ATHLETIC BOARD OF COLLEGE ATTEMPTING TO MAKE ACCURATE RECORD OF ATHLETIC AWARDS

Department Is Sending A Form Letter To All Graduated "M" Club Members To Secure The Necessary Data—Those Who Do Not Receive Letter Are Asked To Mail In Their Records

IMPOSSIBLE TO REACH ALL

Management Has Been Unable To Find Any Authentic Records Of Former Years

In an effort to make an accurate record of all athletic awards which have been given by McPherson college, the department of athletics is this week issuing a form letter to a large number of the "M" men of former years. The letters contain an information blank on which to record all awards won, such as letters, sweaters, blankets, and any other awards that have been given. With the award the name of the coach, the year, the sport and the position played or event participated in are being asked.

Since it is impossible to reach all of the former athletes by this means, all graduated "M" men are asked to send the above information at once to Prof. G. N. Boone, manager of athletics.

So far the management has been unable to find any authentic records that have been kept except for the last few years. Therefore to make the files of the athletic board complete it is necessary to secure the information from the men themselves.

BIG RALLY TOMORROW

"Pep" Meeting Is Called For 10:00 O'Clock In The Gymnasium

The first big "pep" meeting of the year will be held tomorrow morning from 10:00 until 10:30 o'clock in the gymnasium. Every loyal Bulldog is being urged to be present for this big "pep" rally that is to instill within each student the spirit of M. C. The group singing of all the College "pep" songs and testing of the College yells is prompted to arouse the spirit for the first game, the first home game, and the first night football for McPherson college.

The cheerleaders are barring no efforts to make the rally a great success. A stunt has been planned and worked out that will reveal the necessary backing a student body should give its athletic teams. Every member on the football squad seems to be out for business this fall and every loyal Bulldog should see that they receive the full support of the students.

THE GOOD OLD SWEDISH DRINK, COFFEE FAILS TO KEEP THREE CO-EDS AWAKE

Endurance tests of all descriptions have been in evidence throughout the country. Aeroplanes first started the episode with the flag-pole nesters following in quick pursuit. Time passed and during the past summer the Hunters took to the air and broke all existing records for staying off old mother earth. To them life was sustained flight. With a seemingly urge to divert back to nature the children took to the trees and remained aloft even longer than Jackson and O'Brien who later broke the Hunters' record.

But now fall is here and cooler weather and school bells are bringing down the tree-sitters. The public is beginning again to assume a normal cosmic view of things they could not understand when something else popped up to disturb their easily frenzied minds. Three college co-eds have started something that has renewed the happenings of the drouth and summer. This is the way it was—

One night last week three Bulldog co-eds, who evidently wishing to be original, scratched their cerebellums and as a result their cortexes functioned splendidly. They immediately took off on an endurance flight to see which one could remain in a conscious state of mind the longest, and if possible to stay awake until the breakfast bells called them to life's desires.

The flight was to be a secret and their idea was to announce to the world their achievement after it had been accomplished. They did not like extended publicity. The flight started—they read, attempted, yes, to really study, they joked (as only co-eds can joke) and finally had to sustain on the good old Swedish drink—coffee—to remain awake. The fleeting hours went fleeting, the mid-night chimes chimed, and the thirteenth hour moved on to another sixty minutes. The jokes were beginning to dwindle, their books refused to give up their knowledge and the coffee was gone.

Two o'clock slipped by into another hour and with the tick of the clock at half past three the endurance flight came to a close—they landed. Who won, you will ask—It was a draw—and by four o'clock they had dropped off into that one great silence they had been trying to avoid—sleepyland.

Needless to say, but the coffee they had been drinking to keep them awake was the cause of their sleeping until eight.

COMING EVENTS

Thurs., Sept. 25—Night-shirt Parade, 7 o'clock.
Fri., Sept. 26—Kearney game 7:30 o'clock.
Mon., Sept. 29—Edgar C. Rain. Chapel 8 o'clock.

