NUMBER 27

BINFORD, COACH AT HUTCHINSON JUNIOR COLLEGE, TO SUCCEED GEORGE GARDNER AS COACH AT M. C.

Coming To McPherson With The Highest Recommendations As To Manhood And Coaching Ability—Has Brilliant College Athletic Career

MAJOR SPORTS ATHLETE

Coached Championship Basketball Team At Hutchinson This Year

Wed., March 26—Melvin J. Binford, coach of the Hutchinson Junior college, has been selected head coach and director of physical education at McPherson college to succeed George Gardner, who recently resigned.

Mr. Binford comes to McPherson very highly recommended by those who know him and who have been associated with him. He is a graduate of the Haviland, Kans., high school and during his senior year helped win the state track meet for high schools. Spending his first year in college at Friends university and changed colleges and received his B. S. degree in 1926 from the Pittsburg State Teachers college.

MELVIN J. BINFORD

Binford has a brilliant athletic career behind him. As a freshman at Friends university he won three letters, one in football, basketball, and track. As a senior his football team lost but two games and he was named by some critics as All-conference tackle. His basketball team again won conference honors and Binford was the unanimous selection for All-conference forward. The same year in track he placed second in the conference.

After leaving Pittsburg Mr. Binford taught and coached in the high schools and Junior college of Hutchinson. He started his coaching in the Hutchinson Junior high school, but was promoted from one position to another until now he is the coach in the Junior college of that city.

During the past year, Binford's basketball team won state championship among junior colleges, having won 17 out of 19 games. Football

EXPECT INCREASED NUMBER FOR HIGH SCHOOL FESTIVAL

Wed., March 26—McPherson college is expecting to be host to sixty high schools throughout central Kansas who will be represented at the sixth annual high school festival to be staged here April 26.

This annual event, designed to bring the high school students of the central portion of the state into closer touch with the college, serves as background for one of the largest of the elimination track and field meets, held in connection with the state meet early in May.

Last year there were 54 schools represented in the events with 600 athletes participating, and already this season, Dean R. E. Mohler, who is in charge of the festival, reports inquiries received from a number of schools not represented in past years, indicating an increased attendance this season.

In connection with the festival, a banquet is held in the evening for the seniors of the schools attending, at which the heads of the fine arts department furnish a program. Close to 500 guests are expected at this feature of the day's program.

TRACK SEASON TO OPEN THIS WEEK

Tues., Apr. 1—The Bulldog track season will open this week with the annual inter-class tournament held Friday afternoon. Coach Gardner issued his first formal call for track recruits yesterday afternoon. There is a large number of men who have been training for the past eight weeks.

Unusual with this year's inter-class meet is the fact that no restrictions are being placed on letter-men. The meet is open to all track and field athletes in the school regardless of their former accomplishments. From the entrants of this meet Gardner will select the team that is to carry the Bulldog colors in the season of 1930. The first intercollegiate track and field meet will be held April 11th at Sterling.

NININGER GIVES LECTURE AND FILMS IN CHAPEL

Tues., March 25—Prof. H. H. Nininger gave his first lecture on Mexico to the students of the College this evening in the chapel. Along with the lecture were shown five reels of moving picture films on the recent exploration and research tour into Mexico of Professor Nininger and Alex Richards. A large crowd of students and down town people attended the lecture.

LYMAN HOOVER VISITS THE McPHERSON CAMPUS

Thurs., Mar. 27—Mr. Lyman Hoover, regional secretary of Denver, visited the campus today. His purpose was to help the new cabinet members get started. He spent most of the day holding private interviews with them.

In the afternoon he met with the cabinets of the Y. M. and Y. W. in a joint meeting. He stressed the personal religious life of the cabinet members; he announced the spring officer's training conference to be held next week at Wichita. This is meant especially for new cabinet members. He also urged attendance at the Estes Park Conference in June.

Mr. Hoover seemed to be well pleased with the attitude of the members of both cabinets.

