

Navajo Student Will Speak At Missions Dinner Sunday Night

A Birthday Dinner, to which all students are invited, will culminate the annual School of Missions on Sunday evening, Jan. 30, at 6:15 in the College Church. Main speaker for this event is Ruth Hanagarne, who graduated from the Navajo Methodist Mission School at Farmington, N. M., last spring.

Ruth's talk will be about the customs, dress, activities, and education of the Navajo Indians. Ruth, a freshman at Macollege, comes from Shiprock, N. Mex. She is majoring in mathematics.

In Dr. R. E. Mohler's talk last Sunday evening, he gave a preview of the five main groups of Indians in America.

These five groups, by area, were those of the northeast; those of the southeast, which are now in Florida; those of the plains area; and those of the Pacific Northwest; and those of the desert region, which are mainly the Navajos which Miss Hanagarne will talk about.

Dr. Raymond L. Flory, Macollege history professor, will be master of ceremonies for the Birthday Dinner program. One of the program items will be special music and the college.

All students are welcomed to attend the Sunday evening dinner.

The church social committee takes charge of the food arrangements and families of the church bring double portions of food to include students as their guests.

Discussions held last night following the meal served by the Macollege Freshman Sunday School class were the last in the Thursday evening series for the current School of Missions.

Leaders for the discussions on the theme of "The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World" were Melvin Christy, X. L. Coppock, Marvin Krebbel, and Paul Wagener for the adults.

Others were Miss Doris Coppock, youth; Miss Betty Holderrad, junior high; Mrs. X. L. Coppock and Mrs. Wilbur Ediger, juniors; and Mrs. Raymond Flory and Mrs. Paul Wagener, primaries.

Second part of the double-headed theme was "The American Indian." This part of the theme was carried out mostly on Sunday evenings. The first Sunday, Rev. Harry K. Zeller talked about the "Foreign Missionary Policy Statement," "Song of the Shining Mountain," a film, was presented the next Sunday evening.

Dr. Mohler's history of the North American Indian followed last Sunday night, and Miss Hanagarne's talk this Sunday evening will be the last of the series on the Indians.

Prof. Paul V. Sollenberger has been the general chairman of this year's school.

Women's Council Sponsors Feb. Heart Sister Week

Heart Sister Week will be held Feb. 7-14. Betty Holderrad, president of Women's Council, has announced. Heart Sister Week is an annual affair which is sponsored by the Women's Council.

On Feb. 7, after chapel names will be drawn by the women students, women members of the faculty, and faculty wives in order that each girl may select her heart sister.

Every day during the week each girl will do kind deeds for her heart sister without her knowing who is doing the kind deed. The price of gifts that are given are to be kept under a dime.

Feb. 14, Valentine's Day, at 8 p.m. in the social rooms of the College Church, the Valentine's party will be held. Each girl will bring a nicer gift to the party for her heart sister and her name will be revealed.

The program will be part narration and part recreation. The members of the program committee are Ginny Russell, chairman, June Forsythe, Eva Navarro, and Nancy Keim.

The members of the food committee are Arlene Watts, chairman, Elsie Lucore, and Juanita Fike. The girls on the decoration committee are Annie Bergeron, chairman, Lucy Reeves, Mariene Lauver and Virginia Bowers.

Dr. Hess Restored To Room 30-Sharp

While Dr. Maurice Hess, English Dept. teacher, was in the hospital under observation for the amount of insulin he can take, before and during exam week, he was subject to awaken at the early hour of 4:00 a.m. to grade the freshman English exam papers.

Dr. Hess, upon return, stated that he enjoyed himself in the hospital and that he had all but ten of the exam papers graded.

During his stay in the hospital, the Arnold Hall boys sent him flowers. Dr. Hess' reply was posted on the Arnold Hall bulletin board. The note began, "To the Arnold Hall men," and in it he thanks them for the beautiful flowers. He also states that he would be back in Room 30, Monday, January 23, for the 4:45 English section. "Visitors welcome."

