SPECTATOR STAFF AND GUESTS DINE ON THE ROOF GARDEN OF NEW HOTEL HAWLEY

Theme Is Carried Out Of The Original Spectator In An Old English Coffee Shop—Four Course Banquet Is Served

THIRTY-EIGHT PRESENT

Toasts Reflect Life And Work Of Editors Of The First English Spectator

By Alberta Yoder

Sat., May 10—Thirty-eight were present, including staff members and their guests, at the annual SPECTATOR banquet of McPherson college, held this evening on the Roof Garden of the new Hotel Hawley.

The decorations, programs, and favors carried out the idea of an English Coffee Shop as when the original Spectator of the seventeenth century was being published in so great numbers. The nut cups were small ink wells upon which was the inscription "SPECTATOR". Some of the speakers names were closely associated as contributors with the names of prominent literary men of the original Spectator.

During the four-course banquet, which was served by four college students, Helen Eberly played the piano. The menu consisted of the following:

Grapefruit cocktail, Mixed olives, Fillette of Mignon, Mushroom sauce, Hashed brown potato; Peas in cases, Mixed vegetable salad, Neapolitan ice cream, Cake, Coffee, Mints.

As master of ceremonies, "Peppy" Lindell, editor of the SPECTATOR, directed the program, which consisted of a reading, a violin solo, and clever talks of a journalistic nature arranged as follows:

Master of ceremonies—"Peppy" Lindell, James Boswell Myers—Bull-Dog-Max, "Springtime is la Carte"—Miss Bernice McClellan, Joseph Addison Watkins—As in Business, Richard Steele Swenson—The Associator, Massenet's Elegy from "The Brynnales"—Herbert Eby, Samuel Johnson Metzger—The Sporting Johnson, William Shakespeare Hoover—If William Contributed.

Those present were: Ruby Newfield, Lindsborg; Chester Carter; Velma Wine; Floy Brown, Ellinwood; Bernice McClellan; Doris Ballard; Mildred Swenson; Helen Hudson; Mrs. Maurice A. Hess; Verna Weaver; Ruth Trostle; Beth Hess; Louise Allen; Alberta Yoder; Christine Mohler; Nellie Collins; Eunice Almont; Ethel Early; Esther Brown; Ethel Sherry; Mary Wedder; Odessa Crist; and Milton Early; Gilbert Myers; Emery Metzger; Leland Lindell; Glen Harris; Fred Andrews; Donald Trostle; Prof. Maurice A. Hess; Carroll Walker; Ernest Watkins; Guy Hayes; Murlin Hoover; Gerbert Eby; Paul Sherry; Vernon Rhoades; and Dale Strickler.

S. S. CLASS TAKEN ON A HIKE FOR A BREAKFAST

Sun., May 11—A long wild-goose chase, followed this morning by a bountiful breakfast, was the reward received by the college boys' Sunday school class for winning a recent attendance contest from the girls' class.

After an extensive trailing hike the boys located the girls' party near the campus, and on account of damp weather they were brought back to the gymnasium for their picnic breakfast. Afterward Sunday school class was held in the Y. W. C. A. room, taught by Dean R. E. Mohler.

ESTHER DAHLINGER TO GIVE DEGREE RECITAL

To Be Assisted By Hopkins And Lindblom

Miss Esther Dahlinger will give her degree recital in voice Friday night, May 16 at eight o'clock p. m. at the Methodist church. Miss Dahlinger will be assisted by Miss Fern Lingenfelter who will play several numbers on the organ preceding the recital. Miss Harriet Hopkins accompanist and Miss Autumn Lindblom will play a violin obligato for Miss Dahlinger. The public is cordially invited to this recital.

MRS. BOONE SPEAKS ON CHRISTIAN LIFE

Is One Of Development And Service Says Speaker

Tue., May 6—"The Christian life is one of development and service," stated Mrs. G. N. Boone in opening her talk on "The Christian Like" before the Y. M. C. A. this morning. Our responsibility is so much greater when we have been reared in a Christian home and community. The spiritual life is a prayer guided life.