ALEX RICHARDS LECTURES IN NORTHERN KANSAS

Thurs., Mar. 27—Alex Richards left today for Dorrance, Kansas, where he will give a lecture this evening on Mexico and show the five reels of motion pictures that he and Prof. H. H. Nininger took last fall while touring the southern republic. Tomorrow night Mr. Richards will lecture at Covert, Kansas. He intends to go to Downs, Kansas, to search for meteorites.

STUDENTS PLAY IN FINE ARTS RECITAL MONDAY

Mon., March 24—A student recital was given this evening in the college chapel by the Fine Arts department. Those appearing in the recital were: Verna Weaver, Mildred Mitchell, Audrey Groves, Joyce Vester, Carl Engstrom, Herbert Eby, Lucille Crabb, Gladys Aspergren, Ruth Hawkins, Clara Fern Mast, Ellen Steinberg, Harriet Hopkins and Elizabeth Holzner.

McPHERSON LOSES TO BUILDER DEBATERS

Lose Decisions To Southwestern Team In Final Debate For State Honors

LOSE BOTH DECISIONS

Three Judges For Each Debate—M. C. Receives Half Point Margin Here

Sat., March 29—Decisions of six judges resulted in Southwestern college, Winfield, winning the state debate championship tonight in a contest for that honor with McPherson college. At both McPherson and Winfield the Southwestern debaters succeeded in winning two judges' decisions and McPherson one. That the competition was keen is indicated by the narrow point margin in each judge's ratings. Here the percentage totaled a half point margin for McPherson, while Southwestern emerged with a three point margin at Winfield.

Melvin B. Landes and Ward Williams, negative, met Blake Cochran and John Porter, Southwestern affirmative, in the college chapel this evening on the disarmament question. The visitors were warranted their victory due to superior presentation and delivery. Perhaps their best argument not successfully refuted dealt with the plan for mental disarmament.

Sun., March 30—The College Male and Women's Quartets, accompanied by Mrs. Anna C. Tate, instructor in voice, and Miss Margaret Shelley, violin teacher, this evening gave a musical concert at Lorraine.

The program consisted of anthems, sacred numbers by each quartet, vocal solos, and violin solos. The audience expressed a warm appreciation of the concert.

Before the entertainment the party was entertained at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steinberg, parents of Irene and Ellen Steinberg who are McPherson College students. The Steinbergs also served a luncheon to their guests after the concert.

STUDENT ELECTION IS ONE OF MOST INTERESTING ON THE McPHERSON CAMPUS FOR NUMBER OF YEARS

Lehman And Lindell Are Re-elected As President Of Student Council And Editor Of The Spectator For 1930-31

C. E. OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Sun., Mar. 30—The Christian Endeavor officers who were elected last Sunday evening were this evening officially installed in their respective positions. Besides the candle lighting ceremony, the program included a vocal solo, a reading, and a talk.

Edna Hoover, as leader, read for devotionals a psalm after which Lucille Crabb gave the reply to "The House By The Side of The Road".

Following a vocal solo by Blanch Harris, Velma Elaine Wine spoke on the history of the Christian Endeavor organization. Gilbert Myers, retiring president, then presented the charge to his successor, Grace Heckman, and lighted the candle she carried with his own. She in turn lighted the candles of each incoming officer. The meeting closed with the benediction.

THACKER ENGAGEMENT HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED

Sun., March 29—At a dinner given today by Miss Autumn Lindbloom at her home at 401 S. Maple, the engagement of Miss Irene Thacker, '28, to Mr. Marvin Steffen, '28, was announced to a group of former college friends of Miss Thacker.

Miss Thacker is in nurse's training in the St. Francis hospital in Wichita. Mr. Steffen is teaching in the Otis high school.

CHANGES IN SENIOR PLAY HAVE BEEN MADE

According to late reports practice on the senior production "John Ferguson" is progressing unusually well. As a result of a thorough rehearsal twice each week the play is gradually taking the form of what will be one of McPherson's greatest performances in this art.