HISTORY TO REPEAT

NIGHT-SHIRT FROLIC

Traditional Event To Hold Interest Of All The Students

TO PARADE MAIN STREET

Will Convene In Front Of "Ad" Building At 7:30 O'clock

The one event in the many traditions of McPherson college that comes nearest the fervor of excitement as does the Bulldog-Swede game is the annual "night-shirt" parade. Tomorrow night history will repeat itself as gayly clad students wind their way through the streets in hilarious anticipation of the forthcoming game on the morrow.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock all students will convene in front of the Administration building clad in their night apparel and from there will start their trek down Euclid to the city. At the intersections on Main pep "pow-wow's" will hold the interest of every student. In going from intersections the winding line of students will make their way in and out of the business houses that seem to anticipate such an event.

The "night-shirt" parade is the one event of the year at which all the dignity of a college student is cast aside and the high pitch of gaily dwells supreme. From reports coming from the dormitories the event is being anticipated with a great deal of interest, and the parade promises to be a colorful event.

HECKMAN INTRODUCES

Y. M. C. A. CABINET OFFICERS

Speaks Briefly On The Effectiveness Of The Organization

Tues., Sept. 23—Cabinet officers of the Y. M. C. A. for the first semester were introduced to the members of the local chapter by Prof. Heckman, sponsor for the club.

Before introducing the officers Heckman spoke briefly on how to gain the Christian effectiveness for which the Y. M. C. A. strives. A few of the ways are to live up to the religious traditions of the school; practice Christian ethics on the campus; and be true to the Christian convictions of the school.

As each of the following officers were introduced the speaker gave a short resume concerning their interests: activities, home town, etc.: Clinton Trostle, president; Ward Williams, vice president; Eber Tice, secretary-treasurer; Charles Austin, chairman of the program committee; Carroll Walker, chairman of music committee; Arnold Voth, devotional; Kermit Hayes, representative in Rocky Mountain division; Posey Jamison, fellowship.

Ward Williams had charge of devotionals.

POSEY JAMISON RESIGNS QUADRANGLE POSITION AND EBER TICE IS SELECTED TO FILL VACANCY

Jamison Gives Too Much Other Work The Cause Of Resigning—Was Elected In April By Student Body—Student Council Acts On Matter

BUDGET IS PASSED

Council To Sponsor Musical Program Under Direction Of Mrs. Tate

Tues., Sept. 23—At a meeting of the student council this afternoon the council accepted the resignation of Posey Jamison as business manager of the Quadrangle and selected Eber Tice, sophomore, to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Jamison was forced to resign his position because of the amount of other work he was carrying and deemed it necessary to give up his Quadrangle position. Mr. Jamison was elected by popular vote of the student body last April at the annual election of student leaders.

Other business presented for judgment of the council was the council budget for the year. Blanche Pyle, treasurer, presented the budget for the approval of the council and it was passed upon.

It was also decided upon that the council would sponsor an extra student affair the first semester. The extra affair will be a musical program of some kind under the personal direction of Mrs. Anna C. Tate, head of the voice department.

The representatives also discussed the plan to assess students half price for the first football game with Kearney Teachers Friday night. No negative or affirmative decision was reached, however, the council voted to put the matter up to the student body as a whole to be voted upon in chapel tomorrow morning. (This morning.)

EIGHT MICROSCOPES REPORTED MISSING

Have Total Valuation Of Approximately $600—Check Up Reveals The Loss

Thurs., Sept. 18—After a check up this morning of the microscopes in the physiology department in Harnly Hall, Dr. J. H. Harnly reported that eight microscopes were missing, comprising a total loss of approximately $600.

This morning's check up was the first since a year ago this fall at which time the total number, 32, were in their respective cases. Dr. Harnly expressed no opinion as to the whereabouts of the missing instruments. A thorough search in all the college departments has failed to reveal any of the microscopes. A year ago this last summer an expert in the line of microscopes overhauled all the instruments and at that time all of them were accounted for and it is since then that they have been taken.

ONES TO THESPIANS

To Select Play Soon—Have Not Elected Sponsor Yet—Limit To 20 Members

Thurs., Sept. 18—It was decided this morning at a meeting of the Thespian organization that the membership of the club be limited to 20 members. The group now consists of 10 members, five girls and five boys. A chairman of a membership committee was elected, John Lehman, who has selected Mildred Doyle to assist him in making arrangements to secure the required 10 members to bring the quota to 20.