In order to have true happiness one must share the Christian experience. A life of service is a beautiful thing and there are many opportunities for service. Foodick says, "When we give our effort and skill in the service of others—we have more power and skill left because of having done that service."

The devotional period of the meeting was directed by Bernice McClellan. As a basis for the Christian life she read passages from Christ's Sermon on the Mount.

SPECIAL PRICE OF $1.00 IS MADE FOR SPECTATOR

Get Subscriptions From Ernest Betts For Next Year

A special price of $1.00 is being offered all graduating seniors and alumnus of the college for the 1930-31 subscription to the Spectator. Due to an error in the Spectator for May 6, no special offer was made in regards to seniors and alumnus. Seniors and alumnus are being urged to secure their next year's subscription now so as not to miss the first number next fall. Make arrangements with Ernest Betts, business manager for subscriptions.

MR. ENNIS TELLS HIS MISSIONARY EXPERIENCES

Worked In The Field In Belgian Congo Near The Equator

Tuesday, May 6—Mr. Ennis, at present a student here, and a former missionary to Africa spoke in Y. M. today about his work there. He worked in the Belgian Congo 6 degrees south of the Equator.

The natives are very superstitious. For example they take the body of a deceased person out of a house by tearing a hole in the wall. Evil spirits would find the way in if he were to be taken through the door.

There are 200 natives at the particular station in which Mr. Ennis works. These are taught and the more promising one are to be trained for leadership among their people. They do very effective evangelistic work.

It has often been asked whether the natives are capable of developing into leaders. The answer was affirmative as shown by several examples given by Mr. Ennis of native men who were very active and capable leaders.

NININGERS' METEORITE DISPLAYED DOWNTOWN

Offers To Purchase Huge Meteorite Coming To McPherson Professor

IS SECURED BY OPTION

Largest Stony Type Yet To Be Found In The World

The stony meteorite recently recovered by Prof. H. H. Nininger and at present on display in the McPherson Citizens State Bank in this city is the largest stony meteorite known in the world. It is, moreover, the largest meteorite of any variety ever found to fall which was recovered. When found it had buried itself about nine feet in soft Arkansas clay and left a hole fully eight feet across.

Professor Nininger states that this specimen belongs to one of the rarer groups of meteorites and is not a fragment but a complete meteorite. The fall occurred February 17 and soon after that Professor Nininger went to that vicinity and brought back some fragments. About a week later this huge specimen was found. Professor Nininger was able to secure the meteorite only because he had an option on it by virtue of being the first man on the ground after the fall.

Offers have already come from various museums over the country asking an opportunity to buy the meteorite. Professor Nininger says he will keep the meteorite for a while but later may place it in some museum, but at present cannot make any definite statement concerning its disposal.

MODERN PIED PIPER VISITS McPHERSON

Seniors Go To Extremes In Staging Annual Kid-Iday Chapel Program

Fri., May 9—One was tempted to believe this morning that the Pied Piper of Hamelin had brought his horde of children to McPherson college. Bars, feet, hair ribbons, blackened eyes, cut fingers, dolls, horns, drums, all-day suckers, and whistles were to be seen in abundance. Nor was it the meek and lowly freshman who thus reverted "back to nature" but the lofty, high-and-all-mighty, dignified, soon-to-be-worldly-wise seniors who satisfied the fondest cravings of their hearts by being children again. All extremes of tidiness and untidiness appeared, but we doubt if any of the mothers would have recognized their children.

The chapel program was in charge of the seniors and resembled the Friday afternoon speaking contests of "ye olden time".

THIS SOCIAL WHICH

People say school is a place to study but the last few weeks have made that statement seem as unreliable as stocks of Wall Street. The study hours must be sandwiched in between banquets, dinners, announcement parties, senior kid day, May day festival, and other local affairs to say nothing of play practice and shows and the sandwich filling is very thin to say the least.