It has recently been announced by Mr. Jack Oelrich, director of the production, that several changes have been made in the cast. Melvin Miller, who was cast for the role of Clute John, will be unable to take the time for the part. Mr. Holloway, president of the senior class, has been selected to fill this vacancy. Paul Bowers will take the role of the Postman vacated by Ruth Holloway and Mr. Ross Curtis will take the part formerly held by Bowers.

"M" CLUB BANQUET TO BE HELD APRIL 12

Thurs., March 29—A meeting of the "M" Club was held this afternoon, called by president Ray Nanken. It was decided that Saturday, April 12 was to be the date for the annual "M" Club banquet, to be given in the parlors of the Church of the Brethren. A farewell program is being contemplated in view of the resignation of Coach George D. Gardner.

LADIES CHEERLEADER TIE

Re-election For Ladies Cheerleader Called By President Of Student Council For Tuesday Morning

Mon., March 31—With a "land slide" for some, a "tie" and a re-election called for another and a complimentary vote for two others, the election of student officers for 1930-31 was completed today with the re-election of two students to the positions they are carrying this year.

John Lehman won over Otho Whitbeck, 111 to 37 for re-election as president of the student council. Blanche Pyle, senior next year, received 104 votes over her opponent, Vernon Fleming, 47, for treasurer of the student council.

For the second time in the last thirteen years the editor of the SPECTATOR has been re-elected. Leland Lindell won over Don Trostle 115 to 32. Orville Pote, the first to secure the editorship for two years, was editor from 1921 to 1923. Ernest Betts received a complimentary vote as business manager of the school paper, being unopposed.

Harry Zinn, unopposed for editor of the Quadrangle, received a complimentary vote. Mr. Zinn is a senior this year but will not have sufficient hours to graduate so will return next year and complete his work. The race for business manager of the Quadrangle was closer, with Posey Jamison winning 82 to 66 over his opponent, Vernon Gustafson.

The race for ladies cheerleader resulted in a tie, Florence Weaver receiving 74 votes and her opponent, Mildred Doyle the same number. This is the second time that such a tie has occurred in the cheerleader campaign. In the election of 1926-27, Alvin Moran and Harold Crist each received a vote of 81. Both were allowed to act as cheerleaders. A re-election has been called by the President

M. C. SECOND TEAM WIN OVER CENTRAL DEBATERS

Mar. 26—The McPherson college second team debaters received two decisions in their favor this evening in their debates with Central college. The McPherson affirmative team, composed of Kermit Hayes and Lillburn Gottman, won over the Central team here with a score of 89 to 85 1/2. The negative side of the question was upheld by Vivian Davis and Vern Kefferd. Supt. Alvin Yordy of Lohsig judged the debate here.

The affirmative team received favorable criticism in their aggressiveness, good stage presence, had something to say, rapid rebuttal, good refutation, and a clear brief.

Guy Hayes and William Grant upheld the laurels of McPherson college at Central in debating against Charles Pimmons and Austin Smart. Debate coach A. J. Graber of Bethel college, Newton, judged the contest. The McPherson team received a two point margin over their opponents.

PLANS ARE BEING MADE FOR BASEBALL SEASON

Sat., Mar. 29—Coach George Gardner announced this afternoon that definite plans were being made to develop a strong McPherson college baseball team this year. Definite plans are being formed in regard to the schedule. As many as five or six games will probably be scheduled for the season.

At present Gardner is corresponding with eight or ten different baseball clubs in regard to games, however no games have actually been contracted at present. Correspondence is being carried forward with St. Mary's College, Kansas Wesleyan University, Chillicothe Indians, Heaton Town, Conway Town, St. John, Southwestern College, Baker University, and St. Benedict's College. An effort is being made to play the Conway town team here at the city park on All Schools Day.

AW, IT'S APRIL FOOL, HA HA HA HA

If rights there should not be any writing here at all but a blank does not go with the plans of the make-up editor so of course there will not be any blank for me to say "April Fool" eh? It is a day when every one can be natural and furthermore get away with the same and no one can do anything about same. It is a relief to be a fool occasionally but once a year is enough to give anyone a fever.

