

Boosters To Attend Banquet Tonight

"The Mission Of Christianity"

55 Emphasis Presents Yale Instructor

Christian Emphasis Week will get underway this year on Sunday, March 27, at which time Dr. John Oliver Nelson, professor of Christian vocation at Yale University Divinity School, will speak during the morning worship service at the Church of the Brethren.

Dr. Nelson will lead the college and church groups throughout the week, according to McColledge's director of religious life, Prof. Dick Wareham.

The tentative schedule for Christian Emphasis Week is as follows: Sunday 11:00 a.m. Church Worship at the Church of the Brethren, "The Vision of the Mission."

6:00 p.m. Church fellowship and fellowship and discussion, "The Aspects of Pacifism."

Monday 9:35 a.m. Special Chapel "The Mission and Education."

10:30 a.m. Open group discussion 7:30 p.m. College church - "The Mission and Society."

8:45 p.m. Faculty Informal Get-Together - "Christian Education for Today."

Tuesday 9:35 a.m. Chapel "The Mission and the Family."

10:30 a.m. Open group discussion 7:30 p.m. College church - "The Mission and the Individual."

8:45 p.m. SCA - "The Student and His Christian Experiences."

Wednesday 9:35 a.m. Chapel

"The Mission and the Individual's Vocation."

10:30 a.m. Open group discussion 7:30 p.m. College church - "The Mission and the World."

The schedule for chapels will be changed this week. Instead of the regular Tuesday and Friday chapel there will be chapels on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. On Monday, classes will be condensed, and the Monday chapel will not be compulsory.

The Tuesday and Wednesday chapels will be the regular chapels with the Wednesday chapel taking the place of the regular Friday chapel.

Edward Frantz, Nancy Keim, and Miss Sarah May Vancil, will be the chairmen of these three chapels.

The 10:30 a.m. hour each day will be open for informal group discussion with Dr. Nelson. This hour will give students who wish an opportunity to meet with Dr. Nelson to do so.

Debaters Plan Redlands Journey

Don Ullom, a junior from Colorado, and Don Faules, also a junior from Colorado, who make up McPherson College's number one debate team will leave with their debate coach, Max McAuley, and the McPherson College women's team, Mary Lou Wise, a freshman from Iowa, and Anne Keim, a freshman from Idaho, on Thursday morning, March 31, for Redlands, Calif.

This group will represent McPherson College in the 1955 Pi Kappa Delta National Convention, which will be held on the Redlands University Campus.

The convention, which begins on April 3, will end on April 8. The University of Redlands Campus and the California Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta are the host for this convention.

Approximately 140 chapters of the Pi Kappa Delta will be taking part in the convention activities. Each school can send one men's team and one women's team. No mixed teams will take part.

The group from McPherson will travel to La Verne College, La Verne, Calif. On April 2, Max McAuley, Alumni Secretary of McPherson College, will meet with the Southern California Alumni chapter.

While in La Verne, Don Ullom will visit with his aunt, who is housemother at the women's dormitory at Mac's sister college, La Verne.

Included in the five-day convention of orators, extemporaneous speaking, debate, and discussion will be time for sight seeing, beach outings, and banquets.

Redlands, a city of 21,000, is "The Navel Orange Center of the World." The San Bernardino Mountains are less than an hour's drive from the city, as are such places as Palm Springs or Apple Valley. Within easy distance are some of the beaches of the Pacific.

Prof. Student Attend Greek Orthodox Church

Theodore Kaitsonis, Maccolledge student from Greece, and Miss Della Lehman, professor of English attended the Greek Orthodox Church in Wichita last Sunday.

Ted had planned to give the morning message, but on the Friday preceding his visit the archbishop issued a statement which would allow no person to be a guest speaker without his permission. Time did not allow Ted to get permission, however, he did help in the service.

Plans Progress For April Drama

Esther Merkey will have a pony tail, and John Thomas is growing a real mustache for Maccolledge Players' spring production, "Stage Door."

The production requires that all make-up and staging be realistic since it will be given in arena style, according to Mrs. Wilbur Yoder, dramatics instructor.

Billy Joe Hildreth is in charge of building the stage. In charge of seating and chairs are Duane Fike and Leland Lengel, Marian McElwain and Barbara King are in charge of properties.

According to Mrs. Yoder, the story is summarized in a few words. Terry, the main character, has two chances for Hollywood and turns them both down in hopes of getting on the stage.

In the conclusion, she gains a husband and a stage career. The play will be given on April 13, 14, 15, and 16 in the SUR.

Julian Gromer To Show 'Jewels Of The Pacific'

Rounding the final curve of two and one half decades and going into the stretch for another twenty-five years will be the boosters of McPherson College as they attend the twenty-fifth annual Booster Banquet this evening in the Community Building. Spotlighting the evening will be Julian Gromer's movie-lecture, "Jewels of the Pacific," which brings glass bottomed gondolas, California Redwoods, San Franciscan sights, sea lions, salmon, whales, mountains and icebergs to the screen.

Julian Gromer

Julian Gromer, world traveler, photographer, and lecturer from Elgin, Ill., is one of two honorary members of the Chicago Cinema Club.

"Jewels of the Pacific" is the second film to provide entertainment for McPherson College Boosters, as scenes of "Columbia River Adventure," were shown at the annual affair in 1952.

The best commercial film of the year was recently selected as being Gromer's "Keys to Adventure." Another of his photography achievements which is well-known to Church of the Brethren audiences is "The African Prince."

Toastmaster for the eight o'clock program will be Merwin Hagood, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Rev. Ralph Hand, Presbyterian minister and president of the ministerial alliance, and Dr. D. W. Bittinger will have parts in the program.