Students raise a wall that we need sororities and fraternities to make the social sag a success, yet Lord Bless you all, what is needed is to save up all the dinners and social functions until the last three weeks of school and then turn them loose on an unsuspecting campus and we have a taste for three weeks of ordinary every day social university life. The only difference is that we get it in one large dose and they have it on tap constantly.

Of course it's lots of fun and the only things that suffer are last minute term papers and tests but then they are only little things in the life of college students. Dinners serve some sand to humanity for one may observe quite nicely how well the power of suggestion

"MERTON OF THE MOVIES" CLEVER COMEDY OF HOLLYWOOD, IN COMMUNITY BUILDING TOMORROW

Play By Kaufman And Connelly Is One Of The Cleverest Comedies Ever To Be Presented By Students Of McPherson College

IS A STORY OF THE MOVIES

County Graduates Admitted Free Others, 50 And 55 Cents

"Merton of the Movies" by George Kaufman and Marc Connelly will be presented tomorrow night in the Community building at 8:15 as the last and feature event of the McPherson county May Day and All-Schools Day. This very clever comedy is under the personal direction of Mrs. Gates and the cast is composed of very able talent that is certain to win the applause of the county graduates and students of the College. Prices for the play will be 50 and 55 cents.

The play is a satire on the movies, telling the story of a clerk in a store in a country town who went to Hollywood with the hope of becoming a motion picture actor, only to have his ideal actor fall before his eyes.

Merton Gill, a young clerk who idealizes the firms and movie people and goes to Hollywood to gove the best that is in him to the public, is being played by Blanch Harris and playing opposite him is Miss Bernice McClellan, playing the part of Montecarlo Girl "Flips." Merton's pal and severest critic.

Lawrence Hargrover as Amos G. Goshwiler is the proprietor of the country store and "Aki" the movies. Leslie Kearns, Irene Gibson, is the milliner in the little town of Stamburg who is studying to be a scenario writer. John Darrah, carrying the part of Elmer Huff, Merton's friend who tries to get him to give up the movies, and Jeff Bateh, in the person of Moses Stucky, the Buckeye Comedy King of Hollywood.

Other characters are Weller, Dwight Newberg, and the camera man, Ralph Johnston, utility men on the lot, Walberg, an agent for the Bigart Film Co., is being played by Philip Lauer, Max Conner is carrying the part of Sigmund Rosenblatt, the hardboiled movie director. Deulah Baxter, the beautiful woman of Hollywood and Merton's "wonder woman of the silver screen," is Beth Hess. The person who gets the jobs

LITTLE THEATRE NIGHT TO BE WEDNESDAY, MAY 21

Plans for the Little-Theatre night are progressing rapidly. The date has been set for Wednesday, May 21. The three plays will be given by the dramatic art class in the chapel. Scenery is being made to use with that already available. A float for the All-Schools day parade advertising the event is being prepared.

W. A. A. IN COUNTY PARADE TOMORROW

Mon., May 5—The Women's Athletic Association will be represented in the May Day parade May 14, but the organization for financial reasons will not enter a float in the competition.

At their regular bi-weekly meeting this evening the members of the association voted to enter a car instead of a float in the parade. Thel Jamison, president, appointed Mildred High to make arrangements for the car and for its decoration.

SPECIAL MUSIC IS FEATURED IN CHAPEL

Pascal Davis Shows Great Talent In Cornet Solo

Wed., May 7—Special music was the feature of chapel this morning. Blanch Harris sang "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," and "I Dunno". Pascal Davis, McPherson high school student, played a cornet solo. Mr. Davis is a musician of unusual talent and skill. He has taken first place in state contests and at Bethany colleges.

CHAPEL DISCUSSION OF RELIGION AND SCIENCE

Dr. Hershey Demonstrates Modern Known Miracles Of Science

Mon., May 5—Dr. J. Willard Hershey, head of the chemistry department, spoke in chapel this morning, discussing the relation of religion and science. In his opinion the church should furnish society the dynamo of the spirit of brotherly love, altruism, and service. It should endeavor to eliminate the spirit of greed and self-seeking. He thinks there is no conflict between true science and true religion, but rather between people with prejudices and unscientific principles. In closing he said, "Science without religion may become a curse; religion without science will become dogmatism." Dr. Hershey also demonstrated a number of miracles known to science.

