the New York City Center Opera Company, will be presented. The last five years Miss Mac Walters has been known as one of the best American artists and she has given the Met some real competition for the first time since the death of the Manhattan Opera Company.

Sargent, Walker Assist Spec And Quad Staffs

Two freshmen, Peggy Sargent and Raymond Walker, have been chosen assistant business managers of the Quadrangle and Spectator respectively.

As the student constitution states that applicants must be at least sophomores, these appointments will necessitate an amendment.

Because of the busy condition prevailing on the campus, the special amendment assembly will not be held until November.

College Chapel Is Scene Of 'Trial By Jury' To Be Presented Oct. 11 And 12

Angelina sues Edwin for breach of promise and succeeds in captivating every other male heart in the court in the humorous, satirical cantata, "Trial by Jury," which will be presented by the Symphonic Choir at 8 p. m., October 11 and 12 in the College Chapel.

Cossack Chorus Appears Thursday At Bethany College

Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers under the direction of Serge Jaroff will appear in Presser Hall, Bethany College, Lindsborg, Thursday evening, October 13, at 8:15 p. m.

Bixby-Lindsays have student tickets for $1.00 plus tax and public tickets for $1.50 plus tax.

The history of the Original Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers dates from 1920 when, near Constantinople, a group of Russian soldiers gathered around a campfire, joined in an evening of songs of home.

Among the troops was Serge Jaroff, who had studied to be a choirmaster until the war made a soldier of him.

Believing that others might enjoy the deep-throated choruses of his comrades, he selected from the spontaneous singers the most impressive voices and welded tenors, baritones, and basses into an ensemble.

Before many weeks he had a chorus of thirty men who, with a repertoire assembled out of their wide memories, sang with a new skill under his direction. Thus was born the Don Cossack Chorus.

They became the choir of the Orthodox Cathedral of St. Sofia, in Bulgaria. It was from there that they were sent on their first tour.

In nearly three decades since, they have traveled more than two million miles, have sung in Europe, Africa, Australia, and North and South America. Since 1939 they have toured the United States annually. In New York alone they have been heard 100 times.

Dr. C. L. Reed, president of the Lindborg Kiwanis Club, sponsors of the event, announced that proceeds from the concert will go in to the clubs underprivileged children fund.

Muriel Lester Lectures Oct. 14-16

Muriel Lester, outstanding exponent of spiritual force and contemporary violence, will be presented in this area from October 14 to October 16.

She will appear in Wichita, Friday, October 14, 8:00 p. m., at the First Methodist Church; in Hutchinson, Sunday, October 16, 4:00 p. m., at the Trinity Methodist Church; and in Newton, Sunday, October 16, 8:00 p. m., at the Memorial Hall, Bethel College. The Institute of International Relations, Wichita, is sponsoring her lectures.

A friend of Gandhi, Kagawa, and George Lansbury, and co-founder of Kingsley Hall, London, Miss Lester is renowned as a world traveler, author and lecturer.

Miss Lester returned in August from a year's tour of Germany, India, New Zealand, Australia, and is making a coast-to-coast tour of the United States.

She is the author of "It Occurred to Me," "It So Happened," "Ways of Praying," "Why Worship," and others.

This Week

October 7—College of Emporia, here.
October 8—S. C. A. Cluster Conference.
October 8—Pahnestock Open House.
October 11, 12—Fall Musical.
October 14—Sadie Hawkins Day.
October 15—Wesleyan, there.

Townpeople may obtain tickets at the money. The admission will be 50c, including tax. Students will be admitted by their activity cards.

The cast remains the same as announced in last week's Spectator with the possible exception of Earle Lapp playing the defendant, Edwin. This change may be necessary if Royce Beam does not recover from a bad cold.

The argument of the cantata is as follows: Edwin, tiring of his sweetheart, Angelina (Eula Witmore), falls in love with another. Angelina accordingly hails him into court for breach of promise. At the rise of the curtain the User (Vernon Nicholson), while enjoining impartiality on the Jury-men, shows a definite partiality himself for the fair plaintiff.

