Kough Is Granted Leave Of Absence

Prof. Jack Kough, Assistant Professor of Psychology, is taking a leave of absence from his teaching position and public relations work next year.

Prof. Kough will join the University of Chicago faculty, where he will be assigned to the Human Development Research Project in Quincy, Ill.

This job will consist of working with young people, who have emotional maladjustments or potential maladjustments. This type of work is called milieu therapy, which tries to integrate the young people into community activity.

Prof. Kough will be working with a group of four other faculty members. The project is paid for by the Ford Foundation and the Moorhead Foundation.

The entire project is centered around helping the community understand how they can utilize its own resources in producing more integrated young people.

Expansion Pledges Will Begin Soon

The Student Council, as part of the McPherson County expansion program for the college, at their meeting Wednesday evening, April 15, voted to take an active part in the drive for $150,000. This drive, which is part of the ten-year development program for $1,500,000, will be used for immediate needs, with the stadium as the main concern.

Wayne Bliekenstaff, junior, has been chosen as head campaign manager for the students. Each class will have a leader to work under him. The Senior class, will be represented by Bob Bechtel; Junior class, Don Fike; Sophomore class, Ed Frantz; Freshman class, Don Moeller; Special students, Esther Ikenberry.

Each class representative will have captains working under him. The campaign will involve 80 student solicitors, with each one seeing about 5 people.

The pledge by the students will cover a period of three to four years, with a suggested share set at $50 per student, which may be paid over the three to four year period.

The money which will be pledged by students will go mainly for the proposed new stadium, which will cost $70,000. The new stadium will double the number of seats, provide convenient dressing rooms, rest rooms, and concession stands, as well as an improved press box.

According to the architect's plans, the structure will be built of steel and fireproof materials, properly anchored to support 2,400 fans. Construction will begin as soon as funds are available.

A dinner for the 80 solicitors will be held Wednesday evening at 6:30 to launch the drive.

The Student Council presents this as a challenge for the students to show and participate in a way which will improve the college.

The campaign committee for McPherson County is headed by John W. Casebeer, chairman, W. E. Lehmburg, special gifts, Joe Wall, Central High School, and Howard Renfro, county area.

The Student Council is asking 100 percent student support of the college in this drive for funds.

So far he has vaulted at it, 44 inches, while one man has ever bettered that, Cornelius Warndorff in 1942 who jumped 15 ft., 11 inches, which is the world's record. He captured the pole-vaulting championship at last year's World Olympics at Helsinki, Finland.

Last spring Rev. Richards visited McPherson College and gave a demonstration of pole-vaulting by jumping 14 feet. When asked the reason why he didn't jump higher, he replied, "The pole isn't long enough."

Sociology Class Visits Chicago

The Sociology class under Prof. Kenneth Bechtel took a trip to Chicago over the last weekend to study the city's social and other problems.

The group left in 4 cars on Thursday afternoon, April 9, and arrived in Chicago, Friday noon. They stayed in Chicago until Sunday afternoon, April 12.

The class had an enjoyable time visiting places, and seeing a lot of Chicago. Several of the places visited are of historic importance. Among the places visited were the Hull House founded by Jane Addams, Skid Row, Chicago's crime center, The Mayor's office, and the City Hall, the Slum Section and the Gold Coast, the Southside, and the Ghetto Jewish market; Mr. Albert Ferone of the Chicago Institute of Juvenile Research directed the group in one of their tours.

Some of the students had the privilege of visiting the theaters to see stage plays; some went to the Planitarium; some went after foreign dishes in Greek and Jewish restaurants, and others were there to see the world famous trolley bus, Jack Teagarden.

Some of the members of the group went to the big Negro Church in Southside on Sunday morning.

On the whole, the group had a successful trip. The only unusual incidence occurring during the entire trip was at the Board of Trade, when some in the group got stuck in an elevator in the tower while going up to view the city.

The group returned safely to McPherson early Monday morning, April 13.