COLLEGE REPRESENTED IN PARADE TOMORROW

Freshmen And Seniors To Enter Floats In May Day Parade

McPherson College is to be well represented by floats from the various departments of the school in the parade on All School's Day. The freshman class, the senior class, the W. A. A., and the library have signified their intention of entering floats. The industrial education and home economics departments are co-operating to make one.

Three others have not decided definitely but will probably enter floats. They are the Y. M. C. A. and the Y.

STEINBERG GIVES HER GRADUATION RECITAL

Was Assisted By Mildred Swenson And Harriet Hopkins

Mon., May 5—This evening at eight o'clock the college chapel was the scene of a diploma recital when Miss Irene Steinberg, contralto, presented her graduation voice recital which brought high praise from those in attendance. She was ably assisted by Miss Mildred Swenson, reader, and by Miss Harriet Hopkins, accompanist.

Miss Steinberg sang "My Heart is Thy Sweet Voice" from Samson and Dalila by Saint Saens; "He Was Deceived" from Messiah by Handel; "Il Mio Bel Foco" by Marcello; "Die Hist die Rue" and "Die Forelle" by Schubert; "Come to the Fair" by Martin; "Pirate Dreams" by Huertner; "We Two" by Kramer; and "May Morning" by Dezza.

"The Nightingale and the Rose" by O. Wilde was the reading given by Miss Swenson. Besides accompanying Miss Steinberg in her vocal recitations, Miss Hopkins played a piano solo, "Impromptu", by Schubert.

Miss Steinberg is a student under Mrs. Anna C. Tate, head of the voice department of the College.

WOMEN CAN GO TO SCHOOL CHEAPER THAN MEN

During the past year a survey has been conducted by the SPECTATOR to determine the amount of money that is required by both men and women to go to McPherson college one year. The survey covers twenty junior and senior girls who have in their two previous years learned the amount of money they require.

The survey brought out the fact that a girl can go through school on nearly a hundred dollars less than a boy, however, it is generally understood that a girl can attend school cheaper than a boy. For the girl board and room and tuition consume most of the required amount. The next greatest item of expense is clothing. Ten questions were asked and the results after tabulation are as follows:

QUESTION NO. 1.—"How much does it cost you to attend McPherson college for one school year?" The group of twenty girls averaged $549.71, compared to the $622.70 required by the men. The highest total was $845.00 and the lowest was $300.00. The girl with the lowest total was not making any of her way and her tuition was the greatest cost, she spent 15% for clothing and 25% for luxuries. The girl with the highest average was making 7% of her expenses and spent 7% for luxuries and 14% for clothing.

QUESTION NO. 2.—"What percent goes for tuition?" This question brought an average of 27.7%. The highest average was 50% (spent by the girl spending a total of $300) and the lowest was 18%.

QUESTION NO. 3.—"What percent goes for activities?" (This includes class dues, club dues, etc.). Activities averaged 8.8%. The lowest being 2% and the highest 25%.

QUESTION NO. 4.—"What percent do you spend for luxuries?" The average for luxuries was 10.7%, compared to the 8.29% for the men. The highest average was 25% and the lowest was 2%.

QUESTION NO. 5.—"Are you making your own way through school, and if so what percent?" Of the twenty girls surveyed only four were not helping their selves in any way. The average for the group was 26.2%. The highest percentage was of the girl who spent as her total $600, who was making 90% of her expenses. The average for the men was 62.7%.

QUESTION NO. 6.—"If you work during the school year what percent of your expenses do you earn?" The average for the men was 32.24% while the girls could only earn on an average 5.57% of their total expenses during the school year.