The college's five varsity male musicians will sing "Halls of Ivy," including the recently composed verse by Norman Long which pertains specifically to Maccolledge.

To avoid the crowd which has jammed the street in past years, a buffet dinner instead of the usual banquet meal, will be served from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium section of the community building.

Boosters will be entertained with a musical program in the Community Building auditorium after finishing the buffet dinner or while waiting to eat. College musical ensembles participating are string quartet, freshman male quartet, ladies' trio, male quintet and ladies' quartet.

Chairman of the arrangements for the buffet dinner is Mrs. Raymond L. Flory.

Leland Lindell has served as chairman of ticket sales. Joint sponsors of the Booster Banquet are the McPherson Chamber of Commerce and the Public Relations Department of the college.

Rotary Sponsors Heifer Project

McPherson County's Rotary Club is sponsoring a heifer project and the 19 heifers cost a total of $3,832. This will send 19 heifers to Europe.

The Kiwanis Club of Lindsborg contributed $100 to the project. The local fund has reached $2,700. Individuals and churches have raised the grand total to $3,832.

The 19 heifers contributed by this area will be sent along with 46 others to Europe early in April. Prof. S. M. Dell, secretary of the Rotary Club and Dean of Men at McPherson College, will accompany the heifers to their destination.

Film To Depict Five Short Stories

Five tales written by the famous O. Henry (William Sydney Porter) will be shown at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night in the college chapel in the movie production, "O Henry's Full House."

John Steinbeck acts as a shaggy, wry-necked master of ceremonies in this Twentieth Century-Fox production which has been patterned after Somerset Maugham's programs of short film stories.

One of the five, "The Ransom of Red Chief," presents the nerve-racking dilemma of Fred Allen and Oscar Levant as they try to kidnap a small-town boy who likes to play Indians—for keeps.

"The Cop and the Anthem" shows Charles Laughton as a bum all full of mock majesty and a desire to be committed to jail for the cold winter.

"The Last Leaf" introduces Anne Baxter as a New York girl jilted by an actor and overcome by pneumonia and despair. Outside her window is a wind-swept vine, and she becomes convinced that the departure of the last leaf will mean her own death.

A conscientious detective comes upon a very tough old friend who has turned murderer in "The Clarion Call." There happens to be the added detail that the copper still owes the killer a thousand dollars.

Perhaps the most famous of all O. Henry's conclusions, and one of his prettiest bits of sentiment, of quest Jeanne Crain and Farley Granger as the poor young couple who think only of the other at Christmas time in "The Gift of the Magi."

Students Discuss Easter In Religious Activities

Rev. C. C. Brown of the First Methodist Church in McPherson gave the SCA talk on Thursday evening. His topic was "Where are You in Your Religion?" This is one in a series of "Where Are You . . ." talks.

Other speakers in this series have been Dr. Burton Metzler, Dean J. M. Berkebile, and Prof. Raymond Flory.

Next week's SCA meeting will be a pre-Easter worship service. Sunday evening's CBYF service will be held at 6:30 in the church basement. Discussion on the history of the Church of the Brethren will be continued.

Prof. Seek Speaker For English Meeting

Prof. Donald R. Frederick of the McPherson College Vocal and Instrumental Music Department has been in Elgin, Ill., attending a meeting of the Music and Worship Committee of the Church of the Brethren.

This committee is composed of such church men in the field of music as Paul Halliday, Nevin Fisher, Al Brightbill, Galen Steinbaugh, and Elias Brightbill.

This group meets annually to discuss the promotion of music in the nation. Many of these same men were instrumental in organizing and contributing to the present hymnal of the Church of the Brethren.

Students Go To NCAA

Bill Smith and George Casbeer were in Kansas City last weekend attending NCAA Tournament.

Home Economists Attend Annual State Convention

"Views for Future Home Economists" is the theme for the State Convention of College Home Economics Clubs being held in Hutchinson, Kans., at the Baker Hotel today and tomorrow.

Tours to the Kansas State Reformatory and to television station KTVH are being conducted for the guests by the Friends University of Wichita.

Following registration at 8 a.m. in the mezzanine of the hotel, Miss Janet Kelly from General Mills Flour Company gave a talk to the girls, "Know What to Look For."

Revision of the constitution, plans for the fall workshop, and election of new officers were the main items of business at the business meeting.

"A View of What's Ahead" was the title of a talk given by Emma Baesberger, interior decorator.

The afternoon program consists of another talk, "Home Economists from Other Counties," the tour, a tea, and in the evening, a banquet of the Kansas Home Economics Association in the hotel.

Saturday's program includes an interfraternity breakfast to be held in the hotel, installation of officers, and a talk by Mrs. Dorothy Burgess of the American Wool Bureau, "A Site on Tomorrow's Fabrics."

Joyce Romeiser, president of the Kansas College Clubs, is toastmistress for a luncheon at the Bisette Hotel, where the program featured a Fashion Review sponsored by the Wiley Department Store of Hutchinson.

A group of Maccolledge members went to the meetings today with Miss Mildred Siek, club advisor and home economics instructor. More of the members plan to attend the meetings tomorrow.

Lindsborg Presents Easter Oratorios

Handel's "The Messiah" and Bach's "The St. Matthew Passion," two of the most famous of sacred oratorios, will be performed as major events of the 74th Annual Messiah Festival at Bethany College, Lindsborg, April 3-10.

On Palm Sunday and again on Easter Sunday the Bethany College Oratorio Society, Bethany Symphony Orchestra, and guest soloists Stevenson, soprano, New York; Margaret Tobias, contralto, New York; Harold Haugh, tenor, East Lansing, Mich.; and Norman Farrow, bass, New York.