Glenn Swinger, new Public Relations representative, is shown in this portrait. He is a graduate of McPherson College and has been working for the college since 1945. He is currently serving as Minister of the First Baptist Church in Chicago. He is the author of several books on Christian living and has written articles for many publications. He is a member of the National Council of Churches and the American Society of Christian Authors.

Let's Mind Our Manners

Have you noticed the manners of students on Macampus lately? Well, to be sure, there is room for improvement.

I think each one of us should take it upon ourselves to establish some type of social etiquette in our school system for the improvement of every individual.

Since we do have a cafeteria, it is harder to put our "Emily Post" into action, but still we can be considerate of others.

Also, I believe it would be of value to institute into some of our classes, the art of social etiquette.

May every Sunday now we could have a dining hall style dinner with students acting as host and hostess, and making it formal enough for the students to learn how to eat and act in such an affair.

Take Time To Live!

Take time to live! Put first things first and leave lesser things undone. Budget your time and constantly examine your use of it. An emphatic No is essential to a resolute Yes in using time. What you leave undone determines what you can accomplish. Remember that while man requires bread for survival, he does not live by bread alone, but by the things of the spirit.

Do not exhaust yourself in surviving, take time to live. It does not profit a man to gain wealth and fame and then find himself a physical wreck, a mental hulk, a spiritual dervish. Work with moderation.

Choose recreation which really re-creates. Many forms of entertainment and amusement are becoming. Take plenty of nourishment from Mother Nature. Expose your soul to the glories of night, dawn, sunset.

Go often to beautiful and hallowing places. Listen with rapture to excited music. Let imagination take

After all, we aren't going to be eating cafeteria style for the rest of our lives.

Manners play a large part in the success of anyone. Take a look at a few of the other colleges around. I believe you will find most of them practicing their P's and Q's.

Etiquette is also necessary in other things besides eating. Politeness and friendliness to everyone is necessary for social success. Take a look at some of our greatest leaders. They have gone far by simply practicing a little etiquette.

Let's be a little more conscious of how we act—whether eating or just associating with others.

I think it would be helpful to everyone to hear other student viewpoints on this subject.—R. P.

Spring Is More Than Just A Season

Bob Browning sat down one day 12 years ago and wrote a poem about how all was right with the world. He intimated broadly that everything was fine simply because it was Spring. His creation was not original. But it has lived because it said something people feel.

Spring is an exciting, exhilarating time of the year. Because of that, it often seems to be more than just a season. To many it is a feeling, a state of mind, a way of thinking. Through the efforts of such men as Browning, it is an institution and like others, it has signs of its coming.

As Christians, Spring means that we all hear once again the reassuring answer ringing clearly from the empty tomb. And accompanying this message, God provides reassurance of continued life for nature, as grass grows green and trees begin to bud again.

Spring, then, is all these—warm sun, green grass, bright skies, and pleasant days. (Not to mention the little snow we had a few days ago.)

But for students, Spring is more. Here at Maccollege the warm air means track season, baseball, tennis—banquets—picnics—recitals—Concerts—parties—commencement—and not to forget—romances!

Students Are Satisfied With College Newspaper

(ACP) Most college students are satisfied with their campus newspaper, but not enthusiastic. This was learned in an ACP National Poll of Student Opinion.

Students across the nation were asked: How would you rate the job your college newspaper is doing in stimulating student thought? The answers:

Excellent—12 percent
Good—46 percent
Fair—31 percent
Poor—8 percent
No Opinion—3 percent

"Has only student news," is one of the usual comments. Another common remark is, "Reminds me of our high school paper."

Students were also asked, "How would you rate the job your college newspaper is doing in covering campus life?" Here are the results:

Excellent—32 percent
Good—45 percent
Fair—17 percent
Poor—3 percent
No Opinion—1 percent

Summer Workshop Begin June 2

The Summer session Workshops will begin June 2. There will be three workshops this year. Elementary school music will be under the direction of Prof. Audrey San Roman. This workshop will include work in several phases of elementary school music: music methods, sight singing, music appreciation, and conducting.