There are lots of little tricks that some people play on other people to get a laugh out of people. You know what I mean of course. There is a pocket book lying on the sidewalk and you try to pick it up and low and behold it won't come up . . . evidently someone stuck it to the sidewalk with glue. And that feeling of embarrassment that one out of every five have is intensified to the extreme especially when a bunch of naughty boys bob up from behind a bush and say "April Fool" in their lingeringly shrill voices. You don't feel like loving your neighbor then. No, you want to sock him in the nose, but really one cannot go around socking people in the nose this season. It isn't being done.

Then if one of your girl friends tells you you have a hole in your stocking it is the one thing that will give a co-ed heebe-jeebies and you will have hysterics all over the lawn until she undulates in that liquid voice, "Oh, dearie don't get excited, it's only April Fool" and you feel like murder and wish blondes had never been invented. Or to be told you have a spot on your dress is as bad because you feel positively undressed and too your best beau might come along and he might think that you are not very neat which is the worst feeling a well-dressed coed could have.

Another trick that should be worthy of capital punishment is the delightful one of being offered some delicious candy . . . you bite into the luscious morsel only to be doubled up with the beautiful exercise of tasting red pepper in full force and you must sneeze for a week which is not a lucrative occupation to say the least. Besides it could make you sick. Oh, there are lots of possibilities.

More familiar tricks are those of calling up some nice girls over the telephone and pretending to make dates with them and getting their maidenly aspirations all roused up then of course fooling them. There are many others and more are invented every year. If some people would use as much ingenuity in making a living as in thinking up April Fool jokes there would be an over-supply of Rockefeller's and Morgans.

Yours 'til April Fool is a holiday in college.

BIG BUSINESS AND PROHIBITION

Prohibition, the most "burning issue" before the people of the United States today, is facing its greatest test. If it survives the present invasion of the Wets it is destined to remain intact permanently. If not, we are liable to see a burst of "ballyhoo" legislature and a tariffed congress for a period of five years or more accomplishing nothing. . . . but the old fashioned saloon system will never return to inflict its toll upon the people of the nation.

Why is it that the big metropolitan newspapers and some of the leading magazines of the country are profoundly Wet? It is because Big Business is back of them. It is because Big Business piles into the alcoholic entertainments for the purpose of bringing trade their way.

A nation cannot stand half Dry and half Wet. America took the lead in the freedom of the slaves, why can't it take the lead in freeing the world of the alcoholic peril. Prohibition can work and is working. Big Business is shunning its enforcement for their own selfish reasons. It is they, Big Business is back of them. It is because Big Business piles into the alcoholic and they will be conquered last because of the hold they have secured upon the daily press.

To Big Business prohibition is a failure because it has not brought to them the added dividends it was promised. But does Big Business see the home of the average American citizen as it is today? Do they realize that in the days before prohibition homes were wrecked overnight as a result of booze and poverty and suffering brought to thousands upon thousands of the working class. What has prohibition done? It has taken the flask from the hands of the defenseless worker and added the expense of such a so-called luxury to his wage. Is prohibition, working? Yes.

ATHLETICS AT ANTIOCH COLLEGE

Antioch makes no concession to commercialized sports. It has ignored warnings that winning teams are necessary to enrollment. The new gymnasium has no provision for spectators. Intercollegiate football has been discontinued, though other "varsity" sports remain. Athletics thrive at Antioch. Most students take part in intramural sports. Fencing, boxing, archery, tennis, and hiking compete with standard games. Athletics is a moderate interest for most students, a dominant interest for very few. To bring proportion into education, we must consider athletics. Overemphasis and commercialism are no small evils. Secret subsidizing of players is poor training in ethics. Clean play must still leave undue emphasis. Antioch finds it does not suffer from putting athletics into its proper place.—Antioch Notes, Selected from Survey Magazine.