The matter of a club play was discussed with the result that Lillian Horning was elected chairman of a committee to read different plays and to report on the ones they think suitable for the organization. Miss Horning has selected Philip Lauver and John Lehman to assist her in selecting a number of plays.

The choosing of a sponsor and a coach to direct the presentation were discussed but no action was taken.

THE WAY OF COMPETITION

Competition is the one great factor that keeps men out of work. It is also a medium by which standards of achievement are set for without it there would be no work. It is this rivalry among persons and groups of persons that keeps the wheels of industry turning out the products of necessity.

The wall of competition may be broken down and a monopoly or supremacy may creep in. The amount of rivalry may be lessened with the amount of knowledge acquired. Every year a person in school means a decrease in the degree of competition he will have when he starts out to gain his way in the tumult of life.

It is true that we are gradually becoming a nation of college men. Not all of those who start finish the college work but a still greater percent are realizing each year that the only way to tear down this wall of competition is by learning more about your own definite line of endeavor than your competitor. To learn is to gain an advantage over the other individual.

THAT MCPHERSON COLLEGE SHOULD GAIN

In last week's Spectator it was revealed that McPherson college had increased its enrollment over that of last year. It is remarkable that McPherson should gain, however but little, while other institutions have made tremendous decreases in their student population.

The surprising fact that the College has gained in students, even after a drought condition throughout the east and middle-west, indicates that the school is standing upon standards that are high—standards that young people of today are striving to gain.

Standards placed high enough that they cannot be reached, no matter how strenuous the effort, will accomplish more in the end than a standard that is easily reached. To work and keep working in attempting to better one's self is far better than striving to reach a goal and finally reaching it and then coasting with no progress whatsoever. "The School of Quality" is a sign of progress and an indication of life—life at its fullest.

So high is the premium placed upon impatience that our educational institutions have come to develop impatient graduates.—Rev. Walter J. Benedict.

AS THE MEN SEE IT

The Spectator, in trying to keep within the bounds of being independent in the matter of apparel for tomorrow's parade, deems it necessary to mention the sentiment being expressed by the men in the dormitory. Not only have the men in the dormitory expressed themselves but also those rooming off the campus.

Men are usually sensitive as to the ways in which women dress, that is a majority of them, and like to be seen with young women who are properly attired. They respect women who dress in a formal manner for formal affairs, and also admire the girl that dresses for the occasion and for comfort. Tomorrow night is the one evening of the school year when dignity is cast aside for a period of merriment that is in no less harm than going to an all-school picnic in the proper attire for comfort.

SHORT PLAY FEATURES

Y. W. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Play Gives Aim and Purpose of Organization—Stresses Duties of Committees

Tues., Sept. 22.—The feature of the Y. W. C. A. meeting this morning was a short play signifying the purpose of giving all new girls an idea of the purpose and aim of the organization.

Carrying the lead, Mary Swain, representing the typical freshman girl, was contemplating which organization she wished to join. She decided definitely on the Y. W. C. A. but didn't know the committee with which she wished to work. Following, each committee chairman approached Miss Swain and explained the special duties and activities of her committee and asked for help in her work. The committees were represented by the following girls: membership, Alberta Yoder; finance, Ethel Sherry; program, Evelyn Fields; social service, Ida Lengel; music, Helen Eberly; publicity, Christine Mohler; conference, Lucille Crabb; world fellowship, Edna Hoover.

Preceding the play Oppha Beam sang "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" and at the close of the presentation Ruth Turner sang "I Would Be True", after which the pledge and committee cards were signed.

McFest Eakas '27, who teaches in the Ellsworth school which is at the present time closed on account of infantile paralysis, called on friends in McPherson Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 22-23.

SPECULATIONS of a SPECULATOR

We "Spec" that a Freshman boy writes home from college something like this:

"Dear Folks: Well, I've been here two and a half weeks now and it seems years since I left home. I'm not homesick—much. Maybe I'll get used to this place after several years.