New Regime Plans Feature For 'Spec'

The campus paper "The Spectator," will add several new features this semester as it goes under the Editorship of a Colorado English Major, Don Faules.

Kenneth Kinzie, Associate Professor of Art, has been working on a modernized design for the Spectator name plate. This name plate will probably be seen soon on the "Spec's" front page.

Working on a new cartoon which will be related to Macampus life will be senior Virginia Bower as artist, and three other seniors; Norman Long, Leland Lengel, and Bob Burge as the creators of the cartoon.

Coming in with the new semester is a new editorial staff on the Spectator. Don Faules, a senior from Colorado, has moved up to Editor-in-Chief from the position of Managing Editor. Duane Fike, a Sophomore from Kansas, is filling the position vacated by Faules.

The Student Council selected Glenna Hawbaker, a freshman from Iowa as campus editor, Phil Pulliam, a senior from Kansas is serving his second semester as Staff Photographer. Other staff members are Irene Shull, junior from Iowa, as Society Editor. Two men are working on the sports, they are a Colorado senior, George Toews and Rickie Hood, a freshman from Missouri.

This is the tenth year that Mrs. Homer Brunk, Associate Professor of English and Journalism, has served as advisor to the staff.

On the business staff again this semester is Gene Myers, junior from Missouri, as business manager and Bonnie Smith as his assistant. The circulation manager is Dale Shenefelt, junior from Kansas, and Gordon Yoder, college treasurer, is the faculty advisor.

Others who are doing the reporting and writing for the "Spec" are: Dr. D. W. Bittinger, Dick Bittinger, Ruth Davidson, Jim DeVine, Roger Fick, Joan Ford, Beverly Hall, Ruth Hanagarne, Carl Harris, Anne Keim, and Janelle Miller.

'Pinky' Comes To Macollege

The deeply moving story of "Pinky" will be shown at 7:30 p.m., Jan. 25 in the chapel. A caption also will be shown.

This movie is an exposure of racial prejudice as it effects the life of a light complexioned colored girl.

It also shows the inward struggle the underdogs in making her choice between marrying a white doctor and leading a comfortable life in the North or continuing the work for which she had trained in aiding the colored people in the South.

Two Seniors Accepted To K. U. Med School

Bob Vance

The notice of "Application accepted" has meant a great deal to two McPherson seniors. Don Moeller and Robert Vance may now begin their final semester with the knowledge that their preparatory work in the field of medicine shall soon be at an end and they will enter Kansas University Medical School next fall.

Both Vance and Moeller were active in several types of high school and college activities. Robert Vance, as he is recognized by the central office here at McPherson, was born and raised in Twin Falls, Idaho.

His high school activities included athletics and music. He attended the Brethren church in Twin Falls.

In college Vance joined the CBYF and also played football during his freshman year. As a sophomore he obtained an assistantship in chemistry, became a member of the McPherson College Players, and the String Ensemble. In his junior year he continued his already numerous activities. Mr. Vance is a biology major.

Nurse Announces Hour Changes

Betty Arnett, school nurse, announces a change in the hours in which she will be in the infirmary to see college patients. Her office hours will be from 1:15 until 2:20 every day.

The infirmary is located in Dotzour Hall where Betty lives.

Don Moeller

Don was born in Lawrence, Kansas. While in high school he proved his scholarship as well as his athletic abilities. He received letters in football, basketball, and baseball. He was valedictorian of his graduating high school class.

Don, too, as a freshman was a member of the Mac football team. He participated in intramurals; he was elected to the student council and took part in the Chemistry Club.

Baseball, football, intramurals, and the M Club were his chief sophomore activities. Don was again elected to the student council.

Last year Don added track to his list of athletic accomplishments. Last year he was a mainstay of Macollege's best football team.

Don originally planned to become an engineer and to attend Mac only two years. He soon became interested in the biological courses McPherson had to offer. This interest led him to his present wish of following a medical profession. Don is a Chemistry major.

Bittinger To Speak Monday

Mrs. Bittinger is attending the meeting with him.