The college athlete and even those who are merely the spectators have a sense of competition that cannot be so strong among teams in their own institution as it would be between rival schools. To do away with competition would be like subsidizing all activities. Man will always possess a desire for competition and such competition among colleges and universities as a whole will live and become a clean and honorable means of manhood as long as athletics are kept on a par with education.

If ever athletics should reach the level of education and would reach still farther, as a few radical educationists have suggested that it might, a college would be recognized by its athletic fields and gymnasiums. But when kept in the bounds of reasonable adjustment to meet the situations arising in each institution athletics will have a valuable place in the educational curriculum of the colleges of America. But if a condition should arise that all athletics would be subsidized and rivalry between schools abolished, or the point reached where amateur athletics are commercialized then the value of sports will become valueless to the American boy and girl.

WOMEN ATHLETES HOLD THEIR ANNUAL BANQUET

Fri., March 28.—With Doris Ballist officiating as captain of the S. S. Olympic, the theme carried out in the program and decorations of the W. A. A. banquet held in the college church basement this evening was that of "ships". Thirty-five members and forty guests were present.

At seven o'clock the members of the party in formal dress assembled in the basement of the college church and found their places at the tables on which miniature red boats were the nut cups and place cards, and a larger boat served as centerpiece. The room was decorated to represent the deck of a ship.

During the three course banquet consisting of pineapple cocktail, butterfly salad, creamed chicken in timbals, escalloped potatoes, green beans, radishes, rolls, coffee, strawberry trappe, angel food cake, and nuts a five-piece orchestra provided music.

After the dinner Miss Ballard called, "Ship Ahoy!" and the boat started on its pleasure voyage. After an instrumental trio number by Una Morine, Max Conner, and George Gillson, Ray Nonken spoke on "Life Boats" comparing them to the athletics in a college. Attilia Anderson then gave a planologue following which Ebel Jamison talked on the subject "Anchors" . . . the weightiest topic of the evening. This was followed by a vocal solo "Love Ship" by Sylvia Edgecomb. Mildred Swenson gave a talk "All Ashore" and the program concluded with the group singing the college song.

The W. A. A. banquet is the greatest of the organization's social functions of the year. Those present expressed their enjoyment of a pleasant and interesting evening.

S. Lawrence Barnhart, '28, who is now teaching in the high school at Elk City, Oklahoma, was a guest on the Hill last week end.

SPECulations

After seeing "The Taming of the Shrew", we realize why Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks were selected to play the parts. Oh! What a shrew Mary must be.

One of the English teachers had intended on going to Kansas City Friday night. Her train was scheduled for 12:30 so to get some rest she set her alarm clock at 12:00 and went to sleep. Before going to sleep she called a taxi to come at 12:00. Twelve o'clock came and the alarm clock went off with a "Bang" but it seemed to have no effects upon the slumbers of the English teacher. The taxi came and sounded an alarm with his horn but to no avail. The said English teacher awoke at 12:30 and the first sound to reach her ear was the sound of the train leaving town. She spent the week end with a relative in a nearby town.

AGAIN CUPID'S BOW IS TURNED IN THE DIRECTION OF MATRIMONY, ANOTHER COLLEGE ROMANCE CLIMAXED

Jessie Churchill And Irvin Rump Are To Be Married Saturday Afternoon At The Churchill Home In Rocky Ford, Colorado

Once more Cupid has drawn his bow and another college romance has reached its climax and the arrow of love is winding its way in that fatal journey to matrimony.

Saturday afternoon, April 5, a solemn little minister will solemnize a quiet little wedding in a solemn little city in the West. That life-long knot of matrimony will be tied in the Colorado city of Rocky Ford and the principles of the occasion will be Miss Jessie Churchill and Irvin Rump, known to his closest friends as "Rosie".

MISS JESSIE CHURCHILL

Miss Churchill has been a very active personage on the McPherson campus. After being graduated from the Rocky Ford high school in the spring of 1925, Miss Churchill entered McPherson college in the fall of the same year as a freshman. She at once was given a position in the business office which she held until leaving last Saturday evening for her home town.