Already I can stand being run through the line twice in the same evening without serious soreness. Nothing I do or don't do seems right so out come the bolts cracking like pistols. But just wait until next year! I won't be the under dog any more. Last Thursday night they had what we found out is called a pep meeting here. It was—well, different. Tomorrow night we are supposed to put on our nightshirts and parade all over town. I sure wish Ma had bought me red and white striped pajamas instead of those purple ones.

There are some good-looking Freshmen girls out here, but don't tell the girl friend I said so. Class time.

Just, Sonny
P. S. Spending money is getting low for comfort."

Advice to a young girl who wants to keep her youth—"Be nice to him."

Love is like an onion. We taste it with delight. And when it's gone, we wonder whatever made us bite.

Lois of people eat more than they think. If they didn't they'd starve to death.

It was Monday morning in class. Ruth Trostle was terribly worried about the way her hair looked. She explained to several near her why it was so contrary.

"I just washed my hair and I can't do a thing with it."

The class room was warm. Jack thought he ought to let in some fresh air. As he got up to open the window, he accidentally stepped on Ruth's feet.

"Oh," he explained apologetically. "I'm sorry, but I just washed my feet and can't do anything with them."

Next week I shall endeavor to make up something out of my upper story, which is an impressive structure but as yet unfurnished.

WORLD SERVICE GROUP MAKES PLANS FOR YEAR

To Have Membership Drive Tomorrow Morning

Thur., Sept. 18.—The World Service Group held its first meeting this evening with only former members present. After devotionals of an inspirational nature that were led by Charles Austin, plans were made for the work of the coming year.

A membership drive to terminate in an open meeting next Thursday evening will be in the hands of Ward Williams. Phillip Lauver will keep in touch with the churches of the town to supply students, teachers, singers or speakers when called for. Study groups of student interest will be organized and planned for by Grace Early. Sunday afternoon singing to shut-ins and at the hospital will be arranged by Alma Morrison. The deputation work is to be planned by Naomi Whitmore and Ethel Sherry. A good year is anticipated.

HOT SHOTS — NEWS — From The Day's Weekly

An appeal is made to the public for a radio set for a hospital ward. There should be quick response—everybody being willing to give a-way the set owned by the students rooming next door to you. They might even chip in a portable.

Some party, figuring on the future and what it will bring, says men will work only two and a half hours a day in 1950. Ho. Hum! Now we wonder what college students will do with the other fifteen and a half hours?

A new radio loud speaker has been invented that will make twice as much noise as a brass band. Thus another mighty engineering of war has been discovered that will utterly destroy humanity. And how.

Heard in passing: One senior boy said the other day that he was going to take his last vacation this summer because by next vacation time he will be married.

A salesman for the midget car was around the other day and he assured us that the car would hold two adults and a child, but he didn't say what its capacity was in terms of college students.

Miss Hattie Rishel spent the week end with her parents who live near McPherson.

GIRLS, WAFFLES, SLEEP AND MUSIC NO SILENT NIGHT

Contests, fudge, waffles, pranks, sleep, music and girls! All were features of the slumber party staged at the Earl Reed home last Saturday night.

Ethel Sherry as hostess was assisted by Mary Weddle and Alma Morrison, upperclassmen, who entertained nine new co-eds in an informal get-acquainted frolic. From seven-thirty until eleven-thirty o'clock the party displayed its brilliance in conversation, contests and pranks. Hiding clothes and dislocating covers proved very popular.

Many deep, dark secrets were divulged in a truth game, including names, ages, homes, love affairs and heart desires. Opal Bowers and Ruth Firestone, were proclaimed champion nut crackers and Alma Morrison a good fudge. With Lois Edwards at the piano playing old time tunes the group tested its ability to recognize music. Beds were found by drawing numbers. The guests found it necessary to play three-deep if all were to sleep.

After a defensive and offensive battle of slippers and sly locking of doors silence reigned.

At seven-fifteen the next morning a breakfast was served of waffles, creamed salmon, hot syrup, coffee and pears. Mary Weddle proved a skilled cook.