Edwin (Royce Beam) explains that he simply happened to fall in love with another girl. Though both Jury and Judge (Harold McNamee) indicate that they have had similar episodes in their own pasts, they have little sympathy for him.

After the Jury is sworn in, Angelina appears and immediately captivates all the men present. Edwin proposes various solutions, but in vain. He offers to marry her if she may marry his other sweetheart (Merrill Sanger) but his lawyer (Merrill Sanger) objects.

Edwin tries to dissuade her from wanting to marry him at all, saying that when he is drunk he would beat her.

Finally, the Judge becomes disgusted with the proceedings and offers a solution which is a surprise to everyone.

Members of the court will appear in traditional British court attire. The bride will wear a wedding gown. The bridesmaid will wear formal of blue and pink. Jury and chorus will be attired in modern dress indicating various walks of life.

"I Hear America Singing" sung by the Symphonic Choir and accompanied by Miss Bonnie Martin, President of the Pi Kappa Delta Debating Society.

The song cycle, "In a Persian Garden" will have second place. The four solo voices will be sung by Florence Messick, Laura Phillips, Kenneth Graham, and Gilford Ikenberry.

Class Debaters Meet Oct. 10 And 12

Teams have been chosen for the inter-class debates to be held the second and third weeks of October.

The debates are to be held in the Student Activity Room under the direction of Miss Bonnie Martin, President of the Pi Kappa Delta Debating Society.

On Monday, October 10, 6:45 p. m., the senior team, made up of LeRoy Doty and Winston Bowman, will meet the junior negative team, Dean Cotton and Don Shultz.

Wednesday, October 12: Donna Speaker and Bill Moore, the sophomore team will debate Marlin Walters and Darlene Webb, the freshman team.

Journalism Class Obtains Practical Experience

Though the journalism class is small, the members state that they are receiving practical experience in newspaper work. Mrs. George Noyes is the instructor.

The five members are being treated as cub reporters and are assigned articles such as cubs draw at newspaper offices.

The class had a late start because of the vacation of Mrs. Noyes.

Mrs. Noyes accompanied her husband on a two-week trip to Atlantic City where he attended the Equitable Life Assurance Company Convention. The Noyes also visited friends in New York and Philadelphia.

Know What You Believe

As one looks around in this age we quickly come to the realization that our age is one of definiteness.

The field of science for instance is very logical and precise. Every scientist thinks with sureness to a certain extent in his own particular field.

A scientist who wishes to advance a particular theory of his own must do so in a logical, reasonable way or his theory will not be accepted.

In patterns of government the same thing is true. Exponents of governmental principles must show how their form of government will work right down the line in clear and understandable form.

Communism and capitalism are examples of this. Both know what they believe and both are making specific stands for their way all over the world.

The same thing is true in one's religion and philosophy of life. Cynicism has, seemingly, gripped men's minds in our age, and if we are to awaken this spiritual apathy that is prevalent we will have to know what we believe.

It is not that the Christian principles that Christ taught have been proven invalid; they are just not thought about.

Fulton Oursler, senior editor of "The Readers Digest," says in his book, "The Precious Secret," that the disillusioned intellectuals never mention religion in their age of science except as one harks back to a nursery tale.

If this cynicism and indifference is to be overcome we will have to present our religion and philosophy of life in the same logical, reasonable way that science and other organizations present their views. We will have to know what we believe and stand up for it.

There is no room for vague terminologies in our age if the Church is to keep abreast of the times and win mankind to its way of life.

For example, how many can sit down and enter an intelligent conversation concerning the doctrines found in the New Testament besides saying in general that it is a doctrine of love? How many know the ordinances of the Church and what they stand for and their relationship to everyday living?

Brethren as well as other church denominations need to know more about what they profess to believe in.

Students will find the book "Studies In Doctrine and Devotion" by D. W. Kurtz, S. S. Blough and C. C. Ellis very helpful in the quest for more information along this line.

Tree To Make Good Souvenirs

Yellow pine souvenir projects are to be made from the old pine tree removed from the parking lot between Arnold Hall and Fahnestock Hall.