Shaeffer Speaks To Student Group

Worship In Our World

It has been said that although men fight during war time to protect their ideas of religion and faith it is strange that the same enthusiasm is not shown during peacetime. The following is a report from capitals of the world and their religious status made by American correspondents in Berlin: Today the twin pillars of the Christian belief in the western half of the country are about equally divided, with 24,000,000 Protestants and 22,000,000 Roman Catholics, out of a total population of around 48,000,000. In Communist-ruled East Germany, eight out of 10 people are Protestants and only 6 pct. are listed as "without religious creed."

London: Out of every 100 Britons between 15 and 30 are regular churchgoers. About 35 more will admit that they attend church occasionally. Attention to religion is proportionately higher in Scotland and Wales than in England. In London, it was recently estimated that only 5 pct. of the population ever attends places of worship.

Madrid: The Roman Catholic church is probably as influential in Spain as it has ever been. Yet some Spaniards maintain that the striking increase in church attendance which followed the Spanish Civil War was largely a middle-class custom which happened to be "fashionable." To enter any Roman Catholic church in Madrid on a Sunday, at any time between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m., is physically difficult with every seat taken and every foot of standing room occupied.

Vienna: Austria has just emerged from a Communist occupation of half the nation. This followed a Nazi occupation and a war. Yet religion has emerged in spite of these factors. In this country 94 pct. of the population is Roman Catholic. By law, every Austrian must pay 1 pct. of his income to the church of his choice. The church plays an important role in the nation's politics.

Geneva: Religion in Switzerland presents as varied a picture as the little country itself. There are Protestant cantons and Catholic can-tons, but the former are more numerous, more populous — and more wealthy. In Geneva, the home of Calvin, there are 100,000 Protestants, 92,000 Roman Catholics and about 5,000 belonging to sundry sects. Some 18,000 people profess no religion. Churchgoing by Catholics is high. But the Protestant sects have encountered stiff competition for attendance from movies, football matches, and especially skiing.

Nice, France: Religion experiences strange handlings on the cosmopolitan Riviera. In Riviera "society" it is good form to attend mass on Sunday. It is as much of a social as a religious occasion and the cathedrals and bigger churches are packed. In the smaller, local churches, however, the story is different. Sunday is the busiest day of the week for the business and working population. Shops and market places are all open until midday and while the menfolk through the cafes and bars, housewives are shopping and preparing the Sunday meal.

New York: Church attendance has been rising in the U. S. The number of people that go to church "most Sundays" rose from 39 in 1950 to 47 pct. in 1954, says the National Council of Churches. About six American in 10 believe in God, according to the National Conference of Christians and Jews. The U. S. population of 159,000,000 includes 55,827,000 Protestants, 31,476,000 Catholics and approximately 6,000,000 Jews. The largest Protestant groups are the Baptists (17,291,800), the Methodists (11,642,000) and the Lutherans (6,609,000).

Biggest Sunday attendance among Catholics is 72 pct., among Protestants 40 pct., according to the American Institute of Public Opinion. But synagogue attendance is low and falling, except among first generation Americans.

Churchgoing is heaviest in the over 40 group — except among Catholics and southern Negroes. Some church leaders warn that except among these two groups, churchgoing is, for many, a matter of convention and of "meeting the Joneses."

Council Changes Initiation By-Laws

The Student Council has announced an amendment to the by-laws of the constitution which are concerned with the freshman initiation policy at McPherson college. Several changes in the article have been made to fulfill the needs of the new policy.

There is to be an initiation committee which is to be chosen by the Student Court. The committee, consisting of two juniors, two sophomores, two freshmen, and the dean of students, shall have charge of all freshman activities. The student members are to be selected by the Student Court on or before April 15th. Those elected take office immediately.

Among the other provisions is the change of green and white to McPherson's own red and white colors. The beanies go on sale at least three days prior to the wearing date set by the committee. The beanies are to be worn for a period not to exceed two weeks.