Five years a member of the W. A. A. and the Y. W. C. A., of which two years of the Y. W. were active for Miss Churchill. Not only was she one of the organizers of the Christian Endeavor in McPherson county, the Christian Endeavor in the second year of its existence acting as president, and later as sponsor and adviser. Miss Churchill has also held state offices in the C. E. organization.

Last Wednesday evening the bride-to-be's roommate, Velma Wine, also a Rocky Ford girl, gave an informal party in her room for the purpose of announcing the approaching wedding. Gathered in the room in an informal manner were Bernice McCrellan, Doris Ballard, Blanch Pyle, Ruth Mickenstaff, Ida Lengel, Irene Gibson, Mildred Swenson and Helen Hubson.

Friday night, the night before Miss Churchill was to leave for her home in the west, the "third floor gang" in Arnold Hall presented a mock wedding in anticipation of her marriage. Suggestions were offered, questions asked, and imaginary pictures painted of her future. The third floor girls presented Miss Churchill with a two piece silverware set, after which light refreshments were served.

The marriage will take place at the Churchill home in Rocky Ford Saturday afternoon after which the two newlyweds will spend a short honeymoon in the Frantz cabin near Green Mountain Falls, Colorado.

Mr. Rump is employed by Roy Frantz, graduate of the class of '29, who is in the chicken hatchery business at Rocky Ford. If present plans of the two materialize Mr. Rump will return to McPherson next fall to continue his work and secure his degree.

Mr. Rump was a Junior this year when he left for the west at the end of the first semester.

The students of McPherson college go hand in hand in wishing the couple the best of health, wealth, and happiness in their future life.

The judges were Supt. Heflinger of Hillsboro; E. A. Leach, debate coach at Baker university; W. A. Johnson, K. S. T. C., Emporia. Prof. B. Blair acted as chairman.

With superstition against them because of running over a "black cat" on the way to Winfield, debate coach Maurice A. Hess accompanied John Lehman and Otho Whiteneck, McPherson affirmative, to Winfield where they met the Southwestern negative team, the members of which were two women. The negative speakers there boldly attacked the affirmative case and were good speakers. Lehman and Whiteneck debated in their usual clear, fluent, and forceful manner and presented well substantiated arguments which showed preparation, co-operation, and knowledge of the subject matter.

NEW COLLEGE MOVEMENT IS STARTED AT CHICAGO

Sat., March 22—Dr. V. F. Schwalm, president of McPherson college, returned from Chicago today where he attended a conference of representatives of the college of liberal arts in the United States and also a meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the United States. Both conferences were held in Stevens Hotel, March 18-20.

The liberal arts movement was started by Albert Ward of Western Maryland college to try to create interest in behalf of the small liberal arts colleges and to encourage support of those institutions.

After considerable deliberation they formed an organization to be known as the Liberal Arts College Movement which is to create sentiment favorable to the liberal arts college and to co-operate with local colleges in raising funds for such institutions. A committee of fifteen was appointed to make more detailed plans and to report next January at Indianapolis in connection with the annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges.

The meeting generated vigorous enthusiasm from many parts of the United States. There were 277 colleges represented from all denominations including both Catholic and Protestant.

The speakers included Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior; John Finley of the New York Times; Robert L. Kelley of New York and many other speakers of note.

Another educational conference was in session during the same period, that of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in the largest standardizing agency in the United States and is doing a great deal to improve colleges in every way. Just now they are making a drive to standardize the athletics of the colleges, as well as to insist upon high standards in every other phase of work.

This conference brought together hundreds of leaders of colleges and secondary schools of America. Nineteen institutions of higher learning of Kansas were represented in these meetings.

The educational board of the Church of the Brethren also had a short meeting, drawing up resolutions of appreciation of the work of Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh in the field of higher education. Other matters of business were also considered by this group.

STUDENT ELECTION IS MOST INTERESTING IN YEARS

5000-kilowatt turbine generator installed in 1924 at the 10th Street station of the Commonwealth Edison Company, Chicago.