Arts and Crafts will be taught by Prof. S. M. Dell. This course will deal mainly with work in basketry, silk screen printing, textile painting, leather work, and small elementary crafts. It will be directed toward those skills which will be of wide use in the home, the school, and the church.

Contemporary Drama will be under the direction of Prof. Della Lehman. This workshop is the first in a series of three which will be offered each summer in the area of contemporary literature. The three phases will be drama, poetry, and prose. This workshop will consist of a study of twentieth century plays in Great Britain and America.

All workshops carry one hour of credit. Enrollment may be made for credit or non-credit. The cost of these workshops is $15.00. One person can enroll in only one workshop, since they will be conducted during the same time.

Play Day Will Be April 28

The defending champions, the Juniors, will be trying to retain permanent possession of the Play Day trophy. On April 26 the trophy is awarded each year to the class with the highest number of points in the Play Day each year, and since the Juniors of this year have won the trophy for two years straight, they only need to win again this year to have permanent possession of the trophy.

All of the classes have appointed or are appointing committees to charge to see that the members of their class are used to the best advantage.

This year there will be no individual sports, all of the sports will be team sports. This will eliminate such things as Table Tennis, Tennis, and Horseshoes. There are plans for an evening meal such as has been in previous years.

There will be skits after supper, innovations this year are: Specialty relays, such as the wheelbarrow relay, three-legged relays, etc. A surprise event will not be announced until Play Days, but which will be for points, and the elimination of individual events from the schedule.

The faculty members will be used as officials and will put on a skit, as will the Rec. Council, although they won't be judged.

If you have not yet entered in some event see your class president or the person in your class in charge of Play Day and let them know what event you would like to be in, as the college would like to have 100 percent participation in this year's Play Day.

Thinking With The President

On Making Friends

M. R. Ziegler, Church of the Brethren leader among the churches of Europe, said recently, after he had traveled rather widely around the world and had journeyed also to India and other areas, that never before in his knowledge was there as much ill-will toward the United States as at the present time.

This is an amazing statement since during recent years we have been sending service workers abroad, churches have united in Church World Service, and America has handed out millions of dollars of goods and food to the people of the world.

Why would they then feel antipathy or actual enmity toward us?

Perhaps it is because we have not learned how to give our gifts in the right way. We have handed them, not over but down. We have caused the recipients of them to feel we are condescending toward them in giving them gifts. This may have been one of the reasons why Holland recently, in spite of her flood conditions, did not wish to receive gifts from the United States.

A second reason is that we may give the impression that there are ulterior motives attached to our gifts, that we expect the recipients to subscribe to certain ideas or to make certain commitments when we give them gifts.

Actually these things are not true. America gives out of a heart of generosity. We need to learn how to be more skillful in our contact with other people so that they can sense the genuine friendliness we feel toward them and our genuine desire to help them as our brothers.

The clothing drive put on by the young people of the town and the college recently is a fine example of this. We did it because we wanted to help other people. Now if the gift can be transmitted to the people in the spirit with which we gave it, brotherhood will grow.

These seem like little things, but it is down this avenue that peace is to be discovered.

Stinnette Edits "Horizons"

"All material for the Western Region issue of Horizons has been handed in to the office at Elgin, Ill., according to Lois Stinnette, field editor.

Many Maccollege students, including Norman Long, Dolores Siegle, Karl Baldwin, Ruth Granswick, Evelyn Williams, Elmer Fiske and Leon Neher, contributed articles and poetry for the paper.

An editorial on the theme, "Pathways of Peace," was written by Rev. Glenn Swinger, Regional Youth adviser.

The issue is to come out May 24, but Lois expects to receive a proof of the copy in the near future.

97 Pints Of Blood

Are Given To Red Cross

Leaders and counselors are needed for the Lazy Acres Pueblo Girl Scout Camp, Pueblo, Colo., June 20 - August 11. The camp is located in the mountains of San Isabel National Forest.