QUESTION NO. 7.—"What percent do you spend for board and room?" Because some of the girls were working for their board and room this average was low and was only 28% while the average for the men for this same question was 40.35%.

QUESTION NO. 8.—"What item of expense is the greatest?" Because some were working for their board and room this question resulted in a three to one basis, fifteen saying that board and room was the highest while the other five signified that tuition was the highest.

QUESTION NO. 9.—"What percent do you spend for clothing during the school year?" It may be that girls clothes do not cost as much as men's for the average for the twenty was 16.5% of their total expense.

QUESTION NO. 10.—"How many hours work are you taking this semester?" In this question there wasn't much difference between the men and the women, however the men averaged 17 hours and the girls averaged 16.5 hours for this semester.

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR PRACTICE TEACHING

City Schools To Be Open For Student Teachers

Beginning next year all students who wish to secure a teaching certificate will be required to take one semester of practice teaching. An agreement has recently been made whereby this course may be pursued in connection with the city schools of McPherson.

Each student will be assigned a room and a teacher down town and for a semester will observe, and finally take charge of the work in that room. All teaching will be done under the supervision of the regular teacher who criticizes and advises the student teacher.

Students enrolling in this course will pay a small laboratory fee and the College will subsidize those teachers in the city schools who are selected as critic-teachers. A director of practice teaching will be employed by the College who will have general charge of the practice teaching department. His duty will be to meet the students and critic teachers in an effort to make the work of the department more effective.

The complete arrangements have not yet been completed and a director of practice teaching has not yet been employed, but the course will be open to students next fall.

Alma Rodabaugh, Avis Wattenbarger and Thelma Seitz were the guests at the Seitz home near Leland Saturday and Sunday.

HECKETHORN ATTENDS LIBRARIANS MEETING

More Books Are Still Coming Into Library Although The 10,000 Goal Is Passed

Tuesday, May 13—The library of McPherson College is a live institution. The librarian, Miss Heckethorn, is constantly learning new methods of improving her work. Last Thursday she attended the southwest district meeting of the Kansas Library Association at Newton. There were about forty librarians present including five college librarians. They had a library round-table and visited the Bethel College Library.

Another proof that the library is active is that it has been adding new books by purchase even though the 10,000 mark has been passed. A list of new books follows: "How to Turn People Into Gold"—Kenneth M. Goode; "Salesmanship"—Ferrell and Collins; "Economic Geography of South America"—R. H. Whitbee; "On the Trail of Ancient Man"—Roy Chapman Andrews; "500 Answers to Sales Objections"—Ray Giles; "Man Versus Microbes"—Nicholas Kopeloff; "The Advertising Parade"—Robert Hunt; "Electron Physics"—J. Barton Hoag; "The Teaching of Mathematics in Secondary Schools"—Ernest R. Brelich; "New Frontiers of Physics"—Paul R. Hertz; "Essentials of Urology"—Herbert East; "Problems in Woodwork"—Edward F. Worst; "Course in Woodturning"—Milton and Wehlers; "Handwork for Boys"—F. Clarkster Carter, Ruth Bickelstaff, Mildred Swenson, Hoyt Strickler, Mur-

NEW THESPIAN CLUB MEMBERS ARE INITIATED

Ten New Members Are Conducted Through Ceremony of Initiation

Fri., May 9—At the annual banquet of the Thespian club this evening in the parlors of the college church, ten new members were initiated into the organization. Hoyt Strickler, assisted by John Lehman, officiated at the ceremony.

Preceding the six o'clock dinner each candidate received a slip of paper bearing the name of a subject on which he was to talk when called upon. Between courses these talks caused much merriment and were accepted as admirably fulfilling the initial requirements of membership. Harold Crist demonstrated his ability to tell stories to children, Otho Whiteneck gave a sample of his vocal talent. Philip Lauer expounded at length upon the Darwinian theory from the standpoint of selection, heredity, and the survival of the fittest. Mildred Doyle expressed her opinion of the merits and demerits of companionate marriage and Verle Ohmart discussed blondes and brunettes. Edmar Kjera gave four reasons for his pursuing a certain course under the instruction of the fair namesake of the founder of John Hopkins university.