Dean Lloyd Spear will be concertmaster, and Lambert Dahlsten, organist.

On Easter Sunday at 3:30 p.m. the Metropolitan opera mezzo-soprano, Blanche Thebom, will be presented in recital at Presser Hall.

Reserved seat tickets went on sale at the Bethany College Business Office on March 6. Prices are as follows:

Handel's "The Messiah," Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday—$1.50, $2, $2.50.
Blanche Thebom recital, Easter Sunday, $1, $1.50, $2.

Connie Brooks Wins First Place Certificate In Music Talent Audition

Miss Connie Brooks, sophomore music education major from Wickerman, Kans., won first place certificate for the third year when she entered the Music Talent Fund Audition Sponsored by the Seventh District of the Kansas Federation of Women's Clubs on March 16.

Connie sang "Summer" by C. Chaminade, which was a suggestion of the contest committee. "At Eve I Heard a Flute" was the song she sang for her free choice. It was written by Lily Strickland.

Connie received a $10-prize and a certificate which grants her entrance to the state contest which will be held at Wichita.

Carol Watkins, sophomore from Ottawa, Kans., was Connie's accompanist.

Connie was sponsored by the Nickerson Women's Club in the contest.

A soloist has to win three first place certificates before she can go to the state contest.

Instructions will be sent to Connie later as to what she will sing and when she will sing for the state contest.

Pacific Region To Hold '55 Youth Conference

Regional cabinet members in the Pacific Coast Region have decided to have a get-together of youth in that region, who attended the National Youth Conference last year at Anderson, Ind.

They will meet at the Chico State College in northern California August 24-28, 1955.

Mac Students Vote Today For Next Year's Top Officers

Student body elections for the positions of treasurer and president of Student Council were waged today in the college's annual election.

Candidates for the running for college governmental positions were balloted and elected this morning during the regular chapel period.

Election results will be announced tonight at the Booster Banquet. Revising the traditional student council election a trifle, the Student Council held the election this year during the chapel period itself, instead of conducting it at polls throughout the entire day.

Candidates for both offices first presented a properly signed petition bearing 50 names to the Student Council. According to council rules all those running for president are present members of the junior class while those for treasurer are members of next year's junior class.

Although often keeping in the background, except on Wednesday nights when the group comes to light in its regular weekly meeting in room 27 in Sharp, the Student Council has powers and duties which often have a far-reaching effect on the students.

The Council directly administers the Spectator, the Quadrangle, and the Student Handbook, the Growl; it directs the income from the Student Activity fee, and awards recognition of achievement in extra-curricular participation.

Being the official voice of the student body, the Student Council determines and speaks student opinion, expressing it to the faculty, the administration, and the Board of Trustees when necessary.

Council members are coordinators for extra-curricular activities and may act as a board of arbitration in disputes between classes and student organizations.

Mary Elizabeth Swinger and Al Blocher represent extra-curricular activities.

Faculty members on the council are Dr. James Berkebile, Prof. Sarah May Vancil, Prof. S. M. Dell, and Prof. Raymond Flory. Student Court elections will be held at a later date following Easter vacation.

Ponder With The President

A few weeks ago, I had the privilege of hearing Mrs. Marshall speak.

Charged

By Garner Berg

Mrs. Marshall's book, "The Man Called Peter," was the best-seller list for twenty-six months. That is one of the longest times a non-fiction book has been on the best-seller list.

Not too long ago I overheard my oldest boy and his friend talking about lightning. They were talking very mysteriously about something which they did not understand. The friend asked my son if he had ever been hit by lightning, and my son answered quickly, "No, but it was pointed at me once."

The book has now been made into a movie called "A Man Called Peter," and is being released this month for viewing throughout the United States.

We as Christians are often in the same situation. We talk about our Christian faith, something which is too large to be fully understood by the human mind.

Mrs. Marshall said that she really did not write the book, but that God wrote it through her; any credit which comes through the book or which will come through the picture really should go to God for having ordered and guided her as she did this work for Him.

We often speak of the love, understanding and saving power of Jesus Christ, but too often we only allow this faith to be pointed in our direction. We do not open our hearts to the full truth which Christ teaches.

Mrs. Marshall said that the world is turning once again to religion. She pointed out to us that many of the top times are now written and sung around religious themes. She pointed out also that not only her book but many other books which are best sellers are written around religious themes or directly around episodes in the Bible.

The youth of today are fortunate in that they are maturing in a time when the whole world is witnessing one of the greatest revivals in church attendance and church activities which has ever existed.

In a similar manner, some of the outstanding movies of the past two or three years have been on biblical themes and movies to be released soon are still playing up biblical themes.

Now is the time to allow ourselves to be charged with the full strength of our Christian beliefs and to so live our lives that we may lead others to the Christian faith.

Whoops!

The scientists, military people, and political people are turning to religion, urging that religion find a way which will release all of us from the path of destruction we now follow. It is recognized universally that our only salvation, collectively, and of course individually, is in the realm of religion.

Ruth Davidson got all the ice cream she wanted free at the Steffan's Dairy in Wichita when the Home Ec and Mac Ag Club were touring there Tuesday.

Mrs. Marshall says that the entire psychology of the world is for a great religious revival. She believes that we who are followers of Christ should turn at once toward strengthening and deepening our Christian convictions.

This perfect situation was not as perfect as it sounds. A pipe that was pumping compressed frozen ice cream broke at the joint. The pipe was facing the Macollege tourists.

She believes that only when the colleges definitely commit themselves to Christianity and Christian truth, and when they incorporate in their curriculums specific methods by which Christian principles can be put into operation in our individual lives, will we find the way out of our distress and despair.