When Small Machines Were Big

MORE than a quarter century ago, the Commonwealth Edison Company, prophetically alive to the immense possibilities of the future, ordered from General Electric a 5000-kilowatt steam turbine—in those days a giant of electric power.

To-day, a General Electric turbine-generator of 208,000-kilowatt capacity sends out its vast energy to the Chicago Metropolitan District.

College-trained men played a responsible part in the engineering and manufacture of both machines—just as they serve in important capacities in the engineering, production, and distribution of all General Electric equipment, large or small.

THE DOPE BUCKET

By the Sport Editor

Coach Gardner announces somewhat of a variety of spring sports for McPherson College yet this spring. With the two major sports, football and basketball, out of the way and rather successfully handled, an effort will be made to put out a state championship track team. This team will be whipped into action against Sterling next Friday. Golf and tennis and baseball will also occupy the immediate attention of Bulldog athletes.

As has been mentioned several times before in this issue, the Bulldogs will open their track season against Sterling on April 11th. The first at-home meet has tentatively been planned for April 15th against Kansas Wesleyan. A dual meet is scheduled here with St. Mary's for April 25th which will bring with it also tennis and golf matches. The Fall dogs will enter the Pentangular meet at Lindshore on May 1st. Incidentally, the Bulldogs won that particular meet in 1929. The Kansas conference meet will be held at St. Mary's this year on May 10th. The Bulldogs took second place in it last year.

In a short time an All School tennis tournament will be staged and a varsity team will be selected. Games will likely be played with the usual Bulldog opponents, namely, Bethany, Kansas Wesleyan and St. Mary's.

We have not won a state championship yet this year and there are not many things left to win one in, but the Bulldog determination assures one that the tradition of winning will not be broken this year.

BLINFORD TO SUCCEED GARDNER AS COACH

was organized last fall in the Junior college and with a green team won fifty percent of his games. His track team placed second in the state last year. In previous coaching experience in football, Blinford lost but two games out of fourteen in two years. Mr. Blinford received his training largely at the hands of Coach C. W. Weede and John F. Lance at Pittsburg. Those men speak in highest terms of Mr. Blinford as an athlete and as a man. They say he was an "outstanding athlete in all major sports as well as an honor student". Weede says, "Mr. Blinford is one of the finest characters I know. He is married to an equally fine girl and both will work into any extra-curricular work you may want them to do."

The new coach is a leader among young men and experience has shown that they follow his leadership. Professor Woodward of the Hutchinson Junior college says of him, "I have known many coaches but never a cleaner one, never a better big brother for the boys than Blinford. I would be happy to have him train my boy."

"He is a fine clean Christian gentleman (born a Quaker) who wins and keeps the respect of his boys and of people generally. You can always bank on him to do the right thing in the right way. . . . He is quiet, straight-from-the-shoulder, efficient."

WALKER ENTERTAINS QUADRANGLE STAFF

March 27—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Walker, photographers for the 1930 Quadrangle, entertained a group of college students tonight, including the members of the Quadrangle staff, in their studio at six o'clock. A three course dinner was served to the staff seated around quartet tables.

Following the dinner the group was led by the host, Mr. Walker, in a line party to the Tournay theatre, where they enjoyed the famous comedy of Shakespeare's pen, "The Taming of the Shrew".

Immediately following the movie the party returned to the studio where games of rook occupied their chief attention until the midnight hour. Miss Chester Carter and Guy Hayes received the high honors while Christine Mohler and Charles Mattox contented themselves with consolation prizes.

McPherson college students present were: Misses Ethel Shery, Beth Hess, Tillie Heidebrecht, Ruth Turner, Chester Carter, Irene Gibson, Marjorie Bunce and Christine Mohler, and the Messrs. Glenn Harris, Emery Metzger, Guy Hayes, Charles Mattox, Paul Bowers, Clinton Trosile, Wray Whiteneck, and Harry Zinn.