Perhaps the most significant change is the addition of nameplates or identification tags to the froth equipment. All other aspects of the old by-law seem unchanged.

Frantz Announces Teacher Vacancies

Students interested in enrolling do so at once, Prof. Merlin Frantz states. Vacancies have already come into the bureau from seven states.

Within the next several weeks, representatives from various school systems will be visiting on campus. Dates of their arrival and where they are from have been listed as follows: Jan. 31, Topeka, Kans.; Feb. 3, Scott City, Kans.; Feb. 7, Denver, Colo., and Wakeeney, Kas.

Anyone wishing to interview these representatives should see the Placement Bureau immediately. Professor Frantz has stated, Enrollment blanks for the Placement Bureau can be obtained in the Alumni Office.

Schools turning in vacancies are interested in the credentials of prospective teachers. Students wishing placement help from the college need to enroll in order that their credentials may be prepared.

Beginning this year, there is a division in the Placement Bureau. Prof. Merlin Frantz is in charge of teacher placements, and Alumni Secretary Wagoner is in charge of other placements.

Zeller Gives Morning Topic "Idols in the Heart" is the sermon topic for Sunday morning, Jan. 29. The Rev. Harry K. Zeller, Jr., will bring this message.

Sunday evening's service will be the birthday dinner in connection with the closing of the annual School of Missions.

Prof. Guy Hayes will teach Advanced Speech and/or Oratory.

Most of the students who enroll for night classes are special students, but regular students may enroll by special permission from Dean James N. Berkebile.

Youth Convene Here In March

Regional Youth Conference, which is annually held on the McPherson Campus, will take place from March 8-11. Brethren youth from the Western Region will enroll for programs based around the chosen theme "Why Take Hold."

Rev. Roger L. Fredrickson, Minister of the First Baptist Church of Ottawa, Kans., will serve as the main speaker. He is a noted lecturer and Western Region at Ottawa University. Some topics of Rev. Fredrickson's addresses will be "Why Take Hold?", "Taking Hold in Faith", and "Taking Hold in Action."

Guest leaders have planned special programs of interest. Dr. Bittinger will be the leader of a daily "Bible Hour." "Experiences of a Peace Maker" will be the topic of a talk given by Dr. Maurice A. Hess. Eula Mae Murrey will relate some of her international experiences. Other leaders are Floyd Zantz, Kansas City, Mo., and Wilcox Hoover, Enders, Neb.

During the conference, the districts will be in charge of daily worship programs.

Special feature of the conference will be the play, "Ring Around Elizabeth" by the College Player's Club on Friday evening, March 9.

Saturday morning, March 10, the Regional President will be elected. That evening Dr. Fredrickson will be guest speaker on the topic "The Fellowship of the Unshamed." Duane Fike, McPherson sophomore and well known comedian on campus, will tackle the job of master of ceremonies.

Pondering With The President What Did I Get Out Of It?

Examinations are now over for the first semester. With sweat and worry we have completed them. Now that we have completed a semester of college, or another semester of college, it is appropriate to ask, "what did I get out of it?"

1. I got several hours of credit from each of the courses which I took.

This of course is valuable for I want to graduate from college and cannot do so until I have accumulated a certain number of credits. By passing these courses, I have moved in that direction.

2. I have added to my sense of achievement.

I wondered whether I could do college work successfully. Now that I have completed these courses, I confirm that I can. This gives me a valid sense of achievement. Not all people can do college work successfully. Therefore, I can take my stand with greater confidence among my fellows since I have this further evidence of my ability.

3. I have acquired some knowledge of a new subject, or further knowledge of a subject in which I am interested. I have grown. This really is the most important achievement, the others are incidental to this.

4. But did I get enough out of my courses?

Did the little knowledge which I was able to achieve in this short time in a particular course open for me avenues of inquiry which will cause me to seek further knowledge throughout the rest of my life? Was this course an opening door into a room of interesting information? Did I really try to discover, through the opportunities offered me in the courses I now have completed, something of the much vaster storehouse of information which I might have laid hold of?