Fellows in the Farm Shop class trimmed up the old pine tree this week. It will be taken to a lumber yard in Lindsborg and sawed into lumber.

According to the boys working with the tree, it was fifty years old.

Presbies Favored Tonite By Five Touchdowns

College of Emporia's high-flying Presbies will take the field tonight against the dragging McPherson Bulldogs an overwhelming five touchdown favorite. C. of E. nudged de-emphasized William Jewell at Liberty, Mo., last week 20-14 as the Canines were snowed under 64-0 at Baker in the worst defeat in the history of the school.

The Presbies, whom Ray Hahn, Bethany skipper, calls championship class, have been greatly strengthened by the addition of three regulars from last year's squad that were previously not planned on. Eddie Hamada, all-conference guard in '48, tackle Bill Smith, and center Jack Ke-roon will be playing their first game for the Presbies this season to-night after abandoning previous plans to enter the University of Hawaii.

Thilman and Heckethorn Back In Shape

Injuries leave the Bulldogs lineup a question. Although Harry Heckethorn and co-captain Salty Thilman will be back in action after missing the Baker fracas, the status of Glen Pyle, Charlie Petefish, Ron Sullivan, and Don Stevens is in question. Stevens received a brain concussion in the Wildcat game, Sullivan an injured nose, and Petefish an aching arm of an old arm injury. Pyle missed most of last week's game after a head re-injury contacted in the Sterling contest. Coach Frosty Hardacre originally had fears that his best running back would be out for the season, but there are now hopes that he will see some action to-night.

If Pyle is unavailable then freshman Marlin Van Druff and Gene Arnold will probably do the fullbacking. Petefish and Kenny Newport will be at tailback.

Coach Murray Brown has lamented the loss of his first two quarterbacks, Dan Durand and Mac Terhune. Both were hurt in the September 23 game against Marysville, Mo., Teachers which C. of E. lost 21-0. Neither appeared in the victory against Wm. Jewell last week. However, both are expected to be back in play tonight. Durand does most of the Presbies' passing in the modified T offense.

C. of E. did not stir up an attack in their first game, but last week showed an improved ground game with halfback Jim Naughton and junior fullback Don Ek pacing the attack. The 210 pound Ek scored twice against William Jewell, and Naughton scored once on a 52 yards dance.

C. of E.'s weakness is apparently pass defense. In the 21-0 defeat to Marysville all scores were made by passing, and William Jewell scored twice in the first period on passes last week.

The linebacking at Baldwin was, too mimic an oft-repeated description, "stinking." George Holloway and freshman Howard Mehlinger have shown steady improvement at the job this week and will probably get the defensive call.

 Ottawa 6 Missouri Valley 20.
 Bethany brushed past their first hurdle for the Kansas Conference title as they bumped the Kansas Wesleyan Coyotes last Saturday 26-0. Sophomore Bill Carlson, brother of ex-Bethany stars Roy and Lawrence Carlson, was the big gun in the Swede triumphs. He caught a Howard Price aerial in the first quarter for the first center and also made an aerial on a 37-yard scamper as the climax of a 99 yard advance. All-Conference end Larry Bale scored the other touchdown on a pass from Bob Gerard and the other on a freak play in which he received a handoff from the Wesleyan quarterback.

The Swedes can clear the second of three big hurdles for the bunting this Saturday in the Bethany homecoming game against Baker. The Wildcats squashed McPherson 64-0 last week.

The third title aspirant, the defending champion Ottawa Braves, take on Wesleyan at Ottawa tonight as Wally Forsberg returns to his old stamping grounds. The Braves showed surprising strength as they held perennially powerful Missouri Valley to a 20-6 count at Kansas City's Blues Stadium last Thursday. Although Ottawa has the other touchdown on one of most of last season's regulars by graduation and transfer, the Braves still have 19 lettermen including backs Bob Musgrave and pile-driving Stan Hughes.

College of Emporia, a dark horse entry, took the measure of William Jewell at Liberty, Mo., last Friday 20-14. The Presbies play McPherson tonight.