Glenn C. Swinger, assistant to the president and public relations director of the college, has had a great part in furthering the 1955 Booster Banquet which takes place tonight.

Mr. Swinger has backed promotion and directed solicitation for several months.

We can all be happy that at McPherson we have definitely committed ourselves to the way of Christianity. Our young people are seeking to give expression to Christian principles by serving their fellowmen overseas and in various parts of our own country.

Pastor Wins Alcohol Contest

Rev. Harry K. Zeller, college church pastor, won second place in a State Alcohol Sermon Contest. The title of his winning manuscript was "Spirit vs. Spirits." He had delivered the talk in church during the past year, only under a different title.

Mac Profs Instruct

Three pre-college piano students, Donna Froese of Inman, a student of Miss Minnie Mugler and Jolitta Schleuber of McPherson and Pamela Kaufman of Moundridge, students of Miss Anne Krehbiel, entered the McPherson County Music Festival, held in McPherson on March 16, 17, and 18. The three students received high superiors.

Pledging To A Flag

By Kelly Day

I felt constrained to make a few remarks as to my understanding, on why we as Christians conscientiously do not salute a flag. First we find the flag to be an image, emblem, or symbol, whichever you wish to call it, as all three meanings are synonymous. It is not that we are opposed to symbols, but we do make discriminations as to what they stand for.

From what I can glean from history, the flag was first used as a means of identification for military troops. Later it became a symbol of militarism and political organization. Thus it remains today, a symbol, ever-present in battle, and at political gatherings. At this point I would like to go to the early history of mankind and refer to the Garden of Eden in which man was governed by God's law.

We know that after the transgression and expulsion, man proceeded to govern himself. Immediate results were contrary to righteousness. In due time God instituted certain laws for man to follow and in them forbade the use of graven images, etc. Coming down to our present time, being no longer under the Old Law, we would refer to the New Testament in which in several instances sound reasoning would seem it unreasonable to pledge allegiance to worldly powers.

The 17th and 18th Chapters of John make it plain that we who have named the name of Jesus Christ are not of this world. Since we are not of the world, how then can we pledge allegiance to it? The true patriot is true to his country, but what is our country? The 13th chapter of Hebrews plainly asserts that our country is heaven, and we are strangers and pilgrims on the earth. In 1 John 3: 15-17, we find that we are not to love the world, neither the things that are in the world, for if we do, the love of the Father will not be in us.

Daniel Hirschler Dies

Dr. Daniel Hirschler, president emeritus of College of Emporia, died March 22.

Dr. Hirschler had retired from the college in 1947 because of ill health. He had been a member of the faculty since 1914. He was dean of music at College of Emporia until 1941 when he became president.

Dr. Hirschler was well known in this area and the Midwest for his work with organs. He supervised the installation of 40 organs in Kansas.

All worldly lust shall pass away with the world, but if we do the will of God, we shall live forever.

Now let us examine the facts. The flag was not instituted by God, for the Word speaks against images. Evidently such a symbol or a type of it came into being when man was away from God and attempting to govern himself; for we find no mention of it in Eden, and when God instituted His laws for the children of Israel, we find numerous laws concerning it.

Furthermore it does not seem consistent to make an image or symbol from any material and stand before it in a certain position and pledge ourselves to it.

It is certain that Christians have symbols, some having more than others in this respect. It is not consistent with gospel order, as we understand it, to make much use of them.

In relation to the cross as a Christian symbol, however, I may state that it brings to mind the sufferings and death of Christ, as well as the way of self-denial. Nowhere have I ever seen Christian people stand and salute that cross or pledge themselves to it.

In contrast the flag symbolizes militarism and political organization. As Christians we are to pray for the rulers and all who are in authority.

This was not written in any disrespect to the country or to the flag, but rather that we as Christians might render a greater service by taking our rightful position, and by our prayers in behalf of all those who are in authority, obtain a greater blessing.

I have endeavored to write what I believe to be the truth and desire to offend no one. Realizing then that every idle word shall be accounted for in judgment this is humbly submitted in the fear of God.

Americans To Observe Annual Christian College Day

NEW YORK, Mar. 17—From the pulpits of hundreds of campus chapels and thousands of college town churches the role of America's Christian Colleges in molding the nation's youth will be hailed during observance of National Christian College Day, Sunday, April 24.

Speaking teams representing faculty and students, together with mass choir groups, will make guest appearances in churches, auditoriums and in radio broadcasts as a tribute to the historic work of 471 Protestant church-related colleges. The day is sponsored nationally by the National Council of Churches through its Division of Christian Education.

"For more than two centuries higher education has been carried on by the churches of our land," declared Dr. Gerald E. Knoff, executive secretary of the Council division. "The contributions of our churches to society and state have been incalculable. Now with a tremendous throng of young men and women coming out of our secondary schools, the needs of our colleges are vastly increased."

The church leader described Christian College Day as "an opportunity for the Christian forces of America to express their conviction that the church-related colleges are tremendously important. The people of America will do well to reflect upon what we owe these colleges and to find for them support equal to their needs," he added.

Meanwhile a program enlisting the support of tens of thousands of church laymen has been launched across the country. The United Church Men-laymen's wing of the 39-communion National Council of Churches has begun an educational program that eventually is expected to spread the story of the needs of the colleges to every state.

Planning for the over-all national program is being done by a new church-related college committee of United Church Men, under chairmanship of R. Carter Tucker, Kansas City, Mo., attorney.

The 15-member group, composed of church leaders, businessmen and educators including several college presidents, will work in close collaboration with the National Council of Churches' Commission on Christian Higher Education.

Goal of the program, said Mr. Tucker, is to obtain "finer and better support for non-tax-supported colleges to enable them to prepare for the increasing load of students."