Did I simply get by, or rather did I really get started? Did I fool anybody but myself if I did not work as hard as I might have?

It is a great satisfaction to a teacher to know that his students took the courses he taught not because they had to but because they wanted to; that they did the assigned readings and made the assigned studies not chiefly because they were required but also because they found delight in learning and growing; that they went beyond what he asked them to do and made studies in a broader scope than was required; that they have begun a line of study and an interest which will add enrichment to their lives.

We are starting the second semester. How many of us will just get by? How many of us will push open the doors that stand before us and enter into greater fields of knowledge and growth?

Debaters Pasted At WJC

Three debating teams attended the William Jewell Debate Tournament at Liberty, Mo., on Saturday, Jan. 14. These were Don Faules and Don Ulom, Mary Lu Wise and Norris Harms, and Dick Bittinger and Lyall Sherred.

The debaters left the campus at 4 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 13, and returned on the following evening. Four out of twelve debates were won.

Mrs. Clifford George, a cousin of Don Ulom, made overnight arrangements for the group and provided a meal for them.

In Appreciation

With deep pleasure I express my sincere appreciation for the gorgeous flowers sent to me by the men of Arnold Hall and also for those from the Brunk family, the Buskirk family, and the faculty during my nine-day vacation in the McPherson County Hospital.

I also appreciated the cards and visits of many students, faculty, and friends.

I am deeply indebted to those who conducted my classes and examination in my absence and also to the efficient care of the staff of the McPherson County Hospital.

With the continued help of all of you, I hope to be able to render further useful service to the college.

Very sincerely,
Maurice A. Hess

Campus Whirl

Macampus is settling down to second semester as grades for the first semester come out while students are in the process of falling into line of studying or not studying as the case may be. Books begin to lose their newness and professors let their red pencils have a brief rest.

Members of the varsity male quartet; Leland Lengel, Max Farinelly, Forrest Kruschwitz, Dwight Blough, are singing at two high schools in Nickerson today. Sunday they are scheduled to appear at Topeka and Lone Star.

Jim Craig, McPherson College graduate in '54 who is working on his masters at K-State, will be visiting Macampus; this week during the semester break at Manhattan. Jim Craig and Lucille Hobson, Macollege senior, have announced June 24 as their wedding day. The couple will be married in Lucille's home town of Jackson, Miss.

Quarantined

Curtis Broadwater, sophomore from Preston, Minn., was a patient in Dotzour Hall's infirmary this week, having been admitted with the mumps. Galn Stucky interrupted his semester exam, by coming down with the chicken pox. Dr. Maurice Hess graded freshman English tests while a patient in the McPherson County Hospital for observation.

Word has been received by Forrest Kruschwitz, sophomore from Grundy Center, Iowa, that his brother is playing a role in one-act play, "The Potboilers" being given by the Grundy Center High School. Forrest played a role in the same play given on Macampus this week under the direction of Max Parmley.

A number of Macollege students have changed residents during the past week. Eight girls leaving Dotzour Hall opened up vacancies which started a chain of roommate switching. Similar trading around was done in Fahnestock and Arnold with a large number of fellows moving into apartments on college hill.

Ruth Hanagarne will be in Wichita this week end visiting her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hobson.

During the semester break just past a number of college students were off campus visiting friends and relatives at home and other areas. Traveling to Southeast Kansas were Lyle and Doyle Neher.

Fee, Frantz Visit Macollege Grads

Dr. Marv Fee, Dean of Women, and Merlin Frantz, assistant professor of education and psychology, visited in Topeka on Thursday, Jan. 26. Visiting was to the beginning teachers who have graduated from Macollege and was a part of the college's follow-up program.

Prof. Frantz and Dr. Fee also visited the Southwestern College campus on Jan. 5 to view their block system of student teaching.

Brotherhood Board Debate Yuba City Relief Projects

President D. W. Bittinger was in Elgin, Ill., Jan. 16-17, attending the executive meeting of the General Brotherhood Board.