Unit leaders must be over 21 years of age, and are responsible for program planning and program activities.

Students in charge of the dinner for the donators were Betty Bramwell, Marinel Johnson, Lois Rolfs and Alberta Elbert. Other students assisted in such ways as typists, receptionists, and waitresses.

The Red Cross was very pleased and thought the Blood Bank a success. They encourage the sponsorship on the Bloodmobile at the college each year.

The SCA will sponsored it this year, wishes to thank students and faculty for their cooperation in making it such a success.

Students Tell Of Ideal Prof

A Texas paper claims it has "found" the ideal professor. He is: One who can laugh with his class; a guy who has a sense of humor and uses it in the classroom.

A well prepared lecturer who thoroughly understands his subject.

A friendly, enthusiastic person who is really interested in his class and who is aware that ideas contrary to his own may be just as sound.

One who does not use the curve system of grading, but rather rates each individual on effort as well as achievement.

Bids for parked cars, radios, other boy's girl friends, pies, cakes, picnics were sold off by barkers Karl Baldner, Joe Kennedy and Keith Rickner last night at the WSSF auction. It is a way to raise money for the World Student Service Fund.

Anyone who wants to auction off something, no matter whether it's the back seat of your car or a date, could do it by telling what it is and signing a card—the auctioneers go to work and sell the thing to the highest bidder. It brought a lot of laughs, money, and fun.

The ladies trio trip had to be canceled. One of the members got a secondary ear infection and is in bed. She got this illness on the A Cappella Choir tour, which aggravated the infection, so she's been held up in Arnold Hall for a week or so, now.

A week ago Thursday night, Kathy Russell had a surprise party on 4th floor Arnold. Shrimp, sauce, carrot slices, celery sticks, cheese, and crackers were on the menu for refreshments.

George Keltz is going to run our student body next year as president and Ed Frantz will carry the headaches of keeping the books balanced and the minutes written.

The Foods gals are now planning individual dinners. Each girl is to plan a dinner and invite one guest, plus a student class critic and the instructor. These meals are planned down to the most minute detail and the person who gets invited should appreciate them.

Play day isn't too far away. The skits are to be given next week. In years past, these skits have made the difference between winning and losing the play day between classes.

Last Wednesday morning the Arnold Hall gals on 4th floor gave a pajama breakfast party to honor Ermalee Phillips, who has recently moved into the dormitory and had a birthday. All of the girls wore their Pajama Downy's from the cafeteria at 6:45 A.M. for the birthday party.

Last weekend the Urban Sociology Class toured part of Chicago under the direction and guidance of the Sociology professor at Chicago University. They visited Hull House, Skid Row, the Gold Coast (rich section), and the Slums, which is four blocks west of the Gold Coast.

They went on top of the Board of Trade Building, which is forty-three stories high, to take pictures of Chicago at a birds eye view.

They also got to visit the Ghetto, a Jewish center where sellers are all over the streets trying to sell merchandise. They even block traffic by setting up their wares in the middle of the streets.

On Sunday, they attended one of the Black Belt churches, which is in the colored section. They also toured the University of Chicago. The group rolled in Monday, a little tired but had a better idea of the revolving world in which we live.

A campus survey shows that blue denim is on the rampage and looks like it's here to stay a little while, especially blue denim jackets.

Grades came out last Friday.

Two students, Karl Baldner of Macollie and Ann Reinhold of Central College went to Hutchinson to attend the lecture of Nathan Cohen Beekin, a converted Russian Jew and former classmate of Joseph Stalin. He gave his speech at the Free Methodist Church.

Tuesday night, the car that Betty Jo Baker, Mildred Beck, Barbara Berry, Lois Knacksiedt and Marlonna Wise were in, ran out of gas just on the other side of the draw.

Betty Jo had given a blood donation the day before, and used that as an excuse for not pushing Lois tried to steer the car while the others pushed. They finally got it to a gas station, though.