State-operated schools, he pointed out, are already preparing for a great influx of students who will enroll in the tax-subsidized institutions "by the millions" over the next decade.

"The support of our church educational institutions is no longer an elective but an imperative," he said. "There is a danger that higher education will some day be entirely under the control of the state unless steps are taken now."

Detailed plans for implementing the information program in all parts of the country are expected to be announced in the next few weeks.

Play May Be Repeated

Miss Betty Lou Hershberger, who directed the play, "They Came to a City," which was presented at the college church Sunday evening, March 20, is working plans for some more presentations of the play in May.

The play was given to a large audience Sunday evening. The high school CBYF served refreshments in the church parlors after the performance.

Spring Has Sprung -- Or Almost, Anyhow

Winter, Winter, Please Go 'Way!

Spring has come to McPherson, but with no warnings as to when she might take a vacation. Perhaps she felt unappreciated and sends some winter now and then to show how fine she really is.

The first day of spring on Macampus brought a cold wintry snow storm. It all began on Sunday morning with a light rain which turned into a freezing mist and finally into snow by Monday morning.

Only a few days before that, students had begun sporting summer cottons, winter coats and sweaters had been packed away in mothballs, golf clubs were dusted and tried out again, and the tennis courts had once more become a scene of action.

Studying was an impossibility. The Principles of Elementary Education class had scheduled a field trip on March 21 to take advantage of the expected weather for the first day of spring. They took the field trip in the snow.

Even Jezebelle was affected by the cold and finally came forth with a feeble sound as 12:15 p.m. on Monday.

On Sunday, a group of Maccollege students were snowbound in Oakland, Neb., as they were returning to the campus after having been away for the weekend.

Mary Alice Smith, Peg Hocter, Norris Harris, Leo Landhuis, and Marlon Landhuis had a hard time finding a place to stay. Finally they called the Methodist minister in Oakland, and he came to their rescue.

The group left Oakland at 11 a.m. Monday morning and arrived here at 7 p.m. Monday evening. It has been reported that peach and plum crops have been ruined by the sudden freezing weather of the first day of spring.

The weather bureau reports that there was .50 inch of snow and .02 inch of moisture.

Reinecker-Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reinecker of Quinter, Kans., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jo Eva, to Gary Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones of Cqbool, Mo.

She is a sophomore majoring in music education and is well known for her active part in the Ladies Trio. Gary is a junior taking pre-veterinary work. He is the president of the Chapel Choir.

Youth of the southeastern district of Kansas met last weekend, March 19, 20, at the Independence, Kans., Church of the Brethren for their spring rally.

Emphasis was placed on service and peace. Wanda Will presented her slides from Germany, and Marlene Moats talked about her last summer's caravan experiences.

Other leaders were Rev. Carlos Ziegler of the Fredonia Church, Rev. Robert Teagarden of the Parsons Church, and Rev. Kenneth Wampler of the Independence Church.

Those who attended the rally from McPherson were Wanda Will, Marlene Moats, Dorothy Blough, Vera Mohler, Norann Blough, Max Royer, Gene Myers, Dale and Neva Shenefelt, Betty Holloway, Pat Schoecher, Margaret Courtney, and Ruth Davidson.

Classes, Clubs Visit

Members of the Mac Agriculture Club, Home Ec Club, and Agriculture and Home Ec classes sponsored a field trip to Wichita, Tuesday, March 22, where they visited two packing plants and a milk and ice cream processing plant.

About 35 students went on the trip with sponsors, Miss Mildred Siek, professor of home economics, Prof. Guy Hayes, associate professor of rural life, and Prof. S. M. Dell, professor of industrial arts education who is on sabbatical leave this semester.

Telephone wires were down in some parts of the state.

The sun came out in springtime splendor the next day, though, and soon all the snow had disappeared. The winter left reluctantly, but perhaps it is permanent this time. Wootens are once again being packed away, and springtime activities are attempted once more.

Easter is approaching, and the bushes, trees, and flowers are beginning to show signs that a typical April will soon be here.

Austin-Enborg

Mrs. Jean Austin, Canton, has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Iris Jane, to William G. Enborg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Enborg, McPherson.

Bill is a junior at McPherson College.

The wedding will be April 9 at the Canton Methodist Church.

Miss Austin is employed at the Friesen Studios.

Grades Are Due

Tuesday, March 22, at 5 p.m. is the deadline for grades to be turned in to the Central Office.

Mrs. Alice B. Martin, registrar, has announced.

Girls Sing Throughout 'Sooner' State

Sunday night, March 20, the Maccollege Ladies' Quartet completed its sixty-fourth program together. This program was given at Conway Springs, Kans.

This was the last program of the quartet's spring tour which started on March 13. The girls toured in Oklahoma and gave 16 programs while on tour.

Members of the quartet are Evelyn Williams, first alto; Donna Berry, second alto; LaFaughn Hubbard, first soprano; and Kathy Albin, second soprano.

Programs were given at the Bartlesville, Antelope Valley, Pleasant Plains, Ames, Thomas, the Washita, the Big Creek and Oklahoma City Churches and also at two high schools and one Lions Club in Oklahoma.

Max McAuley, alumni secretary for McPherson College, accompanied the Quartet.

While on their tour the girls stayed in the home of the Delbert Smiths in Thomas Okla. Mr. Smith is a brother to Mary Alice Smith, a sophomore at Maccollege.

They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Don Stern of Oklahoma City. Mr. Stern is a brother of Roy Stern and Mrs. Stern is the sister of Cliff Reeves.

The quartet also met the parents of Joe Reeves, Betty and Don Holderread and Esther Merkey and Warren Sanger's sister while on tour.