One item of news the board worked on was the decision to send twenty Brethren volunteers to Yuba City, Calif., to help with the relief work in the flood area.

Joe Dell, a Macollege graduate is to be the director. Also, among these twenty volunteers there are some others who are Macollege graduates. The exact list of persons has not been sent out yet.

Dr. Bittinger stated that the flood in Yuba City is said to be the worst flood in the United States history.

Workshop Analyzes Needs Of Student Religious Life

"To analyze and evaluate the religious needs of students on our campus" was the purpose of the Religious Life Workshop held at the McPherson Church of the Brethren on Friday, Jan. 20.

Beginning at 9:30 a.m., members of the SCA cabinet kept the three-point outlined program moving throughout the day. These three general points were presentation of existing activities and organizations in the religious life program, needs of the students, and how to meet the needs.

Chairman of the SCA, Marilyn Metzker, was workshop director. Co-chairman Don Colberg was responsible for the morning program with secretary Rita Evans taking charge in the afternoon, and treasurer Ed Butler chairing the evening meeting.

Dr. D. W. Bittinger, president of Macollege, gave the opening address of the workshop on "The Christian of Christian Education." This was followed by reports concerning curricular offerings and the direction and organization of religious activities on campus.

After a discussion of the needs of the students and how to meet these needs, the group broke up into the four key discussion groups of the day. The first group discussed activities and organizations and curricular offerings under the leadership of Dr. Wesley DeCoursey.

Dr. Raymond L. Flory led a second group on the yearly overall program and philosophy and goals. Leading a third group on the relationship to college churches was Dr. Burton Metzler, Bible instructor of the college.

Glenn Swinger, director of public relations, led the fourth group in discussing the personal needs of students.

During the evening session, the organizational framework of other colleges was studied. This was followed by a general group discussion out of which a recommendation came.

It was recommended that a representative life committee consist of four students elected by the student body, one student from each of the existing religious organizations, and two faculty members to be appointed by the president of the college.

This group at present will be the SCA cabinet of the religious life director, Prof. Dick Wareham. Others will be one representative to be chosen from each of the existing cabinets of religious organizations and one faculty member to be appointed by Dr. Bittinger in the near future.

After this group has met, it will bring recommendations back to the group which met last Friday before any recommendations are brought before the Student Council and the student body.

A total of five faculty members including Dr. Bittinger, Dr. Metzler, Glenn Swinger, Dr. Flory, Dr. DeCoursey, and Professor Wareham and twenty-seven students, cabinet members of the religious organizations, attended the workshop. Wareham reports that the general response of the attendees was very favorable.

Meals which were served to the group by Ruth and Donna Davidson, were followed by group singing and recreation.

The games were officiated by Roland Wray and Bill Mollhagen. Action is just getting underway and all men who are interested in playing should sign the paper in the gym or contact either Jerry McPherson or Bob Wise.

Maccollege B's Undefeated

The McPherson B team is thus far undefeated in conference play this season.

In the preliminary to the January 11 varsity game, George Casebeer led the B Bulldogs with 17 points as they flattened the Bethany B's 62-53. Two days later, the Maccollege B's went all the way to whip the Bethany B's 62-57. Elliott was high man with 13, but the scoring was rather evenly divided among the entire team.

The B Bulldogs have two losses this year. A strong Sterling club beat them in their first game, and they were defeated by an independent Wichita team last Saturday night.

In the preliminary to the January 21 Ottawa game, the Maccollege B's took on the Leigh-Warner Insurance Co. team of Wichita. The Insurance boys cancelled Mac's policy 75-59.

The Wichita club was composed of students at Wichita University, and had a former Mac student, Don Vaughn, as a forward. The Leigh-Warner boys are the First Round YMCA league champions in Wichita.

The center of Leigh-Warner was 6' 6" tall, which makes him the tallest man any Mac team has had to contend with this year.