Kline Hall girls are free once again after being put in solitary confinement for one week. They didn't fare too badly, though because hamburgers and pop got smuggled in after "their" hours of friends.

Puerto Rico Workcamp Is Held June 26

More information on the Cerro summer work camp project in Puerto Rico has been disclosed by the Brethren Service Commission at Elgin, Ill.

The work camp will start June 26 and end August 8. About $200 will be needed for the work camp, including round-trip flight from New York, room, board and laundry. A $25 minimum should also be allowed for an island tour if this is desired.

Fellowship and service will be the main things derived from this project, which is, to remodel a building needed to open a church there, and a clinic and recreation center. The camp will also feature living, a good chance for fellowship.

D. W. Bittinger toured Puerto Rico in December, 1952 and reported on the feasibility of establishing a project at Cerro, which is a primitive rural Indian community in the heart of Puerto Rico.

The site of this project is located near the top a large mountain on which one is able to see both sides of the island and the ocean also on both sides.

Anyone desiring information or applications for this project may contact the Brethren Service Commission at 22 South State Street, Elgin, Ill.

Regional Cabinet Holds Retreat At Darlow Church

This year's Western Region Youth Cabinet Retreat was held at the Pleasantview Church of the Brethren at Darlow, Kansas, April 13-14.

The election of new cabinet members was the main item of business. Norman Long was elected president, Don Fike, vice-president, Norann Royer, secretary, Bob Powell, treasurer, and Leon Neher was elected new editor of the regional news letter.

Burkholder Will Teach New Courses Next Year

Three new courses in the Biology department curriculum have been included in the new 1953-1954 McPherson College catalog to be released in the near future.

Dr. John Burkholder, new head of the Biology department is replacing Dr. R. E. Mohler, who replaced last semester after nearly four decades of service to McPherson College. Dr. Burkholder's new courses are Cytology and Histology, Speciation, and Topics in Biology. All three of these courses are upper level.

Cytology and Histology is a three-hour course. It has no prerequisite of Biology 1 and 2. It deals mainly with microscopic study of plant and animal cells, with laboratory practice in histological and cytological techniques. It will be offered alternate years, 1953-1954.

Speciation will also be offered on alternate years, 1954-1955. It is a three hour course which will deal with biological mechanisms which have operated, and are operating, to produce organic evolution, etc. Prerequisites for this course are Biology 1 and 2 and genetics.

Topics in Biology will be a survey of those fields of biology which have little or no consideration in other courses. This is for more advanced Biology students.

Students Attend Peace Institute

Ten Macollie students attended a peace institute, which was held at Mountain Grove, Missouri, April 10, 11, and 12. Those who went were Betty Holderread, Virginia Holderread, Dorothy Lucre, Betty Lou Herschberger, Wesley Ikenberry, Gary Jones, Leon Neher, Max Parmley, Gerald Ulrich, and Ted Vance.

Dan West was the leader of the institute. Approximately 25 Brethren young people participated, most of them high school students.

The group discussed various aspects of the problem of achieving peace and the responsibilities of youth in the world of today.

While at the conference, the girls lived together in the parsonage and the boys in another home near the church. The group cooked all their own meals in the church basement.

55 Students Will Take Field Trips

The Geology and the Inorganic Chemistry classes under Prof. Wesley De Coursey will go on field trips starting as from this afternoon, April 18, and continuing tomorrow morning, April 19.

This afternoon, the two classes will visit the American Salt Corporation at Lyons, Kans. The Chemistry class, in particular, will inspect the manufacture of salt. Both classes will go down the mine shafts to observe the procedures underground. The two classes will then journey back to McPherson.

Tomorrow morning, April 18, the Geology class will continue on the tour, and will take a trip to Kanopolis Dam, near Ellsworth, Kans. The class will also stop at a couple of places for rock and fossil hunting.

A total of about 55 students will be engaged in these trips.