The girls met a variety of weather, being in a dust storm and a tornado rain. The first day of their tour was very hot and the second one rather cold, they report.

In between their singing engagements, the girls went shopping in Oklahoma City and saw a style show put on by men imitating women. They also visited Phillips University and Camp Spring Lake, the Oklahoma Church of the Brethren Camp.

"Ten Little Indians" proved to be the favorite song with the audiences.

One comment which the quartet voiced was their approval of the contributions provided by the local church members during the tour.

Several weekends have recently featured Maccollege girls in the party room of the McCourt Hotel. This Saturday night will see another similar get-together for all interested students.

A tea in the church basement last Tuesday night was the setting.

Symphonette Gives Classical Concert

McPherson College Symphonette presented a musical program Friday evening, March 18. The concert was held in the College Chapel.

The Symphonette, derived from last year's string ensemble, was directed by Prof. Paul Soltenberg.

Included on the program of the string concert was "Let Freedom Ring Overture" by Demarest, "Finale from Fifth Symphony" by Beethoven, "Tales from the Vienna Woods" by Strauss, and "Introduction to Act III of Lohengrin" by Wagner.

The Symphonette also presented several themes from the "Nutcracker Suite," including "Maestoso," "March," "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy," "Dance of the Mirlitons," and "Waltz of the Flowers."

"Thine Alone" by Herbert and Stormy Weather" by Koehler and Alen concluded the program. Composing the Symphonette are nine violins, two violas, a cello, two basses, a piano, two flutes, two French horns, a trumpet, a trombone, a tympani, and bells. Members of the Symphonette are college students, faculty members, and high school students.

Canine Tales

Macampus was unusually quiet last weekend. Many students had packed and gone home. A group had also come to Independence, Kans., for the Southeast Kansas Rally. The Ladies' Quartet was out on their spring tour, and still others were on the Solology field trip to Chicago.

Rita Ellen Royer was honored at two bridal showers at her home in Dallas Center, Iowa.

Attending a dinner party at the home of Nancy (Dayton) and Larry Brooks tomorrow night, at Nickerson, Kans., will be a group of Maccollege fellows and girls.

The party will include Rita Royer and Galen Slifer, Evelyn Williams and Max Farmley, Connie Brooks and Leland Lengel, Lois Sinnette and Dale DeLauter, Kathy Albin and Leon Albert, Eula Mae Murrey and Don Goodfellow.

Also attending will be Norann and Dwight Blough, Elsie and Van Hall, Carol Watkins and Ken Fancher, and Marilyn Spohn.

Members of Regional Youth Cabinet went to the home of Eula Mae Murrey at Conway for dinner and the regular weekly meeting, Tuesday, March 22.

Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson invited business majors to dinner Tuesday evening.

Students Travel To Learn

PITTSBURG, Kans. — (ACP) — Riding a snomobile up the face of a glacier, swimming in Great Salt Lake of Utah, riding a San Francisco cable car and cruising on Puget Sound are but a few of the experiences students will encounter when taking another Pittsburg State College "traveling classroom" to the far west this August.

According to the Pittsburg State College News Bureau, the "classroom" will journey 6,300 miles through eleven western states and Canada, along the romantic and historical Oregon and California trails.

Four hours of college credit will be given for the trip, in either American history or geography, to count toward degrees in social science or elementary education, explained Dr. Alvin Proctor, head of K.S.T.C. social science department who will head the trip.

for revealing the engagement of Jo Eva Reinecker to Gary Jones, Glenn Swinger began the program with an introduction followed by a piano solo by Mrs. Swinger. The Ladies' Trio sang "Blue Moon" and "Side by Side."

Mr. Swinger gave a short talk on "homes," and Gary and Jo Eva went forward, joined right hands, and their engagement was announced. Late congratulations were sung to the couple when they returned to the dorms that evening.

Metzler To Hold Holy Week Series

Dr. Burton Metzler, professor of philosophy and religion at Maccollege will hold meetings in the Big Creek Church of the Brethren near Cushing, Okla., beginning Tuesday evening before Easter and closing on Easter Sunday evening.

These will be a series of holy week services. Rev. S. A. Carber is the pastor of the Big Creek Church.

Betty and Don Holderread, Maccollege students from Oklahoma, are members of this church.

Prof. Attends Meeting

Dr. Wendell Johnson, who was to have been the main speaker for the Kansas Association of College Teachers of English when the group meets on Maccollege campus April 15-16, has written Miss Della Lehman of the English Department that he will be unable to come to McPherson because of recent illness.

Miss Lehman, Prof. Maurice A. Hess, Miss Sarah May Vancil, Maccollege English instructors, are trying to find a speaker to take Dr. Johnson's place as the banquet speaker on Friday evening.

Dr. John L. Hopkins, of University of Kansas will be one of the speakers at the meeting, and Dr. James Wortham, also from Kansas University will be a leader.

Pre-College Pupils Win Recognition In Contest

Monte Zenger and Diana Johnson of McPherson, two students from the studio of Miss Anne Krehbiel, associate professor of piano, were recognized in the first-year piano competition at the Fifth District Federated Music Assn. held March 17 in Wellington, Kans.

Monte received a credit slip and was one of five out of 42 contestants selected to enter second-year competition next year. Diana Johnson received an honorable mention rating.

McPherson College Wins First Track Meet Of Season 95 To 36

HILLSBORO — The McPherson College Bulldogs won their first track meet of the season here yesterday afternoon on a dusty, chilly and wind-swept field and track, defeating Tabor College 95 to 36 in a dual meet.

No outstanding marks were made by athletes on the teams. McPherson took first in every event except two, the high hurdles and the broad jump, and tied with Tabor in the high jump.