Bethel, idle last week, meets Sterling tonight in the latter city in a battle that may be the tipoff on who will occupy the Kansas Conference basement.

Murdered Row

Biggest massacre since Quantrill took Lawrence occurred at Baldwin, Kas., last week as the Baker Wildcats punished the Bulldogs 64-0. Two Bulldogs who were not around at the finish were Don Stevens, center, who suffered a brain concussion and ended up in Lawrence Memorial Hospital, and Glen Pyle, left, who aggravated an old head injury early in the game. Pyle's future playing status is doubtful. Coach Frosty Hardacre, right, stayed around until the end of the game but probably suffered more than Stevens or Pyle.

Sports

Probably no athletic aggregation has ever stirred the imagination of this state's citizens as did George Henry Sauer's University of Kansas Jayhawks in 1946 and '47.

On paper there was no logic behind such an impression. In two years they lost three games, were tied two others. Except for Evans, a great player and a greater inspirational leader, the Jayhawks were just a collection of average, and less, players. They had no famous coach, inter-sectional schedule, or winning past.

In deed, if Kansas had been proselytizing football players as long as Nebraska, Missouri, or Oklahoma, it certainly didn't show in the records. For fifteen years the Jayhawks were the Casper Milquetoasts of the Big Six.

When George Sauer took over on Mt. Oread in '46, Jayhawk diehards foresaw a glowing season. Nothing pretentious, mind you, but two or three wins, better than par for the usual course.

Things appeared glowing as they racked Iowa State 24-8 and nearly beat Nebraska. Then it happened. Tulsa beat them, not by one touchdown or even two, but 56-0.

After such a spanking a team ordinarily will lie down and play dead. Not those Jayhawks. That 56-0 score was the making of a team that was to be the catchiest copy in the midwest for two seasons.

Each Saturday after that the Jayhawks would go into a game as an underdog and come out with a dazzling last minute victory. The formula finally fizzled out in the 1948 Orange Bowl, but those hell-for-leather Kansans led Miami as agog as the whole Missouri Valley had been.

What was behind those grid-iron Cinderellas? Ability? Probably not. But if that Jayhawk squad did not have the ability of Ray Evans, they all had a heart as big as Evans.

That is the secret behind great teams. It takes a lot of heart to bounce back from a lopsided defeat, be it 55-0 or 64-0. Those Jayhawks had it. I wonder if anybody else has.

October Is Month For Homecoming

McPherson College will have its homecoming October 28. Bethel will play the Bulldogs in the Friday night game.

Plans have been made for the queen's banquet on Thursday preceding homecoming day.

School will be dismissed at 12:10 p. m. on October 28 since the homecoming parade will be held Friday afternoon.

Prizes will be offered for the three best floats. Student Council urges all organizations on the campus to cooperate in making the parade a large one.

Homecoming events are being planned in many schools besides

McPherson during October.

Bethany College, Lindsborg, Kansas, is having its homecoming game with Baker University tomorrow night. The crowning of the homecoming queen is scheduled for 8:15 p. m., with the game at 9 p. m.

Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas, is planning its homecoming for Oct. 29.

Manchester College, a Church of the Brethren college in North Manchester, Indiana, will present a dramatization of Hartsell Spence's novel, "One Foot in Heaven," during its homecoming on October 15.

Bulldogs Humiliated 64-0

Baker University handed the McPherson College Bulldogs a humiliating 64-0 defeat at Baldwin, Kas., last Friday. It was the Bulldogs' 14th consecutive Kansas Conference defeat and the worst shallocking suffered by an athletic team in the history of the school.

Veteran backs Boyce Smith, Sherman Kolancy, and Rodney Enos led the scoring with two touchdowns apiece as the Wildcats scored with apparent ease.

Kolancy, a really great place-kicker, continued his extra point mastery. He got six besides a field goal to go along with his two six-pointers. Smith's second touchdown was from 85 yards out.

The Bulldogs never put together an offensive threat. They picked up 60 yards on the ground and completed but nine of 35 passes.