Ethel Sherry recounted her most embarrassing moment and Helen Hudson described her ideal man. Doris Ballard discussed the principles of breathing exercises in public speaking and gave a demonstration of the same and Guy Hayes presented a watertight sales talk on non-rustable, Armstrong safety-pins.

After the meal the candidates were escorted from the room and brought back singly for the remainder of the initiation program. Before the main operation each was asked to give personal information concerning his or her age, weight, height, and health, and each item was checked for correctness. The executors then brought a gas blow torch and a red hot branding iron, blindfolded the victim and applied the brand. The men, in addition to the punishment meted to the feminine candidates, were required to extract shots from a ten gallon jar of water and received a "spat" for every shot they did not retrieve within the given length of time.

Those initiated were: Doris Ballard, Helen Hudson, Ethel Sherry, Mildred Doyle, Harold Crist, Edmar Kjera, Otho Whiteneck, Philip Lauer, Guy Hayes, and Verle Ohmart. The other members present were: Mrs. Lawrence Gates, Della Lehman, Bernice McClellan, Beth Hess, Chester Hoover, Leland Lindell, and John Lehman.

In Hoover, Leland Lindell, and John Lehman.

SPECulations

During the senior "Kid Chapel" the other day we noticed the jurors were sitting on the front seats. Ah! We can just imagine what was brewing in their intellectual minds—just wait until next spring.

Studying in the library at night is like taking setting-up exercises. No wonder one can't study when fighting June bugs and other creeping reptiles.

It was certainly a good thing the grass was tall the other day or Curtis wouldn't have made his home-run. Such runs might be called "hay seed" runs.

IN SOCIETY

ANNOUNCEMENT

Sat., May 10—Room 8 in Arnold Hall was the scene tonight of another announcement party, that of Miss Bernadean Van Blaricum to Mr. N. Harold Fike. At 10:45 the guests assembled and were served with tea and cake. A red rose was on each plate. In each rose a heart carrying a letter was found. When these were put together they spelled "Harold-Bernadean". Miss Bernadean found a white gold diamond ring in her rose, and so the secret was out. Those present were: Bernadean Van Blaricum, Mabel Lee Early, Alberta Yoder, Nellie Collins, Ethel Early, Irene Mason, Edna Hoover, Mildred Bodwell, Pearl Holderread, Pauline Shirk, Mary Weddle, and Ethel Sherry.

MILLER-AUERHEIMER

Friends of Miss Norma Miller, A. B. '29, were surprised to learn of her marriage to Mr. Jim Auerheimer of Lehigh at McPherson on last April 16. The couple will be at home in the Monitor Sunday School Sunday Lehigh after June 1. Mrs. Auerheimer taught mathematics and science in the Lehigh high school this year and has been re-elected to the position for next school term.

HOFFMAN SHOWER

Tue., May 6—A surprise shower for Miss Ruth Hoffman, '29, whose marriage to Dwight Stutzman, '29, Lloyd Larsen spent the week end will take place this summer with his parents near Abilene, Kansas by Miss Esther Dahlinger at 8 a.m.

her home on East Euclid this evening.

The guests brought gifts of linen for Miss Hoffman and the evening was spent in making a scrapbook telling the story of her life.

Miss Dahlinger served refreshments consisting of homemade ice cream, topped with fresh strawberries, angle food cake, devil's food cake, nuts and opera sticks.

Those present enjoyed the hospitality of the Dahlinger home and wished Miss Hoffman great happiness. The guests were: Mrs. Anna C. Tate and Mrs. Heibert, Misses Irene Stinberg, Lela Hultquist, Mabelle Hoskam, Ruth Bickelstaff, Blanche Pyle, and Bernice McClellan. Regards were sent by a number of other friends.