Tabor swept all three places in the broad jump with Wiens taking the event in 19 feet, 9 1/2 inches.

The 220-yard dash was won by Saunders of McPherson in the slow time of 29.6 seconds, but after the event had been run it was discovered that the course was 30 yards longer than it should have been so that accounted for the slow time.

Following is a summary of the meet:

100-yard dash—First, Saunders, McPherson; second, Hagen, Tabor; third, Decker, Tabor. Time 16.9 seconds.
220-yard dash—First, Saunders, McPherson; second, Carpenter, McPherson; third, Brown, Tabor. Time 36.6 seconds (distance measured wrong, 259 yards).
440-yard run—First, Blough, McPherson; second, Olman, Tabor; third, Sebala, Tabor. Time 57.2 seconds.
800-yard run—First, Blough, McPherson; second, Stucky, McPherson; third, Finning, Tabor. Time 2:10.4 minutes.
1 Mile run—First, Colberg, McPherson; second, Bower, McPherson; third, Priesen, Tabor. Time 5:10.4 minutes.
Two-mile run—First, Colberg, McPherson; second, Bower, McPherson; third, Decker, Tabor. Time 11:26.9 minutes.
Low hurdles—First, J. Snyder, McPherson; second, Regier, Tabor; third, Priesen, McPherson. Time 36.4 seconds.
High hurdles—First, Blough, McPherson; second, Patton, McPherson; third, S. Smith, McPherson. Time 2:10.4 minutes.
Shot—First, B. Smith, McPherson; second, Bensch, McPherson; third, Anderson, McPherson. Time 21.8 seconds.
Discus—First, Anderson, McPherson; second, B. Smith, McPherson; third, Regier, Tabor. Distance 128 feet.
Javelin—First, Bensch, McPherson; second, Anderson, McPherson; third, Regier, Tabor. Distance 137 feet.
Broad jump—First, Wiens, Tabor; second, Braun, Tabor; third, Klennasser, Tabor. Distance 19 feet.
High jump—First, Herzhberger, McPherson; second, Klennasser, Tabor; third, Wiens, Tabor. Height 3 feet 1 1/2 inches.
Pole vault—First, Herzhberger, McPherson; second, Enns, Tabor; third, S. Smith, McPherson. Height, 16 feet, 7 1/2 inches.
Relay—First, McPherson (Carpenter, Blough, Goodfellow, Stucky). Time, 3:42.8 minutes.

How 'Bout Playing Softball, Baseball?

Why isn't anyone playing softball or baseball on the campus? There have been some guys and gals playing catch or a game of work-up, but no teams have been organized.

Of course, the weather did take a turn for the worse this week, but that will not be a hindrance for the entire spring. Sunny, mild weather will soon blossom forth.

Quite a few people when interviewed in a previous Spectator said they would like to play baseball. When baseball was taken off the curriculum as a major Macollege sport, it did not mean that baseball was prohibited on the campus.

Coch Sid Smith gave four reasons why baseball was not going to be a major sport on campus.

1. Baseball is not recognized as a conference sport.
  2. Inability to schedule games made it almost prohibitive.
  3. There is no revenue from baseball.
  4. The incimate weather of Kansas is not conducive to baseball.
- However, these four reasons have no bearing on intramural baseball or softball. If enough students were interested, enough teams could be formed to afford competition during the spring months.
- Boys and girls could have separate intramural teams, as the basketball intramurals were, or mixed intramural teams, as the volleyball intramural teams were.
- Although baseball is good sport, softball is being advocated for intramural play. Dick Warham states that baseball is too dangerous without supervision and requires too large an area for play.

Lehman Speaks At Inman

Miss Della Lehman, of the English Department, spoke at a Red Cross luncheon at Inman Tuesday noon, March 22.

Mac College Girls Win Two Games At Washburn

Macollege coeds won two out of three volleyball games in the sports day held at Washburn University in Topeka on Saturday, March 19.

Ten girls took part in this event. They were Shirley Knackstedt, Betty Moore, Liz Swinger, Evelyn Jarboe, Arlene Merkey, Elsie Lucore, Sara Ann Coffman, Marleen Landhuis, Marilyn Metsker, and Harriette Grove.

The girls and Doris Coppock, director of women's athletics, left McPherson at 6:30 a.m. on Saturday. They stopped for breakfast along the way and arrived in time to play their first game at 10:30 a.m. In this game, Macollege was victorious over Washburn 31-29.

Macollege dropped its second game to Mount St. Scholastica 31-21. In their third game with Southwestern of Winfield, Macollege was the winner 36-21.

An official volleyball game consists of two fifteen-minute halves. Each school played three full games. Mount St. Scholastica, Emporia State, and Kansas State won all three of their games.

Friends College of Wichita, College of Emporia, and KSTC of Pittsburg were other schools taking part in the play day.

Town Announces Ban Johnson Plans

Ban Johnson Baseball for McPherson is becoming a reality as different local organizations are appointing directors of the local association.

Veterans of Foreign Wars, the City Recreation Commission, and the Chamber of Commerce announced their directors Tuesday, bringing the number of directors to eight with at least three more to be appointed.

A field manager will be hired by the directors after their organization.

Ticket sales for the baseball season began Tuesday. The goal set is 1,000 season tickets at $5 per pack.

Santee Speaks For High School Sports Banquet

Wes Santee, America's great miler, appeared at the McPherson High School Sports Banquet, March 23. The banquet took place at Convention Hall.

Spirit of Sports was the theme of the dinner. Sharon Mills, president of the High School Pep Club, served as toastmistress.

The banquet honored those boys who participated and will participate in football, basketball, track, tennis, or golf. The coaches were also honored.