Bethel Takes Bulldogs 80-45

Friday's 13th proved unlucky for the Maccollege boys, as Bethel downed them 80-45 at the Newton High School gym that night. The Graymaroons seemingly could do no wrong, scoring 10 points before Mac tallied.

Coach Smith's boys stayed cool both halves, averaging only 29 per cent on their shots. Bethel dropped in 34 per cent of their attempts. Bill Smith turned in an exceptionally fine game, doing outstanding defensive work and scoring 23 points.

Intramurals Begin For Women's Ball

The women's intramural basketball program got off to a spirited start Monday night as six teams pitted their talents against one another. First game action saw Marleen Landhuis and team defeat Evelyn Mollhagen's crew in a high scoring tilt 42-35.

In the second game, Arlene Merkey's six took those of Joyce Miller, 34-25. Arlene was high individual scorer with 18 points while Marlene Lauver hit 16 for the losers.

The final game ended with the score at 32-20. Mary Alice Smith's team lost to Betty Holderread's team. High scorer in this game was Kathy McLeod with 25 points. Doris Coppock hit 9 for the losers. The women play on Monday night to prevent conflict with the men's games.

Sports News

By George Toews
Undefeated Bill Russell, K. C. Jones and crew of the San Francisco Dons are still at the top of the AP poll. They are favored to stay undefeated until the NCAA tourney, too.

Pyle Construction is still rolling along in the McPherson Industrial League. Brunk's slipped to second by losing to Pyle's January 12th.

Several Mac boys are playing with the teams in this league: Jay Atwood and Al Gibbons with Warren Lounge; Don Moeller, Bud Rakestraw, Dick Wareham, and Jim Snyder with Brunk's Jewelry; and Bud Wingo with Elliott Motors.

The referees, scorers, and timers are also Mac boys; Cliff Reeves, Merle Rolfs, and Chuck Vance. Bethel beat C of E. Now we'll probably have a new league champion this year. Conference play is almost half over for this season. The lead could still change hands a time or two, with the right kind of upsets.

Kansas' own Clyde Lovellette is making a "comeback" after a couple of slightly shaky years in the NBL. He's in and out of the race for the scoring championship. Right now he's second with 928 points in 42 games. St. Louis' Bob Pettit is holding down the top spot with 942 points in 40 games.

Ottawa Braves Scalp Bulldogs In 97-71 Romp

The Ottawa-McPherson Home Floor jinx got another boost Saturday evening, January 21, as Ottawa pasted the Bulldogs 97-71.

The Braves had won only one game, losing 12, before meeting Mac, but they seemed to have no trouble scoring.

Ottawa scored twice before McPherson got going. The Bulldogs then got the range and pulled ahead 64. The Braves scored a couple of quick ones to retake the lead, and they were never headed after that.

R. Yingling posted 24 points for the victors. Bill Smith scored 22 of McPherson's total. McPherson was held in effectively by a rough and ready Ottawa defense.

The Ottawa club showed a lot of drive and team spirit, and drew a referee's warning for too much noise from the bench.

The game was being sent to the Ottawa home crowd via KTJO.

Coyotes Whip Bulldogs

On January 25 McPherson went to Kansas Wesleyan University at Salina for the first meeting of these two clubs this season. The final score was Mac 61, Wesleyan 98.

Kansas Wesleyan, with an enrollment of 260, had a 2-2 record this year, holding down third place in the Kansas Conference.

The KW Coyotes are coached by Daffin "Swede" Backstrom. This will be Swede's third year as head basketball coach. In his first year, his team captured the KCAC crown with a 10 and 4 record. Last year they ended up tied for second place.

In the 1954-55 season, the purple and gold defeated McPherson twice, 114-93 and 98-80.

Carroll Cyr, a 6 ft., 180 lb. senior who is also a returning letterman, stands fourth in the list of KCAC scoring leaders. Last year he had a 16.5 point per game average, and was second high scorer on the Wesleyan team. Jerry Weis, also a returning letterman, hit 79 field goals out of 167 tries last year, for a 47.3 shooting percentage, the highest on the team.