The guests were: Sibyl Curtis, Velma Amos, Lois Edwards, Pearl Walker, Velma Keller, Dorothy Shirk, Opal Bowers, Ruth Firestone, Elsie Rump, Mary Weddle and Alma Morrison.

McPHERSON COLLEGE, THE MELTING POT FOR 16 STATES AND 15 RELIGIONS

Kansas Leads With Number Of Students—Oklahoma Is Second—Methodist Students Rank Second—71 From McPherson—Windom Second With 9 Students—Are Here For Common Cause

McPherson the melting pot! Not the melting pot of the nations but the melting pot of the states. Students are here from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific shores—from the Gulf of Mexico to the border land of Canada. Here they have mingled for the one common cause—knowledge. McPherson is the melting pot for sixteen states.

Of the sixteen states, of course, Kansas is the leader in the number of students. It is for the first time that Oklahoma has ranked second among the states. Kansas is represented with 195 students and Oklahoma second with 11 students. Both Colorado and Missouri each have 9 while Nebraska has 8. Idaho has 7 students, Iowa 4, Louisiana 3, California 2, and Ohio, Virginia, Illinois, Tennessee, South Dakota, North Dakota, and Texas each have one.

In tabulating the students from each city McPherson leads with 71 students. Windom high school ranks second with 9, while Conway comes in for third place with 8. Waldo, Quinter, and Larned each have 7 and Nickerson and Galva are represented with 4 each. Rosnoke, Louisiana has 4 students at McPherson.

McPherson, being a college of the Church of the Brethren, has 127 students who are members of this church while the Methodists rank second with 38. There are 15 Christians, 13 Presbyterians, 10 each of the Baptists and Mennonites, 9 for the Lutherans, 5 for the Mission, 4 for the Free Methodists, 2 each for the Congregational and Union, and 1 each for the Friends, Christian Science, Protestant Episcopal, Evangelical. Nineteen students signified that they did not belong to any church whatsoever.

HONOR WAS SUBJECT FOR C. E. LAST SUNDAY

Charles Austin Was In Charge Of The Evening's Program

Sun., Sept. 21—"Honor" was the subject of four interesting talks given by students in the regular meeting of the college Christian Endeavor tonight in the parlors of the Church of the Brethren. Various aspects of honorable living in college life were presented by Phillip Lauer, Ernest Betts, Nina Stull and Alma Morrison. The group was favored with a piano solo by Lois Edwards. Singing was led by Margaret Moulton. Charles Austin had charge of the program.

Thurs., Sept. 18—The first class meeting of the senior class of 1931 was held this morning and a number of matters concerning the business of the year were discussed and passed upon. Keith Hayes, who was elected president last spring, but who was not in school at the time, presided at the meeting.

The class voted to let an executive board, composed of the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, appoint the chairmen of the various committees. The chairman of each committee will have the power to appoint two helpers. The executive board will appoint chairmen for committees concerning invitations, caps and gowns, entertainment, commencement speaker, and the selecting of the class play.

Of special interest to music lovers is the announcement that the McPherson college orchestra, under the direction of Miss Margaret Shelley, will give its first program next Friday morning during the chapel period. The prospects for a fine ensemble are good this fall, though cello and bass players are needed. Miss Shelley is offering free lessons to celloists playing in the orchestra. NEW MATERIAL IS

BARNGROVER QUARTERBACK

Anderson And Bigham Showing Improvement Over Last Year

Fri., Sept. 19—This afternoon the varsity team revealed some real fighting material in a contest with the second team. Some of the new talent showed up splendidly. Miller looks like a second Nonken, if such another is to ever be uncovered. Four times Miller carried the pikein across the final marker. Many times he tore loose for 20 and 30 yard runs. Much is going to be expected of this Bulldog man this season.

George Zinn, Washburn star, showed plenty of ability. He plays hard and is a hard man to tackle.

Lawrence Barngrover is holding down the quarter position in nice form. Barney is some scrapper and he backs the line well. Anderson and Bigham show a big improvement. Anderson is fast and capable of holding down the job as safety. Bigham is plowing the line hard this year and is in on his share of the tackles.