Wes Santee has recently returned from the Pan American races in Mexico City. Mr. Santee was the holder of the world's fastest indoor mile for a short time, but his record was broken by a Danish miler.

Mr. Santee will go to Cleveland, Ohio and participate in the races there.

Piano Teacher Presents Pre-College Musicians In Spring Recital

A group of pre-college students from the study of Miss Anne Krebbel, associate professor of Piano at McPherson College, will be presented in a recital at the McPherson College Chapel, Sunday afternoon, March 27, at 4 p.m.

The program are Stanley Voth, Mary Jane Bangston, Keith Ericson, Marcia Krebbel, Bernice Zenger, Clair Schultis, Sandra Kohrs, Muriel Bechtel, Barbara Aschman, Kathy Schrag, Gaylia Schrag, Karolyn Loewen, Eileen Turner, and Barbara Heitschmidt. The public is invited to attend.

Manchester Holds UN Day

Dr. Kermit Eby, professor of sociology at the University of Chicago and a member of the Church of the Brethren, is the featured speaker today at the fourth Model United Nations Day being held on Manchester College campus.

Manchester, which is one of the Brethren colleges, is sponsoring the event which will be attended by 50 delegations from 18 schools. Revision of the United Nations charter will be the topic for consideration.

Sports Ups 'n' Downs . . .

Spring sports had a set-back on the first day of spring. The participants of the athletic squad awoke Monday morning to the howl of a wintry wind.

Monday was a bleak day on the Macollege sports scene. Only a few brave individuals ventured onto the tennis courts or track field. They soon gave it up, because it was too cold to accomplish anything.

Tuesday was a bright sunny day and the track and tennis squad did a light workout, because of a dual track meet with Tabor College on Wednesday.

Wednesday was the dual track and tennis meet at Tabor College. Thursday was a day of trying to run the soreness out of tired legs after the meet. Sprints, dashes, and long distance runs were all part of the track workouts. Tennis players worked out on the courts to improve their serves and other phases of play.

Coch Sid Smith outlined what each individual was expected to do in the Wednesday Tabor dual track meet last Tuesday at 3:30 in the southwest room of the athletic building. He also pointed out that all track members were required to report for practice every day.

Bulldog track squad will journey to Kansas Wesleyan for a quadrangular meet in Salina at 3:30. This will be the second track meet of the season.

Resourceful Students

STATE COLLEGE, M.F.S.S. — (ACP)—Some students receiving fourth class mail addressed to "Patron, Box Holder," at Mississippi State College, disposed of the mail as usual—either on the floor or in a trash box.

Inside each envelope, however, was a two-cent stamp for re-mailing a reply for a subscription. A group of enterprising students, realizing the potentialities of the event, picked up the discarded mail and collected the stamps.

According to The Reflector, at last report this group had accumulated four or five dollars worth of two-cent stamps, for free.

WUS Sends Medical Help

Hundreds of college students in Seoul, Korea, have received free treatment in the past eleven months at hospitals aided by World University Service.

Medical supplies contributed to WUS last year by the American-Korean Foundation reached Korea in April. They were distributed by the Korean Committee of World University Service to Ewha Woman's University Hospital, the Catholic Hospital, the Seoul University Hospital, and Severance Hospital in Seoul.

Korean university students in need of medical care may apply to the Korean WUS Committee for a ticket guaranteeing them free treatment at one of the four hospitals benefiting from the shipment.

Since initiation of the program 285 students have received free treatment at Severance Hospital, 573 at Catholic Hospital, and 40 at Seoul University Hospital. A large number have been cared for at the Ewha Hospital but, since the hospital regularly gives free treatment to Ewha students, no separate record of the exact number benefiting from the WUS shipment is available.

Ewha Hospital and Catholic Hospital each received 20 percent of the total shipment and Seoul University Hospital and Severance Hospital each received 30 percent. The medicines included penicillin, anti-biotics, sedatives, and other drugs.

Sociologists Study Chicago Slums, Stock Market, Ghetto, Skid Row

"How about a suit cheap?" "1000 shares of stock at $25 each here?" "Which 'L' do we take?" "Do we get a transfer?"

These and other questions were those asked and heard by members of Dr. Kenneth C. Bechtel's Urban Sociology class of Macollege as they studied the city of Chicago during their recent field trip.

During the first nine weeks, the class has studied about ecology of cities. In Chicago, all phases of ecology were studied, from the business center to the residential areas.

Members of the class visited the Merchandise Mart, the Midwest Stock Market, the Chicago Association of Commerce, the Ghetto, or Jewish section of the city, the Black Belt, Hull House and the Chicago Planning Commission.

They were also conducted on a tour of Skid Row, the Gold Coast, and the North Side Slums, by a student of sociology at the University of Chicago.

On Friday and Saturday nights the students were on their own. Everyone had something he wanted to do, and each had a different experience and story to tell.

Those making the journey were Leland Lengel, Norman Long, Martin Gauby, Karl Balder, Wilbur Davison, Karl Dalke, Tom Taylor, Leon Albert, Dale DeLauter, Wendell Lentz, Harvey Miller, Donna Ford, Ruth Kauffman, Esther Merkey, Art Benson, and Dr. Bechtel. Bethany Biblical Seminary served as the group's headquarters. Macollege alumni who are at the seminary sent greetings to students and faculty members here.

Students Invite Russian Editors

(ACP)—Fifteen Russian student newspaper editors have been invited to visit the Wellesley College campus next year "in the interests of promoting understanding and to satisfy our curiosity," the Wellesley News reports, if State Department approval can be secured.

The News, joining at least 10 other colleges and universities in a project sponsored by the Swarthmore College Student Council, has written Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, asking that the Russians' visas be approved.