Personal

Miss Maurine Stutzman, A. B. '27, has accepted the position as office assistant of the College. Miss Stutzman took up her new duties last week and is boarding and rooming in Arnold hall.

Ruth Turner visited with relatives at Lincoln Center, Kansas during the week end.

Kermit and Guy Hayes spent Mother's Day with their parents near Little River.

Hope Nichol visited with her parents in Wichita over the week end.

The missionary play, "Ordered South" was given in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Those of the cast were Pauline Dell, Helen Hudson, Otho Whiteneck, Prof. Roy B. Teach, Guy Hayes, and Blanch Harris. Irene and Ellen Steinberg also sang a duet as a part of the same program.

Beth Henston was the week end guest of relatives in Augusta, Kansas.

Ellen and Irene Steinberg, Pauline Dell, Bernice McClellan and Ward Williams, accompanied by Miss Edith Lehigh at McPherson on last April 16. The couple will be at home in the Monitor Sunday School Sunday Lehigh after June 1. Mrs. Auerheimer taught mathematics and science in the Lehigh high school this year and has been re-elected to the position for next school term.

Gilbert Myers visited at his home in the Lehigh high school this year and has been re-elected to the position for next school term.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Trout of Ottawa took Sunday dinner in the college dining hall. They were the guests of the Misses Letha and Louise Allen.

Lloyd Larsen spent the week end with his parents near Abilene, Kansas by Miss Esther Dahlinger at 8 a.m.

RAY NONKEN, THE GREATEST ALL-AROUND ATHLETE EVER TO GRADUATE FROM M. C.

Will Be Head Coach In Basketball And Assistant Coach In Football At The Wakeeney, Kansas High School Next Year

BY STAFF REPORTER

The greatest all-around athlete who has ever traversed the campus of McPherson college is Ray Nonken. As an example of true sportsmanship he is ideal, as one who can win the confidence and respect of his teammates he cannot be exceeded. Not only has he won respect and admiration from his teammates but also from his opponents in every game he has played.

RAY NONKEN

In 1925 after having graduated with the highest of athletic honors from Peabody high school, Peabody, Kansas, Nonken entered McPherson college. That fall he made the position of halfback on the football team and soon was feared by all conference opponents. Not being satisfied with honors in one sport alone he went out for basketball and by faithful training and hard practices secured a position on the team, thus making for himself two letters in his first year of college.

The following year "Nonk" made one triumph after another on the gridiron. He soon gained recognition among the most popular sports writers over the country. The same year he was a member of the Kansas conference champion basketball team. His team also won a high place in the National A. A. U. tournament at Kansas City, winning three games and losing one.

In 1928, Nonken, captain and halfback and three year letter man was a favorite among football fans. He was a forward passer, a broken field runner, a triple threat man, and a real leader. "Nonk" was a member of the All-Conference team. He captained the cage team through another successful season, winning the championship for the second consecutive year. The team again went high in the national tournament. Nonken received a place on the third All-American team and also on the All-Conference team. This same year he was also a member of the winning track team, being one of the relay squad.

Again last fall "Nonk" demonstrated his worth and real value to the football team. Some of the thrilling events which will long stamp on memory are those when "Nonk" made 40, 60, and 80 yard runs for touchdowns. Once more he proved himself to be an able captain of his team, at all times encouraging his teammates and never giving up himself until the last whistle had blown. Without question he was granted the position as quarterback on the All-Conference team.

During his basketball career and especially this season Nonken's dribbling attack has penetrated every opposing defense. He doesn't shoot often, but he gets the ball in scoring position. "Nonk" is a fast man, he gets up speed fast and stops quickly. For the second time he was chosen as All-Kansas conference guard.

This spring Nonken, along with one of his teammates, was chosen as a member of the strong Wichita Henry's basketball team which won the national tournament this year.

When Nonken ends his college career this month he will have to his credit twelve athletic letters, four in football, four in basketball, three in track, and one in baseball.

Besides losing an outstanding athlete, the college will lose a strong leader among the men. This year "Nonk" was president of the "M" Club.