The passing machine functioned very nicely, Williams, first year man, showed up like a veteran as an end. Time after time he scoured the end like a phantom and nailed his opponent almost in his tracks. This youngster is going to develop into one of the fastest ends in the conference. King, McElroy, L. Miller, Keck, Countryman, Sisk and Hockstrasser constitute a fast and scrappy line. Several of the other men in reserve showed that they could well be depended upon in time of need.

The squad now numbers about 40 men and is still increasing. The men are getting down to business in the modern way now and onlookers say that it looks like a big year for the Bulldogs.

The line up this afternoon and the one that will probably be used next Friday when the Bulldogs meet Kearney is:

Ends—Hockstrasser, King,
Tackles—McElroy, L. Miller,
Guards—Countryman, Keck,
Center—Sisk, Mohr,
Quarter—Barngrover,
Half—Miller, Anderson,
Full—Zinn.

"SWEDES" NOT TO HAVE
FLOODLIGHTS THIS YEARHeavy Expense Of Remodeling Gymnasium Is Given As Cause

Lindsborg, Kan., Sept. 22—At a recent meeting of the Bethany College Board it was decided that it would be impossible to install floodlights for night football this season. The Board felt that the heavy expense that must be paid out for the remodeling of the gymnasium would not permit them to undertake the financial responsibility involved in equipping the gridiron with lights.

THE DOPE BUCKET

The varsity game revealed more material than had been counted on and with the crack first eleven and these fellows in reserve—well it just looks good for old M. C.

The Knights of St. Mary's will face Creighton at Omaha on September 27.

The Irish boast a great backfield but claim to be weak in reserve material. The Irish only have about 42 candidates out.

Ottawa looks forward to a good season but at present they prefer not to say much about their prospects.

PROSPECTIVE W. A. A.
MEMBERS HAVE PICNIC

Forty Girls Are Guests Of Organization—Go To Brubaker's Pasture

Thurs., Sept. 18—Nearly 40 girls attended the W. A. A. hike and picnic this evening at Brubaker's pasture. The hike was given for the purpose of getting the new girls acquainted with each other and to know the purpose and aim of the organization.

The girls met in front of the Administration building at 4:30 o'clock and hiked from there to the Brubaker pasture. After a period of games the group gathered in a circle and Ethel Jamison, president, told the aim and purpose of the organization. The various sports managers told of their particular sport and expressed the hope that all the girls would "be out".

A picnic luncheon of wafers, huns, pickles and bananas appeased the appetites of the prospective W. A. A. members.

DEPUTATION TEAMS TO LEAVE FOR FIELD SOON

First Regular Meeting Will Be Tomorrow Night In Y. W. Room

The World Service Group, under the leadership of Phillip Lauver, will hold its first regular annual meeting in the Y. W. C. A. room, Thursday evening at 6:30. The World Service Group is the campus organization in charge of the deputation work of the College; finds opportunities for work for those who desire to be actively engaged in some form of Christian service. This year it plans to change the practice of former years in that the deputation teams will be sent out largely during the first semester to avoid the rush of activities that usually accompany the end of the school year.

Pre-season Debate Tourney To Promote Interest In The Question

Winfield, Kan., Sept. 23—Invitations to more than one hundred colleges to participate in the inter-state pre-season intercollegiate debate tournament which will be held at Southwestern college on Friday and Saturday, December 5 and 6, have been sent out from the office of Dr. J. Thompson Baker, coach of debate at Southwestern.

The chief purpose of the pre-season debate tournament is to spur the debate squads to early study and activity with a secondary purpose of increasing the knowledge of the question through the interchange of ideas and of organizing tactics to properly meet arguments and situations which may arise.

A FOOL

Working before His school
Of student Cherubim,
Lord, God, the Artist, made a Fool,
And then gave life to him.

But ere he turned adrift
His fool beneath the sun,
"Lord", begged a Cherub, "Give a gift
To this ungifted one!"

"Name thou", saith He, "this day
The boon that thou dost call
The greatest gift wherewith I may Endow a fool withal".

But the Lord, God shook his head
And smiled upon His school:
"If he should have that gift", He said,
"He would not be a fool".