Last week Nonken secured the position as head basketball coach and assistant football coach in the high school at Wakeeney, Kansas. Besides coaching he will also teach physics and mathematics.

From other hills Wednesday, April 30, during the twelfth annual Music Festival at Hays K. S. T. C., the music association gave the great religious drama, the Passion Play, in English. The drama was given in the Sheridan Coliseum.

A recent report of the Wharton school of the University of Pennsylvania reveals that scholastic standing and athletic ability are not strangers. Of the list of seniors listed annually

THERE IS A TREE I HATE

It stands with well filled limbs With all the leaves of spring upon it. It has a quick elusiveness; When the wind plays Against it, it evades. And with a charming sprightliness Holds its purpose.

This yielding And the unexpected firmness Of its refusal to go farther Reminds me of her . . . of her . . . For this . . . I hate it. —A Freshman.

BAKER WINS CONFERENCE TRACK AND FIELD MEET FOR THE THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Grant and Morris of McPherson Won The Team Golf Title With A Total Of 321—McPherson Places Fifth In Meet

Baldwin, Kan., May 10.—The Baker University Wildcats won their third consecutive conference championship track and field meet here today with a total of 60 5-6 points. Kansas Wesleyan placed second with 55 1-3 points, Ottawa 29 5-6 points, Bethany fourth with 14 points, McPherson, second last year, but fifth this year with 13 points, and St. Mary's sixth with 12 points. Larson of Bethany won the golf tournament with a score of 164 for 36 holes. Grant and Morris of McPherson won the team golf title with a total of 321. Grant shooting 158 and Morris 163.

Nonken of McPherson placed second in the 220 yard dash and fourth in the 100 yard dash which were run in 23 and 10.2 seconds respectively. Eby of McPherson placed second in the 880 yard race and Anderson of McPherson placed fourth in the quarter mile run. Miller of McPherson placed fourth in the javelin throw and third in the high jump. The Bulldog team took third place in the mile relay.

Although it rained between the morning preliminaries and the finals in the afternoon the track and field were in excellent condition for the meet in contrast to the condition of the field at Ottawa a year ago when officials were forced to hold the meet in the rain.

THE DOPE BUCKET

By the Sport Editor

The Bulldogs are rated as 100% in their baseball standing. We are proud of them for that, for it seems to be a decided improvement over what previous McPherson College baseball teams have been. Of course they have not encountered a college team yet this season, and for that reason their real strength may not have been tested. One of the players was heard to attempt to engage a game with a small high school recently and to express himself as being somewhat skeptical of Bulldog possibilities.

The manager, trainer, or coach of the baseball team deserves to be severely criticized for the way he has been treating the students. Here we have a winning team, and not more than a handful of students have seen it in action, due to the fact that they go away down south of town for the games. For most practical purposes, the college athletic field could be fixed up to accommodate the baseball games. We hope this may not prove impossible and that our suggestion may be considered.

Another track season is past and we did not take the state championship or even the conference championship. But we will take it next year, as sure as the world. You just wait and see if Binford's track team does not make Kansas conference colleges sit by and take notice. But for this year our last possibility has faded away.

DESCHNER PITCHES TEAM TO VICTORY OVER HESSTON

Hesston Is Defeated 16 To 1—Ehrsam Catches For Bulldogs

Thursday, May 8.—The McPherson College Bulldog baseball team defeated the Hesston town team 16 to one in a nine inning game at the city athletic park this afternoon, in their second encounter of the season.

The visitors gave the Canines a good game during the first three innings, but seemed to lose interest and made their defeat apparent after that. The form of the Bulldogs was good throughout the game, being much better with each succeeding game as the season advances. The local boys made but two errors during the entire game. The Deschner-Ehrsam battery is providing itself worthy of considerable distinction as a part of the Bulldog machine. This combination permitted only four hits and one run during the game. Out of their twenty hits the Bulldogs were able to get their sixteen runs. Ross Curtis, Canine center fielder, knocked the only home run of the game.
